THE TRANSLATOURS OF THE Bible, with Grace, Mercy, and Peace, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD.

Great and manifold were the blessings (most dread soveraigne) which almighty GOD, the Father of all mercies, bestowed upon us the people of ENGLAND, when first he sent your Majesties Royall person to rule and reigne over us. For whereas it was the expectation of many, who wished not well unto our SION, that upon the setting of that bright occidentall starre queen ELIZABETH of most happy memory, some thick and palpable clouds of darknesse would so have overshadowed this land, that men should have been in doubt which way they were to walk, and that it should hardly be known, who was to direct the unsetled state: the appearance of your MAJESTIE, as of the sunne in his strength, instantly dispelled those supposed and furnished mists, and gave unto all that were well affected, exceeding cause of comfort, especially when we beheld the government established in your HIGHNES, and your hopefull seed, by an undoubted title, and this also accompanied with peace and tranquillitie at home and abroad.

But amongst all our joyes there was no one that more filled our hearts, then the blessed continuance of the preaching of GODS sacred word amongst us, which is that inestimable treasure, which excelleth all the riches of the earth, because the fruit thereof extendeth it self, not onely to the time spent in this transitory world, but directeth and disposeth men unto that eternall happinesse which is above in heaven.

Then not to suffer this to fall to the ground, but rather to take it up, and to continue it in that state, wherein the famous predecessour of your HIGHNES did leave it: nay, to go forward with the confidence and resolution of a man in maintaining the truth of CHRIST, and propagating it far and neare; is that which hath so bound and firmly knit the hearts of all your MAJESTIES loyall and religious people unto you, that your very name is precious among them, their eye doth behold you with comfort, and they blesse you in their hearts, as that sanctified person, who under GOD, is the immediate authour of their true happinesse. And this their contentment doth not diminish or decay, but every day increaseth and taketh strength, when they observe that the zeal of your MAJESTIE towards the house of GOD, doth not slack or go backward, but is more and more kindled, manifesting it self abroad in the furthest parts of Christendome by writing in defence of the truth, (which hath given such a blow unto that man of sinne, as will not be healed) and every day at home, by religious and learned discourse, by frequenting the house of GOD, by hearing the word preached, by cherishing the teachers thereof, by caring for the church as a most tender and loving nourseing Father.

There are infinite arguments of this right Christian and religious affection in your MAJESTIE: but none is more forcible to declare it to others, then the vehement and perpetuated desire of the accomplishing and publishing of this work, which now with all humilitie we present unto your MAJESTIE. For when your Highnesse had once out of deep judgement apprehended how convenient it was, that out of the originall sacred tongues, together with comparing of the labours, both in our own and other forreigne languages, of many worthy men who went before us, there should be one more exact translation of the holy scriptures into the English tongue; your MAJESTIE did never desist to urge and to excite those to whom it was commended, that the work might be hastened, and that the businesse might be expedited in so decent a manner, as a matter of such importance might justly require.

And now at last, by the mercy of GOD, and the continuance of our labours it being brought unto such a conclusion, as that we have great hope that the church of England shall reap good fruit thereby; we hold it our duty to offer it to your MAJESTIE, not onely as to our king and soveraigne, but as to the principall mover and authour of the work. Humbly craving of your most sacred MAJESTIE, that since things of this qualitie have ever been subject to the censures of ill meaning and discontented persons, it may receive approbation and patronage from so learned and judicious a prince as your HIGHNESSE, whose allowance and acceptance of our labours, shall more honour and encourage us, then all the calumniationes and hard interpretations of other men shall dismay us. So that, if on the one side we shall be traduced by popish persons at home or abroad, who therefore will maligne us, because we are poore instruments to make Gods holy truth to be yet more and more known unto the people, whom they desire still to keep in ignorance and darknesse: or if on the other side, we shall be maligned by self-conceited brethren, who run their own wayes, and give liking unto nothing but what is framed by themselves, and hammered on their anvil; we may rest secure, supported within by the truth and innocency of a good conscience, having walked the wayes of simplicitie and integritie, as before the LORD; and sustained without, by the powerfull protection of your MAJESTIES grace and favour, which will ever give countenance to honest and Christian endeavours, against bitter censures, and uncharitable imputations.

The LORD of heaven and earth bleſſe your Majestie with many and happy dayes, that as his heavenly hand hath enriched your Highnes with many singular and extraordinary graces; so you may be the wonder of the world in this latter age, for happinesse and true felicitie, to the honour of that great GOD, and the good of this church, through JESUS CHRIST our Lord and onely Saviour.

servitude of thy father, and his fore yoke, lighter. Belike he had charged them with some crimes, and troubled them with some carriages; hereupon they raise up a tragedie, and wish in their heart the temple had never been built. So hard a thing it is to please all, even when we please God best, and do seek to approve our selves to every ones confidence.

If we will defend to latter times, we shall finde many the like examples of such kinde or rather unkinde acceptance. The first Romane emperor did never do a more pleasing deed to the learned, nor more profitable to posteritie, for conserving the record of times in true supputation; then when he corrected the calender, and ordered the year according to the course of the sunne: and yet this was imputed to him for novelty, and arrogancy, and procured to him great obloquie. So the first Christianised emperor (at the leastwise that openly professed the faith himself, and allowed others to do the like) for strenghtening the empire at his great charges, and providing for the church, as he did, got for his labour the name Pupillus, as who would say, a wastfull prince, that had need of a guardian or overster. So the best Christianised emperor for the love that he bare unto peace, thereby to enrich both himself and his subjects, and because he did not seek warre but finde it, was judged to be no man at arms, (though indeed he excelled in feats of chivalry, and shewed so much when he was provoked) and condemned for giving himself to his ease, and to his pleasure. To be short, the most learned emperor of former times, (at the least, the greatest politician) what thanks had he for cutting off the superfluities of the laws, and digesting them into some order and method? This, that he hath been blotted by some to be an Epicurist, that is, one that extinguished worthy whole volumes, to bring his abridgements into request. This is the measure that hath been rendered to excellent princes in former times. Cum bene facerent, malè audire. For their good deeds to be evil spoken of. Neither is there any likelihood, that envy and malignity died, and were buried with the ancient. No, no, the reproof of Moles taketh hold of most ages. You are risen up in your fathers stead, an increase of finfull men. What is that that hath been done: that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sunne, saith the wise man: and S. Steven, As your fathers did, so do you. This, and more to this purpose, his Majesty that now reigneth (and long and long may he reigne, and his off-spring for ever, Himself and children and childrens children all wayes) knew full well, according to the singular wisdom given unto him by God, and the rare learning and experience that he hath attained unto: namely that whosoever attempteth any thing for the publique (especially if it pertain to religion, and to the opening and clearing of the word of God) the same setteth himself upon a stage to be glouted upon by every evil eye, yea, he casteth himself headlong upon pikes, to be gored by every sharp tongue. For he that medleth with mens religion in any part, medleth with their custome, yea, with their free-hold; and though they finde no content in that which they have, yet they cannot abide to beare of altering. Notwithstanding his royall heart was not daunted or discouraged for this or that colour, but stood resolute, as a statue immoveable, and an anvil not easy to be beaten into plates, as one saith; he knew who had chosen him to be a souldier, or rather a captain, and being assured that the course which he intended made much for the glory of God, and the building up of his church, he would not suffer it to be broken off for whatsoever speeches or praifises. It doth certainly belong unto kings, yea, it doth specially belong unto them, to have care of religion, yea, to know it aright, yea to profess it zealously, yea, to promote it to the uttermost of their power. This is their glory before all nations which mean well, and this will bring unto them a farre most excellent weight of glory in the day of the Lord Iesus. For the scripture saith not in vain, Them that honour me, I will honour: neither was it a vain word that Eusebius delivered long ago, that piety towards God was the weapon, and the onely weapon that both preserved Constantines person, and avenged him of his enemies.

But now what piety without truth? what truth (what saving truth) without the word of God? what word of God (whereof we may be sure) without the scripture? The scriptures we are commanded to search. John 5.39. Ila. 8.20. They are commanded that searched and studied them. Acts 17.11. and 8.28,29. They are reproved that were unskillfull in them, or slow to beleve them, Mart. 22.29. Luke 24.25. They can make us wise unto salvation. 2.Tim. 3.15. If we be ignorant, they will instruct us; if out of the way, they will bring us home; if out of order, they will reform us; if in heaviness, comfort us; if dull, quicken us; if cold, inflame us. Tolle lege, Tolle lege, Take up and reade, take up and reade the scriptures, (for unto them was the direction) it was said unto S. Augustine by a supernaturall voice. Whatsoever is in the scriptures, beleve me, saith the same S. Augustine, is high and divine; there is verily truth and a doctrine most fit for the refreshing and renewing of mens mindes, and truly so tempered, that every one may draw from thence that which is sufficient for him, if he come to draw with a devout and pious minde, as true religion requireth. Thus S. Augustine. And S. Hierome, Ama scripturas, & amabit te sapientia, &c. Love the scriptures, and wisdom will love thee. And S. Cyrill against Julian, Even boyes that are bred up in the scriptures, become most religious, &c. But what mention we three or foure uses of the scripture, wherein whatsoever is so to be believed or praifised, or hoped for, is contained in them? or three or foure sentences of the fathers, since whosoever is worthy the name of a father, from Christs time downward, hath likewise written not onely of the riches but also of the perfection of the scripture? I adore the fullnesse of the scripture, saith Tertullian against Hermogenes. And again, to Apelles a heretike of the like stamp, he saith, I do not admit that which thou bringest in (or concludest) of thine own (head or store, de tuo) without scripture. So Saint Justin Martyr before him, We must know by all means, saith he, that it is not lawfull (or possible) to learn (any thing) of God or of right piety, save onely out of the prophets, who teach us by divine inspiration. So S. Basil after Tertullian, It is a manifest falling away from the faith, and a fault of presumption, either to reject any of those things that are written, or to bring in (upon the head of them, ἐν τῷ κεφαλῇ) any of those things that are not written. we omit to cite to the same effect, S. Cyrill. B. ἐν τῷ κεφαλῇ of Jerusalem in his 4 Catechis. S. Hierome against Helvidius, Saint Augustine in his third book against the letters of Petilian and in very many other places of his works. Asowe forbear to descend to latter fathers, because we will not weary the reader. The scriptures then being acknowledged to be so full and so perfect, how can we excuse our selves of negligence, if we do not study them? of curiosity, if we be not content with them? Men talk much of * ἀπορώ, how many sweet and goodly things it had hanging on it; of the Philosophers stone, that it turneth copper into gold; of Cornucopia, that it had all things necessary for food in it; of Panaces the herb, that it was good for all diseases; of Castolicon the drug, that it is in stead of all purges; of Vulcans armour, that it was an armour of proof against all thrusts, and all blows, &c. well, that which they falsely or vainly attributed to these things for bodily good, we may justly and with full measure ascribe unto the scripture, for spirituall. It is not onely an armour, but also a whole armory of weapons, both offensive, and defensive; whereby we may save our selves, and put the enemy to flight. It is not an herb, but a tree, or rather a whole paradise of trees of life, which bring forth fruit every moneth, and the fruit thereof is for meat, and the leaves for medicine. It is not a pot of Manna, or a crust of oyl, which were for memory onely, or for a meals meat or two, but as it were a storehouse of heavenly bread sufficient for a whole host, be it never so great, and as it were a whole cellar full of oyl vessels, whereby all our necessities may be provided for, and our debts discharged. In a word, it is a panary of wholesome food, against senesce traditions; a physicians shop (Saint Basil calleth it) of preservatives against poisoned heresies; a pandect of profitable laws, against rebellious spirits; a treasure of most costly jewels, against beggarly rudiments; finally a fountain of most pure water springing up unto everlasting life. And what marvelle! the original thereof being from heaven, not from earth; the author being God, not man; the cadister, the holy Spirit, not the wit of the apostles or prophets; the pen-men such as were sanctified from the wombe, and endowed with a principall portion of Gods Spirit; the master verity, piety, purity, uprightness; the forms, Gods word, Gods testimony, Gods oracles, the word of truth, the word of salvation, &c. the effects, light of understanding, stableness of perswasion, repentance from dead works, newnesse of life, holinesse, peace, joy in the holy Ghost; lastly, the end and reward of the study thereof, fellowship with the saints, participation of the heavenly nature, fruition of an inheritance immortal, undesified, and that never shall fade away: Happy is the man that delighteth in the scripture, and thrice happy that meditateth in it day and night.

But how shall men meditate in that, which they cannot understand? How shall they understand that which is kept close in an unknown tongue? as it is written, Except I know the power of the voice, I shall be to him that speaketh, a Barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be to me a Barbarian. The apostle exceptet two tongues, Hebrew the ancientest, not Greek the most copious, not Latine the fittest. Nature taught a naturall man to confesse, that all of us in those tongues which we do not understand, are plainly deaf; we may turn the deaf eare unto them. The Scythian counted the Athenian, whom he did not understand, barbarous; so the Romane did the Syrian, and the Jew, (even Saint Hierome himself calleth the Hebrew tongue barbarous, belike because it was strange to so many) so the emperor of Constantinople calleth the Latine tongue, barbarous, though Pope Nicolas do frowne at it: so the Jews long before Christ, called all other nations, Lognasim, which is little better then barbarous. Therefore as one complaineth that alwayes in the senate of Rome, there was one or other that called for an interpreter: so lest the church be driven to the like exigent, it is necessary to have translations in a readinesse. Translation it is that openeth the window, to let in the light; that breaketh the shell, that we may eat the kernel; that putteth aside the curtain, that we may look into the most holy place; that removeth the cover of the well, that we may come by water, even as Jacob rolled away the stone from the mouth of the well, by which means the flocks of Laban were watered. Indeed without translation into the vulgar tongue, the unlearned are but like children at Jacobs well (which was deep) without a bucket or something to draw with: or as that person mentioned by Esay, to whom when a sealed book was delivered, with this motion, Reade this, I pray thee, he was faine to make this answer, I cannot, for it is sealed.

while God should be knowne lonely in Jacob, and have his name great in Israel, and in none other place.

place, while the dew lay on Gideons fleece onely, and all the earth besides was dry; then for one and the same people, which spake all of them the language of Canaan, that is, Hebrew, one and the same originall in Hebrew was sufficient. But when the fullness of time drew neare, that the Summe of righteousness, the Sonne of God should come into the world, whom God ordained to be a reconciliation thorough faith in his blood, not of the Jew onely, but also of the Greek, yea, of all them that were scattered abroad; then so, it pleased the Lord to stirre up the spirit of a Greek prince (Greek for descent and language) even of Ptolemee Philadelph king of Egypt, to procure the translating of the book of God out of Hebrew into Greek. This is the translation of the Seventie interpreters, commonly so called, which prepared the way for our Saviour among the Gentiles by written preaching, as Saint John baptist did among the Jews by vocall. For the Grecians being desirous of learning, were not wont to suffer books of worth to lie moulding in kings libraries, but had many of their servants, ready scribes, to copie them out, and so they were dispersed and made common. Again, the Greek tongue was well known and made familiar to most inhabitants in Asia, by reason of the conquests that there the Grecians had made, as also by the colonies, which thither they had sent. For the same causes also it was well understood in many places of Europe, yea, and of Africk too. Therefore the word of God being set forth in Greek, becometh hereby like a candle set upon a candlestick, which giveth light to all that are in the house, or like a proclamation founded forth in the market place, which most men presently take knowledge of; and therefore that language was fittest to contain the Scriptures, both for the first preachers of the gospel to appeal unto for witnesse, and for the learners also of those times to make search and triall by. It is certain, that that translation was not so sound and so perfect, but that it needed in many places correction; and who had been so sufficient for this work as the apostles or apostolike men? Yet it seemed good to the holy Ghost and to them, to take that which they found, (the same being for the greatest part true and sufficient) rather then by making a new, in that new world and green age of the church, to expose themselves to many exceptions and cavillations, as though they made a translation to serve their own turn, and therefore bearing witnesse to themselves, their witnesse not to be regarded. This may be supposed to be some cause, why the translation of the Seventy was allowed to passe for current. Notwithstanding, though it was commended generally, yet it did not fully content the learned, no not of the Jews. For not long after Christ, Aquila felt in hand with a new translation, and after him Theodotion, and after him Symmachus: yea, there was a fifth and a sixth edition, the authors whereof were not known. These with the Seventy made up the Hexapla, and were worthily and to great purpose compiled together by Origen. Howbeit the edition of the Seventy went away with the credit, and therefore not onely was placed in the midst by Origen (for the worth and excellency thereof above the rest, as Epiphanius gathereth) but also was used by the Greek fathers for the ground and foundation of their commentaries. Yea, Epiphanius abovenamed doth attribute so much unto it, that he holdeth the authors thereof not onely for interpreters, but also for prophets in some respect: and Justinian the emperor enjoying the Jews his subjects to use especially the traslation of the Seventy, rendreth this reason thereof, because they were as it were enlightened with prophetical grace. Yet for all that, as the Egyptians are said of the prophet to be men and not God, and their horses flesh and not spirit: so it is evident, (and Saint Hierome affirmeth as much) that the Seventy were interpreters, they were not prophets; they did many things well, as learned men; but yet as men they stumbled and fell, one while through oversight, another while through ignorance, yea, sometimes they may be noted to adde to the originall, and sometimes to take from it; which made the apostles to leave them many times, when they left the Hebrew, and to deliver the sense thereof according to the truth of the word, as the Spirit gave them utterance. This may suffice touching the Greek translations of the old testament.

There were also within a few hundred yeares after Christ, translations many into the Latine tongue: for this tongue also was very fit to convey the law and the gospel by, because in those times very many countreys of the west, yea of the south, east, and north, spake or understood Latine, being made provinces to the Romans. But now the Latine translations were too many to be all good, for they were infinite (Latini interpretes nullo modo numerari possunt, saith Saint Augustine) Again, they were not out of the Hebrew fountain (we speak of the Latine translations of the old testament) but out of the Greek stream, therefore the Greek being not altogether clear, the Latine derived from it must needs be muddy. This moved Saint Hierome a most learned father, and the best linguist without controversy, of his age, or of any that went before him, to undertake the translating of the old testament out of the very fountains themselves; which he performed with that evidence of great learning, judgement, industry, and faithfulness, that he hath for ever bound the church unto him in a debt of speciall remembrance and thankfulness.

Now though the church were thus furnished with Greek and Latine translations, even before the faith of Christ was generally embraced in the empire: (for the learned know, that even in Saint Hieromes time, the consul of Rome and his wife were both Ethnicks, and about the same time the greatest part of the senate also) yet for all that the godly learned were not content to have the scriptures in the lan-for their countrey men, insomuch that most nations under heaven did shortly after their conversion, heare Christ speaking unto them in their mother tongue, not by the voice of their minister only, but also by the written word translated. If any doubt hereof, he may be satisfied by examples now, if enow will serve the turn. First, Saint Hierome saith, Multarum gentium linguis scriptura ante translata, S. Hieron. pref.

 scripture into the Dalmatian tongue, but also Sixtus Senensis, and Alphonsus à Castro (that we Six. Sen. lib. 4. speak of no more) men not to be excepted against by them of Rome, doingenuously confesse as much. So Alph. à Castro Saint Chrysostome that lived in Saint Hieromes time, giveth evidence with him: The doctrine of lib. 1. cap. 23.
 Saint John (saith he) did not in such sort (as the Philosophers did) vanish away: but the Syrians, S. Chrysost. in Egyptians, Indians, Persians, Ethiopians, and infinite other nations being barbarous people, Joann. cap. 1.
 translated it into their (mother) tongue, and have learned to be (true) Philosophers, be meaneth Christians. To this may be added Theodoret, as next unto him, both for antiquitie, and for learning. Theodoret. 5.
 His words be these. Every countrey that is under the sunne, is full of these words (of the Apostles Therapeut. and Prophets) and the Hebrew tongue (be meaneth the scriptures in the Hebrew tongue) is turned not onely into the language of the Grecians, but also of the Romanes, and Egyptians, and Persians, and Indians, and Armenians, and Scythians, and Sauromarians, and briefly into all the languages that any nation useth. So be. In like manner, Ulpilas is reported by Paulus Dia- P. Diacon. lib. 12.

 king Richard the seconds dayes, John Trevisa translated them into English, and many English bibles verum German. in written hand are yet to be seen with divers, translated, as it is very probable, in that age. So the Syrian lib. 2.
 translation of the New Testament is in most learned mens libraries, of Widmünstadius his setting forth, Beroald.
 and the psalter in Arabick is with many, of Augustinus Nebiensis setting forth. So Postel affirmeth, Thuan.
 that in his travell he saw the gospels in the Ethiopian tongue: And Ambrose Theiss alledgeth the psalter of the Indians, which he testifieth to have been set forth by Porckes in Syrian characters. So that to have the scriptures in the mother tongue is not a quaint conceit lately taken up: either by the Lord Cromwell in England, or by the Lord Radevil in Polonie, or by the Lord Ugonadus in the emperours dominions, but hath been thought upon, and put in practise of old, even from the first times of the conversion of any nation; no doubt, because it was esteemed most profitable, to cause faith to grow in mens hearts the sooner, and to make them to be able to say with the words of the Psalme, As we have heard, so we have seen.

Now the church of Rome would seem as the length to bear a motherly affection towards her children, and to allow them the scriptures in the mother tongue: but indeed it is a gift, not deserving to be called a gift, an unprofitable gift: they must first get a license in writing before they may use them, and to get that, they must approve themselves to their Confessor, that is, to be such as are, if not frozen in the dregs, yet soured with the leaven of their superstition. Howbeit it seemed too much to Clement the 8. that there should be any license granted to have them in the vulgar tongue, and therefore he overruled and frustrateth the grant of Pius the fourth. So much are they afraid of the light of the scripture, (Lucifuge scripturam, as Tertullian speaketh) that they will not trust the people with it, no not as it is set forth by their own sworn men, no not with the licence of their own bishops and inquisitors. Yea, so unwilling they are to communicate the scriptures to the peoples understanding in any sort, that they are not affe-med to confesse, that we forced them to translate it into English against their wills. This seemeth to argue a bad cause, or a bad conscience, or both. Sure we are, that it is not be that hath good gold, that is afraid to bring it to the touch-stone, but be that hath the counterfeit, neither is it the true man that shineth the light, but the counterfeit, left his deeds should be reproved: neither is it the plain dealing merchant that is unwilling to have the weights, or the meycard brought in place, but be that iseth deceit. But we will let them alone for this fault, and return to translation.

Many mens mouths have been open a good while (and yet are not stopped) with speeches about the translation so long in hand, or rather perusals of translations made before: and ask what may be the reason, what the necessitie of the employment: Hath the church been deceived, say they, all this while? Hath her sweet bread been mingled with leaven, her silver with dross, her wine with water, her milk with lime? (Laſte gyplum male miscetur, saith Saint Ireney) we hoped that we had been in the right way, that we had had the Oracles of God delivered unto us, and that though all the world had cause to be offended and to complain, yet that we had none. Hath the nurse holden out the breast, and nothing but winde in it? Hath the bread been delivered by the fathers of the church, and the same proved to be lapidus, as Seneca speaketh? what is it to handle the word of God deceitfully, if this be not? Thus certain brethren. Also the adversaries of Judah and Hierusalem, like Sanballat in Nehemiah, mock as we beare, both as the work and workmen, saying, What do these weak Jews, &c. will they make the stones whole again out of the heaps of dust which are burnt? although they build, yet if a fox go up, he shall even break down their stonie wall. Was their translation good before? why do they now mend it? Was it not good? why then was it obtruded to the people? Yea, why did the catholicks (meaning Popish Romanists) alwayes goin jeopardie, for refusing to go to beare it? Nay, if it must be translated into English, catholicks are fittest to do it. They have learning, and they know when a thing is well, they can manum de tabula. We will answer them both briefly: And the former, being brethren, thus, with Saint Hierome, Damnamus veteres? Minimè, sed post priorum studia in domo Domini quod possumus laboramus. That is, Do we condemne the ancient? in no case: but after the endeavours of them that were before us, we take the best pains we can in the house of God. As if he said, Being provoked by the example of the learned that lived before my time, I have thought it my duty, to assay whether my talent in the knowledge of the tongues, may be profitable in any measure to Gods church, lest I should seem to have laboured in them in vain, and lest I should be thought to glory in men, (although ancient) above that which was in them. Thus Saint Hierome may be thought to speak.

And to the same effect say we, that we are so farre off from condemning any of their labours that travelled before us in this kinde, either in this land or beyond sea, either in king Henries time, or king Edwards (if there were any translation, or correction of a translation in his time) or queen Elizabeths of their ever renowned memory, that we acknowledge them to have been raised up of God, for the building and furnishing of his church, and that they deserve to be had of us and of posterity in everlasting remembrance. The judgement of Aristotle is worthy and well known: If Timotheus had not been, we had not had much sweet musick: but if Phrynis (Timotheus his master) had not been, we had not had Timotheus. Therefore blessed be they, and most honoured be their name, that break the ice, and give the onset upon that which helpeth forward to the saving of souls. Now what can be more available thereto, then to deliver Gods book unto Gods people in a tongue which they understand? Since of an hidden treasure, and of a fountain that is sealed, there is no profit, as Ptolemee Philadelph wrote to the Rabbins or masters of the Jews, as witnesseth Epiphanius: and as S. Augustine saith, A man had rather be with his dog then with a stranger (whose tongue is strange unto him) Yet for all that, as nothing is begun and perfected at the same time, and the latter thoughts are thought to be the wiser: so, if we building upon their foundation that went before us, and being holpen by their labours, do endeavour to make that better which they left so good; no man, we are sure, hath cause to mislike us; they, we persuade our selves, if they were alive, would thank us. The vintage of Abiezer, that strake the stroke: yet the gleanings of grapes of Ephraim was not to be despised. See Judges 8. vers. 2. Joash the king of Israel did not satisfie himself, till he had smitten the ground three times; and yet be offended the prophet, for giving over then. Aquila, of whom we spake before, translated the bible as carefully, and as skilfully as he could; and yet he thought good to go over it again, and then it got the credit with the Jews, to be called xai angelen, that is, accurately done, as S. Hierome witnesseth. How many books of profane learning have been gone over again and again, by the same translatours, by others? Of one and the same book of Aristotles Ethikes, there are extant not so few as six or seven severall translations. Now if this cost may be bestowed upon the good, which affordeth us a little shade, and which to day flourisheth, but to morrow is cut down; what may we bestow, nay what ought we not to bestow upon the vine, the fruit whereof maketh glad the conscience of man, and the stemme whereof abideth for ever? And this is the word of God, which we translate. What is the chaff to the wheat, saith the Lord? Tanti vitreum, quanti verum margaritum (saith Terullian) if a toy of glasse be of that reckoning with us, how ought we to value the true pearle? Therefore let no mans eye be evil, because his majesties is good; neither let any be grieved, that we have a prince that seeketh the increase of the spirituall wealth of Israel; (let Sanballats and Tobiahs do so, which therefore do bear their just reproof) but let us rather blesse God from the ground of our heart, for working this religious care in him, to have the translations of the bible maturely considered of and examined. For by this means it cometh to passe, that whosoever is found already (and all is found for substance, in one or other of our editions, and the worst of ours farre better then their authenticke vulgar) the same will shine as gold more brightly, being rubbed and polished also, if any thing be halting, or superfluous, or not so agreeable to the originall, the same may be corrected, and the truth set in place. And what can the king command to be done, that will bring him more true honour then this? And wherein could they that have been set a work, approve their duty to the king, yea their obedience to God, and love to his saints more, then by yeelding their service, and all that is wishin them, for the furnishing of the work? But besides all this, they were the principall motives of it, and therefore ought least to quarrell it. For the very historickall truth is, that upon the importunate petitions of the puritanes, at his majesties coming to this crown, the conference at Hampton court having been appointed for hearing their complaints: when by force of reason they were put from all other grounds, they had recourse at the last, to this shift, that they could not with good conscience subscribe to the communion book, since it maintained the bible as it was there translated, which was, as they said, a most corrupted translation. And although this was judged to be but a very poore and empty shift, yet even hereupon did his majesty begin to thinke himself of the good that might ensue by a new translation, and presently after gave order for this translation which is now presented unto thee. Thus much to satisfie our scrupulous brethren.

A facit Ed. to our brethren.

To the reader.

Now to the latter we answer, that we do not deny, nay we affirm and avow, that the very meanest translation of the bible in English, set forth by men of our profession (for we have seen none of theirs of the whole bible as yet) containeth the word of God, nay, is the word of God. As the kings speech which be uttered in parliament, being translated into French, Dutch, Italian and Latine, is still the kings speech, though it be not interpreted by every translatour with the like grace, nor peradventure so fitly for phrase, nor so exprefly for sense, every where. For it is confessed, that things are to take their denomination of the greater part, and a naturall man could say, Verum ubi multa nitent in carmine, non ego paucis offendor maculis, &c. A man may be counted a vertuous man, though he have made many slips in his life, (else there were none vertuous, for in many things we offend all) also a comely man and lovely, though he have some warts upon his hand, yea, not onely freckles upon his face, but also scarrs. No cause therefore why the word translated should be denied to be the word, or forbidden to be current, notwithstanding that some imperfections and blemishes may be noted in the setting forth of it. For what ever was perfect under the same, where apostles or apostlike men, that is, men endued with an extraordinary measure of Gods Spirit, and privileged with the privilege of infallibility, had not their hand? The Romanists therefore in refusing to heare, and daring to burn the word translated, did no lesse then despise the Spirit of grace from whom originally it proceeded, and whose sense and meaning, as well as mans weakness would enable, it did expresse. Judge by an example or two. Plutarch writeth, that after that Rome had been burnt by the Gallies, they fell soon to build it again; but doing it in haste, they did not cast the streets, nor proportion the houses in such comely fashion, as had been most sightly and convenient: was Cariline therefore an honest man, or a good patriot, that sought to bring it to a combustion? or Nero a good prince, that did indeed set it on fire? So, by the story of Ezra, and the prophesie of Haggai it may be gathered, that the temple built by Zerubbabel after the return from Babylon, was by no means to be compared to the former built by Solomon (for they that remembered the former wept when they considered the later) notwithstanding, might this later either have been abhorred and forsaken by the Jews, or profaned by the Greeks? The like we are to thinke of translations. The translation of the Seventy dissenteth from the originall in many places, neither doth it come neare it, for perspicuity, gravity, majesty; yet which of the apostles did can demne it? Condemne it? nay, they used it. (as it is apparent, and as Saint Hierome and most learned men do confesse) which they would not have done, nor by their example of using of it, so grace and commend it to the church, if it had been unworthy the appellation and name of the word of God. And whereas they urge for their second defence of their wilfully and abusing of the English bible, or some pieces thereof, which they meet with, for that heretikes (forsooth) were the authors of the translations, (heretikes they call us by the same right that they call themselves catholikes, both being wrong) we marvel what divinity taught them so. We are sure Tertullian was of another minde: Ex personis probamus fidem, an ex fide personas? Do we try mens faith by their persons? we should try their persons by their faith. Also Saint Augustine was of another minde: for he lighting upon certain rules made by Tychonius a Donatist, for the better understanding of the word, was not ashamed to make use of them, yea, to insert them into his own book, with giving commendation to them so farre forth as they were worthy to be commended, as is to be seen in Saint Augustines third book De doctrina Christiana. To be short, Origen, and the whole church of God for certain hundred yeares, were of another minde: for they were so farre from treading under foot (much more from burning) the translation of Aquila a proselyte, that is, one that had turned Jew; of Symmachus and Theodotion, both Ebionites, that is, most vile heretikes, that they joyned them together with the Hebrew originall, and the translation of the Seventy (as hath been before signified out of Epiphanius) and set them forth openly to be considered of and perused by all. But we weary the unlearned, who need not know so much, and trouble the learned, who know it already.

Yet before we end, we must answer a third cavill and objection of theirs against us, for altering and amending our translations so oft; wherein truly they deal hardly, and strangely with us. For to whom ever was it imputed for a fault (by such as were wise) to go over that which he had done, and to amend it where he saw cause? S. Augustine was not afraid to exhort Saint Hierome to a Palinodia or recantation: the same S. Augustine was not ashamed to retractate, we might say, revoke, many things that had passed him; and doth even glory that he seeth his infirmities. If we will be sommes of the truth, we must consider what it speaketh, and trample upon our own credit, yea, and upon other mens too, if either be any way an hindrance to it. This to the cause: then to the persons we say, that of all men they ought to be most silent in this case. For what varieties have they, and what alterations have they made, not onely of their service-books, portesses and breviaries, but also of their Latine translation? The service book supposed to be made by Saint Ambrose (Officium Ambrosianum) was a great while in speciall use and request: but Pope Hadrian calling a counsell with the aid of Charles the emperor, abolished it, yea, burnt it, and commanded the service-book of Saint Gregory universally to be used: well, Officium Gregorianum gets by this means to be in credit, but doth it continue without change or altering? No, the very Romane service was of two fashions, the new fashion, and the old, (the one used in one church, the other in another) as is to be seen in Pamelius a Romanist, his preface, before Micrologus. The same Pamelius reporteth out of Radulphus de Rivo, that about the yeare of our Lord 1277. Pope Nicolas the third removed out of the churches of Rome, the more ancient books (officiorum) and brought into use the missals of the friers Ordinaries, and commanded them to be observed there; insomuch that about an hundred yeares after, when the abovenamed Radulphus happened to be at Rome, he found all the books to be new, of the new stamp. Neither was there this chopping and changing in the more ancient times onely, but also of late: Pius Quintus himself confesseth, that every bishoprick almost had a peculiar kinde of service, most unlike to that which others had: which moved him to abolish all other breviaries, though never so ancient, and privileged and published by bishops in their diocesses, and to establish and ratifie that onely which was of his own setting forth, in the yeare 1568. Now when the father of their church, who gladly would heal the sore of the daughter of his people softly and sleightly, and make the best of it, findeth so great fault with them for their odds and jarring, we hope the children have no great cause to vaunt of their uniformity. But the difference that appeareth between our translations, and our often correcting of them, is the thing that we are specially charged with; let us see therefore whether they themselves be without fault this way, (if it be to be counted a fault, to correct) and whether they be fit men to throw stones at us: O tandem major parcas infame minor: they that are lesse sound themselves, ought not to object infirmities to others. If we should tell them that Valla, Stapulentis, Erasmus, and Vives, found fault with their vulgar translation, and consequently, wished the same to be mended, or a new one to be made, they would answer peradventure that we produced their enemies for witnesses against them; albeit, they were in no other sort enemies, then as Saint Paul was to the Galatians, for telling them the truth: and it were to be wished, that they had dared to tell it them plainlier and ofmer. But what will they say to this, that Pope Leo the tenth allowed Erasmus translation of the new testament, so much different from the vulgar, by his apostolike letter and bull: That the same Leo exhorted Pagnin to translate the whole bible, and bare whatsoever charges were necessary for the worke? Surely, as the apostle reasoneth to the Hebrews, that if the former law and testament had been sufficient, there had been no need of the latter: so we may say, that if the old vulgar had been at all points allowable, to small purpose had labour and charges been undergone, about framing of a new. If they say, it was one Popes private opinion, and that he consulted onely himself, then we are able to go further with them, and to averre, that more of their chief men of all sorts, even their own Trent champions Paiva and Vega, and their own inquisitor Hieronymus ab Oleastro, and their own bishop Ildorus Clarius, and their own cardinall Thomas a vico Caietan, do eicher make new translations themselves, or follow new ones of other mens making, or note the vulgar interpreter for halting, none of them fear to dissent from him, nor yet to except against him. And call they this an uniform tenour of text and judgement about the text, so many of their worthies disclaiming the now received conceits? Nay, we will yet come nearer the quick: doth not their Paris edition differ from the Lovain, and Hentenius his from them both, and yet all of them allowed by authority? Nay, doth not Sixtus Quintus confesse, that certain catholiques (be meaneth certain of his own side) were in such an humour of translating the scriptures into Latine, that Satan taking occasion by them, though they thought of no such matter, did strive what he could, out of so uncertain and manifold a variety of translations, so to mingle all things, that nothing might seem to be left certain and firm in them. Or? Nay further, did not the same Sixtus ordain by an inviolable decree, and that with the counsell and consent of his cardinals, that the Latine edition of the old & new testament, which the counsell of Trent would have to be authentick, is the same without controversy which he then set forth, being diligently corrected and printed in the printing house of Vatican? Thus Sixtus in his preface before his bible. And yet Clement

Alas! the English is immediately necessary to us because of the multitude of differences from that of Saxons (& many of them weighty and material) & yet this must be acknowledged by all means. What is to have the faith of our glorious Lord Jesus Christ with you and us, is to be one. Again, what is sweet harmony and content, if this be therefore, as Demetrius of Corinth advised a speaking, before he talked of the distractions among the Grecians, to compose his domestic troubles (for at that time his queen and his sonne and heir were at deadly strife with him) so all the while that our adversaries do make so many and so various editions themselves, and do have so much about the words and authority of them, they can with no shew of equity challenge us for changing and correcting.

But it is high time to leave them, and to shew in brief what we proposed to our selves, and what course we held in this our perillous and service of the bible. Truly (good Christian Reader) we never thought from the beginning, that we should need to make a new translation, nor yet to make of a bad one a good one, (for then the imputation of Sincerus had been true in some sort, that our people had been fed with gall of dragons in stead of wine, with wheal in stead of milk: but to make a good one better, or out of many good ones, one principally good one, not justly to be excepted against; that hath been our endeavour, that our mark. To that purpose there were many chosen, that were greater in other mens eyes then in their own, and that sought the truth rather then their own praise. Again, they came or were thought to come to the work, not exercendi causa, (as one saith) but exercitanti, that is, learned, not to learn: For the chief overseer and byword under his majestie, to whom not only we, but also our whole church was much bound, knew by his wisdom, which thing also Nizianzen taught so long ago, that it is a preposterous order to teach first, and to learn after; yea that to be with singular judgment, to learn and practise together, is neither commendable for the workman, nor safe for the work. Therefore such were thought upon, as could say modestly with Saint Hierome, Et Hebrazum sermonem ex parte didicimus, & in Latino penè ab ipsis incunabilis, &c. detriti sumus. Both we have learned the Hebrew tongue in part, and in the Latine we have been exercised almost from our very cradle. Saint Hierome maketh no mention of the Greek tongue, wherein yet he did excell, because he translated not the old testament out of Greek, but out of Hebrew. And in what sort did these assemblers in the trust of their own knowledge, or of their sharpnesse of wit, or deepe sense of judgement, as it were in an arm of flesh? At no hand. They trusted in him that hath the key of David, opening and no man shutting; they prayed to the Lord the Father of our Lord, to the effect that Saint Augustine did: O let thy scriptures be my pure delight, let me not be deceived in them, neither let me deceive by them. In this confidence, and with this devotion did they assemble together; not too many, lest one should trouble another, and yet many, lest many things haply might escape them. If you ask what they had before them, truly it was the Hebrew text of the old testament, the Greek of the new. These are the two golden pipes, or rather conduits, where through the olive branches empty themselves into the gold. Saint Augustine called them precedent, or original tongues; Saint Hierome, fountains. The same Saint Hierome affirmeth, and Gratian hath not feared to put it into his Decree, that as the credit of the old booke (he meaneth of the old testament) is to be tried by the Hebrew volumes, so of the new by the Greek tongue, he meaneth by the original Greek. If truth be it to be tried by these tongues, then whence should a translation be made, but out of them? These tongues therefore, the scriptures we say in those tongues, we set before us to translate, being the tongues wherein God was pleased to speak to his church by his prophets and apostles. Neither did we run over the work with that posting haste that the Septuagint did; if it be true which is reported of them, that they finished it in seventy two dayes; neither were we hurried or hindered from going over it again, having once done it, like Saint Hierome, if that be true which himself reporteth; that he could no other write any thing, but presently it was caught from him, & published, and he could not have leade to mend it: neither so be short, were we the first that fell in hand with translating the scripture into English, and consequently destitute of former helps, as it is written of Origen, that he was the first in a manner, that put his hand to write commentaries upon the scriptures, and therefore no marvel, if he overthrew himself many times. None of these things: the work hath not been huddled up in seventy two dayes, but hath cost the workmen, as light as it seemeth, the pains of twice seven times seventy two dayes, and more. Matters of such weight and consequence are to be speeded with maturity for in a business of so moment a mans searcheth not the blame of convenient slacknesse. Neither did we think much to consult the translators or commentators, Chaldee, Hebrew, Syrian, Greek, or Latine, no nor the Spanish, French, Italian, or Dutch; neither did we disdain to revise that which we had done, and to bring back to the annals that which we had hammered: but having and using as great helps as were needfull, and fearing no reproach for slownesse, nor coveting praise for expedition, we have at the length, through the good hand of the Lord upon us, brought the work to that passe that you see.

Some peradventure would have no variety of senses to be set in the margine, lest the authority of the scriptures for deciding of controversies by that shew of uncertainty, it could somewhat be shaken. But we do not think our judgement not to be so bound in this point. For though whatsoever things are necessary, are manifest, as Saint Chrysostome saith; and as Saint Augustine, in those things that are plainly set down in the scriptures all such matters are found that concern faith, hope, and charity. Yet for all that it cannot be diffidled that partly to exercise and whet our wits, partly to wean the curious from fasting of them for their everywhere plannings, partly also to have up our devotion to crave the assistance of Gods Spirit by prayer and study, that we might be furnished with aid of our brethren by conference, and never scorn those that be not in all respects so compleat as they should be, being to seek in many things our selves; it hath pleased God in his divine providence, here and there to scatter words and sentences of that difficulty and doubtfulness, not in doubtfull points that concern salvation (for in such it hath been voucht that the scriptures are plain) but in matters of lesse moment that fardwell would better be seem unto then confidence, and if we will resolve, to resolve upon modesty with S. Augustine, (though not in this same case altogether, yet upon the same ground) Melius est dubitare de occultis, quam ligare de incertis, It is better to make doubt of those things which are secret, then to strive about those things that are uncertain. There be many words in the scriptures which be never said there but once, (having neither brother nor neighbour, as the Hebrews speak) so that we cannot be bolster by conference of places. Again, there be many rare names of certain birds, beasts, and precious stones, &c. concerning which the Hebrews themselves are so divided among themselves for judgement, that they may seem to have defined this or that, rather because they would say something, then because they were sure of that which they said, as Saint Hierome somewhere saith of the Septuagint. Now in such a case, doth not a margine do well to admonish the reader to seek further, and not to conclude or dogmatize upon it his or that peremptorily? For as it is a fault of incredulity, to doubt of those things that are evident; so to determine of such things as the Spirit of God hath left (even in the judgement of the judicious) questionable, can be no lesse then presumption. Therefore as S. Augustine saith, that variety of translations is profitable for the finding out of the sense of the scriptures; so diversity of signification and sense in the margine, where the text is not so clear, must needs do good, yea, is necessary as we are persuaded. We know that Sixtus Quintus expressly forbiddeth that any variety of readings of their vulgar edition, should be put in the margine (which though it be not altogether the same thing to that we have in hand, yet it looketh that way) but we think be hath not all of his own side his favourers, for this conceits. They that are wise had rather have their judgements at liberty in differences of readings, then to be captivated to one, when it may be the other. If they were sure that their high priests had all laws shut up in his breast, as Paul the second bragged, and that be were as free from error by special privilege, as the doctors of Rome were made by law inviolable, it were another matter; then his word were an oracle, his opinion a decision. But the eyes of the world are now open, God be thanked, and have been a great while, they finde that he is subject to the same affections and infirmities that others be, that his body is subject to wounds, and therefore so much as he proeveth, not as much as he claimeth, they grant and embrace.

An other thing we think good to admonish thee (gentle reader) that we have not tied our selves to an uniformity of phrasing, or to an identitie of words, as some peradventure would wish that we had done, because they observe, that some learned men (somewhere, have been as exact as they could that way. Truly, that we might not vary from the sense of that which we had translated before, if the word signified the same thing in both places (for, there be some words that be not of the same sense every where) we were especially careful, and made a conscience, according to our duty. But, that we should express the same notion with the same particular word, as for example, if we translate the Hebrew or Greek word once by purpose, never to call it in again; if one were journeying, never travelling; if one were think, never suppose; if one were pain, never ache; if one were joy, never gladness, &c. Thus to misse the matter, we thought to favour more of curiosity then wisdom, and that rather it would breed scorn in the Atheist, then bring profit to the godly reader. For in the kingdom of God become words or syllables? why should we be in bondage to them if we may be free? use one precisely when we may use another no lesse fit, as commodiously? A godly father in the primitive time shewed himself greatly moved that one of new-Jerusalem called apocryphus, though the difference be little or none; and another reporteth, that he was much abused for turning Cocubira (so which reading the people had been used) into Hedera. Now if this happens in better times and upon so small occasions, we might justly fear hard censure, if generally we should make verball and unnecessary changings. We might also be charged (by scoffers) with some unquall dealing towards a great number of good English words. For as it is written of a certain great philosopher, that he should say, that those legs were happy that were made images to be worshipped; for their fellows, as good as they, lay far back behind the fire; so if we should say, as it were, unto certain words, Stand up higher, have a place in the bible alwayes, and to others of like quality, Get ye hence, be banished for ever, we might be taxed peradventure with Saint James his words, namely, To be partiall in our selves, and judges of evil thoughts. Adde hereunto that niceness in words was alwayes counted the next step to trifling, and so was to be curious about names too; all that we cannot follow a better pattern for elocution then God himself, therefore be using divers words, in his holy writ, and indifferently for one thing in nature; we, if we will not be superstitious, may use the same liberty in our English versions out of Hebrew and Greek, for that copy or store that be hath given us lastly, we have on the one side avoided the scrupulosity of the puritans, who leave the old ecclesiasticall words, and beake them to other, as when they put washing for baptism, and congregation in stead of church; as also on the other side, we have shunned the obscurity of the papists, in their azymes, tunike,

This is a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf of a book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor discoloration and small dark spots, possibly due to age or handling. A vertical crease is visible on the left edge, suggesting it was once part of a bound volume.

CHAP. II.

1 The first sabbath. 4 The manner of the creation. 8 The planting of the garden of Eden, 10 and the river thereof. 17 The tree of knowledge only forbidden. 19, 20 The naming of the creatures. 21 The making of woman, and institution of marriage.

Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them.

2 And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made: and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made.

3 And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made.

4 These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth, when they were created; in the day that the Lord God made the earth and the heavens.

5 And every plant of the field, before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field, before it grew: for the Lord God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man to till the ground.

6 But I there went up a mist from the earth, and covered the whole face of the ground.

7 And the Lord God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and man became a living soul.

8 And the Lord God planted a garden eastward in Eden; and there he put the man whom he had formed.

9 And out of the ground made the Lord God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food: the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

10 And a river went out of Eden to water the garden; and from thence it was parted, and became into four heads.

11 The name of the first is Pison: that is it which compasseth the whole land of Shinar, where there is gold:

12 And the gold of that land is good: there is bdellium and the onyx stone.

13 And the name of the second river is Gihon: the same is it that compasseth the whole land of Ethiopia.

14 And the name of the third river is Hiddekel: that is it which goeth toward the east of Assyria. And the fourth river is Euphrates.

15 And the Lord God took the man, and put him into the garden of Eden, to dress it, and to keep it.

16 And the Lord God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat:

17 But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.

18 And the Lord God said, It is not good that the man should be alone: I will make him an help meet for him.

19 And out of the ground the Lord God made every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air, and brought them unto Adam to see what he would call them: and whatsoever Adam called every living creature, that was the name thereof.

20 And Adam gave names to all cattell, and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field: but for Adam there was not found an help meet for him.

21 And the Lord God said, I will send thee to sleep, and will take of thee a rib, and will make of it a woman, and will set her by thee, and thou shalt be joined to her, and they shall be one flesh.

22 And the rib, which I took from thee, will I make to herself a woman, and will set her by thee, and thou shalt be joined to her, and they shall be one flesh.

23 And Adam said, This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called woman, because she was taken out of man.

24 And the Lord God said, I will leave my father and my mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh.

25 And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

CHAP. III.

1 The serpent deceiveth Eve. 6 Man's shameful fall. 9 God arraigneth them. 12 The serpent is cursed. 15 The promised seed. 16 The punishment of mankind. 21 Their first clothing. 22 Their casting out of Paradise.

Now the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field, which the Lord God had made: and he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Thou shalt not eat of every tree of the garden?

2 And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden:

3 But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Thou shalt not eat of it: neither shalt thou touch it, lest thou die.

4 And the serpent said unto the woman, Thou shalt not surely die.

5 For God doth know, that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil.

6 And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one like unto God, she ate of the fruit thereof, and gave also unto her husband with her, and he did eat.

7 And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they hid themselves from the face of the Lord God.

8 And they heard the voice of the Lord God walking in the garden in the cool of the day: and Adam hid himself from the presence of the Lord God among the trees of the garden.

9 And the Lord God called unto Adam, and said unto him, Where art thou?

10 And he said, I heard thy voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked, and I hid myself.

11 And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? hast thou eaten of the tree, whereof I commanded thee, that thou shouldest not eat?

12 And the man said, The woman, whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat.

13 And the Lord God said unto the woman, What hast thou done? and she said, I was deceived, because I was naked, and I ate.

14 And the Lord God said unto Adam, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattell, and above every beast of the field: upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life.

15 And I will put enmities between thee and the woman, and between thee and her seed; she shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise her heel.

16 And the woman said, I have sinned, as thou hast said, and I have eaten of the forbidden fruit, and I have given it unto my husband, and he hath eaten.

17 And the Lord God said unto Adam, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattell, and above every beast of the field: upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life.

20. And Adam called his wives name † Eve, because she was the mother of all living.

21. Unto Adam also & to his wife did the Lord God make coats of skinner, and clothed them.

22. ¶ And the Lord God said, Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil: and now lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live for ever:

23. Therefore the Lord God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to till the ground, from whence he was taken.

24. So he drove out the man: and he placed at the east of the garden of Eden, cherubims, and a flaming sword which turned every way to keep the way of the tree of life.

CHAP. III.

1 The birth, grade, and Religion of Cain and Abel. 8 The murder of Abel. 11 The curse of Cain. 17 Enoch the first citie. 19 Lamech and his two wives. 25 The birth of Seth, 26 and Enos.

And Adam knew Eve his wife; and she conceived and bare Cain, and said, I have gotten a man from the Lord.

2. And the again bare his brother † Abel: and Abel was a keeper of sheep, but Cain was a tiller of the ground.

3. And † in proceſſe of time it came to paſſe, that Cain brought of the fruit of the ground an offering unto the Lord.

4. And Abel, he also brought of the firstlings of his flock, and of the fat thereof. And the Lord had respect unto Abel, and to his offering:

5. But unto Cain and to his offering he had not respect. And Cain was very wroth, and his countenance fell.

6. And the Lord said unto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance fallen?

7. If thou doest well, shalt thou not be accepted? and if thou doest not well, sin lieth at the door. And unto thee shall be his desire, and thou shalt rule over him.

8. And Cain talked with Abel his brother: and it came to paſſe when they were in the field, that Cain reſuſed againſt Abel his brother, and slew him.

9. ¶ And the Lord said unto Cain, Where is Abel thy brother? and he said, I know not: Am I my brothers keeper?

10. And he said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brothers blood crieth unto me from the ground.

11. And now art thou cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receive thy brothers blood from thy hand.

12. When thou tillest the ground, it shall not henceforth yield unto thee her strength. A fugitive and a vagabond shalt thou be in the earth.

13. And Cain said unto the Lord, My punishment is greater than I can bear.

14. Behold, thou hast driven me out this day from the face of the earth: and from thy face shall I be hid, and I shall be a fugitive and a vagabond in the earth, and it shall come to paſſe, that every one that findeth me shall ſlay me.

15. ¶ And the Lord said unto him, What whether slayeth Cain, vengeance shall be taken on him from me. And the Lord set a mark upon Cain, lest any finding him should kill him.

16. ¶ And Cain went out from the presence of the Lord, and dwelt in the land of Enoch, on the east of Eden.

17. And Cain knew his wife; and she conceived and bare † Enoch: and he builded a citie; and called the name of the citie, after the name of his sonne, Enoch.

18. And unto Enoch was born Irad: and Irad begat Methusael, and Methusael begat Lamech.

19. ¶ And Lamech took unto him two wives: the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the other Zillah.

20. And Irad bare Jubal: he was the father of such as dwell in tents, and of such as have cattle.

21. And his brothers name was Jubal: he was the father of all such as handle the harp and organs.

22. And Zillah, she also bare Tubal Cain, an instructor of every artificer in brass and iron: and the sister of Tubal Cain was Naamah.

23. And Lamech unto his wives, Adah and Zillah, heare my voice ye wives of Lamech, hearken unto my speech: for I have slain a man to my wounding, and a young man to my hurt.

24. If Cain shall be avenged seven fold, I will avenged seventy fold.

25. ¶ And Adam knew his wife again, and she bare a sonne, and called his name † Seth: for, said she, God hath appointed me another seed in stead of Abel, whom Cain slew.

26. And to Seth, to him also there was born a sonne; and he called his name † Enos; then began men to call upon the name of the Lord.

CHAP. V.

1 The genealogie, age, and death of the Patriarchs from Adam unto Noah. 24 The godlineſſe and tranſparancy of Enoch.

This is the book of the generations of Adam. In the day that God created man, he made him like unto God.

2. Male and female created he them; and blessed them, and called their name Adam, in the day when they were created.

3. ¶ And Adam lived an hundred and thirtie years, and begat a sonne in his own likeness, after his image; and called his name Seth.

4. ¶ And the dayes of Adam after he had begotten Seth were eight hundred years, and he begat sonnes and daughters.

5. And all the dayes that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirtie years, and he died.

6. And Seth lived an hundred and thirtie years, and begat Enos.

7. And Seth lived after he begat Enos an hundred and thirtie years, and begat sonnes and daughters.

8. And all the dayes of Seth were nine hundred and thirtie years, and he died.

9. ¶ And Enos lived ninetie years, and begat Cainan.

10. And Enos lived after he begat Cainan an hundred and thirtie years, and begat sonnes and daughters.

11. And all the dayes of Enos were nine hundred and thirtie years, and he died.

12. ¶ And Cainan lived threescore and thirtie years, and begat Mahalaleel.

13. And Cainan lived after he begat Mahalaleel eight thirtie years, and begat sonnes and daughters.

14. ¶ And Mahalaleel lived threescore and thirtie years, and begat Jareth.

15. And Jareth lived an hundred and thirtie years, and begat Enoch.

16. ¶ And Enoch lived threescore years, and he walked with God, and he was not, for God took him.

17. ¶ And Methusael lived an hundred and thirtie years, and begat Lamech.

18. ¶ And Lamech lived an hundred and thirtie years, and begat two daughters, Adah and Zillah.

19. ¶ And Adah conceived, and bare Irad, the first of the sons of Lamech.

20. ¶ And she conceived again, and bare Tubal-cain, the forger of every instrument of brass and iron.

21. ¶ And Zillah, she also bare Jubal the first of the shepherds, who kept flocks of cattle.

22. ¶ And she conceived again, and bare Jubal the first of the organists, who played on the harp and organ.

23. ¶ And Lamech lived an hundred and thirtie years, and begat two daughters, Adah and Zillah.

24. ¶ And Adah conceived, and bare Irad, the first of the sons of Lamech.

25. ¶ And she conceived again, and bare Tubal-cain, the forger of every instrument of brass and iron.

26. ¶ And Zillah, she also bare Jubal the first of the shepherds, who kept flocks of cattle.

27. ¶ And she conceived again, and bare Jubal the first of the organists, who played on the harp and organ.

28. ¶ And Lamech lived an hundred and thirtie years, and begat two daughters, Adah and Zillah.

29. ¶ And Adah conceived, and bare Irad, the first of the sons of Lamech.

30. ¶ And she conceived again, and bare Tubal-cain, the forger of every instrument of brass and iron.

31. ¶ And Zillah, she also bare Jubal the first of the shepherds, who kept flocks of cattle.

32. ¶ And she conceived again, and bare Jubal the first of the organists, who played on the harp and organ.

14. And all the dayes of Cainan were nine hundred and ten yeares, and he died.

15. ¶ And Methuselah lived sixtie and five yeares, and begat Jared.

16. And Methuselah lived after he begat Jared eight hundred and thirtie yeares, and begat Sonnes and daughters.

17. And all the dayes of Methuselah were eight hundred ninety and five yeares, and he died.

18. ¶ And Jared lived an hundred sixtie and two yeares, and he begat Enoch.

19. And Jared lived after he begat Enoch eight hundred yeares, and begat sonnes and daughters.

20. And all the dayes of Jared were nine hundred sixtie and two yeares, and he died.

21. ¶ And Enoch lived sixtie and five yeares, and begat Methuselah.

22. And Enoch walked with God after he begat Methuselah three hundred yeares, and begat sonnes and daughters.

23. And all the dayes of Enoch were thrie hundred sixtie and five yeares.

24. And Enoch walked with God, and he was not: for God took him.

25. ¶ And Methuselah lived an hundred eighty and seven yeares, and begat Lamech.

26. And Methuselah lived after he begat Lamech seven hundred eighty and two yeares, and begat sonnes and daughters.

27. And all the dayes of Methuselah were nine hundred eighty and nine yeares, and he died.

28. ¶ And Lamech lived an hundred eighty and two yeares, and begat a sonne.

29. And he called his name Noah, saying, This same shall comfort us concerning our travaill and toil of our hands, because of the ground which the Lord hath cursed.

30. And Lamech lived after he begat Noah five hundred ninety and five yeares, and begat sonnes and daughters.

31. And all the dayes of Lamech were seven hundred seventy and seven yeares, and he died.

32. And Noah was five hundred yeares old: and Noah begat Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

CHAP. VI.

3. The wickedness of the world, which provoked Gods wrath and caused the flood. 8 Noah findeth grace. 14 The order, form, and end of the ark.

¶ And it came to passe, when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them,

2. That the sonnes of God saw the daughters of men, that they were faire: and they took them wives of all which they chose.

3. And the Lord said, My spirit shall not alwayes strive with man, for that he also is flesh: yet his dayes shall be an hundred and twenty yeares.

4. There were giants in the earth in those dayes: and also after that, when the sonnes of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men, which were of old, men of renown.

¶ And God said that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

¶ And it repented the Lord, that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart.

7. And the Lord said, I will destroy man, whom I have created, from the face of the earth, both man and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air: for it repenteth me that I have made them.

¶ But Noah found grace in the eyes of the Lord.

9. ¶ These are the generations of Noah: Noah was a just man, and perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God.

10. And Noah begat three sonnes, Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

11. The earth also was corrupt before God: and the earth was filled with violence.

12. And God looked upon the earth, and behold it was corrupt: for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth.

13. And God said unto Noah, The end of all flesh is come before me: for the earth is filled with violence through them; and behold, I will destroy them with the earth.

14. ¶ Make thee an ark of gopher-wood: rooms shalt thou make in the ark, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch.

15. And this is the fashion which thou shalt make it of: The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits.

16. A window shalt thou make to the ark, and in a cubit shalt thou finish it above; and the door of the ark shalt thou set in the side thereof: with lower, second, and third stories shalt thou make it.

17. And behold, I, even I, do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven; and every thing that is in the earth shall die.

18. But with thee will I establish my covenant: and thou shalt come into the ark; thou, and thy sonnes, and thy wife, and thy sonnes wives with thee.

19. And of every living thing of all flesh, two of every sort shalt thou bring into the ark, to keep them alive with thee: they shall be male and female.

20. Of fowls after their kinde, and of cattell after their kinde: of every creeping thing of the earth after his kinde: two of every sort shalt thou come unto thee, to keep them alive.

21. And take thou unto thee of all food that is eaten, and thou shalt gather it to thee, and it shall be for food for thee, and for them.

22. ¶ Thus did Noah; according to all that God commanded him, so did he.

CHAP. VII.

1. Noah with his family and the living creatures enter into the ark. 17 The beginning, increase, and continuance of the flood.

¶ And the Lord said unto Noah, Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for thee have I seen righteous before me in this generation.

2. Of every clean beast thou shalt take to thee by sevens, the male and his female: and of beasts that are not clean by two, the male and his female.

3. Of fowls also of the air by sevens, the male and the female; to keep seeds alive upon the face of all the earth.

4. For yet seven dayes, and I will cause it to rain upon the earth forty dayes and forty nights: and every living substance that I have made, will I destroy from off the face of the earth.

5. And Noah did according unto all that the Lord said: so commanded him.

6. And Noah was six hundred yeares old, when the flood of waters was upon the earth.

7. ¶ And Noah went in, and his sonnes, and his wife, and his sonnes wives with him, into the ark, because of the waters of the flood.

8. Of clean beasts, and of beasts that are not clean, and of fowls, and of every thing that creepeth upon the earth, the ark, the male and the female, as God had commanded Noah.

10 And it came to pass 7 after seven days, that the waters of the flood were upon the earth.

11 ¶ In the six hundredth year of Noahs life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, the same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.

12 And the rain was upon the earth forty dayes and forty nights.

13 In the self same day entered Noah, and Shem, and Ham, and Japheth, the sonnes of Noah, and Noahs wife, and the three wives of his sonnes with them, into the ark:

14 They, and every beast after his kinde, and all the cattell after their kinde, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kinde, and every fowl after his kinde, every bird of every 7 sort.

15 And they went in unto Noah into the ark, two 9 two of all flesh, wherein is the breath of life.

16 And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him; and the Lord shut him in.

17 And the flood was fourtie dayes upon the earth; and the waters increased, and bare up the ark, and it was lift up above the earth.

18 And the waters prevailed, and were increased greatly upon the earth; and the ark went upon the face of the waters.

19 And the waters prevailed exceedingly upon the earth; and all the high hills, that were under the whole heaven, were covered.

20 Fifteen cubits upward did the waters prevail; and the mountains were covered.

21 ¶ And all flesh died that moved upon the earth, both of fowl, and of cattell, and of beast, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth, and every man.

22 All in whose nostrils was the breath of life, of all that was in the dry land, died.

23 And every living substance was destroyed which was upon the face of the ground, both man, and cattell, and the creeping things, and the fowl of the heaven; and they were destroyed from the earth: and Noah only remained alive, and they that were with him in the ark.

24 And the waters prevailed upon the earth an hundred and fiftie dayes.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The waters ebbing. 4 The ark resteth on Ararat. 7 The raven, and the dove. 15 Noah, being commanded, 18 goeth forth of the ark. 20 He buildeth an altar, and offereth sacrifices; 21 which God accepteth, and promiseth to curse the earth no more.

¶ And God remembered Noah, and every living thing, and all the cattell that was with him in the ark: and God made a bowde to pass over the earth, and the waters ebbing.

2 The fountains also of the deep, and the windows of heaven were stopped, and the rain from heaven was restrained.

3 And the waters returned from off the earth continually: and after the end of the hundred and fiftie dayes the waters were abated.

4 ¶ And the ark rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, upon the mountains of Ararat.

5 And the waters decreased continually until the tenth month: in the tenth month, on the first day of the month, were the tops of the mountains seen.

6 ¶ And it came to pass at the end of forty dayes, that Noah opened the window of the ark which he had made.

7 And he sent forth a raven, which went forth 7 to and fro, until the waters were dried up from off the earth.

8 Also he sent forth a dove from him, to see if the waters were abated from off the face of the ground.

9 But the dove found no rest for the sole of her foot, and she returned unto him into the ark: for the waters were on the face of the whole earth. When he put forth his hand and took her, and 7 pulled her in unto him into the ark.

10 And he stayed yet other seven dayes, and again he sent forth the dove out of the ark.

11 And the dove came in to him in the evening, and so, in her mouth was an olive-leaf pluckt off: so Noah knew that the waters were abated from off the earth.

12 And he stayed yet other seven dayes, and sent forth the dove, which returned not again unto him any more.

13 ¶ And it came to pass in the six hundred and one year, in the first month, the first day of the month, the waters were dried up from off the earth: and Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and behold, the face of the ground was drye.

14 And in the second month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, was the earth dried.

15 ¶ And God spake unto Noah, saying,

16 Go forth of the ark, thou, and thy wife, and thy sonnes, and thy sonnes wives with thee.

17 Bring forth with thee every living creature that is with thee, of all flesh, both of fowl, and of cattell, and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth: that they may breed abundantly in the earth, and be fruitful, and multiply upon the earth.

18 And Noah went forth, and his sonnes, and his wife, and his sonnes wives with him:

19 Every beast, every creeping thing, and every fowl, and whatsoever creepeth upon the earth, after their kindes, went forth out of the ark.

20 ¶ And Noah builded an altar unto the Lord, and took of every clean beast, and of every clean fowl, and offered burnt-offerings on the altar.

21 And the Lord smelled a sweet savour: and the Lord said in his heart, I will not again curse the ground any more for mans sake, for the imagination of mans heart is evil from his youth: neither will I again smite any more every living, as I have done.

22 ¶ While the earth remained, seed time and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease.

¶ And God blessed Noah and his sonnes, and said unto them, ¶ Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth.

2 And the fear of you and the dread of you shall be upon every beast of the earth, and upon every fowl of the aire, upon all that moveth upon the earth, and upon all the fishes of the sea: your hand shall be over them delivered.

 me and all flesh that is upon the earth.

21 * And the sonnes of Noah that went forth of the ark, were Shem, and Ham, and Japheth: and Ham is the father of Canaan.
 * Gen. 1. 13.

22 These are the three sonnes of Noah: and of them was the whole earth overspoken.

23 And Noah began to be an husbandman, and he planted a vineyard.

24 And he drank of the wine, and was drunken, and he was uncovered within his tent.

25 And Ham the father of Canaan saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brethren without.

26 And Shem and Japheth took a garment, and laid it upon both their shoulders, and went backward, and covered the nakedness of their father: and their faces were backward, and they saw not their fathers nakedness.

27 And Noah awoke from his wine, & knew what his younger sonne had done unto him.

28 And he said, Cursed be Canaan; a servant of servants shall he be unto his brethren.

29 And he said, Blessed be the Lord God of Shem, and Canaan shall be his servant.

30 God shall enlarge Japheth, and he shall dwell in the tents of Shem; and Canaan shall be his servant.

31 And Noah lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years.

 monarch. 5 The sonnes of Shem.

Now these are the generations of the sonnes of Noah: Shem, Ham, and Japheth: and unto them were sonnes born after the flood.

2 The sonnes of Japheth: Gomer, and Ma-gog, and Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and Tiras.

3 And the sonnes of Gomer; Ashkenaz, and Riphath, and Togarmah.

4 And the sonnes of Javan; Eliphaz, and Tarshish, Kittim, and Dodanaim.

5 By these were the isles of the Gentiles divided in their lands; every one after his tongue, after their families, in their nations.

6 And the sonnes of Ham; Cush, and Mis-raim, and Phut, and Canaan.

7 And the sonnes of Cush; Seba, and Havilah, and Sabath, and Raamah, and Sabudcha: and the sonnes of Raamah; Sheba, and Dedan.

8 And Cush begat Nimrod: he began to be a mighty one in the earth.

9 He was a mighty hunter before the Lord: wherefore it is said, Cush as Nimrod the mighty hunter before the Lord.

10 And the beginning of his kingdom was in Babel, and Erec, and Acad, and Calneh, in the land of Shinar.

11 Out of that land went forth Assur, and builded Niniveh, and the cities Rehoboth, and Calah.

12 And Rezen between Niniveh and Calah:
 the same is a great city.

13 And Arphaxad begat Ludim, and Aramim, and Phelizim, and Chaschim.

14 And Arphaxad and Chaschim (out of whom came Chaldees) and Chaschim.

15 And Canaan begat Sidon his first-born, and Heth.

16 And the Jebusite, and the Amorite, and the Girgathite.

17 And the Hivite, and the Arkite, and the Sinite.

18 And the Arvadite, and the Zemarite, and the Elamite: and afterwards were the families of the Canaanites spread abroad.

19 And the border of the Canaanites was from Sidon, as thou comest to Gerar unto Gaza, as thou goest unto Soddom and Gomorrah, and Be-roth, and Zebulun, even unto Lachish.

20 These are the sonnes of Ham, after their families, after their tongues, in their countries, and in their nations.

21 And unto Shem also the father of all the children of Eber, the brother of Japheth the elder, even to him were children born.

22 The children of Shem (Arphaxad and Shem) and Japheth, and Lud, and Aram.

23 And the children of Aram; Aram, and Arphaxad, and Shem.

24 And Arphaxad begat Chaschim, and Chaschim begat Eber.

25 And unto Eber were born two sonnes; the name of one was Peleg, for in his dayes was the earth divided; and his brothers name was Joktan.

26 And Joktan begat Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hamamoth, and Jectan.

27 And Dedan, and Elam, and Elam.

28 And Elam, and Elam, and Elam.

29 And Elam, and Elam, and Elam.

30 And Elam, and Elam, and Elam.

The building of Babel.

Chap. xi. xii.

God calleth Abram.

thou goest unto Mesopotamia a mount of the east.

31 These are the families of Shem, after their families, after their tongues, in their lands, after their nations.

32 These are the families of the families of Shem, after their generations, in their nations: and by these were the nations divided in the earth after the flood.

CHAP. XI.

1 One language in the world. 2 The building of Babel.

3 The confusion of tongues. 10 The generations of Shem. 27 The generations of Terah the father of Abram. 31 Terah goeth from Ur to Haran.

And the whole earth was of one language, and of one speech.

2 And it came to pass as they journeyed from the east, that they found a plain in the land of Shinar; and they dwelt there.

3 And they said one to another, Go to, let us make brick, and burn them thoroughly. And they had brick for stone, and flint for iron.

4 And they said, Go to, let us build us a city, and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth.

5 And the Lord came down to see the city and the tower, which the children of men builded.

6 And the Lord said, Behold, the people is one, and they have all one language; and they begin to do; and now nothing will be restrained from them, which they have imagined to do.

7 Go to, let us go down, and there confound their language, that they may not understand one another's speech.

8 So the Lord scattered them abroad from thence upon the face of all the earth: and they left off to build the city.

9 Therefore is the name of it called Babel, because the Lord did there confound the language of all the earth: and from thence did the Lord scatter them abroad upon the face of all the earth.

10 ¶ These are the generations of Shem; Shem was an hundred years old, and begat Arphaxad two years after the flood.

11 And Shem lived after he begat Arphaxad five hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

12 And Arphaxad lived five and thirty years, and begat Salah.

13 And Salah lived after he begat Salah four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.

14 And Salah lived thirty years, and begat Eber.

15 And Eber lived after he begat Eber four hundred and three years, and begat sons and daughters.

16 ¶ And Eber lived four and thirty years, and begat Peleg.

17 And Peleg lived after he begat Peleg four hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters.

18 And Peleg lived thirty years, and begat Reu.

19 And Reu lived after he begat Reu two hundred and two years, and begat sons and daughters.

20 And Reu lived two and thirty years, and begat Serug.

21 And Serug lived after he begat Serug two hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters.

22 And Serug lived thirty years, and begat Nachor.

23 And Serug lived after he begat Nachor two hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.

24 And Nachor lived nine and twenty years, and begat Terah.

25 And Nachor lived after he begat Terah an hundred and nineteen years, and begat sons and daughters.

26 And Terah lived seventy years, and begat Abram, Nachor, and Haran.

27 ¶ Now these are the generations of Terah: Terah begat Abram, Nachor, and Haran; and Haran begat Lot.

28 And Haran died before his father Terah in the land of his nativity, in the city of the Chaldees.

29 And Abram and Nachor took them wives: the name of Abram's wife was Sarai; and the name of Nachor's wife, Milcah, the daughter of Haran, the father of Esau, and the father of Ishmael.

30 But Sarai was barren: she had no child.

31 And Terah took Abram his son, and Lot the son of Nachor his son's son, and Sarai his daughter in law, his son Abram's wife; and they went forth with them from the city of the Chaldees, to go into the land of Canaan: and they came unto Haran, and dwelt there.

32 And the days of Terah were two hundred and five years: and Terah died in Haran.

CHAP. XII.

1 God calleth Abram, and blesteth him with a promise of Christ. 4 He departeth with Lot from Haran, 6 He journeyeth through Canaan, 7 which is promised him in a vision. 10 He is driven by a famine into Egypt. 11 Fear maketh him feign his wife to be his sister. 14 Pharaoh having taken her from him, by plagues is compelled to restore her.

Now the Lord said unto Abram, after that he was out of the country, and from the Chaldees, and from the father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee.

2 And I will make of thee a great nation: and I will bless thee, and make thee name great: and thou shalt be a blessing.

3 And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in that land all the families of the earth be blessed.

4 So Abram departed, as the Lord said unto him; and Lot went with him: and Abram was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Haran.

5 And Abram took Sarai his wife, and Lot his brother's son, and all their substance, and went into Egypt: and the Lord said unto Abram, saying, Behold, I have brought thee into Egypt: and thou shalt say unto the Egyptians, Behold, my wife: and they will honour thee, and thy wife shall be honoured with thee.

6 ¶ And Abram went down into Egypt, and the place of his dwelling was in the land of Goshen.

7 And the Lord said unto Abram, saying, Behold, I have brought thee into Egypt: and thou shalt say unto the Egyptians, Behold, my wife: and they will honour thee, and thy wife shall be honoured with thee.

8 And he said unto Abram, saying, Behold, I have brought thee into Egypt: and thou shalt say unto the Egyptians, Behold, my wife: and they will honour thee, and thy wife shall be honoured with thee.

9 And Abram said unto Pharaoh, saying, Behold, I have brought thee into Egypt: and thou shalt say unto the Egyptians, Behold, my wife: and they will honour thee, and thy wife shall be honoured with thee.

10 ¶ And Abram said unto Pharaoh, saying, Behold, I have brought thee into Egypt: and thou shalt say unto the Egyptians, Behold, my wife: and they will honour thee, and thy wife shall be honoured with thee.

Abram went down into Egypt to sojourn there: for the famine was grievous in the land.

11 And it came to passe when he was come neare to enter into Egypt, that he said unto Sarai his wife, Behold now I know that thou art a fair woman to look upon.

12 Therefore it shall come to passe, when the Egyptians shall see thee, that they shall say, This is his wife: and they will kill me, but they will save thee alive.

13 Say, I pray thee, thou art my sister: that it may be well with me for thy sake; and my soul shall live because of thee.

14 And it came to passe, that when Abram was come into Egypt, the Egyptians beheld the woman, that she was very fair.

15 The princes also of Pharaoh saw her, and commended her before Pharaoh: and the woman was taken into Pharaohs house.

16 And he entreated Abram well for her sake: and he had sheep, and oxen, and he-asses, and men-servants, and maid-servants, and she-asses, and camels.

17 And the Lord plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues, because of Sarai Abrahams wife.

18 And Pharaoh called Abram, and said, What is this that thou hast done unto me? Why didst thou not tell me that she was thy wife?

19 And he said thou, She is my sister: so I might have taken her to me to wife: now therefore, behold thy wife, take her, and go thy way.

20 And Pharaoh commanded his men concerning him: and they sent him away, and his wife, and all that he had.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Abram and Lot return out of Egypt. 7 By disagreeement they part asunder. 10 Lot goeth to wicked Sodoma. 14 God reneweth the promise to Abram. He removeth to Hebron, and there buildeth an altar.

A And Abram returned out of Egypt, he, and his wife, and all that he had, and Lot with him into the country.

2 And Abram was very rich in cattell, in silver, and in gold.

3 And he went on his journeys from the south, even to Beth-el, unto the place where his tent had been at the beginning, between Beth-el and Hai;

4 Unto the place of the altar, which he had made there at the first: and there Abram called on the name of the Lord.

5 And Lot also went with Abram had flocks and herds, and tents.

6 And the land was not able to bear them; for their substance was great, so that they could not dwell together.

7 And there was a strife between the herdmen of Abrahams cattell and the herdmen of Lots cattell: And the Canaanite and the Hittite dwellen then in the land.

8 And Abram said unto Lot, Let there be no strife, I pray thee, between me and thee, and between my herdmen and the herdmen: for we be brethren.

9 Is not the whole land before thee? Separate thyself, I pray thee, from me: if thou wilt take the left hand, then I will go to the right; or if thou depart to the right hand, then I will go to the left.

10 And Lot lifted up his eyes, and beheld all the plain of Jordan, that it was well watered every where, before the Lord destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah, even as the garden of the Lord, like the land of Egypt, as thou comest unto Joon.

11 Then Lot chose him all the plain of Jordan; and Lot journeyed east: and they separated themselves the one from the other.

12 Abram dwelled in the land of Canaan, and Lot dwelled in the cities of the plain, and pitched his tent toward Sodom.

13 But the men of Sodom were wicked, and sinners before the Lord exceedingly.

14 And the Lord said unto Abram, after that Lot was separated from him, Lift up now thine eye, and look from the place where thou art, northward, and southward, and eastward, and westward.

15 For all the land which thou seest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed for ever.

16 And I will make thee seed as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seed also be numbered.

17 Arise, walk through the land, in the length of it, and in the breadth of it: for I will give it unto thee.

18 Then Abram removed his tent, and came and dwelt in the plain of Shinar which is in the Chaldean, and build there an altar unto the Lord.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The battell of foure kings against five. 12 Lot is taken prisoner. 14 Abram rescueth him. 18 Melchisedech blesteth Abram. 20 Abram giveth him tithes. 22 The rest of the spoils his partners having had their portions, he reserveceth to the king of Sodom.

A And it came to passe in the dayes of Amraphel king of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Chedorloamer king of Elam, and Elphaz king of nations;

2 That these made warre with Bera king of Sodom, and with Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinar king of Admah, and Shemeber king of Zeboim, and the king of Bela which is Zoar.

3 All these were joyned together in the vale of Siddim, which is the salt sea.

4 Twelve yeares they served Chedorloamer, and in the thirteenth yeare they rebelled.

5 And in the fourteenth yeare came Chedorloamer, and the kings that were with him, and smote the Rephaim in Apherath, Barnaim, and the Jussims in Ham, and the Gimsim in Shaveh Kiriathaim.

6 And the Hittites in their mount Seir, unto Elparan, which is by the wilderness.

7 And they returned, and came to En-mishpat, which is Kadesh, and smote all the country of the Amalekites; and also the Amorites, that dwell in Hazeroth, Tamar.

8 And there went out the king of Sodom, and the king of Gomorrah, and the king of Admah, and the king of Zeboim, and the king of Bela (the same is Zoar): and they joyned battell with them in the vale of Siddim.

9 With Chedorloamer the king of Elam, and with Elphaz king of nations, and Amraphel king of Shinar, and Arioch king of Ellasar: foure kings with five.

10 And the vale of Siddim was full of waters, and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, and fell there: and they that remained fled to the mountains.

11 And they took all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their victuals, and went their way.

12 And they took Lot Abrahams brother in law

(who dwelt in Sodom) and his goods, and departed.

13 And there came one that had escaped, and told Abram the Hebrew; for he dwelt in the plain of Shinar: the Amorite, brother of Enoch, and brother of Auer: and these were confederate with Abram.

14 And when Abram heard that his brother had been taken captive, he armed his trained servants, born in his own house, three hundred and eighteen, and pursued them unto Dan.

15 And he divided himself against them, he and his servants by night, and smote them, and pursued them unto Hobab, which is on the left hand of Damascus.

16 And he brought back all the goods, and also brought again his brother Lot, and his goods, and the women also, and the people.

17 And the king of Sodom went out to meet him (after his return from the slaughter of Chedorlaomer, and of the kings that were with him) at the valley of Shaveh, which is the Kings Dale.

18 And Melchizedek king of Salem brought forth bread and wine: and he was the priest of the most high God.

19 And he blessed him, and said, Blessed be Abram of the most high God possessor of heaven and earth:

20 And blessed be the most high God, which hath delivered thine enemies into thy hand. And he gave him riches of all.

21 And the King of Sodom said unto Abram, Give me the persons, and take the goods to thyself.

22 And Abram said to the king of Sodom, I have lift up my hand unto the Lord, the most high God, the possessor of heaven and earth,

23 That I will not take from a thine even to a shoe-latchet, and that I will not take any thing that is thine, lest thou shouldest say, I have made Abram rich:

24 Save only that which the young men have eaten, and the portion of the men which I went with me, Auer, Enoch, and Hamer; let them take their portion.

CHAP. XV.

1 God encourageth Abram. 2 Abram complaineth for want of an heir. 3 God promiset him a sonne, and a multiplying of his seed. 4 Abram is justified by faith. 5 Canaan is promised again, and confirmed by a signe, 12 and a vision.

After these things the word of the Lord came unto Abram in a vision, saying, Fear not, Abraham: I am thy shield, and thy exceeding great reward.

2 And Abram said, Lord God, what wilt thou give me, seeing I go childlesse, and the steward of my house is this Eliezer of Damascus?

3 And Abram said, Behold, to me thou hast given no seed: and lo, one born in my house is mine heir.

4 And behold, the word of the Lord came unto him, saying, This shall not be thine heir, but he that shall come forth out of thine own bowels shall be thine heir.

5 And he brought him forth abroad, and said; Look now toward heaven, and tell the stars, if thou be able to number them: and he said unto him, O shall they be numbered?

6 And he said, Yea, they shall be numbered, and he counted it to him for righteousness.

7 And he said unto him, I am the Lord, that brought thee out of Ur of the Chaldees, to give thee this land to inherit it.

8 And he said, Lord God, whereby shall I know that I shall inherit it?

9 And he said unto him, Take me an heifer of three years old, and a she-goat of three years old, and a ramme of three years old, and a turtle-dove, and a young pigeon.

10 And he took unto him all these, and divided them in the midst, and laid each piece one against another: but the birds divided he not.

11 And when the fowls came down upon the carcases, Abram drove them away.

12 And when the sunne was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram: and lo, an horror of great darkness fell upon him.

13 And he said unto Abram, Know of a surety that thy self shall be a stranger in a land that is not thine, and shall serve them; and they shall afflict thee four hundred years.

14 And also that nation whom they shall serve will I judge: and afterward shall they come out with great substance.

15 And thou shalt go to thy fathers in peace; thou shalt be buried in a good old age.

16 But in the fourth generation they shall come thither again: for the iniquity of the Amorites is not yet full.

17 And it came to passe, that when the sunne went down and it was dark, behold a smoking furnace, and a burning lamp that passed between those pieces.

18 In that same day the Lord made a covenant with Abram, saying, Unto thy self have I given this land, from the river of Egypt unto the great river the river Euphrates:

19 The Kenites, and the Kenezites, and the Kadmonites,

20 And the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Rephaims, 21 And the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Girgashites, and the Jebusites.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Sarai being barren giveth Hagar to Abram. 2 Hagar being afflicted for despising her mistress, runneth away. 3 An angel sendeth her back to Sarai herself. 4 and telleth her of her child. 5 Ishmael is born.

Now Sarai Abrahams wife bare him no children: and she had an handmaid an Egyptian, whose name was Hagar.

2 And Sarai said unto Abram, Behold now, the Lord hath restrained me from bearing: I pray thee go in unto my maid; it may be that I may obtain children by her: and Abram hearkened to the voice of Sarai.

3 And Sarai Abrahams wife took Hagar her maid, the Egyptian, after Abram had dwelt ten years in the land of Canaan, and gave her to her husband Abram to be his wife.

4 And she went in unto Hagar, and she conceived: and when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was despised in her eyes.

5 And Sarai said unto Abram, My wrong be upon thee: I have given my maid into thy bowels; and when she saw that she had conceived, I was despised in her eyes: the Lord judge between me and thee.

6 But Abram said unto Sarai, Behold, thy maid is in thy hand, do to her as it pleases thee. And when Sarai dealt hardly with her, she fled from her face.

7 And the angel of the Lord found her by a fountain of water in the wilderness, by the fountain of the way to Shur.

8 And he said, Hagar, Sarais maid, what art thou here?

9 And she said, My mistress is at home, and I have fled from her face.

10 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, Return to thy mistress, and submit thyself under her yoke: for thou art in Sarais hand.

11 And she said, I will submit myself under her yoke: for she hath said, I will build a tower, and will dwell therein: and will be called the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

12 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

13 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

14 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

15 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

16 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

17 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

18 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

19 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

20 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

21 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

22 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

23 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

24 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

25 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

26 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

27 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

28 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

29 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

30 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

31 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

32 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

33 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

34 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

35 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

36 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

37 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

38 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

39 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

40 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

41 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

42 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

43 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

44 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

45 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

46 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

47 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

48 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

49 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

50 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

51 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

52 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

53 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

54 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

55 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

56 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

57 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

58 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

59 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

60 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

61 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

62 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

63 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

64 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

65 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

66 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

67 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

68 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

69 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

70 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

71 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

72 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

73 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

74 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

75 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

76 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

77 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

78 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

79 And she said, I will dwell in the tower of the lord, because the Lord is with me.

80 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be counted for nothing.

9 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, Return to thy mistress, and submit thy self under her hand.

10 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be numbered for multitude.

11 And the angel of the Lord said unto her, Behold, thou art with child, and shalt bear a sonne, and shalt call his name J Shmael; because the Lord hath heard thy affliction.

* That is, God shall heare.

* Chap. 25, 18

12 And he will be a wilde man, his hand will be against every man, and every mans hand against him: and he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren.

15 And Hagar bare Abraham a sonne: and Abraham called his sonnes name, which Hagar bare, Shmael.

16 And Abraham was fourscore and five yeares old, when Hagar bare Shmael to Abraham.

CHAP. XVII.

1 God reneweth the covenant. 2 Abraham his name is changed in token of a greater blessing. 10 Circumcision is instituted. 15 Sarah her name is changed, and she blessed. 16 Isaac is promised. 23 Abraham and Shmael are circumcised.

And when Abraham was ninety yeares old and nine, the Lord appeared unto Abraham, and said unto him, I am the Almighty God: * walk before me, and be thou perfect.

* Chap. 5, 12. Or, upright, or, sincere.

2 And I will make my covenant between me and thee, and will multiply thee exceedingly.

3 And Abraham fell on his face; and God talked with him, saying,

4 As for me, behold, my covenant is with thee, and thou shalt be a father of * many nations:

* Heb. multitude of nations.

5 Either shall thy name any more be called Abraham, but thy name shall be Abraham: * for a father of many nations have I made thee.

6 And I will make thee exceeding fruitfull, and I will make nations of thee; and kings shall come out of thee.

7 And I will establish my covenant between me, and thee, and thy seed after thee, in their generations, for an everlasting covenant; to be a God unto thee, and to thy seed after thee.

8 And I will give unto thee, and to thy seed after thee, the land * wherein thou art a stranger; all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession; and I will be their God.

* Heb. of thy sojournings.

9 And God said unto Abraham, Thou shalt keep my covenant therefore, thou, and thy seed after thee, in their generations.

10 This is my covenant, which ye shall keep between me and you, and thy seed after thee; * Every man child among you shall be circumcised.

11 And ye shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskins, and it shall be * a token of the covenant betwixt me and you.

12 And he that is eight dayes old * shall be circumcised among you, every man child in your generations, he that is born in the house, or bought with money of any stranger, which is not of thy seed.

13 He that is born in thy house, and he that is bought with the money, must needs be circumcised: and my covenant shall be in your flesh for an everlasting covenant.

14 And the uncircumcised man-child, whose flesh of his foreskin is not circumcised, that soul shall be cut off from his people: he hath broken my covenant.

15 And God said unto Abraham, As for Sarah thy wife, thou shalt not call her name Sarah, but Sarah shall her name be.

16 And I will bless her, and give thee a sonne also of her: yea, I will bless her, and she shall be a mother of nations; kings of people shall be of her.

* Heb. she shall become nations.

17 Then Abraham fell upon his face, and laughed, and said in his heart, Shall a child be born unto him that is an hundred yeares old? and shall Sarah, that is in ninety yeares old, bear?

18 And Abraham said unto God, O that Shmael might live before thee!

19 And God said, Sarah thy wife shall bear thee a sonne indeed, and thou shalt call his name Isaac; and I will establish my covenant with him for an everlasting covenant, and with his seed after him.

* Chap. 22, and 27.

20 And as for Shmael, I have heard thee: behold, I have blessed him, and will make him fruitful, and will multiply him exceedingly: * twelve princes shall he beget, and I will make him a great nation.

* Chap. 25, 16.

21 But my covenant will I establish with Isaac, whom Sarah shall bear unto thee at this season in the next yeare.

22 And he left off talking with him, and God went up from Abraham.

23 And Abraham took Shmael his sonne, and all that were born in his house, and all that were bought with his money, every male among the men of Abrahams house, and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin, in the self-same day, as God had said unto him.

24 And Abraham was ninety yeares old and nine when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

25 And Shmael his sonne was thirteen yeares old when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin.

26 In the self-same day was Abraham circumcised, and Shmael his sonne.

27 And all the men of his house, born in the house, and bought with money of the stranger, were circumcised with him.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 Abraham entertaineth three angels. 9 Sarah is re proved for laughing at the strange promise. 17 The destruction of Sodom is revealed to Abraham. 23 Abraham maketh intercession for the men thereof.

And the Lord appeared unto him in the plains of Mamre: and he sat in the tent-doores in the heat of the day.

2 And he lift up his eyes and looked, and lo, * three men stood by him: and when he saw them, he ran to meet them from the tent-doores, and bowed himself toward the ground.

3 And said, My Lord, if now I have found favour in thy sight, passe not away, I pray thee, from thy servant:

4 Let a little water, I pray you, be fetched, and wash your feet, and rest your selves under the tree.

5 And I will fetch a morsel of bread, and comfort your weary bones; after that ye shall pass on: for therefore I am come to you. And they answered, We be weary, and have no strength.

6 And Abraham hastened into the tent unto Sarah, and said, I have frayed quickly thee * and measures of fine meal, knead it; and make cakes upon the hearth.

7 And Abraham ran unto the herd, and fetcht a calf tender and good, and gave it unto a young man; and he hasted to dress it.

8 And he took butter and milk, and the calf which he had dressed, and set it before them; and he stood by them under the tree; and they did eat.

9 And they said unto him, Where is Sarah thy wife? And he said, Behold, in the tent.

10 And he said, I will certainly return unto thee according to the time of life; and lo, Sarah thy wife shall have a sonne. And Sarah heard it in the tent-doores, which was behind him.

11 Now Abraham and Sarah were old, and well stricken in age: and it ceased to be with Sarah after the manner of women.

12 Therefore Sarah laughed within her self, saying, After I am waxen old, shall I have pleasure, my 'loins being old also?

13 And the Lord said unto Abraham, Therefore did Sarah laugh, saying, Shall I of a lively bear a child, when am old?

14 Is any thing too hard for the Lord? At the time appointed will I return unto thee, according to the time of life; and Sarah shall have a sonne.

15 When Sarah denied, saying, I laughed not: for he was afraid. And he said, Nay, but thou didst laugh.

16 And the men rose up from thence, and looked toward Sodom: and Abraham went with them to bring them on the way.

17 And the Lord said, Shall I hide from Abraham that thing which I do?

18 Seeing that Abraham shall surely become a great and mighty nation, and all the nations of the earth shall be blessed in him?

19 For I know him, that he will command his children and his households after him, and they shall keep the way of the Lord, to do justice and judgement; that the Lord may bring upon Abraham that which he hath spoken of him.

20 And the Lord said, Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great, and because their sinnes are very grievous, 21 I will go down now, and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come unto me; and if not, I will know.

22 And the men turned their faces from thence, and went toward Sodom: but Abraham stood yet before the Lord.

23 And Abraham drew near, and said, Wilt thou also destroy the righteous with the wicked?

24 peradventure there be fifty righteous with in the city: wilt thou also destroy, and spare the place for the fifty righteous that are therein?

25 What be far from thee to do after this manner, to slay the righteous with the wicked: and that the righteous should be as the wicked, that be farre from thee: Shall not the judge of all the earth do right?

26 And the Lord said, If I finde in Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will spare all the place for their sakes.

27 And Abraham answered and said, Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the Lord, which am but dust and ashes.

28 peradventure there shall lack five of the fifty righteous: wilt thou destroy all the city for lack of five? And he said, If I finde there forty and five, I will not destroy it.

29 And he spake unto him yet againe, and said, Peradventure there shall be twenty found there.

And he said, I will not do it for twenty sake.

30 And he said unto him, Oh let me the Lord be angry, and I will speak: peradventure they shall thirty be found there. And he said, I will not do it, if I finde thirty there.

31 And he said, Behold now, I have taken upon me to speak unto the Lord: peradventure there shall be twenty found there. And he said, I will not destroy it for twenty sake.

32 And he said, Oh let me the Lord be angry, and I will speak yet but this once: peradventure ten shall be found there. And he said, I will not destroy it for tennes sake.

33 And the Lord went his way, as when he had left communing with Abraham: and Abraham returned unto his place.

CHAP. XIX.

1 Lot entertained two angels. 4 The vicious Sodomites are stricken with blindness. 12 Lot is sent for suster into the mountains. 18 He obtaineth leave to go into Zora. 24 Sodom and Gomorrah are destroyed. 26 Lots wife is a pillar of salt. 30 Lot dwelleth in a cave. 31 The incestuous originall of Moab and Ammon.

And there came two angels unto Sodom at even; and Lot sat in the gate of Sodom: and he seeing them, rose up to meet them; and he bowed himself with his face toward the ground.

2 And he said, Behold now, my lords, when I pray you into your servants house, and tarry all night, and wash your feet, and ye shall rise up early, and go on your wayes. And they said, Nay, but we will abide in the street all night.

3 And he pressed upon them greatly; and they turned in unto him, and entered into his house: and he made them a feast, and did bake unleavened bread; and they did eat.

4 And before they lay down, the men of the city, even the men of Sodom, compassed the house round, both old and young, all the people from every quarter.

5 And they called unto Lot, and said unto him, Where are the men which came in to thee this night: bring them out unto us, that we may know them.

6 And Lot went out at the doore unto them, and shut the doore after him.

7 And said, I pray you, brethren, do me no wickedly.

8 Behold now, I have two daughters which have not known man; let me, I pray you, bring them out unto you, and do ye to them as it is good in your eyes: onely unto these men do nothing: for they came they under the shadow of my roof.

9 And they said, Stand back. And they said againe, This one fellow came in to us, and he will needs be a judge: how will we deal with thee then with them. And they pressed him upon the man, even Lot, and came near to break the doore.

10 But the men put forth their hand, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut the doore.

11 And they smote the men that were in the doore of the house with blindness, both small and great: so that they wearied themselves to finde the doore.

12 And the men said unto Lot, Hast thou here any besides? Some in law, and thy daughters, and thy daughters; and whatsoever thou hast in the city, bring them out of this place.

13 For we will destroy this place, because the cry of them is waxen great before the face of the Lord: and we have heard thee.

14 And Lot went out, and said unto his women, in lots, which married his daughter, and she was out of this place for the L. a. w. as well as this city: that he should see one that reached unto his bones in law.

15 ¶ And when the morning arose, then the angels hastened Lot, saying, Arise, take thy wife, and thy two daughters which I see here, lest thou be consumed in the iniquities of the city.

16 And while he lingered, the men laid hold upon his hand, and upon the hand of his wife, and upon the hand of his two daughters, the L. a. w. being merciful unto him: and they brought him forth, and let him without the city.

17 And it came to pass, when they had brought them forth abroad, that he said, Escape for thy life; look not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the plain; escape to the mountain, lest thou be consumed.

18 And Lot said unto them, Oh not so, my Lords.

19 Behold now, the servant hath found grace in thy sight, and thou hast magnified thy mercy, which thou hast shewed unto me in saving my life; and I cannot escape to the mountain, lest some evil make me, and I die.

20 Behold now, this city is near to flee unto, and it is a little one: oh let me escape thither, (as it is not a little one) and my soul shall live.

21 And he said unto him, See, I have accepted of thee concerning this thing, that I will not overthrow this city, for the which thou hast spoken.

22 Haste thee, escape thither: for I cannot do any thing till thou be come thither: therefore the name of the city was called Zoar.

23 ¶ The same was I risen upon the earth when Lot entered into Zoar.

24 ¶ Then the L. a. w. rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the L. a. w. out of heaven.

25 And he overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and that which grew upon the ground.

26 ¶ But his wife looked back from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt.

27 ¶ And Abraham gat up early in the morning to the place where he stood before the L. a. w.

28 And he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain, and behold, and lo, the smoke of the country went up as the smoke of a furnace.

29 ¶ And it came to pass, when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities, in the which Lot dwelt.

30 ¶ And Lot went up out of Zoar, and dwelt in the mountain, and his two daughters with him: for he feared to dwell in Zoar: and he dwelt in a cave, he and his two daughters.

31 And the first-born said unto the younger, Our father is old, and there is not a man in the earth to come in unto us, after the manner of all the earth.

32 Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father.

33 And they made their father drink wine that night: and the first-born went in, and lay with her father: and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

34 And it came to pass on the morning, that the first-born said unto the younger, Behold, I lay yesterday with my father: let us make him drink wine this night also; and go thou in, and lie with him, that we may preserve seed of our father.

35 And they made their father drink wine that night also; and the younger went, and lay with him: and he perceived not when she lay down, nor when she arose.

36 ¶ Thus were both the daughters of Lot with child by their father.

37 And the first-born bare a sonne, and called his name Moab: the same is the father of the Moabites unto this day.

38 And the younger, she also bare a sonne, and called his name Ben-ammi: the same is the father of the children of Ammon unto this day.

CHAP. XX.

1 Abraham sojourneth at Gerar, 2 denieth his wife, and loseth her. 3 Abimelech is reprov'd for her in a dream, 9 He rebuketh Abraham, 14 reproveth Sarah, 16 and reproveth her. 17 He is healed by Abrahams prayer.

¶ AD ABRAHAM journeyed from thence toward the south-country, and dwelled between Cadosh and Shur, and sojourned in Gerar.

2 And Abraham said of Sarah his wife, She is my sister: and Abimelech king of Gerar sent, and took Sarah.

3 But God came to Abimelech in a dream by night, and said to him, Behold, thou art but a dead man; for the woman which thou hast taken: for he is thy sister.

4 But Abimelech had not come near her: and he said, L. a. w. wilt thou slay also a righteous nation?

5 Said he not unto me, She is my sister? and she, even he her self said, He is my brother: in the integrity of my heart, and innocence of my hands have I done this.

6 And God said unto him in a dream, Per, I know that thou didst this in the integrity of thy heart: for I also withheld thee from sinning against me; therefore suffered I thee not to touch her.

7 Now therefore restore the man his wife: for he is a prophet, and he shall pray for thee, and thou shalt live: and if thou restore her not, know thou that thou shalt surely die, thou, and all that are thine.

8 Therefore Abimelech rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and told all these things in their ears: and the men were sore afraid.

9 Then Abimelech called Abraham, and said unto him, What hast thou done unto me? and what have I offended thee, that thou hast brought on me and on my kingdom a great sinne? thou hast done deeds unto me that ought not to be done.

10 And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What hast thou done, that thou hast done this thing?

11 And Abraham said, Because I thought, Surely the fear of God is not in this place; and they will slay me for my wives sake.

12 And perceived she is my sister; she is the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother: and she became my wife.

13 And it came to pass, when God caused me to wander from my fathers house, that I said unto her, This is the kindness which thou shalt shew unto me; At every place whither we shall come, say of me, He is my brother.

14 And Abimelech took sheep, and oxen, and men-servants, and women-servants, & gave them unto Abraham, and restored him Sarah his wife.

15 And Abimelech said, Behold, my land is before thee: dwell where it pleaseth thee.

16 And unto Sarah he said, Behold, I have given the brother a thousand pieces of silver: he holds, he is to thee a covering of the eyes, unto all that are with thee, and with all other: thus she was reprov'd.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Isaac is born. 4 He is circumcised. 6 Sarahs joy. 9 Hagar and Ishmael are cast forth. 15 Hagar in distress. 17 The angel comforteth her. 22 Abimelechs covenant with Abraham at Beer-sheba.

¶ And the Lord said unto Sarah as he had said, and the Lord did unto Sarah * as he had spoken.

2 For Sarah * conceived, and bare Abraham a sonne in his old age, at the set time of which God had spoken to him.

3 And Abraham called the name of his sonne that was born unto him, whom Sarah bare to him, Isaac.

4 And Abraham circumcised his sonne Isaac, being eight dayes old, * as God had commanded him.

5 And Abraham was an hundred yeares old, when his sonne Isaac was born unto him.

6 ¶ And Sarah saith, God hath made me to laugh, so that all that heare will laugh with me.

7 And she saith, Who would have said unto Abraham, that Sarah should have given children suck: for I have born him a sonne in his old age.

8 And the child grew, and was weaned: and Abraham made a great feast the same day that Isaac was weaned.

9 ¶ And Sarah saw the sonne of Hagar the Egyptian, which she had born unto Abraham, mocking.

10 And therefore she said unto Abraham, * Cast out this bond-woman, and her sonne: for the sonne of this bond-woman shall not be heir with my sonne, even with Isaac.

11 And the thing was very grievous in Abrahams sight, because of his sonne.

12 ¶ And God said unto Abraham, Let it not be grievous in thy sight, because of the lad, and because of thy bond-woman. In all that Sarah hath said unto thee, hearken unto her voice: for in Isaac shall thy seed be called.

13 And also of the sonne of the bond-woman will I make a nation, because he is thy seed.

14 And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread, and a bottle of water, and gave it unto Hagar (putting it on her shoulder) and the child, and sent her away: and she departed, and wandered in the wilderness of Beer-sheba.

15 And the water was spent in the bottle, and she cast the child under one of the shrubs.

16 And she went, and sat her down over against him, a good way off, as it were a bow-shot: for she said, Let me not see the death of the child. And she sat over against him, and lift up her voice, and wept.

17 And God heard the voice of the lad. And the angel of God called to Hagar out of heaven, and said unto her, What aileth thee, Hagar? fear not; for God hath heard the voice of the lad where he is:

18 Arise, lift up the lad, and hold him in thine hand; for I will make him a great nation.

19 And God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water, and she went, and filled the bottle with water, and gave the lad drink.

20 And God was with the lad; and he grew, and dwelt in the wilderness, & became an archer.

21 And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran: and his mother took him a wife out of the land of Egypt.

22 ¶ And it came to passe at that time, that Abimelech, and Phicol the chief captain of his host spake unto Abraham, saying, God is with thee in all that thou doest.

23 Now therefore swear unto me here by God, that thou wilt not deal falsely with me, nor with my servants, nor with my sonnes name: but according to the kindness that I have done unto thee, thou shalt do unto me, and to the land wherein thou hast sojournd.

24 And Abraham said, I will swear.

25 And Abraham requited Abimelech because of a well of water, which Abimelechs servants had violently taken away.

26 And Abimelech said, I wot not who hath done this thing: neither dost thou tell me, neither yet heard I of it but to day.

27 And Abraham took sheep and oxen, and gave them unto Abimelech: and both of them made a covenant.

28 And Abraham set seven ewe-lambs of the flock by themselves.

29 And Abimelech said unto Abraham, What mean these seven ewe-lambs, which thou hast set by thyself these?

30 And he said, For these seven ewe-lambs shalt thou take of my hand, that they may be a witness unto me, that I have digged this well.

31 And therefore he called that place Beer-sheba: because there they swore both of them.

32 Thus they made a covenant at Beer-sheba: then Abimelech rose up, and Phicol the chief captain of his host, and they returned into the land of the Philistines.

33 ¶ And Abraham planted a grove in Beer-sheba, and called there on the name of the Lord, the everlasting God.

34 And Abraham sojourned in the Philistines land many dayes.

CHAP. XXII.

1 Abraham is tempted to offer Isaac. 3 He receiveth proof of his faith and obedience. 11 The angel prayeth him. 13 Isaac is exchanged with a ramme. 16 The place is called Gebouah-jerah. 18 Abrahams blessing again. 20 The generation of Nahor unto Rebekah.

¶ And it came to passe after these things, that God did tempt Abraham, and said unto him, Abraham. And he said, Behold, here I am.

2 And he said, Take now thy sonne, thine only sonne Isaac, whom thou lovest, & get thee into the land of Moriah: and offer him there for a burnt-offering upon one of the mountains which I will tell thee of.

3 ¶ And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and sadden his asse, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his sonne, and cleaved wood for the burnt-offering; and rose up, and went unto the place of which God had told him.

4 Then on the third day Abraham lift up his eyes, and saw the place afar off.

5 And Abraham said unto his young men, Abide you here with the asse, and I and the lad will go yonger and worship, and come again to you.

6 And Abraham took the wood of the burnt-offering, and laid it upon Isaac his sonne: and he took the fire in his hand, and a knife: and they went both of them together.

7 And Isaac spake unto Abraham his father, and said, My father: and he said, I hear me, my sonne. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood: but where is the lamb for a burnt-offering?

8 And Abraham said, My sonne, God will provide

CHAP. XXIII.

1 The age and death of Sarah. 2 The purchase of Machpelah, 3 where Sarah was buried.

And Sarah was an hundred and seven and twenty years old: these were the years of the life of Sarah.

2 And Sarah died in Kirjath-arba; the same is Hebron in the land of Canaan: and Abraham came to mourn for Sarah, and to weep for her.

3 And Abraham stood up from before his dead, and spake unto the sonnes of Heth, saying,

4 I am a stranger and a sojourner with you: give me a possession of a burying-place with you, that I may bury my dead out of my sight.

5 And the children of Heth answered Abraham, saying unto him,

6 Hear us my lord; thou art a mighty prince amongst us: in the choice of our sepulchres bury thy dead: none of us shall withhold from thee his sepulchre, but that thou mayest bury thy dead.

7 And Abraham stood up, and bowed himself to the people of the land, even to the children of Heth.

8 And he communed with them, saying, If it be your minde that I should bury my dead out of my sight, heare me, and intert for me to Ephron the sonne Zohar:

9 That he may give me the cave of Machpelah, which he hath, which is in the end of his field, for as much money as it is worth he shall give it me, for a possession of a burying-place amongst you.

† Heb. full money.

10 And Ephron dwelt amongst the children of Heth. And Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham in the audience of the children of Heth, even of all that were in at the gates of his cite, saying, 11 My lord, heare me: the field give I thee, and the cave that is therein, I give it thee; in the presence of the sonnes of my people give I it thee: bury thy dead.

12 And Ephron bowed down himself before the people of the land.

13 And he spake unto Ephron in the audience of the people of the land, saying, But if thou wilt give it, I pray thee heare me: I will give thee money for the field; take it of me, and I will bury my dead there.

14 And Ephron answered Abraham, saying unto him,

15 My lord, hearken unto me: the land is worth four hundred shekels of silver; what is that betwixt me and thee? bury therefore thy dead.

16 And Abraham hearkened unto Ephron, and Abraham weighed to Ephron the silver, which he had named in the audience of the sonnes of Heth, four hundred shekels of silver, current money, with the merchant.

17 And the field of Ephron, which was in Machpelah, which was before Hamur, the field and the cave which was therein, and all the trees that were in the field, that were in all the borders round about, were made sure.

18 Unto Abraham for a possession in the presence of the children of Heth, before all that were in at the gates of his cite.

19 And after this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field of Machpelah, before Hamur: the same is Hebron in the land of Canaan.

20 And the field and the cave that is therein were made sure unto Abraham, for a possession of a burying-place, by the sonnes of Heth.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 Abraham sweareth his servant. 10 The servants journey. 12 His prayer. 14 His sign. 15 Rebekah meeteth him, 18 fulfilleth his sign, 22 receiveth jewels, 23 sheweth her kindred, 25 and inviteth him home. 26 The servant blesteth God. 29 Laban entertaineth him. 34 The servant sheweth his message. 50 Laban and Bethuel approve it. 58 Rebekah consenteth to go. 62 Isaac meeteth her.

And Abraham was old and well stricken in age: and the Lord said unto Abraham, saying, Behold, thou art old, and yet thou art not as yet entered into thy rest.

2 And Abraham said unto his eldest servant of his house, that ruled over all that he had, Put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh:

3 And I will make thee swear by the Lord, the God of heaven, and the God of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wife unto my sonne of the daughters of the Canaanites amongst whom I dwell:

4 But thou shalt go unto my country, and to my kindred, and take a wife unto my sonne Isaac.

5 And the servant laid unto him, Peradventure the woman will not be willing to follow me unto this land: must I needs bring thy sonne again unto the land from whence thou camest?

6 And Abraham said unto him, Beware thou, that thou bring not my sonne thither again.

7 ¶ The Lord God of heaven which took me from my fathers house, and from the land of my kindred, and which spake unto me, and that I should come hither, saying, Unto thy seed will I give this land; he shall send his angel before thee, and thou shalt take a wife unto my sonne from thence.

8 And if the woman will not be willing to follow thee, then thou shalt be clear from this my oath: only bing not my sonne thither again.

9 And the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and swore to him concerning that matter.

10 ¶ And the servant took ten camels, of the camels of his master, and departed (for all the goods of his master were in his hand) and he arose, and went to Mesopotamia, unto the cite of Haran.

11 And he made his camels to kneel down without the cite, by a well of water, at the time of the evening, even the time that women go out to draw water.

12 And he said, O Lord, God of my master Abraham, I pray thee send me good speed this day, and speed kindnesse unto my master Abraham.

13 Behold, I stand here by the well of water, and the daughters of the men of the cite come out to draw water:

14 And let it come to passe, that the damsel to whom I shall say, Let down thy pitcher, I pray thee, that I may drink; and she shall say, Drink, and I will give thee camels drink also: let the same be she that thou hast appointed for thy servant Isaac: and thereby shall I know that thou hast given kindnesse unto my master.

15 ¶ And it came to passe before he had done speaking, that behold, Rebekah came out, who was born to Bethuel, sonne of Milcah, the wife of Haran Abraham's brother, with her pitcher upon her shoulder.

16 And the damsel was very faire to look upon, a virgin, neither had any man known her; and she went down to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came up.

17 And the servant ran to meet her, and said, Let me (I pray thee) drink a little water of thy pitcher.

18 And she said, Drink, my lord: and she hastened, and let down her pitcher upon her hand, and gave him drink.

19 And when she had done giving him drink, she said, I will draw water for thy camels also, until they have done drinking.

20 And she hastened and emptied her pitcher into the trough, and ran again unto the well to draw water, and drew for all his camels.

21 And the man, wondering at her, held his peace, to wit, whether the Lord had made his journey prosperous, or not.

22 And it came to passe as the camels had done drinking, that the man took a golden ear-ring, of half a shekel weight, and two bracelets for her hands, of ten shekels weight of gold;

23 And said, Whose daughter art thou? tell me, I pray thee: is there room in thy fathers house for us to lodge in?

24 And she said unto him, I am the daughter of Bethuel the sonne of Milcah, which she bare unto Haran:

25 She said moreover unto him, Wilt thou have both straw and provender enough, and room to lodge in?

26 And the man bowed down his head, and worshipped the Lord.

27 And he said, Blessed be the Lord God of my master Abraham, who hath not left destitute my master of his need, and his need: I being in the way, the Lord led me to the house of thy masters-brother.

28 And the damsel ran, and told them of her mothers house these things.

29 ¶ And Rebekah had a brother, and his name was Laban: and Laban ran out unto the man, unto the well.

30 And it came to passe when he saw the ear-ring and bracelets upon his sisters hands, and when he heard the words of Rebekah his sister, saying, Thus spake the man unto me; that he came unto the man; and behold, he stood by the camels at the well.

31 And he said, Come in, thou blessed of the Lord, wherefore standest thou without? for I have prepared the house, and room for the camels.

32 ¶ And the man came into the house: and he ungirded his camels, and gave straw and provender for the camels, and water to wash his feet, and the mens feet that were with him.

33 And there was set meat before him to eat: but he said, I will not eat, until I have told mine errand. And he said, Speak on.

34 And he said, I am Abraham's servant.

35 And the Lord God hath blessed my master greatly, and he is become great: and he hath given him flocks, and herds, and silver, and gold, and men-servants, and maid-servants, and camels, and asses.

36 And Sarah my masters wife bare a sonne to my master when he was old: and unto him hath he given all that he hath.

37 And my master made me swear, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife to my sonne of the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I dwell:

38 But thou shalt go unto my fathers house, and unto my kindred, and take a wife unto my sonne.

39 And I said unto my master, Peradventure the woman will not follow me.

40 And he said unto me, The Lord before whom I walk, will send his angel with thee, and prosper thy way; and thou shalt take a wife for my sonne of my kindred, and of my fathers house.

41 Then shalt thou be clear from this my oath, when thou comest to my kindred; and if they give not thee one, thou shalt be clear from my oath.

42 And I came this day unto the well, and said, O Lord God of my master Abraham, if now thou do prosper my way which I go:

43 Behold, I stand by the well of water, and it shall come to passe, that when the damsel cometh forth to draw water, and I say to her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water of thy pitcher to drink;

44 And she say to me, Both drink thou, and I will also draw for thy camels: let the same be the woman whom the Lord hath appointed out for my masters sonne.

45 And before I had done speaking in mine heart, behold, Rebekah came forth with her pitcher on her shoulder; and she went down unto the well, and drew water: and I said unto her, Let me drink, I pray thee.

46 And she made haste, and let down her pitcher from her shoulder, and said, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also (so I drank, and she made the camels drink also).

47 And I asked her, and said, Whose daughter art thou? And she said, The daughter of Bethuel, Labans sonne, whom Milcah bare unto Haran: and I put the ear-ring upon her face, and the bracelets upon her hands.

48 And I bowed down my head, and worshipped the Lord, and blessed the Lord God of my master Abraham, who hath led me in the 18 Then Laban and Bethuel answered, and said, The thing procedeth from the Lord: we cannot speak unto thee but as good.

19 Behold, Rebekah is before thee, take her, and go; and let her be thy master's sonnes wife, as the Lord hath spoke in.

20 And it came to passe, that when Abrahams servant heard their words, he worshipped the Lord, bowing himself to the earth.

21 And the servant brought forth jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment, and gave them to Rebekah: he gave also to her brother and to her mother precious things.

22 And they did eat and drink, he and the men that were with him, and tarried all night; and they rose up in the morning, and he said, Send me away unto my master.

24 And he said unto them, Winder me not, seeing the Lord hath prospered my way: send me away that I may go to my master.

25 And they said, We will call the damsel, and enquire at her mouth.

26 And they called Rebekah, and said unto her, Wilt thou go with this man? And she said, I will go.

27 And they sent away Rebekah their sister, and her nurse, and Abrahams servant, and his men.

28 And they blessed Rebekah, and said unto her, Thou art our sister, be thou the mother of thousands of millions, and let thy seed possess the gate of those which hate them.

29 And Rebekah arose, and her damsel, and they rode upon the camels, and followed the man: and the servant took Rebekah, and went his way.

30 And Isaac came from the way of the well Labai-roi, for he dwelt in the south country.

31 And Isaac went out to meditate in the field at the eventide: and he lift up his eyes, and saw, and behold, the camels were coming.

32 And Rebekah lift up her eyes, and when she saw Isaac, she lighted off the camel.

33 For he had said unto the servant, What man is this that waiteth in the field to meet us? And the servant had said, It is my master: therefore she took a veil and covered her self.

34 And the servant told Isaac all things that he had done.

35 And Isaac brought her into his mother Sarahs tent, and took Rebekah, and she became his wife, and he loved her: and Isaac was comforted after his mothers death.

CHAP. XXV.

1 The sonnes of Abraham by Keturah. 2 The division of his goods: 3 His age and death: 4 His buriall. 5 The generations of Ishmael: 6 His age and death. 7 Isaac prayeth for Rebekah being barren. 8 The children strive in her womb. 9 The birth of Esau and Jacob. 10 Their difference. 11 Esau selleth his birthright.

Then againe Abraham took a wife, and her name was Keturah.

2 And she bare him Zimran, and Jokshan, and Medan, and Shidhan, and Ishbak, and Shuah.

3 And Jokshan begat Sheba, and Dedan. And the sonnes of Dedan were Assurim, and Letumim, and Jemim, and Dimim.

4 And the sonnes of Ishmael, Gebar, and Sapher, and Hamech, and Amich, and Elad: all these were the children of Keturah.

5 And Abraham gave all that he had unto Isaac.

6 But unto the sonnes of the concubines which Abraham had, Abraham gave gifts, and sent them away from Isaac his sonne (while he yet lived) eastward, unto the east country.

7 And these are the dayes of the yeares of Abrahams life which he lived, an hundred threescore and fifteen yeares.

8 Then Abraham gave up the ghost, and died in a good old age, an old man, and full of yeares; and was gathered to his people.

9 And his sonnes Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Ephron the sonne of Zohar the Hittite, which is before Hamre;

10 The field which Abraham purchased of the sonnes of Heth: there was Abraham buried, and Sarah his wife.

11 And it came to passe after the death of Abraham, that God blessed his sonne Isaac, and Isaac dwelt by the well Labai-roi.

12 And now these are the generations of Ishmael Abrahams sonne, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarahs handmaid, bare unto Abraham.

13 And these are the names of the sonnes of Ishmael by their names, according to their generations: The first-borne of Ishmael; Nebajoth, and Kedar, and Adabel, and Mibsam, 14 And Shimsa, and Dumah, and Massa, and Hader, and Tema, Jetur, Naphith, and Kechemah.

15 These are the sonnes of Ishmael, and these are their names, by their towns, and by their castles; twelve princes according to their nations.

16 And these are the yeares of the life of Ishmael, an hundred and thirty and seven yeares; and he gave up the ghost and died, and was gathered unto his people.

17 And they dwelt from Nablah unto Shur, that is before Egypt, as thou goest towards Assyria; and he died in the presence of all his brethren.

18 And these are the generations of Isaac Abrahams sonne: Abraham begat Isaac.

19 And Isaac was forty yeares old when he took Rebekah to wife, the daughter of Bethuel the Syrian of Padan-aram, the sister to Laban the Syrian.

20 And Isaac intended the Lord to be for his wife, because he was barren: and the Lord was increased of him, and Rebekah his wife conceived.

21 And the children struggled together within her: and she said, If it be so, why am I thus? And he went to enquire of the Lord.

22 And the Lord said unto her, Two nations are in thy womb, and two manner of people shall be separated from thy bowels: and the one people shall be stronger than the other people; and the elder shall serve the younger.

23 And when her dayes to be delivered were fulfilled, behold, there were twines in her womb.

24 And the first came out reys, all other like an hairy garment: and they called his name Esau.

25 And after that came his brother out, and his hand took hold on Esaus heel: and his name was called Jacob: and Isaac was threescore yeares old when he bare them.

26 And the boyes grew: and Esau was a cunning hunter, a man of the field; and Jacob was a plain man dwelling in tents.

27 And Isaac loved Esau, because he did eat of his venison: but Rebekah loved Jacob.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Isaac blesteth Jacob, and sendeth him to Padan-aram. 2 Esau marryeth Mahalah the daughter of Ishmael. 3 The vision of Jacobs ladder. 4 The stone of Beth-el. 5 Jacobs vow.

AND Isaac called Jacob, and blessed him, and charged him, and said unto him: Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan.

2 * Arise, go to Padan-aram, to the house of Bethuel thy mothers father; and take thee a wife from thence of the daughters of Laban thy mothers brother.

3 And God Almighty bless thee, and make thee fruitful, and multiply thee, that thou mayest be a multitude of people.

4 And give thee the blessing of Abraham, to thee, and to thy seed with thee; that thou mayest inherit the land wherein thou art a stranger, which God gave unto Abraham.

5 And Isaac sent away Jacob, and he went to Padan-aram unto Laban, sonne of Bethuel the Syrian, the brother of Rebekah, Jacob and Esaus mother.

6 And when Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob, and sent him away to Padan-aram, to take him a wife from thence; and that as he blessed him, he gave him a charge, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of Canaan.

7 And that Jacob obeyed his father, and his mother, and was gone to Padan-aram.

8 And Esau seeing that the daughters of Canaan pleased not Isaac his father:

9 Then went Esau unto Ishmael, and took unto the wives which he had, Mahalah the daughter of Ishmael Abrahams sonne, the sister of Rebekah, to be his wife.

10 And Jacob went out from Beersheba, and went toward Padan-aram.

11 And he lighted upon a certain place, and tarried there all night, because the sunne was set: and he took of the stones of that place, and put them for his pillow, and lay down in that place to sleep.

12 And he dreamed, and behold a ladder set upon the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven: and behold, the angels of God ascending and descending on it.

13 And he said, This is as it is: I stood above it, and said, I am the Lord to God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isaac: the land wherein thou liest, so thee will I give it, and to thy seed.

14 And thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth: and thou shalt spread abroad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south: in thee and in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed.

15 And he said, I am with thee, and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest, and will bring thee again into this land: for I will not leave thee, until I have done that which I have spoken to thee.

16 And Jacob awoke out of his sleep, and he said, Surely the Lord is in this place, and I knew it not.

17 And he was afraid, and said, How dreadful is this place! this is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate of heaven.

18 And Jacob rose up early in the morning, and took the stone that he had put for his pillow, and set it up for a pillar, and poured oil upon the top of it.

19 And he called the name of that place Beth-el: but the name of that city was called Luz at the first.

20 And Jacob vowed a vow, saying, If God will be with me, and will keep me in this way, that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and raiment to put on;

21 So that I come again to my fathers house in peace: then shall the Lord be my God.

22 And this stone, which I have set for a pillar, shall be Gods house: and of all that thou shalt give me, I will surely give thee tenth unto thee.

CHAP. XXIX.

1 Jacob cometh to the well of Hanan. 2 He taketh acquaintance of Rachel. 3 Laban entertains him. 4 Jacob serves with Rachel. 5 He is deceived with Leah. 6 He marryeth also Rachel, and serveth for her seven years more. 7 Leah beareth Reuben. 8 Simeon. 9 Levi. 10 Judah.

THEN Jacob went on his journey, and came to the land of the people of the east. And he looked, and behold, the well of the shepherds: and there were three flocks of shepherds by it: for out of that well they watered the flock: and a great stone was upon the wells mouth.

2 And thither were all the flocks gathered: and they rolled the stone from the wells mouth, and watered the sheep, and put the stone again upon the wells mouth in his place.

3 And Jacob came unto them, and said, My brethren, whence be ye? And they said, We are from Mesopotamia.

4 And he said unto them, Whence are ye? And they said, We are from Mesopotamia, the sonne of Nahor. And they said, Where hast thou been?

5 And he said unto them, I have been with Esau. He is well: and behold, Rachel is with me, cometh with the sheep.

6 And he said, Let us go, and water the sheep. Is it time that the cattle should be gathered together? water ye the sheep, and go and feed them.

7 And they said, We cannot until all the flock be gathered together, and till they roll the stone from the wells mouth, then will we water the sheep.

8 And he said, I will go and roll the stone from the wells mouth, and water the flock of Laban his mothers brother.

9 And he went, and rolled the stone from the wells mouth, and watered the flock of Laban his mothers brother.

10 And it came to pass, when Jacob was alone, that the angel of the Lord appeared unto him, and said, Jacob, thou art called by thy name.

28 And he said, Appoint me thy wages, and I will give it.

29 And he said unto him, Thou knowest how I have served thee, and how thy cattell was with me.

30 For it was little which thou hadst before I came, and it is now increased unto a multitude; and the Lord hath blessed thee since my coming: and now when shall I provide for mine own house also?

31 And he said, What shall I give thee? And Jacob said, Thou shalt not give me any thing: if thou wilt do this thing for me, I will again feed and keep thy flock.

32 I will pass through all thy flock to day, removing from thence all the speckled and spotted cattell, and all the brown cattell among the sheep, and the spotted and speckled among the goats; and of such shall be my hire.

33 So shall my righteousness answer for me in time to come, when it shall come for my hire before thy face: every one that is not speckled and spotted amongst the goats, and brown amongst the sheep, that shall be accounted stolen with me.

34 And Laban said, Behold, I would it might be according to thy word.

35 And he removed that day the he-goats, that were ring-strakes, and spotted, and all the he-goats that were speckled and spotted, and every one that had some white in it, and all the brown among the sheep, and gave them into the hands of his sonnes.

36 And he let thier dayes journey betwixt himselfe and Jacob: and Jacob fed the rest of Labans flocks.

37 And Jacob took him robs of green poylar, and of the hael and cheinut-tree; and filled white strakes in them, and made the white appeare white in the robe.

38 And he let the robs which he had filled before the flocks in the gutters in the watering troughs, when the flocks came to drink; that they should conceive when they came to drink.

39 And the flocks conceived before the robs, and brought forth cattell ring-straked, speckled, and spotted.

40 And Jacob did separate the lamdes, and let the faces of the flocks to ward the ring-straked, and all the brown in the flock of Laban: and he put his own flocks by themselves, and put them out unto Labans cattell.

41 And it came to pass whensoever the stronger cattell did conceive, that Jacob laid the robs before the eyes of the cattell in the gutters, that they might conceive among the robs.

42 But when the cattell were feeble, he put them not in: so the feeble were Labans, and the stronger Jacobs.

43 And the man increased exceedingly, and had much cattell, and made servants, and men-servants, and camels, and asses.

CHAP. XXXI

1 Jacob upon displeasure departed secretly. 2 Rachel beareth her fathers images. 33 Laban pursueth after him, 36 and complaineth of the wrong. 34 Rachels policie to hide the images. 36 Jacobs complaint of Laban. 43 The covenant of Laban and Jacob as God.

And he heard the words of Labans sonnes, saying, Jacob hath taken away all that was our fathers: and of a hea which was our fathers he hath gotten all this glory.

And Jacob beheld the countenance of Laban, and beheld, it was not toward him as before.

And the Lord said unto Jacob, Return unto the land of thy fathers, and to thy kindred; and I will be with thee.

And Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to bring him into his flock,

And said unto them, I see your fathers countenance, that it is not toward me as before: but the God of my father hath been with me.

And ye know that with all my power I have served your father.

And your father hath deceived me, and changed my wages ten times: but God suffered him not to hurt me.

8 If he said thus, The speckled shall be thy wages; then all the cattell bare speckled: and if he said thus, The ring-strakes shall be thy hire; then bare all the cattell ring-strakes.

9 Thus God hath taken away the cattell of your father, and given them to me.

10 And it came to pass at the time that the cattell conceived, that I lifted up mine eyes, and saw in a dream, and behold, the rammes which lay upon the cattell were ring-straked, speckled, and grissled.

11 And the angel of God spake unto me in a dream, saying, Jacob: And I said, Here am I.

12 And he said, Lift up now thine eyes and see, all the rammes which lay upon the cattell are ring-straked, speckled, and grissled: for I have seen all that Laban doth unto thee.

13 I am the God of Beth-el, where thou anointedst the pillar, and where thou vowedst a vow unto me: now arise, get thee out from this land, and return unto the land of thy kindred.

14 And Rachel and Leah answered, and said unto him, Is there yet any portion of inheritance for us in our fathers house?

15 Are we not counted of him strangers? for he hath sold us, and hath quite devoured us, and money.

16 For all the riches which God hath taken from our father, that is ours, and our children: now then hasten, for God hath said unto thee, Arise.

17 Then Jacob rose up, and let his women and his wives upon camels.

18 And he carried away all his cattell, and all his goods which he had gotten, the cattell of his getting, which he had gotten in Padan-aram: and he went to Isaac his father in the land of Canaan.

19 And Laban went to share his sheep: and Rachel had stolen the images that were her fathers.

20 And Jacob stole away unawares as Laban the Syrian, in that he told him not that he fled.

21 So he fled with all that he had, and he rose up, and passed over the river, and let his feet toward the mount Oilean.

22 And it was told Laban on the third day that Jacob was fled.

23 And he took his brethren with him, and pursued after him seven dayes journey; and they overtook him in the mount Oilean.

24 And God came to Laban the Syrian in a dream by night, and said unto him, Take heed, that thou speak not to Jacob: either good or bad.

25 When Laban overtook Jacob, Jacob had pitched his tent in the mount, and Laban with his brethren pursued in the mount Oilean.

26 And Laban said to Jacob, What hast thou done, that thou hast stolen away unawares to me, and carried away my daughters, as captives taken with the sword?

27 And he said, I fled from thy face, for I was afraid of thee: for I said, I might have lost thee as I have lost my father, and I might have lost thee as I have lost my mother.

2 And when Shechem the sonne of Hamor the Hivite prince of the countrey saw her, he took her, and lay with her, and † defiled her.

3 And his sonne came unto Dinah the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the damsel, and spake † kindly unto the damsel.

4 And Shechem spake unto his father Hamor, saying, Get me this damsel to wife.

5 And Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter, (now his sonnes were with his cattle in the field) and Jacob held his peace until they were come.

6 ¶ And Hamor the father of Shechem went out unto Jacob to commune with him.

7 And the sonnes of Jacob came out of the field when they heard it, and the men were grieved, and they were very wroth, because he had wrought folly in Israel, in lying with Jacobs daughter, which thing ought not to be done.

8 And Hamor communed with them, saying, The soul of my sonne Shechem longeth for your daughter: I pray you give her him to wife.

9 And make ye marriages with us, and give your daughters unto us, and take our daughters unto you.

10 And ye shall dwell with us, and the land shall be before you: dwell and trade you therein, and get you possessions therein.

11 And Shechem said unto her father and unto her brethren, Let me finde grace in your eyes, and what ye shall say unto me I will give.

12 Ask me never to much dowry and gift, and I will give according as ye shall say unto me; but give me the damsel to wife.

13 And the sonnes of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father deceitfully, and said, because he had defiled Dinah their sister.

14 And they said unto them, We cannot do this thing, to give our sister to one that is uncircumcised: for that were a reproach unto us.

15 But in this will we consent unto you: If ye will be as we be, that every male of you be circumcised;

16 Then will we give our daughters unto you, and we will take your daughters to us, and we will dwell with you, and we will become one people.

17 But if ye will not hearken unto us, to be circumcised; then will we take our daughters, and we will be gone.

18 And their wives pleaded Hamor and Shechem Hamors sonne.

19 And the young man deferred not to do the thing, because he had delight in Jacobs daughter, and he was more honourable then all the house of his father.

20 ¶ And Hamor and Shechem his sonne came unto the gate of their cite, and communed with the men of their cite, saying, 21 These men are peaceable with us: therefore let them dwell in the land, and trade therein: for the land, behold, it is large enough for them: let us make their daughters to us for wives, and let us give them our daughters.

22 Onely herein will the men consent unto us: that they dwell with us, to be one people, if every male among us be circumcised, as they are circumcised.

23 Shall not their cattle, and their substance, and every beast of theirs be ours? onely let us consent unto them, and they will dwell with us.

24 And unto Hamor, and unto Shechem his sonne, hearkened all that went out of the gate of his cite: and every male was circumcised, all that went out of the gate of his cite.

25 ¶ And it came to pass on the third day when they were gone, that two of the sonnes of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinahs brethren, took each man his sword, and came upon the cite boldly, and slew all the males.

26 And they slew Hamor and Shechem his sonne with the edge of the sword, and took Dinah out of Shechems house, and went out.

27 The sonnes of Jacob came upon the slain, and spoiled the cite, because they had defiled their sister.

28 They took their sheep, and their oxen, and their asses, and that which was in the cite, and that which was in the field,

29 And all their wealth, and all their little ones, and their wives took they captive, and spoiled even all that was in the house.

30 And Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, Ye have troubled me to make me to stink among the inhabitants of the land, amongst the Canaanites, and the Hittites: and I being few in number, they shall gather themselves together against me, and slay me; and I shall be destroyed, I and my house.

31 And they said, Should he deal with our sister, as with an harlot?

CHAP. XXXV.

1 God sendeth Jacob to Beth-el. 2 He purgeth his house of idols. 6 He buildeth an altar at Beth-el. 8 Deborah dieth at Allon-bachuth. 9 God appeareth Jacob at Beth-el. 16 Rachel travaileth of Benjamin, and dieth in the way to Edar. 22 Reuben lieth with Bilhah. 23 The sonnes of Jacob. 27 Jacob cometh to Isaac at Hebron. 28 The age, death, and buriall of Isaac.

And God said unto Jacob, Arise, go up to Beth-el, and dwell there: and make there an altar unto God, that appeared unto thee when thou fleddest from the face of Esau thy brother.

2 Then Jacob said unto his household, and to all that were with him, Put away the strange gods that are among you, and be clean, and change your garments.

3 And let us arise, and go up to Beth-el: and I will make there an altar unto God, who answered me in the day of my distress, and was with me in the way which I went.

4 And they gave unto Jacob all the strange gods which were in their hands, and all their precious things which were in their eares: and Jacob hid them under the oak which was by Shechem.

And they journeyed: and the terror of God was upon the cities that were round about them, and they did not pursue after the sonnes of Jacob.

6 ¶ So Jacob came to Luz, which is in the land of Canaan (that is Beth-el) he and all the people that were with him.

7 And he built there an altar, and * called the place Beth-el, because there God appeared unto him, when he fled from the face of his brother.

8 But Deborah Rebekahs nurse died, and she was buried beneath Beth-el, under an oak: and the name of it was called Allon-bachuth.

9 ¶ And God appeared unto Jacob again, when he came out of Padan-aram, and blessed him.

10 And God said unto him, Thy name is Jacob: thy name shall not be called any more Jacob, * but Israel shall be thy name: and he called his name Israel.

11 And God said unto him, I am God Almighty: be fruitful and multiply: a nation and a company of kings shall be of thee, and kings shall come out of thy loins.

12 And the land which I gave Abraham and Isaac, to thee I will give it, and to thy seed after thee will I give the land.

13 And God went up from him, in the place where he talked with him.

14 And Jacob set up a pillar in the place where he talked with him, even a pillar of stones, and he poured a drink-offering thereon, and he poured oyl thereon.

15 And Jacob called the name of the place where God spake with him, Beth-el.

16 And they journeyed from Beth-el: and there was but a little way to come to Ephrath: and Rachel travailed, and she had hard labour.

17 And it came to passe when he was in hard labour, that the midwife said unto her, Fear not; thou shalt have this sonne also.

18 And it came to passe as her soul was departing (for he died) that he called his name I Ben-oni: but his father called him Benjamin.

19 And Rachel died, and was buried in the way to Ephrath, which is Beth-lehem.

20 And Jacob set a pillar upon her grave: that is the pillar of Rachels grave unto this day.

21 And Israel journeyed, and spread his tent beyond the tower of Eder.

22 And it came to passe when Israel dwelt in that land, that Bilhah went and lay with Bilhah his father's maid, and Israel heard it. Now the sonnes which were there twelve.

23 The sonnes of Leah were Reuben Jacobs first-born, and Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Zabulun.

24 The sonnes of Rachel; Joseph and Benjamin.

25 And the sonnes of Bilhah, Rachels handmaid; Dan, and Naphtali.

26 And the sonnes of Zilpah, Leahs handmaid; Gad, and Asher. These are the sonnes of Jacob, which were born to him in Padan-aram.

27 And Jacob came unto Isaac his father unto Ramer, unto the cite of Arbab (which is Hebron) where Abraham and Isaac sojourned.

28 And the dayes of Isaac were an hundred and fourscore yeres.

29 And Isaac gave up the ghost and died, and was gathered unto his people, being old and full of dayes: and his sonnes Esau and Jacob buried him.

2. Esau three wives. 6 His removing to mount Seir. 9 His sonnes. 19 The dukes which descended of his sonnes. 20 The sonnes and dukes of Seir. 23 fineth mules. 31 The kinges of Edom. 40 The that descended of Esau.

Now these are the generations of Esau who is Edom.

2 Esau took his wives of the daughters of Canaan: Adah the daughter of Elon the Hittite; and Aholibamah the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibion the Hivite.

3 And Basemath Ishmaels daughter, sister of Rebekah.

4 And Adah bare to Esau, Eliphaz; and Basemath bare Reuel.

5 And Aholibamah bare Jeush, and Jaalam, and Korah: these are the sonnes of Esau, which were born unto him in the land of Canaan.

6 And Esau took his wives and his sonnes, and his daughters, and all the persons of his house, and his cattell, and all his beasts, and all his substance, which he had got in the land of Canaan; and went into the country from the south unto Seir.

7 For their riches were more then that they might dwell together: and the land wherein they were strangers, could not bear them, because of their cattell.

8 Thus dwelt Esau in mount Seir: Esau is Edom.

9 And these are the generations of Esau, the father of the Countiees in mount Seir.

10 These are the names of Esaus sonnes; Eliphaz the sonne of Adah the wife of Esau, Reuel the sonne of Basemath the wife of Esau.

11 And the sonnes of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, and Gatam, and Kenaz.

12 And Timna was concubine to Eliphaz Esaus sonne; and she bare to Eliphaz Amalek: these were the sonnes of Adah Esau wife.

13 And these are the sonnes of Reuel; Hahab, and Jerah, Shammah, and Ohyah: these were the sonnes of Basemath Esau wife.

14 And these were the sonnes of Aholibamah, the daughter of Anah, the daughter of Zibion Esau wife: and she bare to Esau, Korah, and Jaalam, and Korah.

15 These were dukes of the sonnes of Esau: the sonnes of Eliphaz the first-born sonne of Esau; duke Teman, duke Omar, duke Zepho, duke Kenaz;

16 Duke Korah, duke Gatam, and duke Ohyah: these are the dukes that came of Eliphaz, in the land of Edom: these were the sonnes of Adah.

17 And these are the sonnes of Reuel Esau sonne; duke Hahab, duke Jerah, duke Shammah, duke Ohyah. These are the dukes that came of Reuel in the land of Edom: these are the sonnes of Basemath Esau wife.

18 And these are the sonnes of Aholibamah Esau wife; duke Korah, duke Jaalam, duke Korah: these were the dukes that came of Aholibamah the daughter of Anah Esau wife.

19 These are the sonnes of Esau (who is Edom) and these are their dukes.

20 These are the sonnes of Seir the Horite, who inhabited the land; Lotan, and Shobal, and Zibeon, and Anah.

21 And Dishon, and Ezer, and Dishan: these are the dukes of the Horites, the children of Seir in the land of Edom.

22 And the children of Lotan were Hori, and Hemam: and Lotans sister was Timnah.

23 And the children of Shobal were these; Uthan, and Hanathah, and Othi, Shepho and Oham.

24 And these are the children of Zibion: both Anah, and Anah: this was that Anah, that found the mules in the wilderness, as he fed the asses of Zibion his father.

25 And the children of Anah were these; Dishon, and Aholibamah the daughter of Anah.

26 And these are the children of Dishon; Hemdan, and Eshan, and Ithyan, and Ozeran.

27 The children of Ezer are these; Bilhan, and Chan, and Achau.

28 The children of Dishan are these; Oz, and Aran.

29 These are the dukes that came of the Horites; duke Lotan, duke Shobal, duke Zibion, duke Anah.

30 Duke Dishon, duke Ezer, duke Dishan: these are the dukes that came of Esau, among their dukes in the land of Seir.

31 And these are the kings that reigned in the land of Edom, before there reigned any king over the children of Israel.

And Bela the sonne of Beor reigned in Edom: and the name of his city was Paltah.

CHAP. XXXVIII.

1 Judah begetteth Er, Onan, and Shelah. 6 Er marrieth Tamar. 8 The trespass of Onan. 11 Tamar sayeth for Shelah: 13 She deceiveth Judah, 27 She beareth twinnes: Pharez and Zarah.

And it came to passe at that time, that Judah went down from his brethren, and turned in to a certain Adullamite, whose name was Hirah.

2 And Judah saw there a daughter of a certain Canaanite whose name was Shuah, and he took her, and went in unto her.

3 And she conceived, and bare a sonne; and he called his name Er.

4 And she conceived again, and bare a sonne; and he called his name Onan.

5 And she yet again conceived, and bare a sonne, and called his name Shelah: and he was at Chezib, when she bare him.

6 And Judah took a wife for Er his first-borne, whose name was Tamar.

7 And Er Judahs first-borne, was wicked in the sight of the Lord: and he slew him.

8 And Judah said unto Onan, Go in unto thy brothers wife, and marry her, and raise up seed to thy brother.

9 And Onan knew that the seed should not be his; and it came to passe, when he went in unto his brothers wife, that he spilled it on the ground, lest that he should give seed to his brother.

10 And the thing which he did displeased the Lord: wherefore he slew him also.

11 Then said Judah to Tamar his daughter in law, Remain a widow at the fathers house, till which my sonne be grown: (for he said, I will promise you, he die also as his brother did) and Tamar went and dwelt in her fathers house.

12 And it was in process of time, the daughter of Shuah birthed two men: and Judah was comforted, and went up unto his sheep-shearsers to Shunem, he and his friends with the Adullamites.

13 And it was told Tamar, saying, Behold, the father in law is gone up to Shunem, to shear his sheep.

14 And she put her inlaid garments off from her, and covered her with a veil, and torqued herself, and sat in an open place, which is by the way to Shunem: for she said, I shall be begotten, and she was not known unto any man.

15 When Judah saw her, he thought she was an harlot, because she had covered her face.

16 And he turned unto her by the way, and said, Go to, I pray thee, let me come in unto thee.

(for he knew not that she was his daughter: in law) and she said, And how dost thou give me, when thou sayest come in unto me?

17 And he said, I will stand thee in a kin from the flock, and thou shalt give me a sign.

18 And he said, What pledge shalt I give thee? And she said, Thy signet and thy ornaments, and thy staff that is in thine hand: and he gave it her, and came in unto her, and she conceived by him.

19 And she arose and went away, and laid by her veil from her, and put on the garments of her widowhood.

20 And Judah sent the kin by the hand of his friend the Adullamite, to receive his pledge from the womans hand: but he found her not.

21 Then he asked the men of that place, saying, And here is the garden, that was I opened by the wayes side? And they said, There was no harlot in this place.

22 And he returned to Judah, saying, I cannot finde her; and also the men of the place said, that there was no harlot in this place.

23 And Judah said, Let her be kin to me, lest we be ashamed: behold, I am this kin, and thou hast not found her.

24 And it came to passe about thre moneths after, that it was told Judah, saying, Tamar thy daughter is lawfully placed the sonnes, wherein behold, she is with child by the womans: and Judah said, Being her forth, and let her be borne.

25 When she was in labour, she came to her father in law, saying, By the man which I have, am I with child: and she said, Where? I pray thee, whose are these, the signet, and ornaments, and staff?

26 And Judah acknowledged them, saying, She hath done me wrong: because then I have said, I gave her not to Shunem, but she hath known her again now.

27 And it came to passe in the time of her travail, that she bore twinnes.

28 And it came to passe when she travailed, that the one put out his hand, and the midwife took and bound upon his hand a thred, saying, This came out first.

29 And it came to passe as he drew down his hand, that behold, his brother came out: and she said, How hast thou broken forth? this breach be upon thee: therefore his name was called Pharez.

30 And after wards came out his brother, and his name was called Zarah.

1 Joseph advanced in Josephs house. 7 He is sold to his mistresss companion. 13 He is sold to the Egyptians. 17 He is sold to the Pharaohs butler and baker.

And Joseph was brought down to Egypt, and Potiphar an officer of Pharaohs, captain of the guard, an Egyptian, bought him of the hands of the Ishmaelites, which came to him, and sold him thither.

2 And the Lord was with Joseph, and he was in the house of his master the Egyptian.

 5 And it came to pass from the time that he had made him overseer in his house, and over all that he did, that the Lord blessed the Egyptian house for Josephs sake: and the blessing of the Lord was upon all that he had in the house, and in the field.

6 And he left all that he had in Josephs hands; and he knew not ought he had, save the bread which he did eat: and Joseph was a goodly person, and well-favoured.

7 ¶ And it came to pass after these things, that his masters wife cast her eyes upon Joseph, and she said, Lie with me.

8 But he refused, and said unto his masters wife, Behold, my master wotteth not what is with me in the house, and he hath committed all that he hath to my hand.

9 There is none greater in this house than I: neither hath he kept back any thing from me, but thee; because thou art his wife: how then can I do this great wickedness, and sinne against God?

10 And it came to pass as he spake to Joseph day by day, that he hearkened not unto her, to lie by her, or to be with her.

11 And it came to pass about this time, that Joseph went into the house to do his business, and there was none of the men of the house there within.

12 And she caught him by his garment, saying, Lie with me: and he left his garment in her hand, and fled, and got him out.

13 And it came to pass, when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand, & was fled forth, 18 And it came to pass, as I lift up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled out.

19 And it came to pass, when his master heard the words of his wife, which she spake unto him, saying, After this manner did thy servant to me; that his wrath was kindled.

20 And Josephs master took him, and put him into the prison, a place, where the kings prisoners were bound: and he was there in the prison.

3 And he put them in ward in the house of the captain of the guard, into the prison, the place where Joseph was bound.

4 And the captain of the guard charged Joseph with them, and he served them; and they continued a season in ward.

5 ¶ And they dreamed a dream both of them, each man his dream in one night, each man according to the interpretation of his dream; the butler and the baker of the king of Egypt, which were bound in the prison.

6 And Joseph came in unto them in the morning, and looked upon them; and behold they were sad.

7 And he asked Pharaohs officers that were with him in the ward of his lords house, saying, Wherefore look ye so sadly to day?

8 And they said unto him, We have dreamed a dream, and there is no interpreter of it. And Joseph said unto them, Do not interpretations belong to God? tell me them, I pray you.

9 And the chief butler told his dream to Joseph, and said unto him, In my dream, behold, a vine was before me;

10 And in the vine were three branches; and it was as though it budded, and her boughs shot forth; and the clusters thereof brought forth ripe grapes.

11 And Pharaohs cup was in my hand, and I took the grapes, and pressed them into Pharaohs cup: and I gave the cup into Pharaohs hand.

12 And Joseph said unto him, This is the interpretation of it: the three branches are three days;

¶ Or, in 13 Yet within three days shall Pharaoh lift up thine head, and restore thee unto thy place, and thou shalt deliver Pharaohs cup into his hand, after the former manner when thou wast his butler.

20 ¶ And it came to pass the third day, which was Pharaohs birth-day, that he made a feast unto all his servants, and he lifted up the head of the chief butler, and of the chief baker among his servants.

21 And he restored the chief butler unto his butlership again, and he gave the cup into Pharaohs hand.

CHAP. XLII.

1 Pharaoh's two dreams. 9 Joseph interpreteth them.
33 He giveth Pharaoh counsel. 38 Joseph is advanced. 50 He begetteth Manasseh and Ephraim.
54 The famine beginneth.

And it came to pass at the end of two full years, that Pharaoh dreamed, and behold he stood by the river.

2 And behold, there came up out of the river seven well-favoured kine, and fat-fleshed; and they fed in a meadow.

3 And behold, seven other kine came up after them out of the river, ill-favoured and lean-fleshed; and stood by the other kine, upon the brink of the river.

4 And the ill-favoured and lean-fleshed kine, did eat up the seven well-favoured and fat kine. So Pharaoh awoke.

5 And he slept and dreamed the second time: and behold, seven ears of corn came up upon one stalk, rank and good.

6 And behold, seven thin ears and blasted with the east-wind sprung up after them.

7 And the seven thin ears devoured the seven rank and full ears: and Pharaoh awoke, and behold, it was a dream.

8 And it came to pass in the morning, that his spirit was troubled, and he sent and called for all the magicians of Egypt, and all the wise-men thereof: and Pharaoh told them his dream; but there was none that could interpret them unto Pharaoh.

9 ¶ Then spake the chief butler unto Pharaoh, saying, I do remember my faults this day.

10 Pharaoh was wroth with his servants, and put me inward in the captain of the guards house, both me, and the chief butler.

11 And we dreamed a dream in one night, I and he: we dreamed each man according to the interpretation of his dream.

12 And there was there with us a young man, an Egyptian, servant to the captain of the guard: and we told him, and he interpreted to us our dreams, to each man according to his dream: he did interpret.

13 And it came to pass, as he interpreted to us, so it was: me he restored unto mine office, and him he hanged.

14 ¶ Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph, and they brought him hither out of the dungeon: And he shaved himself, and changed his raiment, and came in unto Pharaoh.

15 And Joseph said unto Joseph, I have dreamed a dream, and there is none that can interpret it: and I have heard say of thee, that thou canst understand a dream, to interpret it.

16 And Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, Is not I? and God shall give Pharaoh an answer of peace.

17 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, In my dream, behold, I stood upon the bank of the river.

18 And behold, there came out of the river seven kine, fat-fleshed and well-favoured, and they fed in a meadow.

19 And behold, seven other kine came up after them, poor and very ill-favoured, and lean-fleshed, such as I never saw in all the land of Egypt for badness.

20 And the lean and the ill-favoured kine did eat up the first seven fat kine.

21 And when they had eaten them up, it could not be known that they had eaten them; but they were still ill-favoured, as at the beginning: so I stood.

22 And I sat in my dream, and behold, seven ears came up in one stalk, full and good.

23 And behold, seven ears withered, thin and blasted with the east-wind, sprung up after them.

24 And the thin ears devoured the seven good ears: and I told this unto the magicians; but there was none that could declare it unto me.

25 ¶ And Joseph said unto Pharaoh, The dream of Pharaoh is one: God hath shewed Pharaoh what he is about to do.

26 The seven good kine are seven years; and the seven good ears are seven years: the dream is one.

27 And the seven thin and ill-favoured kine that came up after them, are seven years; and the seven empty ears blasted with the east-wind, shall besiden years of famine.

28 This is the thing which I have spoken unto Pharaoh: what God is about to do, he sheweth unto Pharaoh.

29 Behold, there come seven years of great plenty, throughout all the land of Egypt.

30 And there shall arise after them seven years of famine; and all the plenty shall be forgotten in the land of Egypt; and the famine shall consume the land.

31 And the plenty shall not be known in the land, by reason of that famine following: for it shall be very grievous.

32 And for that the dream was doubled unto Pharaoh twice, it is because the thing is certain: God will shortly bring it to pass.

33 Now therefore let Pharaoh look out a man discreet and wise, and let him over the land of Egypt.

34 Let Pharaoh do this, and let him appoint officers over the land, and take up the fifth part of the land of Egypt in the seven plentiful years.

35 And let them gather all the food of those good years that come, and lay up corn under the hand of Pharaoh, and let them keep food in the cities.

36 And that food shall be for store to the land, against the seven years of famine, which shall be in the land of Egypt; that the land perish not through the famine.

37 ¶ And the thing was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of all his servants.

38 And Pharaoh said unto his servants, Can we find such a one as this is, a man in whom the spirit of God is?

39 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Forasmuch as God hath shewed thee all this, there is none so discreet and wise as thou art.

40 ¶ Thou shalt be over my house, and according to thy word shall all my people be ruled: only in the throne will I be greater than thou.

41 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Behold, I have set thee over all the land of Egypt.

42 And Pharaoh took off his ring from his hand, and put upon Joseph's hand, and gave him in vestments of fine linen, and put a gold chain about his neck.

43 And he made him to ride in the second chariot, which he had; and they cried before him, Bow the knee: and he made him ruler over all the land of Egypt.

12 And he said, These brethren, sons of our father, are true men, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of Canaan.

13 And the man the lord of the country said unto us, Whereby shall I know that ye are true men; leave one of your brethren here with me, and take food for the famine of your households, and be gone.

14 And being your youngest brother unto me: then shall I know that you are no spies, but that you are true men: so will I deliver you your brother, and ye shall traffick in the land.

15 And it came to pass as they emptied their sacks, that behold, every man's bundle of money was in his sack: and when both they and their father saw the bundles of money, they were afraid.

16 And Jacob their father said unto them, Why have ye decreased of my children: Joseph is not, and Simeon is not, and ye will take Benjamin away: all these things are against me.

17 And Simeon spake unto his father, saying, Why say thou so? if I bring him not to thee, deliver him into my hands, and I will bring him to thee again.

18 And he said, Why shall not go down with you: for his brother is dead, and he is left alone; if mischief befall him by the way in the which ye go, then shall ye bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave.

CHAP. XLIII.

1 Jacob is hardly persuaded to send Benjamin. 15 Joseph entertaineth his brethren. 31 He maketh them a feast.

AND the famine was sore in the land.

2 And it came to pass when they had eaten up the corn which they had brought out of Egypt, their father said unto them, Go again, buy us a little food.

3 And Judah spake unto him, saying, The man did solemnly protest unto us, saying, We shall not see my face, except ye with your brother be with you.

4 If thou wilt send our brother with us, we will go down and buy thee food.

5 But if thou wilt not send him, we will not go down: for the man said unto us, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you.

6 And Israel said, Wherefore dealt ye so ill with me, as to tell the man that ye had yet a brother?

7 And they said, The man asked us straitly of our state, and of our kindred, saying, Is your father yet alive? have ye another brother? and we told him according to the counsel of these women: for could we certainly know that he would say, Bring your brother down?

8 And Judah said unto Israel his father, Send the lad with me, and we will arise and go; that we may live and not die, both we, and thou, and also our little ones.

9 I will be surety for him; of my hand shall thou require him: if I bring him not unto thee, and set him before thee, then let me bear the blame for ever.

10 For except we had lingered, surely now we had returned in this second time.

11 And when father Israel said unto them, It is now to be done, do this; take of the best fruits in the land in your vessels, and carry down the man a present, a little balm, and a little honey, dates and figs, wine, and almonds;

12 And take double money for your hands: and the money that was brought again in the mouth of your sacks, carry it again in your hands; peradventure it was an oversight.

13 Take also your brother, and arise, go again unto the man.

14 And God Almighty give you mercy before the man, that he may send away your other brother, and Benjamin: for I have been bereaved of my children, I am bereaved.

15 And the men took that present, and they took double money in their hands, and Benjamin, and rose up, and went down to Egypt, and stood before Joseph.

16 And when Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the ruler of his house, Bring these men home, and I stay, and make ready: for these men shall dine with me at noon.

17 And the man did as Joseph bade: and the man brought the men into Joseph's house.

18 And the men were afraid, because they were brought into Joseph's house; and they said, Because of the money that was returned in our sacks at the first time, are we brought in, that he may seek occasion against us, and fall upon us, and take us for bondmen, and our asses.

19 And they came near to the steward of Joseph's house; and they communed with him at the doore of the house.

20 And said, Alas, sir, for we came indeed hither at the first time to buy food.

21 And it came to pass when we came to the inn, that we opened our sacks, and behold, every man's money was in the mouth of his sack: our money in full weight: and we have brought it again in our hands.

22 And other money have we brought down in our hands to buy food: we cannot tell who put our money in our sacks.

23 And he said, Peace be to you, fear not: your God, and the God of your father, hath given you treasure in your sacks: I had your money. And he brought Simeon out unto them.

24 And the man brought the men into Joseph's house, and gave them water, and they washed their feet; and he gave them asses to feed.

25 And they made ready the present against Joseph came at noon: for they heard that they should eat bread there.

26 And when Joseph came home, they brought him the present which was in their hands into the house, and bowed themselves to him to the earth.

27 And he asked them of their welfare, and said, Is your father well, the old man of whom ye speak? is he yet alive?

28 And they answered, Thy servant our father is in good health, he is yet alive: and they bowed down their heads, and made obeisance.

29 And he lifted up his eyes, and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, and said, Is this your younger brother, of whom ye spake unto me? And he said, God be gracious unto thee my son.

30 And Joseph made haste; for his brothers were upon his brother: and he sought where to weep, and he entered into his chamber, and wept there.

31 And he washed his face, and went out, and restrained himself, and said, God on him.

32 And they set out from him by himself, and for them by themselves, as for the Egyptians, which sit at the mouth of the house, and the Hebrews; for that is an abomination unto the Egyptians.

3 As soon as the morning was light, the men were sent away, they and their asses.

4 And when they were gone out of the cite, and not yet farr off, Joseph said unto his steward, Up, follow after the men; and when thou dost overtake them, say unto them, Whither have ye rewarded evil for good?

† Or maketh trial.

5 Is not this it, in which my lord drinketh? and whereby indeed he divineth? ye have done evil in so doing.

6 And he overtook them, and he spake unto them these same words.

7 And they said unto him, Whitherfore saith my lord these words? God forbid that thy servants should do according to this thing.

8 Behold, the money which we found in our sacks mouths, we brought again unto thee out of the land of Canaan: how then should we steal out of thy lords house silver or gold?

9 Which without leave of thy servants it be found, both let him die, and we also will be thy servants hom-men.

10 And he said, Now also let it be according unto your words: he with whom it is found shall be my servant, and ye shall be blameless.

11 When they specially took down every mans his sack to the ground, and opened every mans his sack.

12 And he searched, and began at the eldest, and left at the youngest: and the cup was found in Benjamin's sack, 13 When they rent their clothes, and laden every man his ass, and returned to the cite.

14 And Judah and his brethren came to Josephs house (for he was yet there) and they fell before him on the ground.

† Or, make trial.

15 And Joseph said unto them, What deed is this that ye have done? or ye not, that such a man as I can certainly divine?

16 And Judah said, What shall we say unto my lord? what shall we speak? or how shall we clear our selves? God hath found out the iniquitie of thy servants: behold, we are thy servants, both we, and he also with whom the cup is found.

17 And he said, God forbid that I should do so: but the man whose hand the cup is found, he shall be my servant: and as for you, get you up in peace unto your father.

18 And when Judah came nigh unto him, and said, Whither lord, let thy servant, I pray thee, dwell a while in my lords eyes, and let not mine anger burn against thy servants: for thou art right as Pharaoh.

19 My lord asked his servants, saying, What ye a father, or a brother?

20 And he said unto my lord, I have a father, yet old man, and a wife, and she hath borne unto me seven sons: but this youngest hath perished out of the land: and he hath left of his mother, and his father seven sons.

21 And thou hast sold unto thy servants, being him down unto us, that I may let mine eyes upon him.

22 And he said unto my lord, The lad cannot leave his father: for if he should leave his father his father would die.

23 And thou saidst unto thy servants, Except your youngest brother come down with you, you shall see my face no more.

24 And it came to passe, when we came up unto thy servant my father, we told him the words of my lord.

25 And our father said, Go again, and buy us a little food.

26 And we said, We cannot go down: for our youngest brother be with us, then will we go down: for we may not see the mans face, except our youngest brother be with us.

27 And thy servant my father said unto us, Ye know that my wife bare me two sons; and the one went out from me, and I said, Surely he is torn in pieces; and I saw him not since.

28 And if ye take this also from me, and mischief befall him, ye shall bring down my gray hairs with sorrow to the grave.

29 Now therefore when I come to thy servant my father, and the lad be not with us, seeing that his life is bound up in the lads life, 30 I shall come to passe, when he seeth that the lad is not with us, that he will die; and thy servants shall bring down the gray hairs of thy servant our father with sorrow to the grave.

31 For thy servant became surety for the lad unto my father, saying, If I bring him not unto thee, then I shall bear the blame to my father for ever.

32 Now therefore, I pray thee, let thy servant abide in stead of the lad, a bond-man to my lord; and let the lad go up with his brethren.

33 For thou shalt I go up to my father, and the lad be not with me: lest peradventure I see the evil that shall I come on my father.

CHAP. XLV.

When Joseph could not refrain himself before all them that stood by him; and he cried, And they man to go out from him: and there stood no man with him, while Joseph made himself known unto his brethren.

2 And he wept aloud, and the Egyptians and the house of Pharaoh heard.

3 And Joseph said unto his brethren, I am Joseph; doth my father yet live? And his brethren could not answer him for they were troubled at his presence.

4 And Joseph said unto his brethren, Come nigh to me, I pray you: and they came nigh unto him. I am Joseph your brother, whom ye sold into Egypt.

8 So now it was: not you that sent me hither, but God: and he hath made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and a ruler throughout all the land of Egypt.

9 Haste you, and go up to my father, and say unto him, Thus saith the sonne Joseph, God hath made me lord of all Egypt: come down unto me,
I beseech thee.

10 And thou shalt dwell in the land of Goshen, and thou shalt be neare unto me, thou, and thy children, and thy childrens children, and thy flocks and thy herds, and all that thou hast.

11 And there will I nourish thee: for yet there are five yeeres of famine: lest thou, and thy household, and all that thou hast, come to povertrie.

12 And behold, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is my mouth that speaketh unto you.

13 And you shall tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that you have seen; and ye shall bring down my father hither.

14 And he fell upon his brother Benjamin's neck, and wept; and Benjamin wept upon his neck.

15 Moreover, he kissed all his brethren, and wept upon them: and after that his brethren talked with him.

16 ¶ And the same thereof was heard in Pharaohs house, saying, Josephs brethren are come:
and it pleased Pharaoh well and his servants.

17 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, Say unto thy brethren, This do ye: lade your beasts, and go ye up unto the land of Canaan;

18 And take your father, and your households, and come unto me: and I will give you the good of the land of Egypt, and ye shall eat the fat of the land.

19 Now thou art commanded, this do ye. Take you wagons out of the land of Egypt for your little ones, and for your wives, and bring your father, and come.

20 Also regard not your stuffe: for the good of all the land of Egypt is yours.

21 And the children of Israel did so: and Joseph gave them wagons, according to the commandment of Pharaoh, and gave them provision for the way.

22 To all of them he gave each man changes of raiment: but to Benjamin he gave three hundred pieces of silver, and five changes of raiment.

23 And to his father he sent after this manner;
ten asses laden with the good things of Egypt, and ten the asses laden with corn, and bread and meat for his father by the way.

24 So he sent his brethren away, and they departed:
and he said unto them, See that ye fall not out by the way.

25 ¶ And they went up out of Egypt, and came into the land of Canaan unto Jacob their father.

26 And told him, saying, Joseph is yet alive, and he is governeur over all the land of Egypt.
And Jacobs heart fainted, for he beleeveth them not.

27 And they told him all the words of Joseph, which he had said unto them: and when he saw the wagons which Joseph had sent to carry him, the spirit of Jacob their father revived.

28 And Israel said, It is enough: Joseph my sonne is yet alive: I will go and see him before I die.

31 And Joseph said unto his brethren, and unto his father's house, I will go up, and I will bury my father, and I will come down, and I will bury my father, and I will come down, and I will bury my father, and I will come down, and I will bury my father.

32 And the men are shepherds, for their trade hath been to feed cattle; and they have brought their flocks and their herds, and all that they have.

33 And it shall come to pass when Pharaoh shall call you, ye shall say, We have been shepherds, as our fathers were: that ye may dwell in the land of Goshen; for every shepherd is an abomination unto the Egyptians.

CHAP. XLVII.

1 Joseph presenteth five of his brethren, and his father before Pharaoh. 2 He giveth them habitation and maintenance. 3 He giveth all the Egyptians money, and their cattle, for their lands unto Pharaoh. 4 The priests' land was not bought. 5 He letteth the land to them for a fifth part. 6 Jacob's age. 7 He sweareth Joseph to bury him with his fathers.

1 And Joseph came and told Pharaoh, and said, My father and my brethren, and their flocks, and their herds, and all that they have, are come out of the land of Canaan; and behold, they are in the land of Goshen.

2 And he took some of his brethren, even five men, and presented them unto Pharaoh.

3 And Pharaoh said unto his brethren, What is your occupation? And they said unto Pharaoh, Thy servants are shepherds, both we and our fathers.

4 They said moreover unto Pharaoh, For to dwell in the land are we come: for thy servants have no pasture for their flocks, for the famine is dire in the land of Canaan: now therefore we pray thee, let thy servants dwell in the land of Goshen.

5 And Pharaoh spake unto Joseph, saying, Thy father, and thy brethren are come unto thee.

6 The land of Egypt is before thee; in the best of the land make thy father and his brethren to dwell: in the land of Goshen let them dwell: and if thou findest any man of activity amongst them, then make them rulers over my cattle.

7 And Joseph brought in Jacob his father and his sons before Pharaoh: and Joseph blessed Pharaoh.

8 And Pharaoh said unto Joseph, How old art thou?

9 And Joseph said unto Pharaoh, The days of the years of my pilgrimage are an hundred and thirty years: few and evil have the days of the years of my life been, and have not attained unto the days of the years of the life of my fathers in the days of their pilgrimage.

10 And Joseph blessed Pharaoh, and went out from before Pharaoh.

11 And Joseph placed his father and his brethren, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Ramesses, as Pharaoh had commanded.

12 And Joseph nourished his father, and his brethren, and all his father's household with bread, according to their families.

13 And there was no bread in all the land, for the famine was very sore, so that the land of Egypt and all the land of Canaan faint by reason of the famine.

14 And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the corn which they bought: and Joseph brought the money unto Pharaoh's house.

15 And when money failed in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came unto Joseph, and said, Give us bread: for why should we die in thy presence? for the money faileth.

16 And Joseph said, Give your cattle, and I will give you for your cattle, if money fail.

17 And they brought their cattle unto Joseph: and Joseph gave them bread in exchange for their horses, and for the flocks, and for the cattle of the herds, and for the asses, and for the donkeys, and for all their cattle, for that year.

18 And when that year was ended, they came unto him the second year, and said unto him, We will not hide from thee our money, because our money is spent, we have sold all our herds of cattle; there is nothing left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies, and our lands.

19 And Joseph said, Shall we die before thine eyes, both we, and our land? buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be servants unto Pharaoh: and give us seed, that we may live and not die, that the land be not desolate.

20 And Joseph bought all the land of Egypt for Pharaoh: for the Egyptians sold every man his field, because the famine prevailed over them: so the land became Pharaoh's.

21 And as for the people, he removed them to cities from one end of the borders of Egypt, even to the other end thereof.

22 Only the land of the priests bought he not: for the priests had a portion assigned them of Pharaoh, and they ate their portion which Pharaoh gave them: wherefore they sold not their lands.

23 Then Joseph said unto the people, Behold, I have bought you this day, and your land for Pharaoh: so, here is seed for you, and ye shall sow the land.

24 And he shall come to pass in the increase, that you shall give the fifth part unto Pharaoh, and four parts shall be your own, for seed of your field, and for your stock, and for them of your households, and for food for your little ones.

25 And they said, Thou shalt save our lives: let us do as thou hast said, for we will be servants unto Pharaoh.

Joseph visiteth his father. Chap. xlviii. xlix. Jacob blesteth Josephs sonnes

18 And Israel stretched out his right hand, and laid it upon Ephraims head, who was the younger; and his left hand upon Dananahs head, putting his hands willingly: for Dananah was the first-born.

19 And he blessed Joseph, and said, God, before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac did walk, the God which led me all my life long unto this day.

20 The Angel which redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads; and let my name be named on them; and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; and let them grow into multitude in the midst of the earth.

21 And when Joseph saw that his father left his right hand upon the head of Ephraim, it displeased him: and he laid up his hands, to remove it from Ephraims head unto Dananahs head.

22 And Joseph said unto his father, Behold, I die; but God shall be with you, and shall bring you again unto the land of your fathers.

23 Moreover, I have given to thee and to thy brethren the land of Egypt, for thou shalt dwell there; for thou shalt be a great people, and shall be gathered into the land which thou shalt dwell in.

24 And Joseph said unto his father, Behold, I die; but God shall be with you, and shall bring you again unto the land of your fathers.

25 Moreover, I have given to thee and to thy brethren the land of Egypt, for thou shalt dwell there; for thou shalt be a great people, and shall be gathered into the land which thou shalt dwell in.

26 And Joseph said unto his father, Behold, I die; but God shall be with you, and shall bring you again unto the land of your fathers.

27 Moreover, I have given to thee and to thy brethren the land of Egypt, for thou shalt dwell there; for thou shalt be a great people, and shall be gathered into the land which thou shalt dwell in.

28 And Joseph said unto his father, Behold, I die; but God shall be with you, and shall bring you again unto the land of your fathers.

29 Moreover, I have given to thee and to thy brethren the land of Egypt, for thou shalt dwell there; for thou shalt be a great people, and shall be gathered into the land which thou shalt dwell in.

30 And Joseph said unto his father, Behold, I die; but God shall be with you, and shall bring you again unto the land of your fathers.

31 Moreover, I have given to thee and to thy brethren the land of Egypt, for thou shalt dwell there; for thou shalt be a great people, and shall be gathered into the land which thou shalt dwell in.

32 And Joseph said unto his father, Behold, I die; but God shall be with you, and shall bring you again unto the land of your fathers.

33 Moreover, I have given to thee and to thy brethren the land of Egypt, for thou shalt dwell there; for thou shalt be a great people, and shall be gathered into the land which thou shalt dwell in.

34 And Joseph said unto his father, Behold, I die; but God shall be with you, and shall bring you again unto the land of your fathers.

35 Moreover, I have given to thee and to thy brethren the land of Egypt, for thou shalt dwell there; for thou shalt be a great people, and shall be gathered into the land which thou shalt dwell in.

36 And Joseph said unto his father, Behold, I die; but God shall be with you, and shall bring you again unto the land of your fathers.

37 Moreover, I have given to thee and to thy brethren the land of Egypt, for thou shalt dwell there; for thou shalt be a great people, and shall be gathered into the land which thou shalt dwell in.

38 And Joseph said unto his father, Behold, I die; but God shall be with you, and shall bring you again unto the land of your fathers.

39 Moreover, I have given to thee and to thy brethren the land of Egypt, for thou shalt dwell there; for thou shalt be a great people, and shall be gathered into the land which thou shalt dwell in.

40 And Joseph said unto his father, Behold, I die; but God shall be with you, and shall bring you again unto the land of your fathers.

41 Moreover, I have given to thee and to thy brethren the land of Egypt, for thou shalt dwell there; for thou shalt be a great people, and shall be gathered into the land which thou shalt dwell in.

42 And Joseph said unto his father, Behold, I die; but God shall be with you, and shall bring you again unto the land of your fathers.

13 And Joseph took them both, Ephraim in his right hand towards Israels left hand, and Dananah in his left hand towards Israels right hand, and brought them near unto him.

14 And Israel stretched out his right hand, and laid it upon Ephraims head, who was the younger; and his left hand upon Dananahs head, putting his hands willingly: for Dananah was the first-born.

15 And he blessed Joseph, and said, God, before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac did walk, the God which led me all my life long unto this day.

19 Moreover, I have given to thee and to thy brethren the land of Egypt, for thou shalt dwell there; for thou shalt be a great people, and shall be gathered into the land which thou shalt dwell in.

20 And Joseph said unto his father, Behold, I die; but God shall be with you, and shall bring you again unto the land of your fathers.

21 Moreover, I have given to thee and to thy brethren the land of Egypt, for thou shalt dwell there; for thou shalt be a great people, and shall be gathered into the land which thou shalt dwell in.

22 And Joseph said unto his father, Behold, I die; but God shall be with you, and shall bring you again unto the land of your fathers.

23 Moreover, I have given to thee and to thy brethren the land of Egypt, for thou shalt dwell there; for thou shalt be a great people, and shall be gathered into the land which thou shalt dwell in.

24 And Joseph said unto his father, Behold, I die; but God shall be with you, and shall bring you again unto the land of your fathers.

25 Moreover, I have given to thee and to thy brethren the land of Egypt, for thou shalt dwell there; for thou shalt be a great people, and shall be gathered into the land which thou shalt dwell in.

26 And Joseph said unto his father, Behold, I die; but God shall be with you, and shall bring you again unto the land of your fathers.

27 Moreover, I have given to thee and to thy brethren the land of Egypt, for thou shalt dwell there; for thou shalt be a great people, and shall be gathered into the land which thou shalt dwell in.

28 And Joseph said unto his father, Behold, I die; but God shall be with you, and shall bring you again unto the land of your fathers.

29 Moreover, I have given to thee and to thy brethren the land of Egypt, for thou shalt dwell there; for thou shalt be a great people, and shall be gathered into the land which thou shalt dwell in.

30 And Joseph said unto his father, Behold, I die; but God shall be with you, and shall bring you again unto the land of your fathers.

31 Moreover, I have given to thee and to thy brethren the land of Egypt, for thou shalt dwell there; for thou shalt be a great people, and shall be gathered into the land which thou shalt dwell in.

32 And Joseph said unto his father, Behold, I die; but God shall be with you, and shall bring you again unto the land of your fathers.

CHAP. XLIX.

1 Jacob calleth his sonnes to bless them. 2 Their blessing in particular. 29 He chargeth them when he is burialed. 33 He dieth.

And Jacob called unto his sonnes, and said, Gather your selves together, for I am ready to die.

2 Gather your selves together, and your brethren, and your sonnes, and your brethren unto Israel your father.

3 And Reuben, thou art my first-born, my might, and the beginning of my strength, the excellency of dignity, and the excellency of power:

4 Unstable as the water, thou shalt not excell: because thou hast descended into the pit, thou shalt not ascend thence: for thou art descended into the pit, thou shalt not ascend thence.

5 And Simon and Levi are brethren: for their inventions of cruelty are in their habitations.

6 My soul, come thou into their chamber: and to their assembly, mine honour, be not thou brought: for in their anger they have slain a man, and in their wrath they have slain a man.

7 Cursed be their anger, for it was fierce, and their wrath, for it was cruel: I will divide them in Jacob, and scatter them in Israel.

8 And Judah, thou art he whom thy brethren shall praise: thy hand shall be in the neck of thine enemies; thy fathers brethren shall bow down before thee.

9 And as a lion, thou art gone up: he shall lie down as a lion, and as an old lion, who shall not be afraid.

10 And Benjamin, thou art thy fathers son, thou art thy fathers son, thou art thy fathers son, thou art thy fathers son.

11 And Dan, thou art a serpent, and thou art a serpent, thou art a serpent, thou art a serpent.

12 And Nephthali, thou art a doe, and thou art a doe, thou art a doe, thou art a doe.

10 The scriper shall not depart from Judah, nor a law-giver from between his feet, untill Shiloh come, and unto him shall the gathering of the people be.

11 Binding his sole unto the vine, and his asles girth unto the choice vine; he washed his garments in wine, and his clothes in the blood of grapes.

12 His eyes shall be red with wine, and his teeth white with milk.

13 Ephraim shall dwell at the haven of the sea, and he shall be for an haven of ships: and his border shall be unto Hidon.

14 Issachar is a strong asse, couching down between two burdens.

15 And he saw that rest was good, and the land that it was pleasant; and bowed his shoulder to bear, and became a servant unto tribute.

16 Dan shall judge his people as one of the tribes of Israel.

17 Dan shall be a serpent by the way, & an adder in the path; that bitech the horse heels, so that his rider shall fall backward.

18 I have waited for thy salvation, O Lord.

19 Gad, a troupe shall overcome him: but he shall overcome at the last.

20 Out of Asher his bread shall be fat, and he shall feed royal daughters.

21 Naphtali is a hind let loose, he giveth goodly words.

22 Joseph is a fruitful bough, even a fruitful bough by a well, whose branches runne over the wall.

23 The archers have sorely grieved him, and shot at him, and hated him.

24 But his bow abode in strength, and the arms of his hands were made strong by the hands of the mighty God of Jacob: from thence is the shepherd, the stone of Israel.

25 Even by the God of the father who shall help thee, and by the Almighty, who shall bless thee with blessings of heaven above, blessings of the deep that lieth under, blessings of the breasts, and of the womb.

26 The blessings of thy father have prevailed above the blessings of my progenitors, unto the utmost bounde of the everlasting hills: they shall be on the head of Joseph, and on the crown of the head of him that was separate from his brethren.

27 Benjamin shall raven as a wolf, in the morning he shall devour the prey, and at night he shall divide the spoil.

28 All these are the twelve tribes of Israel: and this is it that their fathers spake unto them, and blessed them, every one according to his blessing he blessed them.

29 And he charged them and said unto them, I am to be gathered unto my people: * bury me with my fathers, in the cave that is in the field of Ephron the Hittite.

30 In the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is before Mamre, in the land of Canaan: * which Abraham bought with the field of Ephron the Hittite, for a possession of a burying-place.

31 (There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife, there they buried Isaac and Rebekah his wife, and there I buried Leah).

32 The purchase of the field, and of the cave that is therein, was from the children of Heth.

33 And when Jacob had made an end of commanding his sonnes, he gathered up his feet into the bed, and yielded up the ghost, and was gathered unto his people.

1 The mourning for Jacob. 4 Joseph gathereth leave of Pharaoh to go to bury him. 7 The funeral. 15 Joseph comforteth his brethren, who craved his pardon. 22 His age. 23 He seeth the third generation of his sonnes. 24 He prophesieth unto his brethren of their return. 25 He taketh an oath of them for his bones. 26 He dieth and is cheested.

And Joseph fell upon his fathers face, and wept upon him, and kissed him.

2 And Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father: and the physicians embalmed Israel.

3 And forty dayes were fulfilled for him (for so are fulfilled the dayes of those which are embalmed) and the Egyptians * mourned for him threetye and ten dayes.

4 And when the dayes of his mourning were past, Joseph spake unto the house of Pharaoh, saying, If now I have found grace in your eyes, speake, I pray you, in the eares of Pharaoh, saying,

* My father made me swear, saying, Lo, I die: in my grave which I have digged for me, in the land of Canaan, there shalt thou bury me. Now therefore let me go up, I pray thee, and bury my father, and I will come again.

6 And Pharaoh said, Go up, and bury thy father, according as he made thee swear.

7 And Joseph went up to bury his father: and with him went up all the servants of Pharaoh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt.

8 And all the house of Joseph and his brethren, and his fathers house: only their little ones, and their flocks, and their herds: they left in the land of Goshen.

9 And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen, and it was a very great company.

10 And they came to the threshing-floor of Atad, which is beyond Jordan, and there they mourned with a great and a very sore lamentation: and he made a mourning for his father seven dayes.

11 And when the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning in the floor of Atad, they said, This is a grievous mourning to the Egyptians: wherefore the name of it was called * Abel-misraim, which is beyond Jordan.

12 And his sonnes did unto him according as he commanded them.

13 For * his sonnes carried him into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah, which Abraham * bought with the field for a possession of a burying-place, of Ephron the Hittite, before Mamre.

14 And Joseph returned into Egypt, he and his brethren, and all that went up with him to bury his father, after he had buried his father.

15 And when Josephs brethren saw that their father was dead, they said, Joseph will peradventure hate us, and will certainly requite us all the evil which we did unto him.

16 And they sent a messenger unto Joseph, saying, Thy father did command before he died, saying, 17 So shall ye say unto Joseph, Forgive, I pray thee now, the trespass of thy brethren, and their sinne: for they did unto thee evil: And now we pray thee forgive the trespass of the servants of the God of thy father. And Joseph wept when they spake unto him.

18 And his brethren also went and fell down before his face, and they said, Behold, we are thy servants.

21 Now therefore fear ye not: I will nourish you, and your little ones. And he comforted them, and spake kindly unto them.

22 And Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he, and his fathers house: and Joseph lived an hundred and ten years.

23 And Joseph said unto his children, of the third generation: * the children also of Gadhir, the house of Manasse; were I thought as upon Josephs knees.

24 And Joseph said unto his brethren, I die: and God will surely visit you, and bring you out of this land: unto the land which he swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

25 And Joseph took an oath of the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you, and ye shall carry up my bones from hence.

26 So Joseph died, being an hundred and ten years old: and they embalmed him, and he was put in a coffin in Egypt.

THE SECOND BOOK of MOSES called EXODUS.

CHAP. I.

* The children of Israel after Josephs death do multiply. 8 The more they are oppressed by a new king, the more they multiply. 15 The godliness of the midwives in saving the men-children alive. 22 Pharaohs commandeth the male-children to be cast into the river.

NOW * these are the names of the children of Israel, which came into Egypt, every man and his household came with Jacob:

2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah,

3 Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin,

4 Dan, and Naphtali, Gad, and Asher.

5 And all the souls that came out of the loins of Jacob, were * seventy souls: for Joseph was in Egypt already.

6 And Joseph died, and all his brethren, and all that generation.

7 ¶ And the children of Israel were fruitful, and increased abundantly, and multiplied, and waxed exceeding mighty, and the land was filled with them.

8 Now there arose up a new king over Egypt, which knew not Joseph.

9 And he said unto his people, Behold, the people of the children of Israel are more and mightier than we.

10 Come on, let us deal wisely with them, lest they multiply, and it come to pass, that when there falleth out any warre, they join also unto our enemies, and fight against us, and so get them up out of the land.

11 Therefore they did let over them task-masters, to afflict them with their burdens. And they built for Pharaoh treasure-cities, Pitom, and Raamses.

12 ¶ But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and grew: and they were grieved because of the children of Israel.

13 And the Egyptians said unto the children of Israel, to serve with rigour.

14 And they made their lives bitter, with hard bondage, in mortar, and in brick, and in all manner of service in the field: all their service wherein they made them serve, was with rigour.

15 ¶ And the king of Egypt spake to the Hebrew midwives (of which the name of one was Shiphrah, and the name of the other Puah)

16 And he said, When ye do the office of a midwife to the Hebrew women, and see them upon the stools; if it be a sonne, then ye shall kill him; but if it be a daughter, then she shall live.

17 But the midwives feared God, and did not as the king of Egypt commanded them, but saved the men-children alive.

18 And the king of Egypt called for the midwives, and said unto them, Why have ye done this thing, and have saved the men-children alive?

19 And the midwives said unto Pharaoh, Because the Hebrew women are not as the Egyptian women: for they are lively, and are delivered ere the midwives come in unto them.

20 Therefore God dealt well with the midwives: and the people multiplied, and waxed very mighty.

21 And it came to pass, because the midwives feared God, that he made them houses.

22 And Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, Every sonne that is born, ye shall cast into the river, and every daughter ye shall save alive.

CHAP. II.

1 Moses is born, 3 and in an ark cast into the sea, 5 He is found and brought up by Pharaohs daughter.

11 He slayeth an Egyptian. 13 He reprooveth an Hebrew. 15 He fleeth into Midian. 21 He marryeth Zipporah. 22 Gershom is born. 23 God respects the Israelites crye.

AND there went * a man of the house of Levi, and took to wife a daughter of Levi.

2 And the woman conceived and bare a sonne, and when she saw her son, that he was a goodly child, she hid him three months.

3 And when she could no longer hide him, she took for him an ark of bulrushes, and daubed it with slime and with pitch, and put the child therein; and she laid it in the flags by the rivers bank.

4 And his sister stood afarre off, to see what would be done to him.

5 ¶ And the daughter of Pharaoh came down to wash her self at the river, and her maids walked along by the rivers side: and when she saw the ark among the flags, she sent her maid to fetch it.

6 And when she had opened it, she saw the child: and behold, the babe wept. And she had compassion on him, and said, This is one of the Hebrews children.

7 Then said his sister to Pharaohs daughter, Shall I go, and call to thee a nurse of the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the child for thee?

8 And Pharaohs daughter said unto her, Go.

And the maid went and told the child's mother.
And Pharaoh's daughter said unto her, Take this child away, and nurse it for me, and I will give thee thy wages. And the woman took the child, and nursed it.

10 And the child grew, and she brought him unto Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. And she called his name Moses: and the maid, because I drew him out of the water.

That is, drawn out.

11 And it came to pass in those days, when Moses was grown, that he went out unto his brethren, and looked on their burdens: and he spied an Egyptian smiting an Hebrew one of his brethren.

12 And he looked this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no man, he slew the Egyptian, and hid him in the sand.

13 And when he went out the second day, behold, two men of the Hebrews stood together: and he said to him that was the younger, Wherefore smitest thou thy fellow?

That is, a man, a prince.

14 And he said, Who made thee a prince and a judge over us? intendedst thou to kill me, as thou diddest the Egyptian? And Moses feared, and said, Surely this thing is known.

15 Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to slay Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of Midian: and he sat down by a well.

Co, prince.

16 Now the shepherd of Midian had seven daughters; and they came and drew water, and filled the troughs to water their fathers' flock.

17 And the shepherds came and drove them away: but Moses stood up and helped them, and watered their flock.

18 And when they came to Reuel their father, he said, What is it that you are come to do to-day?

19 And they said, An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and also drew water for us, and watered the flock.

20 And he said unto his daughters, And where is he that hath done this thing for us? Will ye, that he may eat bread?

21 And Moses was content to dwell with the man; and he gave Moses Asenath his daughter.

Exod. 18. 1.

22 And he bare him a son, and he called his name Gershom: for he said, I have been a stranger in a strange land.

23 And it came to pass in process of time, that the king of Egypt died: and the children of Israel sighed by reason of the bondage, and they cried, and their cry came up unto God, by reason of the bondage.

24 And God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob.

25 And God looked upon the children of Israel, and God said, I have respect unto them.

CHAP. III.

2. Moses keepeth Pharaoh's flock. 3. God appeareth to him in a burning bush. 9. He sendeth him to deliver Israel. 14. The name of God. 15. Hamefuge to Israel.

Now Moses kept the flock of Jethro his father in law, the priest of Midian: and he led the flock to the back side of the desert, and came to the mountain of God, even to Horeb.

And the Angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a bush; and he looked, and behold, the bush burned with fire, and the bush was not consumed.

And Moses said, I will now turn aside, and see this great sight, why the bush is not burnt.

And when the Lord saw that he turned aside to see, God called unto him out of the midst of the bush, and said, Moses, Moses. And he said,

1. And he said, What is thy name? And he said, I am an Egyptian. And he said, I will now turn aside, and see this great sight, why the bush is not burnt.

6. And he said, I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face: for he was afraid to look upon God.

7. And the Lord said unto him, I have surely seen the affliction of my people which are in Egypt, and have heard their cry, by reason of their taskmasters; for I know their sorrows.

8. And I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land, unto a good land, and a large unto a land flowing with milk and honey: unto the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

9. Now therefore behold, the cry of the children of Israel is come unto me: and I have also seen the oppression wherewith the Egyptians oppress them.

10. Come now therefore, and I will send thee unto Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring forth my people the children of Israel out of Egypt.

11. And Moses said unto God, Who am I, that I should go unto Pharaoh, and that I should bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt?

12. And he said, Certainly I will be with thee; and this shall be a token unto thee, that I have sent thee: When thou shalt have brought forth the people out of Egypt, ye shall serve God upon this mountain.

13. And Moses said unto God, Behold, when I come unto the children of Israel, and shall say unto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me unto you; and they shall say to me, What is his name? what shall I say unto them?

14. And God said unto Moses, I AM GOD. I AM GOD. I AM GOD. And he said, When thou shalt say unto the children of Israel, I AM GOD hath sent me unto you.

15. And God said moreover unto Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel, The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you: this is my name for ever, and this is my memorial unto all generations.

16. So and gather the elders of Israel together, and say unto them, The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you, saying, I have surely visited you, and seen that you are in Egypt.

17. And I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt, unto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, unto a land flowing with milk and honey.

18. And they shall hearken to thy voice: and thou shalt come, thou and the elders of Israel, unto the king of Egypt, and thou shalt say unto him, The Lord God of the Hebrews hath met with us: and now let us go (we beseech thee) three days' journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to the Lord our God.

19. And I am sure that the king of Egypt will not let you go, no, not by a mighty hand.

20. And I will stretch out my hand, and smite through Egypt with all my wonders which I will do in the midst thereof: and after that he will let you go.

21. And I will give this people favour in the sight of the Egyptians: and it shall come to pass, that when you shall say, Let me go, that I will let you go.

22. And thou shalt say, Let me go, that I may serve the Lord: for thou shalt say, Let me go, that I may serve the Lord.

more such as heretofore: let them go and gather straw for themselves.

8 And the tale of the bulks which they did make heretofore, you shall lay upon them; you shall not diminish ought thereof: for they be idle; therefore they cry, saying, Let us go and sacrifice to our God.

¶ Heb. let the work be heavy upon the man.

9 Let there more work be laid upon the men, that they may labour therein: and let them not regard their vain words.

10 And the task-masters of the people went out, and their officers, and they spake to the people, saying, Thus saith Pharaoh, I will not give you straw.

11 So ye get you straw where you can finde it: yet not ought of your work shall be diminished.

12 So the people were scattered abroad throughout all the land of Egypt, to gather stubble in stead of straw.

¶ Heb. a matter of a day in his day.

13 And the task-masters hasten them, saying, Fulfill your works, your daily tasks, as when there was straw.

14 And the officers of the children of Israel, which Pharaohs task-masters had set over them, were beaten, and demanded, Wherefore have ye not fulfilled your task in making brick, both yesterday, and to day, as heretofore?

15 Then the officers of the children of Israel came & cried unto Pharaoh, saying, Wherefore dealest thou thus with thy servants?

16 There is no straw given unto thy servants, and they say to us, Make brick: and behold, thy servants are beaten; but the fault is in thine own people.

17 But he said, Ye are idle, ye are idle: therefore ye say, Let us go, and do sacrifice to the Lord. Ye do therefore now, and work: for there shall no straw be given you, yet shall ye deliver the tale of bricks.

18 And the officers of the children of Israel did see that they were in evil case, after it was said, Ye shall not minish ought from your hycks of your daily task.

19 And they met Moses and Aaron, who stood in the way, as they came forth from Pharaoh.

20 And they said unto them, The Lord look upon you, and judge: because you have made our labour to be increased in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his servants, to put a sword in their hands to slay us.

21 And Moses returned unto the Lord, and said, Lord, wherefore hast thou so evil entreated this people? why is it that thou hast said thus?

22 For since I came to Pharaoh to speak in thy name, he hath done evil to this people: neither hast thou delivered the people at all.

I God reneweth his promise by his name JEHOVAH. The genealogie of Ruben, 15 of Simeon, 16 of Levi, of whom came Moses and Aaron.

1 When the Lord said unto Moses, Now I shall thou set thy hand to Pharaoh, saying, With a strong hand shall he let them go, with a strong hand shall he drive them out of his land.

2 And God spake unto Moses, and said unto him, I am the Lord.

3 And I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, by the name of God Almighty; but by my name JEHOVAH was I not known to them.

4 And I have also established my covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimages; wherein they were strangers.

5 And I have also heard the groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keep in bondage: and I have remembered my covenant.

6 And therefore lay unto the children of Israel, I am the Lord, and I will bring you out from under the burden of the Egyptians, and I will rid you out of their bondage: I will redeem you with a stretched out arm, and with great judgments.

7 And I will take you from a people, and I will be to you a God, and ye shall know that I am the Lord, as I say to God, which brought you out from under the burden of the Egyptians.

8 And I will bring you in unto the land concerning the which I did swear to give it to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, and I will give it you for an heritage; I am the Lord.

CHAP. VII.

1 Moses is encouraged to go to Pharaoh. 7 His age. 8 Harod is turned into a serpent. 11 The sorcerers do the like. 13 Pharaohs heart is hardened. 14 Gods message to Pharaoh. 19 The river is turned into blood.

¶ And the Lord said unto Moses, See, I have made thee a god to Pharaoh: and Aaron thy brother shall be thy prophet.

2 Thou shalt speak all that I command thee, and Aaron thy brother shall speak unto Pharaoh, that he send the children of Israel out of his land.

3 And I will harden Pharaohs heart, and multiply my signs and my wonders in the land of Egypt.

4 But Pharaoh shall not hearken unto you, that I may lay my hand upon Egypt, and bring forth mine armies, and my people the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt, by great judgments.

5 And the Egyptians shall know, that I am the Lord, when I stretch forth mine hand upon Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them.

6 And Moses and Aaron did as the Lord commanded them, so did they.

7 And Moses was fourscore years old, and Aaron fourscore and three years old, when they spake unto Pharaoh.

8 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, and unto Aaron, saying,

9 When Pharaoh shall speak unto you, saying, Shew a miracle for you: then thou shalt say unto Aaron, Take thy rod and cast it before Pharaoh, and it shall become a serpent.

10 ¶ And Moses and Aaron went in unto Pharaoh, and they did so as the Lord had commanded: and Aaron cast down his rod before Pharaoh, and before his servants, and it became a serpent.

11 Then Pharaoh also called the wise men, and the sorcerers: now the magicians of Egypt, they also did in like manner with their incantations.

12 For they cast down every mans his rod, and they became serpents: but Aarons rod swallowed up their rods.

13 And he hardened Pharaohs heart, that he hearkened not unto them, as the Lord had said.

14 ¶ And the Lord said unto Moses, Pharaohs heart is hardened, he refuseth to let the people go.

15 Get thee unto Pharaoh in the morning, lo, he goeth out unto the river, and thou shalt stand by the rivers bank, against he come: and the rod which was turned to a serpent shalt thou take in thine hand.

16 And thou shalt say unto him, The Lord God of the Hebrews hath sent me unto thee, saying, Let my people go, that they may serve me in the wilderness: and behold, he refuseth to let the people go.

17 Thus said the Lord, In this thou shalt know that I am the Lord: behold, I will smite with the rod that is in mine hand, upon the waters which are in the river, and they shall be turned to blood.

18 And the fish that is in the river shall die, and the rivers shall run with blood, and the Egyptians shall drink of the water of the river.

19 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Take thy rod, and stretch out thine hand upon the waters of Egypt, upon their streams, upon their rivers, and upon their ponds, and upon all their pools of water, that they may become blood: and that there may be blood throughout all the land of Egypt, both in vessels of wood, and in vessels of stone.

20 And Moses and Aaron did so, as the Lord commanded: and he lifted up the rod and smote the waters that were in the river, in the sight of Pharaoh, and in the sight of his servants: and all the waters that were in the river were turned to blood.

21 And the fish that was in the river died: and the river stunk, and the Egyptians could not drink of the water of the river: and there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt.

22 ¶ And the magicians of Egypt did so with their incantations: and Pharaohs heart was hardened, neither did he hearken unto them, as the Lord had said.

23 And Pharaoh turned and went into his house, neither did he let his heart to this all.

24 And all the Egyptians digged round about the river for water to drink: for they could not drink of the water of the river.

25 And seven days were fulfilled, after that the Lord had smitten the river.

¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, Stand up, smite the river, and say unto him, Thus said the Lord, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

2 And if thou refuse to let them go, behold, I will smite all thy borders with frogs.

3 And the river shall bring forth frogs abundantly, which shall go up, and come into thine house, and into thy bed chamber, and upon thy bed, and into the house of the servants, and upon the people, and into thine ovens, and into thy kneading-troughs.

4 And the frogs shall come up both on thee and upon thy people, and upon all thy servants.

5 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch forth thine hand with thy rod over the streams, over the rivers, and over the ponds, and cause frogs to come up upon the land of Egypt.

6 And Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the frogs came up, and covered the land of Egypt.

7 And the magicians did so with their enchantments, and brought up frogs upon the land of Egypt.

8 ¶ Then Pharaoh called for Moses and Aaron, and said, Intercede for me to the Lord, that he may take away the frogs from me, and from my people: and I will let the people go, that they may serve thee.

9 And Moses said unto Pharaoh, I will obey thy voice: but thou shalt say to the people, that they may serve the Lord only.

12. And Pharaoh and Aaron went out from Pharaoh: and Pharaoh cried unto the Lord, because of the frogs which he had brought against Pharaoh.

13. And the Lord said according to the word of Pharaoh: and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the villages, and out of the fields.

14. And they gathered them together upon heaps, and the land stank.

15. But when Pharaoh saw that there was relief, he hardened his heart, and hearkened not unto them: as the Lord had said.

16. And the Lord said unto Moses, Say unto Aaron, stretch out thy rod, and smite the dust of the land, that it may become lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

17. And they did so: for Aaron stretched out his hand with his rod, and smote the dust of the earth, and it became lice in man and in beast: all the dust of the land became lice throughout all the land of Egypt.

18. And the magicians did so with their enchantments to bring forth lice, but they could not: so there were lice upon man, and upon beast.

19. Then the magicians said unto Pharaoh, This is the finger of God: and Pharaoh's heart was hardened, and he hearkened not unto them; as the Lord had said.

20. And the Lord said unto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh: so, he coucheth forth to the water, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

21. And he said, I will not let my people go, behold, I will send swarms of flies upon thee, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people, and into thy houses: and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of swarms of flies, and also the ground whereon they are.

22. And I will sever in that day the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell, that no swarms of flies shall be there: to the end that thou mayst know, that I am the Lord in the midst of the earth.

23. And I will put a division between my people, and the people: so tomorrow shall this sign be.

24. And the Lord did so: and there came a grievous swarm of flies into the house of Pharaoh, and into his servants' houses, and into all the land of Egypt: the land was corrupted by reason of the swarm of flies.

25. And Pharaoh called for Moses and for Aaron, and said, Go ye, sacrifice to your God in the land.

26. And Moses said, It is not meet so to do: for we will sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians to the Lord our God: Lo, shall we sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, and will they not stone us?

27. And he will go three days journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to the Lord our God, as he shall command us.

28. And Pharaoh said, I will let you go, that ye may sacrifice to the Lord your God, in the wilderness: only you shall not go very far: wait for me.

29. And Moses said, Behold, I go out from thee, and I will increase the Lord, that the swarms of flies may depart from Pharaoh, from his servants, and from his people, to morrow: but let not Pharaoh deal deceitfully any more, in not letting the people go to sacrifice to the Lord.

30. And Pharaoh went unto his house, and Pharaoh and his servants did not heed Moses.

31. And the Lord said unto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord, God of the Hebrews, Let my people go, that they may serve me.

32. And Pharaoh hardened his heart at this time also, neither would he let the people go.

1. The murrain of beasts. 2. The plague of boils, and blains. 3. The message about the hail. 4. The plague of hail. 5. Pharaoh's oath to Moses. 6. But yet he hardened.

Then the Lord said unto Moses, Go in unto Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus saith the Lord, God of the Hebrews, Let my people go that they may serve me.

2. For if thou refuse to let them go, and wilt hold them still,

3. Behold, the hand of the Lord is upon the cattle which is in the field, upon the horses, upon the asses, upon the camels, upon the open, and upon the sheep: there shall be a very grievous murrain.

4. And the Lord shall sever between the cattle of Israel, and the cattle of Egypt: and there shall nothing die of all that is the children of Israel.

5. And the Lord appointed a set time, saying, To morrow the Lord shall do this thing in the land.

6. And the Lord did that thing on the morrow, and all the cattle of Egypt died: but of the cattle of the children of Israel died not one.

7. And Pharaoh sent, and behold, there was not one of the cattle of the Israelites dead. And the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not let the people go.

8. And the Lord said unto Moses and unto Aaron, Take to you handfuls of ashes of the furnace, and let Moses sprinkle it towards the heaven in the sight of Pharaoh:

9. And it shall become small dust in all the land of Egypt, and shall be a boil breaking forth with blains, upon man, and upon beast, throughout all the land of Egypt.

10. And they took ashes of the furnace, and stood before Pharaoh, and Moses sprinkled it up toward heaven: and it became a boil breaking forth with blains, upon man, and upon beast.

11. And the magicians could not stand before Moses, because of the boils: for the boils were upon the magicians, and upon all the Egyptians.

12. And the Lord hardened the heart of Pharaoh, and he hearkened not unto them, as the Lord had spoken unto Moses.

13. And the Lord said unto Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord, God of the Hebrews, Let my people go that they may serve me.

14. For I will at this time send all my plagues upon thine heart, and upon thy servants, and upon thy people: that thou mayest know that there is none like me in all the earth.

15. For now I will stretch out my hand, that I may smite thee, and thy people with pestilence, and thou shalt be cut off from the earth.

16. And in very deed so: this cause have I raised thee up, so to shew in thee my power, and that my name may be declared throughout all the earth.

17. As yet earnest thou thyself against my people, that thou wilt not let them go:

18. Behold, to morrow about this time I will cause it to rain a very grievous hail, such as hath not been in Egypt since the foundation thereof, even until now.

22 And Moses stretched forth his hand towards heaven: and there was a thick darkness in all the land of Egypt three days.

23 There was not one another, neither rose any from his place for those days: but all the children of Israel had light in their dwellings.

24 And Moses called unto Aholis, and said, Go ye, serve the Lord: only let your flocks and your herds be shaven: let your little ones also go with you.

25 And Aholis said, Thou must give us also sacrifices, and burnt-offerings, that we may sacrifice unto the Lord our God.

26 Our cattell also shall go with us: there shall not an hoof be left behind: for thereof must we take to serve the Lord our God, and we know not with what we must serve the Lord our God, until

27 But the Lord hardened Pharaohs heart, and he would not let them go.

28 And Pharaoh said unto him, Get thee from in that day thou shalt see my face, thou shalt die.

1 Gods message to the Israelites to borrow jewels of their neighbours. 2 Moses threatneth Pharaoh with the death of the first-born.

And the Lord said unto Moses, Yet will I bring one plague more upon Pharaoh, and upon Egypt: afterwards he will let you go hence:
when he shall let you go, he shall surely thrust you out hence altogether.

2 Speak now in the ears of the people, and let every man borrow of his neighbour, and every woman of her neighbour, jewels of silver, and jewels of gold.

3 And the Lord gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians. Moreover, the man whom was very great in the land of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaohs servants, and in the sight of the people.

4 And Moses said, Thus saith the Lord, About midnight will I go out into the midst of Egypt.

5 And all the first-born in the land of Egypt shall die, from the first-born of Pharaoh, that sitteth upon his throne, even unto the first-born of the maid-servant that is behind the mill, and all the first-born of beasts.

6 And there shall be a great cry throughout all the land of Egypt, such as there was none like it, nor shall be like it any more.

7 But against any of the children of Israel shall not a dog move his tongue, against man or beast: that ye may know how that the Lord do work put a difference between the Egyptians and Israel.

8 And all these thy servants shall come down unto me, and bow down themselves unto me, saying, Get thee out, and all the people that follow thee; and after that I will go out: and he went out from Pharaoh in a great anger.

9 And the Lord said unto Moses, Pharaoh shall not hearken unto you: that my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.

10 And Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh: and the Lord hardened Pharaohs heart, so that he would not let the children of Israel go out of his land.

The beginning of the year is changed. 1 The passover is instituted. 11 The rise of the passover. 12 Unleavened bread. 13 The first-born are slain. 14 The Israelites are driven out of the land. 15 They come to Succoth. 16 The ordinance of the passover.

And the Lord spake unto Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying,

2 This month shall be unto you the beginning of months: it shall be the first month of the year to you.

3 Speak ye unto all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth day of this month they shall take to them every man a lamb, according to the house of their fathers, a lamb for an house.

4 And if the household be too little for the lamb, let him and his neighbour next unto his house, take it according to the number of the souls: every man according to his eating, shall make your count for the lamb.

5 Your lamb shall be without blemish, a male of the first year: ye shall take it out from the sheep or from the goats.

6 And ye shall keep it up until the fourteenth day of the same month: and the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill it at the evening.

7 And they shall take of the blood, and strike it on the two side-posts, and on the upper door-post of the houses, wherein they shall eat it.

8 And they shall eat the flesh in that night, roast with fire, and unleavened bread, and with bitter herbs they shall eat it.

9 Eat not of it raw, nor sodden at all with water, but roast with fire: his head with his legs, and with the purtenance thereof.

10 And ye shall let nothing of it remain untill the morning: and that which remaineth of it untill the morning, ye shall burn with fire.

11 And thus shall ye eat it, with your loins girded, your shoes on your feet, and your staffs in your hand: and ye shall eat it in haste: it is the Lords passover.

12 For I will pass through the land of Egypt this night, and will smite all the first-born in the land of Egypt, both man and beast: and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgement: I am the Lord.

13 And the blood shall be to you for a token upon the houses where ye are: and when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and the plague shall not be upon you: to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt.

14 And this day shall be unto you for a memorial; and you shall keep it a feast to the Lord throughout your generations: you shall keep it a feast by an ordinance for ever.

15 Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread, even the first day ye shall put away leaven out of your houses: for whosoever eateth leavened bread, from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from Israel.

16 And in the first day there shall be an holy convocation, and in the seventh day there shall be an holy convocation to you: no manner of work shall be done in them, save that which every man must eat, that only may be done of you.

17 And ye shall observe the feast of unleavened bread: for in this self same day have I brought your armies out of the land of Egypt: therefore shall ye observe this day in your generations, by an ordinance for ever.

18 In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, at even, ye shall eat unleavened bread, until the one and twentieth day of the month at even.

19 Seven dayes shall there be no leaven found in your houses: for whatsoever eateth that which is leavened, even that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he be a stranger or born in the land.

20 Ye shall eat nothing leavened: in all your habitations shall ye eat unleavened bread.

21 ¶ Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel, and said unto them, Draw out and take you a lamb, according to your families, and kill the passover.

22 * And ye shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the basin, and strike the lintell and the two door-posts, with the blood that is in the basin: and none of you shall go out at the door of his house untill the morning.

23 For the L^{ORD} will passe through to smite the Egyptians, and when he seeth the blood upon the lintell, and on the two side-posts, the L^{ORD} will passe over the door, and will not suffer the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite you.

24 And ye shall observe this thing for an ordinance to thee and to thy sonnes for ever.

25 And it shall come to passe when ye be come to the land, which the L^{ORD} will give you, according as he hath promised, that ye shall keep this service.

26 * And it shall come to passe when your children shall say unto you, What mean you by this service?

27 That ye shall say, It is the sacrifice of the L^{ORD} D^ED passover, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, when he smote the Egyptians, and delivered our houses. And the people bowed the head and worshipped.

28 And the children of Israel went away, and did as the L^{ORD} had commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

29 ¶ * And it came to passe that at midnight the L^{ORD} smote all the first-born in the land of Egypt, from the first-born of Pharaoh, that sat on his throne, unto the first-born of the captive, that was in the dungeon, and all the first-born of cattell.

30 And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt: for there was not a house where there was not one dead.

31 ¶ And he called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, Rise up, and get you forth from amongst my people, both you and the children of Israel: and go, serve the L^{ORD}, as ye have said.

32 Also take your flocks, and your herds, as ye have said: and be gone, and bless me also.

33 And the Egyptians were urgent upon the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste: for they said, We be all dead men.

34 And the people took their dough before it was leavened, their kneading-troughs being bound up in their clothes about their shoulders.

35 And the children of Israel did according to the word of Moses: and they borrowed of the Egyptians * jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment.

36 And the L^{ORD} gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they lent unto them such things as they required: and they spoiled the Egyptians.

37 ¶ And * the children of Israel journeyed from Ramases to Succoth, about six hundred thousand on foot that were men, besides children.

38 And * a mixed multitude went up also with them; and flocks, and herds, even very much cattell.

39 And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough, which they brought forth out of Egypt, for it was not leavened: because they were shut out of Egypt, and could not tarry, neither had they prepared for themselves any victual.

40 ¶ Now the sojourning of the children of Israel, who dwelt in Egypt, was * four hundred and thirtie yeares.

41 And it came to passe, at the end of the four hundred and thirtie yeares, even the self-same day it came to passe, that all the hosts of the L^{ORD} went out from the land of Egypt.

42 It is * a night to be much observed unto the L^{ORD}, for bringing them out from the land of Egypt: this is that night of the L^{ORD} to be observed of all the children of Israel, in their generations.

43 ¶ And the L^{ORD} said unto Moses and Aaron, This is the ordinance of the passover: there shall no stranger eat thereof.

44 But every mans servant that is bought for money, when thou hast circumcised him, then shall he eat thereof.

45 A sojourner, and an hired servant shall not eat thereof.

46 In one house shall it be eaten, thou shalt not carry forth ought of the flesh abroad out of the house: neither shall ye break a bone thereof.

47 All the congregation of Israel shall keep it.

48 And when a stranger shall sojourn with thee, and when a stranger shall sojourn with thee, and when a stranger shall sojourn with thee, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come neare and keep it: and he shall be as one that is born in the land: for no uncircumcised person shall eat thereof.

49 One law shall be to him that is home-born, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among you.

50 Thus did all the children of Israel; as the L^{ORD} commanded Moses and Aaron to do, they did.

51 And it came to passe the self-same day, that the L^{ORD} did bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt, by their armies.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The first-born are sanctified to God. 3 The memoriall of the passover is commanded. 11 The firstlings of beasts are set apart. 17 The Israelites go out of Egypt, and carry Josephs bones with them. 20 They come to Etham. 21 God guideth them by a pillar of a cloud, and a pillar of fire.

¶ And the L^{ORD} spake unto Moses, saying, 2 * Sanctifie unto me all the first-born, whatsoever openeth the womb among the children of Israel, both of man and of beast: it is mine.

3 ¶ And Moses said unto the people, Remember this day, in which ye came out from Egypt, out of the house of * bondage: for by strength of hand the L^{ORD} brought you out from this place: there shall no leavened bread be eaten.

4 This day came ye out, in the month Abib.

5 ¶ And it shall be when the L^{ORD} shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, which he sware unto thy fathers to give thee, a land flowing with milk and honey, that thou shalt keep his service in that land.

6 Seven dayes shall thou eat unleavened bread, and in the seventh day shall be * a feast unto the L^{ORD}.

7 Unleavened bread shall be eaten seven dayes; and there shall no leavened bread be seen with thee, neither shall there be leaven seen with thee in all thy quarters.

8 And thou shalt give the bones in that day, saying, This is done because of thee which the L^o & w brought unto thee out of Egypt.

9 And it shall be for a sign unto thee upon thine hand, & for a memoriall between thine eyes; that the L^o & w has may be in thy mouth: for with a strong hand hath the L^o & w brought thee out of Egypt.

10 Thou shalt therefore keep this ordinance in thy season from year to year.

11 And it shall be when the L^o & w shall bring thee into the land of the Canaanites, as he swore unto thee and to thy fathers, and shall give it thee.

12 That thou shalt offer a part unto the L^o & w all that openeth the matrix, and every firstling that cometh of a beast, which thou hast; the males shall be the L^o & w's.

13 And every firstling of an ass thou shalt redeem with a lamb; and if thou wilt not redeem it, then thou shalt break his neck: and all the first-born of man amongst thy children shalt thou redeem.

14 And it shall be when thy son asketh thee in time to come, saying, What is this? that thou shalt say unto him, By strength of hand the L^o & w brought us out from Egypt, from the house of bondage.

15 And it came to passe when Pharaoh would hardly let us go, that the L^o & w slew all the first-born in the land of Egypt, both the first-born of man, and the first-born of beast; therefore I sacrificed to the L^o & w all that openeth the matrix, being males; but all the first-born of my children I redeemed.

16 And it shall be for a token upon thine hand, and for frontlets between thine eyes. For by strength of hand the L^o & w brought us forth out of Egypt.

17 And it came to passe, when Pharaoh had let the people go, that God led them not through the way of the land of the Philistines, although that was neare: for God said, Lest peradventure the people repent when they see warre, and they return to Egypt.

18 But God led the people about, through the way of the wilderness of the Red sea; and the children of Israel went up & garnished out of the land of Egypt.

19 And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him: for he had straitly sworn the children of Israel, saying, God will surely visit you; and ye shall carry up my bones away hence with you.

20 And they took their journey from Succoth, and encamped in Etham, at the edge of the wilderness.

21 And the L^o & w went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them the way, and brought in a pillar of fire, to give them light; to go by day and night.

22 He took not away the pillar of the cloud by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, from before the people.

CHAP. XIII.

And he instructed the Israelites in their journey, & Pharaoh pursued after them. 10 The Israelites murmure.

11 Moses comforteth them. 12 God instructeth Moses. 13 The cloud removeth behind the camp. 14 The Israelites pass through the Red sea; 23 which drowneth the Egyptians.

15 And the L^o & w spake unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, that they turn and encamp before *^{Num} Pharaoh, because he shall say, I will pursue after thee, and I will be honoured upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host; that the Egyptians may know that I am the L^o & w. And they did so.

2 And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, that he shall follow after them, and I will be honoured upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host; that the Egyptians may know that I am the L^o & w. And they did so.

3 And it was told the king of Egypt, that the people fled: and the heart of Pharaoh and of his servants was turned against the people, and they said, Why have we done this, that we have let Israel go from serving us?

4 And he made ready his chariot, and took his people with him.

5 And he took six hundred chosen chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt; and captains over every one of them.

6 And the L^o & w hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued after the children of Israel; and the children of Israel went out with an high hand.

7 But the Egyptians pursued after them (all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his army) and overtook them encamping by the sea, beside Pi hahiroth before Baal-zephon.

8 And when Pharaoh drew nigh, the children of Israel lift up their eyes, and behold, the Egyptians marched after them, and they were sore afraid: and the children of Israel cried out unto the L^o & w.

9 And they said unto Moses, Because there were no graves in Egypt, hast thou taken us away to die in the wilderness? wherefore hast thou dealt thus with us, to carry us forth out of Egypt?

10 Is not this the word that we did tell thee in Egypt, saying, Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians? For it had been better for us to serve the Egyptians, then that we should die in the wilderness.

11 And Moses said unto the people, Fear ye not, stand still, and see the salvation of the L^o & w, which he will shew to you to day: for the Egyptians whom ye have seen to day ye shall see them again no more for ever.

12 The L^o & w shall fight for you, and ye shall hold your peace.

13 And the L^o & w said unto Moses, Wherefore criest thou unto me? Speak unto the children of Israel, that they go forward.

14 But lift thou up thy rod, and stretch out thine hand over the sea, and divide it: and the children of Israel shall go on my ground through the midst of the sea.

15 And I, behold I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall follow them: and I will get me honour upon Pharaoh, and upon all his host, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

16 And the Egyptians shall know that I am the L^o & w, when I have gotten me honour upon Pharaoh, upon his chariots, and upon his horsemen.

17 And the angel of God, which went before the camp of Israel, removed and went behind them; and the pillar of the cloud went from before their face, and stood behind them.

18 And it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel, and it was a cloud and darkness to them, but it gave light by night

CHAP. XVI.

1 The Israelites come to Sin. 2 They murmur for want of bread. 3 God promises them bread from heaven. 12 Quails are sent, 14 and manna. 16 The ordering of manna. 25 It was not to be found on the sabbath. 32 An omer of it is preserved.

And they took their journey from Elim, and all the congregation of the children of Israel came into the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month, after their departing out of the land of Egypt.

2 And the whole congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness.

3 And the children of Israel said unto them, Would to God we had died by the hand of the Lord in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the flesh-pots; and when we did eat bread to the full: for ye have brought us forth into this wilderness, to kill this whole assembly with hunger.

4 ¶ Then said the Lord unto Moses, Behold, I will rain bread from heaven for you; and the people shall go out and gather: and a certain race every day, that I may prove them, whether they will walk in my laws, or no.

5 And it shall come to pass, that on the first day they shall prepare that which they bring in, and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily.

6 And Moses and Aaron said unto all the children of Israel, At even, then ye shall know that the Lord is with you: for he hath brought you out of the land of Egypt.

7 And in the morning, then ye shall see the glory of the Lord: for that he heareth your murmurings against the Lord: And what are we, that ye murmur against us?

8 And Moses said, This shall be when the Lord shall give you in the evening flesh to eat, and in the morning bread to the full; for that the Lord heareth your murmurings which ye murmur against him: And what are we? your murmurings are not against us, but against the Lord.

9 ¶ And Moses spake unto Aaron, Say unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, Come near before the Lord: for he hath heard your murmurings.

10 And it came to pass as Aaron spake unto the whole congregation of the children of Israel, that they looked toward the wilderness; and behold, the glory of the Lord appeared in the cloud.

11 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

12 I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel: speak unto them, saying, At even ye shall eat flesh, and in the morning ye shall be filled with bread: and ye shall know that I am the Lord your God.

13 And it came to pass, that at even the quails came up, and covered the camp: and in the morning the dew lay round about the host.

14 And when the dew that lay was gone up, behold, upon the face of the wilderness there lay a small round thing, as small as the hoar-frost on the ground.

15 And when the children of Israel saw it, they said one to another, It is manna: for they knew not what it was. And Moses said unto them,

This is the bread which the Lord hath given you to eat.

16 ¶ This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded: gather of it every man according to his eating: an omer for every man, according to the number of your persons, take ye every man for them which are in his tents.

17 And the children of Israel did so, and gathered, some more, some less.

18 And when they did mete it with an omer, he that gathered much, had nothing over; and he that gathered little, had no lack: they gathered every man according to his eating.

19 And Moses said, Let no man leave of it till the morning.

20 And notwithstanding they hearkened not unto Moses, but some of them left of it until the morning; and it bred worms and stank: And Moses was wroth with them.

21 And they gathered it every morning, every man according to his eating: and when the sunne waxed hot, it melted.

22 ¶ And it came to pass that on the first day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for one man: and all the rulers of the congregation came, and told Moses.

23 And he said unto them, This is that which the Lord hath said, To morrow is the rest of the holy sabbath unto the Lord: bake that which ye will bake, to day; and seethe that ye will seethe; and that which remaineth over, lay up for you to be kept until the morning.

24 And they laid it up till the morning, as Moses had: and it did not stink, neither was there any worm therein.

25 And Moses said, Eat that to day; for to day is a sabbath unto the Lord: to day ye shall not find it in the field.

26 Six dayes ye shall gather it, but on the seventh day which is the sabbath, in it there shall be none.

27 ¶ And it came to pass, that there went out some of the people on the seventh day for to gather, and they found none.

28 And the Lord said unto Moses, How long refuse ye to keep my commandments and my laws?

29 See, for that the Lord hath given you the sabbath, therefore he giveth you on the first day the bread of two dayes: abide ye every man in his place: let no man go out of his place on the seventh day.

30 So the people rested on the seventh day.

31 And the house of Israel called the name thereof Banna: and it was like coriander-seed, white: and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey.

32 ¶ And Moses said, This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded, Fill an omer of it to be kept for your generations: that they may see the bread wherewith I have fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth from the land of Egypt.

33 And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a pot, and put an omer full of manna therein, and lay it up before the Lord, to be kept for your generations.

34 As the Lord commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up before the testimony, to be kept.

35 And the children of Israel did eat manna forty yeares, until they came to a land inhabited: they did eat manna, until they came unto the borders of the land of Canaan.

36 Now an omer is the tenth part of an ephah.

shall bring unto thee, but every small matter they shall judge; so shall it be easier for thy brethren, and they shall bear the burden with thee.

23 If thou shalt do this thing, and God command thee, then thou shalt be able to endure, and all this people shall also go to their place in peace.

24 So Moses hearkened to the voice of his father in law, and did all that he had said.

25 And Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tens.

26 And they judged the people at all seasons: the hard cases they brought unto Moses, but every small matter they judged themselves.

27 ¶ And Moses let his father in law depart, and he went his way into his own land.

CHAPTER XIX.

1 The people come to Sinai. 3 Gods message by Moses unto the people out of the mount. 8 The peoples answer returned again. 10 The people are prepared against the third day. 12 The mountain must not be touched. 16 The fearful presence of God upon the mount.

IN the third month, when the children of Israel were gone forth out of the land of Egypt, the same day came they into the wilderness of Sinai.

2 For they were departed from Rephidim, and were come to the desert of Sinai, and had pitched in the wilderness, and there Israel camped before the mount.

3 And Moses went up unto God, and the Lord called unto him out of the mountain, saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of Israel;

4 I have seen what I did unto the Egyptians, and how I bare you on eagles wings, and brought you unto this self.

5 Now therefore, if ye will obey my voice indeed, and keep my covenant, then ye shall be a peculiar treasure unto me above all people: for all the earth is mine.

6 And ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests, and a holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel.

7 ¶ And Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and laid before their faces all these words which the Lord commanded him.

8 And all the people answered together, and said, All that the Lord hath said, we will do. And Moses returned the words of the people unto the Lord.

9 And the Lord said unto Moses, Lo, I come unto thee in a thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with thee, and believe thee for ever. And Moses told the words of the people unto the Lord.

10 ¶ And the Lord said unto Moses, Go unto the people, and sanctify them to day and to morrow, and let them wash their cloaths.

11 And be ready against the third day: for the third day the Lord will come down in the sight of all the people, upon mount Sinai.

12 And thou shalt set bounds unto the people round about, saying, Take heed to your selves, that ye go not up into the mount, or touch the border of it: whosoever toucheth the mount, he shall surely be put to death.

13 There shall not a hand touch it, but he shall surely be smitten: or that toucheth, he shall be smitten: he shall not live; when the trumpet per soundeth; then, they shall come up to the mount.

14 ¶ And Moses went down from the mount unto the people, and sanctified the people, and they washed their cloaths.

15 And he said unto the people, Be ready against the third day: come not at your wives.

16 And it came to pass on the third day in the morning, that there were thunders and lightnings, and a thick cloud upon the mount, and the voice of the trumpet exceeding loud; so that all the people that was in the camp, trembled.

17 And Moses brought forth the people out of the camp to meet with God: and they stood at the nether part of the mount.

18 And mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, because the Lord descended upon it in fire: and the smoke thereof ascended as the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mount quaked greatly.

19 And when the voice of the trumpet sounded long, and waxed louder and louder, Moses spake, and God answered him by a voice.

20 And the Lord came down upon mount Sinai, on the top of the mount: and the Lord called Moses up to the top of the mount, and Moses went up.

21 And the Lord said unto Moses, Go down, charge the people, lest they break through unto the Lord to gaze, and many of them perish.

22 And let the priests also, which come near to the Lord, sanctify themselves, lest the Lord break forth upon them.

23 And Moses said unto the Lord, The people cannot come up to mount Sinai: for thou chargedst us, saying, Set bounds about the mount, and sanctify it.

24 And the Lord said unto him, Away, get thee down, and thou shalt come up, thou, and Aaron with thee: but let not the priests and the people break through, to come up unto the Lord, lest he break forth upon them.

25 So Moses went down unto the people, and spake unto them.

CHAPTER XX.

1 The ten commandments. 18 The people are afraid. 20 Moses comforteth them. 23 Idolatry is forbidden. 24 Of what sort the altar should be.

AND God spake all these words, saying, I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

2 Thou shalt have no other gods before me. 3 Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth.

4 Thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me.

5 And thou shalt love me, and keep my commandments.

6 Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain: for the Lord thy God will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

7 Remember the sabbath-day, to keep it holy.

8 Six days hath the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is: and he rested on the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the sabbath-day, and hallowed it.

9 For the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 Moses is called up into the mountain. 3 The people promise obedience. 4 Moses buildeth an altar, and twelve pillars. 6 He sprinkles the blood of the covenant. 9 The glory of God appeareth. 14 Aaron and Hur have the charge of the people. 15 Moses goeth into the mountain, where he continueth forty dayes and fourty nights.

And he said unto Moses, Come up unto the Lord, thou and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel: and worship ye afarre off.

2 And Moses alone shall come nare the Lord: but they shall not come nigh, neither shall the people go up with him.

3 And Moses came and told the people all the words of the Lord, and all the judgements: and all the people answered with one voice, and said,
* All the words, which the Lord hath said, we will we do.

4 And Moses wrote all the words of the Lord, and rose up early in the morning, and builded an altar under the hill, and twelve pillars according to the twelve tribes of Israel.

5 And he sent young men of the children of Israel, which offered burnt-offerings, and sacrificed peace-offerings of oxen unto the Lord.

6 And Moses took half of the blood, and put it in basons, and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar.

7 And he took the book of the covenant, and read in the audience of the people: and they said,
* All that the Lord hath said, will we do, and we will be obedient.

8 And Moses took the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and said, Behold * the blood of the covenant, which the Lord hath made with you concerning all these words. ¹ 1. Pet. 1. 12.

9 * Then went up Moses and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel.

10 And they saw the God of Israel, and there was under his feet, as it were a paved work of a sapphire stone, and as it were the body of heaven in his clearness.

11 And upon the nobles of the children of Israel he laid not his hand: also they saw God, and did not die.

12 And the Lord said unto Moses,
Come up to me into the mount, and be there: and I will give thee tables of stone, and a law,

14 And commandments which I have written; that thou mightest teach them.

15 And Moses rose up, and his minister Aaron: and Moses went up into the mount of God.

16 And he said unto the elders, Carry ye here for us, until we come again unto you: and behold, Aaron and the elders were with you: if any man have any matters to do, let him come unto them.

17 And Moses went up into the mount, and a cloud covered the mount.

18 And the glory of the Lord was above upon mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days: and the seventh day he called unto Moses out of the midst of the cloud.

19 And the sight of the glory of the Lord was like devouring fire on the top of the mount, in the eyes of the children of Israel.

20 And Moses went into the midst of the cloud, and gat him up into the mount: and Moses was in the mount forty days: and forty nights.

CHAP. XXV.

1 What the Israelites must offer for the making of the tabernacle. 10 The form of the ark. 17 The mercy-seat with the cherubims. 23 The table with the furniture thereof. 31 The candlestick with the instruments thereof.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, that they bring me an offering: of every man that is willing to do so, ye shall take my offering.

2 And this is the offering which ye shall take of them; gold, and silver, and brass,

3 And blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats hair.

4 And raiment of skins, died red, and bangles of silver, and hyacinth-wood,

5 And oil for the light, spices for anointing oil, and for sweet incense,

6 Onyx-stones, and stones to be set in the ephod and in the breast-plate.

7 And let them make me a sanctuary; that I may dwell amongst them.

8 According to all that I shew thee, after the pattern of the tabernacle, and the pattern of all the furniture thereof, even so shall ye make it.

9 And thou shalt make an ark of hyacinth-wood: two cubits and a half shall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof.

10 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, within and without: and thou shalt overlay it with half an ephod of gold.

11 And thou shalt cast four rings of gold upon it, and put them in the four corners thereof; and two rings shall be in the one side of it, and two rings in the other side of it.

12 And thou shalt make staves of hyacinth-wood, and overlay them with gold.

13 And thou shalt put the staves into the rings, by the sides of the ark, that the ark may be born with them.

14 The staves shall be in the rings of the ark: they shall not be taken from it.

15 And thou shalt put into the ark the testimony which I shall give thee.

16 And thou shalt make a mercy-seat of pure gold: two cubits and a half shall be the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof.

17 And thou shalt make two cherubims of gold: of beaten work shalt thou make them, in the two ends of the mercy-seat.

18 And thou shalt set the ark on the two ends thereof, and the two cherubims on the two ends thereof.

19 And the operations shall stretch forth their wings on high, covering the mercy-seat with their wings, and their faces shall look one to another, toward the mercy-seat that shall be between the cherubims.

20 And thou shalt put the mercy-seat above upon the ark, and in the ark thou shalt put the testimony that I shall give thee.

21 And there I will meet with thee, and I will commune with thee, from above the mercy-seat, from between the two cherubims which are upon the ark of the testimony, of all things which I will give thee in commandment unto the children of Israel.

22 And thou shalt make a table of shittim-wood: two cubits shall be the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof.

23 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, and make therein a crown of gold round about.

24 And thou shalt make unto it a border of an hand-breadth round about, and thou shalt make a golden crown to the border thereof round about.

25 And thou shalt make for it four rings of gold, and put the rings in the four corners that are on the four feet thereof.

26 Over against the border shall the rings be for places of the staves to bear the table.

27 And thou shalt make the staves of hyacinth-wood, and overlay them with gold, that the table may be born with them.

28 And thou shalt make the dishes thereof, and spoons thereof, and covers thereof, and bowls thereof, to cover withal: of pure gold shalt thou make them.

29 And thou shalt set upon the table, shew-bread before me always.

30 And thou shalt make a candlestick of pure gold: of beaten work shalt the candlestick be made: his shaft, and his branches, his bowls, his knops, and his flowers shall be of the same.

31 And his branches shall come out of the sides of the shaft: and three branches of the candlestick out of the one side, and three branches of the candlestick out of the other side.

32 Three bowls made like unto almonds, with a knop and a flower in one branch; and three bowls made like almonds in the other branch, with a knop and a flower: so in the six branches that come out of the candlestick.

33 And in the candlestick shall be four bowls made like unto almonds, with their knops and their flowers.

34 And there shall be a knop under two branches of the same, and a knop under two branches of the same, according to the six branches that proceed out of the candlestick.

35 Their knops and their branches shall be of the same: all it shall be one beaten work of pure gold.

36 And thou shalt make seven lamps thereof: and they shall light the lamps thereof, that they may give light over against it.

37 And the tongs thereof, and the snuff-dishes thereof shall be of pure gold.

38 Of a talent of pure gold shalt thou make it, with all these vessels.

39 And thou shalt make them after their pattern, which was shewed thee in the mount.

The making of speciall things Chap. xxvi. xxvii. belonging to the tabernacle.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 The ten curtains of the tabernacle. 7 The eleven curtains of goats hair. 12 The covering of rammers skins. 15 The boards of the tabernacle with their sockets and bases. 21 The veil for the ark. 36 The hanging for the door.

Manner, thou shalt make the tabernacle with ten curtains of fine twisted linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: with cherubims of cunning work shalt thou make them.

2 The length of one curtain shall be eight and twenty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain, four cubits: and every one of the curtains shall have one measure.

3 The five curtains shall be coupled together one to another: and other five curtains shall be coupled one to another.

4 And thou shalt make loops of blue upon the edge of the one curtain, from the selvage in the coupling: and likewise shalt thou make in the uttermost edge of another curtain, in the coupling of the second.

5 Fifty loops shalt thou make in the one curtain, and fifty loops shalt thou make in the edge of the curtain that is in the coupling of the second, that the loops may take hold one of another.

6 And thou shalt make fifty laces of gold, and couple the curtains together with the laces: and it shall be one tabernacle.

7 And thou shalt make curtains of goats hair to be a covering upon the tabernacle: eleven curtains shalt thou make.

8 The length of one curtain shall be thirty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain, four cubits: and the eleven curtains shall be all of one measure.

9 And thou shalt couple the curtains by themselves, and the curtains of goats hair: and thou shalt double the first curtain of the front of the tabernacle.

10 And thou shalt make fifty loops on the edge of the one curtain that is cut out in the coupling, and fifty loops in the edge of the curtain which couplith the second.

11 And thou shalt make fifty raches of brass, and put the raches into the loops, and couple the laces together, that it may be one.

12 And the remains that remaineth of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remaineth shall hang over the back side of the tabernacle.

13 And a cubit on the one side, and a cubit on the other side of that which remaineth in the length of the curtains of the tent, it shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle, on this side, and on that side to cover it.

14 And thou shalt make a covering for the tent, of rammers skins dyed red, and a covering above of badgers skins.

15 And thou shalt make boards for the tabernacle of shittim wood, standing up.

16 Ten cubits shall be the length of a board, and a cubit and a half shall be the breadth of one board.

17 Cofferetons shall there be in one board, set in two one against another: thus shalt thou make for all the boards of the tabernacle.

18 And thou shalt make the boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards on the south side, southward.

19 And thou shalt make fourty sockets of silver, under the forty boards: also sockets under one board for his two rems. and two sockets under another board for his two rems.

20 And for the second side of the tabernacle on the north side, there shall be twenty boards.

21 And their forty sockets of silver, two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

22 And for the sides of the tabernacle northward, thou shalt make six boards.

23 And two boards shalt thou make for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides.

24 And they shall be coupled together beneath, and they shall be coupled together above the head of it into one ring: thus shall it be for them both: they shall be for the two corners.

25 And they shall be eight boards, and their sockets of silver, sixteen sockets: two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

26 And thou shalt make bars of shittim wood: five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle.

27 And five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the side of the tabernacle, for the two sides thereof.

28 And the middle barre in the midst of the boards shall reach from end to end.

29 And thou shalt overlay the boards with gold, and make their rings of gold for places for the bars: and thou shalt overlay the bars with gold.

30 And thou shalt reare up the tabernacle according to the fashion thereof, which was shewed thee in the mount.

31 And thou shalt make a veil of blue, and purple, and scarlet: and fine twisted linen of cunning work: with cherubims shall it be made.

32 And thou shalt hang it upon four pillars of shittim wood, overlaid with gold: their hooks shall be of gold upon the four corners thereof.

33 And thou shalt hang up the veil under the raches, that thou mayest bring in thither within the veil, the ark of the testimony: and the veil shall divide thee from between the holy place and the most holy.

34 And thou shalt put the mercy seat upon the ark of the testimony in the most holy place.

35 And thou shalt set the table without the veil, and the candlestick over against the table, on the side of the tabernacle toward the south: and thou shalt put the table on the north side.

36 And thou shalt make no covering for the house of the tent, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twisted linen, wrought with needle work.

37 And thou shalt make for the hanging, five pillars of shittim wood, and overlay them with gold: and their hooks shall be of gold: and thou shalt cast five sockets of brass for them.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 The altar of burnt-offering, with the vessels thereof. 9 The court of the tabernacle inclosed with hangings and pillars. 12 The measure of the court. 20 The oil for the lamp.

And thou shalt make an altar of shittim wood, five cubits long, and five cubits broad: the altar shall be foursquare, and the height thereof shall be three cubits.

2 And thou shalt make the horns of it upon the four corners thereof: his horns shall be of the same: and thou shalt overlay it with brass.

3 And thou shalt make his panes to set before his altar, and his tables, and his basins, and his sickle-hooks, and his fire-pans: all the vessels thereof thou shalt make of brass.

4 And thou shalt make for it a grate of work of brass, and upon the grate thou shalt make four bases rings in the four corners thereof.

† Heb. twined.

* Chap. 25, 30, 40. AR. 7. 44. Heb. 8. 33.

7 And thou shalt put it under the compass of the altar beneath, that the net may be even to the midst of the altar.

8 And thou shalt make staves for the altar, staves of gittim-wood, & overlay them with brass.

9 And the staves shall be put into the rings, and the staves shall be upon the two sides of the altar to bear it.

† Heb he shewd.

10 Hollow with boards shalt thou make it: as if it was shewed thee in the mount, so shall they make it.

11 ¶ And thou shalt make the court of the tabernacle for the south-side, south-ward: where shall be hangings for the court of fine twined linen of an hundred cubits long, for one side.

12 And the twenty pillars thereof, and their twenty sockets shall be of brass: the books of the pillars, and their fillets shall be of silver.

13 And likewise for the north-side in length, there shall be hangings of an hundred cubits long, and his twenty pillars, and their twenty sockets of brass: the books of the pillars, and their fillets of silver.

14 And for the breadth of the court, on the west-side, shall be hangings of fifty cubits: their pillars ten, and their sockets ten.

15 And the breadth of the court on the east-side, east-ward, shall be fifty cubits.

16 The hangings of one side of the gate shall be fifty cubits: their pillars three, and their sockets three.

17 And on the other side shall be hangings of fifty cubits: their pillars three, and their sockets three.

18 And for the gate of the court, shall be an hanging of twenty cubits, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen, wrought with needle-work: and their pillars shall be four, and their sockets four.

19 All the pillars round about the court shall be filleted with silver: their books shall be of silver, and their sockets of brass.

¶ Heb. fifty by fifty.

20 ¶ The length of the court shall be an hundred cubits, and the breadth fifty every where, and the height five cubits of fine twined linen, and their sockets of brass.

21 All the vessels of the tabernacle in all the service thereof, and all the pinnes thereof, and all the pinnes of the court shall be of brass.

22 ¶ And thou shalt command the children of Israel, that they bring thee pure oil-olive beaten, for the light, to cause the lamp to burn allwayes.

¶ Heb. to ascend up.

23 In the tabernacle of the congregation without the veil, which is before the testimony, Aaron and his sons shall order it from evening to morning before the Lord: as he hath commanded thee unto their generations, on the behalf of the children of Israel.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Aaron and his sons are set apart for the priests office. 2 Holy garments are appointed. 3 The ephod.

15 The breast-plate, with twelve precious stones.

30 The Vain and Thundering. 31 The robe of the ephod with pomegranates and bells. 32 The plate of the mitre.

39 The embroidered coat. 40 The garments for Aarons sons.

¶ And take thou unto thee Aaron thy brother, and his sons with him, from among the children of Israel, that he may minister unto me in the priests office, even Aaron: Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, Aarons sons.

2 And thou shalt make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, for glory and for beauty.

3 And thou shalt speak unto all that are wise-hearted, whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, that they may make Aarons garments to consecrate him, that he may minister unto me in the priests office.

4 And these are the garments which they shall make; a breast-plate, and an ephod, and a robe, and a broidered coat, a mitre, and a girdle: and they shall make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, and his sons, that he may minister unto me in the priests office.

5 And they shall take gold, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen.

6 ¶ And they shall make the ephod of gold, of blue and of purple, of scarlet and fine twined linen, with cunning work.

7 It shall have the two shoulder-pieces thereof joyned at the two edges thereof; and so it shall be joyned together.

8 And the curious girdle of the ephod which is upon it, shall be of the same, according to the work thereof; even of gold, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 And thou shalt take two onyx-stones, & grave on them the names of the children of Israel.

10 Six of their names on one stone, and the other six names of the rest on the other stone according to their birth.

11 With the work of an engraver in stone, like the engravings of a signet, shalt thou engrave the two stones, with the names of the children of Israel; thou shalt make them to be set in surcles of gold.

12 And thou shalt put the two stones upon the shoulders of the ephod, for stones of memorial unto the children of Israel. And Aaron shall bear their names before the Lord upon his two shoulders for a memorial.

13 ¶ And thou shalt makeouches of gold;

14 And two chains of pure gold at the ends of twarthen work shalt thou make them, and fasten the twarthen chains to the ouches.

15 ¶ And thou shalt make the breast-plate of judgement, with cunning work after the work of the ephod thou shalt make it; of gold, of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine twined linen shalt thou make it.

16 Four-square it shall be being double-breasted: spanning shall be the length thereof, and a spanne shall be the breadth thereof.

17 And thou shalt set in it settings of stones, even four rows of stones: the first row shall be six Sardius, a topaz, and a carbuncle: this shall be the first row.

18 And the second row shall be an emerald, a saphire, and a diamond.

19 And the third row a figure, an agate, and an amethyst.

20 And the fourth row, a beryl, and an onyx, and a jasper: they shall be set in gold in their settings.

21 And the stones shall be with the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names, like the engravings of a signet, every one with his name shall they be according to the twelve tribes.

22 ¶ And thou shalt make upon the breast-plate chains at the ends, of twarthen work, of pure gold.

23 And thou shalt make upon the breast-plate two rings of gold, and shalt put the two rings on the two ends of the breast-plate.

24 And thou shalt put the two twarthen chains of gold in the two rings which are on the ends of the breast-plate.

25 And the other two ends of the two twarthen chains, thou shalt fasten in the two ouches, and put them on the shoulder-pieces of the ephod before it.

26 ¶ And thou shalt make two rings of gold, and thou shalt put them upon the two ends of the breast-plate, in the border thereof, which is in the side of the ephod without.

27 And two other rings of gold thou shalt make, and shalt put them on the two sides of the ephod, underneath towards the fore-part thereof, over against the other coupling thereof, above the curious girdle of the ephod.

28 And they shall bind the breast-plate by the rings thereof, unto the rings of the ephod, with a lace of blue, that it may be above the curious girdle of the ephod, and that the breast-plate be not loosed from the ephod.

29 And Aaron shall bear the names of the children of Israel in the breast-plate of judgement, upon his heart, when he goeth in unto the holy place, for a memorial before the Lord continually.

30 ¶ And thou shalt put in the breast-plate of judgement the Urim and the Thummim, and they shall be upon Aarons heart, when he goeth in before the Lord: and Aaron shall bear the judgement of the children of Israel upon his heart, before the Lord continually.

31 ¶ And thou shalt make the robe of the ephod all of blue.

32 And there shall be an hole in the top of it, in the midst thereof: it shall have a binding of woven work, round about the hole of it, as it were the hole of an habergion, that it be not rent.

33 ¶ And beneath upon the hemme of it thou shalt make pomegranates of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet round about the hemme thereof; and bells of gold between them round about.

34 A golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, upon the hemme of the robe round about.

35 ¶ And it shall be upon Aaron to minister: and his sound shall be heard, when he goeth in unto the holy place before the Lord: and when he cometh out; that he die not.

36 ¶ And thou shalt make a plate of pure gold, and grave upon it, like the engravings of a signet, W A I T E S T O T H E L O R D .

37 And thou shalt put it on a blue lace, that it may be upon the mitre; upon the forefront of the mitre it shall be.

38 And it shall be upon Aarons forehead, that Aaron may bear the iniquities of the holy things, which the children of Israel shall hallow in all their holy gifts: and it shall be always upon his forehead, that they may be accepted before the Lord.

39 ¶ And thou shalt embroider the coat of fine linen, and thou shalt make the mitre of fine linen, and thou shalt make the girdle of needle work.

40 ¶ And for Aarons sonnes thou shalt make coats, and thou shalt make for them girdles, and bonnets shalt thou make for them, for glory and for beauty.

41 And thou shalt put them upon Aaron thy brother, and his sonnes with him: and shalt anoint them, and consecrate them, and sanctify them, that they may minister unto me in the priests office.

42 And thou shalt make them linen breeches to cover their nakedness: from the loins even unto the thighs they shall reach.

43 And they shall be upon Aaron, and upon his sonnes, when they come in unto the tabernacle of the congregation, or when they come near unto the altar to minister in the holy places: that they bear not iniquity, and die. It shall be a statute for ever unto him, and his seed after him.

3 And thou shalt put them into one basket, and bring them in the basket, with the bullock, and the two rammes.

4 And Aaron and his sonnes thou shalt bring unto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and shalt wash them with water.

5 And thou shalt take the garments, and put upon Aaron the coat, and the robe of the ephod, and the ephod, and the breast plate, and gird him with the curious girdle of the ephod.

6 And thou shalt put the mitre upon his head, and put the holy crown upon the mitre.

7 Then shalt thou take the anointing oyl, and * Chap. 30. 25

13 And thou shalt take all the fat that covereth the inward parts, and the caul that is above the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and burn them upon the altar.

14 But the flesh of the bullock, and his skin, and his dung, shalt thou burn with fire without the camp: it is a sinne-offering.

15 ¶ Thou shalt also take one ramme, and Aaron and his sonnes shall put their hands upon the head of the ramme.

16 And thou shalt slay the ramme, and thou shalt take his blood, and sprinkle it round about upon the altar.

17 And thou shalt cut the ramme in pieces, and wash the inward parts of him, and his legs, and put them unto his pieces, and I unto his head.

18 And thou shalt burn the whole ramme upon the altar: it is a burnt-offering unto the Lord: it is a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the Lord.

19 ¶ And thou shalt take the other ramme, and Aaron and his sonnes shall put their hands upon the head of the ramme.

20 Then shalt thou kill the ramme, and take of his blood, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of Aaron, and upon the tip of the right ear of his sonnes, and upon the thumb of their right hand, and upon the great toe of their right foot, and sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about.

24 And thou shalt receive them of their hands, and burn them upon the altar for a burnt-offering, for a sweet savour before the Lord: it is an offering made by fire unto the Lord.

25 And thou shalt take of the ramme of Aarons consecrations, and waive it for a waive-offering before the Lord; and it shall be thy part.

26 And thou shalt sanctifie the breast of the waive-offering, and the shoulder of the heave-offering, which is waived, and which is heaved up of the ramme of the consecration, even of that which is for Aaron, and of that which is for his sonnes.

27 And it shall be Aarons and his sonnes by a statute for ever, from the children of Israel: for it is an heave-offering: and it shall be an heave-offering from the children of Israel of the sacrifice of their peace-offerings; even their heave-offering unto the Lord.

28 And the holy garments of Aaron shall be his sonnes after him, to be anointed therein, and to be consecrated in them.

29 And that soune that is priest in his stead shall put them on seven dayes, when he cometh into the tabernacle of the congregation to minister in the holy place.

30 And thou shalt take the ramme of the consecration, and seerpe his flesh in the holy place.

31 And Aaron and his sonnes shall eat the flesh of the ramme, and the bread that is in the basket, by the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

32 And they shall eat those things, wherewith the atonement was made, to consecrate and to sanctifie them: but a stranger shall not eat thereof, because they are holy.

33 And it ought of the flesh of the consecrations, of the head remain unto the morning; then thou shalt burn the remainder with fire: it shall not be eaten, because it is holy.

34 And thus shalt thou do unto Aaron, and to his sonnes, according to all things which I have commanded thee: seven dayes shalt thou consecrate them.

35 And thou shalt offer every day a bullock for a sinne-offering, for atonement: and thou shalt cleanse the altar, when thou shalt make an atonement for it, and thou shalt anoint it to sanctifie it.

36 Seven dayes thou shalt make an atonement for the altar, and sanctifie it: and it shall be an altar most holy; whatsoever toucheth the altar shall be holy.

37 And now this is that which thou shalt offer upon the altar, * two lambs of the first year, day by day continually.

38 The one lamb thou shalt offer in the morning; and the other lamb thou shalt offer at even.

39 And with the one lamb a tenth deal of flour mingled with the fourth part of an hin of beaten oyl: and the fourth part of an hin of wine for a drink-offering.

40 And the other lamb thou shalt offer at even, and shalt do thereto according to the meat-offering of the morning, and according to the drink-offering thereof, for a sweet savour, an offering made by fire unto the Lord.

41 This shall be a continuall burnt-offering throughout your generations, at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, before the Lord; where I will meet you, to speak there unto thee.

42 And there I will meet with the children of Israel, and the tabernacle shall be sanctified by my glory.

43 And I will sanctifie the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar: I will sanctifie also both Aaron and his sonnes, to minister to me in the priests office.

44 And * I will dwell amongst the children of Israel, and will be their God.

45 And they shall know that I am the Lord their God, that brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, that I may dwell amongst them: I am the Lord their God.

CHAP. XXX.

I The altar of incense. 11 The ransom of souls. 17 The brazen laver. 22 The holy anointing oyl. 34 The composition of the perfume.

And thou shalt make an altar to burn incense upon: of sycamore-wood shalt thou make it.

2 A cubit shall be the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof (four square shall it be) and two cubits shall be the height thereof: the horns thereof shall be of the same.

3 And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, the top thereof, and the sides thereof round about, and the horns thereof: and thou shalt make unto it a crown of gold round about.

4 And two golden rings shalt thou make to it under the crown of it, by the two corners thereof, upon the two sides of it shalt thou make it: and they shall be for places for the staves to bear it withall.

5 And thou shalt make the staves of sycamore-wood, and overlay them with gold.

6 And thou shalt put it before the vail, that is by the ark of the testimonies, before the mercy-seat, that is over the testimony, where I will meet with thee:

7 And Aaron shall burn thereon sweet incense every morning: when he dresseth the lamps he shall burn incense upon it.

8 And when Aaron shall light the lamps at even he shall burn incense upon it; a perpetuall incense before the Lord: throughout your generations.

9 He shall offer no strange incense thereon, nor burnt-sacrifice, nor meat-offerings, neither shall he poure drink-offering thereon.

10 And Aaron shall make an atonement upon the horns of it once in a year, with the blood of the sinne-offering of atonements: once in the year shall he make atonement upon it, throughout your generations: it is most holy unto the Lord.

11 And the Lord shall take unto Moses, saying,

The ranfome of fouls.

Chap. xxxi.

Bezaleel and Aholiab called.

12 * When thou takest the summe of the children of Israel, after their number, then shall they give every man a ranfome for his foule unto the Lord, when thou numberst them: that there be no plague amongst them, when thou numberest them.

13 This they shall give, every one that passed among them that are numbered; half a shekel after the shekel of the sanctuary. (* A shekel is twenty gerahs) an half shekel shall be the offering of the Lord.

14 Every one that passed among them that are numbered from twenty years old and above, shall give an offering unto the Lord.

15 The rich shall not give more, and the poore shall not give less: they shall give an offering unto the Lord, to make an atonement for your souls.

16 And thou shalt take the atonement-money of the children of Israel, and shalt appoint it for the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; that it may be a memoriall unto the children of Israel before the Lord, to make an atonement for your souls.

17 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

18 Thou shalt also make a laver of brafle, and his foot also of brafle, to wash withall, and thou shalt put it between the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar, and thou shalt put water therein.

19 For Aaron and his sonnes shall wash their hands and their feet therat.

20 When they go into the tabernacle of the congregation, they shall wash with water, that they die not: or when they come neare to the altar to minister, to burn offering made by fire unto the Lord.

21 So they shall wash their hands and their feet, that they die not; and it shall be a statute for ever to them, even to him and to his seed, throughout their generations.

22 Moreover the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

23 Take thou also unto thee principall spices, of pure myrrhe five hundred shekels, of sweet cinnamon half so much, even two hundred and fifty shekels, and of sweet calamus two hundred and fifty shekels,

24 And of cassia five hundred shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, and of oyl-olive an hin.

25 And thou shalt make it an oyl of holy ointment, an ointment compound after the art of the apothecary: it shall be an holy anointing oyl.

26 And thou shalt anoint the tabernacle of the congregation therewith, and the ark of the testimony.

27 And the table and all his vessels, and the candlestick and his vessels, and the altar of incense, 28 And the altar of burnt-offering with all his vessels, and the laver and his foot.

29 And thou shalt sanctifie them, that they may be most holy: whatsoever toucheth them shall be holy.

30 And thou shalt anoint Aaron and his sonnes, and consecrate them, that they may minister unto me in the priests office.

31 And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, This shall be an holy anointing oyl unto me, throughout your generations.

32 Upon mans flesh shall it not be poured, neither shall ye make any other like it, after the composition of it: it is holy, and it shall be holy unto you.

33 And whosoever compoundeth any like it, or whosoever putteth any of it upon a stranger, shall even be cut off from his people.

34 ¶ And the Lord said unto Moses, Take unto thee sweet spices, stacte, and onycha, and galbani: these sweet spices with pure incense, of each shall there be a like weight.

35 And thou shalt make it a perfume, a composition after the art of the apothecary, tempered together, pure and holy.

36 And thou shalt beat some of it very small, and put of it before the testimony in the tabernacle of the congregation, where I will meet with thee: it shall be unto you most holy.

37 And as for the perfume which thou shalt make, you shall not make to your selves according to the composition thereof: it shall be unto thee holy for the Lord.

38 Whosoever shall make like unto that, to smell thereto, shall even be cut off from his people.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 Bezaleel and Aholiab are called, and made meet for the work of the tabernacle. 12 The observation of the sabbath is again commanded. 18 Moses receiveth the two tables.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

2 See, I have called by name, Bezaleel the sonne of Uri, the sonne of Hur, of the tribe of Judah:

3 And I have filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship,

4 To devise cunning works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brafle,

5 And in cutting of stones to set them, and in carving of timber, to work in all manner of workmanship.

6 And I, behold, I have given with him, Aholiab the sonne of Ahimach of the tribe of Dan; and in the hearts of all that are wise hearted I have put wisdom; that they may make all that I have commanded thee:

7 The tabernacle of the congregation, and the ark of the testimony, and the mercy-seat that is thereupon, and all the furniture of the tabernacle:

8 And the table and his furniture, and the pure candlestick with all his furniture, and the altar of incense:

9 And the altar of burnt-offering with all his furniture, and the laver and his foot:

10 And the clothes of service, and the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sonnes, to minister in the priests office:

11 And the anointing oyl, and sweet incense for the holy place: according to all that I have commanded thee, shall they do.

12 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

13 Speak thou also unto the children of Israel, saying, Clearly my sabbaths ye shall keep: for it is a signe between me and you, throughout your generations; that ye may know that I am the Lord, that doth sanctifie you.

14 ¶ Ye shall keep the sabbath therefore: for it is holy unto you: Every one that defileth it, shall surely be put to death: for whosoever doth any work therein, that soul shall be cut off from amongst his people.

15 Six dayes may work be done, but in the seventh is the sabbath of rest, a holy day to the Lord: whosoever doth any work in the sabbath-day, he shall surely be put to death.

16 Therefore the children of Israel shall keep 35 And the Lord plagued the people, because they made the calf, which Aaron made.

CHAP. XXXIII.

1 The Lord saith to go, as he had promised, with the people. 4 The people mourn their sin. 7 The tabernacle is removed out of the camp. 9 The Lord talketh familiarly with Moses. 12 Moses desireth to see the glory of God.

And the Lord said unto Moses, Depart, and go up hence, thou and the people which thou hast brought up out of the land of Egypt, unto the land which I swore unto Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, * Unto thee will I give it.

2 * And I will send an angel before thee: and I will drive out the Canaanite, the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the Jebusite:

3 Unto a land flowing with milk and honey: for I will not go up in the midst of thee, for thou art a stiff-necked people: lest I consume thee in the way.

4 * And when the people heard these evil tidings, they mourned: and no man did put on him his ornaments.

5 For the Lord had said unto Moses, Say unto the children of Israel, Ye are a stiff-necked people: I will come up into the midst of thee in a moment, and consume thee: therefore now put off thy ornaments from thee, that I may know what thou wilt do.

6 And the children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments, by the mount Sinai.

7 And Moses took the tabernacle, and pitched it without the camp, afar off from the camp: and called it the tabernacle of the congregation: And it came to pass, that every one which sought the Lord, went out unto the tabernacle of the congregation, which was without the camp.

8 And it came to pass, when Moses went out unto the tabernacle, that all the people rose up, and stood every man at his tent-door, and looked after Moses, until he was gone into the tabernacle.

9 And it came to pass, as Moses entered into the tabernacle, the cloudy pillar descended, and stood at the door of the tabernacle, and the Lord talked with Moses.

10 And all the people saw the cloudy pillar stand at the tabernacle door: and all the people rose up and worshipped, every man in his tent-door.

11 And the Lord said unto Moses face to face, as a man speaketh unto his friend. And he turned again into the camp, but his servant Joshua the sonne of Nun, a young man, departed not out of the tabernacle.

12 And Moses said unto the Lord, See, thou sayest unto me, Bring up this people: and thou hast not let me know when thou wilt send with me. Per thou hast said, I know thee by name, and thou hast also found grace in my sight.

13 Now therefore, I pray thee, if I have found grace in thy sight, let me know now the way that I may know thee, that I may find grace in thy sight: and consider that this nation is thy 14 And he said, Thy presence shall go with thee, and I will give thee rest.

15 And he said unto him, If thy presence go not with me, carry us not up hence.

16 For whereas thou wilt be known here thou art, and the people have found grace in thy sight: for thou art in that thou hast said with me: * Thou shalt be my father, and thy people from all the people that are upon the face of the earth.

17 And the Lord said unto Moses, I will do this thing also, that thou hast spoken: for thou hast found grace in my sight, and I know thee by name.

18 And he said, I beseech thee, shew me thy glory.

19 And he said, I will make all my goodness pass before thee, and I will proclaim the name of the Lord before thee: * and will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will shew mercy on whom I will shew mercy.

20 And he said, Thou canst not see my face: for there shall no man see me, and live.

21 And the Lord said, Behold, there is a place by me, and thou shalt stand upon a rock.

22 And it shall come to pass, while my glory passeth by, that I will put thee in a cleft of the rock, and will cover thee with my hand, while I pass by.

23 And I will take away mine hand, and thou shalt see my back-parts: but my face shall not be seen.

CHAP. XXXIII.

1 The tables are renewed. 3 The name of the Lord is proclaimed. 8 Moses interceath God to give with them.

10 God maketh a covenant with them, repeating certain duties of the first table. 28 Moses after forty days in the mount, cometh down with the tables.

29 His face shineth, and he covereth it with a veil.

And the Lord said unto Moses, * Behold, I will write upon these tables the words that were in the first tables which thou hast seen.

2 And be ready in the morning, and thou shalt stand upon the morning unto mount Sinai, and I will speak with thee there, in the top of the mount.

3 And no man shall come up with thee: neither let any man be seen throughout all the mount: neither let the flocks nor herds feed before that mount.

4 * And he hewed two tables of stone, like unto the first, and Moses rose up early in the morning, and went up unto mount Sinai, as the Lord had commanded him, and took in his hand the two tables of stone:

5 And the Lord descended in the cloud, and stood with him there, and proclaimed the name of the Lord.

6 And the Lord passed by before him, and proclaimed, The Lord is God, merciful and gracious, long-suffering, and abundant in goodness and truth,

7 Keeping mercy for thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, and that will by no means clear the guilty, * visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the fourth generation.

8 And Moses bowed his head, and bowed his back toward the earth, and worshipped.

9 And he said, If now I have found grace in thy sight, O Lord, let me and my people go, amongst us (for it is a stiff-necked people) * and pardon our iniquity, and our fathers iniquity, and take us for thy people.

Israel saw Moses, behold, the skin of his face shone, and they were afraid to come nigh him.

31 And Moses called unto them, and Aaron and all the rulers of the congregation returned unto him: and Moses talked with them.

32 And afterward all the children of Israel came nigh: and he gave them in commandment all that the Lord had spoken with him in mount Sinai.

33 And till Moses had done speaking with them, he put * a vail on his face.

35 And the children of Israel saw the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses face shone: and Moses put the vail upon his face again until he went in to speak with him.

CHAP. XXXV.

1 The sabbath. 4 The free gifts for the tabernacle. 20 The readiness of the people to offer. 30 Bezaleel and Aholiab are called to the work.

¶ And Moses gathered all the congregation of the children of Israel together, and said unto them, These are the words which the Lord hath commanded, that ye should do them.

2 * Six dayes shall work be done, but on the seventh day there shall be to you an * holy day, a sabbath of rest to the Lord: whosoever doth work therein, shall be put to death.

3 Ye shall kindle no fire throughout your habitations upon the sabbath-day.

4 ¶ And Moses spake unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded, saying,

5 Take ye from amongst you an offering unto the Lord: * whosoever is of a willing heart, let him bring it, an offering of the Lord: gold, and silver, and brass,

6 And blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats hair,

7 And rammes skines dyed red, and badgers skines, and gittim-wood,

8 And oyl for the light, and spices for anointing oyl, and for the sweet incense.

9 And onyx stones, and stones to be set for the ephod, and for the breast-plate.

10 And every wise-hearted among you, shall come and make all that the Lord hath commanded.

11 * The tabernacle, his tent, and his cover, * his tables, his taches, and his barres, his pillars, and his sockets, 12 The ark and the staves thereof, with the mercy-seat, and the vail of the covering.

13 The table and his staves, and all his vessels, and the shew-bread.

14 The candlestick also for the light, and his furniture, and his lamps, with the oyl for the light.

15 * And the incense-altar, and his staves, and the anointing oyl, and the sweet incense, and the hanging for the door at the entering in of the tabernacle.

16 * The altar of burnt-offering with his basen-grate, his staves, and all his vessels, the laver and his foot,

17 The hangings of the court, his pillars, and their sockets, and the hanging for the door of the court,

18 The pinnes of the tabernacle, and the pinnes of the court, and their chords, 19 The clothes of service, to do service in the holy place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sonnes to minister in the priests office.

20 ¶ And all the congregation of the children of Israel departed from the presence of Moses.

21 And they came, every one whose heart stirred him up, and every one whom his spirit made willing, and they brought the $\text{L} \text{ s } \text{ s } \text{ s}$ offering to the work of the tabernacle of the congregation, and for all his service, and for the holy garments.

22 And they came both men and women, as many as were willing-hearted, and brought bracelets, and eare-rings, and rings, and tablets, all jewels of gold: and every man that offered, offered an offering of gold unto the $\text{L} \text{ s } \text{ s } \text{ s}$.

23 And every man with whom was found blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats hair, and red skinned of rammes, and badgers skinned, brought them.

24 Wherby one that did offer an offering of silver and brass, brought the $\text{L} \text{ s } \text{ s } \text{ s}$ offering: and every man with whom was found hittim-wood for any work of the service, brought it.

25 And all the women that were wise-hearted, did spinne with their hands, and brought that which they had spunne, both of blue, and of purple, and of scarlet, and of fine linen.

26 And all the women whose heart stirred them up in wisdom, spunne goats hair.

27 And the rulers brought onyx stones, and stones to be set; for the ephod, and for the breast-plate:

28 And spice, and oyl for the light, and for the anointing oyl, and for the sweet incense.

29 The children of Israel brought a willing offering unto the $\text{L} \text{ s } \text{ s } \text{ s}$, every man and woman, whose heart made them willing to bring for all manner of work, which the $\text{L} \text{ s } \text{ s } \text{ s}$ had commanded to be made, by the hand of Moses.

30 ¶ And Moses said unto the children of Israel, See, the $\text{L} \text{ s } \text{ s } \text{ s}$ hath called by name Bezaleel the sonne of Uri, the sonne of Hur, of the tribe of Judah.

31 And he hath filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship:

32 And to devise curious works, to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, 33 And in the cutting of stones to set them, and in carving of wood to make any manner of cunning work.

34 And he hath put in his heart that he may teach, both he and Aholiab the sonne of Ahimaach of the tribe of Dan.

35 Them hath he filled with wisdom of heart, to work all manner of work, of the engraver, and of the cunning workman, and of the embroiderer, in blue, and in purple, in scarlet, and in fine linen, and of the weaver: even of them that do any work and of those that devise cunning work.

CHAP. XXXVI.

1 The offering are delivered to the workmen. 5 The liberalitie of the people is restrained. 8 The curtains of cherubims. 14 The curtains of goats hair. 19 The covering of skinned. 20 The boards with their sockets. 31 The bars. 35 The veil. 37 The hanging of the doore.

Then wrought Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise hearted man, in whom the $\text{L} \text{ s } \text{ s } \text{ s}$ put wisdom and understanding, to know how to work all manner of work for the service of the sanctuary, according to all that the $\text{L} \text{ s } \text{ s } \text{ s}$ had commanded.

2 And Moses called Bezaleel and Aholiab, and every wise-hearted man, in whose heart the $\text{L} \text{ s } \text{ s } \text{ s}$ had put wisdom, even every one whose heart stirred him up to come unto the work to do it.

3 And they received of Moses all the offering which the children of Israel had brought, for the work of the service of the sanctuary, to make it withall. And they brought yet unto him free-offerings every morning.

4 And all the wise men that wrought all the work of the sanctuary, came every man from his work which they made.

5 ¶ And they spake unto Moses, saying, The people bring much more then enough for the service of the work which the $\text{L} \text{ s } \text{ s } \text{ s}$ commanded to make.

6 And Moses gave commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed throughout the camp, saying, Let neither man nor woman make any more work for the offering of the sanctuary: so the people were restrained from bringing.

7 For the stuffe they had was sufficient for all the work to make it, and too much.

8 ¶ And every wise-hearted man, among them that wrought the work of the tabernacle, made ten curtains of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: with cherubims of cunning work made he them.

9 The length of one curtain was twenty and eight cubits, and the breadth of one curtain foure cubits: the curtains were all of one cise.

10 And he coupled the five curtains one unto another: and the other five curtains he coupled one unto another.

11 And he made loops of blue on the edge of one curtain, from the selvedge in the coupling: likewise he made in the uttermost side of another curtain in the coupling of the second.

12 Fifty loops made he in one curtain, and fifty loops made he in the edge of the curtain which was in the coupling of the second: the loops held one curtain to another.

13 And he made fifty taches of gold, and coupled the curtains one unto another with the taches. So it became one tabernacle.

14 ¶ And he made curtains of goats hair, for the tent over the tabernacle: eleven curtains he made them.

15 The length of one curtain was thirty cubits, and foure cubits was the breadth of one curtain: the eleven curtains were of one cise.

16 And he coupled five curtains by themselves, and six curtains by themselves.

17 And he made fifty loops upon the uttermost edge of the curtain in the coupling, and fifty loops made he upon the edge of the curtain, which coupled the second.

18 And he made fifty taches of brass to couple the tent together, that it might be one.

19 And he made a covering for the tent, of rammes skinned dyed red, and a covering of badgers skinned above that.

20 ¶ And he made boards for the tabernacle, of hittim-wood, standing up.

21 The length of a board was ten cubits, and the breadth of a board one cubit and a half.

22 One board had two tenons, equally distant one from another: thus did he make for all the boards of the tabernacle.

23 And he made boards for the tabernacle: twenty boards for the south-side, twenty more.

24 And forty boards of silver he made under the covering.

twenty boards: two sockets under one board for his two corners, and two sockets under another board for his two corners.

25 And for the other side of the tabernacle which is toward the north corner, he made twenty boards.

26 And their forty sockets of silver: two sockets under one board, and two sockets under another board.

27 And for the sides of the tabernacle westward, he made six boards.

28 And two boards made he for the corners of the tabernacle in the two sides.

29 And they were joined together at the head thereof to one ring: thus he did to both of them in both the corners.

30 And there were eight boards, and their sockets were sixteen sockets of silver, four under every board two sockets.

31 And he made bars of sycamore-wood: five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle, 32 And five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the tabernacle for the sides westward.

33 And he made the middle bar to shoot through the boards from the one end to the other.

34 And he overlaid the boards with gold, and made their rings of gold to be places for the bars, and overlaid the bars with gold.

35 And he made a veil of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twisted linen: with cherubims made he it of cunning work.

36 And he made thereunto four pillars of sycamore-wood, and overlaid them with gold: their hooks were of gold, and he cast for them four sockets of silver.

37 And he made a hanging for the tabernacle door, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twisted linen, of needle-work.

38 And the five pillars of it with their hooks: and he overlaid their chapters, and their fillets with gold: but their five sockets were of brass.

CHAP. XXXVII.

1 The ark. 6 The mercy-seat with cherubims. 10 The table with his vessels. 17 The candlestick with his lamps and instruments. 25 The altar of incense. 29 The anointing oil, and sweet incense.

1 And Bezaleel made the ark of sycamore-wood: two cubits and a half was the length of it, and a cubit and a half the breadth of it, and a cubit and a half the height of it.

2 And he overlaid it with pure gold within and without, and made a crown of gold to it round about.

3 And he cast for it four rings of gold, to be set by the four corners of it: even two rings upon the one side of it, and two rings upon the other side of it.

4 And he made staves of sycamore-wood, and overlaid them with gold.

5 And he put the staves into the rings, by the sides of the ark, to bear the ark.

6 And he made the mercy-seat of pure gold: two cubits and a half was the length thereof, and one cubit and a half the breadth thereof.

7 And he made two cherubims of gold, beaten out of one piece made he them, on the two ends of the mercy-seat.

8 One cherub on the end of this side, and another cherub on the other end of that side: out of the mercy-seat made he the cherubims on the two ends thereof.

9 And the cherubims spread out their wings on high, and covered with their wings over the mercy-seat, with their faces one to another, even to the mercy-seat: and were the faces of the cherubims.

10 And he made the table of sycamore-wood: two cubits was the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof.

11 And he overlaid it with pure gold, and made thereunto a crown of gold round about.

12 And he made thereunto a border of an hand-breadth, round about: and made a crown of gold for the border thereof round about.

13 And he cast for it four rings of gold, and put the rings upon the four corners that were in the four feet thereof.

14 Over against the border were the rings, the places for the staves, to bear the table.

15 And he made the staves of sycamore-wood, and overlaid them with gold, to bear the table.

16 And he made the vessels which were upon the table, his vessels, and his spoons, and his bowls, and his covers to cover withal, of pure gold.

17 And he made the candlestick of pure gold: of beaten work made he the candlestick, his shaft and his branch, his bowls, his knobs, and his flowers were of the same.

18 And his branches going out of the sides thereof: three branches of the candlestick out of the one side thereof, and three branches of the candlestick out of the other side thereof.

19 Three bowls made after the fashion of almonds, in one branch, a knob and a flower; and three bowls made like almonds in another branch, a knob and a flower: so through out the six branches going out of the candlestick.

20 And in the candlestick were four bowls made like almonds, his knobs and his flowers.

21 And a knob under two branches of the same, and a knob under two branches of the same, and a knob under two branches of the same, according to the six branches going out of it.

22 These knobs and their branches were of the same: all of it was one beaten work of pure gold.

23 And he made his seven lamps, and his snuffers, and his snuff dishes, of pure gold.

24 Of a talent of pure gold made he it, and all the vessels thereof.

25 And he made the incense-altar of sycamore-wood: the length of it was a cubit, and the breadth of it a cubit (it was square) and two cubits was the height of it; the horns thereof were of the same.

26 And he overlaid it with pure gold, both the top of it, and the sides thereof round about, and the horns of it: also he made unto it a crown of gold round about.

27 And he made two rings of gold for it under the crown thereof, by the two corners of it, upon the two sides thereof, to be places for the staves to bear it withal.

28 And he made the staves of sycamore-wood, and overlaid them with gold.

29 And he made the holy anointing oil, and the pure incense of sweet spices, according to the work of the apothecary.

2 And he made the bands thereof, on the four corners of it: the horns thereof were of the same, and he overlaid it with hyass.

3 And he made all the vessels of the altar, the pots, and the shovels, and the basins, and the flesh-hooks, and the fire-pans: all the vessels thereof made he of hyass.

4 And he made for the altar a hyasen grate of net-work, under the compass thereof, beneath unto the midst of it.

5 And he cast four rings for the four ends of the grate of hyass, to be places for the staves.

6 And he made the staves of shittim-wood, and overlaid them with hyass.

7 And he put the staves into the rings on the sides of the altar, to bear it withall: he made the altar hollow with boards.

8 ¶ And he made the laver of hyass, and the foot of it, of brass, of the looking-glasses of the women: assembling, which assembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

9 ¶ And he made the court: on the south-side southward, the hangings of the court were of fine twined linen, an hundred cubits.

10 Their pillars were twenty, and their brazen sockets twenty: the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets were of silver.

11 And for the north-side, the hangings were an hundred cubits, their pillars were twenty, and their sockets of hyass: twenty: the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets, of silver.

12 And for the west-side were hangings of fifty cubits, their pillars ten, and their sockets ten: the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets, of silver.

13 And for the east-side eastward, fifty cubits.

14 The hangings of the one side of the gate were fifteen cubits, their pillars three, and their sockets three.

15 And for the other side of the court gate, on this band and that band, were hangings of fifteen cubits, their pillars three, and their sockets three.

16 All the hangings of the court round about, were of fine twined linen.

17 And the sockets for the pillars were of hyass, the hooks of the pillars, and their fillets, of silver, and the overlaying of their chapters of silver, and all the pillars of the court were filleted with silver.

18 And the hanging for the gate of the court was net-work, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen: and twenty cubits was the length, and the height in the breadth was five cubits, and was able to the hangings of the court.

19 And their pillars were four: their sockets of hyass four, their hooks of silver, and the overlaying of their chapters, and their fillets, of silver.

20 And all the pillars of the tabernacle, and of the court round about, were of hyass.

21 ¶ This is the summe of the tabernacle, even of the tabernacle of testimony, as it was counted, according to the commandment of God, for the service of the Levites, by the hand of Bezaleel, sonne to Aaron the high-priest.

22 And Bezaleel the sonne of Uri, the sonne of Hur, of the tribe of Iudah, made all that the Lord commanded Moses.

23 And with him was Ooliab, sonne of Abiham, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver, and a cunning workman, and an emboiderer in blue, and in purple, and in scarlet, and fine linen.

24 All the gold that was offered for the work, in all the work of the holy place, even the gold of the offering, was twenty and nine talents, and seven hundred and thirty shekels: after the shekel of the sanctuary.

25 And the silver of them that were numbered of the congregation, was an hundred talents, and a thousand seven hundred and threescore and sixteen shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary.

26 A beah for a thousand men, that is, half a Haba poll shekel, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for every one that was to be numbered, from twenty years old and upward, for six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty men.

27 And of the hundred talents of silver, were cast the sockets of the sanctuary, and the sockets of the vail: an hundred sockets of the hundred talents, a talent for a socket.

28 And of the thousand seven hundred threescore and sixteen shekels, he made hooks for the pillars, and overlaid their chapters, and filleted them.

29 And the brass of the offering was seventy talents, and two thousand and four hundred shekels.

30 And there with he made the sockets to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the hyasen altar, and the hyasen grate for it, and all the vessels of the altar.

31 And the sockets of the court round about, and the sockets of the court gate, and all the pinnes of the tabernacle, and all the pinnes of the court round about.

CHAP. XXXIX.

1 The clothes of service and holy garments. 2 The ephod. 3 The breast-plate. 4 The robe of the ephod. 5 The coat, mitre, and girdle of fine linen. 6 The plate of the holy crown. 7 All viewed and approved by Moses.

AND of the blue, and purple, and scarlet, they made clothes of service to do service in the holy place, and made the holy garments for Aaron, as the Lord commanded Moses.

2 And he made the ephod of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

3 And they did beat the gold into thin plates, and cut it into wires, to work it in the blue, and in the purple, and in the scarlet, and in the fine linen, with cunning work.

4 They made shoulder-pieces for it, to couple it together, by the two edges was it coupled together.

5 And the curious girdle of his ephod that was upon it, was of the same, according to the work thereof: of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen; as the Lord commanded Moses.

6 ¶ And they wrought onyx-stones inclosed in inches of gold, graven as signets, art graven, with the names of the children of Israel.

7 And he put them in the shoulders of the ephod, that they should be stones for a memoriall to the children of Israel; as the Lord commanded Moses.

8 ¶ And he made the breast-plate of cunning work, like the work of the ephod: of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine twined linen.

9 It was four-square, they made the breast-plate double: a spanne was the length thereof, and a spanne the breadth thereof being doubled.

10 And they set in it four rows of stones: the first row was a sardius, a topaz, and a carbuncle: this was the first row.

11 And the second row, an emerald, a sapphire, and a diamond.

12 And the third row, a jacinth, an agate, and an onyx.

13 And the fourth row, a topaz, an emerald, and a sapphire.

jasper: they were inclosed inouches of gold in their inclosings.

14 And the stones were according to the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names, like the engravings of a signet, every one with his name, according to the twelve tribes.

15 And they made upon the breast-plate chains, at the ends, of wreathen work of pure gold.

16 And they made two ouches of gold, and two gold-rings: and put the two rings in the two ends of the breast-plate.

17 And they put the two wreathen chains of gold in the two rings on the ends of the breast-plate.

18 And the two ends of the two wreathen chains they fastened in the two ouches, and put them on the shoulder-pieces of the ephod, before it.

19 And they made two rings of gold, and put them on the two ends of the breast-plate upon the border of it, which was on the side of the ephod inward.

20 And they made two other golden rings, and put them on the two sides of the ephod underneath, toward the forefront of it, over against the other coupling thereof, above the curious girdle of the ephod.

21 And they did binde the breast-plate by his rings unto the rings of the ephod, with a lace of blue, that it might be above the curious girdle of the ephod, and that the breast-plate might not be loosed from the ephod; as the Lord commanded Moses.

22 And he made the robe of the ephod of woven-work, all of blue.

23 And there was a hole in the midst of the robe, as the hole of an habergeon, with a band round about the hole, that it should not rent.

24 And they made upon the shoulders of the robe, pomegranates of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined linen.

25 And they made * bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates, upon the hemme of the robe, round about between the pomegranates.

26 A bell and a pomegranate, a bell & a pomegranate round about the hemme of the robe to minister in; as the Lord commanded Moses.

27 And they made coats of fine linen, of woven-work, for Aaron, and for his sons.

28 And a mitre of fine linen, and goodly bonnets of fine linen, and * linen breeches of fine twined linen.

29 And a girdle of fine twined linen, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, of needle-work; as the Lord commanded Moses.

30 And they made the plate of the holy crown, of pure gold, and wrote upon it a writing, like to the engravings of a signet, * HOLY HOLY. ACCORD TO THE LORD.

31 And they tied unto it a lace of blue, to fasten it on high upon the mitre, as the Lord commanded Moses.

32 And thus was all the work of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation finished; and the children of Israel did according to all that the Lord commanded Moses, so did they.

33 And they brought the tabernacle unto Moses, the tent, and all his furniture, his tables, his boards, his bars; & his pillars, & his lockets, 34 And the covering of rammes skinned dyed red, and the covering of badgers skinned, and the veil of the covering;

35 The ark of the testimony, and the staves thereof, and the mercy-seat,

36 The table, and all the vessels thereof, and the golden altar,

37 The pure candlestick, with the lamps thereof, even with the lamps to be set in order, and all the vessels thereof, and the oil for light, 38 And the golden altar, and the anointing oil, and the sweet incense, and the hanging for the tabernacle door.

39 The brazen altar, and his grate of brass, his staves, and all his vessels, the laver and his foot,

40 The hangings of the court, his pillars, and his lockets, and the hanging for the court gate, his cords, and his pinnles, and all the vessels of the service of the tabernacle, for the tent of the congregation, 41 The clothes of service to do service in the holy place, and the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and his sonnes garments to minister in the priests office.

42 According to all that the Lord commanded Moses, so the children of Israel made all the work.

43 And Moses did look upon all the work, and behold, they had done it as the Lord had commanded, even so had they done it: And Moses blessed them.

CHAP. XL.

1 The tabernacle is commanded to be reared, 9 and anointed, 13 Aaron and his sonnes to be sanctified, 16 Moses performeth all things accordingly. 34 A cloud covereth the tabernacle.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, 2 On the first day of the first moneth shalt thou set up the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation.

3 And thou shalt put therein the ark of the testimony, and cover the ark with the veil.

4 And thou shalt bring in the table, and set in order the things that are to be set in order upon it, and thou shalt bring in the candlestick, and light the lamps thereof.

5 And thou shalt set the altar of gold for the incense before the ark of the testimony, and put the hanging of the door to the tabernacle.

6 And thou shalt set the altar of the burnt-offering, before the door of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation.

7 And thou shalt set the laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and shalt put water therein.

8 And thou shalt set up the court round about, and hang up the hanging at the court gate.

9 And thou shalt take the anointing oil, and anoint the tabernacle and all that is therein, and shalt hallow it, and all the vessels thereof: and it shall be holy.

10 And thou shalt anoint the altar of the burnt-offering, and all his vessels, and sanctify the altar: and it shall be an altar most holy.

11 And thou shalt anoint the laver and his foot, and sanctify it.

12 And thou shalt bring Aaron and his sonnes unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and wash them with water.

13 And thou shalt put upon Aaron the holy garments, and anoint him, and sanctify him, that he may minister unto me in the priests office.

14 And thou shalt bring his sonnes, and clothe them with coats.

15 And thou shalt anoint them, as thou didst anoint their father, that they may minister unto me in the priests office: for their anointing shall surely be an everlasting priesthood, throughout their generations.

16 Thus did Moses: according to all that the Lord commanded him, in doing.

17 ¶ And it came to pass, in the first month in the second year, on the first day of the month, that the tabernacle was reared up.

18 And Moses reared up the tabernacle, and fastened his sockets, and set up the boards thereof, and put in the bars thereof, and reared up his pillars.

19 And he spread abroad the tent over the tabernacle, and put the covering of the tent above upon it; as the Lord commanded Moses.

20 ¶ And he took and put the testimony into the ark, and set the staves on the ark, and put the mercy-seat above upon the ark.

21 And he brought the ark into the tabernacle, and set up the vail of the covering, and covered the ark of the testimony, as the Lord commanded Moses.

22 ¶ And he put the table in the tent of the congregation, upon the side of the tabernacle northward, without the vail.

23 And he set the bread in order upon it, before the Lord; as the Lord had commanded Moses.

24 ¶ And he put the candlestick in the tent of the congregation, over against the table, on the side of the tabernacle southward.

25 And he lighted the lamps before the Lord; as the Lord commanded Moses.

26 ¶ And he put the golden altar in the tent of the congregation, before the vail.

27 And he burnt sweet incense thereon, as the Lord commanded Moses.

28 ¶ And he set up the hanging, at the door of the tabernacle.

29 And he put the altar of burnt-offering by the door of the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation, and offered upon it the burnt-offering, and the meat-offering; as the Lord commanded Moses.

30 ¶ And he set the laver between the tent of the congregation and the altar, and put water there, to wash withal.

31 And Moses, and Aaron and his sons, washed their hands, and their feet thereat.

32 When they went into the tent of the congregation, and when they came near unto the altar, they washed; as the Lord commanded Moses.

33 And he reared up the court round about the tabernacle and the altar, and set up the hanging of the court gate: so Moses finished his work.

34 ¶ Then a cloud covered the tent of the congregation, and the glory of the Lord filled the tabernacle.

35 And Moses was not able to enter into the tent of the congregation, because the cloud above thereon, and the glory of the Lord filled the tabernacle.

36 And when the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the children of Israel went onward in all their journeys:

37 But if the cloud were not taken up, then they journeyed not: till the day that it was taken up.

38 For the cloud of the Lord was upon the tabernacle by day, and fire was on it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel, throughout all their journeys.

THE THIRD BOOK of MOSES called LEVITICUS.

CHAP. I.

1 The burnt-offerings 3 of the herd, 10 of the flock, 14 of the fowls.

¶ And the Lord called unto Moses, and spake unto him out of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man of you bring an offering unto the Lord, ye shall bring your offering of the cattell, even of the herd, and of the flock.

3 If his offering be a burnt-sacrifice of the herd, let him offer a male without blemish: he shall offer it of his own voluntary will, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation before the Lord.

4 ¶ And he shall put his hand upon the head of the burnt-offering: and it shall be accepted for him, to make atonement for him.

5 And he shall kill the bullock before the Lord: and the priests Aaron's sons shall bring the blood, and sprinkle the blood round about upon the altar, that is by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

6 And he shall lay the burnt-offering, and cut it into his pieces.

7 And the sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire upon the altar, and lay the wood in order upon the fire.

8 And the priests Aaron's sons shall lay the parts, the head, and the fat, in order upon the wood that is in the fire which is upon the altar.

9 But the inward parts and his legs shall he wash in water, and the priest shall burn all on the altar, to be a burnt-sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the Lord.

10 ¶ And if his offering be of the flocks, namely of the sheep, or of the goats, for a burnt-sacrifice, he shall bring it a male without blemish.

11 And he shall kill it on the side of the altar northward before the Lord: and the priests Aaron's sons shall sprinkle his blood round about upon the altar.

12 And he shall cut it into his pieces, with his head and his fat: and the priest shall lay them in order on the wood that is on the fire which is upon the altar.

13 But he shall wash the inward parts and the legs with water: and the priest shall bring it all, and burn it upon the altar: it is a burnt-sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the Lord.

14 ¶ And if the burnt-sacrifice for his offering to the Lord be of fowls, then he shall bring his offering of turtle-doves, or of young pigeons.

15 And the priest shall bring it unto the altar, and having cut off his head, and burn it on the altar: and the blood thereof shall be wrung out at the side of the altar.

16 And he shall pluck away his crop with his feathers, and cast it beside the altar, on the east part, by the place of the ashes.

|| Or, pinch off the head with the nail, for, the skin thereof.

17 And he shall cleave it, tithed the things thereof, but shall not divide it: and the priest shall burn it upon the altar, upon the wood that is upon the fire: it is a burnt-sacrifice, an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the Lord.

CHAP. II.

1 The meat-offering of flour with oil and incense, 4 either-baken in the oven, 5 or on a plate, 7 or in a spher-panne: 12 or of the first-fruits in the ear. 13 The salt of the meat-offering.

And when any will offer a meat-offering unto the Lord, his offering shall be of fine flour: and he shall pour oil upon it, and put frankincense thereon.

2 And he shall bring it to Aaron's sonnes the priests: and he shall take thereout his handfull of the flour thereof, and of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof, and the priest shall burn the memoriall of it upon the altar, to be an offering made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the Lord.

* Eccles. 7, 21.

3 And the remnant of the meat-offering shall be Aaron's and his sonnes: it is a thing most holy of the offerings of the Lord made by fire.

4 And if thou bring an oblation of a meat-offering baken in the oven, it shall be an unleavened cake of fine flour mingled with oil, or unleavened wafers anointed with oil.

107, on a flat plate, or slice.

5 And if thy oblation be a meat-offering baken in a panne, it shall be of fine flour unleavened, mingled with oil.

6 Thou shalt part it in pieces, and pour oil thereon: it is a meat-offering.

7 And if thy oblation be a meat-offering baken in the spher-panne, it shall be made of fine flour with oil.

8 And thou shalt bring the meat-offering, that is made of these things, unto the Lord: and when it is presented unto the priest, he shall bring it unto the altar.

* Ver. 2.

* Exod. 29, 18.

9 And the priest shall take from the meat-offering a memoriall thereof, and shall burn it upon the altar: it is an offering made by fire of a sweet savour unto the Lord.

10 And that which is left of the meat-offering, shall be Aaron's and his sonnes: it is a thing most holy, of the offerings of the Lord made by fire.

11 Do meat-offering, which ye shall bring unto the Lord, shall be made with leaven: for ye shall burn no leaven, nor any honey, in any offering of the Lord made by fire.

* Mark 9, 49.

12 As for the oblation of the first-fruits, ye shall offer them unto the Lord: but they shall not be burnt on the altar for a sweet savour.

13 And every oblation of thy meat-offering shall thou season with salt: neither shall thou suffer the salt of the covenant of thy God to be lacking from thy meat-offerings: with all thine offerings thou shalt offer salt.

14 And if thou offer a meat-offering of thy first-fruits unto the Lord, thou shalt offer for the meat-offering of the first-fruits, green eares of corn dried by the fire, even corn beaten out of full eares.

15 And thou shalt put oil upon it, and lay frankincense thereon: it is a meat-offering.

16 And the priest shall burn the memoriall of it, part of the beaten corn thereof, and part of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof: it is an offering made by fire unto the Lord.

CHAP. III.

1 The peace-offering of the herd, 6 of the flock, 7 either a lambe, 12 or a goat.

And if his oblation be a sacrifice of peace-offering, if he offer it of the herd, whether it be a male or female, he shall offer it without blemish before the Lord.

2 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of his offering, and kill it at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron's sonnes the priests shall sprinkle the blood upon the altar round about.

3 And he shall offer of the sacrifice of the peace-offering, an offering made by fire unto the Lord: the fat that covereth the inward, and all the fat that is upon the inward.

4 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall be taken away.

5 And Aaron's sonnes shall burn it on the altar upon the burnt-sacrifice, which is upon the wood that is on the fire: it is an offering made by fire of a sweet savour unto the Lord.

6 And if his offering for a sacrifice of peace-offering unto the Lord, be of the flock, male or female, he shall offer it without blemish.

7 If he offer a lambe for his offering, then shall he offer it before the Lord.

8 And he shall lay his hand on the head of his offering, and kill it before the tabernacle of the congregation: and Aaron's sonnes shall sprinkle the blood thereof round about upon the altar.

9 And he shall offer of the sacrifice of the peace-offering, an offering made by fire unto the Lord: the fat thereof, and the whole rumpe, it shall be taken off hard by the back-bone: and the fat that covereth the inward, and all the fat that is upon the inward.

10 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall be taken away.

11 And the priest shall burn it upon the altar: it is the food of the offering made by fire unto the Lord.

12 And if his offering be a goat, then he shall offer it before the Lord.

13 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of it, and kill it before the tabernacle of the congregation: and the sonnes of Aaron shall sprinkle the blood thereof upon the altar round about.

14 And he shall offer thereof his offering, even an offering made by fire unto the Lord: the fat that covereth the inward, and all the fat that is upon the inward.

15 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall be taken away.

16 And the priest shall burn them upon the altar: it is the food of the offering made by fire, for a sweet savour. All the fat is the Lord's.

17 It shall be a perpetual statute for your generations throughout all your dwellings, that ye eat neither fat nor blood.

CHAP. IIIII.

1 The three offerings of ignorance, 2 for the priest, 23 for the congregation, 27 for the ruler, 27 for any of the people.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, 2 Speak unto the children of Israel.

saying, If a soul shall sinne through ignorance against any of the commandments of the L. o. m. (concerning things which ought not to be done) and shall do against any of them:

3 If the priest that is anointed, do sinne according to the sinne of the people; then let him bring for his sinne which he hath sinned, a young bullock without blemish, unto the L. o. m. for a sinne-offering.

4 And he shall bring the bullock unto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, before the L. o. m. ; and shall lay his hand upon the bullocks head, and kill the bullock before the L. o. m. .

5 And the priest that is anointed, shall take of the bullocks blood, and bring it to the tabernacle of the congregation.

6 And the priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle of the blood seven times before the L. o. m. , before the vail of the sanctuary.

7 And the priest shall put some of the blood upon the horns of the altar of sweet incense before the L. o. m. , which is in the tabernacle of the congregation; and shall pour * all the blood of the bullock at the bottom of the altar of the burnt-offering, which is at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

8 And he shall take off from it all the fat of the bullock for the sinne-offering; the fat that covereth the inward, and all the fat that is upon the inward:

9 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, which is by the flanks, and the caul above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall he take away.

10 As it was taken off from the bullock of the sacrifice of peace-offerings; and the priest shall burn them upon the altar of the burnt-offering.

11 * And the skine of the bullock, and all his fleshy, with his head, and with his legs, and his inward, and his dung.

12 When the whole bullock shall he carry forth without the camp, unto a clean place, where the ashes are poured out, and * burn him on the wood with fire: † where the ashes are poured out, shall he be burnt.

13 * And if the whole congregation of Israel sinne through ignorance, * and the thing be hid from the eyes of the assembly, and they have done somewhat against any of the commandments of the L. o. m. , concerning things which should not be done, and are guilty:

14 When the sinne which they have sinned against it, is known, then the congregation shall offer a young bullock for the sinne, and bring him before the tabernacle of the congregation.

15 And the elders of the congregation shall lay their hands upon the head of the bullock before the L. o. m. ; and the bullock shall be killed before the L. o. m. .

16 And the priest that is anointed, shall bring of the bullocks blood to the tabernacle of the congregation.

17 And the priest shall dip his finger in some of the blood, and sprinkle it seven times before the L. o. m. , even before the vail.

18 And he shall put some of the blood upon the horns of the altar, which is before the L. o. m. ; that is in the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall pour out all the blood at the bottom of the altar of the burnt-offering, which is at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

19 And he shall take all his fat from him, and burn it upon the altar.

20 And he shall do with the bullock as he did with the bullock for a sinne-offering, so shall he do with this: and the priest shall make an atonement for them, and it shall be forgiven them.

21 And he shall carry forth the bullock without the camp, and burn him as he burned the first bullock: it is a sinne-offering for the congregation.

22 ¶ When a ruler hath sinned & done somewhat through ignorance against any of the commandments of the L. o. m. his God, concerning things which should not be done, and is guilty:

23 ¶ If his sinne, wherein he hath sinned, come to his knowledge: he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a male without blemish.

24 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the goat, and kill it in the place where they kill the burnt-offering before the L. o. m. : it is a sinne-offering.

25 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sinne-offering with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt-offering, and shall pour out his blood at the bottom of the altar of burnt-offering.

26 And he shall burn all his fat upon the altar, as the fat of the sacrifice of peace-offerings: and the priest shall make an atonement for him as concerning his sinne, and it shall be forgiven him.

27 ¶ And if any one of the common people ^{Heb. any soul} sinne through ignorance, while he doth somewhat ^{Heb. people} against any of the commandments of the L. o. m. , of the land, concerning things which ought not to be done, and he is guilty:

28 ¶ If his sinne, which he hath sinned, come to his knowledge: then he shall bring his offering, a kid of the goats, a female without blemish, for his sinne which he hath sinned.

29 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the sinne-offering, and slay the sinne-offering in the place of the burnt-offering.

30 And the priest shall take of the blood thereof with his finger, & put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt offering, and shall pour out all the blood thereof at the bottom of the altar.

31 And * he shall take away all the fat thereof, ^{Chap. 3. 14.} as the fat is taken away from off the sacrifice of peace-offerings; and the priest shall burn it upon the altar, for a sweet savour unto the L. o. m. ; * ^{Exod. 29. 18} and the priest shall make an atonement for him, and it shall be forgiven him.

32 And if he bring a lamb for a sinne-offering, he shall bring it a female without blemish.

33 And he shall lay his hand upon the head of the sinne-offering, and slay it for a sinne-offering, in the place where they kill the burnt-offering.

34 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sinne-offering with his finger, and put it upon the horns of the altar of burnt-offering, and shall pour out all the blood thereof at the bottom of the altar.

35 And he shall take away all the fat thereof, as the fat of the lamb is taken away from the sacrifice of the peace-offerings; and the priest shall burn them upon the altar, according to the offerings made by fire unto the L. o. m. ; and the priest shall make an atonement for his sinne that he hath committed, and it shall be forgiven him.

CHAP. V.

1 He that sinneth in concealing his knowledge, 2 in touching an unclean thing, 4 or in making an oath. 6 His trespass-offering, of the flock, 7 of fowls, 11 or of fowls. 14 The trespass-offering in sacrilege, 17 and in finnes of ignorance.

And if a soul sinne, and heare the voice of swearing, and is a witness, whether he hath been or broken of it, if he be not witer it, then he shall bear his iniquity.

2 ¶ If a soul touch any unclean thing, whether it be a carcase of an unclean beast, or a carcase of unclean cattle, or the carcase of unclean creeping things, and if it be hidden from him, he also shall be unclean, and guilty.

3 ¶ If he touch the uncleanness of man, whether former uncleanness it be that a man shall be defiled withall, and it be hid from him; when he knoweth of it, then he shall be guilty.

4 ¶ If a soul swear, promising with his lips to do evil, or to do good; whatsoever it be that a man shall promise with an oath, and it be hid from him; when he knoweth of it, then he shall be guilty in one of these.

5 And it shall be, when he shall be guilty in one of these things, that he shall confess that he hath sinned in that thing.

6 And he shall bring his trespass-offering unto the Lord, for his sinne which he hath sinned, a female from the flock, a lamb, or a kid of the goats, for a sinne-offering: and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sinne.

7 And if he be not able to bring a lambe, then he shall bring for his trespass which he hath committed, two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons, unto the Lord, one for a sinne-offering, and the other for a burnt-offering.

8 And he shall bring them unto the priest, who shall offer that which is for the sinne-offering, who, and * bring off his head from his neck, but shall not divide it asunder.

9 And he shall sprinkle of the blood of the sinne-offering upon the side of the altar; and the rest of the blood shall be wrung out at the bottom of the altar: it is a sinne-offering.

10 And he shall offer the second for a burnt-offering, according to the manner: and the priest shall make an atonement for him, for his sinne which he hath sinned, and it shall be forgiven him.

11 ¶ But if he be not able to bring two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons; then he that sinned, shall bring for his offering the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a sinne-offering: he shall put no oil upon it, neither shall he put any frankincense thereon: for it is a sinne-offering.

12 Then shall he bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handful of it, * even a memorial thereof, and burn it on the altar, * according to the offering made by fire unto the Lord: it is a sinne-offering.

13 And the priest shall make an atonement for him, as touching his sinne that he hath sinned in one of these, and it shall be forgiven him: and the remnant shall be the priests, as a meat-offering.

14 ¶ And the Lord shall speak unto Moses, saying,

15 ¶ If a soul commit a trespass, a sinne through ignorance, in the holy things of the Lord, as when he shall bring for his trespass unto the Lord, a ramme without blemish out of the flocks, with the estimation by shekels of silver, after the shekel of the sanctuary, for a trespass-offering.

16 And he shall make murther for the burnt that he hath done in the holy thing, and shall add the fifth part thereto, and give it unto the priest: and the priest shall make an atonement for him with the ramme of the trespass-offering, and it shall be forgiven him.

17 ¶ And if a soul sinne, and commit any of these things which are forbidden to be done by the commandments of the Lord, as when he shall do it not, yet in he guilty, and shall bear his iniquity.

18 And he shall bring a ramme without blemish out of the flock, with the estimation, for a trespass-offering, unto the priest: and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his ignorance wherein he erred and wist it not; and it shall be forgiven him.

19 ¶ It is a trespass-offering: he hath certainly trespassed against the Lord.

CHAP. VI.

1 The trespass-offering for sinnes done unwittingly. 8 The law of the burnt-offering, 14 and of the meat-offering.

19 The offering at the consecration of a priest. 24 The law of the sinne-offering.

And the Lord shall speak unto Moses, saying, 2 ¶ If a soul sinne, and commit a trespass against the Lord, as when he shall do it not, yet in he guilty, and shall bear his iniquity, and shall bring a ramme without blemish out of the flock, with the estimation, for a trespass-offering, unto the priest: and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his ignorance wherein he erred and wist it not; and it shall be forgiven him.

3 ¶ And he shall bring a ramme without blemish out of the flock, with the estimation, for a trespass-offering, unto the priest: and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sinne.

4 ¶ And he shall bring a ramme without blemish out of the flock, with the estimation, for a trespass-offering, unto the priest: and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sinne.

5 ¶ And he shall bring a ramme without blemish out of the flock, with the estimation, for a trespass-offering, unto the priest: and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sinne.

6 ¶ And he shall bring a ramme without blemish out of the flock, with the estimation, for a trespass-offering, unto the priest: and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sinne.

7 ¶ And he shall bring a ramme without blemish out of the flock, with the estimation, for a trespass-offering, unto the priest: and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sinne.

8 ¶ And he shall bring a ramme without blemish out of the flock, with the estimation, for a trespass-offering, unto the priest: and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sinne.

9 ¶ And he shall bring a ramme without blemish out of the flock, with the estimation, for a trespass-offering, unto the priest: and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sinne.

10 ¶ And he shall bring a ramme without blemish out of the flock, with the estimation, for a trespass-offering, unto the priest: and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sinne.

11 ¶ And he shall bring a ramme without blemish out of the flock, with the estimation, for a trespass-offering, unto the priest: and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sinne.

12 ¶ And he shall bring a ramme without blemish out of the flock, with the estimation, for a trespass-offering, unto the priest: and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sinne.

13 ¶ And he shall bring a ramme without blemish out of the flock, with the estimation, for a trespass-offering, unto the priest: and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sinne.

14 ¶ And he shall bring a ramme without blemish out of the flock, with the estimation, for a trespass-offering, unto the priest: and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sinne.

15 ¶ And he shall bring a ramme without blemish out of the flock, with the estimation, for a trespass-offering, unto the priest: and the priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sinne.

4 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the flanks, and the caul that is above the liver, with the kidneys, it shall be take away.

5 And the liver shall he lay, then upon the altar, and an offering made by fire unto the L^o & M^o: it is a trespass-offering.

6 Every male among the priests shall eat thereof:

it shall be eaten in the holy place: it is most holy.

7 As the sinne-offering is, so is the trespass-offering: there is one law for them: the priest that maketh atonement thereof shall have it.

8 And the priest that offereth any mans burnt-offering, even the priest shall have to himselfe the skinner of the burnt-offering: which be both offered.

9 And all the meat-offering that is baked in the oven, and all that is baked in the frying-pan, and in the panno, shall be the priests that offereth it.

10 And every meat-offering mingled with oyl, and dry, shall all the sonnes of Aaron have, one as much as another.

11 And this is the law of the sacrifice of peace-offerings, which he shall offer unto the L^o & M^o.

12 If he offer it for a thanksgiving, then he shall lay with the sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes mingled with oyl, and unleavened wafers anointed with oyl, and cakes mingled with oyl of fine flour, freyn.

13 Besides the cakes, he shall offer for his offering, leavened bread, with the sacrifice of thanksgiving of his peace-offerings.

14 And of it he shall offer one out of the whole oblation, for an heave-offering unto the L^o & M^o, and it shall be the priests that sprinkle the blood of the peace-offering.

15 And the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace-offerings for thanksgiving, shall he eaten the same day that it is offered: he shall not leave any of it until the morning.

16 But if the sacrifice of his offering be a burnt, or a voluntary offering, it shall be eaten the same day that he offereth his sacrifice: and on the morrow also the remainder of it shall be eaten.

17 But the remainder of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day, shall be burnt with fire.

18 And if any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace-offerings be eaten at all on the third day, it shall not be accepted, neither shall it be imputed unto him that offereth it: it shall be an abomination, and the soul that eateth of it shall bear his iniquitie.

19 And the flesh that toucheth any unclean thing, shall not be eaten: it shall be burnt with fire: and as for the flesh, all that be clean shall eat thereof.

20 But the soul that eateth of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace-offerings that pertain unto the L^o & M^o, having his unclean hand upon him, then that soul shall be cut off from his people.

21 Moreover, the soul that shall touch any unclean thing, as the uncleanness of man, or any unclean beast, or any abominable unclean thing, and eat of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace-offerings which pertain unto the L^o & M^o, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

22 ¶ And the L^o & M^o spake unto Moses, saying,

23 ¶ Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Ye shall eat no manner fat, of any, of any, of any, of any.

24 And the fat of the y beast that died of itself, and the fat of that which is slain with beasts, may be used in any other use: but ye shall in no wise eat of it.

25 For whatsoever eateth the fat of the beast, of which man hath an offering made by fire unto the L^o & M^o, then the soul that eateth it, shall be cut off from his people.

26 Moreover, ye shall eat no manner of blood, whether it be of fowl, or of beast, in any of your dwellings.

ner of blood, then that soul shall be cut off from his people.

28 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

29 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, He that offereth the sacrifice of his peace-offerings unto the Lord, shall bring his oblation unto the Lord, of the sacrifice of his peace-offerings.

30 His own hands shall bring the offerings of the Lord, made by fire, the fat with the breast; it shall be bying, that the breast may be waved for a wave-offering before the Lord.

Exod. 29. 24.

31 And the priest shall burn the fat upon the altar: but the breast shall be Aarons and his sonnes.

32 And the right shoulder shall ye give unto the priest for an heave-offering, of the sacrifices of your peace-offerings.

33 Ye among the sonnes of Aaron that offereth the blood of the peace-offerings, and the fat, shall have the right shoulder for his part.

34 For the wave-breast and the heave-shoulder have I taken of the children of Israel, from off the sacrifices of their peace-offerings, and have given them unto Aaron the priest, and unto his sonnes by a statute for ever, from among the children of Israel.

35 ¶ This is the portion of the anointing of Aaron, and of the anointing of his sonnes, out of the offerings of the Lord, made by fire, in the day when he presented them, to minister unto the Lord, in the priests office.

36 Which the Lord commanded to be given them of the children of Israel, in the day that he anointed them; by a statute for ever, throughout their generations.

37 This is the law of the burnt-offering, of the meat-offering, and of the fume-offering, and of the trespass-offering, and of the consecrations, and of the sacrifice of the peace-offerings:

38 Which the Lord commanded Moses in mount Sinai, in the day that he commanded the children of Israel, to offer their oblations unto the Lord, in the wilderness of Sinai.

CHAP VIII.

Exod. 30. 24.

A And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Take Aaron and his sonnes with him, and the garments, and the anointing oyl, and a bullock for the fume-offering, and two rammes, and a basket of unleavened bread.

3 And gather thou all the congregation together unto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 And Moses did as the Lord commanded him, and the assembly was gathered together unto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

Exod. 29. 4.

5 And Moses laid unto the congregation, * This is the thing which the Lord commanded to be done.

6 And Moses brought Aaron and his sonnes, and washed them with water.

7 And he put upon him the coat, and girded him with a girdle, and clothed him with the robe, and put the ephod upon him, and he girded him with the curious girdle of the ephod, and bound it unto him therewith.

Exod. 28. 30.

8 And he put the breast-plate upon him: also he put in the breast-plate the Urim and Thummim, 9 And he put the miter upon his head: and upon the miter, even upon his forefront did he put the golden plate, the holy crown, as the Lord commanded Moses.

10 And Moses took the anointing oyl, and anointed the tabernacle and all that was therein, and sanctified them.

11 And he sprinkled thereof upon the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all his vessels, both the laver and his foot, to sanctify them.

12 And he poured of the anointing oyl upon Aarons head, and anointed him to sanctify him.

13 And Moses brought Aarons sonnes, and put coats upon them, and girded them with girdles, and put bonnets upon them, as the Lord commanded Moses.

14 And he brought the bullock for the fume-offering, and Aaron and his sonnes laid their hands upon the head of the bullock for the fume-offering.

15 And he slew it, and Moses took the blood, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about with his finger, and purified the altar; and poured the blood at the bottom of the altar, and sanctified it, to make reconciliation upon it.

16 And he took all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and Moses burned it upon the altar.

17 But the bullock and his hide, his flesh and his dung, he burnt with fire without the camp, as the Lord commanded Moses.

18 ¶ And he brought the ramme for the burnt-offering: and Aaron and his sonnes laid their hands upon the head of the ramme.

19 And he killed it, and Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about.

20 And he cut the ramme into pieces, and Moses burnt the head, and the pieces, and the fat.

21 And he washed the inwards and the legs in water, and Moses burnt the whole ramme upon the altar: it was a burnt-sacrifice for a sweet savour, and an offering made by fire unto the Lord, as the Lord commanded Moses.

22 ¶ And he brought the other ramme, the ramme of consecration: and Aaron and his sonnes laid their hands upon the head of the ramme.

23 And he slew it, and Moses took of the blood of it, and put it upon the tip of Aarons right ear, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

24 And he brought Aarons sonnes, and Moses put of the blood upon the tip of their right ear, and upon the thumbs of their right hands, and upon the great toes of their right feet: and Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round about.

25 And he took the fat, and the rump, and all the fat that was upon the inwards, and the caul above the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and the right shoulder.

26 And out of the basket of unleavened bread, that was before the Lord, he took one unleavened cake, and a cake of oyled bread, and one wafer, and put them on the fat, and upon the right shoulder.

27 And he put all upon Aarons hands, and upon his sonnes hands, and waved them for a wave-offering before the Lord.

28 And Moses took them from off their hands, and burnt them on the altar, upon the burnt-offering: they were consecrations for a sweet savour: it is an offering made by fire unto the Lord.

29 And Moses took the breast and washed it for a wave-offering before the Lord: for of the ramme of consecration it was Aarons part; as the Lord commanded Moses.

30 And Moses took of the anointing oyl, and of the blood which was upon the altar, and sprinkled it upon Aaron, and upon his garments, and upon his counts, and upon his sonnes garments with him; and sanctified Aaron, and his garments, and his sonnes, and his sonnes garments with him.

31 And Moses said unto Aaron, and to his sonnes, Boyl the flesh at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation: and there eat it with the bread that is in the basket of consecrations, as I commanded, saying, Aaron and his sonnes shall eat it.

32 And that which remaineth of the flesh and of the bread, shall ye burn with fire.

33 And ye shall not go out of the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation in seven dayes, until the dayes of your consecration be at an end: for seven dayes shall he consecrate you.

34 As he hath done this day, so the Lord hath commanded to do, to make an atonement for you.

35 Therefore shall ye abide at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation day and night, seven dayes, and keep the charge of the Law, that ye die not: for so I am commanded.

36 So Aaron and his sonnes did all things which the Lord commanded by the hand of Moses.

CHAP. IX.

1 The first offerings of Aaron for himself and the people. 8 The sinne offering, 12 and the burnt-offering for himself. 15 The offerings for the people. 23 Moses and Aaron bless the people. 24 Fire cometh from the Lord upon the altar.

And it came to passe on the eighth day, that Moses called Aaron and his sonnes, and the elders of Israel;

2 And he said unto Aaron, Take thee a young calf for a sinne-offering, and a ramme for a burnt-offering, without blemish, and offer them before the Lord.

3 And unto the children of Israel thou shalt speak, saying, Take ye a kid of the goats, for a sinne-offering, and a calf, and a lamb, both of the first year, without blemish, for a burnt-offering.

4 Also a bullock and a ramme, for peace-offerings, to sacrifice before the Lord: and a meat-offering mingled with oyl: for to day the Lord will appear unto you.

5 And they brought that which Moses commanded before the tabernacle of the congregation: and all the congregation stood neare and stood before the Lord.

6 And Moses said, This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded: that ye should do: and the glory of the Lord shall appear unto you.

7 And Moses said unto Aaron, Go unto the altar, and offer the sinne-offering, and the burnt-offering, and make an atonement for thy self, and for the people: and offer the offering of the people, and make an atonement for them; as the Lord hath commanded.

8 And Aaron therefore went unto the altar, & slew the calf of the sinne-offering, which was for himself.

9 And the sonnes of Aaron brought the blood unto him: and he dip his finger in the blood, and put it upon the horns of the altar, and poured out the blood at the bottom of the altar.

10 But the fat, and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver of the sinne-offering he burnt upon the altar; as the Lord hath commanded Moses.

11 And the flesh and the bone he burnt with fire without the camp.

12 And he slew the burnt-offering, and Aaron's sonnes presented unto him the blood, which he sprinkled round about upon the altar.

13 And they presented the burnt offering unto him, with the pieces thereof, and the head: and he burnt them upon the altar.

14 And he did wash the inward, and the ligs, and burnt them upon the burnt-offering on the altar.

15 And he brought the peoples offering, and took the goat which was the sinne-offering for the people, and slew it, & offered it for sin, as the Lord.

16 And he brought the burnt-offering, and offered it according to the manner.

17 And he brought the meat-offering, and took an handful thereof, and burnt it upon the altar, beside the burnt-sacrifice of the morning.

18 He slew also the bullock and the ramme, for a sacrifice of peace-offerings, which was for the people: and Aaron's sonnes presented unto him the blood, which he sprinkled upon the altar round about.

19 And the fat of the bullock, and of the ramme, the rum, and that which covereth the inward, and the kidneys, and the caul above the liver.

20 And they put the fat upon the breasts, and he burnt the fat upon the altar:

21 And the breasts and the right shoulder Aaron waved for a wave-offering before the Lord, as Moses commanded.

22 And Aaron lift up his hand towards the people, and blessed them; and came down from offering of the sinne-offering, and the burnt-offering, and peace-offerings.

23 And Moses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of the congregation, and came out, and blessed the people: and the glory of the Lord appeared unto all the people.

24 And there came a fire out from before the Lord, and consumed upon the altar the burnt-offering, and the fat: which when all the people saw, they shouted, and fell on their faces.

CHAP. X.

1 Nadab and Abihu for offering of strange fire, are burnt by fire. 6 Aaron and his sonnes are forbidden to mourn for them. 8 The priests are forbidden wine when they are to go into the tabernacle. 13 The law of eating the holy things. 16 Aarons excuseth for transgressing thereof.

And Nadab and Abihu, the sonnes of Aaron, took either of them his censer, and put fire therein, and put incense thereon, and offered strange fire before the Lord, which he commanded them not.

2 And there went out fire from the Lord, and devoured them, and they died before the Lord.

3 Then Moses said unto Aaron, This is it that the Lord hath spoken, saying, I will be sanctified in them that come nigh me, and before all the people: I will be glorified: & Aaron held his peace.

4 And Moses called Eliazar and Elaphan, the sonnes of Aziel the uncle of Aaron, and said unto them, Come neare, carry your brethren from before the sanctuary out of the camp.

5 So they went neare, and carried them in their coats out of the camp, as Moses had said.

6 And Moses said unto Aaron, and unto Eliazar and unto Elaphan his sonnes, Discover not your heads, neither rend your clothes, lest you die, and lest wrath come upon all the people: but let your brethren, the whole house of Israel, bewail the burning which the Lord hath kindled.

7 And ye shall not go out from the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye die.

9 ¶ These shall ye eat of all that are in the waters: whatsoever hath fin and scales in the waters, in the seas, and in the rivers, them shall ye eat.

10 And all that have not fin nor scales in the seas, and in the rivers, of all that move in the waters, and of every living thing, which is in the waters; they shall be an abomination unto you.

11 They shall be even an abomination unto you: ye shall not eat of their flesh, but you shall have their carcases in abomination.

12 But whatsoever hath no fin nor scales in the waters, that shall be an abomination unto you.

13 ¶ And these are they which ye shall have in abomination among the fowls, they shall not be eaten, they are an abomination: the eagle, and the osprey,

14 And the vulture, and the kite, after his kinde: 15 Every raven after his kinde:

16 And the owl, and the night-hawk, and the cuckoo, and the hawk after his kinde,

17 And the little owl, and the screech owl, and the great owl,

18 And the swan, and the pelican, and the gier eagle, 19 And the stoik, the heron after her kinde, and the lapwing, and the bat.

20 All fowls that creep, going upon all four, shall be an abomination unto you.

21 Yet these may ye eat of every flying creeping thing that goeth upon all four, which have legs above th' feet, to leap withall upon the earth:

22 Even these of them ye may eat: the locust after his kinde, and the baid locust after his kinde, and the beetle after his kinde, and the grasshopper after his kinde.

23 But all other flying creeping things, which have four feet, shall be an abomination unto you.

24 And for these ye shall be unclean: whosoever toucheth the carcase of them, shall be unclean until the even.

25 And whosoever beareth ought of the carcase of them, shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even.

26 The carcases of every beast which divideth the hoof, and is not cloven-footed, nor cheweth the cud, are unclean unto you: every one that toucheth them, shall be unclean.

27 And whosoever goeth upon his paws, among all manner of beasts, that go on all four, those are unclean unto you: whoso toucheth their carcase, shall be unclean until the even.

28 And he that beareth the carcase of them, shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: they are unclean unto you.

29 ¶ These also shall be unclean unto you among the creeping things that creep upon the earth: the weasel, and the mouse, and the tortoise after his kinde,

30 And the lizard, and the chameleon, and the lizard, and the snail, and the mole.

31 These are unclean to you among all that creep: whosoever doth touch them when they be dead, shall be unclean until the even.

32 And upon whosoever any of them, when they are dead, doth fall, it shall be unclean; whosoever it be any vessel of wood, or raiment, or skin, or sack, whosoever vessel it be, wherein any work is done, it must be put into water, and it shall be unclean until the even: so it shall be cleansed.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The laws and tokens whereby the priest is to be guided in discerning the leprosie.

And the Lord spake unto Moses and Aaron, saying,

2 When a man hath have in the skin of his flesh a rising, a scab, or bright spot, and it be in the skin of his flesh like the plague of leprosie; then he shall be brought unto Aaron the priest, or unto one of his sonnes the priests.

Or, Cwickle

3 And the priest shall look on the plague in the skin of the flesh; and when the hair in the plague is turned white, and the plague in sight be deeper then the skin of his flesh; it is a plague of leprosie: and the priest shall look on him, and pronounce him unclean.

4 If the bright spot be white in the skin of his flesh, and in sight be not deeper then the skin, and the hair thereof be not turned white, then the priest shall shut up him that hath the plague seven days.

5 And the priest shall look on him the seventh day: and behold, if the plague in his sight be at a stay, and the plague spread not in the skin; then the priest shall shut him up seven days more.

6 And the priest shall look on him again the seventh day: and behold, if the plague be somewhat dark, and the plague spread not in the skin; the priest shall pronounce him clean: it is but a scab: and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean.

7 But if the scab spread much abroad in the skin, after that he hath been seen of the priest for his cleansing, he shall be seen of the priest again.

8 And if the priest see, that behold, the scab spreadeth in the skin; then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a leprosie.

9 When the plague of leprosie is in a man, then he shall be brought unto the priest:

10 And the priest shall see him: and behold, if the rising be white in the skin, and it have turned the hair white, and there be quick raw flesh in the rising;

* Heb. the living flesh.

11 It is an old leprosie in the skin of his flesh, and the priest shall pronounce him unclean, and shall not shut him up, for he is unclean.

12 And if a leprosie break out abroad in the skin, and the leprosie cover all his flesh, he shall pronounce him clean that hath the plague from his head even to his foot, whatsoever the priest looketh;

13 Where the priest shall consider: and behold, if the leprosie have covered all his flesh, he shall pronounce him clean that hath the plague: it is all turned white; he is clean.

14 But when raw flesh appeareth in him, he shall be unclean.

15 And the priest shall see the raw flesh, and pronounce him to be unclean: for the raw flesh is unclean: it is a leprosie.

16 ¶ If the tato flesh turn againe, and be changed into white, he shall come unto the priest:

17 And the priest shall see him: and behold, if the plague be turned into white; then the priest shall pronounce him clean: that hath the plague: he is clean.

18 ¶ The flesh also, in which, even in the skinned thereof, was a bile, and is healed,

19 And in the place of the bile there be a white rising, or a bright spot white, and somewhat reddish, and it be shewed to the priest;

20 And if when the priest seeth it, behold, it be in sight lower then the skinned, and the hair thereof be turned white; the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a plague of leprosie broken out of the bile.

21 But if the priest look on it, and behold, there be no white hairs therein, and if it be not lower then the skinned, but be somewhat dark; then the priest shall shut him up seven dayes.

22 And if it spread much abroad in the skinned, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a plague.

23 But if the bright spot stay in his place, and spread not, it is a burning bile; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

24 ¶ ¶ If there be any flesh, in the skinned whereof there is a hot burning, and the quick flesh that burneth have a white bright spot, somewhat reddish, or white;

25 Then the priest shall look upon it: and behold, if the hair in the bright spot be turned white, and it be in sight deeper then the skinned; it is a leprosie broken out of the burning: wherefore the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosie.

26 But if the priest look on it, and behold, there be no white hair on the bright spot, and it be no lower then the other skinned, but be somewhat dark; then the priest shall shut him up seven dayes.

27 And the priest shall look upon him the seventh day: and if it be spread much abroad in the skinned, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the plague of leprosie.

28 And if the bright spot stay in his place, and spread not in the skinned, but it be somewhat dark; it is a rising of the burning, and the priest shall pronounce him clean: for it is an inflammation of the burning.

29 ¶ If a man or a woman hath a plague upon the head or the beard;

30 Then the priest shall see the plague: and behold, if it be in sight deeper then the skinned, and there be in it a yellow thimble hair; then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is a dry scall, even a leprosie upon the head or beard.

31 And if the priest look on the plague of the scall, and behold, it be not in sight deeper then the skinned, and that there is no black hair in it; then the priest shall shut up him that hath the plague of the scall, seven dayes.

32 And in the tenth day the priest shall look on the plague; and behold, if the scall spread not, and there be in it no yellow hair, and the scall be not in sight deeper then the skinned;

33 He shall be shaven, but the scall shall he not shave: and the priest shall shut up him that hath the scall seven dayes more.

34 And in the seventh day the priest shall look on the scall: and behold, if the scall be not spread in the skinned, nor be in sight deeper then the skinned; then the priest shall pronounce him clean: and he shall wash his clothes, and be clean.

35 But if the scall spread much in the skinned after his cleansing;

36 ¶ When the priest shall look on him; and behold, if the scall be spread in the skinned, the priest shall not seek for yellow hairs; he is unclean.

37 But if the scall be in his sight at a stay, and that there is black hair grown up therein; the scall is healed, he is clean: and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

38 ¶ If a man also or a woman have in the skinned of their flesh bright spots, even white bright spots;

39 Then the priest shall look: and behold, if the bright spots in the skinned of their flesh be darkish whities; it is a freckled spot that groweth in the skinned: he is clean.

40 And the man whose hair is fallen off his head, he is bald: yet he is clean.

41 And he that hath his hair fallen off, from the part of his head toward his face, he is forehead-bald: yet he is clean.

42 And if there be in the bald head, or bald forehead, a white reddish sore; it is a leprosie springing up in his bald head, or his bald forehead.

43 Then the priest shall look upon it: and behold, if the rising of the sore be white reddish in his bald head, or in his bald forehead, as the leprosie appeareth in the skinned of the flesh;

44 He is a leproious man, he is unclean: the priest shall pronounce him utterly unclean. His plague is in his head.

45 And the leper in whom the plague is, his clothes shall be rent, and his head bare, and he shall put a covering upon his upper lip, and shall cry, Unclean, unclean.

46 All the dayes wherein the plague shall be in him, he shall be defiled; he is unclean: he shall dwell alone, without the camp shall his habitation be.

47 ¶ The garment also, that the plague of leprosie is in, whether it be a woollen garment, or a linen garment,

48 Whether it be in the warp, or woof, of linen or of woollen, whether in a skinned, or in any thing made of skinned:

49 And if the plague be greenish or reddish in the garment, or in the skinned, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skinned; it is a plague of leprosie, and shall be shewed unto the priest.

50 And the priest shall look upon the plague, and shut up it that hath the plague, seven dayes.

51 And he shall look on the plague on the seventh day: if the plague be spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in a skinned, or in any work that is made of skinned; the plague is a fretting leprosie; it is unclean.

52 He shall therefore burn that garment, whether warp or woof, in woollen or in linen, or any thing of skinned, wherein the plague is: for it is a fretting leprosie; it shall be burnt in the fire.

53 And if the priest shall look, and behold, the plague be not spread in the garment, either in the warp, or in the woof, or in any thing of skinned;

54 Then the priest shall command that they wash the thing wherein the plague is, and he shall shut it up seven dayes more.

55 And the priest shall look on the plague after that it is washed: and behold, if the plague have not changed his colour, and the plague be not spread; it is unclean, thou shalt burn it in the fire: it is feet inward, whether it be bare within, or without.

56 And if the priest look, and behold, the plague be somewhat dark after the washing of it; then he shall rend it out of the garment, or out of the skinned, the forehead, or out of the warp, or out of the woof.

58 And the garment, either warp, or woof, or whatsoever thing of skin is he, whither thou shalt wash, if the plague be departed from thence, then it shall be washed the second time, & shall be clean.

59 This is the law of the plague of leprosie in a garment of woollen or linen, either in the warp, or woof, or any thing of skins, to pronounce it clean, or to pronounce it unclean.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The rites and sacrifices in cleansing of the leprosie. 33 The signes of leprosie in an house. 48 The cleansing of that house.

AND the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, 2 This shall be the law of the leper, in the day of his cleansing: he shall be brought unto the priest.

3 And the priest shall go forth out of the camp: and the priest shall look, and behold, if the plague of leprosie be healed in the leper;

4 Then shall the priest command to take for him that is to be cleansed, two birds alive, and clean, and cedar-wood, and scarlet, and hyssop.

5 And the priest shall command that one of the birds be killed in an earthen vessel, over running water.

6 As for the living bird, he shall take it, and the cedar-wood, and the scarlet, and the hyssop, and shall dip them and the living bird, in the blood of the bird that was killed over the running water.

7 And he shall sprinkle upon him that is to be cleansed from the leprosie, seven times, and shall pronounce him clean, and shall let the living bird loose into the open field.

8 And he that is to be cleansed shall wash his clothes, and shave off all his hair, and wash himself in water, that he may be clean: and after that he shall come into the camp, and shall carry abroad out of his tent seven days.

9 But it shall be on the seventh day, that he shall shave all his hair off his head and his beard, and his eye-brows, even all his hair he shall shave off: and he shall wash his clothes, also he shall wash his flesh in water, and he shall be clean.

10 And on the eighth day he shall take two lambs without blemish, and one ewe-lamb of the first year without blemish, and three tenth-deals of fine flour for a meat-offering, mingled with oil, and one log of oil.

11 And the priest that maketh him clean, shall present the man that is to be made clean, and those things before the Lord, at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation:

12 And the priest shall take one ewe-lamb, and offer him for a trespass-offering, and the log of oil, and shall wave them for a wave offering before the Lord.

13 And he shall slay the lamb in the place where he shall kill the burnt-offering and the burnt-offering, in the holy place: for as the sin-offering is the priests, so is the trespass-offering: it is most holy.

14 And the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and the priest shall put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

15 And the priest shall take some of the log of oil, and pour it into the palm of his own left hand.

16 And the priest shall dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand, and shall sprinkle of the oil with his finger, seven times before the Lord.

17 And of the rest of the oil that is in his hand, shall the priest put upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot, upon the blood of the trespass-offering.

18 And the remnant of the oil that is in the priest's hand, he shall pour upon the head of him that is to be cleansed: and the priest shall make an atonement for him before the Lord.

19 And the priest shall offer the sin-offering, and make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed from his uncleanness, and afterward he shall kill the burnt-offering.

20 And the priest shall offer the burnt-offering, and the meat-offering upon the altar: and the priest shall make an atonement for him, and he shall be clean.

21 And if he be poor, and cannot get so much, then he shall take one lamb for a trespass-offering, to be waved, to make an atonement for him, and one tenth-deal of fine flour mingled with oil, for a meat-offering, and a log of oil:

22 And two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons, such as he is able to get; and the one shall be a sin-offering, and the other a burnt-offering.

23 And he shall bring them on the eighth day, for his cleansing, unto the priest, unto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, before the Lord.

24 And the priest shall take the lamb of the trespass-offering, and the log of oil, and the priest shall wave them for a wave-offering before the Lord.

25 And he shall kill the lamb of the trespass-offering, and the priest shall take some of the blood of the trespass-offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot.

26 And the priest shall pour of the oil into the palm of his own left hand.

27 And the priest shall sprinkle with his right finger, some of the oil that is in his left hand, seven times before the Lord.

28 And the priest shall put of the oil that is in his hand, upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and upon the great toe of his right foot: upon the place of the blood of the trespass-offering.

29 And the rest of the oil that is in the priest's hand, he shall put upon the head of him that is to be cleansed, to make an atonement for him before the Lord.

30 And he shall offer the one of the turtle doves, or of the young pigeons, such as he can get:

31 Even such as he is able to get, the one for a sin-offering, and the other for a burnt-offering, with the meat-offering. And the priest shall make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed, before the Lord.

32 This is the law of him in whom is the plague of leprosie, whose hand is not able to get that which pertaineth to his cleansing.

36 Then the priest shall command that they empty the house, before the priest go into it to see the plague; that all that is in the house be not made unclean: and afterward the priest shall go in to see the house.

37 And he shall look on the plague, and behold, if the plague be in the walls of the house, with hollow cracks, greenish, or reddish, which in sight are lower than the wall:

38 Then the priest shall go out of the house to the doore of the house, and shut up the house seven days.

39 And the priest shall come again the seventh day, and shall look: and behold, if the plague be spread in the walls of the house:

40 Then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and they shall call them into an unclean place without the city.

41 And he shall cause the house to be scraped within round about, and they shall pour out the dust that they scrape off, without the city into an unclean place.

42 And they shall take other stones, and put them in the place of those stones, and he shall take other mortar, and shall plaster the house.

43 And if the plague come again, and break out in the house, after that he hath taken away the stones, and after he hath scraped the house, and after it is plastered:

44 Then the priest shall come and look, and behold, if the plague be spread in the house, it is a fretting leprosie in the house: it is unclean.

45 And he shall break down the house, all the stones of it, and the timber thereof, and all the mortar of the house: and he shall carry them forth out of the city into an unclean place.

46 Moreover, he that goeth into the house all the while that it is shut up, shall be unclean until the even.

47 And he that lieth in the house, shall wash his clothes: and he that eateth in the house, shall wash his clothes.

48 And if the priest shall come in and look upon it, and behold, the plague hath not spread in the house, after the house was plastered: then the priest shall pronounce the house clean, because the plague is healed.

49 And he shall take to cleanse the house two birds, and cedar-wood, and scarlet, and hyssop.

50 And he shall kill the one of the birds in an earthen vessel over running water.

51 And he shall take the cedar-wood, and the hyssop, and the scarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the slain bird, and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seven times.

52 And he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the bird, and with the running water, and with the living bird, and with the cedar-wood, and with the hyssop, and with the scarlet.

53 But he shall let go the living bird out of the city into the open fields, and make an atonement for the house: and it shall be clean.

57 To teach + when it is unclean, and when it is clean: this is the law of leprosie.

The uncleanness of men in their issues. 13 The cleansing of them. 19 The uncleanness of women in their issues. 28 Their cleansing.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, and to Aaron, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When any man hath a running issue out of his flesh, because of his issue he is unclean.

3 And this shall be his uncleanness in his issue: whether his flesh runneth with his issue, or his flesh be stopped from his issue, it is his uncleanness.

4 Every bed whereon he lieth that hath the issue, is unclean: and every thing whereton he sitteth, shall be unclean.

5 And whosoever toucheth his bed shall wash his clothes, and wash himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

6 And he that sitteth on any thing whereton he sat that hath the issue, shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

7 And he that toucheth the flesh of him that hath the issue, shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

8 And if he that hath the issue spit upon him that is clean: then he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

9 And what saddle soever he rideth upon, that hath the issue, shall be unclean.

10 And whosoever toucheth any thing that was under him, shall be unclean until the even: and he that beareth any of those things, shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

11 And whosoever be toucheth that hath the issue (and hath not rinsed his hands in water) he shall wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the even.

12 And the vessel of earth, that he toucheth which hath the issue, shall be broken: and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.

13 And when he that hath an issue is cleansed of his issue, then he shall number to himself seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in running water, and shall be clean.

14 And on the eighth day he shall take to him two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons, and come before the Lord, unto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and give them unto the priest.

15 And the priest shall offer them, the one for a sinne offering, and the other for a burnt-offering: and the priest shall make an atonement for him before the Lord, for his issue.

16 And if any mans seed of copulation go out from him, then he shall wash all his flesh in water, and be unclean until the even.

17 And every garment, and every skinned whereton is the seed of copulation, shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the even.

18 The woman also, with whom man shall lie with seed of copulation, they shall both bathe themselves in water, and be unclean until the even.

19 ¶ And if a woman have an issue, and her issue in her flesh be blood, she shall be put apart seven days: and whosoever toucheth her, shall be unclean until the even.

Chap. 16. 2.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, after the death of the two sonnes of Aaron, when they offered before the Lord, and died:

Exod. 30. 10
29. 7.

2 And the Lord spake unto Moses, Speak unto Aaron thy brother, that he come not at all times into the holy place within the veil, before the mercy-seat, which is upon the ark, that he die not: for I will appear in the cloud upon the mercy-seat.

3 Thus shall Aaron come into the holy place: with a young bullock for a sinne-offering, and a ramme for a burnt-offering.

4 He shall put on the holy linen coat, and he shall have the linen breeches upon his flesh, and shall be girded with the linen girdle, and with the linen sash shall he be attired: these are holy garments; therefore shall he wash his flesh in water, and he put them on.

5 And he shall take of the congregation of the children of Israel, two kids of the goats for a sinne-offering, and one ramme for a burnt-offering.

6 And Aaron shall offer his bullock of the sinne-offering, which is for himself, and make an atonement for himself, and for his house.

7 And he shall take the two goats, and present them before the Lord, at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

8 And Aaron shall cast lots upon the two goats; one lot for the Lord, and the other lot for the scape-goat.

9 And Aaron shall bring the goat upon which the Lord's lot is fall, and offer him for a sinne-offering.

10 But the goat on which the lot fell to be the scape-goat, shall be presented alive before the Lord, to make an atonement with him, and to let him go for a scape-goat into the wilderness.

11 And Aaron shall bring the bullock of the sinne-offering, which is for himself, and shall make an atonement for himself, and for his house, and shall kill the bullock of the sinne-offering which is for himself.

12 And he shall take a censer-full of burning coals of fire from off the altar before the Lord, and his hands-full of sweet incense beaten small, and bring it within the veil.

13 And he shall put the incense upon the fire before the Lord, that the cloud of the incense may cover the mercy-seat that is upon the testimony, that he die not.

14 And he shall take of the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it with his finger upon the mercy-seat eastward: and because the mercy-seat shall be sprinkle of the blood with his finger seven times.

15 ¶ Then shall he kill the goat of the sinne-offering that is for the people, and bring his blood within the veil, and do with that blood as he doth with the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it upon the mercy-seat, and before the mercy-seat.

16 And he shall make an atonement for the holy place, because of the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and because of their transgressions in all their sinnes: and so shall he do for the tabernacle of the congregation that remaineth among them, in the midst of their uncleanness.

17 And there shall be no man in the tabernacle of the congregation, when he goeth in to make an atonement in the holy place, until he come out, and have made an atonement for himself, and for his household, and for all the congregation of Israel.

18 And he shall go out unto the altar that is before the Lord, and make an atonement for it, and shall take of the blood of the bullock, and of the blood of the goat, and put it upon the horns of the altar round about.

19 And he shall sprinkle of the blood upon it with his finger seven times, and cleanse it, and hallow it from the uncleanness of the children of Israel.

20 ¶ And when he hath made an end of reconciling the holy place, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar, he shall bring the live goat:

21 And Aaron shall lay both his hands upon the head of the live goat, and confess over him all the iniquities of the children of Israel, and all their transgressions in all their sinnes, putting them upon the head of the goat; and shall send him away by the hand of a fit man into the wilderness.

27 And the bullock for the sinne-offering, and the goat for the sinne-offering, whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the holy place, shall one carry forth without the camp, and they shall burn in the fire their skins, and their flesh, and their dung.

28 And he that burneth them, shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and afterward he shall come into the camp.

29 ¶ And this shall be a statute for ever unto you: that in the seventh month, on the tenth day of the month, ye shall afflict your souls, and do no work at all, whether it be one of your own country, or a stranger that sojourneth among you.

30 For on that day shall the priest make an atonement for you, to cleanse you, that ye may be clean from all your sinnes before the Lord.

31 It shall be a sabbath of rest unto you, and ye shall afflict your souls by a statute for ever.

32 And the priest whom he shall anoint, and whom he shall consecrate to minister in the priests office in his fathers stead, shall make the atonement, and shall put on the linen clothes, even the holy garments.

33 And he shall make an atonement for the holy sanctuary, and he shall make an atonement for the tabernacle of the congregation, and for the altar: and he shall make an atonement for the priests, and for all the people of the congregation.

34 And this shall be an everlasting statute unto you, to make an atonement for the children of Israel, for all their sinnes, once a year. And he did as the Lord commanded Moses.

CHAP. XVII.

1 The blood of all slain beasts must be offered to the Lord at the doore of the tabernacle. 7 They must not offer to devils. 10 All eating of blood is forbidden, 15 and all that dieth alone, or is torn.

¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto Aaron, and unto his sons, and unto all the children of Israel, and say unto them, This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded, saying,

3 What man soever there be of the house of Israel, that killeth an ox, or lamb, or goat in the camp, or that killeth it out of the camp.

4 And bringeth it not unto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer an offering unto the Lord before the tabernacle of the Lord; blood shall be imputed unto that man, he hath shed blood; and that man shall be cut off from among his people.

5 So the end that the children of Israel may bring their sacrifices, which they offer in the open field, even that they may bring them unto the Lord, unto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation unto the Lord, and offer them for peace-offerings unto the Lord.

6 And the priest shall sprinkle the blood upon the side of the altar, at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and burn the fat for a sweet savour unto the Lord.

7 And they shall no more offer their sacrifices unto devils after whom they have gone a whoring: This shall be a statute for ever unto them throughout their generations.

8 ¶ And thou shalt say unto them, Whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers which sojourn among you, that offereth a burnt-offering of sacrifice, 9 And bringeth it not unto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer it unto the Lord, even that man shall be cut off from among his people.

10 ¶ And whatsoever man there be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, that eateth any manner of blood, I will even set my face against that soul that eateth blood, and will cut him off from among his people.

11 For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I have given it to you upon the altar, to make an atonement for your souls: for it is the blood that maketh an atonement for the soul.

12 Therefore I said unto the children of Israel, No soul of you shall eat blood, neither shall any stranger that sojourneth among you, eat blood.

13 And whatsoever man there be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, that hunteth and catcheth any beast or fowl that may be eaten; he shall even pour out the blood thereof, and cover it with dust.

14 For it is the life of all flesh, the blood of it is for the life thereof: therefore I said unto the children of Israel, Ye shall eat the blood of no manner of flesh, for the life of all flesh is the blood thereof: whosoever eateth it shall be cut off.

15 And every soul that eateth that which died of it self, or that which was torn with beasts (whether it be one of your own country, or a stranger) he shall both wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and be unclean until the seventh day.

16 But if he wash them not, nor bathe his flesh, then he shall bear his iniquity.

16 * Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy brothers wife: it is thy brothers nakedness.

17 * Thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of a woman and her daughter, neither shalt thou take her sonnes daughter, or her daughters daughter, to uncover her nakedness, for they are her near kinswomen: it is wickedness.

18 * Neither shalt thou take a wife to her sister, to vex her, to uncover her nakedness besides the other in her life time.

19 * Also thou shalt not approach unto a woman to uncover her nakedness, as long as she is put apart for her uncleanness.

20 * Moreover, thou shalt not lie carnally with thy neighbours wife, to defile thy self with her.

21 * And thou shalt not let any of thy seed pass through the fire to Moloch, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God: I am the Lord.

22 * Thou shalt not lie with mankind, as with womankind: it is abomination.

23 * Neither shalt thou lie with any beast to defile thyself therewith: neither shall any woman stand before a beast to lie down thereto: it is confusion.

24 * Defile not you your selves in any of these things: for in all these the nations are defiled which I call out before you.

25 * And the land is defiled: therefore I will visit the iniquity thereof upon it, and the land it self vomited out her inhabitants.

26 * Ye shall therefore keep my statutes and my judgments, and shall not commit any of these abominations, neither any of your own nation, nor any stranger that dwelleth among you:

27 * For all these abominations have the men of the land done, which were before you, and the land is defiled.

28 * That the land spue not you out also, when ye defile it, as it spued out the nations that were before you.

29 * For whosoever shall commit any of these abominations, even the souls that commit them shall be cut off from among their people.

30 * Therefore shall ye keep mine ordinance, that ye commit not any one of these abominable customs, which were committed before you, and that ye defile not your selves therein: I am the Lord.

And the Lord shall speak unto Moses saying,

2 * Speak unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, and say unto them,

3 * Ye shall fear every man his mother and his father, and keep my sabbaths: I am the Lord your God.

4 * Turn ye not unto idols, nor make to your selves molten gods: I am the Lord your God.

5 * And if ye offer a sacrifice of peace-offerings unto the Lord, ye shall offer it at your own will.

6 * It shall be eaten the same day ye offer it, and on the morrow; and if it tarry remain until the third day, it shall be burnt in the fire:

7 * And if it be eaten at all on the third day, it is abominable: it shall not be accepted.

8 * Therefore every one that eateth it shall bear his iniquity, because he hath profaned the hallowed thing of the Lord; and that soul shall be cut off from among his people.

9 * And when ye reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not wholly reap the corners of thy field, neither shalt thou gather the gleanings of thy harvest.

10 * And thou shalt not glean thy vineyard, neither shalt thou gather every grape of thy vineyard; thou shalt leave them for the poor and stranger: I am the Lord your God.

11 * Ye shall not steal, neither deal falsely, neither lie one to another.

12 * And ye shall not swear by my name falsely, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God: I am the Lord.

13 * Thou shalt not defraud thy neighbour, neither rob him: the wages of him that is hired, shall not abide with thee all night until the morning.

14 * Thou shalt not curse the deaf, nor put a stumbling block before the blind, but shalt fear thy God: I am the Lord.

15 * Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment: thou shalt not respect the person of the poor, nor honour the person of the mighty: but in righteousness shalt thou judge thy neighbour.

16 * Thou shalt not go up and down as a tale bearer among thy people: neither shalt thou stand against the blood of thy neighbour: I am the Lord.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying.

* Chap. 18.

1 ¶ Again, thou shalt say to the children of Israel, whosoever he be of the children of Israel, or of the stranger that sojourn in Israel, that giveth any of his seed unto Molech, he shall surely be put to death: the people of the land shall stone him with stones.

2 ¶ And I will set my face against that man, and will cut him off from among his people: because he hath given of his seed unto Molech, to defile my sanctuary, and to profane my holy name.

3 ¶ And if the people of the land do any ways hide their eyes from the man, when he giveth of his seed unto Molech, and kill him not:

4 ¶ Then I will set my face against that man, and against his family, and will cut him off, and all that go a whoring after him, to commit whoredome with Molech, from among their people.

5 ¶ And the soul that turneth after such as have familiar spirits, and after wizards, to go a whoring after them: I will even set my face against that soul, and will cut him off from among his people.

6 ¶ Sanctifye your selves therefore, and be ye holy: for I am the Lord your God.

7 ¶ And ye shall keep my statutes, and do them: I am the Lord your God.

8 ¶ For every one that curseth his father or his mother, shall be surely put to death: he that curseth his father or his mother, his blood shall be upon him.

9 ¶ And the man that committed adultery with another mans wife, even he that committeth adultery with his neighbours wife, the adulterer and the adulteresse shall surely be put to death.

10 ¶ And the man that lieth with his fathers wife, hath uncovered his fathers nakedness: both of them shall be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

11 ¶ And if a man lie with his daughter in law, both of them shall surely be put to death: they have wrought confusion, their blood shall be upon them.

12 ¶ If a man also lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them.

13 ¶ And if a man take a wife and her mother, it is wickedness: they shall be burnt with fire, both he and they; that there be no wickedness among you.

14 ¶ And if a man lie with a beast, he shall surely be put to death; and ye shall slay the beast.

15 ¶ And if a woman approach unto any beast, and lie down thereto, thou shalt kill the woman and the beast: they shall surely be put to death, their blood shall be upon them.

16 ¶ And if a man take his sister, his fathers daughter, or his mothers daughter, and see her nakedness, and she see his nakedness, it is a wicked thing; and they shall be cut off in the sight of their people: he hath uncovered his sisters nakedness, he shall bear his iniquity.

17 ¶ And if a man shall lie with a woman having her sickness, and shall uncover her nakedness; he hath discovered her fountain, and she hath uncovered the fountain of her blood: and both of them shall be cut off from among their people.

18 ¶ And thou shalt not uncover the nakedness of thy mothers sister, nor of thy fathers sister: for he that uncovereth his near kinsman, he shall bear his iniquity.

19 ¶ And if a man shall lie with his uncles wife, he hath uncovered his uncles nakedness: they shall bear their sin, they shall die childless.

20 ¶ And if a man shall take his brothers wife, it is an uncleanness: they shall be childless.

21 ¶ Ye shall therefore keep all my statutes, and all my judgments, and do them: that the land whither I bring you to dwell therein, shall not be polluted.

22 ¶ And ye shall not walk in the manners of the nation, which I cast out before you: for they committed all these things, and therefore I abhorred them.

23 ¶ But I have said unto you, Ye shall inherit their land, and I will give it unto you to possess it: a land that floweth with milk and honey: I am the L. o. m. w. to your God, which have separated you from other people.

25 * Ye shall therefore put difference between clean beasts and unclean, and between unclean fowls and clean: and ye shall not make your souls abominable by beast, or by fowl, or by any manner of living thing, that I creepeth on the ground, which I have separated from you as unclean.

26 And ye shall be holy unto me: * for I the L. o. m. w. am holy, and have severed you from other people, that ye should be mine.

27 ¶ A man also or woman that hath a familiar spirit, or that is a wizard, shall surely be put to death: they shall stone them with stones: their blood shall be upon them.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Of the priests mourning. 6 Of their holiness. 8 Of their estimation. 7, 13 Of their marriages. 16 The priests that have blemishes must not minister in the sanctuary.

¶ ANd the L. o. m. w. said unto Moses, Speak unto the priests the sonsnes of Aaron, and say unto them, There shall none be defiled for the dead among his people.

2 But for his kinne, that is neare unto him, that is, for his mother, and for his father, and for his sonne, and for his daughter, and for his brother,

3 And for his sister a virgin, that is nigh unto him, which hath had no husband: for her may he be defiled.

4 But I he shall not defile himself, being a chief man among his people, to profane himself.

5 * They shall not make balneis upon their head, neither shall they shave off the corner of their beard, nor make any cuttings in their flesh.

6 They shall be holy unto their God, and not profane the name of their God: for the offerings of the L. o. m. w. made by fire, and the head of their God they no offer: therefore they shall be holy.

7 They shall not take a wife that is a whore, or profane; neither shall they take a woman put away from her husband: for he is holy unto his God.

8 When shall sanctifie him therefore; for he offereth the head of the God: he shall be holy unto thee: for I the L. o. m. w. which sanctifie you, am holy.

9 ¶ And the daughter of any priest, if she profane her self by playing the whore, or the profaneth her father: she shall be burnt with fire.

10 And he that is the high priest among his brethren, upon whose head the anointing oil was poured, and that is consecrated to put on the garments, shall not uncover his head, nor rent his clothes:

11 Neither shall he go in to any dead body, nor defile himself for his father, or for his mother.

12 Neither shall he go out of the sanctuary, nor profane the sanctuary of his God; for the crown of the anointing oil of his God is upon him: I am the L. o. m. w.

13 And he shall take a wife in her virginity.

14 A widow, or a divorced woman, or profane, or an harlot, these shall he not take: but he shall take a virgin of his own people to wife.

15 Neither shall he profane his seed among his people: for I the L. o. m. w. do sanctifie him.

16 ¶ And the L. o. m. w. spake unto Moses, saying,

17 Speak unto Aaron, saying, Whosoever he be of the seed in their generations, that hath any blemish, let him not approach to offer the bread of his God:

18 For whatsoever man he be that hath a blemish, he shall not approach: a blinde man, or a lame, or he that hath a flat nose, or any thing such as that,

19 Or a man that is broken-footed, or broken-handed,

20 Or crook-backed, or a dwarf, or that hath a blemish in his eye, or be scurvy, or scabbed, or hath his stones broken:

21 No man that hath a blemish, of the seed of Aaron the priest, shall come nigh to offer the offerings of the L. o. m. w. made by fire: he hath a blemish, he shall not come nigh to offer the bread of his God.

22 Ye shall eat the bread of his God, both of the most holy, and of the holy.

23 Surely he shall not go in unto the bail, nor come nigh unto the altar, because he hath a blemish: that he profane not my sanctuaries: for I the L. o. m. w. do sanctifie them.

24 And Moses told it unto Aaron, and to his sonnes, and unto all the children of Israel.

CHAP. XXII.

1 The priests in their uncleanness must abstain from the holy things. 6 How they shall be cleansed. 10 Who of the priests house may eat of the holy things. 17 The sacrifices must be without blemish. 26 The age of the sacrifice. 29 The law of eating the sacrifice of thanksgiving.

¶ ANd the L. o. m. w. spake unto Moses, saying, 2 Speak unto Aaron, and to his sonnes, that they separate themselves from the holy things of the children of Israel, and that they profane not my holy name, in those things which they ballote unto me: I am the L. o. m. w.

3 Say unto them, Whosoever he be of all your seed, among your generations, that cometh to the holy things, which the children of Israel ballote unto the L. o. m. w., having his uncleanness upon him, that soul shall be cut off from my presence: I am the L. o. m. w.

4 Whoso man sorer of the seed of Aaron is a leper, or hath a running issue, he shall not eat of the holy things, until he be clean. And whoso toucheth any thing that is unclean by the dead, or of a man whose seed cometh from him:

5 Or whosoever toucheth any creeping thing, whereby he may be made unclean, or a man of whom he may take uncleanness, whosoever uncleanness he hath:

6 The soul which hath touched any such, shall be unclean until even, and shall not eat of the holy things, unless he wash his flesh with water.

7 And when the sun is down, he shall be clean, and shall afterward eat of the holy things, because it is his food.

8 * That which dieth of itself, or is torn with beasts, he shall not eat to defile himself therewith: Ezek. 44. 31. I am the L. o. m. w.

9 They shall therefore keep mine ordinance, lest they bear sinne for it; and he therefore, if they profane it: I the L. o. m. w. do sanctifie them.

10 There shall no stranger eat of the holy thing: a sojourner of the priests, or an hired Levite, shall not eat of the holy thing.

11 But if the priest buy any soul with his money, he shall eat of it, and he that is bought in his purchase of house: they shall eat of his meat.

12 If the priest's daughter also be married unto a stranger, she may not eat of an offering of the holy things.

1 The feasts of the Lord. 3 The sabbath. 4 The passover. 5 The feast of first-fruits. 15 The feast of Pentecost. 23 Cleanings to be left for the poor. 25 The feast of trumpets. 26 The day of atonement. 33 The feast of tabernacles.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, Concerning the feasts of the Lord, which ye shall proclaim to be holy convocations, even these are my feasts.

Six days shall work be done, but the seventh day is the sabbath of rest, an holy convocation; ye shall do no work therein: it is the sabbath of the Lord in all your dwellings.

These are the feasts of the Lord, even holy convocations, which ye shall proclaim in their seasons.

In the fourteenth day of the first month at even, is the Lord's passover.

And on the fifteenth day of the same month, is the feast of unleavened bread unto the Lord: seven days ye must eat unleavened bread.

In the first day ye shall have an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

But ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the Lord seven days: in the seventh day is an holy convocation, ye shall do no servile work therein.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye be come into the land, which I give unto you, and shall reap the harvest thereof, then ye shall bring a sheaf of the first-fruits of your harvest unto the priest:

And ye shall wave the sheaf before the Lord, to be accepted for you: on the morrow after the sabbath the priest shall wave it.

And ye shall offer that day when ye wave the sheaf, an he-lamb without blemish of the first year, for a burnt offering unto the Lord.

And the meat-offering thereof shall be two tenth-deals of fine flour mingled with oil, an offering made by fire unto the Lord for a sweet savour: and the drink-offering thereof shall be of wine, the fourth part of an hin.

And ye shall eat neither bread, nor parched corn, nor green ears, until the self-same day that ye have brought an offering unto your God: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations, in all your dwellings.

And ye shall count unto you from the morrow after the sabbath, from the day that ye brought the sheaf of the wave-offering; seven sabbaths shall be complete:

When unto the morrow after the seventh sabbath, shall ye number fifty days, and ye shall offer a meat offering unto the Lord.

Ye shall bring out of your habitations two wares, loaves, of two tenth-deals: they shall be of fine flour, they shall be baked with leaven, they are the first-fruits unto the Lord.

And ye shall offer with the bread seven lambs without blemish, of the first year, and one young bullock and two rams: they shall be for a burnt offering unto the Lord, with their meat-offering, and their drink-offerings, even an offering made by fire of sweet savour unto the Lord.

Then ye shall sacrifice one kid of the goats for a burnt offering, and two lambs of the first year, for a sacrifice of peace-offerings.

And ye shall wave them with the bread of the first-fruits, of a wave-offering before the Lord.

And if the priest's daughter be a widow, or divorced, and have no child, and is returned unto her father's house, as in her youth, she shall eat of her father's meat; but there shall no stranger eat thereof.

And if a man eat of the holy thing unwittingly, then he shall put the fifth part thereof unto it, and shall give it unto the priest, with the holy thing.

And they shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel, which they offer unto the Lord.

But I suffer them to bear the iniquity of trespass, when they eat their holy things: for I the Lord will sanctify them.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

Speak unto Aaron, and to his sons, and unto all the children of Israel, and say unto them, Whosoever he be of the house of Israel, or of the strangers in Israel, that will offer his oblation for all his vows, and for all his free-will offerings, which they will offer unto the Lord for a burnt-offering:

Ye shall offer at your own will a male without blemish of the breed, of the sheep, or of the goats.

But whosoever hath a blemish, that shall ye not offer: for it shall not be acceptable for you.

And whosoever offereth a sacrifice of peace-offerings unto the Lord, to accomplish his vow, or a free-will offering in herds, or in sheep, it shall be perfect, to be accepted: there shall be no blemish therein.

Blind, or broken, or maimed, or having a wen, or scurvy, or scabbed, ye shall not offer these unto the Lord, nor make an offering by fire of them upon the altar unto the Lord.

Whether a bullock, or a lamb, that hath any thing superfluous or lacking in his parts, that ye shall not offer for a free-will offering: but for a vow it shall not be accepted.

Ye shall not offer unto the Lord that which is bruised, or crushed, or broken, or cut; neither shall you make any offering thereof in your land.

Neither from a stranger's hand shall ye offer the bread of your God of any of these; because their corruption is in them, and blemishes be in them: they shall not be accepted for you.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

When a bullock, or a sheep, or a goat is brought forth, then it shall be seven days under the dam: and from the eighth day and thenceforth, it shall be accepted: an offering made by fire unto the Lord.

And whether it be cow or kine, ye shall not kill it: and her young both in one day.

And when ye will offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving unto the Lord, offer it at your own will.

On the same day it shall be eaten up, ye shall leave none of it until the morrow: I am the Lord.

Therefore shall ye keep my commandments, and do them: I am the Lord.

Neither shall ye profane my holy name: but ye will be hallowed among the children of Israel: I am the Lord, who will hallow you.

What brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the Lord.

Or, lade themselves with the iniquity of trespass in their eating.

21 And ye shall proclaim on the self same day, that it may be an holy convocation unto you: ye shall do no servile work therein: it shall be a statute for ever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

22 ¶ And when you reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not make clean shaven the corners of the field when thou reapest: neither shalt thou gather any gleanings of the harvest: thou shalt leave them unto the poor, and to the stranger: I am the L. O. A. M. your God.

23 ¶ And the L. O. A. M. spake unto Moses, saying, 24 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, In the seventh month, in the first day of the month shall ye have a sabbath, a memoriall of blowing of trumpets, an holy convocation.

25 Ye shall do no servile work therein: but ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the L. O. A. M.

26 ¶ And the L. O. A. M. spake unto Moses, saying, 27 Also on the tenth day of this seventh month, there shall be a day of atonement: it shall be an holy convocation unto you, and ye shall afflict your souls, and offer an offering made by fire unto the L. O. A. M.

28 And ye shall do no work in that same day: for it is a day of atonement, to make an atonement for you before the L. O. A. M. your God.

29 For whatsoever soul it be that shall not be afflicted in that same day, he shall be cut off from among his people.

30 And whatsoever soul it be that doth any work in that same day, the same soul will I destroy from among his people.

31 Ye shall do no manner of work: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

32 It shall be unto you a sabbath of rest, and ye shall afflict your souls in the ninth day of the month at even from even unto even shall ye celebrate your sabbath.

33 ¶ And the L. O. A. M. spake unto Moses, saying, 34 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, The fifteenth day of this seventh month shall be the feast of tabernacles for seven dayes unto the L. O. A. M.

35 On the first day shall be an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

36 Seven dayes ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the L. O. A. M.: on the eighth day shall be an holy convocation unto you, and ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the L. O. A. M.: it is a solemn assembly, and ye shall do no servile work therein.

37 These are the feasts of the L. O. A. M., which ye shall proclaim to be holy convocations, to offer an offering made by fire unto the L. O. A. M.: a burnt-offering, and a meat offering, a sacrifice, and drink-offerings, every thing upon his day.

38 Beside the sabbaths of the L. O. A. M., and beside your gifts, and beside all your vows, and beside all your free-will-offerings, which ye give unto the L. O. A. M.

39 Also in the sixteenth day of the seventh month, when ye have gathered in the fruit of the land, ye shall keep a feast unto the L. O. A. M. seven dayes: on the first day shall be a sabbath, and on the eighth day shall be a sabbath.

40 And ye shall take you on the first day the boughs of goodly trees, branches of palm-trees, and the boughs of thick trees, and willows of the brook: and ye shall rejoice before the L. O. A. M. your God seven dayes.

41 And ye shall keep it a feast unto the L. O. A. M. seven dayes in the year: it shall be a statute for ever in your generations, ye shall celebrate it in the seventh month.

42 Ye shall dwell in booths seven dayes, all that are Israelites born, shall dwell in booths.

43 That your generations may know that I made the children of Israel to dwell in booths, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the L. O. A. M. your God.

44 And Moses declared unto the children of Israel the feasts of the L. O. A. M.

CHAP. XXXIII.

1 The oil for the lamps. 5 The shew-bread. 10 Shew-mirch some blasphemeth. 13 The law of blasphemy. 17 Of murder. 18 Of dammage. 23 The blasphemer is stoned.

AND the L. O. A. M. spake unto Moses, saying, Command the children of Israel, that they bring unto thee pure olive-oil, beaten, for the light, to cause the lamps to burn continually.

3 Without the veil of the testimony, in the tabernacle of the congregation, shall Aaron order it from the evening unto the morning, before the L. O. A. M. continually: it shall be a statute for ever in your generations.

4 He shall order the lamps upon the pure candlestick before the L. O. A. M. continually.

5 ¶ And thou shalt take fine flour, and bake twelve cakes thereof: two tenth-deales shall be in one cake.

6 And thou shalt set them in two rows, six on a row, upon the pure table before the L. O. A. M.

7 And thou shalt put pure frankincense upon each row, that it may be on the bread for a memoriall, even an offering made by fire unto the L. O. A. M.

8 Every sabbath he shall set it in order before the L. O. A. M. continually, being taken from the children of Israel by an everlasting covenant.

9 And it shall be Aarons and his sons, and they shall eat it in the holy place: for it is most holy unto him, of the offerings of the L. O. A. M. made by fire, by a perpetual statute.

10 ¶ And the sonne of an Israelitish woman, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the children of Israel, and this sonne of the Israelitish woman, and a man of Israel strove together in the camp.

11 And the Israelitish woman some blasphemed the name of the L. O. A. M.: and cursed: and they brought him unto Moses: (and his mothers name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dabhi, of the tribe of Dan)

12 And they put him in ward, that the words of the L. O. A. M. might be shewed them.

13 And the L. O. A. M. spake unto Moses, saying, 14 Bring forth him that hath cursed, without the camp, and let all that heard him, lay their hands upon his head, and let all the congregation stone him.

15 And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Whosoever curseth his God, shall bear his sin.

16 And he that blasphemeth the name of the L. O. A. M., he shall surely be put to death, and all the congregation shall certainly stone him: as well the stranger, as he that is born in the land, when he blasphemeth the name of the L. O. A. M., shall be put to death.

The jubile.

Leviticus.

The redemption of land.

17 C And he that killeth any man, shall surely be put to death.
18 And he that killeth a beast, shall make it good; he shall pay for it.
19 And if a man cause a blemish in his neighbor; as he hath done, so shall it be done unto him:
20 Breach for breach, eye for eye, tooth for tooth: as he hath caused a blemish in a man, so shall it be done to him again.
21 And he that killeth a beast, he shall restore it; and he that killeth a man, he shall be put to death.

22 Ye shall have one manner of law, as well for the stranger, as for one of your own country: for I am the Lord your God.
23 And Moses spake unto the children of Israel, that they should bring forth him that had cursed, out of the camp; and stone him with stones: and the children of Israel did as the Lord commanded Moses.

CHAP. XXV.

1 The sabbath of the seventh year. 2 The jubile in the fiftieth year. 3 Of oppression. 4 A blessing of obedience. 5 The redemption of land. 6 Of houses. 7 Compassion of the poor. 8 The usage of bond-men. 9 The redemption of servants.

AND the Lord spake unto Moses in mount Sinai, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into the land which I give you, then shall the land keep a sabbath unto the Lord.

3 Six years thou shalt sow thy field, and six years thou shalt prune thy vineyard, and gather in the fruit thereof.

4 But in the seventh year shall be a sabbath of rest unto the land, a sabbath for the Lord: thou shalt neither sow thy field, nor prune thy vineyard.

5 That which groweth of itself thou accept of thy harvest, thou shalt not reap, neither gather the grapes of thy vine undressed: for it is a year of rest unto the land.

6 And the sabbath of the land shall be meat for you, for thee, and for thy servant, and for thy maid, and for thy hired servant, and for the stranger that sojourneth with thee.

7 And for thy cattell, and for the beasts that are in the land, shall all the increase thereof be meat.

8 And thou shalt number seven sabbaths of years, whether thou hast seven years, and the space of seven sabbaths of years shall be unto thee forty and nine years.

9 Then shall thou cause the trumpet of the jubile to sound, on the tenth day of the seventh month; in the day of atonement shall ye make the trumpet sound throughout all your land.

10 And ye shall hallow the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty throughout all the land, unto all the inhabitants thereof: it shall be a jubile unto you, and ye shall return every man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man unto his family.

11 A jubile shall the fiftieth year be unto you: ye shall not sow, neither reap that which groweth of itself in it, nor gather the grapes in it of thy vine undressed.

12 For it is the jubile, it shall be holy unto you: ye shall eat the increase thereof out of the field.

13 In the year of the jubile ye shall return every man unto his possession.

14 And if thou sell ought unto thy neighbor, or shalt thou borrow of thy neighbor, ye shall not oppress one another.

15 According to the number of years after the jubile, thou shalt buy of thy neighbor, and according unto the number of years of the fruit he shall sell unto thee.

16 According to the multitude of years thou shalt increase the price thereof, and according to the fewness of years thou shalt diminish the price of it: for according to the number of the years of the fruit it shall be sold unto thee.

17 Ye shall not therefore oppress one another, but thou shalt fear thy God: for I am the Lord your God.

18 And therefore ye shall do my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them; and ye shall dwell in the land in safety.

19 And the land shall yield her fruit, and ye shall eat your fill, and dwell therein in safety.

20 And if ye shall say, What shall we eat the seventh year? behold, we shall not sow, nor gather in our increase:

21 Then I will command my blessing upon you in the six years, and it shall bring forth fruit for three years.

22 And ye shall sow the eighth year, and eat yet of old fruit, until the ninth year; until her fruits come in, ye shall eat of the old store.

23 The land shall not be sold for ever: for the land is mine, for ye are strangers and sojourners with me.

24 And in all the land of your possession, ye shall grant a redemption for the land.

25 If thy brother be a poor man, and hath sold away some of his possession, and if any of his kinsmen come to redeem it, then shall he redeem that which his brother sold.

26 And if the man have none to redeem it, and himself be able to redeem it;

27 Then let him count the years of the sale thereof, and pay unto the owner the money which he sold it, that he may return unto his possession.

28 But if he be not able to restore it to him, then that which is sold shall remain in the hand of him that hath bought it, until the year of jubile; and in the jubile it shall go out, and he shall return unto his possession.

29 And if a man sell a dwelling-house in a walled city, then he may redeem it within a whole year after it is sold: within a full year may he redeem it.

30 And if he be not redeemed within the space of a full year, then the house that is in the walled city, shall be established for ever to him that bought it, through his generations: it shall not go out in the jubile.

31 But the houses of the villages which have no wall round about them, shall be counted as the fields of the country: they may be redeemed, and they shall go out in the jubile.

32 Concerning the cities of the Levites, and the houses of the cities of their possession, may it be redeemed at any time.

33 And if a man purchase of the Levites, then the house that was sold, and the city of his possession shall go out in the year of jubile: for the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the children of Israel.

34 But the fields of the suburbs of their cities may not be sold, for it is their perpetual possession.

35 And if thy brother be a poor man, and hath sold himself unto thee, thou shalt not make him to serve as a servant; he shall be with thee as an hired servant.

Exod. 22. 25. 35 * Take thou no usury of him ; no interest : but fear the God, that thy neighbour may live with thee.

Exod. 22. 25. 37 Thou shalt not give him thy money upon usury, nor lend him thy victuals for increase.

Exod. 22. 25. 38 I am the Lord thy God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, and to be your God.

Exod. 22. 25. 39 * And if thy brother that dwelleth by thee be warrn poor, and be sold unto thee, thou shalt not compel him to serve as a bond-servant :

Exod. 22. 25. 40 But as an hired servant, and as a sojourner, he shall be with thee, and shall serve thee unto the year of jubile.

Exod. 22. 25. 41 And then shall he depart from thee, both he and his children with him, and shall return unto his own family, and unto the possession of his fathers shall he return.

Exod. 22. 25. 42 For they are my servants, which I brought forth out of the land of Egypt : they shall not be sold out as bond-men.

Exod. 22. 25. 43 * Thou shalt not rule over him with rigour, but shalt fear thy God.

Exod. 22. 25. 44 Both thy bond-men and thy bond-maids, which thou shalt have, shall be of the heathen that are round about you ; of them shall you buy bond-men and bond-maids.

Exod. 22. 25. 45 Moreover, of the children of the strangers that do sojourn among you, of whom shall ye buy, and of their families that are with you, which they brought out of your land : and they shall be your possession :

Exod. 22. 25. 46 And ye shall take them as an inheritance for your children after you, to inherit them, for a possession ; they shall be your bond-men for ever : but over your brethren the children of Israel, ye shall not rule one over another with rigour.

Exod. 22. 25. 47 * And if a sojourner of a stranger shall buy thee, and thy brother that dwelleth by him may poor, and sell himself unto the stranger, or sojourner by thee, or to the stock of the strangers family :

Exod. 22. 25. 48 After that he is sold, he may be redeemed again ; one of his brethren may redeem him :

Exod. 22. 25. 49 Either his uncle, or his mother's brother may redeem him ; or any that is nigh of kinne unto him, of his family, may redeem him ; or if he be able, he may redeem himself.

Exod. 22. 25. 50 And ye shall reckon unto him that bought him, from the years that he was sold to him, unto the year of jubile ; and the price of his sale shall be according unto the number of years, according to the time of an hired servant shall it be with him.

Exod. 22. 25. 51 If there be yet many years behind, according unto that he shall owe again the price of his redemption, out of the money that he was bought for.

Exod. 22. 25. 52 And ye shall reckon unto him years unto the year of jubile ; and he shall count with him, and according unto his years shall he give him again the price of his redemption.

Exod. 22. 25. 53 And as a purely hired servant shall he be with him ; and the other shall not rule with rigour over him by legge.

Exod. 22. 25. 54 And if he be not redeemed in these years, then he shall go out in the year of jubile, both he, and his children with him.

Exod. 22. 25. 55 For the children of the children of Israel are servants, they are my servants whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt, I am the Lord your God.

1 of idleness. 2 Religiousness. 3 A blessing to them that keep the commandments. 4 A curse to those that break them. 5 God promiseth to remember them that repent.

Ye shall make you no idols nor graven image, neither rear you up standing image, neither shall ye set up any thing of stone in your land, to bow down unto it : for I am the Lord your God.

2 * Ye shall keep my sabbaths, and reverence my sanctuary : I am the Lord your God.

3 * If ye walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, and do them ;

4 Then I will give you rain in due season, and the land shall yield her increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit.

5 And your threshing shall reach unto the vintage, and the vintage shall reach unto the treading time : and ye shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your land safely.

6 And I will give peace in the land, and ye shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid : and I will give you peace out of the land, neither shall the sword go through your land.

7 And ye shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you by the sword.

8 And ye shall eat of the fruit of your hand, and ye shall eat of the fruit of your land, and ye shall dwell in your land safely.

9 For I will have respect unto you, and make you fruitful, and multiply you, and establish my covenant with you.

10 And ye shall eat also straw, and bring forth the sheaves of the new.

11 * And I will set my tabernacle amongst you, and my soul shall not depart from you :

12 * And I will walk among you, and will be your God, and ye shall be my people.

13 I am the Lord your God, which brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, that ye should not be their bond-men, and I have broken the bands of your yoke, and made you go upright.

14 * But if ye will not hearken unto me, and will not do all that I have commanded you ;

15 And if ye shall reject my statutes, or if your soul abhorre my judgments, so that ye will not do all my commandments, but that ye break my covenant :

16 I will visit you with sorrow, and I will appoint I over you sorrow, consumption, and the burning-ague ; that shall consume the eye, and shall cause sorrow of heart ; and ye shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies shall eat it.

17 And I will set my face against you, and ye shall be slain before your enemies : they that hate you shall reign over you, and ye shall flee before them none pursuing you.

18 And if ye will not yet for all this hearken unto me, then I will punish you with seven times more for your sinnes.

19 And I will break the pride of your power ; and I will make your heaven as iron, and your earth as brass :

20 And your strength shall be spent in vain : for your land shall not yield her increase, neither shall the trees of the land yield their fruit.

21 * And if ye will contract unto me, I will not breaken unto you ; I will bring down your plagues upon you, according to your sinnes.

22 I will also send wild beasts among you, which shall rob you of your children, and destroy your cattle ; and make you few in number.

32 And I will bring the land into desolation: and your enemies which dwell therein shall be astonished at it.

33 And I will scatter you among the heathen, and will divide out a sword after you: and your lands shall be desolate, and your cities waste.

34 Then shall the land enjoy her sabbaths, as long as it lieth desolate, and ye be in your enemies lands; even then shall the land rest, and enjoy her sabbaths.

35 As long as it lieth desolate, it shall rest: because it did not rest in your sabbaths when ye dwelt upon it.

38 And ye shall peris among the heathen, and the land of your enemies shall eat you up.

39 And they that are left of you shall pine away in their iniquity in your enemies lands; and also in the iniquities of their fathers shall they pine away with them.

40 If they shall confesse their iniquity, and the iniquity of their fathers, with their trespass which they trespassed against me, and that also they have walked contrary unto me,

41 And that I also have walked contrary unto them, and have brought them into the land of their enemies; if then their uncircumcised hearts be humbled, and they then accept of the punishment of their iniquity:

42 Then will I remember my covenant with Jacob, and also my covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham will I remember: and I will remember the land.

43 The land also shall be left of them, and shall enjoy her sabbaths, while she lieth desolate without them: and they shall accept of the punishment of their iniquity: because, even because they have despised my judgements, and because their soul abhorred my statutes.

44 And yet say all that, when they be in the 46 These are the statutes, and judgements, and laws, which the Lord made between him and the children of Israel, in mount Sinai, by the hand of Moses.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 He that maketh a singular vow must be the Lord.
2 The estimation of the person. 9 Of a beast given by vow. 14 Of an house. 16 Of a field, and the redemption thereof. 28 No devoted thing may be redeemed. 32 The time may not be changed.

AND the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, 2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When a man shall make a singular vow, the persons shall be for the Lord, by the estimation.

3 And the estimation shall be, of the male from twenty years old, even unto sixty years old, even the estimation shall be fifty shekels of silver, after the shekel of the sanctuary.

4 And if it be a female, then the estimation shall be thirty shekels.

5 And if it be from five years old, even unto twenty years old, then the estimation shall be of the male twenty shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

6 And if it be from a month old, even unto five years old, then the estimation shall be of the male five shekels of silver, and for the female three shekels of silver.

7 And if it be from five years old, and above, if it be a male, then the estimation shall be fifteen shekels, and for the female ten shekels.

8 But if he be poorer then the estimation; then he shall present himself before the priest, and the priest shall value him according to his ability that bowed, shall the priest value him.

9 And if it be a beast whereof men bring an offering unto the Lord, as that any man give of such unto the Lord, shall be holy.

10 We shall not alter it, nor change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good: and if he shall at all change beast for beast; then it, and the exchange thereof shall be holy.

11 And if it be any unclean beast, of which they do not offer a sacrifice unto the Lord, as that he shall present the beast before the priest:

12 And the priest shall value it, whether it be good or bad: as that he value it, who are the priests, so shall it be.

13 But if he will at all redeem it, then he shall add a fifth part thereof unto the estimation.

14 And when a man shall sacrifice his house to be holy unto the Lord, as that the priest shall estimate it, together it be good or bad: as that the priest shall estimate it, so shall it stand.

15 And if he that sanctified it, will redeem his house, then he shall add the fifth part of the money of the estimation unto it, and it shall be his.

16 And if a man shall sanctify unto the Lord some part of a field of his possession; then the estimation shall be according to the seed thereof: an homer of barley seed shall be valued at fifty shekels of silver.

17 If he sanctify his field from the year of the jubilee.

bile, according to the estimation it shall stand.

18 And if the sanctified his field after the jubile; when the priest shall reckon unto him the money according to the years that remain, even unto the year of the jubile, and it shall be valued from the estimation.

19 And if he that sanctified the field, will in any time redeem it; then he shall add the fifth part of the money of the estimation unto it, and it shall be assured to him.

20 And if he will not redeem the field, or if he have sold the field to another man; it shall not be redeemed any more.

21 But the field, when it goeth out in the jubile, shall be holy unto the Lord, as a field devoted: the possession thereof shall be the priests.

22 And if a man sanctify unto the Lord a field which he hath bought, which is not of the fields of his possession;

23 Then the priest shall reckon unto him the worth of the estimation, even unto the year of the jubile; and he shall give thine estimation in that day, as a holy thing unto the Lord.

24 In the year of the jubile, the field shall return unto him of whom it was bought, even to him to whom the possession of the land did belong.

25 And all the estimations shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary: twenty gerahs shall be the shekel.

26 ¶ Surely the firstling of the beasts, which should be the Lord's firstling, no man shall sanctify it, whether it be of sheep or of oxen.

27 And if it be of an unclean beast, then he shall redeem it according to thine estimation, and shall add a fifth part of it thereto; or if it be not redeemed, then it shall be sold according to thy estimation.

28 ¶ Notwithstanding, no devoted thing that a man shall devote unto the Lord, of all that he hath, both of man and beast, and of the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed: every devoted thing is most holy unto the Lord.

29 Stone devoted, which shall be devoted of men, shall be redeemed; but shall surely be put to death.

30 And all the tithes of the land, whether of the seed of the land, or of the fruit of the tree, is the Lord's: it is holy unto the Lord.

31 And if a man will at all redeem ought of his tithes, he shall add thereto the fifth part thereof.

32 And concerning the tithes of the herd, or of the flock, even of whatsoever passeth under the rod; the tenth shall be holy unto the Lord.

33 Ye shall not search whether it be good or bad, neither shall be changed: and if it change at all, then both it and the change thereof shall be holy, it shall not be redeemed.

34 These are the commandments which the Lord commanded Moses, for the children of Israel, in mount Sinai.

THE FOURTH BOOK of MOSES called NUMBERS.

CHAP. I.

1 God commandeth Moses to number the people. 5 The princes of the tribes. 17 The number of every tribe. 47 The Levites are exempted for the service of the Lord.

And the Lord spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the tabernacle of the congregation, on the first day of the second month, in the second year, after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

2 Take ye the summe of all the congregation of the children of Israel, after their families, by the house of their fathers, with the number of their names, every male by their poll:

3 From twenty years old and upward, all that are able to go forth to warre in Israel; thou and Aaron shall number them by their armies.

4 And with you there shall be a man of every tribe; every one head of the house of his fathers.

5 ¶ And these are the names of the men that shall stand with you: Of the tribe of Reuben, Elizur the sonne of Shisur.

6 Of Simeon; Shelumiel the sonne of Zuri.

7 Of Iudah; Cassiphon the sonne of Amminadab.

8 Of Issachar; Nathaniel the sonne of Zuar.

9 Of Zabulon; Eliah the sonne of Uelon.

10 Of the children of Joseph; of Ephraim, Eleazar the sonne of Ammishadai, of Manasse, Gadiel the sonne of Gad.

11 Of Benjamin; Abdon the sonne of Gideoni.

12 Of Dan; Amisai the sonne of Ammishadai.

13 Of Asher; Pagiel the sonne of Ocran.

14 Of Gad; Eliasaph the sonne of Deuel.

15 Of Naphtali; Ahira the sonne of Chan.

16 These were the renowned of the congregation, princes of the tribes of their fathers, heads of thousands in Israel.

17 ¶ And Moses and Aaron took these men, which are expressed by their names.

18 And they assembled all the congregation together on the first day of the second month, and they declared their pedigrees after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward by their poll.

19 As the Lord commanded Moses, so he numbered them in the wilderness of Sinai.

20 And the children of Reuben, Israel's eldest sonne, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, by their poll, every male from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to warre;

21 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Reuben, were forty and five thousand and five hundred.

22 ¶ Of the children of Simeon, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, those that were numbered of them, according to the number of the names, by their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to warre;

23 Those that were numbered of them, even of the tribe of Simeon, were fifty and nine thousand and three hundred.

24 ¶ Of the children of Gad, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that were able to go forth to warre;

25 ¶ And

25 Those that were numbred of them, even of the tribe of Gad, were fourty and five thousand six hundred and fifty.

26 ¶ Of the children of Judah, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty yeares old and upward, all that were able to go forth to warre;

27 Those that were numbred of them, even of the tribe of Judah, were thirtie thousand and fourteen thousand and six hundred.

28 ¶ Of the children of Issachar, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty yeares old and upward, all that were able to go forth to warre;

29 Those that were numbred of them, even of the tribe of Issachar, were fifty and four thousand and four hundred.

30 ¶ Of the children of Zebulun, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty yeares old and upward, all that were able to go forth to warre;

31 Those that were numbred of them, even of the tribe of Zebulun, were fifty and seven thousand and four hundred.

32 ¶ Of the children of Joseph, namely, of the children of Ephraim, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty yeares old and upward, all that were able to go forth to warre.

33 Those that were numbred of them, even of the tribe of Ephraim, were fourty thousand and five hundred.

34 ¶ Of the children of Manasse, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty yeares old and upward, all that were able to go forth to warre;

35 Those that were numbred of them, even of the tribe of Manasse, were thirty and two thousand and five hundred.

36 ¶ Of the children of Benjamin, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty yeares old and upward, all that were able to go forth to warre;

37 Those that were numbred of them, even of the tribe of Benjamin, were thirty and five thousand and foure hundred.

38 ¶ Of the children of Dan, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty yeares old and upward, all that were able to go forth to warre;

39 Those that were numbred of them, even of the tribe of Dan, were thirtie thousand and two thousand and seven hundred.

40 ¶ Of the children of Asher, by their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty yeares old and upward, all that were able to go forth to warre;

41 Those that were numbred of them, even of the tribe of Asher, were forty and one thousand and five hundred.

42 ¶ Of the children of Naphtali, throughout their generations, after their families, by the house of their fathers, according to the number of the names, from twenty yeares old and upward, all that were able to go forth to warre.

43 Those that were numbred of them, even of the tribe of Naphtali, were fifty and three thousand and four hundred.

44 These are those that were numbred, which Moses and Aaron numbred, and the princes of Israel, being twelve men; and one was for the house of his fathers.

45 So were all those that were numbred of the children of Israel, by the house of their fathers, from twenty yeares old and upward, all that were able to go forth to warre in Israel.

46 When all they that were numbred, were six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred and fifty.

47 ¶ But the Levites, after the tribe of their fathers, were not numbred among them.

48 For the Lord had spoken unto Moses, saying,

49 Surely thou shalt not number the tribe of Levi, neither take the summe of them among the children of Israel:

50 But thou shalt appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of testimony, and over all the vessels thereof, and over all things that belong to it: they shall bear the tabernacle, and all the vessels thereof, and they shall minister unto it, and shall encamp round about the tabernacle.

51 And when the tabernacle setteth forthward, the Levites shall take it down: and when the tabernacle is to be pitched, the Levites shall set it up: and the stranger that cometh nigh shall be put to death.

52 And the children of Israel shall pitch their tents every man by his own camp, and every man by his own standard, throughout their hosts.

53 But the Levites shall pitch round about the tabernacle of testimony; that there be no wrath upon the congregation of the children of Israel: and the Levites shall keep the charge of the tabernacle of testimony.

54 And the children of Israel did according to all that the Lord commanded Moses, so did they.

CHAP. II.

I The order of the tribes in their tents.

And the Lord spake unto Moses and unto Aaron, saying,

2 Every man of the children of Israel shall pitch by his own standard, with the ensigne of their fathers houses: I have said about the tabernacle of the congregation shall they pitch.

3 ¶ And on the east-side towards the rising of the sunne, shall they of the standard of the camp of Judah pitch, throughout their armies: and Nahshon the sonne of Amminadab shall be captain of the children of Judah.

4 And his host, and those that were numbred of them, were thirtie thousand and four hundred.

5 And those that by pitch next unto him, shall be the tribe of Issachar: and Nethaneel the sonne of Zuar shall be captain of the children of Issachar.

6 And his host, and those that were numbred thereof, were fifty and four thousand and four hundred.

7 Then the tribe of Zebulun: and Ethan the sonne of Helon shall be captain of the children of Zebulun.

8 And his host, and those that were numbred thereof, were fifty and seven thousand and four hundred.

9 All that were numbred in the camp of Judah, were an hundred thousand and fourescore thousand and six hundred and foure hundred, throughout their armies: they shall first go forth.

10 ¶ And the standard that shall be the standard of the camp of Reuben, according to their armies: and and the captain of the children of Ruben, shall be Gilead the sonne of Machi.

11 And his host, and those that were numbered thereof, were fourty and six thousand and five hundred.

12 And those which pitched by him, shall be the tribe of Simeon: and the captain of the children of Simeon, shall be Shimonai the sonne of Jarmadabai.

13 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were fifty and nine thousand and three hundred.

14 Then the tribe of Gad: and the captain of the sonnes of Gad, shall be Gadai the sonne of Ruui.

15 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were fourty and six thousand and six hundred and fifty.

16 All that were numbered in the camp of Ruben, were an hundred thousand and fifty and one thousand and four hundred and fifty, throughout their armies: and they shall set forth in the second rank.

17 ¶ Then the tabernacle of the congregation shall set forward with the camp of the Levites, in the midst of the camp: as they encamp, so shall they set forward, every man in his place by their standards.

18 ¶ On the west-side shall be the standard of the camp of Ephraim, according to their armies: and the captain of the sonnes of Ephraim, shall be Gishai the sonne of Amihud.

19 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were fourty thousand and five hundred.

20 And by him shall be the tribe of Manasseh: and the captain of the children of Manasseh, shall be Gamaliel the sonne of Jedabai.

21 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were thirty and two thousand and two hundred.

22 Then the tribe of Benjamin: and the captain of the sonnes of Benjamin, shall be Abisai the sonne of Nisai.

23 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were thirty and five thousand and four hundred.

24 All that were numbered of the camp of Ephraim, were an hundred thousand and eight thousand and an hundred, throughout their armies: and they shall go forward in the third rank.

25 ¶ The standard of the camp of Dan shall be on the west-side by their armies: and the captain of the children of Dan, shall be Amiezer the sonne of Ammishadai.

26 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were thirtie thousand and two hundred.

27 And those that encamp by him, shall be the tribe of Asher: and the captain of the children of Asher, shall be Dagiel the sonne of Aheran.

28 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were fourty and one thousand and five hundred.

29 Then the tribe of Naphtali: and the captain of the children of Naphtali, shall be Ahisei the sonne of Unai.

30 And his host, and those that were numbered of them, were fifty and three thousand and four hundred.

31 All they that were numbered in the camp of Dan, were an hundred thousand and fifty and seven thousand and six hundred: they shall go forward in the fourth rank.

32 ¶ These are those which were numbered of the children of Israel by the house of their fathers.

all those that were numbered of the camp, throughout their hosts, were six hundred thousand and three thousand and five hundred.

33 But the Levites were not numbered among the children of Israel: for the Lord said unto Moses, I will take the Levites for me, and they shall be mine.

34 And the children of Israel did according to all that the Lord said unto Moses: and so they were numbered, every one after their families, according to the house of their fathers.

CHAP. III.

1 The sonnes of Aaron. 2 The Levites are given to the priests, for the service of the tabernacle. 3 Instead of the first-born. 4 The Levites are numbered by their families. 5 The families, numbers, and charge of the Gersonites. 6 Of the Kehathites. 7 Of the Merarites. 8 The place and charge of Moses and Aaron. 9 The first-born are freed by the Levites. 10 The overplus are redeemed.

¶ These also are the generations of Aaron and Moses, in the day that the Lord said unto Moses, I will take the Levites for me, and they shall be mine.

2 And these are the names of the sonnes of Aaron: Nadab the first-born, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

3 These are the names of the sonnes of Aaron, the priests which were anointed: of whom he consecrated to minister in the priest's office.

4 ¶ And Nadab and Abihu died before the Lord, when they offered strange fire before the Lord, in the wilderness of Sinai, and they had no children: and Eleazar and Ithamar ministered in the priest's office, in the sight of Aaron their father.

5 ¶ And the Lord said unto Moses, saying,

6 Bring the tribe of Levi near, and present them before Aaron the priest, that they may minister unto him.

7 And they shall keep his charge, and the charge of the tabernacle congregation before the tabernacle of the congregation, to do the service of the tabernacle.

8 And they shall keep all the instruments of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the children of Israel, to do the service of the tabernacle.

9 And thou shalt give the Levites unto Aaron and to his sons: they are wholly given unto him out of the children of Israel.

10 And thou shalt appoint Aaron and his sonnes, and they shall wait on their priest's office: and the stranger that cometh nigh, shall be put to death.

11 ¶ And the Lord said unto Moses, saying,

12 And I, behold, I have taken the Levites from among the children of Israel, in stead of all the first-born that openeth the matrix among the children of Israel: therefore the Levites shall be mine.

13 Because all the first-born are mine, for on the day that I smote all the first-born in the land of Egypt, I have taken unto me all the first-born of Israel, both man and beast, mine they shall be. I am the Lord.

14 ¶ And the Lord said unto Moses, saying,

15 Number the children of Levi, after the house of their fathers, by their families: every male from a month old and upward, shall thou number them.

16 And Moses numbered them according to the the first-born of the Levites: as he was commanded.

17 And these were the names of Levi, by their names; Gerson, and Kohath, and Merari.

18 And these are the names of the sons of Gerson by their families; Libni, and Shimei.

19 And the names of Kohath by their families; Amram, and Izhar, Hebron, and Uzziel.

20 And the names of Merari by their families; Gadiel, and Gadai: these are the families of the Levites, according to the house of their fathers.

21 Of Gerson was the family of the Libnites, and the family of the Shimites: these are the families of the Gershonites.

22 Those that were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, even those that were numbered of them, were seven thousand and five hundred.

23 The families of the Gershonites shall pitch behind the tabernacle westward.

24 And the chief of the house of the father of the Gershonites, shall be Eliazaph the son of Lael.

25 And the charge of the names of Gerson, in the tabernacle of the congregation, shall be the tabernacle, and the tent, the covering thereof, and the hanging for the doors of the tabernacle of the congregation:

26 And the hangings of the court, and the curtain for the door of the court, which is by the tabernacle, and by the altar round about, and the choys of it, for all the service thereof.

27 And of Kohath was the family of the Amramites, and the family of the Izharites, and the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites: these are the families of the Kohathites.

28 In the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, were eight thousand and six hundred, keeping the charge of the sanctuary.

29 The families of the sons of Kohath, shall pitch on the side of the tabernacle southward.

30 And the chief of the house of the father of the families of the Kohathites, shall be Eliazaphan the son of Uzziel.

31 And their charge shall be the ark, and the table, and the candlestick, and the altars, and the vessels of the sanctuary wherewith they minister, and the hanging, and all the service thereof.

32 And Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, shall be chief over the chief of the Levites, and have the oversight of them that keep the charge of the sanctuary.

33 Of Merari was the family of the Gadites, and the family of the Gadites: these are the families of Merari.

34 And those that were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males from a month old and upward, were six thousand and two hundred.

35 And the chief of the house of the father of the families of Merari, was Gursel the son of Abihail: these shall pitch on the side of the tabernacle northward.

36 And under the custody and charge of the names of Merari, shall be the boards of the tabernacle, and the bars thereof, and the pillars thereof, and the sockets thereof, and all the vessels thereof, and all that serve thereof.

37 And the pillars of the court round about, and their sockets, and their pins, and their chords.

38 But those that encamp before the tabernacle toward the east, even before the tabernacle of the congregation eastward, shall be Moses and Aaron, and his sons, keeping the charge of the sanctuary, for the charge of the children of Israel; and the stranger that cometh nigh, shall be put to death.

39 All that were numbered of the Levites, which Moses and Aaron numbered, at the commandment of the Lord, throughout their families, all the males from a month old and upward, were twenty and two thousand.

40 And the Lord said unto Moses, Number all the first-born of the males of the children of Israel, from a month old and upward, and take the number of their names.

41 And thou shalt take the Levites for me (I am the Lord) in stead of all the first-born among the children of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites, in stead of all the firstlings among the cattle of the children of Israel.

42 And Moses numbered, as the Lord commanded him, all the first-born among the children of Israel.

43 And all the first-born males, by the number of names, from a month old and upward, of those that were numbered of them, were twenty and two thousand two hundred and threescore and thirtien.

44 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

45 Take the Levites in stead of all the first-born among the children of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites in stead of their cattle, and the Levites shall be mine: I am the Lord.

46 And for those that are to be redeemed of the two hundred and threescore and thirtien, of the first-born of the children of Israel, which are more than the Levites;

47 Thou shalt even take five shekels a piece by the poll, after the shekel of the sanctuary shalt thou take them: the shekel is twenty gerahs.

48 And thou shalt give the money, wherewith the odder number of them is to be redeemed, unto Aaron and to his sons.

49 And Moses took the redemption-money, of them that were over and above them that were redeemed by the Levites.

50 Of the first-born of the children of Israel took he the money; a thousand three hundred and threescore and five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary.

51 And Moses gave the money of them that were redeemed, unto Aaron, and to his sons, according to the word of the Lord, as the Lord commanded Moses.

1 The age and time of the Levites service. 4 The carriage of the Kohathites, when the priests have taken down the tabernacle. 16 The charge of Eleazar. 17 The office of the priests. 21 The carriage of the Gershonites. 29 The carriage of the Merarites. 34 The number of the Kohathites, 38 of the Gershonites, 41 and of the Merarites.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, and unto Aaron, saying,

2 Take the summe of the names of Kohath from among the names of Levi, after their families, by the house of their fathers;

3 From thirty years old and upward, even until sixty years old, all that enter into the host, to do the work in the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 This shall be the service of the names of Kohath in the tabernacle of the congregation, about the most holy things.

5 And when the camp setteth forward, Aaron shall come and his sons, and they shall stand before the covering veil, and cover the ark of testimony with it.

6 And shall put thereon the covering of badgers skinner, and shall spread over it a cloth wholly of blue, and shall put in the staves thereof.

7 And upon the table of shew-bread they shall spread a cloth of blue, and put thereon the dishes, and the spoons, and the bowls, and covers to cover withall: and the continuall bread shall be thereon.

8 And they shall spread upon them a cloth of scarlet, and cover the same with a covering of badgers skinner, and shall put in the staves thereof.

9 And they shall take a cloth of blue, and cover the candlestick of the light, and his lamps, and his tongs, and his snuff-dishes, and all the vessels thereof, wherewith they minister unto it.

10 And they shall put it and all the vessels thereof within a covering of badgers skinner, and shall put it upon a barre.

11 And upon the golden altar they shall spread a cloth of blue, and cover it with a covering of badgers skinner, and shall put in the staves thereof.

12 And they shall take all the instruments of ministririe, wherewith they minister in the sanctuary, and put them in a cloth of blue, and cover them with a covering of badgers skinner, and shall put them on a barre.

13 And they shall take away the ashes from the altar, and spread a purple cloth thereon.

14 And they shall put upon it all the vessels thereof, wherewith they minister about it, even the censers, the flesh-hooks, and the shovels, and the basins, all the vessels of the altar, and they shall spread upon it a covering of badgers skinner, and put it on the bases of it.

15 And when Aaron and his sons have made an end of covering the sanctuary, and all the vessels of the sanctuary, as the camp is to set forward, after that, the sonnes of Kohath shall come to draw it: but they shall not touch any holy thing, lest they die. These things are the burden of the sonnes of Kohath, to be in the tabernacle of the congregation.

16 And to the office of Eleazar the sonne of Aaron the priest, pertaineth the oil for the light, and the sweet incense, and the daily meat offering, and the anointing oil, and the sweet odour of all the tabernacle, and of all that therein is, in the sanctuary, and in the vessels thereof.

17 And the sons of Aaron shall minister unto Aaron, saying,

18 Eat ye not of the tribe of the families of the Kohathites, from among the Levites.

19 But thus do unto them, that they may live and not die, when they approach unto the most holy things: Aaron and his sons shall go in, and appoint them every one his service, and to his burden.

20 But they shall not go in to see when the holy things are covered, lest they die.

21 And the sons of Aaron shall minister unto Aaron, saying,

22 Take all the summe of the sonnes of Gerson, throughout the houses of their fathers by their families:

23 From thirty yeeres old and upward, untill sixty yeeres old shall thou number them, all that can be to performe the service, to do the work in the tabernacle of the congregation.

24 This is the service of the families of the Gersonites, as their burden is.

25 And they shall bear the curtains of the tabernacle, and the tabernacle of the congregation, his covering, and the covering of the badgers skinner, that is above upon it, and the hangings for the doors of the tabernacle of the congregation, 26 And the hangings of the court, and the hanging for the moose of the gate of the court which is by the tabernacle, and by the altars round about, and their chords, and all the instruments of their service, and all that is made by them, so shall they serve.

27 At the appointment of Aaron and his sonnes, shall be all the service of the sonnes of the Gersonites, in all their burdens, and in all their service: and ye shall appoint unto them in charge all their burdens.

28 This is the service of the families of the sonnes of Gerson, in the tabernacle of the congregation: and their charge shall be under the hand of Eleazar the sonne of Aaron the priest.

29 And as for the sonnes of Merari, thou shalt number them after their families, by the house of their fathers, 30 From thirty yeeres old and upward, even unto sixty yeeres old shall thou number them, every one that entereth into the service, to do the work of the tabernacle of the congregation.

CHAP. V.

1 The unclean are removed out of the camp. 5 Requisition is to be made in trespasses. 11 The trial of jealousy.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, 2 Command the children of Israel, that they put out of the camp every leper, and every one that hath an issue, and whosoever is defiled by the dead.

3 Both male and female shall ye put out, without the camp shall ye put them: that they defile not their camps in the midst whereof I dwell.

4 And the children of Israel did so, and put them out without the camp: as the Lord spake unto Moses, so did the children of Israel.

5 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

6 Speak unto the children of Israel, * When a man or woman shall commit any sinne that men commit, to do a trespass against the Lord, and that person be guilty:

7 Then they shall confess their sinne, which they have done: and he shall recompense his trespass with the principal thereof, and add unto it the fifth part thereof, and give it unto him against whom he hath trespassed.

8 But if the man have no kinsman to recompense the trespass unto, let the trespass be recompensed unto the Lord, even to the priest, besides the ransom of the atonement, whereby an atonement shall be made for him.

9 And every offering of all the holy things of the children of Israel, which they bring unto the priest, shall be his.

10 And every mans hallowed things shall be his: whatsoever any man giveth the priest, it shall be his.

11 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

12 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any mans wife go aside, and commit a trespass against him,

13 And a man lie with her carnally, and it be hid from the eyes of her husband, and he kept close, and she be defiled, and there be no witness against her, neither she be taken with the manner;

14 And the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be defiled, or if the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she be not defiled:

15 Then shall the man bring his wife unto the priest, and he shall bring her offering together, the tenth part of an ephah of barley-meal; he shall pour no oil upon it, nor frankincense thereon: for it is an offering of jealousy, an offering of memorial, bringing iniquity to remembrance.

16 And the priest shall bring her near, and set her before the Lord.

17 And the priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel, and of the dust that is in the floor of the tabernacle the priest shall take, and put it into the water.

18 And the priest shall set the woman before the Lord, and uncover the womans head, and put the offering of memorial in her hands, which is the jealous offering: and the priest shall have in his hand the bitter water that causeth the curse.

19 And the priest shall charge her by an oath, and say unto the woman, If no man have lien with thee, and if thou hast not gone aside to uncleanness, I will with another in stead of thy husband, be thou free from this bitter water that causeth the curse.

20 But if thou hast gone aside to another in stead of thy husband, and if thou be defiled, and some man hath lien with thee beside thy husband:

21 Then the priest shall charge the woman with an oath of cursing, and the priest shall say unto the woman, The Lord make thee a curse and an oath among the people, when the Lord doth make thy thigh to rot, and thy belly to swell.

22 And this water that causeth the curse shall go into thy bowels, to make thy belly to swell, and thy thigh to rot: And the woman shall say, Amen, amen.

23 And the priest shall write these curses in a book, and he shall blot them out with the bitter water.

24 And he shall cause the woman to drink the bitter water that causeth the curse: and the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter.

25 Then the priest shall take the jealous offering out of the womans hands, and shall wave the offering before the Lord, and offer it upon the altar.

26 And the priest shall take an handful of the offering, even the memorial thereof, and burn it upon the altar, and afterward shall cause the woman to drink the water.

27 And when she hath made her to drink the water, then it shall come to pass, that if she be defiled, and have done trespass against her husband, that the water that causeth the curse shall enter into her, and become bitter, and her thigh shall swell, and her thigh shall rot: and the woman shall be a curse among her people.

28 And if the woman be not defiled, but be clean; then she shall be free, and shall conceive seed.

29 This is the law of jealousy, when a wife goeth aside to another in stead of her husband, and is defiled:

30 Or when the spirit of jealousy cometh upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and shall set the woman before the Lord, as the priest shall execute upon her all this law:

31 Then shall the man be guiltless from iniquity, and this woman shall bear her iniquity.

CHAP. VI.
1. The law of the Nazarites. 2. The form of blessing the people.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, 2. Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When either man or woman shall separate themselves unto a Nazarite, to separate themselves unto the Lord:

3. He shall separate himself from wine and strong drink, and shall drink no vinegar of wine, or vinegar of strong drink, neither shall he drink any liquor of grapes, nor eat moist grapes, or dried.

4. All the days of his separation shall he eat nothing that is made of the vine tree, from the kernel even to the husk.

5. All the days of the vow of his separation, there shall no razor come upon his head: until the days be fulfilled in the which he separated himself unto the Lord, he shall be holy; and shall let the locks of the hair of his head grow.

6. All the days that he separated himself unto the Lord, he shall come at no dead body.

7. He shall not make himself unclean for his father, or for his mother, for his brother, or for his sister, when they die: because the consecration of his God is upon his head.

8. All the days of his separation he is holy unto the Lord.

9. And if any man die very suddenly by him, and he hath defiled the head of his consecration, then he shall shave his head in the day of his cleansing, on the seventh day shall he shave it.

10. And on the eighth day he shall bring two turtles, or two young pigeons to the priest, to the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

11. And the priest shall offer the one for a sin-offering, and the other for a burnt-offering, and make an atonement for him, for that he sinned by the dead, and shall hallow his head that same day.

And he shall consecrate unto the Lord all the days of his separation, and shall bring a lamb of the first year for a trespass-offering: but the days that were before shall be lost, because his separation was defiled.

12. And this is the law of the Nazarite: when the days of his separation are fulfilled, he shall be brought unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

13. And he shall offer his offering unto the Lord, one ewe-lamb of the first year without blemish, for a burnt-offering, and one ewe-lamb of the first year without blemish, for a sin-offering, and one lamb without blemish, for peace-offerings.

14. And a basket of unleavened bread, cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, and wafers of unleavened bread anointed with oil, and their meat-offering, and their drink-offering.

15. And the priest shall bring them before the Lord, and shall offer his sin-offering, and his burnt-offering.

16. And he shall offer the ramme for a sacrifice of peace-offerings unto the Lord, with the basket of unleavened bread: the priest shall offer also his meat-offering, and his drink-offering.

17. And the Nazarite shall shave the head of his separation, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall take the hair of the head of his separation, and put it in the fire which is under the sacrifice of the peace-offerings.

18. And the priest shall take the wooden shoulder of the ramme, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them upon the hands of the Nazarite, after the hair of his separation is shaven.

19. And the priest shall wave them for a wave-offering before the Lord: and this is holy for the priest, with the breast, and the thigh-shoulder: and after that, the Nazarite may drink wine.

20. This is the law of the Nazarite, who hath vowed, and of his offering unto the Lord, both for his separation, besides that that his hand shall get according to the vow which he vowed, so he will do after the law of his separation.

21. And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

22. Speak unto Aaron and unto his sons, saying, On this wise ye shall bless the children of Israel, saying unto them,

23. The Lord bless thee, and keep thee:

24. The Lord make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee:

25. The Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.

26. And they shall put my name upon the children of Israel, and I will bless them.

CHAP. VII.

1. The offering of the princes at the dedication of the tabernacle. 10. Their several offerings at the dedication of the altar. 19. God speaketh to Moses from the mercy-seat.

And it came to pass on the day that Moses had fully set up the tabernacle, and had anointed it, and sanctified it, and all the instruments thereof, both the altar and all the vessels thereof, and had anointed them, and sanctified them:

2. That the princes of Israel, heads of the house of their fathers (who were the princes of the tribes, and were over them that were numbered) offered:

3. And they brought their offering before the Lord, two covered wagons, and twelve oxen, a wagon for two of the princes, and for each one ox: and they brought them before the tabernacle.

4. And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

5. Take it of them, that they may be to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation; and thou shalt give them unto the Levites, to every man according to his service.

6. And Moses took the wagons and the oxen, and gave them unto the Levites.

7. Two wagons and four oxen he gave unto the sons of Gerson, according to their service.

8. And four wagons and eight oxen he gave unto the sons of Merari, according unto their service, under the hand of Aaron the son of Aaron the priest.

9. But unto the sons of Issachar he gave none, because the service of the sanctuary belonging unto them; was that they should bear upon their shoulders.

10. And the princes offered for dedicating of the altar, in the day that it was anointed, even the princes offered their offering before the altar.

11. And the Lord spake unto Moses, They shall offer their offering two princes on his day, for the dedicating of the altar.

12. And he that offered his offering the first day, was Ashben the son of Amnahab, of the tribe of Judah.

13. And his offering was one silver shekel, the weight thereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of seventy shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them were full of fine flour mingled with oil for a meat-offering.

* Levit. 4. 33.

14 One spoon of ten shekels of gold, full of incense:

15 One young bullock, one ramme, one lambe of the first year, for a burnt-offering.

16 One kid of the goats, for a sinne-offering:

17 And for a sacrifice of peace-offerings, two oxen, five rammes, five he-goats, five lambes of the first year. This was the offering of Nathanon the sonne of Amminadab.

18 ¶ On the second day Nathaniel the sonne of Naar, prince of Issachar, did offer.

19 He offered for his offering one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of twenty shekels after the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mingled with oyl, for a meat-offering:

20 One spoon of gold of ten shekels, full of incense:

21 One young bullock, one ramme, one lambe of the first year, for a burnt-offering:

22 One kid of the goats, for a sinne-offering:

23 And for a sacrifice of peace-offerings, two oxen, five rammes, five he-goats, five lambes of the first year. This was the offering of Nathaniel the sonne of Naar.

24 ¶ On the third day Eliab the sonne of Helon, prince of the children of Zebulun, did offer.

25 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of twenty shekels after the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mingled with oyl, for a meat-offering:

26 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

27 One young bullock, one ramme, one lambe of the first year, for a burnt-offering:

28 One kid of the goats for a sinne-offering:

29 And for a sacrifice of peace-offerings, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five lambes of the first year. This was the offering of Eliab the sonne of Helon.

30 ¶ On the fourth day Elisar the sonne of Simeon, prince of the children of Reuben, did offer.

31 His offering was one silver charger, of an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of twenty shekels after the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mingled with oyl, for a meat-offering:

32 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

33 One young bullock, one ramme, one lambe of the first year, for a burnt-offering:

34 One kid of the goats for a sinne-offering:

35 And for a sacrifice of peace-offerings, two oxen, five rammes, five he-goats, five lambes of the first year. This was the offering of Elisar the sonne of Simeon.

36 ¶ On the fifth day Shelumiel the sonne of Zurihaddai, prince of the children of Simeon, did offer.

37 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of twenty shekels after the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mingled with oyl, for a meat-offering:

38 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

39 One young bullock, one ramme, one lambe of the first year, for a burnt-offering:

40 One kid of the goats, for a sinne-offering:

41 And for a sacrifice of peace-offerings, two oxen, five rammes, five he-goats, five lambes of the first year. This was the offering of Shelumiel the sonne of Zurihaddai.

42 ¶ On the sixth day Elisaph the sonne of Deuel, prince of the children of Dan, offered.

43 His offering was one silver charger, of the weight of an hundred and thirty shekels, a silver bowl of twenty shekels after the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mingled with oyl, for a meat-offering:

44 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

45 One young bullock, one ramme, one lambe of the first year, for a burnt-offering:

46 One kid of the goats for a sinne-offering:

47 And for a sacrifice of peace-offerings, two oxen, five rammes, five he-goats, five lambes of the first year. This was the offering of Elisaph the sonne of Deuel.

48 ¶ On the seventh day Elisama the sonne of Amundin, prince of the children of Ephraim, offered.

49 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of twenty shekels after the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mingled with oyl, for a meat-offering:

50 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

51 One young bullock, one ramme, one lambe of the first year, for a burnt-offering:

52 One kid of the goats for a sinne-offering:

53 And for a sacrifice of peace-offerings, two oxen, five rammes, five he-goats, five lambes of the first year. This was the offering of Elisama the sonne of Amundin.

54 ¶ On the eighth day offered Samasael the sonne of Bedazar, prince of the children of Manasse.

55 His offering was one silver charger of an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of twenty shekels after the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mingled with oyl, for a meat-offering:

56 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

57 One young bullock, one ramme, one lambe of the first year, for a burnt-offering:

58 One kid of the goats for a sinne-offering:

59 And for a sacrifice of peace-offerings, two oxen, five rammes, five he-goats, five lambes of the first year. This was the offering of Samasael the sonne of Bedazar.

60 ¶ On the ninth day Abidan the sonne of Gideon, prince of the children of Benjamin, offered.

61 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, a silver bowl of twenty shekels after the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mingled with oyl, for a meat-offering:

62 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

63 One young bullock, one ramme, one lambe of the first year, for a burnt-offering:

64 One kid of the goats for a sinne-offering:

65 And for a sacrifice of peace-offerings, two oxen, five rammes, five he-goats, five lambes of the first year. This was the offering of Abidan the sonne of Gideon.

66 ¶ On the tenth day Abiezzer the sonne of Ammihaddai, prince of the children of Dan, offered.

67 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of twenty shekels after the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mingled with oyl, for a meat-offering:

68 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

69 One young bullock, one ramme, one lambe of the first yeare, for a burnt-offering:

70 One kid of the goats for a sinne-offering:

71 And for a sacrifice of peace-offerings, two ewen, five rammes, five he-goats, five lambes of the first yeare. This was the offering of Abner the sonne of Nethaneel.

72 ¶ On the eleventh day Bagei the sonne of Ocran, prince of the children of Asher, offered.

73 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of twenty shekels after the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mingled with oyl, for a meat-offering:

74 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

75 One young bullock, one ramme, one lambe of the first yeare, for a burnt-offering:

76 One kid of the goats for a sinne-offering:

77 And for a sacrifice of peace-offerings, two ewen, five rammes, five he-goats, five lambes of the first yeare. This was the offering of Bagei the sonne of Ocran.

78 ¶ On the twelfth day Abira the sonne of Enan, prince of the children of Gad, offered.

79 His offering was one silver charger, the weight whereof was an hundred and thirty shekels, one silver bowl of twenty shekels after the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mingled with oyl, for a meat-offering:

80 One golden spoon of ten shekels, full of incense:

81 One young bullock, one ramme, one lambe of the first yeare, for a burnt-offering:

82 One kid of the goats for a sinne-offering:

83 And for a sacrifice of peace-offerings, two ewen, five rammes, five he-goats, five lambes of the first yeare. This was the offering of Abira the sonne of Enan.

84 This was the dedication of the altar (in the day when it was anointed) by the princes of Israel; twelve chargers of silver, twelve silver bowls, twelve spoons of gold:

85 Each charger of silver weighing an hundred and thirty shekels, each bowl seventy: all the silver vessels weighed two thousand and four hundred shekels after the shekel of the sanctuary.

86 The golden spoons were twelve, full of incense, weighing ten shekels a piece, after the shekel of the sanctuary: all the gold of the spoons was an hundred and twenty shekels.

87 All the open for the burnt-offering were twelve bullocks, the rammes twelve, the lambes of the first yeare twelve, with their meat-offering: and the kids of the goats for sinne-offering, twelve.

88 And all the open for the sacrifice of the peace-offerings, were twenty and foure bullocks, the rammes twelve, the he-goats twelve, the lambes of the first yeare twelve. This was the dedication of the altar, after that it was anointed.

89 And when Moses was gone into the tabernacle of the congregation, to speak with him, then he heard the voice of one speaking unto him from off the merle: that there was upon the ark of testimony, from between the two cherubims: and he spake unto him.

CHAP. VIII.

¶ How the lamps are to be lighted, & the consecration of the Levites. 23 The offering of the Levites.

¶ And the Lord said unto Moses, saying, ¶ Speak unto Aaron, and say unto him, when thou shalt light the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light over against the candlestick.

3 And Aaron did so, he lighted the lamps there and set them up, over against the candlestick: as the Lord commanded Moses.

4 And the lamp of the candlestick was of beaten gold, unto the shaft thereof, unto the flowers thereof, was beaten work: according unto the pattern which the Lord had shewed Moses, to be made the candlestick.

5 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, ¶ Take the Levites from among the children of Israel, and cleanse them.

7 And thou shalt thus do unto them, to cleanse them: sprinkle water of sweetening upon them, and let them shave all their flesh, and let them wash their clothes, and so make themselves clean.

8 Then let them take a young bullock with his year-offering, even fine flour mingled with oyl, and another young bullock that thou take for a sinne-offering.

9 And thou shalt bring the Levites before the tabernacle of the congregation: and thou shalt gather the whole assembly of the children of Israel together:

10 And thou shalt bring the Levites before the Lord, and the children of Israel shall put their hands upon the Levites:

11 And Aaron shall offer the Levites before the Lord, for an offering of the children of Israel: that they may execute the service of the Lord.

12 And the Levites shall lay their hands upon the heads of the bullocks: and thou shalt offer the one for a sinne-offering, and the other for a burnt-offering unto the Lord, to make an atonement for the Levites.

13 And thou shalt let the Levites before Aaron, and before his sons, and offer them for an offering unto the Lord.

14 Thus shalt thou separate the Levites from among the children of Israel: and the Levites shall be mine.

15 And after that, shall the Levites go in, to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation: and thou shalt cleanse them, and offer them for an offering.

16 For they are wholly given unto me from among the children of Israel; in stead of such an open venter, even in stead of the first-born of all the children of Israel, have I taken them unto me.

17 For all the first-born of the children of Israel are mine, both man and beast: on the day that I smote every first-born in the land of Egypt, I sanctified them for my self.

18 And I have taken the Levites for all the first-born of the children of Israel.

19 And I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron, and to his sons, from among the children of Israel, to do the service of the children of Israel in the tabernacle of the congregation, and to make an atonement for the children of Israel: that there be no plague among the children of Israel, when the children of Israel come nigh unto the sanctuary.

20 And Moses and Aaron, and all the congregation of the children of Israel, did to the Levites according unto all that the Lord commanded Moses concerning the Levites, to do the children of Israel unto them.

21 And the Levites were purified, and they washed their clothes: and Aaron offered them as an offering before the Lord: and Aaron made an atonement for them to cleanse them.

24 This is it that belongeth unto the Levites: from twenty and five years old and upward, they shall go in to wait upon the service of the tabernacle of the congregation:

25 And from the age of fifty yeares they shall cease waiting upon the service thereof, and shall serve no more:

26 But shall minister with their brethren in the tabernacle of the congregation, to keep the charge, and shall do no service. Thus shall thou do unto the Levites touching their charge.

CHAP. IX.

1 The passover was commanded again. 6 A second passover allowed for them that were unclean or absent.

15 The cloud guideth the removings and encampings of the Israelites.

¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second yeare, after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

2 Let the children of Israel also keep the passover, at his appointed season.

3 In the fourteenth day of this month at even, ye shall keep it in his appointed season: according to all the rites of it, and according to all the ceremonies thereof shall ye keep it.

4 And Moses spake unto the children of Israel, that they should keep the passover.

5 And they kept the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month at even, in the wilderness of Sinai: according to all that the Lord commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel.

6 ¶ And there were certain men who were defiled by the dead body of a man, that they could not keep the passover on that day: and they came before Moses, and before Aaron on that day.

7 And those men said unto him, We are defiled by the dead body of a man: wherefore are we kept back, that we may not offer an offering of the Lord in his appointed season among the children of Israel?

8 And Moses said unto them, Stand still, and I will heare what the Lord will command concerning you.

9 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

10 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If any man of you, or of your posterity shall be unclean by reason of a dead body, or be in a journey afar off, yet he shall keep the passover unto the Lord.

11 The fourteenth day of the second month at even they shall keep it, and eat it with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

12 They shall leave none of it unto the morning, nor break any bone of it: according to all the ordinances of the passover they shall keep it.

13 But the man that is clean, and is not in a journey, and forbeareth to keep the passover; even the same soul shall be cut off from his people, because he brought not the offering of the Lord in his appointed season: that man shall bear his sin.

14 And if a stranger shall sojourn among you, and will keep the passover unto the Lord, according to the ordinance of the passover, and according to the manner thereof, so shall he do:

ye shall have one ordinance, both for the stranger, and for him that was born in the land.

¶ And on the day that the tabernacle was reared up, the cloud covered the tabernacle, namely, the tent of the testimony: and at even there was upon the tabernacle as it were the appearance of fire, until the morning.

16 So it was alway: the cloud covered it by day, and the appearance of fire, by night.

17 And when the cloud was taken up from the tabernacle, then after that, the children of Israel journeyed: in the place where the cloud abode, there the children of Israel pitched their tents.

18 At the commandment of the Lord to the children of Israel journeyed, and at the commandment of the Lord they pitched: as long as the cloud abode upon the tabernacle, they rested in the tents.

19 And when the cloud tarried long upon the tabernacle many days, then the children of Israel kept the charge of the Lord, and journeyed not.

20 And so it was when the cloud was a few days upon the tabernacle; according to the commandment of the Lord they abode in their tents, and according to the commandment of the Lord they journeyed.

21 And so it was when the cloud tarried from even until the morning, and that the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they journeyed: whether it was by day or by night that the cloud was taken up they journeyed.

22 Whether it were two days, or a month, or a yeare that the cloud tarried upon the tabernacle, remaining thereon, the children of Israel abode in their tents, and journeyed not: but when it was taken up, they journeyed.

23 At the commandment of the Lord they rested in the tents, and at the commandment of the Lord they journeyed: they kept the charge of the Lord, at the commandment of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

29 Hobab is intreated by Moses not to leave them.

33 The blessing of Moses at the removing and resting of the ark.

¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Make thee two trumpets of silver; of an whole piece shalt thou make them: that thou mayest use them for the calling of the assembly, and for the journeying of the camps.

3 And when they shall blow with them, all the assembly shall assemble themselves to thee, at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 And if they blow but with one trumpet, then the princes, which are heads of the thousands of Israel, shall gather themselves unto thee.

5 When ye blow an alarm, then the camps that lie on the east parts shall go forward.

6 When ye blow an alarm the second time, then the camps that lie on the south side shall take their journey: they shall blow an alarm for their journeys.

7 But when the congregation is to be gathered together, you shall blow, but you shall not sound an alarm.

8 And the sons of Aaron the priests shall blow with the trumpets: and they shall be to you for an ordinance for ever throughout your generations.

unto me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom thou knowest to be the elders of the people, and officers over them; and bring them unto the tabernacle of the congregation, that they may stand there with thee.

17 And I will come down and talk with thee there: and I will take of the spirit which is upon thee, and will put it upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with thee, that thou bear it not thyself alone.

18 And say thou unto the people, Sanctify yourselves against to morrow, and ye shall eat flesh: for you have wept in the ears of the Lord, saying, And he shall give us flesh to eat: for it was well with us in Egypt: therefore the Lord will give you flesh, and ye shall eat.

19 Ye shall not eat one day, nor two days, nor five days, neither ten days, nor twenty days;

20 But even a whole month, until it come out at your nostrils, and it be loathsome unto you: because that you have despised the Lord, which is among you, and have wept before him, saying, And he shall bring us forth out of Egypt.

21 And Moses said, The people amongst whom I am, are six hundred thousand foot-men; and thou hast said, I will give them flesh, that they may eat a whole month.

22 Shall the flocks and the herds be slain for them, to suffice them; or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to suffice them?

23 And the Lord said unto Moses, If the people will hear thy voice, thou shalt see how I will be to thee: for thou shalt see how I will be to thee, if thou wilt.

24 And Moses went out, and told the people the words of the Lord, and gathered the seventy men of the elders of the people, and set them round about the tabernacle.

25 And the Lord came down in a cloud, and spake unto him, and took of the spirit that was upon him, and gave it unto the seventy elders: and it came to pass that when the spirit rested upon them, they prophesied, and did not cease.

26 But there remained two of the men in the camp, the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad: and the spirit rested upon them (and they were of them that were written, but went not out unto the tabernacle) and they prophesied in the camp.

27 And there ran a young man, and told Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad do prophesy in the camp.

28 And Josiah the son of Nun, the servant of Moses, one of his young men, answered and said, My lord Moses, forbid them.

29 And Moses said unto him, Envidest thou for my sake? would God that all the people were prophets, and that the Lord would put his spirit upon them.

30 And Moses gat him into the camp, he and the elders of Israel.

32 And the people stood up all that day, and all that night, and all the next day, and they gathered the quails: he that gathered least, gathered ten homers: and they spread them all abroad for themselves round about the camp.

33 And while the flesh was yet between their teeth, and yet between their lips, behold the Lord smote them, and they died: and the Lord smote the people with a very great plague.

34 And he called the name of that place, Taberah: because there they burned the graves of the people that died.

35 And the people journeyed from Taberah to Escheroth, and pitched in the wilderness of Escheroth.

CHAP. XII.

1 God rebuketh the sedition of Miriam and Aaron.

10 Miriam is leprous, and is healed at the prayer of Moses.

14 God commands her to be shut out of the host.

And Miriam and Aaron spake against Moses, because of the Ethiopian woman, whom he had married: for he had married an Ethiopian woman.

2 And they said, With the Lord we speak, as he hath spoken unto us, saying, Stand up, and speak unto the people, as the Lord hath commanded thee.

3 And the Lord said unto Moses, Hearken not unto the voice of Miriam and Aaron: for they have despised my voice, saying, We will speak as the Lord speaketh.

4 And the Lord said unto Moses, Take Aaron and Miriam, and bring them out unto the tabernacle of the congregation: and they shall be shut out.

5 And the Lord said unto Moses, Take Aaron and Miriam, and bring them out unto the tabernacle of the congregation: and they shall be shut out.

6 And he said, Hear now my words: If there be a prophet among you, I the Lord will make myself known unto him in a vision, and will speak unto him in a dream.

7 My servant Moses is not so, who is faithful in all mine house.

8 I will speak unto him, and he shall hear me: and he shall stand up, and shall speak unto the people, as I have commanded him: and he shall not be afraid to speak against my voice.

9 And the anger of the Lord was kindled against them, and he departed.

10 And the cloud departed from off the tabernacle, and behold, Miriam became leprous, white as snow: and Aaron looked upon Miriam, and behold, she was leprous.

11 And Aaron said unto Moses, Alas my lord, I beseech thee, lay not the blame upon us, wherein we have done foolishly, & wherein we have sinned.

12 Let her not be as one dead; of whom the flesh is half consumed, when he cometh out of his mothers womb.

13 And Moses cried unto the Lord, saying, Heal her now, O God, I beseech thee.

14 And the Lord said unto Moses, If her father had but spit in her face, should she not be ashamed seven days? let her be shut out from the camp seven days, and after that let her be received in again.

15 And Miriam was shut out from the camp seven days: and the people journeyed not, till Miriam was brought in again.

16 And afterwards the people removed from Escheroth, and pitched in the wilderness of Paran.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The names of the men who were sent to search the land.

17 Their instructions. 21 Their advice. 26 Their relation.

And the Lord said unto Moses, saying, Send thou men, that they may search the land of Canaan, which I give unto the children of Israel: of every tribe of their fathers shall ye send a man, every one a ruler among them.

2 And Moses put forth the commandment of the 10 Let us send them from the wilderness of Paran: all those men were heads of the children of Israel.

11 And their names were: Of the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the son of Zaccur.

12 Of the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the sonne of Hori.

13 Of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh.

14 Of the tribe of Issachar, Igal the sonne of Joseph.

15 Of the tribe of Ephraim, Othna the sonne of Nun.

16 Of the tribe of Benjamin, Bala the sonne of Naphtali.

17 Of the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel the sonne of Sodi.

18 Of the tribe of Joseph, namely, of the tribe of Manasse, Gaddi the sonne of Sudi.

19 Of the tribe of Dan, Ammihel the sonne of Gemalli.

20 Of the tribe of Asher, Sethur the sonne of Michael.

21 Of the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the sonne of Vophsi.

22 Of the tribe of Gad, Gueli the sonne of Machi.

23 These are the names of the men which Moses sent to spy out the land: and Moses called Othna the sonne of Nun, Iehoshuah.

24 And Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said unto them, Get you up this way south-ward, and go up into the mountain:

25 And see the land what it is, and the people that dwelleth therein, whether they be strong or weak, few or many.

26 And what the land is that they dwell in, whether it be good or bad, and what cities they be that they dwell in, whether in tents, or in strong holds;

27 And what the land is, whether it be fat or lean, whether there be wood therein or not. And be ye of good courage, and bring of the fruit of the land (now the time was the time of the first ripe grapes).

28 So they went up, and searched the land, from the wilderness of Sin, unto Rehob, as men come to Hamath.

29 And they ascended by the south, and came unto Hebron; where Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the children of Anak were (now Hebron was built seven yeares before Joab in Egypt).

30 And they came unto the brook of Ephraim, and cut down from thence a branch with one cluster of grapes; and they bare it between two upon a staff; and they brought of the pomegranates, and of the figs.

31 The place was called the brook of Ephraim, because of the cluster of grapes which the children of Israel cut down from thence.

32 And they returned from searching of the land after fourty daies.

33 And they went and came to Moses, and to Aaron, and to all the congregation of the children of Israel unto the wilderness of Paran, to Kadesh; and brought back word unto them, and unto all the congregation, and shewed them the fruit of the land.

34 And they told him, and said, We came unto the land whether thou sentest us, and surely it floweth with milk and honey; and this is the fruit of it.

35 Reberthelleh, the people be strong that dwell in the land, and the cities are walled, and very great: and moreover, we saw the children of 36 The Amalekites dwell in the land of the south; and the Canaanites, and the Jebusites, and the Amorites dwell in the mountains: and the Canaanites dwell by the sea, and by the coast of Jordan.

37 And Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, Let us go up at once and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it.

38 But the men that went up with him, said, We be not able to go up against the people; for they are stronger then we.

39 And they brought up an evil report of the land which they had searched, unto the children of Israel, saying, The land through which we have gone, to search it, is a land that eateth up the inhabitants thereof, and all the people that we saw in it, are men of a great stature.

40 And there we saw the giants, the sonnes of Anak, which come of the giants: and we were in our own sight as grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The people murmure at the news. 6 Joshua and Caleb labour to still them. 11 God threatneth them. 13 Moses persuadeth God, and obtaineth pardon. 26 The murmurers are deprived of entering into the land.

36 The men who raised the evil report, die by a plague. 40 The people that would invade the land against the will of God, are smitten.

AND all the congregation lifted up their voice, and cried; and the people wept that night.

2 And all the children of Israel murmured against Moses, and against Aaron: and the whole congregation said unto them, Would God that we had died in the land of Egypt, or would God we had died in this wilderness!

3 And wherewith had the Lord to us to bring us unto this land, to fall by the sword, that our wives and our children should be a prey? were it not better for us to return into Egypt?

4 And they said one to another, Let us make a captain, and let us return into Egypt:

5 Then Moses and Aaron fell on their faces before all the assembly of the congregation of the children of Israel.

6 And Joshua the sonne of Nun, and Caleb the sonne of Iephunneh, which were of them that searched the land, rent their clothes.

7 And they spake unto all the companie of the children of Israel, saying, The land which we passed through to search it, is an exceeding good land.

8 If the Lord to us delight in us, then he will bring us into this land, and give it us; a land which floweth with milk and honey.

9 Onely rebel not ye against the Lord, for they are head for us: their defence is departed from them, and the Lord to us is with us: fear them not.

10 But all the congregation had done them with stones: and the glory of the Lord appeared in the tabernacle of the congregation, before all the children of Israel.

11 And the Lord said unto Moses, How long will this people provoke me? and how long will it be ere they believe me, for all the signs which I have shewed among them?

12 I will smite them with the pestilence, and disinherit them, and will make of thee a greater nation and mightier then they.

10 And thou shalt bring for a drink-offering half an hin of wine, for an offering made by fire of a sweet savour unto the Lord.

11 It is his shall it be done for one bullock, or for one ramme, or for a lamb, or a kid.

12 According to the number that ye shall prepare, so shall ye do to every one, according to their number.

13 All that are born of the country, shall do these things after this manner, in offering an offering made by fire of a sweet savour unto the Lord.

14 And if a stranger sojourn with you, or who-soever be among you in your generations, and will offer an offering made by fire of a sweet savour unto the Lord as ye do, so he shall do.

15 One ordinance shall be both for you of the congregation, and also for the stranger that sojourneth with you, an ordinance for ever in your generations: as ye are, so shall the stranger be before the Lord.

16 One law, and one manner shall be for you and for the stranger that sojourneth with you.

17 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

18 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into the land whither I bring you, 19 Then it shall be, that when ye eat of the bread of the land, ye shall offer up an heave-offering unto the Lord.

20 Ye shall offer up a cake of the first of your dough, for an heave-offering: as ye do the heave-offering of the threshing-floor, so shall ye bring it.

21 Of the first of your dough ye shall give unto the Lord, as an heave-offering in your generations.

22 And if ye have earwax, and use otherwise all these commandments which the Lord hath spoken unto Moses,

23 Even all that the Lord hath commanded you by the hand of Moses, from the day that the Lord commanded Moses, and henceforth among your generations:

24 Then it shall be, if ought be committed by ignorance without the knowledge of the congregation: that all the congregation shall offer one young bullock for a burnt-offering, for a sweet savour unto the Lord, with his own offering, and his drink-offering, according to the manner, and one hin of the goats for a burnt-offering.

25 And the priest shall make an atonement for all the congregation of the children of Israel, and it shall be forgiven them, for it is ignorance: and they shall bring their offering, a sacrifice made by fire unto the Lord, and their burnt-offering before the Lord, for their ignorance.

26 And it shall be forgiven him, all the congregation of the children of Israel, and the stranger that sojourneth among them: seeing all the people were in ignorance.

27 And if any soul sin through ignorance, when he shall bring a he-goat of the first year for a burnt-offering.

28 And the priest shall make an atonement for the soul that sinned ignorantly, when he sinneth by ignorance before the Lord, to make an atonement for him; and it shall be forgiven him.

29 For shall have one law for him that sinned through ignorance, both for him that is born among the children of Israel, and for the stranger that sojourneth among them.

30 And the soul that doth ought presumptuously (whether he be born in the land, or a stranger) the same recompence shall he have: that soul shall be cut off from among his people.

31 Because he hath despised the word of the Lord, and hath broken his commandment; that soul shall utterly be cut off: his iniquity shall be upon him.

32 And while the children of Israel were in the wilderness, they found a man that gathered sticks upon the sabbath-day.

33 And they that found him gathering sticks, brought him unto Moses and Aaron, and unto all the congregation.

34 And they put him in ward, because it was not declared what should be done to him.

35 And the Lord said unto Moses, The man shall be surely put to death: all the congregation shall stone him with stones without the camp.

36 And all the congregation brought him without the camp, and stoned him with stones, and he died, as the Lord commanded Moses.

37 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

38 Speak unto the children of Israel, and bid them that they make them fringes in the borders of their garments, throughout their generations; and that they put upon the fringe of the border a ribbon of blue.

39 And it shall be unto you for a fringe, that ye may look upon it, and remember all the commandments of the Lord, and do them: and that ye seek not after your own heart, and your own eyes, after which ye use to go a whoring:

40 That ye may remember, and do all my commandments, and be holy unto your God.

41 I am the Lord your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am the Lord, your God.

CHAP. XVI.

1 The rebellion of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, 23. Moses separates the people from the rebels, 25. The earth swalloweth up Korah, and a fire consumeth others. 36. The censures are referred to holy use.

41 Four hundred and seven hundred are slain by a plague for murmuring against Moses and Aaron. 46. Aaron by incense placeth the plague.

Now Korah the son of Izhar, the son of Reuben, the son of Levi, and Dathan the son of Abiram, the sons of Reuben, took men.

2 And they rose up before Moses, with certain of the children of Israel, two hundred and fifty princes of the assembly, famous in the congregation, men of renown.

3 And they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said unto them, We take too much upon you, seeing all the congregation are holy, every one of them, and the Lord is among them: why then lift you up your selves above the congregation of the Lord?

4 And when Moses heard it, he fell upon his face.

5 And he spake unto Korah, and unto all his company, saying, When ye morrow the Lord will shew who are his, and who is holy, and will cause him to come near unto him: even him whom he hath chosen, will he cause to come near unto him.

6 And this do, take you censers, Korah, and all his company:

7 And put fire therein, and put incense in them before the Lord, as he commanded, and it shall be that the man whom the Lord doth choose, he shall be holy: ye take too much upon you, ye sinners off.

8 And Moses said unto Korah, Hear, I pray you, ye sons of Levi:

9 Seemeth it but a small thing unto you, that the God of Israel hath separated you from the congregation of Israel, to bring you near to himself, to do the service of the tabernacle of the L. O. A. M. and to stand before the congregation, to minister unto them?

10 And he hath brought thee near to him, and all thy brethren the sons of Levi with thee: and seek ye the priesthood also?

11 For which cause both thou, & all thy company are gathered together against the L. O. A. M.: and what is Aaron, that ye murmur against him?

12 ¶ And Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram the sons of Eliab: which said, We will not come up.

13 Is it a small thing that thou hast brought us up out of a land that floweth with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, except thou make thyself altogether a prince over us?

14 Moreover, thou hast not brought us into a land that floweth with milk and honey, given us inheritance of fields and vineyards: wilt thou put out the eyes of these men? we will not come up.

15 And Moses was very wroth, and said unto the L. O. A. M., * Respect not thou their offering: I have not taken one ass from them, neither have I hurt one of them.

16 And Moses said unto Korah, Be thou and all thy company before the L. O. A. M.: thou, & thy, and Aaron to morrow.

17 And take every man his censer, and put incense in them, and bring ye before the L. O. A. M. every man his censer, two hundred and fifty censers: thou also and Aaron each of you his censer.

18 And they took every man his censer, and put fire in them, and laid incense thereon, and stood in the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation with Moses and Aaron.

19 And Korah gathered all the congregation against them, unto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the glory of the L. O. A. M. appeared unto all the congregation.

20 And the L. O. A. M. spake unto Moses, and unto Aaron, saying, 21 Separate your selves from among this congregation, that I may consume them in a moment.

22 And they fell upon their faces, and said, O God, the God of the spirits of all flesh, shall one man sinne, and wilt thou be wroth with all the congregation?

23 ¶ And the L. O. A. M. spake unto Moses, saying, 24 Speak unto the congregation, saying, Get you up from about the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.

25 And Moses rose up, and went unto Dathan and Abiram; and the elders of Israel followed him.

26 And he spake unto the congregation, saying, Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, lest ye be consumed in all their iniquities.

27 So they gat up from the tabernacle of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, on every side: and Dathan and Abiram came out, and stood in the doore of their tents, and their wives, and their young men, and their little children.

28 And Moses said, Herby ye shall know that the L. O. A. M. hath sent me to do all these works: for I have not done them of mine own mind.

29 If chiefe men die, the common death of all men, if they be visited after the visitation of all men, then the L. O. A. M. hath not sent me.

30 But if the L. O. A. M. make a new thing, and the earth open her mouth, and swallow them up, with all that appertain unto them, and they go down quick into the pit; then ye shall understand that these men have provoked the L. O. A. M.

31 ¶ And it came to pass as he had made an end of speaking all these words, that the ground clave under them that was under them:

32 And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up, and their houses, & all the men that appertained unto Korah, and all their goods.

33 They, and all that appertained to them went down alive into the pit, and the earth closed upon them: and they perished from among the congregation.

34 And all Israel that were round about them, fled at the cry of them: for they said, Lest the earth swallow us up also.

35 And there came out a fire from the L. O. A. M., and consumed the two hundred and fifty men that offered incense.

36 ¶ And the L. O. A. M. spake unto Moses, saying, 37 Speak unto Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, that he take up the censers out of the burnings, and scatter thou the fire powder: for they are hallowen.

38 The censers of these sinners against their own souls, let them make them hoards plates for a covering of the altar: for they offered them before the L. O. A. M.; therefore they are hallowen: and they shall be a signe unto the children of Israel.

39 And Eleazar the priest took the brasen censers, wherewith they that were burnt had offered; and they were made hoards plates for a covering of the altar:

40 To be a memoriall unto the children of Israel, that no stranger, which is not of the seed of Aaron, come near to offer incense before the L. O. A. M.: that he be not as Korah, and as his company: as the L. O. A. M. said to him by the hand of Moses.

41 ¶ But on the morrow, all the congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses, and against Aaron, saying, Ye have killed the people of the L. O. A. M.

42 And it came to pass when the congregation was gathered against Moses and against Aaron, that they looked toward the tabernacle of the congregation: and behold, the cloud covered it, and the glory of the L. O. A. M. appeared.

43 And Moses and Aaron came before the tabernacle of the congregation.

44 ¶ And the L. O. A. M. spake unto Moses, saying, 45 Get you up from among this congregation, that I may consume them as in a moment: and they fall upon their faces.

46 And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a censer, and put fire therein from off the altar, and put on incense, and go quickly unto the congregation, and make an atonement for them: for there is wrath gone out from the L. O. A. M.; the plague is begun.

47 And Aaron took as Moses commanded, and ran into the midst of the congregation; and behold, the plague was begun among the people: and he put on incense, and made an atonement for the people.

48 And he stood between the dead and the living, and the plague was stayed.

49 Now they that died in the plague, were fourteen thousand and seven hundred, besides them that died about the matter of Korah.

50 And Aaron returned unto Moses, unto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the plague was stayed.

1 Aarons rod among all the rods of the tribes only flourisheth. 10 It is left for a monument against the rebels.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and take of every one of them a rod according to the house of their fathers, of all their princes, according to the house of their fathers, twelve rods: write thou every mans name upon his rod.

3 And thou shalt write Aarons name upon the rod of Levi: for sons rod shall be for the head of the house of their fathers.

4 And thou shalt lay them up in the tabernacle before the testimony, where I will meet with you.

5 And it shall come to passe, that the mans rod whom I shall choose, shall blossom: and I will make to cease from me the murmurings of the children of Israel, whereby they murmur against you.

6 And Moses spake unto the children of Israel, and every one of the princes gave him a rod a piece, for each prince one, according to their fathers houses, even twelve rods: and the rod of Aaron was among their rods.

7 And Moses laid up the rods before the Lord, in the tabernacle of witness.

8 And it came to passe that on the morrow Moses went into the tabernacle of witness: and behold, the rod of Aaron for the house of Levi was budded, and brought forth buds, and bloomed blossoms, and yielded almonds.

9 And Moses brought out all the rods from before the Lord, unto all the children of Israel: and they looked, and took every man his rod.

10 And the Lord said unto Moses, saying, Aarons rod again, before the testimony, to be kept for a token against the rebels: and thou shalt quite take away their murmurings from me, that they die not.

11 And Moses did so as the Lord commanded him, so did he.

12 And the children of Israel spake unto Moses, saying, Behold, we die, we perish, we all perish.

13 Whosoever cometh any thing near unto the tabernacle of the Lord, shall die: shall we be consumed with dying?

CHAP. XVIII.

1 The charge of the priests and Levites. 9 The priestly portion. 21 The Levites portion. 25 The heave-offering to the priests out of the Levites portion.

And the Lord said unto Aaron, Thou and thy sons and thy fathers house with thee shall bear the iniquity of the sanctuary: and thou and thy sons with thee shall bear the iniquity of your priesthood.

2 And thy brethren also of the tribe of Levi, the tribe of thy father, bring thou with thee, that they may be joined unto thee, and minister unto thee: but thou and thy sons with thee shall minister before the tabernacle of witness.

3 And they shall keep thy charge, and the charge of all the tabernacle: only they shall not come nigh the vessels of the sanctuary and the altar, that neither they, nor you also die.

4 And they shall be joined unto thee, and keep the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, for all the service of the tabernacle: and a stranger shall not come nigh unto you.

5 And ye shall keep the charge of the sanctuary, and the charge of the altar; that there be no wrath any more upon the children of Israel.

6 And J. Behold, I have taken your brethren the Levites from among the children of Israel: to you they are given as a gift for the Lord, to do the service of the tabernacle of the congregation.

7 Therefore thou and thy sons with thee, shall keep your priests office for ever, of the altar, and within the veil, and ye shall serve: I have given your priests office unto you, as a service of gift: and the stranger that cometh nigh, shall be put to death.

8 And the Lord spake unto Aaron, Behold, I also have given thee the charge of mine heave-offerings, of all the hallowed things of the children of Israel; unto thee have I given them, by reason of the anointing, and to thy sons by an ordinance for ever.

9 This shall be thine of the most holy things, reserved from the fire: every oblation of theirs, every meat-offering of theirs, and every wine-offering of theirs, and every trespass-offering of theirs, which they shall render unto me, shall be most holy for thee and for thy sons.

10 In the most holy place shalt thou eat it, every male shall eat it: it shall be holy unto thee.

11 And this is thine; the heave-offering of their gift, with all the wave-offerings of the children of Israel: I have given them unto thee, and to thy sons, and to thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: every one that is clean in thy house, shall eat of it.

12 All the best of the oil, and all the best of the wine, and of the wheat, the first-fruits of them which they shall offer unto the Lord, them have I given thee.

13 And whatsoever is first ripe in the land, which they shall bring unto the Lord, shall be thine; every one that is clean in thine house, shall eat of it.

14 Every thing devoted in Israel, shall be thine.

15 Every thing that openeth the matrix in all flesh, which they bring unto the Lord, whether it be of man or beast, shall be thine: moreover the first-born of man shalt thou surely redeem, and the firstling of unclean beasts shalt thou redeem.

16 And those that are to be redeemed, from a month old shalt thou redeem according to thine estimation, for the money of five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, which is twenty gerahs.

17 But the firstling of a cow, or the firstling of a sheep, or the firstling of a goat, thou shalt not redeem: they are holy: thou shalt sprinkle their blood upon the altar, and shalt burn their fat for an offering made by fire, for a sweet savour unto the Lord.

18 And the flesh of them shall be thine, as the wave-breast and as the right shoulder are thine.

19 All the heave-offerings of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer unto the Lord, have I given thee, and thy sons, and thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: it is a covenant of salt for ever, before the Lord, unto thee and to thy sons with thee.

20 And the Lord spake unto Aaron, Thou shalt have no inheritance in their land, neither shalt thou have any part among them: I am thy part, and thine inheritance among the children of Israel.

21 And behold, I have given the children of Levi all the tenth, for an inheritance, for their service which they shall do: even the service of the tabernacle of the congregation.

21 Neither must the children of Israel bear their sin with the tabernacle of the congregation, lest they bear blame, I said he.

22 But the Levites shall be to the service of the tabernacle of the congregation, and they shall bear their iniquity: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations: that among the children of Israel there be no more inheritance.

23 But the tribes of the children of Israel, which they offer as an heave-offering unto the Lord, I have given to the Levites to inherit: therefore I have said unto them, Among the children of Israel they shall have no inheritance.

24 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

25 Thus speak unto the Levites, and say unto them, When ye take of the children of Israel the tithes which I have given you from them for your inheritance, then ye shall offer up an heave-offering of it to the Lord, even a tenth part of the tithes.

26 And this your heave-offering shall be reckoned unto you, as though it were the top of the threshing-floor, and as the fulness of the wine-press.

27 And you also shall offer an heave-offering unto the Lord, of all your tithes which ye receive of the children of Israel: and ye shall give thereof the Lord a heave-offering to Aaron the priest.

28 Out of all your gifts ye shall offer every heave-offering of the Lord, of all the best thereof, even the hallowest part thereof, out of it.

29 Wherefore thou shalt say unto them, When ye have heaved the best thereof from it, then it shall be counted unto the Levites, as the increase of the threshing-floor, and as the increase of the wine-press.

30 And ye shall eat it in every place, ye and your households: for it is your reward for your service, in the tabernacle of the congregation.

31 And ye shall bear no sin, by reason of it; when ye have heaved from it the best of it: neither shall ye pollute the holy things of the children of Israel, lest ye die.

CHAP. XIX.

1 The water of separation made of the ashes of a red heifer. 2 The law for the use of it in purification of the unclean.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, and unto Aaron, saying,

3 This is the ordinance of the law which the Lord hath commanded, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, that they bring thee a red heifer without spot, wherein is no blemish, and upon which never came yoke.

4 And ye shall give her unto Eleazar the priest, that he may bring her forth without the camp, and one shall slay her before his face.

5 And Eleazar the priest shall take of her blood, and sprinkle of her blood directly before the tabernacle of the congregation seven times.

6 And one shall burn the heifer in his sight, her skin, and her flesh, and her blood, with her dung, shall be burnt.

7 And the priest shall take cedar-wood, and hyssop, and zaiton, and cast it into the midst of the burning of the heifer.

8 Then the priest shall wash his clothes, and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and afterwards he shall come into the camp, and the priest shall be unclean until the even.

9 And he that burneth her, shall wash his clothes in water, and bathe his flesh in water, and shall be unclean until the even.

10 And a man that is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer, and carry them up without the camp in a clean place, and it shall be kept for the congregation of the children of Israel, for a water of separation: it is a purification for sin.

11 And he that gathereth the ashes of the heifer, shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even: and it shall be unto the children of Israel, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among them, for a statute for ever.

12 And he that toucheth the dead body of any man, shall be unclean seven days.

13 He shall purify himself with it on the third day, and on the seventh day he shall be clean: but if he purify not himself the third day, then the seventh day he shall not be clean.

14 And whosoever toucheth the dead body of any man that is dead, and purifieth not himself, defileth the tabernacle of the Lord: and that soul shall be cut off from Israel: because the water of separation was not sprinkled upon him, he shall be unclean; his uncleanness is yet upon him.

15 This is the law, when a man dieth in a tent; all that come into the tent, and all that is in the tent, shall be unclean seven days.

16 And every open vessel which hath no covering bound upon it, is unclean.

17 And whosoever toucheth one that is slain with a sword in the open field, or a dead body, or a bone of a man, or a grave, shall be unclean seven days.

18 And for an unclean person they shall take of the ashes of the burnt heifer of purification for sin, and running water shall be put thereon in a vessel:

19 And a clean person shall take hyssop, and dip it in the water, and sprinkle it upon the tent, and upon all the vessels, and upon the persons that were there, and upon him that touched a bone, or one slain, or one dead, or a grave:

20 And the clean person shall sprinkle upon the unclean on the third day, and on the seventh day: and on the seventh day he shall purify himself, and wash his clothes, and bathe himself in water, and shall be clean as when.

21 But the man that shall be unclean, and shall not purify himself, that soul shall be cut off from among the congregation: because he hath defiled the sanctuary of the Lord, the water of separation hath not been sprinkled upon him, he is unclean.

22 And it shall be a perpetual statute unto them, that he that sprinkled the water of separation, shall wash his clothes; and he that touched the water of separation, shall be unclean until the even.

23 And whosoever the unclean person toucheth, shall be unclean: and the soul that toucheth it, shall be unclean until the even.

1 The children of Israel come to Zin, where Miriam dieth. 2 They murmur for want of water. 3 Moses smiting the rock, bringeth forth water at Meribah. 4 Moses at Kadesh desireth passage through Edom, which is denied him. 5 At mount Hor Aaron resigneth his place to Eleazar, and dieth.

Then came the children of Israel, even the whole congregation, into the desert of Zin, in the first month: and the people abode in Kadesh; and Miriam died there, and was buried there.

12 From thence they removed, and pitched in the valley of Jaac.

13 From thence they removed, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, which is in the wilderness that cometh out of the coasts of the Amorites: for Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.

14 Therefore it is said in the book of the wars of the Lord, what he did in the day of Jaac, and what he did in the day of Arnon.

15 And at the stream of the brooks that goeth down to the dwelling of Re, and it lieth upon the border of Moab.

16 And from thence they went to Beer: that is the well wherof the Lord spake unto Moses, Gather the people together, and I will give them water.

17 Then Israel sang this song, and saying, We will sing ye unto it:

18 The princes digged the well, the nobles of the people digged it, by the direction of the labourer, with their slaves. And from the wilderness they went to Mattanah:

19 And from Mattanah to Nabaliel: and from Nabaliel to Bamoth:

20 And from Bamoth in the valley that is in the country of Moab, to the top of Pisgah, which looketh toward Jericho.

21 And Israel sent messengers unto Sihon king of the Amorites, saying, 22 Let me pass through thy land; we will not turn into the fields, or into the vineyards, we will not drink of the waters of the well: but we will go along by the kings high-way, until we be past thy borders.

23 And Sihon would not suffer Israel to pass through his border: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and went out against Israel into the wilderness: and he came to Jahaz, and fought against Israel.

24 And Israel smote him with the edge of the sword, and possessed his land from Arnon unto Jabbok, even unto the children of Ammon: for the border of the children of Ammon was strong.

25 And Israel took all their cities: and Israel dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites, in Hesbon, and in all the villages thereof.

26 For Hesbon was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab, and taken all his land out of his hands, even unto Arnon.

27 Therefore they that speak in proverbs say, Come into Hesbon, let the city of Sihon be built and prepared.

28 For there is a fire gone out of Hesbon, a flame from the city of Sihon: it hath consumed Ar of Moab, and the lords of the high places of Arnon.

29 Mo to thee, Moab: thou art undone, O people of Chemosh: he hath given his sonnes that escaped, and his daughters, into captivity unto Sihon king of the Amorites.

30 We have shot at them; Hesbon is perished upon them: Dibon, and we have laid them waste upon them: Moab, which reacheth unto Medeba.

31 Thus Israel dwelt in the land of the Amorites.

32 And Moab sent to spy out Jaazer, and they took the villages thereof, and drove out the Amorites that were there.

33 And they turned and went up by the way of Bashan: and Og the king of Bashan went out against them, he, and all his people, to the battle at Edrei.

34 And the Lord said unto Moses, Fear him not: for I have delivered him into thy hand, and all his people, and his land: and thou shalt do to him as thou dost unto Sihon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Hesbon.

35 So they smote him and his sonnes, and all his people, until there was none left him alive: and they possessed his land.

CHAP. XXII.

1 Balak first message for Balaam is refused. 15 His second message obtaineth him. 22 An angel would have slain him, if his ass had not saved him. 36 Balak entertaineth him.

And the children of Israel set forward, and pitched in the plains of Moab, on this side Jordan by Jericho.

2 And Balak the sonne of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites.

3 And Moab was sore afraid of the people, because they were many: and Moab was distressed, because of the children of Israel.

4 And Moab said unto the elders of Midian, Now shall this company lick up all that are round about us, as the ox licketh up the grass of the field. And Balak the sonne of Zippor was king of the Moabites at that time.

5 He sent messengers therefore unto Balaam the sonne of Beor, to Bethor, which is by the river of the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, Behold, there is a people come out from Egypt: behold, they cover the face of the earth, and they abide over against me.

6 Come now therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people: for they are too mighty for me: peradventure I shall prevail, that we may smite them, and that I may drive them out of the land: for I wot that he whom thou blessest, is blessed; and he whom thou cursest, is cursed.

7 And the elders of Moab, and the elders of Midian departed, with the rewards of divination in their hand; and they came unto Balaam, and spake unto him the words of Balak.

8 And he said unto them, Lodge here this night, and I will bring you word again as the Lord shall speak unto me. And the princes of Moab abode with Balaam.

9 And God came unto Balaam, & said, What men are these with thee?

10 And Balaam said unto God, Balak the sonne of Zippor, king of Moab, hath sent unto me, saying, 11 Behold, there is a people come out of Egypt, which covereth the face of the earth: Come now, curse me them: peradventure I shall be able to overcome them, and drive them out.

12 And God said unto Balaam, Thou shalt not go with them, thou shalt not curse the people: for they are blessed.

13 And Balaam rose up in the morning, and said unto the princes of Balak, Get you into your land: for the Lord refuseth to give me leave to go with you.

14 And the princes of Moab rose up, and they went unto Balak, and said, Balaam refuseth to come with us.

15 And Balak sent yet again princes, more, and more honourable than they.

16 And they came to Balaam, and said to him, Thus saith Balak the sonne of Zippor, Let nothing, I pray thee, hinder thee from coming unto me:

from, &c.

to me: Come therefore, I pray thee, and see this people.

18 And Balaam answered and said unto the servants of Balak, * 36 Balak would give me his house full of silver and gold, I cannot go beyond the word of the L^o & w my God to do less or more.

19 Now therefore, I pray you, tarry ye also here this night, that I may know what the L^o & w will say unto me to-morrow.

20 And God came unto Balaam at night, and said unto him, If the men come to call thee, rise up, and go with them; but yet the word which I shall say unto thee, that shall thou do.

21 And Balaam rose up in the morning, and saddled his ass, and went with the princes of Moab.

22 ¶ And Gods anger was kindled, because he went: and the angel of the L^o & w stood in the way for an adversary against him. Now he was riding upon his ass, and his two servants were with him.

23 And * the ass saw the angel of the L^o & w standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and the ass turned aside out of the way, and went into the field: and Balaam smote the ass to turn her into the way.

24 But the angel of the L^o & w stood in a path of the vineyards, a wall being on this side, and a wall on that side.

25 And when the ass saw the angel of the L^o & w, she thrust her self unto the wall, and crushed Balaams foot against the wall: and he smote her again.

26 And the angel of the L^o & w went further, and stood in a narrow place, where was no way to turn either to the right hand or to the left.

27 And when the ass saw the angel of the L^o & w, he fell down under Balaam: and Balaams anger was kindled, and he smote the ass with a staffe.

28 And the L^o & w opened the mouth of the ass, and he said unto Balaam, What have I done unto thee, that thou hast smitten me these three times?

29 And Balaam says unto the ass, Because thou hast mocked me: I would there were a sword in mine hand, for now would I kill thee.

30 And the ass said unto Balaam, Am not I thine ass, & upon which thou hast ridden ever since I was thine, unto this day? was I ever wont to do so unto thee? And he said, Nay.

31 Then the L^o & w opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of the L^o & w standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand: and he bowed down his head, and fell flat on his face.

32 And the angel of the L^o & w said unto him, Wherefore hast thou smitten thine ass these three times? Behold, I went out to withstand thee, because thy way is perverse before me.

33 And the ass said me, and turned from me these three times: unless he had turned from me, surely now also I had slain thee, and saved her alive.

34 And Balaam said unto the angel of the L^o & w, I have sinned; for I knew not that thou stoodest in the way against me: Now therefore if it is displeasing thee, I will get me back again.

35 And the angel of the L^o & w said unto Balaam, Go with the men: but only the word that I shall speak unto thee, that thou shalt speak: So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

36 ¶ And when Balak heard that Balaam was come, he went out to meet him, unto a cite of Moab, which is in the border of Arnon, which is in the utmost east.

37 And Balak said unto Balaam, Did I not earnestly send unto thee to call thee? whither hast thou come that thou hast not come? And I not able indeed to promise thee to honour?

38 And Balaam said unto Balak, Lo, I am come unto thee: have I now any power at all to say any thing? the word that God puteth in my mouth, that shall I speak.

39 And Balaam went with Balak, and they came unto Kirjath-buzah.

40 And Balak offered oxen and sheep, and sent to Balaam, and to the princes that were with him.

41 And it came to passe on the morrow, that Balak took Balaam, and brought him up into the high places of Baal: that thence he might see the utmost part of the people.

CHAP. XXIII.

1, 13, 28 Balaks sacrifice. 7, 18 Balaams parable.

And Balaam said unto Balak, Behold me here seven altars, and prepare us here seven oxen, and seven rammes.

2 And Balak did as Balaam had spoken, and Balak and Balaam offered on every altar a bullock and a ramme.

3 And Balaam said unto Balak, Stand by the burnt-offering, and I will go: peradventure the L^o & w will come to meet me: and whatsoever he sheweth me, I will tell thee. And he went to an high place.

4 And God met Balaam, and he said unto him, I have prepared seven altars, and I have offered upon every altar a bullock and a ramme.

5 And the L^o & w put a word in Balaams mouth, and said, Return unto Balak, and thus thou shalt speak.

6 And he returned unto him, and to, he stood by his burnt sacrifice, he, and all the princes of Moab.

7 And he took up his parable, and said, Balak the king of Moab hath thought me from Arnon, out of the mountains of the east, saying, Come, curse me Jacob, and come, curse Israel.

8 How shall I curse, whom God hath not cursed: or how shall I curse, whom the L^o & w hath not defied?

9 For from the top of the rocks I see him, and from the hills I behold him: lo, the people shall dwell alone, and shall not be reckoned among the nations.

10 What can count the dust of Jacob, and the number of the fourth part of Israel? Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his.

11 And Balak said unto Balaam, What hast thou done unto me? I took thee to curse mine enemies, and behold, thou hast blessed them altogether.

12 And he answered and said, What I not take heed to speak that which the L^o & w hath put in my mouth?

13 And Balak said unto him, Come, I pray thee, with me unto another place, from whence thou mayest see them: thou shalt see but the utmost part of them, and shalt not see them all: and curse me them from thence.

14 ¶ And he brought him into the field of Sophim, to the top of I Jabbak, and built seven altars, and offered a bullock and a ramme on every altar.

15 And he said unto Balak, Stand here by the burnt-offering.

Or, a cite of Moab.

Or, he went solitarie.

Let me die like him.

Or, the hill.

1 And they called the people unto the sacrifices of their gods: and the people did eat, and bowed down to their gods.

2 And Israel joined himself unto Baal-peor: and the anger of the Lord was kindled against Israel.

3 And the Lord said unto Moses, * Take all the heads of the people, and hang them up before the Lord against the sunne, that the fierce anger of the Lord may be turned away from Israel.

4 And Moses said unto the judges of Israel, Slay ye every one his men, that were joined unto Baal-peor.

5 And behold, one of the children of Israel came and brought unto his brethren a Midianitish woman, in the sight of Moses, and in the sight of all the congregation of the children of Israel, who were weeping before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

6 And when Phinehas the sonne of Eleazar the sonne of Aaron the priest, saw it, he rose up from amongst the congregation, and took a javelin in his hand;

7 And he went after the man of Israel into the tent, and thrust both of them through, the man of Israel, and the woman through her belly: So the plague was stayed from the children of Israel.

8 And those that died in the plague, were twenty and foure thousand.

9 And the Lord said unto Moses, saying,

10 Phinehas the sonne of Eleazar, the sonne of Aaron the priest, hath turned my wrath away from the children of Israel (while he was zealous for my sake among them) that I consumed not the children of Israel in my jealousy.

11 Wherefore say, * Behold, I give unto him my covenant of peace.

12 And he shall have it, and his seed after him, even the covenant of an everlasting priesthood; because he was zealous for his God, and made an atonement for the children of Israel.

13 Now the name of the Israelite that was slain, even that was slain with the Midianitish woman, was Zimri the sonne of Salu, a prince of a chief house among the Simeonites.

14 And the name of the Midianitish woman that was slain, was Cozbi the daughter of Zur, he was head over a people, and of a chief house in Midian.

15 And the Lord said unto Moses, saying,

16 * After the Midianites, and smite them: 17 For they vex you with their wiles, wherewith they have beguiled you, in the matter of Peor, and in the matter of Cozbi, the daughter of a prince of Midian their sister, which was slain in the day of the plague, for Peors sake.

CHAP. XXVI.

* The summe of all Israel is taken in the plains of Moab. 52 The law of dividing among them the inheritance of the land. 57 The families and number of the Levites. 63 None were left of them which were numbered at Sinai, but Caleb and Joshua.

And it came to pass after the plague, that the Lord said unto Moses, and unto Eleazar the sonne of Aaron the priest, saying,

2 Take the summe of all the congregation of the children of Israel, from twenty yeeres old and upward, throughout their fathers houses, all that are able to go to warre in Israel.

3 And Moses, and Eleazar the priest, spoke with them in the plains of Moab by Jordan neare Jericho, saying,

4 Take the summe of the people, from twenty yeeres old and upward; as the Lord commanded Moses and the children of Israel, * Chap. 1, 12-13 which went forth out of the land of Egypt.

5 ¶ Reuben the eldest sonne of Israel: the children of Reuben, Hanoch, of whom cometh the family of the Hanochites: of Pallu, the family of the Palluites:

6 Of Helion, the family of the Helionites: of Carmi, the family of the Carmites.

7 These are the families of the Reubenites: and they that were numbered of them, were fourty and three thousand and seven hundred and thirty.

8 And the sonnes of Simeon,

9 And the sonnes of Gad, Semei, and Dathan, and Abiram: this is that Dathan and Abiram which were famous in the congregation, who strove against Moses and against Aaron in the company of Korah, when they strove against the Lord.

10 And the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed them up together with Korah, when that company died, what time the fire devoured two hundred and fifty men: and they became a signe.

11 Notwithstanding the children of Korah died not.

12 ¶ The sonnes of Simeon after their families: of Semei, the family of the Semeiites: of Jamin, the family of the Jaminites: of Jachin, the family of the Jachinites:

18 These are the families of the children of Gad according to those that were numbered of them, fourty thousand and five hundred.

19 ¶ The sonnes of Judah, were Er and Onan; and Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan.

20 And the sonnes of Judah after their families were, of Shelah, the family of the Shelanites: of Pharez, the family of the Pharezites: of Zerah, the family of the Zerahites:

21 And the sonnes of Pharez were, of Hebron, the family of the Hebronites: of Jemul, the family of the Jemulites.

22 These are the families of Judah according to those that were numbered of them, threescore and five thousand and five hundred.

23 ¶ Of the sonnes of Issachar after their families: of Zabul, the family of the Zabulites: of Pus, the family of the Pusites:

24 Of Issachar, the family of the Issacharites: of Ashur, the family of the Ashurites.

25 These are the families of Issachar according to those that were numbered of them, therefore, and fourty thousand and three hundred.

26 ¶ Of the sonnes of Zabulon after their families: of Sered, the family of the Seredites: of Elon, the family of the Elonites: of Jachiel, the family of the Jachielites.

27 These are the families of the Zabulonites according according to those that were numbered of them, according to thousands and five hundred.

28 ¶ The names of Joseph after their families, were Manasseh and Ephraim.

* Josh. 17. 1.

29 Of the names of Manasseh: of Gadchil, the family of the Gadchilites; and Gadchil begat Gilead: of Gilead came the family of the Gileadites.

30 These are the names of Gilead: of Jezer, the family of the Jezerites; of Pelah, the family of the Pelahites.

31 And of Asiel, the family of the Asielites; and of Serchem, the family of the Serchemites:

32 And of Semida, the family of the Semidaites; of Jezer, the family of the Jezerites.

* Chap. 27. 1.

33 ¶ And Zelophehad the son of Hepher had no sons, but daughters; and the names of the daughters of Zelophehad, were Zablah, and Noch, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

34 These are the families of Manasse, and those that were numbered of them, five and two thousand and seven hundred.

35 ¶ These are the names of Ephraim after their families: of Shushanah, the family of the Shushanites; of Bered, the family of the Beredites; of Tahan, the family of the Tahanites.

36 And these are the names of Shushanah: of Erub, the family of the Erubites.

37 These are the families of the names of Ephraim according to those that were numbered of them, thirty and two thousand and five hundred. These are the names of Joseph after their families.

38 ¶ The names of Benjamin after their families: of Belah, the family of the Belahites; of Ashbel, the family of the Ashbelites; of Ahiram, the family of the Ahiramites:

39 Of Shupham, the family of the Shuphamites; of Hupham, the family of the Huphamites.

40 And the names of Bela were Ard and Naaman: of Ard, the family of the Ardites; and of Naaman, the family of the Naamites.

41 These are the names of Benjamin after their families: and they that were numbered of them, were forty and five thousand and six hundred.

42 ¶ These are the names of Dan after their families: of Shubam, the family of the Shubamites. These are the families of Dan after their families.

43 All the families of the Shubamites, according to those that were numbered of them, were three thousand and four hundred.

44 ¶ Of the children of Asher after their families: of Imma, the family of the Immites; of Jezah, the family of the Jezahites; of Beriah, the family of the Beriahites.

45 Of the names of Beriah: of Heber, the family of the Heberites; of Balchiel, the family of the Balchielites.

46 And the name of the daughter of Asher was Sarah.

47 These are the families of the names of Asher according to those that were numbered of them, who were fifty and three thousand and four hundred.

48 Of the names of Naphtali after their families: of Jahseel, the family of the Jahseelites; of Guni, the family of the Gunites:

49 Of Jezzer, the family of the Jezzerites; of Geshon, the family of the Geshonites.

50 These are the families of Naphtali according to their families: and they that were numbered of them, were forty and five thousand and four hundred.

51 These were the numbers of the children of Israel, according to thousands and a thousand seven hundred and thirty.

52 ¶ And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

53 Unto these the land shall be divided for an inheritance, according to the number of names.

54 ¶ To many thou shalt give the most inheritance, and to few thou shalt give the least inheritance: to every one shall his inheritance be given, according to those that were numbered of him.

55 Notwithstanding, the land shall be divided by lot: according to the names of the tribes of their fathers they shall inherit.

56 According to the lot shall the possession thereof be divided, between many and few.

57 ¶ And these are they that were numbered of the Levites, after their families: of Gerson, the family of the Gersonites; of Kohath, the family of the Kohathites; of Merari, the family of the Merarites.

58 These are the families of the Levites: the family of the Libnites, the family of the Hebronites, the family of the Gashites, the family of the Shuphites, the family of the Kohathites; and Kohath begat Amram.

59 And the name of Amram's wife was Jochebed, the daughter of Levi, whom her mother bare to Levi in Egypt: and she bare unto Amram, Aaron and Moses, and Miriam their sister.

60 And unto Aaron was born Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

61 And Nadab and Abihu died, when they offered strange fire before the Lord.

62 And those that were numbered of them were twenty and three thousand, all males from a month old and upward: for they were not numbered among the children of Israel, because there was no inheritance given them among the children of Israel.

63 ¶ These are they that were numbered by Moses and Eleazar the priest, who numbered the children of Israel in the plains of Moab, by Jordan near Jericho.

64 But among these there was not a man of them whom Moses and Aaron the priest numbered, when they numbered the children of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai.

65 For the Lord had said of them, They shall surely die in the wilderness: and there was not left a man of them, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 The daughters of Zelophehad sue for an inheritance. 6 The law of inheritances. 12 Moses being told of his death, sueeth for a successor. 18 Joshua is appointed to succeed him.

Then came the daughters of Zelophehad the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Gadchil, the son of Manasseh, of the families of Manasseh the son of Joseph: and these are the names of his daughters; Zablah, Noch, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Tirzah.

2 And they stood before Moses, and before Eleazar the priest, and before the princes, and all the congregation, by the door of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying,

3 Our father died in the wilderness, and he was not in the company of them that gathered themselves together against the Lord: but died in his own sin, and had no sons.

1 Why should the name of our father be diminished among his family, because he had no son? Give unto us therefore a possession among the brethren of our father.

2 And Moses brought their cause before the LORD.

3 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

4 The daughters of Zelophehad speak right:
thou shalt surely give them a possession of an inheritance among their fathers' brethren; and thou shalt cause the inheritance of their father to pass unto them.

5 And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a man die, and have no sonne, then ye shall cause his inheritance to pass unto his daughter.

6 And if he have no daughter, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his brethren.

7 And if he have no brethren, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his father's brethren.

8 And if his father have no brethren, then ye shall give his inheritance unto his husband (if he be next to him of his family, and he shall possess it: and it shall be unto the children of Israel a statute of judgement, as the LORD commanded Moses.

9 And the LORD said unto Moses, Get thee up into the mount Abarim, and see the land which I have given unto the children of Israel.

10 And when thou hast seen it, thou shalt gather unto thee people, as Aaron thy brother was gathered.

11 For ye rebelled against my commandment (in the desert of Zin, in the strife of the congregation) to question me at the water, before their eyes: that is the water of Meribah in Ma-dian in the wilderness of Zin.

12 And Moses spake unto the LORD, saying,

13 Let the LORD be with us, the God of the spirits of all flesh, let a man over the congregation,

14 which may go out before them, and which may go in before them, and which may lead them out, and which may bring them in: that the congregation of the LORD be not as they which have no shepherd.

15 And the LORD said unto Moses, Take thee Joshua the sonne of Nun, a man in whom is the spirit, and lay thine hand upon him.

16 And let him be with thee, and give him a charge over the congregation: and give him a charge in their sight.

17 And thou shalt put some of thine honour upon him, that all the congregation of the children of Israel may be obedient.

18 And he shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who shall ask counsel for him, after the judgement of Aaron before the LORD: at his word shall they go out, and at his word they shall come in, both he and all the children of Israel with him, even all the congregation.

19 And Moses did as the LORD commanded him: and he took Joshua and set him before Eleazar the priest, and before all the congregation.

20 And he laid his hands upon him, and gave him a charge, as the LORD commanded by the hand of Moses.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Offerings are to be observed, 2 The continual burnt-offering, 3 The offering on the Sabbath, 4 On the new-moons, 5 At the passover, 6 In the day of firstfruits.

And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

1 Command the children of Israel, and say unto them, My offering, and my burnt sacrifice made by fire shall ye offer: a sweet labour unto me. Shall ye offer in other words me in their own season.

2 And thou shalt say unto them, This is the offering made by fire which ye shall offer unto the LORD: two tenths of the first year's wheat, barley, and spelt, for a continual burnt-offering.

3 The one lamb thou shalt offer in the morning, and the other lamb thou shalt offer at even.

4 And a tenth part of an ephah of flour for a meat-offering mingled with the fourth part of an hin of beaten oil.

5 It is a continual burnt-offering which was ordained in mount Sinai for a sweet labour, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD.

6 And the drink-offering thereof shall be the fourth part of an hin for the one lamb: in the holy place thou shalt cause the strong wine to be poured unto the LORD for a drink-offering.

7 And the other lamb thou shalt offer at even, as the meat-offering of the morning, and as the drink-offering thereof thou shalt offer it, a sacrifice made by fire of a sweet labour unto the LORD.

8 And on the Sabbath-day, two lambs of the first year without spot, and two tenth-deals of flour for a meat-offering mingled with oil, and the drink-offering thereof.

9 This is the burnt-offering of every Sabbath, beside the continual burnt-offering, and his drink-offering.

10 And in the beginnings of your months ye shall offer a burnt-offering unto the LORD: two young bullocks, and one ramme, seven lambs of the first year without spot.

11 And three tenth-deals of flour for a meat-offering mingled with oil, for one bullock; and two tenth-deals of flour for a meat-offering mingled with oil, for one ramme.

12 And a liberal tenth-deal of flour mingled with oil for a meat-offering, unto one lamb, for a burnt-offering of a sweet labour, a sacrifice made by fire unto the LORD.

13 And their drink-offerings shall be half an hin of wine unto a bullock, and the third part of an hin unto a ramme, and a fourth part of an hin unto a lamb: this is the burnt-offering of every month throughout the months of the year.

14 And one hin of the goats for a burnt-offering unto the LORD, shall be offered, besides the continual burnt-offering, and his drink-offering.

15 And in the fourteenth day of the first month is the passover of the LORD.

16 And in the fifteenth day of this month is the feast: seven days shall unleavened bread be eaten.

17 In the first day shall be an holy convocation; ye shall do no manner of servile work therein.

18 But ye shall offer a sacrifice made by fire for a burnt-offering unto the LORD: two young bullocks, and one ramme, and seven lambs of the first year: they shall be unto you without blemish.

19 And their meat-offering shall be of flour mingled with oil: three tenth-deals shall ye offer for a bullock, and two tenth-deals for a ramme.

20 A liberal tenth-deal shall thou offer for every lamb, throughout the seven lambs.

22 And one goat for a sinne-offering, to make an atonement for you.

23 Ye shall offer them beside the burnt-offering in the morning, which is for a continuall burnt-offering.

24 After this manner ye shall offer daily throughout the seven dayes, the meat of the sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet labour unto the Lord: it shall be offered beside the continuall burnt-offering, and his drink-offering.

25 And on the seventh day ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work.

26 ¶ Also in the day of the first-fruits, when ye bring a new meat-offering unto the Lord, after your weeks be out, ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work.

27 But ye shall offer the burnt-offering for a sweet labour unto the Lord: a sweet labour, one ramme, seven lambs of the first year.

28 And their meat-offering of flour mingled with oyl, three tenth-deals unto one bullock, two tenth-deals unto one ramme.

29 A severall tenth-deal unto one lambe, throughout the seven lambs:

30 And one kid of the goats, to make an atonement for you.

31 Ye shall offer them besides the continuall burnt-offering, and his meat-offering (they shall be unto you without blemish) and their drink-offerings.

CHAP. XXIX.

1 The offering at the feast of trumpets, 7 at the day of affliction their souls, 13 and on the eight dayes of the feast of tabernacles.

AND in the seventh month, on the first day of the month, ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work: * it is a day of blowing the trumpets unto you.

4 And one tenth-deal for one lambe, throughout the seven lambs:

5 And one kid of the goats for a sinne-offering, to make an atonement for you:

6 Beside the burnt-offering of the month, and his meat-offering, and the daily burnt-offering, and his meat-offering, and their drink-offerings, according unto their manner, for a sweet labour, a sacrifice made by fire unto the Lord.

*Leviticus 23, 29

and 23, 27.

7 ¶ And ye shall have on the tenth day of this seventh month an holy convocation: and ye shall afflict your souls: ye shall not do any work therein.

8 But ye shall offer a burnt-offering unto the Lord: one young bullock, one ramme, and seven lambs of the first year, they shall be unto you without blemish:

9 And their meat-offering shall be of flour mingled with oyl, three tenth-deals to a bullock, and two tenth-deals to one ramme.

10 A severall tenth-deal for one lambe, throughout the seven lambs:

11 One kid of the goats for a sinne-offering, beside the sinne-offering of atonement, and the continuall burnt-offering, and the meat-offering of it, and their drink-offerings.

12 ¶ And on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, ye shall have an holy convocation; ye shall do no servile work, and ye shall keep a feast unto the Lord seven dayes.

13 And ye shall offer a burnt-offering, a sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet labour unto the Lord: one young bullock, two rammes, and fourteen lambs of the first year, they shall be without blemish:

14 And their meat-offering shall be of flour mingled with oyl, three tenth-deals unto every bullock of the thirteen bullocks, two tenth-deals to each ramme of the two rammes.

15 And a severall tenth-deal to each lambe of the fourteen lambs:

16 And one kid of the goats for a sinne-offering, beside the continuall burnt-offering, his meat-offering, and his drink-offering.

17 ¶ And on the second day ye shall offer twelve young bullocks, two rammes, fourteen lambs of the first year without spot:

18 And their meat-offering, and their drink-offerings for the bullocks, for the rammes, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

19 And one kid of the goats for a sinne-offering, beside the continuall burnt-offering, and the meat-offering thereof, and their drink-offerings.

20 ¶ And on the third day eleven bullocks, two rammes, fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish:

21 And their meat-offering, and their drink-offerings for the bullocks, for the rammes, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

22 And one goat for a sinne-offering, beside the continuall burnt-offering, and his meat-offering, and his drink-offering.

23 ¶ And on the fourth day ten bullocks, two rammes, and fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish:

24 Their meat-offering, and their drink-offerings for the bullocks, for the rammes, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

25 And one kid of the goats for a sinne-offering, beside the continuall burnt-offering, his meat-offering, and his drink-offering.

26 ¶ And on the fifth day nine bullocks, two rammes, and fourteen lambs of the first year without spot:

27 And their meat-offering, and their drink-offerings for the bullocks, for the rammes, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

28 And one goat for a sinne-offering, beside the continuall burnt-offering, and his meat-offering, and his drink-offering.

29 ¶ And on the sixth day eight bullocks, two rammes, and fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish:

30 And their meat-offering, and their drink-offerings for the bullocks, for the rammes, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

31 And one goat for a sinne-offering, beside the continuall burnt-offering, his meat-offering, and his drink-offering.

32 ¶ And on the seventh day seven bullocks, two rammes, and fourteen lambs of the first year without blemish:

33 And their meat-offering, and their drink-offerings for the bullocks, for the rammes, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

34 And one goat for a sinne-offering, beside the continuall burnt-offering, his meat-offering, and his drink-offering.

35

35 On the eighth day ye shall have a solemn assembly: ye shall do no service work therein.

36 But ye shall offer a burnt-offering, a sacrifice made by fire, of a sweet savour unto the Lord, one bullock, one ramme, seven lambs of the first year without blemish:

37 Their meat-offering, and their drink-offerings, for the bullock, for the ramme, and for the lambs, shall be according to their number, after the manner:

38 And one goat for a sinne-offering, beside the continuall burnt offering, and his meat-offering, and his drink-offering.

39 These things ye shall do unto the Lord, as in your set feasts, besides your vows, and your free-will offerings, for your burnt offerings, and for your meat offerings, and for your drink-offerings, and for your peace offerings.

40 And God spake unto the children of Israel, according to all that the Lord commanded Moses.

CHAP. XXX.

1 Vows are not to be broken. 3 The exception of a maids vow, 6 of a wives, 9 of a widows, or her that is divorced.

And Moses spake unto the heads of the tribes, concerning the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded.

2 If a man vow a vow unto the Lord, or swear an oath to bind his soul with a bond; he shall not break his word, he shall do according to all that proceedeth out of his mouth.

3 If a woman also vow a vow unto the Lord, and bind her self by a bond, being in her fathers house in her youth;

4 And her father heare her vow, and her bond wherewith the hath bound her soul, and her father shall hold his peace at her: then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she hath bound her soul, shall stand.

5 But if her father disallow her in the day that he heareth; not any of her vows or of her bonds, wherewith she hath bound her soul, shall stand: and the Lord shall forgive her, because her father disallowed her.

6 And if she had at all an husband when she vowed, or uttered ought out of her lips, wherewith she bound her soul;

7 And her husband heard it, and held his peace at her in the day that he heard it: then her vows shall stand, and her bonds wherewith she bound her soul, shall stand.

8 But if her husband disallow her on the day that he heard it; then he shall make her vow which she vowed, and that which she uttered with her lips, wherewith she bound her soul, of none effect: and the Lord shall forgive her.

9 But every vow of a widow, and of her that is divorced, wherewith they have bound their souls, shall stand against her.

10 And if she be in her husbands house, or bound her soul by a bond with an oath;

11 And her husband heard it, and held his peace at her, and disallowed her not: then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she bound her soul, shall stand.

12 But if her husband hath utterly made them void on the day he heard them; then whatsoever proceeded out of her lips concerning her vows, or concerning the bond of her soul, shall not stand: her husband hath made them void, and the Lord shall forgive her.

13 Every holy, and every binding oath, to afflict the soul, her husband may establish it, or her husband may make it void.

14 But if her husband altogether hold his peace at her, from day to day; then he shall establish all her vows, or all her bonds which are upon her: he shall confirm them, because he held his peace at her, in the day that he heard them.

15 But if he shall any waies make them void after that he hath heard them; then he shall bear her iniquity.

16 These are the statutes which the Lord commanded Moses between a man and his wife, between the father and his daughter, being yet in her youth in her fathers house.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 The Midianites are spoiled, and Balaam slain. 13 Moses is wrath with the officers, for saving the women alive. 19 How the soldiers with their captives and spoil, are to be purified. 25 The proportion whereby the prey is to be divided. 48 The voluntary oblation unto the treasury of the Lord.

And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, 2 Avenge the children of Israel of the Midianites: afterward shall thou be gathered unto thy people.

3 And Moses spake unto the people, saying, Arm some of your selves unto the warre, and let them go against the Midianites, and avenge the Lord of Midian.

4 Of every tribe a thousand, throughout all the tribes of Israel, shall ye stand to the warre.

5 So there were delivered out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand of every tribe, twelve thousand armed for warre.

6 And Moses sent them to the warre, a thousand of every tribe, and Balaam the sonne of Beor the priest, to the warre, with the holy instruments, and the trumpets to blow in his hand.

7 And they warred against the Midianites, as the Lord commanded Moses; and they slew all the males.

8 And they slew the kings of Midian, beside the rest of them that were slain; namely, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Kib, five kings of Midian: Balaam also the sonne of Beor they slew with the sword.

9 And the children of Israel took all the women of Midian captives, and their little ones, and took the spoil of all their cattell, and all their flocks, and all their goods.

10 And they burnt all their cities wherein they dwelt, and all their goodly castles with fire.

11 And they took all the spoil, and all the prey, both of men and of beasts.

12 And they brought the captives, and the prey, and the spoil unto Moses and Eleazar the priest, and unto the congregation of the children of Israel, unto the camp at the plains of Moab, which are by Jordan neare Jericho.

13 And Moses, and Eleazar the priest, and all the princes of the congregation, went forth to meet them without the camp.

14 And Moses was wroth with the officers of the host, with the captains over thousands, & captains over hundreds, which came from the battle.

15 And Moses said unto them, Have ye saved women alive?

16 Behold, these caused the children of Israel, through the counsel of Balaam, to commit trespass against the Lord in the matter of Peor, and there was a plague among the congregation of the Lord.

5 And the border shall reach a compass from Azmon unto the river of Egypt, and the going out of it shall be at the sea.

6 And as for the western border, you shall even have the great sea for a border, this shall be your west border.

7 And this shall be your north border; from the great sea, you shall point out for you mount Joy.

8 From mount Joy ye shall point out your border unto the entrance of Hamath: and the goings forth of the border shall be to Zebad.

9 And the border shall go on to Hishon, and the goings out of it shall be at Hazar-enan: this shall be your north border.

10 And ye shall point out your east border from Hazar-enan to Shepham.

11 And the coasts shall go down from Shepham to Riblah, on the east-side of Ain; and the border shall descend, and shall reach unto the line of the sea of Hammer eastward.

12 And the border shall go down to Jordan, and the goings out of it shall be at the Jordan: this shall be your land with the coasts thereof round about.

13 And Moses commanded the children of Israel, saying, This is the land which ye shall inherit by lot, which the Lord hath commanded to give unto the nine tribes, and to the half-tribe.

14 For the tribe of the children of Reuben, according to the house of their fathers, and the tribe of the children of Gad, according to the house of their fathers, have received their inheritance; and half the tribe of Manasse have received their inheritance.

15 The two tribes, & the half-tribe have received their inheritance on this side Jordan near Jericho, eastward toward the sunne rising.

16 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

17 These are the names of the men which shall divide the land unto you: Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the sonne of Nun.

18 And ye shall take one prince of every tribe, to divide the land by inheritance.

19 And the names of the men are these: of the tribe of Judah, Caleb the sonne of Jephunneh.

20 And of the tribe of the children of Simeon, Shimon the sonne of Amihud.

21 Of the tribe of Benjamin, Gidman the sonne of Gidoni.

22 And the prince of the tribe of the children of Dan, Daniel the sonne of Jogli.

23 The prince of the children of Joseph, for the tribe of the children of Manasse, Ganniel the sonne of Ephon.

24 And the prince of the tribe of the children of Ephraim, Heman the sonne of Gidman.

25 And the prince of the tribe of the children of Zabulon, Uzaiyahu the sonne of Barnach.

26 And the prince of the tribe of the children of Issachar, Balaichel the sonne of Azan.

27 And the prince of the tribe of the children of Asher, Ashman the sonne of Shimon.

28 And the prince of the tribe of the children of Naphtali, Benabel the sonne of Amihud.

29 These are they whom the Lord hath commanded to divide the inheritance unto the children of Israel in the land of Canaan.

CHAP. XXXV.

Eight and fourty cities for the Levites with their suburbs, and measure thereof: 6 Six of them are to be cities of refuge. 9 The laws of murder. 31 No satisfaction for murder.

And the Lord spake unto Moses in the plains of Moab, by Jordan near Jericho, saying,

Command the children of Israel, that they give unto the Levites of the inheritance of their possession, cities to dwell in: and ye shall give also unto the Levites suburbs for the cities round about them.

3 And the cities which they shall give to dwell in, and the suburbs of them shall be for their cattell, and for their goods, and for all their needs.

4 And the suburbs of the cities, which ye shall give unto the Levites, shall reach from the wall of the city and outward, a thousand cubits round about.

5 And ye shall measure from without the city on the east-side two thousand cubits, and on the south-side, two thousand cubits, and on the west-side two thousand cubits, & on the north-side two thousand cubits: & the city shall be in the midst: this shall be to them the suburbs of the cities.

6 And among the cities which ye shall give unto the Levites, there shall be six cities for refuge, which ye shall appoint for the man-slayer, that he may flee thither: and to them ye shall add fourty and two cities.

7 So all the cities which ye shall give to the Levites, shall be fourty and eight cities: them shall ye give with their suburbs.

8 And the cities which ye shall give, shall be of the possession of the children of Israel: from them that have many, ye shall give many; but from them that have few, ye shall give few: every one shall give of his cities unto the Levites, according to his inheritance which he inheriteth.

9 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

10 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye be come over Jordan, 11 Then ye shall appoint you cities, to be cities of refuge for you; that the slayer may flee thither, which killed any person by mistake.

12 And they shall be unto you cities for refuge from the avenger, that the man-slayer die not until he stand before the congregation in judgment.

13 And of these cities which ye shall give, six cities shall ye have for refuge.

14 Ye shall give three cities on this side Jordan, and three cities shall ye give in the land of Canaan, which shall be cities of refuge.

15 These six cities shall be a refuge, both for the children of Israel, and for the stranger, & for the sojourner among them: that every one that kill any person by mistake, may flee thither.

16 And if he smite him with an instrument of iron (so that he die) he is a murderer, the murderer shall surely be put to death.

17 And if he smite him with a stone, or with a stick (wherewith he may die) and he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

18 Or if he smite him with an hand weapon of wood (wherewith he may die) and he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall surely be put to death.

19 The revenger of blood himself shall slay the murderer: when he meeteth him, he shall slay him.

20 But if he smite him of hatred, or for a quarrel, or for laying of traps that he die;

21 Or in enmity (wherein he smite him) and he die: he that smite him shall surely be put to death; for he is a murderer: the revenger of blood shall slay the murderer when he meeteth him.

22 But if he smite him suddenly without enmity, or have cast upon him any thing without laying of traps;

23 Or with any stone wherewith a man may die seeing him not, or call it upon him that he die, and was not his enemy, neither sought his harm:

24 Then the congregation shall judge between the slayer and the revenger of blood, according to their judgments.

25 And the congregation shall neither slay the slayer out of the hand of the revenger of blood; and the congregation shall restore him to the cite of his refuge, whither he was fled: and he shall abide in it unto the death of the high priest, which was anointed with the holy oyl.

26 But if the slayer shall at any time come without the borders of the cite of his refuge, whither he was fled;

27 And the revenger of blood finde him without the borders of the cite of his refuge, and the revenger of blood kill the slayer; he shall not be guilty of blood:

28 Because he should have remained in the cite of his refuge, untill the death of the high priest: but after the death of the high priest the slayer shall return into the land of his possession.

29 So these things shall be for a statute of judgement upon you, throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

30 And whoso killeth any person, the murderer shall be put to death by the mouth of witnesses; but one witness shall not testify against any person to cause him to die.

31 Moreover, ye shall take no satisfaction for the life of a murderer, which is guilty of death; but he shall surely be put to death.

32 And ye shall take no satisfaction for him that is fled to the cite of his refuge, that he should come again to dwell in the land, untill the death of the priest.

33 So ye shall not pollute the land wherein ye are: for blood it defileth the land: & the land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him that shed it.

34 Defile not therefore the land which ye shall inhabit, wherein I dwell: for I the Lord dwell among the children of Israel.

CHAP. XXXV.

1 The inconvenience of the inheritance of daughters, is remedied by marrying in their own tribes, lest the inheritance should be removed from the tribe. 10 The daughters of Zelophehad marry their fathers brothers sons.

And the chief fathers of the families of the children of Gilead, of the sons of Machir, the sons of Manasse, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came near, and spake before Moses, and before the princes the chief fathers of the children of Israel.

2 And they said, The Lord commanded my lord to give the land for an inheritance by lot unto the children of Israel: and my lord was commanded by the Lord to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother unto his daughters.

3 And if they be married to any of the sons of the other tribes of the children of Israel, then shall their inheritance be taken from the inheritance of our fathers; and shall be put to the inheritance of the tribe, to whom they are received: so shall it be taken from the lot of our inheritance.

4 And when the justice of the children of Israel shall be, then shall their inheritance be put unto the inheritance of the tribe, to whom they are received: so shall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.

5 And Moses commanded the children of Israel, according to the word of the Lord, saying, The tribe of the sons of Joseph hath said well.

6 This is the thing which the Lord doth command concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, Let them marry to whom they think best, only to the family of the tribe of their father shall they marry:

7 So shall not the inheritance of the children of Israel remove from tribe to tribe: for every one of the children of Israel shall keep himself to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

8 And every daughter that possesseth an inheritance in any tribe of the children of Israel, shall be wife unto one of the families of the tribe of her father, that the children of Israel may enjoy every man the inheritance of his fathers.

9 Neither shall the inheritance remove from one tribe to another tribe: but every one of the tribes of the children of Israel shall keep himself to his own inheritance.

10 Even as the Lord commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zelophehad.

11 For Hephlah, Gilead, and Hoglah, and Shilah, and Hoglah, the daughters of Zelophehad, were married unto their fathers brothers sons.

12 And they were married into the families of the sons of Manasse the sons of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in the tribe of the families of their fathers.

13 These are the commandments and the judgements which the Lord commanded by the hand of Moses, unto the children of Israel in the plains of Moab, by Jordan near Jericho.

THE FIFTH BOOK OF MOSES called DEUTERONOMIE.

CHAP. I.

1 Moses spake in the end of the fourth year, briefly rehearsing the story of Gods promise, of giving them officers, of sending the spies to search the land, of Gods anger for their incredulity, and disobedience.

And be the words which Moses spake unto all Israel, on this side Jordan in the wilderness, in the plain over against the Red sea, between Paran, and Tophel, and Laban, and Hazeroth, and Di-

2 (There are eleven dayes journey from Doreb by the way of mount Seir, unto Kadesh-barnea)

3 And it came to pass in the fourth year, in the eleventh month, on the first day of the month, that Moses spake unto the children of Israel, according unto all that the Lord had given him in commandment unto them.

4 After he had slain Sihon the king of the Amorites which dwelt in Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, which dwelt at Ashtaroth in Gilead,

5 On this side Jordan, in the land of Moab, Moses declared this law, saying,

6 The Lord our God spake unto us in Mount Sinai, saying, Ye have dwelt long enough in this mount.

7 Then you, and take your journey, and go to the mount of the Amorites, and I unto all the places nigh therunto, in the plain, in the hills, and in the bail, and in the south, and by the sea fides, to the land of the Canaanites, and unto Libanus, unto the great river the river Euphrates.

8 Behold, I have set for the land before you: go in and possess the land which the Lord our God swore unto your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give unto them, and to their seed after them.

9 And I spake unto you at that time, saying, I am not able to bear you my self alone:

10 The Lord our God hath multiplied you and hehold, you are this day as the stars of heaven for multitude.

11 (The Lord our God of your fathers make you a thousand times so many more as ye are, and bless you as he hath promised you)

12 How can I my self alone bear your company, and your burden, and your strife?

13 Take ye wise men and understanding, and known among your tribes, and I will make them rulers over you.

14 And ye answered me, and said, The thing which thou hast spoken, is good for us to do.

15 So I took the chief of your tribes, wise men and known, and I made them heads over you, captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, and captains over fifties, and captains over tens, and officers among your tribes.

16 And I charged your judge at that time, saying, Hear the causes between your brethren, and judge righteously between every man and his brother, and the stranger that is with him.

17 Ye shall not respect persons in judgement, but you shall hear the small as well as the great; you shall not be afraid of the face of man, for the judgement is Gods: and the cause that is too hard for you, bring it unto me, and I will hear it.

18 And I commanded you at that time all the things which ye should do.

19 And when we departed from Horeb, we went through all that great and terrible wilderness, which you said by the way of the mountain of the Amorites, as the Lord our God commanded us; and we came to Radesh barnes.

20 And I said unto you, Ye are come unto the mountain of the Amorites, which the Lord our God doth give unto us.

21 Behold, the Lord our God hath set the land before thee: go up, and possess it, as the Lord our God of your fathers hath said unto thee; fear not, neither be discouraged.

22 And ye came near unto me every one of you, and said, We will send men before us, and they shall search us out the land, and bring us word again by what way we must go up, and into what cities we shall come.

23 And the saying pleased me well: and I took twelve men of you, one of a tribe.

24 And they turned and went up into the mountain, and came unto the valley of Eshcol, and searched it out.

25 And they took of the fruit of the land in their hands, and brought it down unto us, and brought us word again, and said, It is a good land which the Lord our God doth give us.

26 Notwithstanding, ye would not go up, but rebelled against the commandment of the Lord your God.

27 And ye murmured in your tents, and said, Because the Lord our God hath said, We will go up and fight against the land of Egypt, to deliver us into the hands of the Amorites, to destroy us:

28 We will not go up, because the people is greater and taller than we, the cities are great and walled up to heaven, and moreover we have seen the bones of the Amalekites there.

29 Then I said unto you, Dread not, neither be afraid of them.

30 The Lord our God which goeth before you, he shall fight for you, according to all that he did for you in Egypt before your eyes.

31 And in the wilderness, where you have seen how that the Lord our God bare thee as a man doth bear his sonne, in all the way that ye went, until ye came into this place.

32 Yet in this thing ye did not believe the Lord our God.

33 And he said in the day before you to search you out a place to pitch your tents in, in fire by night to show you by what way ye should go, and in a cloud by day.

34 And though our God heard the voice of your words, and was wroth, and swore, saying,

35 Surely there shall not one of these men of this evil generation see that good land, which I swore to give unto your fathers:

36 Save Caleb the sonne of Iep'hunnah, he shall see it, and to him will I give the land that he hath troden upon, and to his children, because he hath wholly followed me.

37 Also the Lord our God was angry with me for your sakes, saying, Thou also shalt not go in thither.

38 But Joshua the sonne of Nun, which standeth before thee, he shall go in thither. Encourage him, for he shall cause Israel to inherit it.

39 Moreover, your little ones, which ye said should be a prey, and your children which in that day had no knowledge between good and evil, they shall go in thither, and unto them will I give it, and they shall possess it.

40 But as for you, turn ye, and take your journey into the wilderness, by the way of the Red sea.

41 Then ye answered and said unto me, We have sinned against the Lord our God: we will go up and fight according to all that the Lord our God commanded us. And when ye had given me every man his weapons of war, ye were ready to go up into the hill.

42 And the Lord our God said unto me, Say unto them, Do not go up, neither fight, for I am not among you; lest ye be smitten before your enemies.

43 So I spake unto you, as ye would not hear, but rebelled against the commandment of the Lord our God, and went presumptuously up into the hill.

44 And the Amorites which dwelt in that mountain, came out against you, and chased you as bees do, and destroyed you in Sicon unto Hormah.

45 And ye returned and tarried before the Lord; but the Lord our God would not hear unto your voice, nor give ear unto you.

46 So ye abode in Radesh many days, according unto the days that ye abode there.

CHAP. II.

1 The forty which went with you to search the land, returned, and said unto the whole congregation, We have sinned against the Lord, for we have not kept the commandment of the Lord our God, who said unto us, We will not go up into the land, because the people is greater and taller than we, the cities are walled up to heaven, and we have seen the bones of the Amalekites there.

2 Then we turned and said unto our journey into the wilderness, by the way of the Red sea, as 30 But Sihon king of Deshdon would not let us passe by him: for the Lord thy God hardened his spirit, and made his heart obstinate, that he might deliver him into thy hand, as appeareth this day.

31 And the Lord said unto me, Behold, I have begun to give Sihon and his land before thee: begin to possess, that thou mayest inherit his land.

all his people, to fight at Jahaz.

33 And the Lord our God delivered him before us, and we smote him, and his sons, and all his people.

34 And we took all his cities at that time, and utterly destroyed the men, and the women, and the little ones of every city, we left none to remain :

35 Only the cattell we took for a prey unto our selves, and the spoil of the citie which we took.

36 From Arzer, which is by the brink of the river of Arnon, and from the cite that is by the river, even unto Gilad, there was not any cite too strong for us: the Lord our God delivered all untous.

5 All these cities were fenced with high walls, gates and battens, before unwallied toward a great many.

6 And we utterly destroyed them, as we did unto Sihon king of Heshbon, utterly destroying the men, women, and children of every city.

7 But all the cattell, and the spoil of the cities, we took for a prey to our selves.

8 And we took at that time out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites, the land that was on this side Jordan, from the river of Arnon unto mount Seir.

9 (Which Hermon the Sidonians call Sirion: and the Amorites call it Shenir.)

10 All the cities of the plain, and all Oulead, and all Bashan, unto Salehah and Qaid, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan:

11 For onely Og king of Bashan remained of the remnant of giants: behold, his bedstead was a bedstead of iron: is it not in Rabbah of the children of Ammon? nine cubits was the length thereof, and four cubits the breadth of it, after the cubit of a man.

13 And the rest of Oulead, and all Bashan, being the kingdom of Og, gave I unto the half-tribe of Manasse, all the region of Argob, with all Bashan, which was called the land of giants.

14 For the house of Manasse took all the country of Argob, unto the coasts of Geshur, and Bashath, and called them after his own name, Bashan-havoth-jair, unto this day.

15 And I gave Oulead unto Gad.

16 And unto the Reubenites, and unto the Gadites, I gave from Oulead even unto the river Arnon, half the valley, and the border, even unto the river Jabbok, which is the border of the children of Ammon:

17 The plain also, and Jordan, and the coast thereof, from Chinnereth even unto the sea of the plain, even the salt sea, I under Ashdod Phigab and under the springs of salt-water.

18 And I commanded you at that time, saying, The L^o & w^o your God hath given you this land to possess it: ye shall pass over armed before your brethren the children of Israel, all that are I meet for the warre.

Num. 33.17

21 And I commanded Josiah at that time, saying, Mine eyes have seen all that the L^o & w^o your God hath done unto these two kings: so shall the L^o & w^o be unto all the kingdoms whither thou shalt go.

22 Ye shall not fear them: for the L^o & w^o your God be shall fight for you.

23 And I delivered the L^o & w^o to the king, saying,

24 O Lord God, thou hast begun to shew thy servant thy greatness, and the mighty hand, for what God is there in heaven or earth, that can do according to thy works, and according to thy might?

25 I pray thee let me go over, and see the good land that is beyond Jordan, that goodly mountain, and Lebanon.

26 But the L^o & w^o * told Moyses with me say, * your lakes, and would not hear me: and the L^o & w^o said unto me, Let it suffice thee, thou art no more unto me of this matter.

1 An exhortation to obedience. 21 Moses appeareth the three cities of refuge on that side Jordan.

NOW therefore hearken, O Israel, unto the statutes, and unto the judgements which I teach you, for to do them, that ye may live and go in and possess the land which the L^o & w^o God of your fathers giveth you.

5 Behold, I have taught you statutes and judgements, even as the L^o & w^o my God commanded me, that ye should do so in the land whither ye go to possess it.

6 Keep therefore, and do them, for this is your wisdom, and your understanding in the sight of the nations, which shall hear all these statutes, and say, Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.

7 For what nation is there so great, who hath God so nigh unto them, as the L^o & w^o our God is in all things that he call upon him for?

8 And what nation is there so great, that hath statutes and judgements so righteous, as all these laws which I set before you this day?

9 Duly take heed to thy self, and keep thy duty diligently, lest thou forget the things which thine eyes have seen, and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life: but teach them thy wives, and thy young men.

10 Specially the day that thou shalt depart the L^o & w^o thy God in Horeb, when the L^o & w^o said unto me, Gather me the people together, and I will make them hear my words, that they may learn to fear me: all the days that they shall live upon the earth, and that they may teach their children.

13 And the Lord commanded me at that time, to teach you statutes and judgments, that ye might do them in the land whither ye go over to possess it.

14 And the Lord commanded me at that time, to teach you statutes and judgments, that ye might do them in the land whither ye go over to possess it.

15 Take ye therefore good heed unto your selves (for ye saw no manner of similitude on the day that the Lord spake unto you in Horeb, out of the midst of the fire)

16 Lest ye corrupt your selves, and make you a graven image, the similitude of any figure, the likeness of male or female,

17 The likeness of any beast that is on the earth, the likeness of any winged fowl that flieth in the aire,

18 The likeness of any thing that creepeth on the ground, the likeness of any fish that is in the waters beneath the earth:

19 And lest thou lift up thine eyes unto heaven, and when thou seest the sunne, and the moon, and the starres, even all the host of heaven, shouldest be driven to worship them, and serve them, which the Lord thy God hath divided unto all nations under the whole heaven.

20 But the Lord hath taken you and brought you forth out of the iron furnace, even out of Egypt, to be unto him a people of inheritance, as ye are this day.

21 Furthermore, the Lord was angry with me for your sakes, and saith that I should not go over Jordan, and that I should not go in unto that good land which the Lord thy God giveth thee for an inheritance.

22 But I must die in this land, I must not go over Jordan: but ye shall go over and possess that good land.

23 Take heed unto your selves, lest ye forget the covenant of the Lord your God, which he made with you, and make you a graven image, or the likeness of any thing which the Lord thy God hath forbidden thee.

24 For the Lord thy God is a consuming fire, even a jealous God.

25 When thou shalt beget children, and childrens children, and shalt have remained long in the land, and shalt count your selves, and make a graven image, or the likeness of any thing, and shall be wile in the sight of the Lord thy God, to provoke him to anger:

26 I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that ye shall soon utterly perish from off the land, whither ye go over Jordan to possess it: ye shall not prolong your dayes upon it, but shall utterly be destroyed.

27 And the Lord shall scatter you among the nations, and ye shall be left few in number among the heathen, whither the Lord shall lead you.

28 And there ye shall serve gods the work of mens hands, wood and stone, which neither see, nor heare, nor eat, nor smell.

29 But if from thence thou shalt seek the Lord thy God, thou shalt finde him, if thou seek him with all the heart, and with all thy soul.

30 When thou art in tribulation, and all these things shall come upon thee, even in the latter dayes, if thou turn to the Lord thy God, and shalt be obedient unto his voice:

31 (For the Lord thy God is a mercifull

God) he will not forsake thee, neither will he forget the covenant of the fathers, which he swore unto them.

32 For ask now of the dayes that are past, which were before thee, since the day that God created man upon the earth, and ask from the one side of heaven unto the other, whether there hath been any such thing as this great thing is, or hath been heard like it.

33 Did ever people heare the voice of God speaking out of the midst of the fire, as thou hast heard, and live?

34 Or hath God assayed to go, and take him a nation from the midst of another nation, by temptations, by signes, and by wonders, and by warre, and by a mighty hand, and by a stretched out arm, and by great terrours, according to all that the Lord your God did for you in Egypt before your eyes?

35 Unto thee it was shewed, that thou mightest know that the Lord thy God is God: there is none else besides him.

36 Out of heaven he made thee to heare his voice, that he might instruct thee: and upon earth he shewed thee his great fire, and thou heardest his words out of the midst of the fire.

37 And because he loved the fathers, therefore he chose their seed after them, and brought thee out in his sight with his mighty power out of Egypt:

38 To drive out nations from before thee, greater and mightier than thou art, to bring thee in to give thee their land for an inheritance, as it is this day.

39 Know therefore this day, and consider it in thine heart, that the Lord thy God is God in heaven above, and upon the earth beneath: there is none else.

40 Thou shalt keep therefore his statutes, and his commandments, which I command thee this day, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy dayes upon the earth, which the Lord thy God giveth thee for ever.

41 ¶ Then Moses severed three cities on this side Jordan, toward the sunne rising:

42 That the slayer might flee thither, which should kill his neighbour unawares, and hated him not in times past; and that fleeing unto one of these cities, he might live:

43 Namely, Bezer in the wilderness, in the plain-country, of the Reubenites; and Ramoth in Gilead, of the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan, of the Manassites.

44 ¶ And this is the law which Moses set before the children of Israel:

45 These are the testimonies, and the statutes, and the judgments, which Moses spake unto the children of Israel, after they came forth out of Egypt:

46 ¶ On this side Jordan in the halley over against Beth-peor, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel slew (more, after they were come forth out of Egypt):

47 And they possessed his land, and the land of Og king of Bashan, two kings of the Amorites, which were on this side Jordan, toward the sunne rising:

48 From Arer, which is by the bank of the river Arnon, even unto mount Sion, which is Permon.

49 And all the plain on this side Jordan eastward, even unto the sea of the plain, under the springs of Salt.

CHAP. V.

1 The covenant in Horeb. 6 The ten commandments.
2 At the peoples request Moses receiveth the Law from God.

And Moses called all Israel, and said unto them, Hear, O Israel, the statutes and judgments which I speak in your ears this day, that ye may learn them, and keep and do them.

3 The Lord our God made a covenant with us in Horeb.

4 The Lord our God made not this covenant with our fathers, but with us, even us, who are all of us here alive this day.

5 The Lord our God talked with you face to face in the mount, out of the midst of the fire,

6 I stood between the Lord our God and you at that time, to shew you the word of the Lord our God: for ye were afraid by reason of the fire, and went not up into the mount, saying,

7 I am the Lord our God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

8 Thou shalt have none other gods before me.

9 Thou shalt not make thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the waters beneath the earth.

10 Thou shalt not bow down thy self unto them, nor serve them: for I the Lord our God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me.

11 And shewing mercy unto thousands, of them that love me and keep my commandments.

12 Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord our God in vain: for the Lord our God will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

13 Keep the sabbath day to sanctifie it, as the Lord our God hath commanded thee.

14 Six dayes thou shalt labour, and do all thy work:

15 But the seventh day is the sabbath of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy sonne, nor thy daughter, nor thy manservant, nor thy maidservant, nor thine ox, nor thine ass, nor any of thy cattell, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates: that thy manservant and thy maidservant may rest as well as thou.

16 And remember that thou wast a servant in the land of Egypt, and that the Lord our God brought thee out thence, through a mighty hand, and by a stretched out arm: therefore the Lord our God commanded thee to keep the sabbath day.

17 Honour thy father and thy mother, as the Lord our God hath commanded thee: that thy dayes may be prolonged, and that it may go well with thee in the land which the Lord our God giveth thee.

18 Thou shalt not kill.

19 Neither shalt thou commit adultery.

20 Neither shalt thou steal.

21 Neither shalt thou bear false witness against thy neighbour.

22 Neither shalt thou desire thy neighbours wife, neither shalt thou covet thy neighbours house, his field, or his manservant, or his maidservant, his ox, or his ass, or any thing that is the neighbours.

23 These words the Lord our God spake unto all your assembly in the mount out of the midst of the fire, of the cloud, and of the thick darkness, with a great voice, and he added no more, and he wrote them in two tables of stone, and delivered them unto me.

24 And it came to pass when ye heard the voice of the Lord out of the midst of the fire, that ye came together unto me, even all the heads of your tribes, and your elders.

25 And ye said, Behold, the Lord our God hath shewed us his glory, and his greatness, and we have heard his voice out of the midst of the fire: now therefore we will be obedient to all that the Lord our God shall say.

26 For who is there of all flesh that hath heard the voice of the living God, speaking out of the midst of the fire (as we have), and lived?

27 Go thou near, and bring all that the Lord our God shall say, and speak thou unto us all that the Lord our God shall speak unto thee, and we will hear it, and do it.

28 And the Lord said unto me, I have heard the voice of the people, which they have spoken unto thee: they have well said all that they have spoken.

29 O that there were such a heart in them, that they would fear me, and keep all my commandments alwayes, that it might be well with them, and with their children for ever.

30 So say to them, O ye people, which ye have heard the voice of the Lord our God, speaking out of the midst of the fire, saying, I will be obedient to all that the Lord our God shall say, and I will hear his voice, and do it.

31 Ye shall observe to do whatsoever the Lord our God hath commanded you: you shall not turn aside to the right hand, or to the left.

32 You shall walk in all the wayes which the Lord our God hath commanded you, that ye may live, and that it may be well with you, and that ye may prolong your dayes in the land which ye shall possess.

CHAP. VI.

1 The end of the law is obedience. 3 An exhortation thereto.

Now these are the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments which the Lord our God commanded to reach you, that ye might do them in the land whither ye go to possess it.

2 I have now mightily feared the Lord our God, over to keep all his statutes, and his commandments which I command thee, thou, and thy sonne, and thy sonnes sonne, all the dayes of thy life, and that thy dayes may be prolonged.

3 Hear therefore, O Israel, and observe to do it, that it may be well with thee, and that ye may increase mightily, as the Lord our God of thy fathers hath promised thee in the land that floweth with milk and honey.

4 Hear, O Israel, The Lord our God is one Lord.

5 And thou shalt love the Lord our God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might.

6 And these words which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart.

7 And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

17 Thou shalt not be affrighted at them: for the Lord is thy God is among you, a mighty God and terrible.

18 And the Lord thy God will put out those nations before thee by little and little: thou mayest not consume them at once, lest the beasts of the field increase upon thee.

19 But the Lord thy God shall deliver them: and thou shalt destroy them with a mighty destruction, until they be destroyed.

20 And he shall deliver their kings into thine hand, and thou shalt destroy their name from under heaven: there shall no man be able to stand before thee, until thou have destroyed them.

21 The graven images of their gods shall ye burn with fire: thou shalt not desire the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it unto thee, lest thou be snared therein: for it is an abomination to the Lord thy God.

22 Neither shalt thou bring an abomination into thy house, lest thou be a cursed thing like it: but thou shalt utterly detest it, and thou shalt utterly abhor it, for it is a cursed thing.

CHAP. VIII.

1 An exhortation to obedience in regard of Gods dealing with them.

ALL the commandments which I command thee this day, shall ye observe to do, that ye may live and multiply, and go in and possess the land which the Lord swore unto your fathers.

2 And thou shalt remember all the way which the Lord thy God led thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee, and to prove thee, to know what was in thine heart, whether thou wouldest keep his commandments, or no.

3 And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with manna, which thou knewest not, neither did the fathers know: that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread only, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of the Lord thy God.

4 The garment was not old upon thee, neither did the foot swell these forty years.

5 Thou shalt also consider in thine heart, that as a man chafeth his horse, so the Lord thy God chafeth thee.

6 Therefore thou shalt keep the commandments of the Lord thy God, to walk in his ways, and to fear him.

7 For the Lord thy God bringeth thee into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains, and depths that spring out of valleys and hills.

8 A land of wheat, and barley, and vines, and fig-trees, and pomegranates, a land of oil-olive, and honey.

9 A land wherein thou shalt eat bread without scarceness, thou shalt not lack any thing in it: a land whose rivers are iron, and out of whose hills thou shalt dig brass.

10 When thou hast eaten and art full, then thou shalt bless the Lord thy God, for the good land which he hath given thee.

11 Beware that thou forget not the Lord thy God, in not keeping his commandments, and his judgments, and his statutes, which I command thee this day.

12 Lest when thou hast eaten and art full, and hast built goodly houses, and dwelt therein;

13 And when thy herds and thy flocks multiply, and thy silver and thy gold is multiplied, and all that thou hast is multiplied;

14 When thine heart be lifted up, and thou forget the Lord thy God (which brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage);

15 And he let thee through that great and terrible wilderness, wherein were fiery serpents, and scorpions, and drought, where there was no water: who brought thee forth water out of the rock of flint;

16 And he fed thee in the wilderness with manna, which thy fathers knew not, that he might humble thee, and that he might prove thee, to do thee good at thy latter end.

17 And thou say in thine heart, My power and the might of my hand hath gotten me this wealth.

18 But thou shalt remember the Lord thy God: for it is he that giveth thee power to get wealth, that he may establish his covenant, which he swore unto thy fathers, as it is this day.

19 And it shall be, if thou do at all forget the Lord thy God, and walk after other gods, and serve them, and worship them, I will resist against you this day, that ye shall surely perish.

20 As the nations which the Lord destroyeth before your face, so shall ye perish: because ye would not be obedient unto the voice of the Lord your God.

CHAP. IX.

1 Moses dissuadeth them from the opinion of their own righteousness, by rehearsing their several rebellions.

Hear, O Israel: thou art to pass over Jordan this day, to go in to possess nations greater and mightier than thy self, cities great and fenced up to heaven.

2 A people great and tall, the children of the Anakims, whom thou knowest: and of whom thou hast heard say, Who can stand before the children of Anak?

3 Understand therefore this day, that the Lord thy God is he which goeth over before thee as a consuming fire: he shall destroy them, and he shall bring them down before thy face: so shalt thou drive them out, and destroy them utterly, as the Lord hath said unto thee.

4 Speak not hard in thine heart, after that the Lord thy God hath said unto thee, saying, For my righteousness the Lord hath brought me in to possess this land: but for the wickedness of these nations the Lord hath driven them out from before thee.

5 Not for thy righteousness, or for thy uprightness of thine heart hast thou gone to possess this land: but for the wickedness of these nations the Lord thy God hath driven them out from before thee, and that he may perform the word which the Lord swore unto thy fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

6 Understand therefore, that the Lord thy God giveth thee not this good land to possess it, for thy righteousness; for thou art a stiffnecked people.

7 Remember, and forget not how thou provokedst the Lord thy God to wrath in the wilderness from the day that thou didst depart out of the land of Egypt, until ye came unto this place, ye have been rebellious against the Lord.

8 Also in Horeb ye provoked the Lord to wrath, so that the Lord was angry with you, so have destroyed you.

9 When I was gone up into the mount to receive the tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant which the Lord made with you, there

and 34, 28.

* Exodus 32, 38. 10 And the L^o & M^o said unto me, * Arise, get thee down quickly from hence: for the people which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt, have corrupted themselves: they are quickly turned aside out of the way which I commanded them; they have made them a molten image.

11 And it came to pass at the end of fourty dayes and fourty nightes, that the L^o & M^o gave me the two tables of stone, even the tables of the covenant.

* Exodus 32, 7. 12 And the L^o & M^o said unto me, * Arise, get thee down quickly from hence: for the people which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt, have corrupted themselves: they are quickly turned aside out of the way which I commanded them; they have made them a molten image.

13 Furthermore, the L^o & M^o spake unto me, saying, I have seen this people, and behold, it is a stiff-necked people.

14 Let me alone, that I may destroy them, and blot out their name from under heaven: and I will make of thee a nation ingrate and greater than they.

15 So I turned and came down from the mount, and the mount burned with fire; and the two tables of the covenant were in my two hands.

16 And I looked, and behold, ye had sinned against the L^o & M^o your God, and had made you a molten calf: ye had turned aside quickly out of the way which the L^o & M^o had commanded you.

17 And I took the two tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and brake them before your eyes.

18 And I fell down before the L^o & M^o, as at the first, fourty dayes and fourty nightes. I did neither eat bread nor drink water, because of all your sinnes which ye sinned, in doing unfaithfully in the sight of the L^o & M^o, to provoke him to anger.

19 For I was afraid of the anger, and hot displeasure, wherewith the L^o & M^o was wroth against you to destroy you. But the L^o & M^o was gracious unto me at that time also.

20 And the L^o & M^o was very angry with Aaron to have destroyed him: and I prayed for Aaron also the same time.

21 And I took your sinne, the calf which ye had made, and burnt it with fire, and stamped it, and ground it very small, even untill it was as dust or mud: and I cast the dust thereof into the brook that descended out of the mount.

* Numbers 11, 13
* Exodus 17, 7
* Numbers 11, 34. 22 And at * Taberah, and at * Massah, and at * Meribah-kadesh, ye provoked the L^o & M^o to wrath.

23 Therefore when the L^o & M^o sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, Go up and possess the land which I have given you: then ye rebelled against the commandment of the L^o & M^o your God, who ye despised him not, nor hearkened to his voice.

24 You have been rebellious against the L^o & M^o, from the day that I knew you.

25 Thus I fell down before the L^o & M^o fourty dayes and fourty nightes, as I fell down at the first, because the L^o & M^o had said he would destroy you.

26 I prayed therefore unto the L^o & M^o, and said, O L^o & M^o, destroy not thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed through thy greatness, which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

27 Remember thy servants, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, look not unto the iniquity of thy people, nor to their iniquity, nor to their sinne; 28 Let the Lord therefore thou bringst us out, say, * Because the L^o & M^o was not able to bring them into the land which he promised them, because he hated them, he hath brought them out to slay them in the wilderness.

29 Yet they are thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest out of the mighty power, and by thy stretched out arm.

CHAPTER X.

1 Gods mercy in restoring the two tables, & in continuing the priesthood, & in separating the tribe of Levi, 10 in hearkning unto Moses his suit for the people. 12 An exhortation unto obedience.

And that time the L^o & M^o said unto me, * Behold, these two tables of stone, like unto the first, and come up unto me into the mount, and make thee an ark of wood.

2 And I will write on the tables the twain that were in the first tables which thou hast broken, and thou shalt put them in the ark.

3 And I made an ark of sycamore wood, and hewed two tables of stone like unto the first, and tomt up into the mount, having the two tables in mine hand.

4 And he wrote on the tables, according to the first writing, the ten commandments, which the L^o & M^o spake unto you in the mount, out of the midst of the fire, in the day of the assembly: and the L^o & M^o gave them unto me.

5 And I turned my self and came down from the mount, and put the tables in the ark which I had made, and there they be, as the L^o & M^o commanded me.

6 ¶ And the children of Israel took their journey from Beeroth of the children of Baanah, to * Holers: * there Aaron died, and there he was buried: and Eleazar his son ministered in the priests office in his stead.

7 From thence they journeyed unto Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Iotbad, a land of rivers of waters.

8 ¶ At that time the L^o & M^o separated the tribe of Levi, to bear the ark of the covenant of the L^o & M^o, to stand before the L^o & M^o to minister unto him, and to bless in his name, unto this day.

9 * Therefore Levi hath no part nor inheritance with his brethren: the L^o & M^o is his inheritance, according as the L^o & M^o thy God promised him.

10 And I stayed in the mount, according to the first time, fourty dayes and fourty nightes, and the L^o & M^o hearkened unto me at that time also, and the L^o & M^o would not destroy thee.

11 And the L^o & M^o said unto me, Arise, take thy journey before the people, that they may go in, and possess the land which I swore unto thy fathers to give unto them.

12 ¶ And now Israel, what doth the L^o & M^o thy God require of thee, but to fear the L^o & M^o thy God, to walk in all his wayes, and to love him, and to serve the L^o & M^o thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, 13 To keep the commandments of the L^o & M^o, and his statutes which I command thee this day for thy good?

14 Behold the heaven, and the heaven of heavens is the L^o & M^os thy God, the earth also with all that therein is.

15 Surely the L^o & M^o had a delight in the fathers to love them, and he chose their seed after them, even you above all people, as it is this day.

16 Circumcise therefore the foreskinne of your heart, and be no more stiff-necked.

17 For the L^o ^{is} to your God is God of gods, and Lord of lords, a great God, a mighty, and a terrible, which¹ regarded not persons, nor took reward.

18 He doth execute the judgement of the fatherless and widow, and loveth the stranger, in giving him food and raiment.

19 Love ye therefore the stranger: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

20 Thou shalt fear the L^o ^{is} to thy God; him shalt thou serve, and to him shalt thou cleave, and cleave by his name.

21 He is thy praise, and he is thy God: he hath done for thee these great & terrible things, which thine eyes have seen.

22 Thy fathers went down into Egypt with thee: and thou shalt see that as the stars of heaven so many shall be.

CHAP. XI.

I An exhortation to obedience, by their own experience of Gods great works, 8 by promise of Gods great blessings, 16 and by threatnings. 18 A careful study is required in Gods words, 26 The blessing and curse is set before them.

Therefore thou shalt love the L^o ^{is} to thy God, and keep his charge, and his statutes, and his judgements, and his commandments always.

2 And know you this day: for I speak not unto your children which have not known, and which have not seen the chastisement of the L^o ^{is} to your God, his greatness, his mighty hand, and his stretched out arm,

3 And his miracles, and his acts which he did in the midst of Egypt, unto Pharaoh the king of Egypt, and unto all his land.

4 And what he did unto the army of Egypt, unto their hostes, and to their chariots, how he made the water of the Red sea to overflow them, as they pursued after you, and how the L^o ^{is} to hath delivered them unto this day.

5 And what he did unto you in the wilderness, until ye came into this place.

6 And what he did unto Dathan & Abiram, the sons of Eliab, the sonne of Reuben: how the earth opened her mouth and swallowed them up, and their households, and their tents, and all the substance that was in their possession in the midst of all Israel.

7 But your eyes have seen all the great acts of the L^o ^{is} to, which he did.

8 Therefore shall ye keep all the commandments which I command you this day, that ye may be strong, and go in, and possess the land which ye go to possess it.

9 And that ye may prolong your days in the land which the L^o ^{is} to hath sworn unto your fathers to give unto them, and to their seed, a land that floweth with milk and honey.

10 ¶ For the land which thou goest in to possess it, is not as the land of Egypt, from whence ye came out, where thou sowest thy seed, and watered it with thy foot, as a garden of herbs:

11 But the land which ye go to possess it, is a land of hills and valleys, and drinketh waters of the rain of heaven:

12 A land which the L^o ^{is} to thy God hath given thee: for the eyes of the L^o ^{is} to thy God are always upon it, from the beginning of the year, even unto the end of the year.

13 ¶ And it shall come to passe, if you shall hearken diligently unto my commandments which I command you this day, to love the L^o ^{is} to your God, and to serve him with all your heart, and with all your soul;

14 That I will give you the rain of your land in his due season, the first rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oyl.

15 And I will send grass in thy fields, for thy cattle, that thou mayest eat and be full.

16 Take heed to your selves, that your heart be not deceived, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them:

17 And then the L^o ^{is} to will be wroth be kindled against you, and he shut up the heaven that there be no rain, and that the land yield not her fruit, and lest ye perish quickly from off the good land which the L^o ^{is} to giveth you.

18 ¶ Therefore shall ye lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, that they may be as frontiers between your eyes.

19 ¶ And ye shall teach them your children, speaking of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, when thou liest down, and when thou risest up.

20 And thou shalt write them upon thy doors, posts of thine house, and upon the gates:

21 That your days may be multiplied, and the days of your children, in the land which the L^o ^{is} to hath sworn unto your fathers to give them, all the days of heaven upon the earth.

22 ¶ For if ye shall diligently keep all these commandments which I command you to do them, to love the L^o ^{is} to your God, to walk in all his wayes, and to cleave unto him;

23 Then will the L^o ^{is} to multiply out all these nations from before you; and ye shall possess greater nations, and mightier then your selves.

24 ¶ Every place whither the soles of your feet shall tread, shall be yours: from the wilderness, and Lebanon, from the river the river Euphrates, even unto the uttermost sea, shall your coasts be.

25 Where shall no man be able to stand before you: for the L^o ^{is} to your God shall lay the fear of you, and the dread of you upon all the land that ye shall tread upon, as he hath said unto you.

26 ¶ Behold, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse:

27 ¶ A blessing, if ye obey the commandments of the L^o ^{is} to your God which I command you this day:

28 And a curse, if ye will not obey the commandments of the L^o ^{is} to your God, but turn aside one of the way which I command you this day, to go after other gods which ye have not known.

29 And it shall come to passe when the L^o ^{is} to your God hath brought thee in unto the land which thou goest to possess it, that thou shalt see the blessing upon many nations, and the curse upon thee.

30 Are they not on the other side the Jordan, by the way where the Amorites dwell, in the land of the Canaanites, which shall be for an ever against you, because the ye shall not obey?

31 For ye shall pass over Jordan to go in to possess the land which the L^o ^{is} to your God hath sworn unto your fathers to give unto you, and ye shall possess it and dwell therein.

32 And ye shall observe to do all the commandments and judgements which I set before you this day.

24 And if the way be too long for thee, (in that thou art not able to carry it, or if the place be too farre from thee, which the Lord thy God shall choose to let his name there, when the Lord thy God hath blessed thee:

25 Then shalt thou turn it into money, and binde up the money in thine hand, and shalt go unto the place which the Lord thy God shall choose.

26 And thou shalt bestow that money for whatsoever thy soul lusteth after, for oxen, or for sheep, or for wine, or for strong drink, or for whatsoever thy soul desireth: and thou shalt eat there before the Lord thy God, and thou shalt rejoyce, thou and thine household.

29 And the Levite (because he hath no part nor inheritance with thee) and the stranger, and the fatherlesse, and the widow, which are within thy gates, shall come, and shall eat and be satisfied: that the Lord thy God may bless thee in all the work of thine hand which thou doest.

CHAP. XV.

¶ The seventh yeare a yeare of release for the poore. 7 It must be no let of lending or giving. 12 An Hebrew servant, 16 except he will not depart, must in the seventh yeare go forth free and well furnished. 19 All firstling males of the cattell are to be sanctified unto the Lord.

* Levit. 25, 34.

At the end of every seven yeares thou shalt make a release.

† Heb. master of the lending of his hand.

1 And this is the manner of the release: Every creditor that lendeth ought unto his neighbour, shall release it, he shall not exact it of his neighbour, or of his brother, because it is called the Lord's year.

2 Of a borrower thou mayest exact it again: but that which is thine with thy brother, thine hand shall release it.

10, to the end that where be no poore among you.

3 Save when there shall be no poore among you: for the Lord thy God shall greatly bless thee in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to possess it:

4 Where if thou carefully hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to observe to do all these commandments which I command thee this day.

* Chap. 28, 12.

5 For the Lord thy God shall bless thee, as he promised thee, and thou shalt lend unto many nations; but thou shalt not borrow; and thou shalt reign over many nations, but they shall not reign over thee.

6 ¶ If there be among you a poore man of one of thy brethren, within any of thy gates, in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not harden thy heart, nor shut thine hand from thy poore brother:

* Mat. 23, 42. Luke 6, 34.

7 But thou shalt open thine hand wide unto him, and shalt surely lend him sufficient for his need, in that which he wanteth.

† Heb. word. † Heb. Bellia.

8 Beware that there be not a thought in thy wicked heart, saying, The seventh yeare, the yeare of release is at hand: and thine eye be evil against thy poore brother, and thou givest him naught, and he cry unto the Lord thy God against thee, and it be sinne unto thee:

9 Thou shalt surely give him, and thine heart shall not be grieved when thou givest unto him:

because that for this thing the Lord thy God shall bless thee in all thy works, and in all that thou puttest thine hand unto.

10 For the poore shall never cease out of the land: therefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt open thine hand wide unto thy brother, to thy poore, and to thy needy, in the land.

11 ¶ And * if thy brother an Hebrew man, or an Hebrew woman, be sold unto thee, and serve thee six yeares; then in the seventh yeare thou shalt let him go free from thee.

Exod. 21, 1-6.

12 And when thou sendest him out free from thee, thou shalt not let him go away empty:

13 Thou shalt furnish him liberally out of thy flock, and out of thy floor, and out of thy wine-press: of that wherewith the Lord thy God hath blessed thee, thou shalt give unto him.

14 And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bond-man in the land of Egypt, and the Lord thy God redeemed thee: therefore I command thee, this thing to do.

15 And it shall be if he say unto thee, I will not go away from thee (because he loveth thee and thine house, because he is well with thee)

16 ¶ Then thou shalt take an aul, and shalt thrust it through his ears unto the doore, and he shall be thy servant for ever: and also unto thy maid-servant thou shalt do likewise.

* Exod. 21, 6.

17 It shall not seem hard unto thee when thou sendest him away free from thee: for he hath been worth a double hired servant to thee, in serving thee six yeares: and the Lord thy God shall bless thee in all that thou doest.

18 ¶ All the firstling males that come of thy herd, and of thy flock, thou shalt sanctify unto the Lord thy God: thou shalt do no work with the firstling of the bullock, nor shear the firstling of thy sheep.

* Exod. 22, 29.

19 Thou shalt eat it before the Lord thy God yeare by yeare, in the place which the Lord thy God shall choose, thou and thy household.

20 ¶ And if there be any blemish therein, as if it be lame, or blinde, or have any ill blemish, thou shalt not sacrifice it unto the Lord thy God.

* Levitic. 22, 17-20.

21 Thou shalt eat it within thy gates: the unclean and the clean person shall eat it alike, as the cocke and as the hart.

22 ¶ Quietly thou shalt not eat the blood thereof: thou shalt pour it upon the ground as water.

¶ The feast of the passover, 13 of tabernacles. 16 Every male must offer, as he is able, at the three feasts. 18 Of judges and justice. 21 Groves and images are forbidden.

Observe the * month of Abib, and keep the passover unto the Lord thy God: for * in the month of Abib the Lord thy God brought thee forth out of Egypt by night.

5 Thou shalt sacrifice the passover within any of the gates, which the Lord is to thy God, which thou shalt.

6 But at the place which the Lord is to thy God shall choose to place his name in, there thou shalt sacrifice the passover at even, at the going down of the sun, at the season that thou comest forth out of Egypt.

7 And thou shalt roast and eat it in the place which the Lord is to thy God shall choose, and thou shalt turn in the morning, and go unto thy tents.

8 Six days thou shalt eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day shall be a solemn assembly to the Lord is to thy God: thou shalt do no work therein.

9 ¶ Seven weeks shalt thou number unto thee: begin to number the seven weeks from such time as thou beginnest to put the sickle to the corn.

10 And thou shalt keep the feast of weeks unto the Lord is to thy God with a tribute of a freewill-offering of thine hand, which thou shalt give unto the Lord thy God, according as the Lord is to thy God hath blessed thee.

11 And thou shalt rejoice before the Lord is to thy God, thou, and thy sonne, and thy daughter, and thy man-servant, and thy maid-servant, and the Levite that is within thy gates, and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are among you, in the place which the Lord is to thy God hath chosen to place his name there.

12 And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bond-man in Egypt: and thou shalt observe and do these statutes.

13 ¶ Thou shalt observe the feast of tabernacles seven days, after that thou shalt gathered in thy corn, and thy wine.

14 And thou shalt rejoice in thy feast, thou, and thy sonne, and thy daughter, and thy man-servant, and thy maid-servant, and the Levite, the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are within thy gates.

15 Seven days shalt thou keep a solemn feast unto the Lord is to thy God, in the place which the Lord is to shall choose: because the Lord is to thy God shall bless thee in all thy increase, and in all the works of thine hands, therefore thou shalt surely rejoice.

16 ¶ Three times in a yeare shall all thy males appear before the Lord is to thy God, in the place which he shall choose: in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles: and they shall not appear before the Lord is to empty.

17 Every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the Lord is to thy God which he hath given thee.

18 Judges and officers shall thou make thee in all thy gates which the Lord is to thy God giveth thee throughout thy tribes: and they shall judge the people with just judgement.

19 Thou shalt not wrest judgement, thou shalt not respect persons, neither take a gift: for a gift doth blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous.

20 ¶ What which is altogether just shalt thou follow, that thou mayest love, and inherit the land which the Lord is to thy God giveth thee.

21 ¶ Thou shalt not plant thee a grove of any trees near unto the altar of the Lord is to thy God, which thou shalt make thee.

22 ¶ Neither shalt thou let thee up any images, which the Lord is to thy God hath.

1 The things sacrificed must be sound. 2 Idolatry must be slain. 3 Hard controversies are to be determined by the priests and judges. 4 The consumer of that determination must die. 5 The election, 16 and duty of a king.

Thou shalt not sacrifice unto the Lord is to thy God any bullock, or sheep, wherein is blemish, or any evil-labouredness: for that is an abomination unto the Lord is to thy God.

2 ¶ If there be found among you within any of the gates which the Lord is to thy God giveth thee, man or woman that hath wrought wickedness in the sight of the Lord is to thy God, in transgressing his covenant,

3 And hath gone and served other gods, and worshipped them, either the sun, or moon, or any of the host of heaven, which I have not commanded;

4 And it be told thee, and thou shalt heard of it, and enquired diligently, and behold, it be true, and the thing certain, that such abomination is wrought in Israel:

5 Then shalt thou bring forth that man or that woman (which have committed that wicked thing) unto the gates, even that man or that woman, and shalt stone them with stones, till they die.

6 ¶ At the mouth of two witnesses, or three witnesses, shall be that is worthy of death, be put to death; but at the mouth of one witness he shall not be put to death.

7 The hands of the witnesses shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterwards the hands of all the people: so thou shalt put the evil away from among you.

8 ¶ If there arise a matter too hard for thee in judgement, between blood and blood, between plea and plea, and between stroke and stroke, being matters of controversy within thy gates, thou shalt thou arise, and get thee up into the place which the Lord is to thy God shall choose;

9 And thou shalt come unto the priests the Levites, and unto the judge that shall be in those days, and enquire; and they shall shew thee the sentence of judgement.

10 And thou shalt do according to the sentence which they of that place (which the Lord is to shall choose) shall shew thee, and thou shalt observe in all according to all that they enjoin thee:

11 According to the sentence of the law which they shall teach thee, and according to the judgement which they shall tell thee thou shalt do: thou shalt not decline from the sentence which they shall shew thee, to the right hand nor to the left.

12 And the man that will do presumptuously, and will not hearken unto the priest (that standeth to minister there before the Lord is to thy God) or unto the judge, even that man shall die: and thou shalt put away the evil from Israel.

13 And all the people shall hear, and fear, and do no more presumptuously.

14 ¶ When thou art come unto the land which the Lord is to thy God giveth thee, and shalt possess it, and shalt dwell therein, and shalt say, I will set a king over me, like as all the nations that are about me:

15 Thou shalt in any wise let him king over thee whom the Lord is to thy God shall choose: one from among thy brethren shalt thou let king over thee: thou mayest not set a stranger over thee, which is not thy brother.

16 But he shall not multiply horses to himself, nor cause the people to return to Egypt, to the end that he should multiply his: so much as the Lord is to you, as he shall hear you, so he shall hear you, as he shall hear you, as he shall hear you.

17 Neither shall he multiply wives to himself, that his heart turn not away: neither shall he greatly multiply to himself silver and gold.

18 And it shall be when he siteth upon the throne of his kingdom, that he shall write him a copy of this law in a book, out of that which is before the priests the Levites.

19 And it shall be with him, and he shall read therein all the days of his life: that he may learn to fear the Lord his God, to keep all the words of this law, and these statutes, to do them:

20 That his heart be not lifted up above his brethren, and that he turn not aside from the commandments to the right hand or to the left: to the one that he may prolong his days in his kingdom; he, and his children in the midst of Israel.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 The Lord is the priests and Levites inheritance. 2 The priests due. 3 The Levites portion. 4 The abominations of the nations are to be avoided. 5 Christ the prophet is to be heard. 20 The presumptuous prophet is to die.

The priests the Levites, and all the tribe of Levi, shall have no part nor inheritance with Israel: they shall eat the offerings of the Lord, as he hath said unto them.

2 Therefore shall they have no inheritance among their brethren: the Lord is their inheritance, as he hath said unto them.

3 And this shall be due from the people, from them that offer a sacrifice, whether it be ox or sheep; and they shall give unto the priest the shoulder, and the two cheeks, and the maw.

4 The first fruit also of the corn, of the wine, and of the oil, and the first of the fleece of the sheep shall thou give him.

5 For the Lord is thy God, hath chosen him out of all thy tribes, to stand to minister in the name of the Lord, him and his sons for ever.

6 And if a Levite come from any of thy gates out of all Israel, where he sojourneth, and come with all the desire of his mind unto the place, whither the Lord is to dwell, shall he choose.

7 Then he shall minister in the name of the Lord, as he hath said, as all his brethren the Levites do, which stand there before the Lord.

8 They shall have like portions to eat, beside that which cometh of the sale of their patrimony.

9 And when thou art come into the land which the Lord is to thy God, thou shalt not learn to do after the abominations of those nations.

10 Where shall not be found among you any one that maketh his son, or his daughter, to pass through the fire, or that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter, or a witch,

11 Or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer.

12 For all that do these things are an abomination unto the Lord, and because of these abominations, the Lord is to thy God, hath said, that thou shalt not do them.

13 Thou shalt be a perfect man, the Lord is to thy God.

14 For these nations which thou shalt possess, hearken unto observers of times, and unto diviners: but as for thee, the Lord is to thy God, hath said, that thou shalt not do so.

15 And the Lord is to thy God, hath said, that thou shalt not do so, as the nations which thou shalt possess, hearken unto observers of times, and unto diviners.

16 According to all that thou hast heard of the Lord is to thy God in Horeb, in the day of the assembly, saying, Let me not hear again the voice of the Lord is to thy God, neither let me see this great fire any more, that I die not.

17 And the Lord is to thy God, hath said, that thou shalt not do so, as the nations which thou shalt possess, hearken unto observers of times, and unto diviners.

18 I will raise them up a prophet from among their brethren, like unto thee, and will put my words in his mouth, and he shall speak unto thee, all that I shall command him.

19 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever will not hearken unto my words which he shall speak in my name, I will require it of him.

20 But the prophet which shall presume to speak a word in my name, which I have not commanded him to speak, or that shall speak in the name of other gods, even that prophet shall die.

21 And if thou say in thine heart, How shall we know the words which the Lord is to thy God, hath said, that thou shalt not do so?

22 When a prophet speaketh in the name of the Lord, if the thing follow not, nor come to pass, that is the thing which the Lord is to thy God, hath said, that thou shalt not do so, but the prophet hath spoken it presumptuously: thou shalt not be afraid of him.

CHAP. XIX.

1 The cities of refuge. 2 The privilege thereof for the man-slayer. 3 The land-mark, a not to be removed. 4 Two witnesses at the least. 5 The punishment of a false witness.

When the Lord is to thy God, hath said, that thou shalt not do so, as the nations which thou shalt possess, hearken unto observers of times, and unto diviners.

2 Thou shalt separate three cities for thee in the midst of the land, which the Lord is to thy God, hath said, that thou shalt not do so.

3 Thou shalt prepare thee a way, and shalt divide the coast of thy land, which the Lord is to thy God, hath said, that thou shalt not do so, into three parts, that every slayer may flee thither.

4 And this is the case of the slayer, which shall flee thither, that he may live: who hath killed his neighbour ignorantly, whom he hated not in time past.

5 As when a man goeth into the wood with his neighbour, to hew wood, and his hand catcheth a stroke with the ax, to cut down the tree, and the hand slipper from the helve, and he lighteth upon his neighbour, that he die; he shall flee unto one of those cities, and live.

6 Let the avenger of the blood pursue the slayer, while his heart is hot, and overtake him, because the day is long, and I say not, that he was not worthy of death, in as much as he hated him not in time past.

7 Wherefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt separate three cities for thee.

8 And if the Lord is to thy God, hath said, that thou shalt not do so, as the nations which thou shalt possess, hearken unto observers of times, and unto diviners.

9 If thou shalt keep all these commandments to do them, which I command thee this day, to love the Lord is to thy God, and to walk in his ways, then shall thou add three cities more for thee, beside these three.

10 That innocent blood be not shed in thy land, which the Lord is to thy God, hath said, that thou shalt not do so.

11 But if any man hate his neighbour, and lie in wait for him, and rise up against him, and strike him; if mortally that he die, and stand into one of these cities:

1 The priests exhortation to encourage the people to battle. 5 The officers proclamation who are to be dismissed from the warre. 10 How to use the cities that accept or refuse the proclamation of peace. 18 What cities must be devoted. 19 Trees of man's weede shall not be destroyed in the siege.

When thou goest out to battell against thine enemies, and flesh horses and chariots, and a people more then thou, be not afraid of them: for the Lord thy God is with thee, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

2 And it shall be when ye are come nigh unto the battell, that the priest shall approach and speak unto the people.

He is ten.

3 And shall say unto them, Heare, O Israel, ye appointed this day unto battell against your enemies: let not your hearts faint, fear not, nor do not be tremble, neither be ye terrified because of them.

4 For the Lord thy God is he that goeth with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to save you.

5 And the officers shall speak unto the people, saying, Whither men is there that hath built a new house, and hath not dedicated it? let him go and return to his house, lest he die in the battell, and another man build it.

He made it.

He made it.

Lev. 19.

6 And what man is he that hath planted a vineyard, and hath not put a fence of it? let him also go and return unto his house, lest he die in the battell, and another man eat of it.

7 And what man is there that hath betrothed a wife, and hath not taken her? let him go and return unto his house, lest he die in battell, and another man take her.

8 And the officers shall speak further unto the people, and they shall say, ¶ And has man is there that is fearful and faint-hearted? let him go and return unto his house, lest his brethren be terrified as well as his heart.

9 And it shall be when the officers have made an end of speaking unto the people, that they shall make captains of the armies, to lead the people.

10 ¶ When thou comest nigh unto a cite to fight against it, then proclaim peace unto it.

11 And it shall be, if it make thee answer of peace, and open unto thee, then it shall be that all the people that is found therein, shall be tributary unto thee, and they shall serve thee.

12 And if it will make no peace with thee, but will make warre against thee, then thou shalt besiege it.

13 And when the Lord thy God hath delivered it into thine hands, thou shalt smite every male thereof with the edge of the sword.

14 But the women, and the little ones, and the cattell, and all that is in the cite, even all the spoil thereof, shall thou take unto thy use: and thou shalt eat the fruit of thine enemies, which the Lord thy God hath given thee.

15 Thus shalt thou do unto all the cities, which are very farre off from thee, which are not of the cities of these nations.

16 But of the cities of these people which the Lord thy God hath given thee, thou shalt save alive nothing that breatheth.

17 But thou shalt utterly destroy them, namely, the Hittites, and the Amorites, the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee:

18 That they teach you not to do after all their abominations, which they have done unto their gods: in should ye stand against the Lord thy God.

19 ¶ When thou shalt besiege a cite a long time, in making warre against it to take it, thou shalt not destroy the trees thereof by forcing an axe against them: for thou mayest eat of them, and thou shalt not cut them down: (for the tree of the field is mans life) to consume them in the siege.

20 Only the trees which thou knowest that they be not trees for meat, thou shalt destroy, and cut them down: and thou shalt build bulwarks against the cite that maketh warre with thee, until it be delivered.

¶ One be found slain in the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee to possess it, lying in the field, and it be not known who hath slain him:

2 Then the elders and the judges shall come forth, and they shall measure unto the cities which are round about him that is slain.

3 And it shall be that the cite which is next unto the slain man, even the elders of that cite shall take an heifer which hath not been ploughed with, and which hath not drawn in the yoke.

4 And the elders of that cite shall bring seven heifers unto a rough valley, which is neither sowed nor ploughed, and shall strike off the heifers neck there in the valley.

And all the elders of that cite that are next unto the slain man, shall wash their hands over the water that is breyden in the valley.

And they shall say, we saw and say, Our hands have not shed this blood, neither have our eyes seen it.

† Heb. in the midde.

Be mercifull, O Lord is to, unto thy people Israel, whom thou hast redeemed, and lay not innocent blood upon thy people of Israel's charge. And the blood shall be forgiven them.

So shalt thou put away the guilt of innocent blood from among you, when thou shalt do that which is right in the sight of the Lord is to.

When thou goest forth to warre against thine enemies, and the Lord is to thy God hath delivered them into thine hands, and thou hast taken them captive,

And sett among the captives a beautifull woman, and hast a desire unto her, that thou wouldest have her to thy wife:

He, suffer to grow.
† Heb. make, address.

Then thou shalt bring her home to thine house, and she shall have her head, and thou shalt pare her nails.

And she shall put the raiment of her captivity from off her, and shall remain in thine house, and between thee father & her mother a full moneth: and after that, thou shalt go in unto her, and be her husband, and she shall be thy wife.

And it shall be if thou have no delight in her, then thou shalt let her go whither she will, but thou shalt not sell her at all for money, thou shalt not make merchandise of her, because thou hast humbled her.

If a man have two wives, one beloved and another hated, and they have born him children, both the beloved and the hated: and if the first born sonne be hers that was hated,

Then it shall be when he maketh his sonnes to inherit that which he hath, that he may not make the sonne of the beloved, first-born, before the sonne of the hated, which is indeed the first-born:

† Heb. that is second with him.

But he shall acknowledge the sonne of the hated for the first-born, by giving him a double portion of all that he hath: for he is the beginning of his strength, the right of the first-born is his.

If a man have a stubborn and rebellious sonne, which will not obey the voice of his father, or the voice of his mother, and that when they have chastened him, will not hearken unto them:

Then shall his father and his mother lay hold on him, and bring him out unto the elders of his city, and unto the gate of his place:

And they shall say unto the elders of his city, This our sonne is stubborn and rebellious, he will not obey our voice; he is a glutton and a drunkard.

Then all the men of his cite shall stone him with stones, that he die: so shalt thou put evil away from among you, and all Israel shall heare, and fear.

And if a man have committed a sinne whereby he is worthy of death, and he be to be put to death, and thou hang him on a tree:

His body shall not remain all night upon the tree, but thou shalt in any wise bury him that day: so that he be not left upon the tree, which the Lord is to.

Thou shalt not see thy brothers or of his sheep go astray, and hide thyself from them: thou shalt in any case bring them again unto thy brother.

And if thy brother be not nigh unto thee, or if thou know him not, then thou shalt bring it unto thine own house, and it shall be with thee until thy brother seek after it, and thou shalt restore it to him again.

In like manner shalt thou do with his ass, and so shalt thou do with his raiment, and with all lost thing of thy brothers, which he hath lost, and thou shalt find, shalt thou do likewise: thou mayest not hide thyself.

Thou shalt not see thy brothers ass or his or fall down by the way, and hide thyself from them: thou shalt surely help him to lift him up again.

The woman shall not wear that which pertaineth unto a man, neither shall a man put on a woman's garment: for all that do so are abomination unto the Lord is to thy God.

If a birds nest chance to be before thee in the way in any tree, or on the ground; whether they be young ones, or eggs, and the damme sitting upon the young, or upon the eggs, thou shalt not take the damme with the young:

But thou shalt in any wise let the damme go, and take the young to thee, that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy dayes.

When thou buildest a new house, then thou shalt make a battlement for thy roof, that thou bring not blood upon thine house: if any man fall from thence.

Thou shalt not sow thy vineyard with divers seeds: lest the fruit of thy seed which thou hast sown, and the fruit of thy vineyard be defiled.

Thou shalt not plow with an ox and an ass together.

Thou shalt not wear a garment of divers sorts, as of woollen and linen together.

Thou shalt make thee fringes upon the four corners of thy vesture, wherewith thou shalt cover thee thyself.

If any man take a wife, and go in unto her, and bare her,

And give occasions of speech against her, and bring up an evil name upon her, and say, I took this woman, and when I came to her, I found her not a maid:

Then shall the father of the damsell and her mother, take and bring forth the tokens of the damells virginity unto the elders of the city in the gate.

And the damells father shall say unto the elders, I gave my daughter unto this man to wife, and he hath defiled her,

And so, he hath given occasions of speech against her; saying, I found not thy daughter a maid; and verily are the tokens of my daughters virginity: and they shall spread the cloth before the elders of the city.

And the elders of that city shall take that man and chastise him.

19 And they shall smite him in an hundred shekels of silver, and give them unto the father of the damsel, because he hath brought up an evil name upon a virgin of Israel: and he shall be his wife, he may not put her away all his dayes.

20 But if this thing be true, and the tokens of virginity be not found for the damsel:

21 Then they shall bring out the damsel to the doore of her fathers house, and the men of her city shall stone her with stones that she die: because she hath wrought folly in Israel, to play the whore in her fathers house: so shall thou put away evil from among you.

* Lev. 20, 10

22 ¶ If a man be found lying with a woman married to an husband, then they shall both of them die, both the man that lay with the woman, and the woman: so shall thou put away evil from Israel.

24 Then ye shall bring them both out unto the gate of that city, & ye shall stone them with stones that they die; the damsel, because she cried not, being in the city; and the man, because he hath humbled his neighbours wife: so thou shalt put away evil from among you.

16, take strong hold of him

25 ¶ But if a man finde a betrothed damsel in the field, and the man force her, and lie with her: then the man onely that lay with her, shall die.

26 But unto the damsel thou shalt do nothing, there is in the damsel no sinne worthy of death: for as when a man riseth against his neighbour, and slayeth him, even so is this matter.

27 For he found her in the field, and the betrothed damsel cried, and there was none to save her.

18 Thou shalt not bring the hire of a whore, or the price of a dog into the house of the Lord thy God for any vow: for both these are abomination unto the Lord thy God.

19 ¶ Thou shalt not lend upon usury to thy brother: usury of money, usury of victuals, usury of any thing that is lent upon usury.

20 Unto a stranger thou mayest lend upon usury, but unto thy brother thou shalt not lend upon usury: that the Lord thy God may bless thee in all that thou setteth thine hand to, in the land whither thou goest to possess it.

21 ¶ When thou shalt vow a vow unto the Lord thy God, thou shalt not slack to pay it: for the Lord thy God will surely require it of thee; and it would be sinne in thee.

* Eccles. 5, 4.

22 But if thou shalt vow to vow, it shall be no sinne in thee.

23 That which is gone out of thy lips, thou shalt keep and perform, even a free-volunt offering, according as thou hast vowed unto the Lord thy God, which thou shalt promise with thy mouth.

24 ¶ When thou comest into thy neighbours vineyard, then thou mayest eat grapes the fill, or thine olve presolate, but thou shalt not put any in thy vessel.

1 The confession of him that offereth the basket of first-fruits. 12 The prayer of him that giveth his third yeares tithes. 16 The covenant between God and the people.

And it shall be when thou art come in unto the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, and possessest it, and dwellest therein:

2 That thou shalt take of the first of all the fruit of the earth, which thou shalt bring of the land that the Lord thy God giveth thee, and shalt put it in a basket, and shalt go unto the place which the Lord thy God shall choose, to place his name there.

3 And thou shalt go unto the priest that shall be in those days, and lay unto him, I profess this day unto the Lord thy God, that I am come unto the country which the Lord swore unto our fathers to give us.

4 And the priest shall take the basket out of thine hand, and set it down before the altar of the Lord thy God.

5 And thou shalt speak and say before the Lord thy God, I Serian ready to perish was my father, and he went down into Egypt, and sojourned there with a few, and became there a nation great, mighty, and populous.

6 And the Egyptians evil intreated us, and afflicted us, and laid upon us hard bondage.

7 And when we cried unto the Lord our God of our fathers, the Lord heard our voice, and looked on our affliction, and our labour, and our oppression.

8 And the Lord brought us forth out of Egypt with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with great terriblest, and with signs and with wonders.

9 And he hath brought us into this place, and hath given us this land, even a land that floweth with milk and honey.

10 And now behold, I have brought the first-fruits of the land, which thou, O Lord my God, hast given me: & thou shalt set it before the Lord thy God, and worship before the Lord thy God.

11 And thou shalt rejoice in every good thing which the Lord thy God hath given unto thee, and unto thine house, thou, and the Levite, and the stranger that is among you.

12 And when thou shalt make an end of tithing all the tithes of thine increase, the third year, which is the year of tithing, and hast given it unto the Levite, the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, that they may eat within thy gates, and be filled:

13 When thou shalt say before the Lord thy God, I have brought away the hallowed things out of mine house, and also have given them unto the Levite, and unto the stranger, to the fatherless, and to the widow, according to all thy commandments which thou hast commanded me: I have not transgressed thy commandments, neither have I forgotten them.

14 I have not taken thereof in my mourning, neither have I taken away thereof for any unclean use, nor given thereof for the dead: but I have hearkened to the voice of the Lord my God, and have done according to all that thou hast commanded me.

15 Look down from thy holy habitation, from heaven, and bless thy people Israel, and the land which thou hast given us, as thou swore unto our fathers, a land that floweth with milk and honey.

16 ¶ This day the Lord thy God hath commanded thee to do these statutes and judgments: thou shalt therefore keep and do them with all thine heart and with all thy soul.

17 Thou hast avouched the Lord thy God this day to be thy God, and to walk in his ways, and to keep his statutes and his commandments, and his judgments, and to hearken unto his voice.

18 And the Lord thy God hath avouched thee this day to be his peculiar people, as he hath promised thee, and that thou shouldst keep all his commandments:

19 And to make thee high above all nations which he hath made, in might, and in name, and in honour: and that thou mayest be a holy people unto the Lord thy God, as he hath sworn.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 The people are commanded to write the law upon stones, 5 and to build an altar of whole stones. 11 The tribes divided on Gersizim and Ebal. 14 The curses pronounced on mount Ebal.

And Moses took the words of the Lord, and commanded the people, saying, Keep all the commandments which I command you this day.

2 And it shall be on the day when you shall pass over Jordan unto the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, that thou shalt set for thee up great stones, and plaster them with plaster.

3 And thou shalt write upon them all the words of this law, when thou art passed over, that thou mayest go in unto the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee, a land that floweth with milk and honey: as the Lord thy God of thy fathers hath promised thee.

4 Therefore it shall be when ye be gone over Jordan, that ye shall set up these stones, which I command you this day, in mount Ebal, and thou shalt plaster them with plaster.

5 And there shalt thou build an altar unto the Lord thy God, an altar of stones: thou shalt not lift up any iron tool upon them.

6 Thou shalt build the altar of the Lord thy God of whole stones: and thou shalt offer burnt-offerings thereon unto the Lord thy God.

7 And thou shalt offer peace-offerings, and shalt eat there, and shalt rejoice before the Lord thy God.

8 And thou shalt write upon the stones all the words of this law, very plainly.

9 ¶ And Moses, and the priests the Levites spake unto all Israel, saying, Take heed, and hearken, O Israel, this day thou art become the people of the Lord thy God.

10 Thou shalt therefore obey the voice of the Lord thy God, and do his commandments, and his statutes which I command thee this day.

68 And the Lord shall bring thee into Egypt again, with ships, by the way which I have said unto thee, then shalt be it no more against thee: there ye shall be sold unto your enemies for bond-men and bond-women, and no man shall buy you.

CHAP. XXIX.

3 Moses exhorteth them to obedience, by the memory of the works they have seen. 10 All are presented before the Lord to enter into his covenant. 18 The great wrath on him that flattereth himself in his wickedness. 29 Several things belong unto God.

These are the words of the covenant which the Lord commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel, in the land of Moab, before the covenant which he made with them in Horeb.

4 And Moses called unto all Israel, and said unto them, Ye have seen all that the Lord hath done before your eyes in the land of Egypt, unto Pharaoh, and unto all his servants, and unto all his land:

5 The great temptations which thine eyes have seen, the signs and those great miracles:

6 Yet the Lord hath not given you an heart to perceive, and eyes to see, and ears to hear, unto this day.

7 And I have led you forty years in the wilderness: your clothes are not worn out upon you, and thy shoe is not worn out upon thy foot.

8 Ye have not eaten bread, neither have you drunk wine, of strong drink: that ye might know that I am the Lord your God.

9 And when ye came unto this place, Sihon the king of Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, came out against us unto battell, and we smote them.

10 And we took their land, and gave it for an inheritance unto the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, unto the half-tribe of Manasseh.

11 Keep therefore the words of this covenant, and do them, that ye may prosper in all that ye do.

12 Ye stand this day all of you before the Lord your God; your captains of your tribes, your elders, and your officers, with all the men of Israel.

13 Your little ones, your wives, and thy stranger that is in thy camp, from the border of the wood, unto the border of the waters:

14 That thou shouldst enter into covenant with the Lord thy God, and into his oath, which the Lord hath made with thee this day:

15 That he may establish thee to day for a people unto himself, and that he may be unto thee a God, as he hath said unto thee, and as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

16 Therefore with you only do I make this covenant and this oath:

17 But with him that standeth here with us this day before the Lord our God, and also with him that is not here with us this day:

18 For ye know how we have dwelt in the land of Egypt, and how we came through the wilderness unto this place.

19 And ye have seen that abominations, and their flocks, woods, and stone, silver and gold, which were among them.

20 Let there be among you man or woman, or family, or tribe, which heart turneth away this day from the Lord our God, to go and serve the gods of these nations; let there be among you a root that beareth fruit gall and bitterness.

21 And it come to pass when he heareth the words of this curse, that he bless himself in his heart, saying, I shall have peace, though I walk in the imagination of mine heart, to add to I dwell securely to himself:

22 The Lord will not spare him, but then the anger of the Lord shall be kindled against that man, and all the curses that are written in this book shall lie upon him, and the Lord shall blot out his name from under heaven.

23 And the Lord shall separate him unto evil, out of all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant, that are written in this book of the law:

24 So that the generation to come of your children that shall rise up after you, and the stranger that shall come from a farre land, shall say, when they see the plagues of that land, and the sicknesses which the Lord hath laid upon it:

25 And that the whole land thereof is brimstone, and salt, and burning, that it is not sown, nor beareth, nor any grass groweth therein: like the overthrow of Sodom, and Gomorrah, Admah, and Zeboim, which the Lord hath overturned in his anger, and in his wrath:

26 Then all nations shall say, Why hath the Lord done thus unto this land? what meaneth the heat of this great anger?

27 When men shall say, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the Lord our God of their fathers, which he made with them when he brought them forth out of the land of Egypt.

28 For they went and served other gods, and worshipped them, gods whom they knew not, and whom he hath not given unto them.

29 And the anger of the Lord was kindled against this land, to bring upon it all the curses that are written in this book.

30 And the Lord hath rooted them out of their land in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as it is this day.

31 The secret things belong unto the Lord our God: but those things which are revealed belong unto us, and to our children for ever, that we may do all the words of this law.

And it shall come to pass when all these things are come upon thee, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before thee, and thou shalt call them to make among all the nations, whether the Lord thy God hath driven thee,

2 And thou shalt return unto the Lord thy God, and shalt obey his voice according to all that I command thee this day, thou and thy children, with all thine heart and with all thy soul:

3 Then shall the Lord thy God turn thy captivity, and have compassion upon thee, and will return and gather thee from all the nations, whither the Lord thy God hath scattered thee.

most parts of justice, from whence will the Lord be thy God, and thou shalt be his people.

5 And the Lord be to thy God will bring thee into the land which thy fathers possess, and thou shalt possess it: and he will be to thee good, and multiply thee above thy fathers.

6 And the Lord be to thy God will circumcise thine heart, and the heart of thy seed to love the Lord be to thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, that thou mayest live.

7 And the Lord be to thy God will put all these curses upon thine enemies, and on them that hate thee, which persecuted thee.

8 And thou shalt return and obey the voice of the Lord be to thy God, and do all his commandments which I command thee this day.

Chap. 31.11

9 * And the Lord be to thy God will make thee plentiful in every work of thine hand, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of the cattle, and in the fruit of thy land, for good: say the Lord be to thy God again reject thee for good, as he rejected thee over thy fathers:

10 If thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the Lord be to thy God to keep his commandments and his statutes which are written in this book of the law, and if thou turn unto the Lord be to thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul.

11 * For this commandment which I command thee this day, it is not hidden from thee, neither is it far off:

Rom. 10. 6,

12 * It is not in heaven, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go up for us to heaven, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it?

13 Neither is it beyond the sea, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go over the sea for us, and bring it unto us, that we may hear it, and do it?

14 But the word is very nigh unto thee, in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that thou mayest do it.

15 * See, I have set before thee this day life and good, and death and evil:

16 In that I command thee this day to love the Lord be to thy God, to walk in his ways, and to keep his commandments and his statutes and his judgments, that thou mayest live and multiply: and the Lord be to thy God shall bless thee in the land whither thou goest to possess it.

17 But if thine heart turn away, so that thou wilt not hear, but shalt be stubborn away, and worship other gods, and serve them:

18 I denounce unto you this day, that ye shall surely perish, and that ye shall not prolong your days upon the land, whither thou passest over Jordan to go to possess it.

Chap. 31.19

19 * I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live:

20 That thou mayest love the Lord be to thy God, and that thou mayest obey his voice, and that thou mayest cleave unto him (for he is thy life, and the length of thy days): that thou mayest dwell in the land which the Lord be to thy God swore unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them.

15 And the Lord be to thy God appeared in the tabernacle in a pillar of a cloud: and the pillar of the cloud stood over the door of the tabernacle.

16 * And the Lord be to thy God said unto Joshua, Thou shalt be strong and of a good courage, and this people will rise up, and go a whoring after the gods of the strangers of the land whither they go to be amongst them, and will forsake me, and break my covenant which I have made with them.

17 Then my anger shall be kindled against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and will hide my face from them, and they shall be brought down.

18 And I will surely bite my finger in that day, for all the evils which they shall have wrought, in that they are turned unto other gods.

19 And therefore will ye this song for you, and teach it the children of Israel: put it in their mouths, that this song may be a witness for me against the children of Israel.

20 For when I shall have brought them into the land which I swore unto their fathers, that flowers with milk and honey; and they shall have eaten and filled themselves, and waxen fat; then will they turn unto other gods, and serve them, and provoke me, and break my covenant.

24 ¶ And it came to pass when Moses had made an end of writing the words of this law in a book, until they were finished;

25 That Moses commanded the Levites which bare the ark of the covenant of the Lord, saying, 26 Take this book of the law, and put it in the side of the ark of the covenant of the Lord your God, that it may be there for a witness against thee.

27 For I know thy rebellion, and thy stiff neck: behold, while I am yet alive with you this day, ye have been rebellious against the Lord; and how much more after my death?

28 Gather unto me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speak these words in their ears, and call heaven and earth to record against them.

29 For I know, that after my death ye will utterly corrupt your selves, and turn aside from the way which I have commanded you: and evil shall befall you in the latter dayes, because ye will pervert in the sight of the Lord, to provoke him to anger through the work of your hands.

30 And Moses wrote in the eares of all the congregation of Israel the words of this song, until they were ended.

2 ¶ Do ye thus requite the Lord, O foolish people and unwise: is not he thy father, that hath bought thee? hath he not made thee, and established thee?

3 ¶ Remember the dayes of old, consider the yeares of many generations: ask thy father, and he will shew thee, thy elders, and they will tell thee.

4 ¶ When the most high divided to the nations their inheritance, when he separated the tribes of Adam, he set the bounds of the people according to the number of the children of Israel.

5 ¶ For the Lord's portion is his people, Jacob is the lot of his inheritance.

7 ¶ As an eagle stirreth up her nest, fluttereth over her young, spreadeth abroad her wings, taketh them, beareth them on her wings;

8 ¶ So the Lord alone did lead him, and there was no strange god with him.

9 ¶ He made him ride on the high places of the earth, that he might eat the increase of the fields, and he made him to suck honey out of the rock, and oil out of the flintie rock.

12 ¶ They provoked him to jealousy with strange gods, with abominations provoked they him to anger.

13 ¶ They sacrificed unto devils, I not to God; to gods whom they knew not, to new gods that came newly up, whom your fathers feared not.

14 ¶ Of the rock that begat thee thou art unmindfull, and hast forgotten God that formed thee.

15 ¶ And when the Lord saw it, he abhorred them, because of the provoking of his Sonnes, and of his daughters.

16 ¶ And he said, I will hide my face from them, I will see what their end shall be: for they are a very froward generation, children in whom is no faith.

17 ¶ They have moved me to jealousy with that which is not god, they have provoked me to anger with their vanities; and I will move them to jealousy with those which are not a people, I will provoke them to anger with a foolish nation.

18 ¶ For a fire is kindled in my anger, and I shall burn unto the lowest hell, and I shall consume the earth with her increase, and I will set on fire the foundations of the mountains.

19 ¶ I will heap mischiefs upon them, I will spend mine arrows upon them.

20 ¶ They shall be burnt with hunger, and devoured with burning heat, and with bitter destruction: I will also lend the teeth of beasts upon them, with the poyson of serpents of the dust.

21 ¶ The sword without, and terror within shall destroy both the young man and the virgin, the suckling also, with the man of gray hairs.

17 His glory is like the setting of his sun, and his horns are like the horns of unicorns, which shall be shut upon the people together to the ends of the earth; and they are the ten thousand flocks of Ephraim, and they shall be thousands of thousands.

18 And of Judah he said, Rejoice, Judah, in thy going out, and flourish, in thy tents.

19 They shall call the people unto the mountain, there they shall offer sacrifices of righteousness: for they shall suck of the abundance of the sea, and of fountains in the land.

20 And of Gad he said, blessed be he that enlargeth Gad: he dwelleth as a lion, and stretcheth the arm with the crown of the head.

21 And he provided the first part for himself, because there, in a portion of the law given was he feared; and he came with the heads of the people, he executed the justice of the Law, and his judgments with Israel.

22 And of Dan he said, Dan is a lion which shall leap from Bashan.

23 And of Naphtali he said, Naphtali, satisfied with favour, and full with the blessing of the Law: possesseth the west and the south.

24 And of Asher he said, Let Asher be satisfied with children: let him be acceptable to his brethren, and let him dip his foot in oil.

25 Thy shoes shall be iron and brass; and as the days, so shall thy strength be.

26 There is none like unto thee, Son of Issachar, who riseth upon the heaven in the help, and in his excellency on the hills.

27 The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms: and he shall thrust out the enemy from before thee, and shall say, Destroy him.

28 Israel then shall dwell in safety alone: the fountain of Jacob shall be upon a land of corn and wine; also his heavens shall drop down oil.

29 Happy art thou, O Israel, who is like unto thee, O people saved by the Law, the shield of thy right, and who is the Lord of thy excellency: and thine enemies shall be found liars unto thee, and thou shalt tread upon their high places.

Moses from mount Nebo vieweth the land, 5 He dieth there, 6 His burial. 7 His age. 8 Thirty days mourning for him. 9 Joshua succeedeth him. 10 The praise of Moses.

1 And Moses went up from the plains of Moab, unto the mountain of Abarim, to the top of Pisgah, that is over against Jericho: and the Lord shewed him all the land of Gilead, unto man.

2 And all Naphtali, and the land of Ephraim, and Manasse, and all the land of Judah, unto the utmost sea.

3 And the south, and the plains of the valley of Jericho, the city of palm-trees, unto Zoar.

4 And the Lord said unto him, This is the land which I sware unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, saying, I will give it unto thy seed: I have caused thee to see it with thine eyes, but thou shalt not go over thither.

5 So Moses the servant of the Lord was dead there in the land of Moab, according to the word of the Lord.

6 And he buried him in a valley in the land of Moab, over against Beth-peor: but no man knoweth of his sepulchre unto this day.

7 And Moses was an hundred and twenty years old when he died: his eye was not dimmed, nor his natural force abated.

8 And the children of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days: in the days of weeping and mourning for Moses were ended.

9 And Joshua the son of Nun was full of the spirit of wisdom; for Moses had laid his hands upon him: and the children of Israel hearkened unto him, and did as the Lord commanded Moses.

10 And there arose not a prophet since in Israel like unto Moses, whom the Lord knew face to face.

11 In all the signs and the wonders which the Lord did unto him in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and to all his land.

12 And in all that mighty hand, and in all the great terror which Moses shewed in the sight of all Israel.

THE BOOK OF JOSHUA.

CHAP. I.

The Lord appointeth Joshua to succeed Moses, 3 The borders of the promised land, 4-6 God promiseth to assist Joshua, 7 He giveth him instructions, 8 He prepareth the people to pass over Jordan, 9 Joshua gathereth the two tribes and half an hundred of their promise to Moses, 16 They promise him fealty.

1 Now after the death of Moses the servant of the Lord, the Lord said unto Joshua the son of Nun, who stood up to him, saying, Arise, and go over Jordan, thou, and all this people, unto the land which I do give thee, even to the land of Canaan.

2 Carry them over Jordan, thou, and all this people, unto the land which I do give thee: every man of them shall pass over Jordan, thou, and all this people.

3 From the wilderness, and this Lebanon, even unto the great river, the great Euphrates, all the land of the Philistines, and unto the great sea, towards the going down of the sun, shall be your coast.

4 There shall not any man be able to stand before thee all the days of thy life, as I have said: so I will be with thee, and thou shalt prosper.

5 Be strong and of a good courage, forasmuch as thou shalt have divided for an inheritance the land which I sware unto thy fathers to give them.

6 Only be thou strong and very courageous: that thou mayest observe to do according to all the law, which Moses my servant commanded thee: thou mayest turn from it to the right hand or to the left, that thou mayest prosper whithersoever thou shalt go.

7 And Joshua said unto all the people, The Lord hath said unto me, I have said unto you, and ye have said, I will do as the Lord hath said: but now the Lord hath said, I will be with thee, and thou shalt prosper: therefore shall ye prosper.

and night, that thou mayest observe to do according to all that is written therein: for then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success.

9 Have not I commanded thee? Be strong and of a good courage, be not afraid, neither be thou dismayed: for the Lord is with thee, whithersoever thou goest.

10 ¶ Then Joshua commanded the officers of the people, saying,

11 Pass through the host, and command the people, saying, Prepare you victuals; for within three days ye shall pass over this Jordan, to go in to possess the land which the Lord is to your God, which ye shall possess it.

12 ¶ And to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to half the tribe of Manasse, spake Joshua, saying,

13 Remember * the word which Moses the servant of the Lord is to you commanded you, saying, The Lord is to your God hath given you rest, and hath given you this land:

14 Your wives, your little ones, and your cattle shall remain in the land which Moses gave you on this side Jordan; but ye shall pass before your brethren armed, all the mighty men of valour, and help them:

15 Until the Lord is to have given you brethren rest, as he hath given you, and they also have possessed the land which the Lord is to your God given them: then ye shall return unto the land of your possession, and enjoy it, which Moses the Lord is to a servant gave you on this side Jordan toward the sunne-rising.

16 ¶ And they answered Joshua, saying, All that thou commandest us, we will do, and whithersoever thou sendest us, we will go.

17 According as we hearkened unto Moses in all things, so will we hearken unto thee: only the Lord is to your God be with thee, as he was with Moses.

18 And whosoever he be that doth rebel against thy commandment, and will not hearken unto thy words, in all that thou commanded him, he shall be put to death: only be strong and of a good courage.

CHAP. II.

1 Rahab receiveth and concealeth the two spies sent from Shittim. 2 The covenant between her and them. 3 Their return and relation.

¶ And Joshua the son of Nun sent out of Shittim two men, to spy secretly, saying, Go view the land, where Jericho is: and they went, and came into an harlots house, named Rahab, and lodged there.

¶ And it was told the king of Jericho, saying, Behold, there came men in hither to night of the children of Israel, to search out the country.

¶ And the king of Jericho sent unto Rahab, saying, Bring forth the men that are come to thee, which are entered into thine house: for they be come to search out all the country.

¶ And the woman took the two men, and hid them, and said thus, There came men unto me, but I wist not whence they were:

¶ And it came to passe about the time of flut-ting of the gate, when it was dark, that the men went out: whether the men went, I wote not: for after them quickly, for ye shall overtake them.

¶ But she had brought them up to the roof of the house, and hid them with the stalks of flax, which she had laid in order upon the roof.

7 And the men pursued after them the way to Jordan, unto the fords: and as soon as they which pursued after them were gone out, they hid the gate.

8 ¶ And before they were laid down, she came up unto them upon the roof;

9 And she said unto the men, I know that the Lord is with you, and that all the inhabitants of the land is afraid because of you.

10 For ye have heard how that the Lord dried up the waters of the Jordan for you, when you came out of Egypt: and what you did unto the two kings of the Amorites that were on the other side Jordan; Hahab and Sihon, whom ye utterly destroyed.

11 And as soon as we had heard these things, our hearts did melt, neither did there remain any more courage in any man, because of you: for the Lord is to your God, he is God in heaven above, and in earth beneath.

12 Now therefore, I pray you, swear unto me by the Lord is to your God, since I have showed you kindness, that ye will also show kindness unto my father's house; and give me a true token:

13 And that ye will save alive my father, and my mother, and my brethren, and my sisters, and all that they have, and deliver our lives from death.

14 And the men answered her, One like to thy words, if we were not this our business. And it shall be when the Lord is to your God hath given us the land, that we will deal kindly and truly with thee.

15 Then he let them down by a cord through the window; for her house was upon the city wall, and she dwelt upon the wall.

16 And she said unto them, Go ye to the mountains, lest the pursuers meet you; and hide your selves there three days, until the pursuers be returned: and after wards may ye go your way.

17 And the men said unto her, We will be blameless of this thine oath which thou hast made us swear.

18 Behold, when we come into the land, thou shalt bind this line of scarlet-threads in the Jordan which thou didst let us down by: and thou shalt bring thy father, and thy mother, and thy brethren, and all thy father's household with thee.

19 And it shall be, that whosoever shall go out of the doors of the house into the street, his blood shall be upon his head, and we will be blameless: and whosoever shall be with thee in the house, his blood shall be on our head, if any hand be upon him.

20 And if thou utter this our business, then we will be quit of this oath which thou hast made us to swear.

21 And she said, According unto your words shall be it. And she sent them away, and they departed, and the bound of the scarlet-line in the window.

22 And they went, and came unto the mountain, and abode there three days, until the pursuers were returned. And the pursuers sought them throughout all the way, but found them not.

23 ¶ So the two men returned, and descended from the mountains, and passed over, and came to Joshua the son of Nun, and told him all things that befell them:

24 And they said unto Joshua, Truly the Lord is to your God hath delivered us into our hands all the land: for even all the inhabitants of the country do fear him because of him.

14 In the morning therefore ye shall be brought according to your tribes: and it shall be that the tribe which the L. as he was shall take, shall come according to the families thereof; and the family which the L. as he was shall take, shall come by households; and the household which the L. as he was shall take, shall come by men.

15 And it shall be, that he that is taken with the accursed thing, shall be burnt with fire, he and all that he hath: because he hath transgressed the covenant of the L. o. m. and because he had sworn to deliver Israel.

16 And Joshua rose up early in the morning, and brought Israel by their tribes: and the tribe of Judah was taken:

17 And he brought the family of Judah, and he took the family of the Zebulims: and he brought the family of the Zebulims man by man, and Zabdi was taken:

18 And he brought his household man by man, and Achan the sonne of Carmi, the sonne of Zabdi, the sonne of Jerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken.

19 And Joshua said unto Achan, O ye Sonne, give, I pray thee, glory to the L. o. m. God of Israel, and make confession unto him: and tell me what thou hast done, hide it not from me.

20 And Achan and wicked Joshua, and said, I have sinned against the L. o. m. God of Israel, and thus and thus have I done.

21 When I saw among the spoils a goodly Babylonish garment, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold of fifty shekels weight, then I covered them, and took them, and behold, they are hid in the earth in the midst of my tent, and the silver under it.

22 So Joshua sent messengers, and they ranne unto the tent, and behold, it was hid in his tent, and the silver under it.

23 And they took them out of the midst of the tent, and brought them unto Joshua, and unto all the children of Israel, and he said them out before the L. o. m.

24 And Joshua and all Israel laid him, took Achan the sonne of Jerah, and the silver, and the garment, and the wedge of gold, and his wives, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his beasts, and his tent, and all that he had: and they brought them unto the valley of Achor.

25 And Joshua said, Why hast thou troubled us? the L. o. m. shall trouble thee this day. And all Israel stoned him with stones, and burned them with fire after they had stoned them with stones.

26 And they raised over him a great heap of stones unto this day: to the L. o. m. (saying) from the fierceness of his anger: wherefore the name of that place was called, The valley of Achor, unto this day.

CHAP. VIII.

1 God encourageth Joshua. 3 The stratagem whereby Ai was taken. 29 The king thereof hanged. 30 Joshua buildeth an altar. 32 writeth the law on stones. 33 propoundeth blessings and cursings.

And the L. o. m. said unto Joshua, * Fear not, neither be thou dismayed: take all the people of warre with thee, and arise, go up to Ai: for I have given into thy hand the king of Ai, and his people, and his city, and his land.

2 And thou shalt do so to Ai and her king, as thou didst unto Jericho and her king: onely the spoil thereof, and the cattell thereof shall ye take for a prey unto your selves: lay not an ambush for the city, behind it.

3 So Joshua arose and all the people of warre, to go up against Ai: and Joshua chose out thirty thousand mighty men of valour, and sent them away by night.

4 And he commanded them, saying, Behold, ye shall be in wait against the city, even behind the city: go not weye farre from the city, but be ye all ready:

5 And he and all the people that are with us, shall approach unto the city: and it shall come to passe when they come out against us, as at the first, that we will be upon them.

6 For they will come out after us as they did before: and we will be upon them, and we will take the city: for they shall be before us, as at the first: therefore we will be before them.

7 When ye shall sit up from the ambush, and shall see upon the city: for the L. o. m. says that he will bring it into your hands.

8 And it shall be when ye have taken the city, that ye shall set the city on fire, according to the commandment of the L. o. m. which he hath said, I have commanded you.

9 Joshua therefore put them forth: and they went to lie in ambush, and abode between Beth-el and Ai, on the west-side of Mount Joshua lodged that night among the people.

10 And Joshua rose up early in the morning, and numbered the people, and went up, he and the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai.

11 And all the people, even the people of warre that were with him, went up, and were in wait, and came before the city, and pitched on the north-side of Ai: now there was a valley between them and Ai.

12 And he took about five thousand men, and set them to lie in ambush between Beth-el and Ai, on the west-side of the city.

13 And when they had set the people, even all the host that was on the north of the city, and their lies in wait on the west of the city, Joshua went that night into the midst of the valley.

14 And it came to passe when the king of Ai saw it, that they looked and rose up early, and the men of the city went out against Israel to battle, by about six people, at a time appointed, before the plain: but he wist not that there were liers in ambush against him, behind the city.

15 And Joshua and all Israel made as if they were beaten before them, and fled by the way of the hillside north.

16 And all the people that were in Ai, were called together to pursue after them: and they pursued after Joshua, and were drawn away from the city.

17 And there was not a man left in Ai, or Beth-el, that went not out after Israel: and they left the city open, and pursued after Israel.

18 And the L. o. m. said unto Joshua, Stretch out the spear that is in thy hand, toward Ai: for I will give it into thine hand. Then Joshua stretched out the spear that he had in his hand, toward the city.

19 And the ambush arose quickly out of their place, and they ranne as soon as he had stretched out his hand: and they entered into the city, and took it, and burned it, and set the city on fire.

20 And when the men of Ai looked behind them, they saw, and behold, the smoke of the city ascended up to heaven, and they had not power to flee this way or that way: and the people that fled to the wilderness were turned back upon the pursuers.

21 And when Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city ascended, then they turned again, and slew the men of Ai.

22 And the other issued out of the city against them, so they were in the midst of Israel, some on this side, and some on that side: and they smote them, so that they * let none of them remain, nor escape.

the inhabitants of the land from before you, therefore have I now sent you, saying, because of you, and have done this thing.

CHAP. X.

1 Five kings warre against Gibeon. 6 Joshua refuseth it. 10 God fighteth against them with hail-stones.

12 The sunne & moon stand still at the word of Joshua.

13 The five kings are mured in a cave. 22 They are brought forth. 24 scornfully used. 26 and hanged.

28 Seven kings more are conquered. 43 Joshua returneth to Gilgal.

Now it came to passe, when Adonijezek king of Jerusalem had heard how Joshua had taken Ai, and had utterly destroyed it, (as he had done to Jericho and her king, so he had done to Ai and her king) and how the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them:

2 That they feared greatly, because Gibeon was a great cite, as one of the 7 royall cities, and because it was greater then Ai, and all the men thereof were mighty.

3 Wherefore Adonijezek king of Jerusalem, sent unto Hophni king of Hebron, and unto Piram king of Jarmuth, and unto Iaphia king of Lachish, and unto Eber king of Gilon, saying,

4 Come up unto me, and help me, that we may smite Gibeon: for it hath made peace with Joshua, and with the children of Israel.

5 Therefore the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, the king of Gilon, gathered themselves together, and went up, they and all their hosts, and encamped before Gibeon, and made waers against it.

6 And the men of Gibeon sent unto Joshua to the camp to Gilgal, saying, Black not thy hand from the servants, come up to us quickly, and save us, and help us: for all the kings of the Amorites that dwell in the mountains, are gathered together against us.

7 So Joshua ascended from Gilgal, he and all the people of warre with him, and all the mighty men of valour.

8 And the Lord said unto Joshua, Fear them not: for I have delivered them into thine hand, there shall not a man of them stand before thee.

9 Joshua therefore came unto them suddenly, and went up from Gilgal all night.

10 And the Lord said to Joshua, Discomfite them before Israel, and slew them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along the way that goeth up to Beth-horon, and smote them to Azekah, and unto Bakkedah.

11 And it came to passe as they fled from before Israel, and were in the going down to Beth-horon, that the Lord said to Joshua, Call down great stones from heaven upon them unto Azekah, and they did: they were men which died with hail-stones, then they whom the children of Israel slew with the sword.

12 And when spake Joshua to the Lord, as he said in the day when the Lord said to Joshua, I will deliver up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel, O Lord, thou hast said unto Joshua, I will deliver up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and thou hast not done so.

13 And the sunne stood still, and the moon stand, until the people had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this written in the book of Jasher? so the sunne stood still in the midst of heaven, and halted not to go down about a whole day.

14 And there was no day like that, before it, or after it, that the Lord said to Joshua, I will deliver up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and thou hast not done so.

15 And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, unto the camp to Gilgal.

16 But these five kings fled, and hid themselves in a cave at Makkedah.

17 And it was told Joshua, saying, The five kings are found hid in a cave at Makkedah.

18 And Joshua said, Roll great stones upon the mouth of the cave, and let men be by it to keep them.

19 And say you not, but pursue after your enemies, and I will be the hindmost of them, (saying, that they should not enter into their cities, for the Lord said to Joshua, I will deliver up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and thou hast not done so.)

20 And it came to passe when Joshua and the children of Israel had made an end of slaying them with a very great slaughter, till they were consumed, that the rest which remained of them, entered into fenced cities.

21 And all the people returned to the camp to Joshua at Makkedah in peace: none moved his tongue against any of the children of Israel.

22 Then said Joshua, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring out thence those five kings unto me out of the cave.

23 And they did so, and brought forth those five kings unto him out of the cave, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, and the king of Gilon.

24 And it came to passe when they brought out those kings unto Joshua, that Joshua called for all the men of Israel, and said unto the captains of the men of warre, which went with him, Come neare, put your feet upon the necks of these kings. And they came neare, and put their feet upon the necks of them.

25 And Joshua said unto them, Fear not nor be dismayed, be strong and of good courage: for thus shall the Lord do to all your enemies against whom ye fight.

26 And afterward Joshua smote them, and slew them, and hanged them on five trees: & they were hanging upon the trees untill the evening.

27 And it came to passe at the time of the going down of the sunne, that Joshua commanded, and they took them down out of the trees, and cast them into the cave wherein they had hid themselves, and laid great stones in the caves mouth, which remain until this very day.

28 And that day Joshua took Makkedah, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof he utterly destroyed, them, and all the souls that were therein, he let none remain: and he did to the king of Makkedah, as he did unto the king of Jericho.

29 Then Joshua passed from Makkedah, and all Israel with him, unto Libnah, and fought against Libnah.

30 And the Lord said to Joshua, I will deliver it also, and the king thereof, into the hand of Israel, and he smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein: he let none remain in it, but he half-tribe of Manasse; and this was the possession of the half-tribe of Manasse by their families.

30 And their coast was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, all the kingdom of Og king of Bashan, and all the towns of Jair, which are in Bashan, threecore cities:

31 And half Gilead, and Ashtaroth, and Edrei, cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, were pertaining unto the children of Machir:
the sonne of Manasse, even to the one half of the * children of Machir by their families.

32 These are the countreys which Moses did distribute for inheritance in the plains of Moab, on the other side Jordan by Jericho eastward.

33 * But unto the tribe of Levi Moses gave not any inheritance: for the Lord God of Israel was their inheritance, as he said unto them.

CHAP. XIII.

1 The nine tribes and a half are to have their inheritance by lot, 6. Caleb by privilege obtaineth Hebron.

AND these are the countreys which the children of Israel inherited in the land of Cana-an, * which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the sonne of Nun, and the heads of the fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel distributed for inheritance unto them.

2 * By lot was their inheritance, as the Lord commanded by the hand of Moses, for the nine tribes, and for the half-tribe.

3 For Moses had given the inheritance of two tribes, and an half-tribe, on the other side Jordan:
but unto the Levites he gave none inheritance among them.

4 For the children of Joseph were two tribes,
Manasse and Ephraim: therefore they gave no part unto the Levites in the land, save cities to dwell in, with their suburbs for their cattle, and for their substance.

5 * As the Lord commanded Moses, so the * Num. 34 children of Israel did, and they divided the land. Chap. 13

6 Then the children of Judah came unto Joshua in Gilgal: and Caleb the sonne of Jephun-neh the Kenzite, said unto him, Thou knowest the thing that the Lord said unto Moses the man of God, concerning me and thee, in Kadesh-barnea.

7 Forty yeares old was I when Moses the servant of the Lord sent me from Kadesh-barnea, to spy out the land; and I brought him word again, as it was in mine heart.

8 Nevertheless, my brethren that went up with me, made the heart of the people melt: but I boldly * followed the Lord my God.

9 And Moses swore on that day, saying, Surely the land wherupon thy feet have trodden, shall be thine inheritance, * thy childrens for ever: because thou hast boldly followed the Lord my God.

10 And now behold, the Lord hath kept me alive, as he said, these forty and five yeares, even since the Lord spake this word unto Moses, while the children of Israel * wander in the wildernes: and now lo, I am this day fourscore and five yeares old.

11 * As yet I am as strong this day, as I was in the day that Moses sent me: as my strength was then, even so is my strength now, for warfare, both to go out, and to come in.

12 Now therefore give me this mountain, inheret of the Lord: I will dwell in it: for thou heardest in that day how the Anakims were there, and that the cities were great and fenced:
if so be the Lord will be with me, then I shall be able to drive them out, as the Lord said.

13 And Joshua blessed him, and gave unto Caleb the sonne of Jephunneh, Hebron for an inheritance.

14 * Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the sonne of Jephunneh the Kenzite, unto this day: because that he boldly followed the Lord God of Israel.

15 And the name of Hebron before, was Ki-riath-arba, which Arba was a great man among the Anakims. And the land had rest from war.

CHAP. XV.

1 The borders of the lot of Judah. 13. Caleb portion and conquest. 16. Othniel for his valour, hath Achsah Caleb's daughter to wife. 18. She obtaineth a blessing of her father. 21. The cities of Judah.
63 The Jebusites not conquered.

THIS then was the lot of the tribe of the children of Judah by their families, * even to the border of Edom; the * wildernesses of Zin southward, was the uttermost part of the south coast.

2 And their south border was from the foye of the salt sea, from the * bay that looketh southward.

3 And it went out to the south unto * || He-braz-arabbim, * and passed along to Zin, and ascended up on the south side unto Kadesh-barnea:
and passed along to Iybron, and went up to Adar, and fetched a compass to Karkaa.

4 From thence it passed toward Azmon, and went out unto the river of Egypt, and the goings out of that coast were at the sea: this shall be your south coast.

5 And the east border was the salt sea, then unto the end of Jordan: and their border in the north quarter, was from the bay of the sea, at the uttermost part of Jordan.

6 And the border went up to Beth-hogla, and passed along by the north of Beth-aradab, and 4 And the children of Joseph, Manasseh, and Ephraim, took their inheritance.

5 And the border of the children of Ephraim, according to their families, was thus: even the border of their inheritance on the east-side, was Astaroth-addar, unto Beth-horon the upper.

6 And the border went out toward the sea, to Michmethah on the north-side, and the border went about east-ward unto Astaroth-siloh, and passed by it on the east to Janobah:

7 And it went down from Janobah, to Astaroth and to Astarath, and came to Jericho, and went out at Jordan.

8 The border went out from Tappuah west-ward unto the river Kanah: and the goings out thereof were at the sea. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim by their families.

9 And the separate cities for the children of Ephraim were among the inheritance of the children of Manasseh, all the cities with their villages.

10 And they drove not out the Canaanites that dwell in Gezer: but the Canaanites dwell among the Ephraimites unto this day, and serve under tribute.

CHAP. XVII.

1 The lot of Manasseh. 7 His coast. 12 The Canaanites not driven out. 14 The children of Joseph obtain another lot.

There was also a lot for the tribe of Manasseh: (for he was the first-born of Joseph) to wit, for Baccir the first-born of Manasseh the father of Gilead: because he was a man of wars, therefore he had Gilead and Basan.

2 There was also a lot for the rest of the children of Manasseh by their families; for the children of Abiezer, and for the children of Helek, and for the children of Asriel, and for the children of Serchem, and for the children of Hepher, and for the children of Shemida: these were the male-children of Manasseh the sonne of Joseph by their families.

3 But Zelophehad the sonne of Hepher, the sonne of Gilead, the sonne of Baccir, the sonne of Manasseh, had no sonnes, but daughters: and these are the names of his daughters, Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, Milcah, and Tirzah.

4 And they came neare before Eleazar the priest, and before Joshua the sonne of Nun, and before the princes, saying, The Lord our God commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brethren: therefore according to the commandment of the Lord our God he gave them an inheritance among the brethren of their father.

5 And there fell ten portions to Manasseh, beside the land of Gilead and Basan, which were on the other side Jordan;

6 Because the daughters of Manasseh had an inheritance among his sonnes: and the rest of Manasseh's sonnes had the land of Gilead.

7 And the coast of Manasseh was from Asher to Michmethah, that lieth before Serchem, and the border went along on the right hand, unto the inhabitants of En-tappuah.

8 Now Manasseh had the land of Tappuah: but Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to the children of Ephraim.

9 And the coast descended unto the river Kanah, south-ward of the river: these cities of Ephraim are among the cities of Manasseh: the coast of Manasseh also was on the north side of the river, and the out-goings of it were at the sea.

10 South-ward it was Ephraim, and northward it was Manasseh, and the sea is his border, and they met together in Asher on the north, and in Zebulon on the east.

11 And Manasseh had in Zebulon and in Asher, Beth-shean and her towns, and Ittan and her towns, and the inhabitants of Dor and her towns, and the inhabitants of En-dor and her towns, and the inhabitants of Taanach and her towns, and the inhabitants of Megiddo and her towns, even three countreys.

12 Yet the children of Manasseh could not drive out the inhabitants of those cities, but the Canaanites would dwell in that land.

13 Yet it came to passe when the children of Israel were waxen strong, that they put the Canaanites to tribute; but did not utterly drive them out.

14 And the children of Joseph spake unto Joshua, saying, Why hast thou given us but one lot and one portion to inherit, seeing I am a great people, so much as the Lord hath blessed me hitherto?

15 And Joshua answered them, If thou be a great people, then get thee up to the wood-countrey, and cut down for thyself there in the land of the Hittites, and of the giants, if mount Ephraim be too narrow for thee.

16 And the children of Joseph said, The hill is not enough for us: and all the Canaanites that dwell in the land of the valley, have chariots of iron, both they who are of Beth-shean and her towns, and they who are of the valley of Jezreel.

17 And Joshua spake unto the house of Joseph, even to Ephraim, and to Manasseh, saying, Thou art a great people, and hast great power: thou shalt not have one lot only.

18 But the mountain shall be thine, for it is a wood: and thou shalt cut it down: and the out-goings of it shall be thine: for thou shalt drive out the Canaanites, though they have iron chariots, and though they be strong.

CHAP. XVIII.

1 The tabernacle is set up at Shiloh. 2 The remainder of the land is described, and divided into seven parts.

10 Joshua divideth it by lot. 12 The lot and border of Benjamin. 21 Their cities.

And the whole congregation of the children of Israel assembled together at Shiloh, and set up the tabernacle of the congregation there, and the land was subdued before them.

2 And there remained among the children of Israel seven tribes, which had not yet received their inheritance.

3 And Joshua saith unto the children of Israel, How long are you slack to go to possess the land which the Lord our God of your fathers hath given you?

4 Come out from among you three men, for each tribe: and I will send them, and they shall rise, and go through the land, and describe it according to the inheritance of them, and they shall come again to me.

5 And they shall divide it into seven parts: Judah shall abide in their coast on the south, and the house of Joseph shall abide in their coast on the north.

6 Ye shall therefore describe the land into seven parts, and bring the description hither to me, that I may cast lots for you here before the Lord our God.

7 But the Levites have no part among you, for the priesthood of the Lord our God is their inheritance; and Gad and Reuben, and half the tribe

18 And Moses gave them possession in Bashan : but unto the other half thereof gave Joshua among their brethren on this side Jordan west ward. And when Joshua sent them away also unto their tents, then he blessed them, 19 And he spake unto them, saying, Return with much riches unto your tents, and with very much cattle, with silver, and with gold, and with brass, and with iron, and with very much raiment : divide the spoil of your enemies with your brethren.

20 And the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasse returned, and departed from the children of Israel out of Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go unto the country of Gilead, to the land of their possession, wherof they were possessed, according to the word of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

21 And when they came unto the borders of Jordan, that are in the land of Canaan, the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasse built there an altar by Jordan, a great altar to see to.

22 And the children of Israel heard say, Behold, the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasse, have built an altar over against the land of Canaan, in the borders of Jordan, at the passage of the children of Israel.

23 And when the children of Israel heard of it, the whole congregation of the children of Israel gathered themselves together at Shiloh, to go up to warre against them.

24 And the children of Israel sent unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half-tribe of Manasse into the land of Gilead, Phinehas the sonne of Eleazar the priest,

Joshua's house of the father,

25 And with him ten princes, of each tribe he sent a prince, throughout all the tribes of Israel, and each one was an head of the house of their fathers, among the thousands of Israel.

26 And they came unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half-tribe of Manasse unto the land of Gilead, and they spake with them, saying, 27 Thus saith the whole congregation of the Lord, What trespass is this that ye have committed against the God of Israel, to turn away this day from following the Lord, in that ye have builded you an altar, that ye might rebel this day against the Lord?

Num. 25, 4.

28 Is the iniquity of Achan too little for us, from which we are not cleansed until this day, (although there was a plague in the congregation of the Lord?)

29 But that ye must turn away this day from following the Lord, and it will be, seeing ye rebel in day against the Lord, that to morrow he will be wroth with the whole congregation of Israel.

30 Notwithstanding, if the land of your possession be unclean, then pass ye over unto the land of the possession of the Lord, wherein the Lord's tabernacle dwelleth, and take possession among us: but rebel not against the Lord, nor rebel against us, in building you an altar, beside the altar of the Lord our God.

2 Chap. 7, 1, 5.

31 Did not Achan the sonne of Zerah commit a trespass in the accursed thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Israel, and that man perished, as not alone in his iniquity.

32 And the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half-tribe of Manasse, answered and said unto the heads of the thousands of Israel,

33 The Lord our God of gods, he knoweth, and Israel he shall know, if it be in rebellion, or if in transgression against the Lord, (have us not this day)

34 That we have built us an altar to turn from following the Lord, or if to offer thereon burnt-offering, or meat-offering, or if to offer peace-offerings thereon, let the Lord himself require it;

35 And if we have not rather done it for fear of this thing, saying, In time to come your children might speak unto our children, saying, What have you to do with the Lord our God of Israel?

36 For the Lord hath made Jordan a border between us and you; ye children of Reuben, and children of Gad, ye have no part in the Lord: so shall your children make our children cease from fearing the Lord.

37 Therefore we said, Let us now prepare to build us an altar, not for burnt-offering, nor for sacrifice;

38 But that it may be a witness between us and you, and our generations after us, that we might do the service of the Lord before him with our burnt-offerings, and with our sacrifices, and with our peace-offerings, that your children may not say to our children in time to come, Ye have no part in the Lord.

39 Therefore said we, that it shall be, when they should so say to us, or to our generations in time to come, that we may say again, Behold the pattern of the altar of the Lord, which our fathers made, not for burnt-offerings, nor for sacrifices, but it is a witness between us and you.

40 God forbid that we should rebel against the Lord, and turn this day from following the Lord, to build an altar for burnt-offerings, for meat-offerings, or for sacrifices, besides the altar of the Lord our God that is before his tabernacle.

41 And when Phinehas the priest, and the princes of the congregation, and heads of the thousands of Israel which were with him, heard the words that the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the children of Manasse spake, it pleased them.

42 And Phinehas the sonne of Eleazar the priest, said unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the children of Manasse, This day we perceive that the Lord is among us, because ye have not committed this trespass against the Lord: now ye have delivered the children of Israel out of the hand of the Lord.

43 And Phinehas the sonne of Eleazar the priest, and the princes, returned from the children of Reuben, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, unto the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and brought them word again.

44 And the thing pleased the children of Israel, and the children of Israel blessed God, and did not intend to go up against them in battell, to destroy the land, wherein the children of Reuben and Gad dwelt.

45 And the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, called the altar, God, for it shall be a witness between us, that the Lord is God.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 Joshua's exhortation before his death, 3 by former benefits, 5 by promises, 11 and by threatenings.

AND it came to passe, a long time after that the Lord had given rest unto Israel from all their enemies round about, that Joshua waxed old and stricken in age.

2 And Joshua called for all Israel, and for their elders, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers, and said unto them, I am old and stricken in age:

3 And ye have seen all that the Lord your God hath done unto all these nations, because of you; for the Lord your God is he that hath fought for you.

4 Behold, I have divided unto you by lot these nations that remain, to be an inheritance for your tribes, from Jordan, with all the nations that I have cut off, even unto the great sea westward.

5 And the Lord your God, he shall expell them from before you, and drive them from out of your sight, and ye shall possess their land, as the Lord your God hath promised unto you.

6 Be ye therefore very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, that ye turn not aside therefrom, to the right hand, or to the left,

7 That ye come not among these nations, these that remain amongst you, neither make mention of the name of their gods, nor cause to swear by them, neither serve them, nor bow your selves unto them:

8 I have cleave unto the Lord your God, as ye have done unto this day.

9 I for the Lord hath driven out from before you, great nations and strong: but as for you, no man hath been able to stand before you unto this day.

10 One man of you shall chase a thousand: for the Lord your God, he it is that fighteth for you, as he hath promised you.

11 Take good heed therefore unto your selves, that ye love the Lord your God.

12 If it be so in any wise go back, and cleave unto the remnant of these nations, even these that remain among you, and shall make marriages with them; and go in unto them, and they to you:

13 Know for a certainty, that the Lord your God will no more drive out any of these nations from before you; but they shall be snares and traps unto you, and scourges in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until ye perish from off this good land which the Lord your God hath given you.

14 And behold, this day I am going the way of all the earth: and ye know in all your hearts, and in all your souls, that not one thing hath failed of all the good things which the Lord your God spake concerning you; all are come to pass unto you, and not one thing hath failed thereof.

15 Therefore it shall come to passe, that as all good things are come upon you, which the Lord your God promised you: so shall the Lord doing upon you all evil things, until he have destroyed you from off this good land which the Lord your God hath given you.

16 When ye have transferred the covenant of the Lord your God, which he commanded you, and have gone and served other gods, and bowed your selves to them: then shall the anger of the Lord be kindled against you, and ye shall perish quickly from off the good land which ye have given unto you.

CHAP. XXIIII.

1 Joshua assembles the tribes at Shechem. 2 A brief history of Gods benefits from Terah. 14 Heretofore a covenant between them and God. 26 A sign the witness of the covenant. 29 Joshua's age, death, and buriall. 32 Joseph's bones are buried. 33 Eleazar dieth.

AND Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called for the elders of Israel, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers, and they presented themselves before God.

2 And Joshua said unto all the people, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Your fathers dwelt on the other side of the flood in old time, even Terah the father of Abraham, and the father of Nachor: and they served other gods.

3 And I took your father Abraham from the other side of the flood, and led him throughout all the land of Canaan, and multiplied his seed, and gave him Isaac.

4 And I gave unto Isaac, * Jacob and Esau: and I gave unto Esau mount Seir, to possess it: but Jacob and his children went down into Egypt.

5 I sent Moses also and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt, according to that which I did amongst them: and afterwards I brought you out.

6 And I brought your fathers out of Egypt: and you came unto the sea, and the Egyptians pursued after your fathers with chariots and horsemen, unto the Red sea.

7 And when they cried unto the Lord, he put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea upon them, and covered them; and your eyes have seen what I have done in Egypt: and ye dwell in the wilderness a long season.

8 And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, which dwell on the other side Jordan: and they fought with you: and I gave them into your hands, that ye might possess their land, and I destroyed them from before you.

9 Then Balak the sonne of Beor king of Moab, arose and warred against Israel, and sent and called Balaam the sonne of Beor to curse you:

10 But I would not hearken unto Balaam, therefore he blessed you: and I delivered you out of his hand.

11 And ye went over Jordan, and came unto Jericho: and the men of Jericho fought against you, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Gergashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, and I delivered them into your hand.

12 And I sent the dove before you, which gave them out from before you, even the kings of the Amorites: but not with the sword, nor with thy bow.

13 And I have given you a land for which ye did not labour, and cities which ye built not: and ye dwell in them: of the vineyards and oliveyards which ye planted not, do ye eat.

14 Now therefore, fear the Lord your God, and serve him in sincerity and in truth, and put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the flood, and in Egypt: and serve ye the Lord.

15 And if it come into your mind to serve the L o a m, choose you this day whom you will serve, whether the gods which your fathers served, that were on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the L o a m.

16 And the people answered, and said, God forbid that we should forsake the L o a m, to serve other gods.

17 For the L o a m our God, he is it that brought us up, and our fathers out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage, and which did those great signs in our sight, and selected us in all the way wherein we went, and among all the people through whom we passed.

18 And the L o a m made out from before us all the people, even the Amorites which dwell in the land: therefore will we also serve the L o a m, for he is our God.

19 And Joshua said unto the people, Ye cannot serve the L o a m, for he is an holy God: he is a jealous God; he will not forgive your transgressions nor your sins.

20 If ye forsake the L o a m, and serve strange gods, then he will turn and do you hurt, and consume you, after that he hath done you good. Chap. 23. 15.

21 And the people said unto Joshua, Nay, but we will serve the L o a m.

22 And Joshua said unto the people, Ye are witnesses against your selves, that ye have chosen you the L o a m, to serve him. And they said, We are witnesses.

23 Now therefore put away, said he, the strange gods which are among you, and incline your heart unto the L o a m God of Israel.

24 And the people said unto Joshua, The L o a m our God will we serve, and his voice will we obey.

25 So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and set them a statute, and an ordinance in Shechem.

26 ¶ And Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God, and took a great stone, and set it up there under an oak, that was by the sanctuary of the L o a m.

27 And Joshua said unto all the people, Behold, this stone shall be a witness unto us; for it hath heard all the words of the L o a m which he spake unto us: it shall be therefore a witness unto you, lest ye deny your God.

28 So Joshua let the people depart, every man unto his inheritance.

29 ¶ And it came to pass after these things, that Joshua the son of Nun the servant of the L o a m died, being an hundred and ten years old.

30 And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnath Serah, which is in mount Ephraim, on the north-side of the hill Gaash. Chap. 24. July 14.

31 And Israel served the L o a m all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders that remembered Joshua, and which had known all the works of the L o a m, that he had done for Israel.

32 ¶ And the bones of Joshua, which the children of Israel brought up out of Egypt, during their journey in Shechem, in a parcel of ground which Jacob bought of the sons of Haman the father of Shechem, for a hundred pieces of silver: and it became the inheritance of the children of Joseph.

33 And Elazar the son of Aaron died, and they buried him in a hill that pertained to Phinehas his son, which was given him in mount Ephraim.

THE BOOK OF JUDGES.

CHAP. I.

2 The acts of Judah and Simeon. 4 Adoni-bezek justly requited. 8 Jerusalem taken. 10 Hebron taken. 11 Orniel hath Achishai to wife for taking of Hebron. The Kenites dwell in Judah. 17 Hormah, Gath, Askelon and Ekron taken. 21 The acts of Benjamin. 23 Of the house of Joseph, who take Bethel. 30 Of Zebulun. 31 Of Asher. 33 Of Naphtali. 34 Of Dan.

NOW after the death of Joshua, it came to pass, that the children of Israel asked the L o a m saying, Who shall go up for us against the Canaanites first to fight against them?

2 And the L o a m said, Judah shall go up before us, I have delivered the land into his hand.

3 And Judah said unto Simeon his brother, Come up with me, forasmuch as thou art more might against the Canaanites, and I will follow thee.

4 And Judah went up, and the L o a m delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand: and they slew of them in Bezek six hundred men.

5 And they found Adoni-bezek in Bezek: and they fought against him, and they slew the Canaanites, and the Perizzites.

6 But Adoni-bezek said, now ye have overcome me, and caught him, and cut off his thumbs, and his great toes.

7 And Adoni-bezek said, Therefore and ten kings, having: their thumbs and their great toes cut off, gathered their meat under my table: as I have done, so God hath requited me. And they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died.

8 ¶ When the children of Judah had fought against Jerusalem, and had taken it, and smitten it with the edge of the sword, and let the city on fire.

9 ¶ And afterwards the children of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites that dwell in the mountain, and in the south, and in the valley.

10 And Judah went against the Canaanites that dwell in Hebron, (now the name of Hebron before was Kirjath-arba) and they slew Achish, and Abime, and Tamai.

11 And from thence he went against the inhabitants of Debir: (and the name of Debir before was Kirjath sephe)

12 And Caleb said, De that I smite Kirjath-sepher, and deliver it, to him will I give Achish my daughter to wife.

13 And Orniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother took it: and he gave him Achish his daughter to wife.

14 And it came to pass when he came to him, that he moved him to ask of her father a sister: and she looked from off her ass, and Caleb said unto her, What wilt thou?

15 And she said unto him, Give me a brother: for thou hast given me a south-land, give me

16 And the children of the Kenite, Mooses father in law, went up out of the city of palm-trees, with the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which lieth in the south of Arad, and they went and dwelt among the people.

17 And Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they slew the Canaanites that inhabited Jephthah, and utterly destroyed it: (and the name of the city was called Hormah.)

18 Also Judah took Gaza with the coast thereof, and Askelon with the coast thereof, and Ekron with the coast thereof.

19 And the LORD was with Judah, and he drove out the inhabitants of the mountain, but could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had chariots of iron.

20 And they gave Hebron unto Caleb, as Mooses said: and he expelled thence the three sons of Anak.

21 And the children of Benjamin did not drive out the Jebusites that inhabited Jerusalem: but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem unto this day.

22 And the house of Joseph, they also went up against Beth-el: and the LORD was with them.

23 And the house of Joseph sent to deliver Beth-el (now the name of the city before was Luz).

24 And the spies saw a man come forth out of the city, and they said unto him, Shew us, we pray thee, the entrance into the city, and we will shew thee mercy.

25 And when he shewed them the entrance into the city, they smote the city with the edge of the sword: but they let go the man and all his family.

26 And the man went into the land of the Hittites, and built a city, and called the name thereof Luz, which is the name thereof unto this day.

27 Neither did Manasse drive out the inhabitants of Beth-shean and her towns, nor Tanach and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Doi and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Abeam and her towns, nor the inhabitants of Megiddo and her towns: but the Canaanites would dwell in that land.

28 And it came to pass when Israel was strong, that they put the Canaanites to tribute, and did not utterly drive them out.

29 Neither did Ephraim drive out the Canaanites that dwell in Gazer: but the Canaanites dwell in Gazer among them.

30 Neither did Benjamin drive out the inhabitants of Kirion, nor the inhabitants of Abahol: but the Canaanites dwell among them, and became tributaries.

31 Neither did Asher drive out the inhabitants of Accho, nor the inhabitants of Sidon, nor of Abihah, nor Achzib, nor Helbah, nor Apphah, nor of Rehob:

32 But the Hittites dwell among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land: for they did not drive them out.

33 Neither did Naphtali drive out the inhabitants of Beth-shechem, nor the inhabitants of Beth-anath, but he dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land: nevertheless, the inhabitants of Beth-shechem and of Beth-anath became tributaries unto them.

34 And the Amorites forced the children of Dan into the mountain: for they would not suffer them to come down to the valley.

35 But the Amorites would dwell in mount

Heres in Ajalon, and in Gabaabim: yet the hand of the house of Joseph prevailed, so that they were become tributaries.

36 And the coast of the Amorites was from the Or, Maaleh, going up to Akkrabim, from the rock, & upland, akkrabim.

CHAP. III.

1 An angel rebuketh the people at Bechim, & Thos wickedness of the new generation after Joshua.

14 Gods anger and pity towards them. 20 The Canaanites are left to prove Israel.

AND an angel of the LORD came up from Gilgal to Bechim, and said, I made you to go up out of Egypt, and have brought you unto the land which I swear unto your fathers; and I said, I will never break my covenant with you.

2 And ye shall make no league with the inhabitants of this land, ye shall throw down their altars: for ye have not obeyed my voice; why have ye done this?

3 And therefore I also said, I will not drive them out from before you: but they shall be as thorns in your sides, and their gods shall be a snare unto you.

4 And it came to pass, when the angel of the LORD spake these words unto all the children of Israel, that the people lift up their voice, and wept.

5 And they called the name of that place Bechim: and they sacrificed there unto the LORD.

6 And when Joshua had led the people, the children of Israel went every man unto his inheritance to possess the land.

7 And the people served the LORD all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders that lived after Joshua, who had seen all the great works of the LORD, that he did for Israel.

8 And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died, being an hundred and ten years old.

9 And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnath-heres, in the mount of Ephraim, on the north side of the hill Gaash.

10 And also all that generation were gathered unto their fathers: and there arose another generation after them, which knew not the LORD, nor yet the works which he had done for Israel.

11 And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and served Baalim:

12 And they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, which brought them out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods, of the gods of the people that were round about them, and bowed themselves unto them, and provoked the LORD to anger.

13 And they forsook the LORD, and served Baal and Ashtaroth.

14 And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and he delivered them into the hands of spoilers that spoiled them, and he sold them into the hands of their enemies round about, so that they could not any longer stand before their enemies.

15 Wherefore when they went out, the hand of the LORD was against them, as of old, as the LORD had said, and as the LORD had sworn unto them, when they were greatly distressed.

16 And Jeroboam, the LORD raised up judges, which delivered them out of the hand of all these that spoiled them.

17 And yet they would not hearken unto their judges, but they went a whoring after other gods, and bowed themselves unto them: they turned quickly out of the way, which their fathers walked

1 Deborah and Barak deliver Israel from Jabin and Sisera. 18 Jael killeth Sisera.

AND the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of the L O M O when Gude was dead.

2 And the L O M O sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, that reigned in Hazor: the captain of whose host was Sisera, which dwelt in Harosheth of the Gentiles.

3 And the children of Israel cried unto the L O M O: for he had nine hundred chariots of iron: and twenty years he mightily oppressed the children of Israel.

4 And Deborah a prophetess, the wife of Lapidoth, she judged Israel at that time.

5 And the dwellers under the palm-trees of Deborah, between Ramah and Beth-el in mount Ephraim: and the children of Israel came up to her for judgement.

6 And the tent and called Barak the son of Abinoam, out of Kishon-naphthali, and said unto him, hath not the L O M O God of Israel commanded, saying, Go, and smite thine enemy Tabor, and take thine ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali and of the children of Zebulun?

7 And I will wait unto thee, to the river Kishon, Sisera the captain of Jabin's army, with his chariots, and his multitude: and I will deliver him into thine hand.

8 And Barak said unto her, If thou wilt go with me, then I will go: but if thou wilt not go with me, then I will not go.

9 And she said, I will surely go with thee: notwithstanding the journey that thou takest, shall not be for thine honour: for the L O M O shall sell Sisera into the hand of a woman. And Deborah arose, and went with Barak to Kishon.

10 And Barak called Zebulun and Naphtali, to Kishon, and he went with ten thousand men at his feet: and Deborah went up with him.

11 Now Deborah the Kenite, which was of the children of Moab the father in law of Balaam, had turned herself from the Kenites, and pitched his tent unto the plain of Jaanaim, which is by Kedesh.

12 And they pitched Sisera, that Barak the son of Abinoam was gone up to mount Tabor.

13 And Sisera gathered together all his chariots, even nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people that were with him, from Harosheth of the Gentiles, unto the river Kishon.

14 And Deborah said unto Barak, (for so this is the day in which the L O M O hath delivered Sisera into thine hand:) is not the L O M O gone out before thee? so Barak went down from mount Tabor, and ten thousand men after him.

15 And the L O M O did confound Sisera, and all his chariots, and all his host with the edge of the sword, before Barak: so that Sisera lightly downed in his chariot, and fled away on his feet.

16 But Barak pursued after the Chittims: and after the host unto Harosheth of the Gentiles: and all the host of Sisera fell upon the edge of the sword, and there was not a man left.

17 Howbeit Sisera fled away on his feet to the tent of Jael the wife of Deber the Kenite: for there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor, and the house of Deber the Kenite.

18 And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said unto him, What is thy lord, that thou art not a man? and when he had answered unto her, she took him, and covered him with a mantle.

19 And he said unto her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water to drink, for I am thirsty: and she opened a bottle of milk, and gave him drink, and covered him.

20 Again he said unto her, Stand in the door of the tent, and it shall be when any man doth come and enquire of thee, and say, Is there any man here? that thou shalt say, No.

21 Then Jael covered him, took a nail of the tent, and thrust him in her heart, and smote softly unto him, and smote the nail into his temples, and fastened it into the ground: (for he was fast asleep, and weary) so he died.

22 And behold, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael came out to meet him, and said unto him, Come, and I will shew thee the man whom thou seekest. And when he came into her tent, behold, Sisera lay dead, and the nail was in his temples.

23 So God humbled on that day, Jabin the king of Canaan, before the children of Israel.

24 And the hands of the children of Israel prospered, and prevailed against Jabin the king of Canaan, until they had destroyed Jabin-king of Canaan.

CHAP. V.

1 The song of Deborah and Barak.

Then sang Deborah, and Barak the son of Abinoam, on that day, saying,

2 Smile ye the L O M O for the avenging of Israel, when the people willingly offered themselves.

3 Hear, O ye kings, give ear, O ye princes: I, even I will sing unto the L O M O, I will sing praise to the L O M O God of Israel.

4 L O M O, when thou wentest out of Seir, when thou marchest out of the field of Eden, the earth trembled, and the heavens dropped, the clouds also dropped water.

5 The mountains melted from before the L O M O, even that Sinai from before the L O M O God of Israel.

6 In the days of Shamgar the son of Anath, in the days of Jael, the high-ways were unoccupied, and the travellers walked through the by-ways:

7 The inhabitants of the villages cry, they cried in Israel, until that Jael arose, and slew a mother in Israel.

8 They chose men of war: there was war in the gates: there were a slain a soldier among fourty thousand in Israel.

9 My heart is turned to the governors of Israel, that observe themselves, willing to among the people: Bless ye the L O M O.

10 I speak ye that rise in the day of judgement, and work by the word.

11 They that are delivered from the mouth of archers in the places of burning water, there shall they rehearse the righteous acts of the L O M O, even the righteous acts towards the inhabitants of his villages in Israel: then shall the people of outcasts of the L O M O go down to the gates.

12 Awake, awake Deborah: awake, awake, utter a song: arise Barak, and lead the captive, thou home of Abinoam.

13 When he smote him that remained have dominion over the nobles among the people: the L O M O made me have dominion over the mighty.

14 Out of Ephraim was there a root of them against Sisera, after that Benjamin among the people: out of Issachar came below Succoth, and out of Zebulun they that handle the bow, with the spear.

15 And the princes of Issachar were with Deborah: even Issachar, and also Barak, he was sent on foot into the valley: for the divisions of Reuben, there were great thoughts of heart.

16 Why abodest thou among the sheepfolds, to heare the bleatings of the flocks? for the divisions of Reuben, there were great leachings of heart.

17 O Sleepest thou beyond Jordan, and why didst thou remain in ships? After continued on the sea I hope, and abode in his breaches.

18 Zebulun and Naphtali were a people that forsook their lives unto the death, in the high places of the field.

19 The kings came and fought, then fought the kings of Canaan in Cannah by the waters of Merom, they took no gain of money.

20 They fought from heaven, the stars in their courses fought against Sisera.

21 The river of Kishon swept them away, the ancient river, the river Kishon: O my soul, thou hast trodden down strength.

22 Then were the hoofs broken, by the means of the pinnings, the pinnings of their mighty ones.

23 Curst ye Hecoz, (said the angel of the Lord) curst ye bitterly the inhabitants thereof: because they came not to the help of the Lord, to the help of the Lord God against the mighty.

24 Blessed above women shall Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite be, blessed shall she be above women in the tent.

25 We asked water, and she gave him milk, she brought forth butter in a costly dish.

26 She put her hand to the nail, and her right hand to the workmens hammer: and with the hammer she smote Sisera, she smote off his head, when he had pierced and stricken through his temples.

27 At her feet he bowed, he fell, he lay down: at her feet he bowed, he fell; where he bowed, there he fell down dead.

28 The mother of Sisera looked out at a window, and cried through the lattice, Why is his chariot so long in coming? Why tarry the wheels of his chariot?

29 Her wise ladies answered her, yea, she returned and answer to her self,

30 Have they not sped? have they not divided the prey? to every man a banquet or two? to Sisera a prey of divers colours, a prey of divers colours of needle-work, of divers colours of needle-work on both sides, meet for the necks of them that take the spoil?

31 So let all thine enemies perish, O Lord: but let them that love him, be as the sunne when he goeth forth in his might. And the land had rest forty years.

CHAP. VI.

1 The Israelites for their sinne are oppressed by Midian. 2 A prophet rebuketh them. 11 An angel sendeth Gideon for their deliverance. 17 Gideons present is consumed with fire. 25 Gideon depreveth Baal's altar, and offereth a sacrifice upon the altar Jephthah-sha-han. 28 Jotha defendeth his sinne, and calleth him Jephthah. 33 Gideons army. 36 Gideons signet.

AND the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the Lord: and the Lord delivered them into the hand of Midian seven years.

2 And the band of Midian pitched against Israel: and because of the Amorites the children of Israel made them the heads they are in the mountains, and caves, and strong holds.

3 And so it was, when Israel had sowed, that the Amorites came up, and the Amalekites, and the children of the east, even they came up against them:

4 And they encamped against them, and destroyed the increase of the earth, till thou comest unto Gaza; and left no substance for Israel, neither sleep, nor oil, nor ass.

5 For they came up with their cattell, and their tents, and they came as grasshoppers for multitude, for both they and their camels were without number: and they entered into the land to destroy it.

6 And Israel was greatly impoverished, because of the Amorites; and the children of Israel cried unto the Lord.

7 And it came to pass, when the children of Israel cried unto the Lord, because of the Amorites;

8 That the Lord sent a prophet unto the children of Israel, which said unto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I thought you up from Egypt, and brought you forth out of the house of bondage.

9 And I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all that oppressed you, and have them out from before you, and gave you their land:

10 And I said unto you, I am the Lord your God, fear not the gods of the Amorites in whose land ye dwell: but ye have not obeyed my voice.

11 And there came an angel of the Lord, and sat under an oak which was in Ephraim, that pertained unto Joash the Abiezrite: and his horns were upon the wheat by the wine-press, to hide it from the Amorites.

12 And the angel of the Lord appeared unto him, and said unto him, The Lord is with thee, thou mighty man of valour.

13 And Gideon said unto him, Oh my lord, if the Lord be with us, why then is all this befallen us? and where be all his miracles which our fathers told us of, saying, Did not the Lord bring us up from Egypt? but now the Lord hath forsaken us, and delivered us into the hands of the Amorites.

14 And the Lord looked upon him, and said, Go in this thy might, and thou shalt save Israel from the hand of the Amorites: have not I sent thee?

15 And he said unto him, Oh my lord, where-with shall I save Israel? behold, my family is poor in Ephraim, and I am the least in my fathers house.

16 And the Lord said unto him, Surely I will be with thee, and thou shalt smite the Amorites, as one man.

17 And he said unto him, If now I have found grace in thy sight, then shew me a signe that thou talkest with me.

18 Depart not hence, I pray thee, until I come unto thee, and bring forth my present, and set it before thee. And he said, I will tarrye until thou come again.

19 And Gideon went in, and made ready a kid, and unleavened cakes of an ephah of flour: the flesh he put in a basket, and he put the kid in a pot, and brought it out unto him under the oak, and presented it.

20 And the angel of God said unto him, Take the flesh, and the unleavened cakes, and lay them upon this rock, and poure out the beer. And he did so.

under the grasshoppers for multitude; and their camps were in the mountain, as the land by the sea side by the mountain.

12 And when Gideon was come, behold, there was a man that told a dream unto his fellow, and said, Behold, I dreamed a dream, and lo, a cake of barley bread tumbled into the host of Midian, and came into a tent, and smote it that it fell, and overturned it, that the tent lay along.

13 And his fellow answered, and said, This is nothing else save the labour of Gideon the son of Joash, a man of Israel; for into his hand hath God delivered Midian, and all the host.

14 And it was so, when Gideon heard the telling of the dream, and the interpretation thereof, that he was happy, and returned into the host of Israel, and said, I will do as ye have said. And he delivered into your hand the host of Midian.

15 And he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put a trumpet in every man's hand, with empty pitchers, and lamps within the pitchers.

16 And he said unto them, Look on me, and do likewise; and behold, when I have to the outside of the camp, it shall be that as I do, so shall ye do.

17 And when he blew with a trumpet, I and all that are with me, then blow ye the trumpets also on every side of all the camp, and say, The sword of the Lord, and of Gideon.

18 So Gideon and the hundred men that were with him came unto the outside of the camp, in the beginning of the watch; and they had but newly set the watch, and they blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers that were in their hands.

19 And the three companies blew the trumpets, and brake the pitchers, and held the lamps in their left hands, and the trumpets in their right hands to blow withal: and they cried, The sword of the Lord, and of Gideon.

20 And they stood every man in his place, every about the camp: and all the host ran, and cried, and fled.

21 And the three hundred blew the trumpets, and the Lord wrought for them, and brought down against his fellow, even throughout all the host: and the host fled to Beth-barah, I in Jericho, and to the tower of the Sycamore, unto Tabbath.

22 And the men of Israel gathered themselves together out of Ephraim, and out of Asher, and out of all Ephraim, and pursued after the Amorites.

23 And Gideon sent messengers throughout all mount Ephraim, saying, Come down against the Amorites, and take before them the waters unto Beth-barah and Jordan. When all the men of Ephraim gathered themselves together, and took the waters unto Beth-barah and Jordan.

24 And they took two princes of the Amorites, Dab and Zeb, and they slew Dab upon the rock. Dab and Zeb they slew at the tower of the Sycamore, and pursued Midian, and brought the heads of Dab and Zeb, to Gideon on the other side Jordan.

CHAP. VIII.

Gideon pacifieth the Ephraimites. 1. Succoth and Penuel refuse to relieve Gideon's army: 2. Zebah and Zalmunna are taken. 3. Succoth and Penuel are destroyed. 4. Gideon revengeth his brethren's death on Zebah and Zalmunna. 5. He refuseth to be king. 6. His epical cause of victory. 7. He refuseth to be king. 8. Gideon's children and death. 9. The Israelites' idleness and ingratitude.

AND the men of Ephraim said unto him, Where hast thou searched us thus, that thou callest us not when thou desirest to fight with the Amorites? And they did give him this sharply.

2 And he said unto them, What have I done now in comparison of you? Is not the gleanings of the grapes of Ephraim, better than the vintage of Asher?

3 God hath delivered into your hands the princes of Midian, Dab and Zeb: and what was I done to do for comparison of you? When their anger was kindled towards him, when he had said that.

4 And Gideon came to Jordan, and passed over, he and the three hundred men that were with him, faint, yet pursuing them.

5 And he said unto the men of Succoth, O Sir, I have your loafes of bread unto the people that follow me, for they be faint, and I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, kings of Midian.

6 And the princes of Succoth said, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thine hands, that we should give bread unto thy army?

7 And Gideon said, Therefore when the Lord hath delivered Zebah and Zalmunna into mine hands, I will that your flesh be for the doors of the gate, and with yours.

8 And he went up thence to Peniel, and spake unto them likewise: and the men of Peniel answered him, as the men of Succoth had answered him.

9 And he spake also unto the men of Peniel, saying, When I come again to peace, I will break down this tower.

10 And Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karbor, and their hosts with them, about fifteen thousand men, all that were left of all the hosts of the children of the east: for they left an hundred and threescore chaldean men that were bowmen.

11 And Gideon went up by the way of them that dwell in tents, on the fall of Jordan, and Jogabab, and smote the host: for the host was secure.

12 And when Zebah and Zalmunna fled, he pursued after them, and took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and he dismissed all the host.

13 And Gideon the sonne of Joash returned from Bethel before the sun was up, 14 And caught a young man of the men of Succoth, and enquired of him: and he described unto him the places of Succoth, and the towers thereof, even the tower of the watermen.

15 And he came unto the men of Succoth, and said, Behold, Zebah and Zalmunna, with whom ye did worship me, saying, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna now in thine hands? that we should give bread unto thy men that be weary.

16 And he took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness, and thiers, and with them he smote the men of Succoth.

17 And he beat down the tower of Peniel, and slew the men of the city.

18 And when he was unto Zebah and Zalmunna, what manner of men were they, whom ye slew at Karbor? And they answered, As thou art so were they, each one resembling for the children of a king.

19 And he said, Then were my brethren, even the sonnes of my mother: as the Lord hath said, if ye had saved them alive, I would not have you.

20 And he said unto Zebah his first-born, O, and say them: but the youth say not his words.

to Beer, and dwelt there, for fear of Abimelech his brother.

22 ¶ When Abimelech had reigned three years over Israel.

23 Then God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the men of Shechem: and the men of Shechem dealt treacherously with Abimelech:

24 That the cruelty done to the shepherds and to the flocks of Jerubbaal might come, and their blood be laid upon Abimelech their brother which slew them, and upon the men of Shechem which joined him in the killing of his brethren.

These men joined his hands to kill:

25 And the men of Shechem set liers in wait for him in the top of the mountains, and they robbed all that came along that way by them: and it was told Abimelech.

26 And Gaal the sonne of Ebed came with his brethren, and went over to Shechem: and the men of Shechem put their confidence in him.

107, songs.

27 And they went out into the fields, and gathered their vineyards, and trode the grapes, and made them wine, and went into the house of their god, and did eat, and drink, and cursed Abimelech.

28 And Gaal the sonne of Ebed said, Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? is not he the sonne of Jerubbaal, and Zebul his officer? serve the men of Hamor the father of Shechem: for why should we serve him?

29 And would to God this people were under my hands; then would I remove Abimelech. And he said to Abimelech, Increase thine army, and come out.

107, hot.

30 ¶ And when Zebul the ruler of the citie heard the words of Gaal the sonne of Ebed, his anger was kindled.

These, craftily, as to Tormah

31 And he sent messengers unto Abimelech secretly, saying, Behold, Gaal the sonne of Ebed, and his brethren be come to Shechem; and behold, they fortifie the citie against thee.

32 Now therefore up by night, thou and the people that is with thee, and lie in wait in the field.

These as thine hand shall strike,

33 And it shall be, that in the morning as soon as the sunne is up, thou shalt rise early, and set upon the citie: and behold, when he and the people that is with him come out against thee, then mayest thou do to them as thou shalt finde occasion.

34 ¶ And Abimelech rose up, and all the people that were with him, by night, and they laid wait against Shechem in foure companies.

35 And Gaal the sonne of Ebed went out, and stood in the entering of the gate of the citie: and Abimelech rose up, and the people that were with him from lying in wait.

36 And when Gaal saw the people, he said to Zebul, Behold, there come people down from the top of the mountains. And Zebul said unto him, Thou seest the shadow of the mountains as if they were men.

These, navel, the regarders of times,

37 And Gaal spake again, and said, See, there come people down by the middle of the land, and another company come along by the plain of Ephraim.

38 Then said Zebul unto him, Where is now thy strength, wherewith thou saidst, Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him? is not this the people that thou hast despised? go out, I pray thee, and fight with him.

39 And Gaal went out before the men of Shechem, and fought with Abimelech.

40 And Abimelech chased him, and he fled before him, and many were overthrowen and wounded, even unto the entering of the gate.

41 And Abimelech dwelt at Armon; and Zebul thrust out Gaal and his brethren, that they should not dwell in Shechem.

42 And it came to passe on the morrow, that the people went out into the field, and they told Abimelech.

43 And he took the people, and divided them into three companies, and laid wait in the field, and looked, and behold, the people were come forth out of the citie, and he rose up against them, and smote them.

44 And Abimelech, and the companies that was with him, rushed forward, and stood in the entering of the gate of the citie: and the two other companies ran upon all the people that were in the fields, and slew them.

45 And Abimelech fought against the citie all that day, and he took the citie, and slew the people that was therein, and beat down the citie, and tower it with salt.

46 ¶ And when all the men of the tower of Shechem heard that, they entered into an hold of the house of the god Berith.

47 And it was told Abimelech, that all the men of the tower of Shechem were gathered together.

48 And Abimelech gat him up to mount Zalmon, he and all the people that were with him, and Abimelech took an ax in his hand, and cut down a bough from the trees, and took it, and laid it on his shoulder, and said unto the people that were with him, What ye have sent me do, make haste, and do as I have done.

These, this done,

49 And all the people likewise cut down every man his bough, and followed Abimelech, and put them to the hold, and set the hold on fire upon them: so that all the men of the tower of Shechem died also, about a thousand men and women.

50 ¶ Then went Abimelech to Thebez, and entamped against Thebez, and took it.

51 But there was a strong tower within the citie, and thither fled all the men and women, and all they of the citie, and that it to them, and gat them up to the top of the tower.

52 And Abimelech came unto the tower, and fought against it, and went hard unto the doore of the tower to batter it with fire.

53 And a certain woman cast a piece of a mill stone upon Abimelechs head, and all to brake his skull.

54 Then he called hastily unto the young man his armour-bearer, and said unto him, Draw thy sword, and slay me, that men lay not of me. A woman slew him. And his young man thrust him through, and he died.

55 And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they departed every man unto his place.

56 ¶ Thus God rendered the wickedness of Abimelech which he did unto his father, in slaying his seventy brethren.

57 And all the evil of the men of Shechem, did God render upon their heads: and upon them came the curse of Jotham the sonne of Jerubbaal.

CHAP. X.

1 Tola judgeth Israel in Shamir. 3 Jair, whose thirty sonnes had thirty citie. 7 The Philistines and Ammonites oppress Israel. 10 In their misery, God sendeth them to their false gods. 15 Upon their repentance he pitteth them.

And after Abimelech, there arose to defend Israel, Tola the sonne of Dothan, the sonne of Dothan.

These, deliver these, these Doth, a man of Ephraim; and he dwelt in Ephraim in mount Gilead.

2 And he judged Israel twenty and three years, and dwelt, and was buried in Ephraim.

3 And after him arose Jair a Gileadite, and judged Israel twenty and two years.

4 And he had thirty daughters that rode on chariots and colts, and they had thirty cities, which are called: Havoth-jair unto this day, which are in the land of Gilead.

5 And Jair died, and was buried in Gilead.

6 And the children of Israel did evil again in the sight of the L. G. M., and served Baalim, and 7 And the anger of the L. G. M. was hot against Israel, and he sold them into the hands of the Philistines, and into the hands of the children of Ammon.

8 And that year they reared and foppessed the children of Israel: eighteen years, all the children of Israel that were on the other side Jordan, in the land of the Ammonites, which is in Gilead.

9 And the children of Ammon passed over Jordan, to fight also against Judah, and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim; so that Israel was like distressed.

10 And the children of Israel cried unto the L. G. M., saying, We have sinned against thee, both because we have forsaken our God, and also served Baalim.

11 And the L. G. M. said unto the children of Israel, Did not I deliver you from the Egyptians, and from the Amorites, from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines?

12 The Ephraimites also, and the Amalekites, and the Amorites did oppress you, and ye cried to me, and I delivered you out of their hand.

13 Yet ye have forsaken me, and served other gods: therefore I will deliver you no more.

14 Go and cry unto the gods which ye have chosen, let them deliver you in the time of your tribulation.

15 And the children of Israel said unto the L. G. M., We have sinned, do thou unto us whatsoever I command thee, and we will obey thee, and we will serve thee, and we will be thy people.

16 And they put away the strange gods from among them, and served the L. G. M.; and his soul was grieved for the mischief of Israel.

17 Then the children of Ammon were gathered together, and encamped in Gilead: and the children of Israel assembled themselves together, and encamped in Gilead.

18 And the people and princes of Gilead said one to another, What man is he that will begin to fight against the children of Ammon? he shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

CHAP. XI.

1 The covenant between Jephthah and the Gileadites; that he should be their head. 12 The treaty of peace between him and the Ammonites is in vain. 29 Jephthah's vow. 30 His conquest of the Ammonites: 31 He performs his vow on his daughter.

Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty man of valour, and he was the son of an Ammonite and Gilead dwelt Jephthah.

2 And Gileadites had him for their head, and his where Gilead dwelt up, and they thought on Jephthah, and said unto him, When shall we be delivered out of the hands of the Ammonites? for they are the house of a strange woman.

3 Then Jephthah sent a messenger from the Gilead, and dwelt in the land of Tob; and there were gathered unto him men of Gilead, and went out with him.

4 And it came to pass, that in the process of time, that the children of Ammon made war against Israel.

5 And it was so, that when the children of Ammon made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to fetch Jephthah out of the land of Tob.

6 And they said unto Jephthah, Come and be our captain, for we are in distress with the children of Ammon.

7 And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead, Did not ye hate me, and expell me out of my father's house? and why are ye come unto me now, when ye are in distress?

8 And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, Therefore we have again to thee now, that thou mayest go with us, and fight against the children of Ammon, and be our head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

9 And Jephthah said unto the elders of Gilead, If ye bring me home again to fight against the children of Ammon, and the L. G. M. to deliver them before me; shall I be your head?

10 And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, The L. G. M. be witness between us, if we do not so according to thy word.

11 Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and captain over them: and Jephthah uttered all his words before the L. G. M. in Gilead.

12 And Jephthah had messengers unto the king of the children of Ammon, saying, Hast thou to do with me, that thou art come against me to fight in my land?

13 And the king of the children of Ammon answered unto the messengers of Jephthah, Because Israel took away my land, when they came up out of Egypt, from Horeb even unto Jabbar, and unto Jordan now therefore restore that land again peaceably.

14 And Jephthah sent messengers again unto the king of the children of Ammon:

15 And said unto him, Thus said Jephthah, Israel took not away the land of Moab, nor the land of the children of Ammon:

16 But when Israel came up from Egypt, and walked through the wilderness unto the Red Sea, and came to Kadesh:

17 Then Israel sent messengers unto the king of Edom, saying, Let me, I pray thee, pass through thy land: for the land of Edom would not hearken thereto. And in those times thou sent unto the king of Moab; but he would not consent: and Israel abode in Kadesh.

18 Then they went along through the wilderness, and compassed the land of Edom, and the land of Moab, and came by the valley of the land of Moab, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, but came not within the borders of Moab: for Arnon was the border of Moab.

19 And Israel sent messengers unto Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon, and Israel said unto him, Let us pass, we pray thee, through thy land, unto my place.

20 But Sihon would not let Israel to pass through his land: but Sihon gathered all his people together, and pitched in Jahaz, and fought against Israel.

26 Wilt thou dwell in Jeshbon and her towers, and in Aroer and her towers, and in all the cities that be along by the coasts of Arnon, three hundred years: why therewith did ye not recover them within that time?

27 Wherefore I have not sinned against thee, but thou dost me wrong to warr against me: the L. O. O. the Judge, be judge this day between the children of Israel and the children of Ammon.

28 Wherefore the king of the children of Ammon hearkened not unto the words of Jephthah which he sent him.

29 ¶ Then the spirit of the L. O. O. came upon Jephthah, and he passed over Gilead, and Gad, and passed over Mizpeh of Gilead, and from Mizpeh of Gilead he passed over unto the children of Ammon.

30 And Jephthah vowed a vow unto the L. O. O., and said, If thou shalt without fail deliver the children of Ammon into mine hands, 31 Then it shall be, that I whatsoever cometh forth of the doors of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the children of Ammon, shall surely be the L. O. O., and I will offer it up for a burnt-offering.

32 ¶ So Jephthah passed over unto the children of Ammon to fight against them, and the L. O. O. delivered them into his hands.

33 And he smote them from Aroer, even till thou come to Mizpeh, even twenty cities, and unto the plain of the vineyards, with a very great slaughter: thus the children of Ammon were subdued before the children of Israel.

34 ¶ And Jephthah came to Mizpeh unto his house, and behold, his daughter came out to meet him with timbrels and with dances, and she was his only child: I + beside her he had no other sons nor daughter.

35 And it came to pass when he saw her, that he rent his clothes, and said, Alas, my daughter, thou hast brought me very low, and thou art one of them that trouble me: for I have opened my mouth unto the L. O. O., and I cannot go back.

36 And she said unto him, My father, if thou hast opened thy mouth unto the L. O. O., do so now according to that which hath proceeded out of the mouth, forasmuch as the L. O. O. hath taken vengeance for thee of thine enemies, even of the children of Ammon.

37 And she said unto her father, Let this thing be done for me: Let me alone two months, that I may go up and down upon the mountains, and bewail my virginity, I and my fellows.

38 And he said, Go. And he sent her away for two months: and she went with her companions, and bewailed her virginity upon the mountains.

39 And it came to pass at the end of two months that she returned unto her father, who said with her according to his vow which he had vowed: and she knew no man. And it was a custom in Israel, 40 That the daughters of Israel went year by year, to lament the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite four days in a year.

CHAP. XII.

1 The Ephraimites quarrelling with Jephthah, and discerned by Shibboleth, are slain by the Gileadites. 7 Jephthah dieth. 8 Ibzan, who had thirty sons, and thirty daughters, 11 and Elon, 13 and Abdon, who had forty sons, and thirty nephews, judged Israel.

AND the men of Ephraim gathered themselves together, and went northward, and said unto Jephthah, Wherefore passedst thou over to fight against the children of Ammon, and dost not call us to go with thee? we will burn thine house upon thee with fire.

2 And Jephthah said unto them, I and my people were at great strife with the children of Ammon; and when I called you, ye delivered me not out of their hands.

3 And when I saw that ye delivered me not, I put my life in my hands, and passed over against the children of Ammon, and the L. O. O. delivered them into my hand: wherefore then are ye come up unto me this day, to fight against me?

4 Then Jephthah gathered together all the men of Gilead, and fought with Ephraim: and the men of Gilead smote Ephraim, because they said, Ye Gileadites are fugitives of Ephraim, among the Ephraimites, and among the Gadites.

5 And the Gileadites took the passages of Jordan before the Ephraimites: and it was so, that when those Ephraimites which were escaped said, Let me go over; that the men of Gilead said unto him, Art thou an Ephraimite? If he said, Nay:

6 Then said they unto him, Say now Shibboleth: and he said Sibboleth: for he could not frame to pronounce it right. Then they took him, and slew him at the passages of Jordan: and there fell at that time of the Ephraimites, fourty and two thousand.

7 And Jephthah judged Israel six years: then died Jephthah the Gileadite, and was buried in one of the cities of Gilead.

8 ¶ And after him Ibzan of Beth-lehem judged Israel.

9 And he had thirty sons, and thirty daughters whom he sent abroad, and took in thirty daughters from abroad for his sons. And he judged Israel seven years.

10 Then died Ibzan, and was buried in Beth-lehem.

11 ¶ And after him, Elon a Zebulonite judged Israel, and he judged Israel ten years.

12 And Elon the Zebulonite died, and was buried in Ajjalon in the country of Zebulun.

13 ¶ And after him, Abdon the sonne of Hillel a Pirathonite judged Israel.

14 And he had forty sons, and thirty + nephews, that rode on threepace, and ten ass colts: and he judged Israel eight years.

15 And Abdon the sonne of Hillel the Pirathonite died, and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the mount of the Amalekites.

2 ¶ And there was a certain man of Zorah, of the family of the Danites, whose name was Pa-nuah, and his wife was barren and bare not.

3 And the angel of the Lord appeared unto the woman, and said unto her, Behold now, thou art barren, and bearest not: but thou shalt conceive and bear a sonne.

4 Now therefore beware, I pray thee, and * drink not wine, nor strong drink, and eat not childe shall be a Nazarite unto God: from the wombe: and he shall begin to deliver Israel out of the hand of the Philistines.

6 ¶ Then the woman came, and told her husband, saying, A man of God came into me, and his countenance was like the countenance of an angel of God, very terrible: but I asked him not whence he was, neither told he me his name.

7 But he said unto Mr. Behold, thou shalt conceive and bear a Sonne; and now drink no wine nor strong drink, neither eat any unclean thing: for the child shall be a Nazarite to God, from the wombe to the day of his death.

8 ¶ Then Manoah intreated the Lord, and said, O my Lord, let the man of God which thou dost send, come again unto us, and teach us what we shall do unto the child: that shall be him.

9 And God hearkened to the voice of Hannah, and the angel of God came again unto the woman as she sat in the field: but Hannah her husband was not with her.

10 And the woman made haste, and ran, and shewed her husband, and said unto him, Behold, the man hath appeared unto me, that came unto me the other day.

11 And Dinah arose, and went after his wife, and came to the man, and said unto him. Art thou the man that spakest unto the woman? And he said, I am.

12. And Manoah said, How let thy words come to passe: † How shall we order the childe, and † how shall we do unto him?

13 And the angel of the Lord said unto Manoah, Of all that I said unto the woman, let her beware.

14 She may not eat of any thing that cometh of the vine, neither let her drink wine or strong drink, nor eat any unclean thing: all that I commanded her, let her observe.

16 And the angel of the Lord said unto Manoah, Though thou detain me, I will not eat of thy bread : and if thou wilt offer a burnt-offer-cause it is a secret:

19 So Manoah took a kid, with a meat offering, and offered it upon a rock unto the Lord: and the angel did wonderously, and Manoah and his wife looked on.

30 For it came to pass, when the flame went up whereby heaven from off the altar, that the angel of the Lord was ascended in the flame of the altar: and Simeon and his wife looked on it, and fell on their faces to the ground.

21 (But the angel of the L. O. M. D. did no more appear to Manoah and to his wife) then Manoah knew that he was an angel of the L. O. M. D.

22 And Manoah said unto his wife, * We shall surely die, because we have seen God.

23 But his wife said unto him, If the Lord will, he would not have received a burnt-offering and a meat-offering at our hands, neither would he have secured us all these things, nor would he at this time have told us such things as these.

24 ¶ And the woman bare a sonne, and called his name Samson: and the child grew, and the Lord was blessed him.

25 And the spirit of the L ^o ^d began to move him at times in the camp of Dan, between Zorah and Eshtaul.

CHAP. XIII

1 Samson desireth a wife of the Philistines. 3 In his journey he killeth a lion. 8 In a second journey he findeth honey in the carcase. 10 Samsons marriage-feast. 12 His riddle by his wife is made known. 19 He spoileth thirty Philistines. 20 His wife is married to another.

AND Samson went down to Timnath, and saw a woman in Timnath of the daughters of the Philistines.

3 And he came up and told his father and his mother, and said, I have seen a woman in the land of the daughters of the Ishmaelites; now therefore get her for me to wife.

3 Then his father and his mother said unto him, Is there never a woman among the daughters of thy brethren, or among all my people, that thou wilt take a wife of the uncircumcised? And Samson said unto his father, O that I might find a wife among the daughters of my people, as thou hast said: but there is none, neither is there, for they are all as the daughters of the uncircumcised.

4 But his father and his mother knew not that it was of the Lord, who, that he sought an occasion against the Philistines: for at that time the Philistines had dominion over Israel.

5 Then went Samson down, and his father and his mother, to Timnath, and came to the vineyards of Timnath: and behold, a young lion roared ^{up} against him.

And the Spirit of the Lord came mightily upon him, and he rent him as he would have rent a kid, and he had nothing in his hand : but he told not his father or his mother what he had done.

7 And he went down, and talked with the man, and the pious Samson well.

8 C And after a time he returned to take her, and he came aside to the carcass of the lion, and behold, there was a Canaan of beer, and honey in the carcass of the lion.

not them that he had taken the honey out of the cruciate of the lion.

10 ¶ He his father went down unto the woman, and Samson made there a feast: for so was the going used to do.

11 And it came to pass when they saw him, that they brought their companions to be with him.

12 ¶ And Samson said unto them, I will now put forth a riddle unto you: if you can accurately declare it me, within the seven days of the feast, and I will give you thirty sheets, and thirty change of garments.

13 But if ye cannot declare it me, then shall ye give me thirty sheets, and thirty change of garments. And they said unto him, But forth the riddle, that we may hear it.

14 And he said unto them, Out of the eater came forth meat, and out of the strong came forth sweetness. And they could not in seven days explain the riddle.

15 And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they said unto Samsons wife, Advise the husband, that he may declare unto us the riddle, for we will give thee silver and thy father's house will give thee a dowry. And she said unto him, What have ye said unto me? for I have not told it my father nor my mother, and shall I tell it thee?

16 And Samsons wife kept before him, and said, When wilt thou hate me, and lovest me not: thou hast put forth a riddle unto the children of my people, and hast not told it me. And he said unto her, Behold, I have not told it my father nor my mother, and shall I tell it thee?

17 And she wept before him the seven days, when the feast lasted: and it came to pass on the seventh day, that he told her, because she lay sore upon him: and she told the riddle to the children of her people.

18 And the men of the city said unto him on the seventh day before the sunne went down, What hast weete thou how and what is stranger than a lion? And he said unto them, If ye had not plowed with my oxen, ye had not found out my riddle.

19 ¶ And the spirit of the L^o was to carry up Samson, and he went down to Ashkelon, and slew three men of them, and took their spoil, and made change of garments unto them which he had taken of them: and his anger was kindled, and he went up to his fathers house.

20 But Samsons wife was given to his companion, whom he had used as his friend.

CHAP. XV.

¶ Samson is denied himself. 3 He burneth the Philistines corn with fowes and fire-brands. 6 His wife and his father are burnt by the Philistines. 7 Samson smiteth them hip and thigh. 9 He is bound by the men of Judah, and delivered to the Philistines. 11 He slayeth them with a jaw-bone. 18 God maketh the sun stand still for him in Lehi.

¶ It came to pass within a while after, in the time of wheat-harvest, that Samson went with a lion, and he said, I will go in to my wife into the chamber. But her father would not suffer him to go in.

¶ His father said, I well thought that thou hadst surely hated her, therefore I gave her to thy companion: is not her younger sister fairer than she? I told thee, I told thee, in these things.

¶ And Samson said concerning them, I know shall I be more blameless then the Philistines, though I do them displeasure.

4 And Samson went and caught three hundred foxes, and took 1 fire-burns, and turned rail to rail, and put a fire-brand in the midst between two tails.

5 And when he had set the bands on fire, he let them go into the standing-corn of the Philistines, and burnt up both the shocks, and also the standing-corn, with the binesyards, and olive.

6 ¶ When the Philistines said, What hath done this? And they answered, Samson the sonne in law of the Thimite, because he had taken his wife, and given her to his companion. And the Philistines came up, and burnt her and her father with fire.

7 And Samson said unto them, Though ye have done this, yet will I be avenged of you, and after that I will cease.

8 And he smote them hip and thigh with a great slaughter, and he went down and dwelt in the top of the rock Etam.

9 ¶ When the Philistines went up, and pitched in Judah, and spread themselves in Lehi.

10 And the men of Judah said, Why are ye come up against us? And they answered, To binde Samson: for we came up, to do to him as he hath done to us.

11 ¶ When they thousand men of Judah went to the top of the rock Etam, and said to Samson, Knowest thou not that the Philistines are rulers over us? what is this that thou hast done unto us? And he said unto them, As they did unto me, so have I done unto them.

12 And they said unto him, What are come down to us to thee, that we may deliver thee into the hand of the Philistines. And Samson said unto them, What have I done? ye will not call upon me your slaves.

13 And they spake unto him, saying, No: but we will bind thee fast, and deliver thee into their hand: but surely we will not kill thee. And they bound him with two new cords, and brought him up from the rock.

¶ And when he came unto Lehi, the Philistines shouted against him: and the spirit of the L^o was to come mightily upon him, and he said that were upon his arms, because as that that lions burnt with fire, and his hands looked from off his bands.

15 And he found a fawle jaw-bone of an ass, and put forth his hand and took it, and slew a thousand men therewith.

16 And Samson said, With the jaw-bone of an ass, I have slain a thousand men.

17 And it came to pass when he had made an end of speaking, that he set away the jaw-bone of his hand, and called that place Ramath-lehi.

¶ And he was for a while, and called on the L^o man, and said, Thou hast given great deliverance into the hand of thy servant: and now shall I die for this, and will into the hand of the unmerciful men.

19 ¶ And when clime a hollow place that was to the jaw, and there came water thence; and there he had drunk his spirit came again, and he said, Therefore is called the name thereof Jothathath, which meaneth I live unto this day.

1 Samson at Gath a yscaph, and carrieth away the gates of the city. 2 Delilah corrupted by the Philistines, cutteth Samson. 3 Thrice he is deceived, 15 At last he overcometh him, 21 The Philistines take him, and put out his eyes. 23 His strength renewing, he pullerh down the house upon the Philistines, and dieth.

Then went Samson to Gath, and said there

2 And it was told the Gathites, saying, Samson is come thither. And they compassed him in, and laid wait for him all night in the gate of the city, and were quiet all the night, saying, In the morning when it is day, we shall kill him.

3 And on Monday till midnight, and arose at midnight, and took the doors of the gate of the city, and the two posts, and went away with them, & thence and all, and put them upon his shoulders, and carried them up to the top of an hill that is between Samson.

4 And it came to pass after that, that he toke him woman in the valley of Sorek, whose name was Delilah.

5 And the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and said unto her, Entice him, and we wherein his great strength lieth, and by what means he may be put against him, that we may bind him, and take him, and we will give thee every one of us eleven hundred pieces of silver.

6 And Delilah said to Samson, Tell me, I pray thee, wherein thy great strength lieth, and wherewith thou mightest be bound to afflict thee.

7 And Samson said unto her, If they bind me with seven green withes, that never were broken, I shall be weak, and be as another man.

8 Then the lords of the Philistines brought up to her their great withes, which had not been broken, and she bound him with them.

9 (When there were men lying in wait, waiting for him in the chamber) And she said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he brake the withes, as a shewer breaketh tow, and he was not bound.

10 And Delilah said unto Samson, Behold, thou hast mocked me, and hast deceived me: now tell me, I pray thee, wherewith thou mightest be bound.

11 And he said unto her, If they bind me with new ropes of flax, that never were accipied, then shall I be weak, and be as another man.

12 Delilah then took new ropes, and bound him therewith, and said unto him, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. (And there were men lying in wait in the chamber) And he brake them from off his arms, like a shewer.

13 And Delilah said unto Samson, Alas, thou hast mocked me, and hast deceived me: now tell me, I pray thee, wherewith thou mightest be bound.

14 And he fastened it with the pin, and said unto her, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he was quiet out of his sleep, and went away with the pin of the beam, and with the web.

15 And he said unto her, Now shalt thou say, I love thee, when thine heart is not with thee: Thou hast mocked me these three times, and hast not told me wherein thy great strength lieth.

16 And it came to pass, when the priests him daily with her words, and urged him, so that his soul was grieved unto death.

17 And he told her all his heart, and said unto her, Where hath not come a vision upon me? I have been a stranger unto God from my mothers womb: If I be shaven, then my strength will go from me, and I shall become weak, and be like any other man.

18 And when Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, Come up this night, for I have bound him on all his head. And the lords of the Philistines came up unto her, and brought money in their hands.

19 And she made him sleep upon her knees, and she called for a man, and he cutteth him to shaven off the seven locks of his head, and the beams to afflict him, and his strength began to fail.

20 And the said, The Philistines be upon thee, Samson. And he arose out of his sleep, and said, I will go out as at other times before, and shake my self. And he wist not that the Lord had departed from him.

21 And the Philistines took him, and put out his eyes, and brought him down to Egypt, and bound him with fetters of brass, and he was gride in the prison house.

22 And when the hair of his head began to grow again, I pray thee, he was shaven.

23 And the lords of the Philistines gathered them together, for to offer a great sacrifice, and to burn their god, and to cry, saying, The Lord hath departed from Samson our enemy into our hand.

24 And when the people saw him, they praised their god: for they said, Our god hath delivered into our hands our enemy, and the destroyer of our country: I pray thee, he was shaven.

25 And it came to pass, when their hearts were merry, that they said, Let us bind him, that he may make us sport. And they bound him with new ropes, out of the prison house, and he made it his sport, and they laughed at him.

26 And Samson said unto the rulers of the Philistines, Let me go, I pray thee, for I have vowed a vow unto the Lord, and I have shaven my head. And the rulers of the Philistines said, If thou canst break these ropes, then we will give thee a hundred pieces of silver.

27 And the house was full of men and women: and all the lords of the Philistines were there: and there were upon the wall, and upon the thousand men and women, that were bound in Samson's house.

28 And Samson called unto the rulers, and said, O Lord God, remember me. I have vowed a vow unto thee, O God, that I may be at peace, and that the Philistines may be my two eyes.

29 And Samson took hold of the two white pillars, upon which the house was, and on each pillar he was bound up, of the one with his right hand, and of the other with his left.

30 And Samson said, Let me go, I pray thee, for I have vowed a vow unto the Lord, and I have shaven my head. And the rulers of the Philistines said, If thou canst break these ropes, then we will give thee a hundred pieces of silver.

31 Then his brethren, and all the house of his father, came down and took him, and brought him up, and buried him between Zorah and Beth-lehem, in the burying place of Manasse his father: and he judged Israel thenceforward.

CHAP. XVII.

2 Of the money that Micah ſold, then reſtored, his mother maketh images, 5 and he ornaments ſag them. 7 He hireth a Levite to be his prieſt.

AND there was a man of mount Ephraim, whose name was Micah.

2 And he ſaid unto his mother, The eleven hundred ſhekels of ſilver, that were taken from me, about which thou curſedſt, & ſpakeſt of alſo in mine ears; behold, the ſilver is with me, I took it. And his mother ſaid, Bleſſed be thou of the L. o. o. o. my ſonne.

3 And when he had reſtored the eleven hundred ſhekels of ſilver to his mother, his mother ſaid, I had wholly dedicated the ſilver unto the L. o. o. o. from my hand, for my ſonne, to make a graven image, and a molten image: now therefore I will reſtore it unto thee.

4 Yet he reſtored the money unto his mother, and his mother took two hundred ſhekels of ſilver, and gave them to the founder, who made thereof a graven image, and a molten image; and they were in the houſe of Micah.

5 And the man Micah had an houſe of gods, and made an ephod, and a teraphim, and conſecrated one of his ſonnes, who became his prieſt.

6 * In thoſe dayes there was no king in Israel, but every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

7 ¶ And there was a young man out of Bethlehem-judah, of the family of Judah, who was a Levite, and he ſojourned there.

8 And the man departed out of the city from Beth-lehem-judah, to ſojourn where he could find a place: and he came to mount Ephraim in the houſe of Micah, as he journeyed.

9 And Micah ſaid unto him, Whence comest thou? And he ſaid unto him, I am a Levite of Beth-lehem-judah, and I go to ſojourn where I may find a place.

10 And Micah ſaid unto him, Dwell with me, and be unto me a father and a prieſt, and I will give thee ten ſhekels of ſilver by the year, and I ſhall ſuit of apparel, and thy victuals. So the Levite went in.

11 And the Levite was content to dwell with the man, and the young man was unto him as one of his ſonnes.

12 And Micah conſecrated the Levite, and the young man became his prieſt, and was in the houſe of Micah.

13 ¶ Then ſaid Micah, How know I that the
L. o. o. o. will do me good, ſeeing I have a Levite to my prieſt.

CHAP. XVIII.

¶ The Danites ſend five men to ſeek out inheritance: 3 At the houſe of Micah they conſult with Jonathan, and are encouraged in their way. 7 They ſearch Laiſh, and bring back news of good hope.

11 Six hundred men are ſent to ſurpriſe it. 14. In the way they rob Micah of his prieſt and his con-ſecrate things. 27 They winne Laiſh, and call it Dan.
30 They ſet up ſtatueſty, wherein Jonathan inherited the prieſthood.

THAT thoſe dayes there was no king in Israel: and in thoſe dayes the tribes of the Danites ſought them an inheritance to dwell in: for unto that day all their inheritance had not fallen unto them among the tribes of Iſrael.

2 And the children of Dan ſent of their family, five men from their coaſts: ſeven men of valour, from Zorah, and from Eſhtaoel, to ſpie out the land, and to ſearch it; and they ſaid unto them, Go, ſearch

the land: whoſe men they came to mount Ephraim, to the houſe of Micah, they lodged there.

3 ¶ When they were by the houſe of Micah, they knew the voice of the young man the Levite:
and they turned in thither, and ſaid unto him,
Who brought thee hither? and what makeſt thou in this place? and what haſt thou here?

4 And he ſaid unto them, Thus and thus dealeth Micah with me, and hath hired me, and I am his prieſt.

5 And they ſaid unto him, Ask counſel, we may thee, of God, that we may know whether our way which we go ſhall be ſucceſſful.

6 And the prieſt ſaid unto them, Go in peace:
before the L. o. o. o. is your way wherein ye go.

7 ¶ When the five men departed, and came to Laiſh, and ſaid to the people that were therein, how they dwell careleſſe, after the manner of the Amorites, quiet and ſecure, and there was no ſignification in the land that might put them to ſhame in any thing: and they were farre from the Amorites, and had no buſineſſe with any man.

8 And they came unto their brethren to Zorah, and Eſhtaoel, and their brethren ſaid unto them,
What ſay ye?

9 And they ſaid, Arise, that we may go up a-gainſt them: for we have ſeen the land, and behold, it is very good: and are ye ſtill? be not ſlothfull to go, and to enter to poſſeſſe the land.

10 ¶ When ye go, ye ſhall come unto a people ſecure, and to a large land: for God hath given it into your hands: a place, where there is no want of any thing that is in the earth.

11 ¶ And three went from thence of the family of the Danites, out of Zorah and out of Eſhtaoel, ſix hundred men, appointed with weapons of warre.

12 And they went up, and pitched in Kirjathjearim, in Judah: wherefore they called that place Abdon, Dan, unto this day: behold, it is between Kirjath-jearim.

13 And they paſſed thence unto mount Ephraim, and came unto the houſe of Micah.

14 ¶ Then answered the five men that went to ſpie out the country of Laiſh, and ſaid unto their brethren, Do ye know that there is in theſe houſes an ephod and teraphim, and a graven image, and a molten image: now therefore con-ſider what ye have to do.

15 And they turned thitherward, and came to the houſe of the young man the Levite, even unto the houſe of Micah, and ſaluted him.

16 And the ſix hundred men, appointed with their weapons of warre, which were of the children of Dan, ſtood by the entering of the gate.

17 And the five men that went to ſpie out the land, went up, and came in thither, and took the graven image, and the ephod, and the tera-phim, and the molten image: and the prieſt ſtood in the entering of the gate, with the ſix hundred men that were appointed with weapons of warre.

18 And they went into Micahs houſe, and ſeized the carved image, the ephod, and the tera-phim, and the molten image: then ſaid the prieſt unto them, What do ye?

19 And they ſaid unto him, Hold the peace, ſay nothing upon the mouth, and go with us, and be to us a father and a prieſt: is it better for thee to be a prieſt unto the houſe of one man, or that thou be a prieſt unto a tribe, & a family in Iſrael?

31 So they turned and departed, and put the little ones, and the cattell, and the carriage before them.

32 ¶ And when they were a good way from the house of Gibeah, the men that were in the houses near to Gibeah house, were gathered together, and overtook the children of Dan.

33 And they cried unto the children of Dan: and they turned their faces, & said unto Gibeah, what aileth thee, that thou comest with such a company?

34 And he said, We have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and ye are gone away: and what have I more? and what is this that ye say unto me, what aileth thee?

35 And the children of Dan said unto him, Let not thy voice be heard among us, lest angry fellows come upon thee, and thou lose the life, with the lives of thy household.

36 And the children of Dan went their way: and when Gibeah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned and went back unto his house.

37 And they took the things which Gibeah had made, and the priest which he had, and came unto Laish, unto a people that were at quiet, and secure: and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and burnt the city with fire.

38 And there was no deliverer, because it was farre from Shon, and they had no business with any man; and it was in the valley that lieth by Beth-rehob: and they built a city, and dwelt therein.

39 And they called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their father, who was born unto Israel: howbeit the name of the city was Laish at the first.

40 ¶ And the children of Dan set up the graven image; and Jonathan the sonne of Gershom, the sonne of Manasseh, he and his sonnes, were priests to the tribe of Dan, untill the day of the captivity of the land.

41 And they set them up Gibeahs graven image, which he made, all the time that the house of God was in Shiloh.

CHAP. XIX.

1 A Levite goeth to Beth-lehem to fetch home his wife.

16 An old man entertaineth him at Gibeah. 22 The Gibeahites abuse his concubine to death. 29 He divideth her into twelve pieces, to send them to the twelve tribes.

And it came to passe in those dayes, when there was no king in Israel, that there was a certain Levite journeying on the side of mount Ephraim, who took to him a concubine out of Beth-lehem-judah.

2 And his concubine played the whoore against him, and went away from him unto her fathers house to Beth-lehem-judah, & was there 4 foure whole moneths.

3 And her husband arose, and went after her to speak friendly unto her, and to bring her again, having his servant with him, and a couple of asses: and he brought him into her fathers house, & when the father of the damsel saw him, he rejoiced to meet him.

4 And his father in law, the damels father, retained him, and he abode with him three dayes: so they did eat and drink, and lodged there.

5 And it came to passe on the fourth day, when they arose early in the morning, that he rose up to depart: and the damels father said unto his sonne in law, ¶ Consider thine heart with a morsell of bread, and afterwards go your way.

6 And they sat down, and his cat and dyke both of them together for the damels father had said unto the man, Be content, I pray thee, and tarry all night, and let thine heart be merry.

7 And when the man rose up to depart, his father in law urged him: therefore he lodged there again.

8 And he arose early in the morning, on the fifth day to depart: and the damels father said, Consider thine heart, I pray thee. And they carried it untill after noon, and they did eat both of them.

9 And when the man rose up to depart, he and his concubine, and his servant, his father in law, the damels father said unto him, Behold now, the day is nigher towards evening, I pray you, tarry all night: behold, the day groweth to an end, lodge here, that thine heart may be merry; and to morrow get you early on your way, that thou mayest go in peace.

10 But the man would not tarry that night, but he rose up and departed, and came forth against Jebus, (which is Jerusalem) and there were with him two asses laden, his concubine also, to wit him.

11 And when they were by Jebus, the day was farre spent, and the servant said unto his master, Come, I pray thee, and let us turn in unto this city of the Jebusites, and lodge in it.

12 And his master said unto him, We will not turn ashee hither into the city of a stranger, that is not of the children of Israel, we will passe over to Gibeah.

13 And he said unto his servant, Come, and see us dwale neare to one of these places to lodge all night, in Gibeah, or in Ramah.

14 And they passed on and went their way, and the sunne went down upon them when they were by Gibeah, which be longeth to Benjamin.

15 And they turned ashee thither, to go in, and to lodge in Gibeah: and when he went in, he saw him down in a street of the city: for there was no man that took them into his house to lodge.

16 ¶ And behold, there came an old man from his work out of the field at even, which was alio of mount Ephraim, and he journeyed in Gibeah, but the men of the place were Benjaminites.

17 And when he had lift up his eyes, he saw a wayfaring man in the street of the city: and the old man said, Whither goest thou? and whence comest thou?

18 And he said unto him, We are passing from Beth-lehem-judah, towards the side of mount Ephraim, from thence am I; and I went to Beth-lehem-judah, but I am now going to the house of the Lord, and there is no man that receiveth me to house.

19 Yet there is both straw and provender for our asses, and there is bread and wine also for me and for thy servants, and for the young man which is with thy servants: there is no want of any thing.

20 And the old man said, Hence be with thee; howsoever, let all thy wants lie upon me, onely lodge not in the street.

21 So he brought him into his house, and gave provender unto the asses: and they wash in their feet, and did eat and drink.

22 ¶ Now as they were making their fires to merry, behold, the men of the city, certain fellows of Beth-el, beset the house round about, and beat at the doore, and spake to the master of the house, the old man, saying, Bring forth the

26. When came the woman in the morning of the day, and said, now at the house of the man house, where her lord was, till it was light.

27. And her lord rose up in the morning, and opened the doors of the house, and went out to go his way: and behold, the woman his concubine was fallen down at the door of the house, and her hands were upon the threshold.

28. And he said unto her, Up, and let us be going: but none answered. When the man took her up upon an ass, and the man rose up, and gat him into his place.

29. And when he was come into his house, he took a knife, and laid hold on his concubine, and divided her, together with her bones, into twelve pieces, and sent her into all the coasts of Israel.

30. And it was so, that all that saw it, said, There was no such deed done nor seen, from the day that the children of Israel came up out of the land of Egypt, unto this day: consider of it, take advice, and speak your mindes.

CHAP. XX.

1. The Levites in a general assembly declareth his saying. 8 The decree of the assembly. 12 The Benjamites being cited, make head against the Israelites. 18 The Israelites in two battels slew fourty thousand. 26 They destroy by a stratagem all the Benjamites, except six hundred.

Then all the children of Israel went out, and the congregation was gathered together, as one man, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, with the land of Gilead, unto the L. O. in Shiloh.

2. And the chief of all the people, even of all the tribes of Israel, gathered themselves in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand men: and there were with them women.

3. When the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel were gone up to Shiloh: then said the children of Israel, Tell us, how was this wickedness?

4. And the Levite the husband of the woman that was slain, answered and said, I came into Gilead that belongeth to Benjamin, and my concubine, to lodge.

5. And the men of Gilead rose against me, and burnt the house round about upon me by night, and thought to have slain me: and my concubine have they forced, that she is dead.

6. And I took my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the country of the inheritance of Israel: for they have committed horrible and fell in Israel.

7. Behold, ye are all children of Israel, give your advice and counsel.

8. And all the people arose as one man, saying, Shall we not any of us go to his tent, and fight with him any of us men into his house?

9. But now, this shall be the thing which we will do to Gilead: we will go up by her against it. 10. And the will take ten men of an hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and an hundred of a thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand, to fetch victrual for the people, that they may be, when they come to Gilead of Benjamin, according to all the tolls that they have wrought in Israel.

11. So all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, and knit together as one man.

12. And the tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Benjamin, saying, What wickedness is this that is done among you?

13. Now therefore deliver us the men, the children of Bethel, which are in Gilead, that we may put them to death, and put away evil from Israel. But the children of Benjamin would not hearken to the voice of their brethren the children of Israel.

14. But the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities, unto Gilead, to go out to battle against the children of Israel.

15. And the children of Benjamin were numbered at that time out of the cities, twenty and six thousand men: that were strong, beside the inhabitants of Gilead, which were numbered seven hundred chosen men.

16. Among all this people there were seven hundred chosen men: left-handed, every one could sling stones at an hair-breadth, and not miss.

17. And the men of Israel, beside Benjamin, were numbered seven hundred chosen men that were strong: all these were men of warre.

18. And the children of Israel arose, and went up to the house of God, and asked counsel of God, and said, What shall we do? Shall we go first to the battle against the children of Benjamin? And the L. O. said, Yehoiada shall go up first.

19. And the children of Israel rose up in the morning, and encamped against Gilead.

20. And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin, and the men of Israel put themselves in array to fight against them at Gilead.

21. And the children of Benjamin came forth out of Gilead, and destroyed down to the ground of the Israelites that day, twenty and two thousand men.

22. And the people the men of Israel encouraged themselves, and set their battle again in array in the place where they put themselves in array the first day.

23. (And the children of Israel went up and kept before the L. O. until even, and asked counsel of the L. O. saying, Shall I go up again to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother? And the L. O. said, Go up against him.)

24. And the children of Israel came near against the children of Benjamin the second day.

25. And Benjamin went forth against them out of Gilead the second day, and destroyed down to the ground of the children of Israel again, eighteen thousand men: all these were the men of war.

26. When all the children of Israel, and all the people went up, and came unto the house of God, and kept, and there before the L. O. and said, that day until even, and offered burnt-offerings, and peace-offerings before the L. O.

Benjamin?

17 And they said, There must be an inheritance for them that be escaped of Benjamin, that a tribe be not destroyed out of Israel.

18 Potshere, we may not give them wives of our daughters: for the children of Israel have sworn, saying, Cursed be he that giveth a wife to Benjamin.

19 Then they said, Behold, there is a feast of the Lord in Beth-el yearly in a place which is on the north-side of Beth-el, on the east-side of the high way that goeth up from Beth-el to Shechem, & on the south of Lebonah.

20 Therefore they commanded the children of Benjamin, saying, Go and lie in wait in the vineyards:

21 And see, and behold, if the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in dances, then come ye din of the bincyrins, and catch you every man his wife of the daughters of Ephrah, and go to the hall of Benjamin.

30 And it shall be, when their fathers or their brothers come unto us to complain, that we will say unto them, Be favourable unto them for our sakes: because we referred not to each man his wife in the warre: for ye did not give unto them at this time, that you should be guilty.

23 And the children of Benjamin did so, and took them wives according to their number, of them that danced, whom they caught: and they burnt and returned unto their inheritance, and repaired the cities, and dwelt in them.

24 And the children of Israel departed thence at that time, every man to his tribe, and to his family, and they went out from Sheneh every man to his inheritance.

CHAP. I.

1 Elimelech driven by famine into Moab, dieth there. 4 Mahlon and Chilion, having married wives of Moabs also. 6 Naomi returning homeward, 8 acquainteth her two daughters in law from going with her. 14 Orpah leaveth her, but Ruth with great constancy accompanieth her. 19 They two come to Beth-lehem, where they are gladly received.

†Hob. judged.

NOW it came to pass in the ages when the judges raked, that there was a famine in the land:
and a certain man of Beth-lehemjudah went to sojourn in the country of Egypt, he and his wife, and his two daughters.

2 And the name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife Naomi, and the name of his two sons Heli and Pharez, Ephraimites of Beth-lehem-judah: and they came into the country of Moab, and continued there.

3 And Elmelech Samira's husband died, and she was left, and her two sons.

4 And they took them wives of the women of Moab: the name of the one was Oyad, and the name of the other Ruth: and they dwelled there about ten years.

And Babylon and Chilion died with both of them; and the woman was left of her two sons, and her husband.

Then she arose with her daughters in law, that she might return from the country of Moab: for she had heard in the country of Moab, how that the Lord was with his people, in giving them bread.

7 And he said unto her, I will send thee forth out of the place where thou art, and thy two daughters shall be with thee: and they shall dwell in the land of Canaan.

8 And Nadab said unto her two daughters in-law, Go, return each to her mother's house:
the Lord will deal kindly with you, as ye have dealt with the dead, and with me.

9 The Lord grant you that you may find rest, each of you in the house of her husband.
Then she kissed them: and they lift up their voice, and went.

10 And they said unto her, Surely we will return with thee unto thy people.

11. And Jacob said, Turn again, my daughters: why will ye go with me? are there yet any moesowms in my womb, that they may be your husbands?

12. Turn again my daughters, go your way, for I am too old to have an husband: if I should say, I have borne, if I should have a husband also to night, and should also bear loins:

THE FIRST BOOK OF SAMUEL,

Otherwise called, The first book of the KINGS.

CHAP. I.

1 Elkanah a Levite, having two wives, worshipped yearly at Shiloh. His chief wife Hannah, though barren, and provoked by Peninnah, Hannah in grief, prayeth for a child. 12 Eli first rebuking her, afterwards blest her. 19 Hannah having born Samuel, prayeth at home till he be weaned. 24 She presenteth him, according to her vow, to the LORD.

Now there was a certain man of Ramathaim-berleah, of mount Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite:

2 And he had two wives, the name of the one was Hannah, and the name of the other Peninnah; and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had no children.

3 And this man went up out of his city yearly, to worship, and to sacrifice unto the LORD of hosts in Shiloh; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, the priests of the LORD, were there.

4 And when the time was that Hannah weened, she gave to Peninnah his wife, and to all her sons and her daughters portions.

5 But unto Hannah he gave in a yearly portion: for he loved Hannah, but the LORD was barren.

6 And her adversary also provoked her sore, for to make her fret, because she was barren.

7 And as he did so year by year, if he went up to the house of the LORD, then she wept, and did not eat.

8 Then said Elkanah her husband to her, Hannah, why weepest thou, and why eatest thou not? and why is thy heart grievous? am not I better to thee than ten sons?

9 So Hannah rose up after they had eaten in Shiloh, and after they had drunk: (now Eli the priest sat upon a seat by a post of the temple of the LORD.)

10 And she was in bitterness of soul, and prayed unto the LORD, and wept sore.

11 And she vowed a vow, and said, O LORD of hosts, if thou wilt indeed look on the affliction of thine handmaid, and remember me, and not forget thine handmaid, but wilt give unto thine handmaid a man-child, then I will give him unto the LORD, and all the days of his life, and I shall no more come upon his head.

12 And it came to pass as she continued praying before the LORD, that Eli marked her mouth.

13 Now Hannah, she spake in her heart, surely her lips moved, but her voice was not heard: therefore Eli thought she had been drunken.

14 And Eli said unto her, How long wilt thou be drunken? put away the wine from thee.

15 And Hannah answered, and said, No, my lord, I am a woman; I of a discontented spirit: I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but have poured out my soul before the LORD.

16 Count not thine handmaid for a wanton of Belial: for out of the abundance of my complaint and grief have I spoken these words.

17 Then Eli answered, and said, Go in peace, and the God of Israel grant thee the petition that thou hast asked of him.

18 And she said, Let thine handmaid find grace in thy sight. So the woman went her way, and his ear was her companion, and she was not sad.

19 And she rose up in the morning early, and worshipped before the LORD, and returned to her house in Ramathaim. And Elkanah his husband, and the LORD was with her.

20 And hereafter it came to pass, that when the time was come about, after Hannah had conceived, that she bare a son, and called his name Samuel, saying, Because I have asked him of the LORD.

21 And the man Elkanah, and all his household, went up to offer unto the LORD, and to sacrifice, and to eat.

22 But Hannah went not up; for she said unto her husband, I will not go up until the child be weaned, and then I will bring him, that he may appear before the LORD, and there abide for ever.

23 And Elkanah her husband said unto her, Do what seemeth thee good, carry him, when he have weaned him, only the LORD be with thee. His word: to the woman above, and she was some time until the woman bare him.

24 And when she had weaned him, she took him up with her, with three bullocks, and one ephah of flour, and a bottle of wine, and brought him unto the house of the LORD in Shiloh: and the child was young.

25 And they slew a bullock, and brought the child to Eli.

26 And he said, O my lord, as the soul liveth, my lord, I am the woman that stood by thee last, praying unto the LORD.

27 For this child I prayed; and thou hast said, My lord, I have given him to thee. And he wept, and said, Is this the child that thou hast given to me? And he blessed her.

And Hannah prayed, and said, My heart is rejoiced in the LORD, because thou hast exalted thine horn above all thine adversaries: there is none holy as the LORD: there is none beside thee: neither is there any rock like thee in all the earth.

2 Talk no more to exceeding proudly, let not † arrogancy come out of your mouth: for the L. o. is a God of knowledge, and by his actions are his signs.

3 The pillars of the mighty men are broken, and they that stumbled, are girt with strength.
4 They that were full, have hired out themselves for bread, and they that were hungry, ceases: so that the barren hath born seven, and she that hath many children, is waxen feeble.

5 The L. o. is so killed, and maketh alive;
he bringeth down to the grave, and bringeth up.

6 The L. o. is so maketh poor, and maketh rich: he bringeth low, and lifteth up.

7 He raiseth up the poor out of the dust, and lifteth up the beggar from the dunghill, to set them among princes, and to make them inherit the throne of glory: for the pillars of the earth are the L. o. is, he hath set the world upon them.

8 He will keep the feet of his saints, and the wicked shall be silent in darkness, for by strength shall no man prevail.

9 The adversaries of the L. o. is shall be broken to pieces: * out of heaven shall he thunder upon them: the L. o. is shall judge the ends of the earth, and he shall give strength unto his king, and exalt the horn of his anointed.

10 And Elkanah went to Ramah to his house, and the child did minister unto the L. o. is before Eli the priest.

11 How the sons of Eli were sons of Belial, they knew not the L. o. is.

12 And the priests custom with the people was, that when any man offered sacrifice, the priests servant came, while the flesh was in seething, with a flesh-hook of three teeth in his hand.

13 And he took it into the pan, or kettle, or caldron, or pot, all that the flesh-hook brought up, the priest took for himself: so they did in Shiloh, unto all the Israelites that came thither.

14 Also before they burnt the fat, the priests servant came, and said to the man that sacrificed, Give flesh to roast for the priest, for he will not have sunder flesh of thee, but raw.

15 And if any man said unto him, Let them not fall to burn the fat & plentifully, and thou take as much as thy soul desireth: then he would answer him, Nay, but thou shalt give it me now;
and if not, I will take it by force.

16 Therefore the sinne of the young men was very great before the L. o. is: for men abhorred the offering of the L. o. is.

17 And Samuel ministered before the L. o. is, being a child, * girded with a linen ephron.

18 His mother his brother made him a little coat, and brought it to him from years to years, when he came up with her husband, to offer the yearly sacrifice.

19 And Eli blessed Elkanah, and his wife, and said, The L. o. is give thee the fruit of this woman, for the loan which is lent to the L. o. is.
And they went into their own home.

20 And the L. o. is visited Hannah, so that she conceived and bare three sons, and two daughters: and the child Samuel grew before the L. o. is.

21 Now Eli was very old, and heard all that his sonnes did unto all Israel, and how they curst the women that assembled at the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

22 And he said unto them, Why do ye such things? for I hear of your evil dealings, by all this people.

23 Say my sonnes: for it is no good report that I hear; ye make the L. o. is a people to transgress.

24 If one man strive against another, the judge shall judge him: but if a man strive against the L. o. is, who shall intercede for him? Forasmuch standing they hearken not unto the voice of their father, because the L. o. is would slay them.

25 And the child Samuel grew on, and was in favour both with the L. o. is, and also with men.

26 And there came a man of God unto Eli, and said unto him, Thus saith the L. o. is, Did I plainly appear unto the house of the father, when they were in Egypt in Pharaohs house?

27 And did I choose him out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to offer upon mine altar, to burn incense, to wear an ephod before me? and did I give unto the house of the father all the offerings made by fire of the children of Israel?

28 And hereofsa I will ye at my sacrifice, and at mine offering which I have commanded in my habitation, and honourest thy sonnes above me, to make your selves far with the chiefest of all the offerings of Israel my people?

29 And heretofore I have said, I will honour him, and at mine offering which I have commanded in my habitation, and honourest thy sonnes above me, to make your selves far with the chiefest of all the offerings of Israel my people?

30 And heretofore I have said, I will honour him, and at mine offering which I have commanded in my habitation, and honourest thy sonnes above me, to make your selves far with the chiefest of all the offerings of Israel my people?

31 Behold, the dayes come that I will cut off thine arm, and the arm of thy fathers house, that there shall not be an old man in thine house.

32 And thou shalt see I an enemy in my habitation, in all the wealth which God shall give Israel: and there shall not be an old man in thine house for ever.

33 And the man of thine, whom I shall not cut off from mine altar, shall be to consume thine eyes, and to grieve thine heart: and all the increase of thine house shall die & in the flower of their age.

34 And this shall be a signe unto thee, that shall come upon the two sonnes, on Hophni and Phinehas: in one day they shall die both of them.

35 And I will raise me up a faithful priest, that shall do according to that which is in mine heart and in my minde: and I will build him a sure house, and he shall walk before mine Anointed for ever.

36 And it shall come to passe that every one that is left in thine house, shall come and crouch to him for a piece of silver, and a morsel of bread, and shall say, & put me (I pray thee) into one of the priests offices, that I may eat a piece of bread.

CHAP. III.

1 How the word of the Lord was first revealed to Samuel. 11 God telleth Samuel the destruction of Eli's house. 15 Samuel, though lark, telleth Eli the vision. 19 Samuel groweth in credit.

And the child Samuel ministered unto the
L. o. is before Eli: and the word of the L. o. is was precious in those dayes; there was no open vision.

2 And it came to passe at that time, when Eli was laid down in his place, and his eyes began to wax dimme, that he could not see.

3 And ere the lamp of God went out in the temple of the L. o. is, where the ark of God was,
and Samuel was laid down to sleep:

4 That the L. o. is called Samuel, and he answered, Verr am I.

5 And he ran unto Eli, and said, Verr am I, for thou callest me. And he said, I called not; lie down again. And he went and lay down.

And the Lord called yet again, Samuel. And Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said, Here am I, for thou didst call me. And he answered, I called not, my sonne: lie down again.

7 ¶ Now Samuel did not yet know the Lord, neither was the word of the Lord unto him revealed unto him.

8 And the Lord called Samuel again the third time. And he arose, and went to Eli, and said, Here am I, for thou didst call me. And Eli perceived that the Lord had called the child.

9 Therefore Eli said unto Samuel, Go, lie down, and it shall be, if he call thee, that thou shalt say, Speak Lord, for thy servant heareth. So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

10 And the Lord came, and stood and called as at other times, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel answered, Speak, for thy servant heareth.

11 ¶ And the Lord said to Samuel, Behold, I will do a thing in Israel, at which both the ears of every one that heareth it, shall tingle.

12 In that day, I will perform against Eli all things which I have spoken concerning his house: for when I beginne, I will also make an end.

13 ¶ For I have told him, that I will judge his house for ever, for the iniquity which he knoweth: because his sonnes made themselves vile, and he restrained them not.

14 And therefore I have sworn unto the house of Eli, that the iniquity of Elies house shall not be purged with sacrifice nor offering for ever.

15 ¶ And Samuel lay until the morning, & opened the doors of the house of the Lord: and Samuel feared to shew Eli the vision.

16 Then Eli called Samuel, and said, Samuel my sonne. And he answered, Here am I.

17 And he said, What is the thing that the Lord hath said unto thee? I pray thee hide it not from me: God do so to thee, and I more also, if thou hide any thing from me, of all the things that he hath said unto thee.

18 And Samuel told him every thing, and hid nothing from him. And he said, It is the Lord: let him do what seemeth him good.

19 ¶ And Samuel grew, and the Lord was with him, and did let none of his words fall to the ground.

20 And all Israel from Dan even to Beer-sheba knew that Samuel was established to be a prophet of the Lord.

21 And the Lord appeared again to Shiloh: for the Lord revealed himself to Samuel in Shiloh by the word of the Lord.

CHAP. III.

The Israelites are overcome by the Philistines at Ebenezer, 3 They fetch the ark, to the terror of the Philistines, 10 They are smitten again, the ark taken, Hophni and Phinehas are slain. 12 Eli at the news falling backward, breaketh his neck. 19 Phinehas wife discouraged in her travail with Icabod, dieth.

And the word of Samuel if came to all Israel. Now Israel went out against the Philistines to battle, and pitched beside Ebenezer: and the Philistines pitched in Aphek.

2 And the Philistines put themselves in array against Israel: and when they joined battle, Israel was smitten before the Philistines: and they slew of the army in the field about four thousand men.

3 And when the people were come into the camp, the elders of Israel said, Wherefore hath the Lord smitten us to day before the Philistines? Let us fetch the ark of the covenant of the Lord unto us, that when we fight with the Philistines, it may be a sign unto us, that we are not smitten.

4 ¶ And the people came to Shiloh, that they might bring from thence the ark of the covenant of the Lord, which dwelleth between the cherubims: & the two sonnes of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there, with the ark of the covenant of God.

5 And when the ark of the covenant of the Lord came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again.

6 And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, What meaneth the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews? And they understood that the ark of the Lord was come into the camp.

7 And the Philistines were afraid, for they said, God is come into the camp. And they said, Unto us: for there hath not been such a thing before.

8 And unto us: who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty Gods? these are the Gods that smote the Egyptians with all the plagues in the wilderness.

9 Be strong, and quit yourselves like men, ye Philistines, that ye be not servants unto the Hebrews, as they have been to you: quit your selves like men, and fight.

10 ¶ And the Philistines fought, and Israel was smitten, & they fled every man into his tent: and there was a very great slaughter, for there fell of Israel thirty thousand footmen.

11 And the ark of God was taken; and the two sonnes of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were slain.

12 ¶ And there ran a man of Benjamin out of the army, and came to Shiloh the same day, with his clothes rent, and with earth upon his head.

13 And when he came, lo, Eli sat upon a seat by the way side, watching: for his heart trembled for the ark of God. And when the man came into the city and told it, all the city cried out.

14 And when Eli heard the noise of the crying, he said, What meaneth the noise of this rumour? And the man came in hastily, and told Eli.

15 Now Eli was ninety and eight years old, and his eyes were dimme, that he could not see.

16 And the man said unto Eli, I am he that came out of the army, & I fled to day out of the army. And he said, What is there done, my sonne?

17 And the messenger answered and said, Israel is fled before the Philistines, and there hath been also a great slaughter among the people, and thy two sonnes also, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the ark of God is taken.

18 And it came to passe when he made mention of the ark of God, that he fell from off the seat backward by the side of the gate, and his neck brake, and he died: for he was an old man, and heavy. And he had judged Israel forty years.

19 ¶ And his daughter in law, Hophni's wife, was with child neare to be delivered: and when she heard the tidings, that the ark of God was taken, & that her father in law, and her husband were dead, she bowed her self and travailed, for her pains came upon her.

20 And about the time of her death, she said unto her maid, I have seen the ark of God, and thou hast been alone. But she answered not, glory neither did she regret it.

CHAP. V.

1 The Philistines having brought the ark into Ashdod, set it in the house of Dagon, 3 Dagon is smitten down and cut in pieces, and they of Ashdod smitten with emerods. 8 So God dealt with them of Gath, when it was brought thither, 10 and so with them of Ekron, when it was brought thither.

And the Philistines took the ark of God, and brought it from Gath: ever unto Ashdod.

2 And when the Philistines took the ark of God, they brought it into the house of Dagon: and set it by Dagon.

3 And when they of Ashdod arose early on the morrow, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the earth, before the ark of the Lord: and they took Dagon, and set him in his place again.

4 And when they arose early on the morrow morning, behold, Dagon was fallen upon his face to the ground, before the ark of the Lord: and the head of Dagon, and both the palms of his hands were cut off upon the threshold, and the stump of Dagon was left to him.

Or, the fishie
puzz,

5 Therefore neither the priests of Dagon, nor any that come into Dagon's house, tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod, unto this day.

* Plal, 78, 66.

6 But the hand of the Lord was heavy upon them of Ashdod, and he destroyed them, and smote them with emerods, even Ashdod and the coasts thereof.

7 And when the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, they said, The ark of the God of Israel shall not abide with us: for his hand is lay upon us, and upon Dagon our god.

8 They sent therefore, and gathered all the lords of the Philistines unto them, & said, What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? And they answered, Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried about unto Gath. And they carried the ark of the God of Israel about thither.

9 And it was so, that after they had carried it about, the hand of the Lord was against the city with a very great destruction: and he smote the men of the city both small and great, and they had emerods in their secret parts.

10 Therefore they sent the ark of God to Ekron: and it came to pass as the ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, They have brought about the ark of the God of Israel to us, to slay us and our people.

11 And they sent and gathered together all the lords of the Philistines, and said, What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? And let it go again to his own place, that it slay us not, and our people: for there was a deadly destruction throughout all the cities, the hand of God was very heavy there.

12 And the men that died not, were smitten with the emerods: and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

CHAP. VI.

1 After seven months the Philistines take counsel how to send back the ark, 10 They bring it on a new cart with an offering unto Beth Shemesh. 19 The people are smitten for looking into the ark, 21 They send Rathem of Kirjath-jearim to fetch it.

And the ark of the Lord was in the country of the Philistines seven months.

1 And the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners, saying, What shall we do to the ark of the Lord? tell us wherewith we shall send it to his place.

2 And they said, If ye send away the ark of the God of Israel, send it not empty; but in any wise return him a trespass-offering: then ye shall be healed, and it shall be known to you, why his hand is not removed from you.

3 Then said they, What shall be the trespass-offering which we shall return to him? They answered, Five golden emerods, and five golden mice, according to the number of the lords of the Philistines: for one plague was on ye all, and on your lands.

4 And therefore ye shall make images of your emerods and images of your mice that marre the land, and ye shall give glory unto the God of Israel, peradventure he will lighten his hand from off you, and from off your gods, and from off your land.

5 And therefore then do ye harden your hearts, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their hearts: when he had brought so wonderfully a plague among them, did they not let the people go, and they departed?

6 Now therefore make a new cart, and take two milch-kine, on which there hath come no yoke, and tie the kine to the cart, and bring their calves home from them.

7 And take the ark of the Lord, and lay it upon the cart, and put the jewels of gold which ye return him for a trespass-offering, in a coffer by the side thereof, and send it away, that it may go.

8 And see, if it goeth up by the way of his own coast to Beth-shemesh, then shall the hath done us this great evil: but if not, then we shall know that it is not his hand that smote us; it was a chance that happened to us.

9 And the men did so: and took two milch-kine, and tied them to the cart, and shut up their calves at home.

10 And they laid the ark of the Lord upon the cart, and the coffer with the mice of gold, and the images of their emerods.

11 And the kine took the straight way to the way of Beth-shemesh, and went along the highway, lowing as they went, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left; and the lords of the Philistines went after them unto the border of Beth-shemesh.

12 And they of Beth-shemesh were reaping their wheat-harvest in the valley: and they lifted up their eyes, and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see it.

13 And the cart came into the field of Joshua a Beth-shemesh, and stood there, where there was a great stone: and they clave the wood of the cart, and offered the kine a burnt-offering unto the Lord.

14 And the Levites took down the ark of the Lord, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the jewels of gold were, and put them on the great stone: and the men of Beth-shemesh offered burnt-offerings, and sacrificed the same day unto the Lord.

15 And when the five lords of the Philistines had seen it, they returned to Ekron the same day.

16 And these are the golden emerods which the Philistines returned for a trespass-offering unto the Lord: for Ashdod one, for Gaza one, for Ashkelon one, for Gath one, for Ekron one.

17 And the golden mice, according to the number minister of all the cities of the Philistines, belonging to the five lords, born of fenced cities, and he cometh with them, even unto the great stone of Abel, whereon they do bow the ark of the L. o. w. which stone remaineth unto this day, in the field of Joshua the Beth-shankite.

19 ¶ And he smote the men of Beth-shankite, because they had looked into the ark of the L. o. w. when he smote of the people fifty thousand and the women and the men: and the people lamented, because the L. o. w. had smitten many of the people with a great slaughter.

20 And the men of Beth-shankite said, We be able to stand before this holy L. o. w. God: and to whom shall he go up from us?

21 ¶ And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kirjath-jearim, saying, The Philistines have brought again the ark of the L. o. w. to come ye down, and fetch it up to you.

CHAP. VII.

I. They of Kirjath-jearim bring the ark into the house of Abinadab, and sanctify Eleazar his sonne to keep it. 2 After twenty years; 3 the Israelites by Samuels means, solemnly repent at Mizpeh. 9 While Samuel prayeth and sacrificeth, the Lord discomfeth the Philistines by thunder, at Ebenezer. 13 The Philistines are subdued. 15 Samuel peaceably and religiously judgeth Israel.

¶ And the men of Kirjath-jearim came, and fetched up the ark of the L. o. w. and brought it into the house of Abinadab in the hill, and sanctified Eleazar his sonne, to keep the ark of the L. o. w.

2 And it came to pass, when the ark abode in Kirjath-jearim, that the time was long: for it was twenty years: and all the house of Israel lamented after the L. o. w.

3 ¶ And Samuel spake unto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye do return unto the L. o. w. with all your hearts, then I will always be the strange god, and I will stand from among you, and prepare your hearts unto the L. o. w., and I will serve him only: and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines.

4 ¶ When the children of Israel did yet always Baalim, and Ashtaroth, and served the L. o. w. only.

5 ¶ And Samuel said; Gather all Israel to Mizpeh, and I will pray for you unto the L. o. w.

6 ¶ And they gathered together to Mizpeh, and drew water, and poured it out before the L. o. w., and fasted on that day, and said there, We have sinned against the L. o. w.: And Samuel judged the children of Israel in Mizpeh.

7 ¶ And when the Philistines heard that the children of Israel were gathered together to Mizpeh, the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel: and when the children of Israel heard it, they were afraid of the Philistines.

8 ¶ And the children of Israel said to Samuel, Cease not to cry unto the L. o. w. for our God for us, that he will save us out of the hand of the Philistines.

9 ¶ And Samuel took a sucking-lamb, and offered it for a burnt-offering wholly unto the L. o. w.; and Samuel cried unto the L. o. w. for Israel, and the L. o. w. heard him.

10 ¶ And as Samuel was offering up the burnt-offering, the Philistines drew nigh to battell against Israel: but the L. o. w. thundered with a great thunder on that day upon the Philistines, and discomfited them, and they were beaten before Israel.

11 ¶ And the men of Israel came out of Mizpeh, and pursued the Philistines, and smote them, until they came under Beth-shankite.

12 ¶ Then Samuel took a stone, and he is between Mizpeh and Beth-shankite, and called the name of it Ebenezer, saying, For thus hath the L. o. w. helped us.

13 ¶ So the Philistines were subdued, and they came no more into the coast of Israel: and the hand of the L. o. w. was against the Philistines, all the days of Samuel.

14 ¶ And the cities which the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron even unto Gath, and the coasts thereof did Israel deliver out of the hands of the Philistines: and there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.

15 ¶ And Samuel judged Israel all the days of his life.

16 ¶ And he went from year to year in circuit to Beth-el, and Mizpah, and Mizpeh, and he circujudged Israel in all those places.

17 ¶ And his return was to Ramah: for there was his house, and there he judged Israel, and there he built an altar unto the L. o. w.

CHAP. VIII.

I. By occasion of the ill government of Samuels sonnes, the Israelites ask a king. 6 Samuel praying in griefs, is comforted by God. 10 He telleth the manner of a king. 19 God willeth Samuel to yield unto the importunity of the people.

¶ And it came to pass when Samuel was old, that he made his sonnes judges over Israel.

2 ¶ Now the name of his first-born was Jotham, and the name of his second, Abiah: they were judges in Beth-shankite.

3 ¶ And his sonnes walked not in his ways, but turned aside after their own hearts, and perverted judgement.

4 ¶ When all the elders of Israel gathered themselves together, and came to Samuel unto Ramah.

5 ¶ And said unto him, Behold, thou art old, and thy sons do not walk in thy ways: now make us a king to judge us like all the nations.

6 ¶ ¶ But the thing displeased Samuel, when they said, Give us a king to judge us: and Samuel prayed unto the L. o. w.

7 ¶ And the L. o. w. said unto Samuel, Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee: for they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them.

8 ¶ According to all the words which they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even unto this day, whereunto they have forsaken me, and served other gods: so shall also unto thee.

9 ¶ Now therefore I hearken unto their voice: I will send thee a man, and thou shalt anoint him: and when thou shalt have anointed him, I will say unto thee, what thou shalt do.

10 ¶ And Samuel told all the words of the L. o. w. unto the people, that asked of him a king.

11 ¶ And he said, This will be the manner of the king that shall reign over you: he will take your sons, and appoint them for himself, to be his chariots, and to be his horsemen, and some shall run before his chariots.

12 ¶ And he will appoint him captains over thousands, and captains over fifties, and will see them.

That is, the stone of help.

21 And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he repeated them in the ears of the Lord.

22 And the Lord said to Samuel, Hearken unto their voice, and make them a king. And Samuel said unto the men of Israel, Go ye every man unto his city.

¶ Saul despairing to finde his fathers asses, & by the counsel of his servants, 11 and dissolution of young maidens, 15 according to Gods revelation, 18 cometh to Samuel, 19 Samuel entertaineth Saul as the feast. 25 Samuel, after secret communication, bringeth Saul on his way.

Now there was a man of Benjamin, whose name was Kish, the sonne of Abiel, the sonne of Zeror, the sonne of Berchoath, the sonne of Ephial, in Benjamin, a mighty man of power.

2 And he had a sonne whose name was Saul, a choice young man, and a goodly: and there was not among the children of Israel a goodlier yet: son then he: from his shoulders and upward, he was higher then any of the people.

3 And the asses of Kish, Sauls father, were lost; and Kish said to Saul his sonne, Take now one of the servants with thee, and arise, go seek the asses.

4 And he passed through mount Ephraim, and brought them through the land of Shalisha, but they found them not: then they passed through the land of Shalish, and there they were not: and he passed through the land of the Benjamites, but they found them not.

5 And when they were come to the land of Zuph, Saul said to his servant that was with him, Come, and let us return: lest my father leave caring for the asses, & take thought for us.

6 And he said unto him, Behold now, there is in this city a man of God, and he is an honourable man: all that he saith, cometh surely to passe: now let us go thither; peradventure he can shew us our way that we should go.

9 ¶ Beforetime in Israel, when a man went to enquire of God, thus he spake, Come, and let us go to the seer: for he that is now called a prophet, was beforetime called a seer.

10 Then said Saul to his servant, I smell said, come, let us go: so they went unto the city where the man of God was.

11 ¶ And as they went up to the hill to the city, they found young maidens going out to draw water, and said unto them, Is the seer here?

12 And they answered them, and said, He is: behold, he is before you: make haste now, for he came to day to the city; for there is a sacrifice of the people to day in the high place.

13 ¶ Soon as ye be come into the city, ye shall straightway finde him, before he go up to the high place to eat: for the people will not eat until he come, because he doth bless the sacrifice, and afterwards they eat that he bidden: Now therefore get you up, for about this time ye shall finde him.

14 And they went up into the city, and when they were come into the city, behold, Samuel came out against them, for to go up to the high place.

15 ¶ ¶ Now the Lord had told Samuel in his ears a day before Saul came, saying, 16 To morrow about this time I will send thee a man out of the land of Benjamin, and thou shalt anoint him to be captain over my people Israel: that he may save my people out of the hand of the Philistines: for I have looked upon my people, because their cry is come unto me.

17 And when Samuel saw Saul, the Lord said unto him, Behold the man whom I spake to thee of: this same shall I reigne over my people.

18 Then Saul stood near to Samuel in the gate, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, where the seers house is.

19 And Samuel answered Saul, and said, I am the seer: go up before me unto the high place, for ye shall eat with me to day, and to morrow I will let thee go, and will tell thee all that is in thine heart.

20 And as for thine asses that were lost thre dayes ago, let not thy minde on them, for they are found: and on whom is all the desire of Israel: is it not on thee, and on all thy fathers house?

21 And Saul answered, and said, Am not I a Benjamite of the smallest of the tribes of Israel: and my familie the least of all the families of the tribe of Benjamin? wherefore then speakest thou so to me?

22 And Samuel took Saul, and his servant, and brought them into the parlour, and made them sit in the chiefest place among them that were bidden, which were about thirty persons.

23 And Samuel said unto the cook, Bring the portion which I gave thee, of which I said unto thee, Set it by thee.

24 And the cook took up the shoulder, and that which was upon it, and set it before Saul: and Samuel said, Behold, that which is left, set it before thee, and eat: for unto this time hath it been kept for thee, since I said, I have visited the people: so Saul did eat with Samuel that day.

of the city. Samuel said to Saul, Bids the servant pass on before us, (and he passed on) but stand thou still: a while, that I may shew thee the word of God.

CHAP. X.

1 Samuel anointeth Saul. 2 He confirmeth him by prediction of three signs. 9 Sauls heart is changed, and he propheseth. 14 He concealeth the matter of the kingdom to his uncle. 17 Saul is chosen at Mizpeh by lot. 26 The different afflictions of his subjects.

Then Samuel took a vial of oyl, and poured it upon his head, and kissed him, and said, Is it not because the Lord hath chosen thee to be captain over his inheritance?

2 And when thou art departed from me to day, then thou shalt finde two men by Machbis lephche in the border of Benjamin, at Beth-el: and they will say unto thee, The asses which thou wentest to seek are found: and lo, thy father hath left the care of the asses, and (sorroweth for) you, saying, What shall I do for my home?

3 Then shalt thou go on forward from thence, & thou shalt come to the plain of Tabor, and there shalt meet thee three men going up to God to Beth-el, one carrying three kids, and another carrying three loaves of bread, and another carrying a bottle of wine.

4 And they will salute thee, and give thee two loaves of bread, which thou shalt receive of their hands.

5 After that thou shalt come to the hill of God, where is the garrison of the Philistines: and it shall come to passe when thou art come thither to the city, that thou shalt meet a company of prophets coming down from the high place, with a psalterie, and a tabret, and a pipe, and a harp before them, and they shall prophesie.

6 And the spirit of the Lord shall come upon thee, and thou shalt prophesie with them, and shalt be turned into another man.

7 And I let it be when their signs are come unto thee, that thou shalt do as occasion shall serve thee, for God is with thee.

8 And thou shalt go down before me to Gilgal, and behold, I will come down unto thee, to offer burnt-offerings, and to sacrifice sacrifices of peace-offerings: seven dayes shalt thou tarry, till I come to thee, and shew thee what thou shalt do.

9 And it was so, that when he had turned his back to go from Samuel, God gave him another heart: and all these signes came to passe that day.

10 And when they came thither to the hill, behold, a company of prophets met him, and the spirit of God came upon him, and he prophesied among them.

11 And it came to passe when all that knew him beforetime, saw, that behold, he prophesied among the prophets, then the people said one to another, What is this that is come unto the sonne of Kish? is Saul also among the prophets?

12 And one of the same place answered, and said, But who is their father? therefore it became a proverb, Is Saul also among the prophets?

13 And when he had made an end of prophesying, he came to the high place.

14 And Sauls uocls said unto him, and to his servant, And whither went ye? And he said, To seek the asses: and when we saw that they were no there, we came to Samuel.

19 And Sauls uncle said, Tell me, I pray thee, what Samuel said unto you.

16 And Saul said unto his uncle, He told us plainly that the asses were found: but of the matter of the kingdom, whereof Samuel spake, he told him not.

17 And Samuel called the people together, unto the Lord at Mizpeh.

18 And said unto the children of Israel, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all kingdoms, and of them that oppressed you.

19 And ye have this day rejected your God, who himselfe saved you out of all your adversities, and your tribulations: and ye have said unto him, Nay, but set a king over us. Now therefore present your selves before the Lord your God, and by your tribes, and by your thousands.

20 And when Samuel had caused all the tribes of Israel to come ncare, the tribe of Benjamin was taken.

21 And when he had caused the tribe of Benjamin to come ncare by their families, the family of Issachar was taken, and Saul the sonne of Kish was taken: and when they sought him, he could not be found.

22 Therefore they enquired of the Lord further, if the man should yet come thither: and the Lord answered, Behold, he hath hid himself among the skulls.

23 And they ran and searched him thence: and when he stood among the people, he was higher then any of the people from the shoulders and upward.

24 And Samuel said to all the people, Set ye him whom the Lord hath chosen, that there is none like him among all the people. And all the people shouted, and said, God save the king.

25 Then Samuel told the people the manner of the kingdom, and wrote it in a book, and laid it up before the Lord: and Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his house.

26 And Saul also went home to Gibeah, and there went with him a band of men, in whose hearts God had touched.

27 But the children of Belial said, How shall this man save us? and they despised him, and brought him no presents: but he held his peace.

CHAP. XI.

1 Nabab offereth him of Jabesh-gilead a reproachfull condition. 4 They send messengers, and are delivered by Saul. 12 Saul thereby is confirmed, and his kingdom renewed.

Then Nabab the Ammonite came up, and encamped against Jabesh-gilead: and all the men of Jabesh said unto Nabab, Make a covenant with us, and we will serve thee.

2 And Nabab the Ammonite answered them, On this condition will I make a covenant with you, that I may thrust out all your right eyes, and lay it for a reproach upon all Israel.

3 And the elders of Jabesh said unto him, Give us seven dayes respite, that we may send messengers unto all the coasts of Israel, when if there be no man to save us, we will submit unto thee.

4 Then came the messengers to Gibeah of Saul, and told the tidings in the ears of the people: and all the people lift up their voices, and wept.

5 And behold, Saul came after the herd out of the field, and Saul said, What aileth the people this day?

116 let the king live as though he had been dead.

116 let us that they were? and they told him the things of the men of Jabesh.

6 And the spirit of God came upon Saul, when he heard these things, and his anger was kindled greatly.

7 And he took a yoke of oxen, and bound them together, and sent them in the morning all the cons of Israel, by the hands of messengers, saying, and ye shall come out forth after Saul and after Samuel, so that it be done unto his own: and also that of the L^o & M^o tell on the people, and they shall come out with one consent.

† Heb. as one man,

8 And when he numbered them in Bezek, the children of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah three thousand.

9 And they said unto the messengers that came, Thus shall ye say unto the men of Jabesh-Gilead, Whosoever be at that time the same be not, ye shall have help. And the messengers came and shewed it to the men of Jabesh, and they were glad.

† Or, deliverance

10 Therefore the men of Jabesh said, We know we will come out unto you, and ye shall do with us all that kineth God unto you.

11 And it was so on the morrow, that Saul put the people in three companies, and they came into the midst of the host in the morning watch, and slew the Ammonites, until the heat of the day: and it came to pass, that they which remained were slain, so that two of them were not left together.

12 And the people said unto Samuel, Who is he that said, Saul shall reign over us, working the men, that we may put them to death.

13 And Saul said, There shall not a man be put to death this day: for to day the L^o & M^o hath wrought salvation in Israel.

14 Then said Samuel to the people, Come, and let us go to Gilgal, and pour out the kingdom there.

15 And all the people went to Gilgal, and there they made Saul king before the L^o & M^o in Gilgal: and there they sacrificed sacrifices of peace-offerings before the L^o & M^o: and there they made all the men of Israel rejoiced greatly.

CHAP. XII.

1. Samuel reproveth his integrity. 6 He reproveth the people of ingratitude. 16 He reproveth them with thunder in harvest time. 20 He comforteth them in Gods mercy.

1 And Samuel said unto all Israel, Behold, I have hearkened unto your voice in all that ye said unto me, and have made a king over you.

2 And now behold, the king walketh before you: and I am old and gray-headed, and behold, my times are with you, and I have watched for you from my childhood unto this day.

* Eccles. 46. 19

3 Behold, here I am, to witness against me before the L^o & M^o: and before his anointed: whose name have I taken? or whose will have I taken? of whom have I demanded? whom have I oppressed? or of whose hand have I received any? I have not blind mine eyes therewith: and I will release it you.

† Heb. rancorous.

4 And they said, Thou hast not defrauded us, nor oppressed us, neither hast thou taken ought of any mans hand.

† Or, that I should hide mine eyes from him.

5 And he said unto them, The L^o & M^o is witness against you, and his anointed is witness this day, that ye have not found ought in my hand: And they answered, He is witness.

† Heb. made.

6 And Samuel said unto the people, It is the L^o & M^o that I have seen: and Aaron, and that brought your fathers up out of the land of Egypt.

7 How therefore stand still, that I may reason with you before the L^o & M^o of all the righteous acts of the L^o & M^o, which he did for you and to your fathers.

† Heb. out of the land of Egypt.

8 When Jacob was come into Egypt, and your fathers cried unto the L^o & M^o, then the L^o & M^o sent Moses and Aaron, which brought forth your fathers out of Egypt, and made them dwell in this place.

9 And when they forgot the L^o & M^o their God, he told them into the hand of Sisers, captain of the host of Egypt, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Assyria, and they fought against them.

† Heb.

10 And they cried unto the L^o & M^o, and said, Save us from this, because we have sinned thee: L^o & M^o, and have sinned against thee: but now deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, and we will serve thee.

† Heb.

11 And the L^o & M^o sent Jerubbabai, and Be-rah, and Ishbithai, and Sammel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies on every side, and ye dwelled safe.

12 And when ye saw that Shalishai the king of the children of Ammon came against you, ye came unto me, saying, Let a king fight against us: for we, when the L^o & M^o was your king.

13 Now therefore, behold the king whom ye have chosen, and whom ye have desired: and behold, the L^o & M^o hath set a king over you.

14 If ye will fear the L^o & M^o, and serve him, and obey his voice, and not rebel against the commandment of the L^o & M^o, then shall ye be, ye, and also the king that reigneth over you, continue following the L^o & M^o your God.

† Heb.

15 But if ye will not obey the voice of the L^o & M^o, but rebel against the commandment of the L^o & M^o, then shall the hand of the L^o & M^o be against you, as it was against your fathers.

16 How therefore stand, and see this great thing which the L^o & M^o will do before your eyes.

17 Is not wheat harvest to day? I will call unto the L^o & M^o, and he shall send thunder and rain: that ye may perceive and see, that your wickedness is great, which ye have done in the sight of the L^o & M^o, in making you a king.

18 So Samuel called unto the L^o & M^o, and the L^o & M^o sent thunder and rain that day: and all the people greatly feared the L^o & M^o, and Samuel.

19 And all the people said unto Samuel, Day for thy servants unto the L^o & M^o thy God, that we do not: for we have added unto all our sin, this evil, to ask us a king.

20 And Samuel said unto the people, Fear not: ye have done all this wickedness, yet turn not aside from following the L^o & M^o, but serve the L^o & M^o with all your heart:

21 And turn ye not aside, for then should ye cease to be kings, which cannot profit you: deliver, for they are vain.

22 For the L^o & M^o will not forsake his people, for his great name sake: because he hath pleased the L^o & M^o to make you his people.

† Heb. great thing.

23 Moreover, as for me, God forbid that I should fight against the L^o & M^o, in ceasing to pray for you: but ye will turn from the good and the right way.

24 Only fear the L^o & M^o, and serve him in truth with all your heart: for consider how great things he hath done for you.

25 But if ye shall still do wickedly, ye shall be consumed, both ye and your king.

7 And his armour-bearer said unto him, Do all that is in thine heart: turn thee, behold, I am with thee according to thy heart.

8 Then said Jonathan, Behold, we will passe over unto these men, and we will discover our selves unto them.

10 But if they say thus, Come up unto us; then we will go up: for the Lord hath delivered them into our hand; and this shall be a signe unto us.

11 And both of them discovered themselves unto the garison of the Philistines: and the Philistines said, Behold, the Hebrews come forth out of the holes, where they had hid themselves.

12 And the men of this garison, answered Jonathan and his armour-bearer, and said, Come up to us, and we will shew you a thing. And Jonathan said unto his armour-bearer, Come up after me; for the Lord hath delivered them into the hands of Israel.

13 And Jonathan climbed up upon his hands, and upon his feet, and his armour-bearer after him: and they fell before Jonathan; and his armour-bearer slew after him.

For, half a furrow of an acre of land.

14 And that first slaughter which Jonathan and his armour-bearer made, was about twenty men, within as it were half an acre of land, which a yoke of oxen might plow.

15 And there was trembling in the host in the field, and among all the people: the garison, and the spoilers, they also trembled, and the earth quaked: so it was a very great trembling.

† Heb. a trembling of God.

16 And the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked; and behold, the multitude melted away, and they went on beating down one another.

17 Then said Saul unto the people that were with him, Number now, & see who is gone from us. And when they had numbered, behold, Jonathan and his armour-bearer were not there.

18 And Saul said unto Abiah, Bring hither the ark of God: for the ark of God was at that time with the children of Israel.

For, tumult.

19 ¶ And it came to passe while Saul talked unto the priest, that the noise that was in the host of the Philistines went on, and increased: and Saul said unto the priest, What shal I do?

† Heb. were cried together.

20 And Saul and all the people that were with him, assembled themselves, and they came to the battell: and behold, every mans sword was against his fellow, and there was a very great discomfiture.

* 1 Sam. 7. 22. * 1 Sam. 20. 49.

21 Moreover, the Hebrews that were with the Philistines before that time, which went up with them into the camp from the country round about, even they also turned to be with the Israelites, that were with Saul and Jonathan.

22 Likewise all the men of Israel which had hid themselves in mount Ephraim, when they heard that the Philistines fled, even they also followed hard after them in the battell.

23 So the Lord smitten Israel that day: and the battell passed over unto Beth-aven.

24 ¶ And the men of Israel were distressed that day: for Saul had adured the people, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth any food this till evening: that I may be avenged on mine enemies: so none of the people tasted any food.

25 And all they of the land came to a wood, and there was honey upon the ground.

26 And when the people were come into the wood, behold, the honey dropped; but no man put his hand to his mouth: for the people feared the oath.

27 But Jonathan heard not when his father charged the people with the oath: wherefore he put forth the end of the rod that was in his hand, and dip it in an honey-combe, and put his hand to his mouth; and his eyes were enlightened.

28 Then answered one of the people, and said, Why hath strictly charged the people with an oath, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth any food this day. And the people were faint.

29 Then said Jonathan, My father hath troubled the land: see, I pray you, how mine eyes have been enlightened, because I tasted a little of this honey.

30 How much more, if haply the people had eaten freely to day of the spoil of their enemies which they found: for had there not been now a much greater slaughter among the Philistines?

31 And they smote the Philistines that day from Bethmah to Ajalon: and the people were very faint.

32 And the people slew upon the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and calves, and flew them on the ground: and the people did eat them with the blood.

33 ¶ Then they told Saul, saying, Behold, the people sinne against the Lord, in that they eat with the blood. And he said, De have I transgressed: till a great stone unto me this day.

34 And Saul said, Disperse your selves among the people, and say unto them, Bring me hither every man his ox, and every man his sheep, and slay them here, & eat; and sinne not against the Lord, in eating with the blood. And all the people brought every man his ox, & with him that night, and slew them there.

35 And Saul built an altar unto the Lord: for the same was the first altar that he built unto the Lord.

36 ¶ And Saul said, Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and spoil them untill the morning light; and let us not leave a man of them. And they said, Do whatsoever seemeth good unto thee. Then said the priest, Let us have meat hither unto God.

37 And Saul asked counsel of God, Shall I go down after the Philistines: wilt thou deliver them into the hand of Israel? But he answered him not that day.

38 And Saul said, Draw ye nigh hither all the chief of the people: and know and see wherein this sinne hath been this day.

39 For as the Lord liveth, which saitheth Israel, though it be in Jonathan my sonne, he shall surely die. But there was not a man among all the people that answered him.

40 Then said he unto all Israel, Be ye on one side, and I and Jonathan my sonne will be on the other side. And the people said unto Saul, Do what seemeth good unto thee.

41 Therefore Saul said unto the Lord God of Israel, Give a perfect lot. And Saul and Jonathan were taken: but the people escaped.

42 And Saul said, Cast lots between me and Jonathan my sonne. And Jonathan was taken.

43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, Tell me what thou hast done. And Jonathan told him, and said, I did but taste a little honey with the end of the rod that was in mine hand, and lo, I must die.

44 And Saul answered, God do so, and more also: for thou shalt surely die, Jonathan.

45 And the people said unto Saul, Shall Jonathan die, who hath brought this great salvation on Israel? God forbid: as the Lord liveth, 46 Then Saul went up from following the Philistines: and the Philistines went to their own place.

47 ¶ So Saul took the kingdom over Israel, and fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, and against the children of Ammon, and against Edom, and against the kings of Tobah, and against the Philistines; and whithersoever he turned himself, he overthrew them.

¶ Samuel also said unto Saul, * The Lord hath sent me to anoint thee to be king over his people, over Israel: now therefore hearken thou unto the voice of the words of the Lord.

Exod. 17.8. Num. 24. 20.

2 Thus saith the Lord of hosts, I remember that which Amalek did to Israel; * how he laid wait for him in the way when he came up from Egypt.

3 Now go, and smite Amalek, and utterly destroy all that they have, and spare them not; but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, or and sheep, camel and ass.

4 And Saul gathered the people together, and numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen; and ten thousand men of Judah.

he fought,

5 And Saul came to a citie of Amalek, and he laid wait in the valley.

6 ¶ And Saul said unto the Kenites, Go, depart, get you down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them; for ye shewed kindness to all the children of Israel when they came up out of Egypt. So the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.

7 And Saul smote the Amalekites from Heblai, until thou comest to Shur, that is over against Egypt.

8 And he took Agag the king of the Amalekites alive, and utterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.

9 But Saul and the people spared Agag, and the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, and of the fattings, and the lambs, and all that was good, and would not utterly destroy them: but they thought that thus late and refuse, that they destroyed utterly.

10 ¶ Then came the word of the Lord unto Samuel, saying,

11 It is contrary me that I have set up Saul to be king; for he is turned back from following me, and hath not performed my commandments. And it is turned Samuel; and he cried unto the Lord, and he cried unto the Lord all night.

12 And when Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning, it was told Samuel, saying, Saul came to Carmel, & behold, he set him up a place, and is gone about, and passed on, and gone down to Gilgal.

13 And Samuel came to Saul, and Saul said unto him, Blessed be thou of the Lord: I have performed the commandment of the Lord.

14 And Samuel said, What meanest thou this bleating of the sheep in mine ears, and the lowing of the oxen which I hear?

15 And Saul said, They have brought them from the Amalekites: for the people spared the best of the sheep, and of the oxen, to sacrifice unto the Lord; and the rest we have utterly destroyed.

16 Then Samuel said unto Saul, Stay, and I will tell thee what the Lord hath said to me this night. And he said unto him, Say on.

17 And Samuel said, Though thou wast little in thine own sight, wast thou not made the head of the tribes of Israel, and the Lord anointed thee king over Israel?

18 And the Lord hath sent thee on a journey, and said, Go, and utterly destroy the sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them until I they be consumed.

† Heb. they consume them.

19 Wherefore then didst thou not obey the voice of the Lord? but didst lie upon the spoil, and didst evil in the sight of the Lord.

20 And Saul said unto Samuel, Pra, I have obeyed the voice of the Lord, and have gone the way which the Lord sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have utterly destroyed the Amalekites.

21 But the people took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the chief of the things which should have been utterly destroyed to sacrifice unto the Lord thy God in Gilgal.

22 And Samuel said, Hath the Lord as great delight in burnt-offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the Lord? Behold, * to obey is better than sacrifice: and to hearken, then the fat of rammes.

24 ¶ And Saul said unto Samuel, I have sinned: for I have transgressed the commandments of the Lord, and thy words because I feared the people, and obeyed their voice.

25 Now therefore, I pray thee, pardon my sinne, and turn again with me, that I may worship the Lord thy God.

26 And Samuel said unto Saul, I will not return with thee; for thou hast rejected the word of the Lord, and the Lord hath rejected thee from being king over Israel.

27 And as Samuel turned about to go away, he laid hold upon the skirt of his mantle, and it rent.

28 And Samuel said unto him, The Lord hath rent the kingdom of Israel from thee this day, and hath given it to a neighbour of thine, that is better than thou.

13 And Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the midst of his brethren: and the spirit of the Lord as was came upon David, from that day forthward: so Samuel rose up and went to Ramah.

14 But the spirit of the Lord as was departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the Lord as was troubled him.

1 Or, trouble

15 And Saul's servants said unto him, Behold now, an evil spirit from God troubled thee.

16 Let our lord now command thy servants which are before thee, to seek out a man who is a cunning player on an harp: and he shall come to pass, when the evil spirit from God is upon thee, that he shall play with his hand, and thou shalt be well.

17 And Saul said unto his servants, Provide me now a man that can play well, and bring him to me.

18 Then answered one of the servants, 7 said, Behold, I have seen a young of Jesse the Beth-lehemite, that is cunning in playing, 7 a mighty valiant man, and a man of warre, and prudent in matters, and a comely person, and the Lord as was Jesse, and said, Send me David thy sonne, which is with the sheep.

20 And Jesse took an ass laden with bread, and a bottle of wine, and a kid, and sent them

21 And David came to Saul, and stood before him: and he loved him greatly, and he became his attendant-dearer.

22 And Saul said to Jesse, saying, Let David,
I pray thee, stand before me: for he hath shown favour in my sight.

23 And it came to pass, when the evil spirit from God was upon Saul, that David took an harp, and played with his hand: so Saul was refreshed, and was well, and the evil spirit departed from him.

to morrow is the new moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king at meat: but let me go, that I may hide my self in the field: unto the third day at even.

¶ If thy father at all mist me, then say, David earnestly asked leave of me, that he might run to Beth-lehem his city: for there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family.

¶ If he say thus, he is well: thy servant shall have peace: but if he be very wrath, when he saith that evil is determined by him.

¶ Therefore thou shalt deal kindly with thy servant: for thou hast brought thy servant into a covenant of the L. so as with thee: nor wilt thou stand, if there be in me iniquity, say me thy self, for I know mine thoughts: and I know thee.

¶ And Jonathan said, I will do as thou sayest: for I know thy father, and thou hast been determined by him: but I will not come upon thee, then would not I tell it thee.

¶ Then said David to Jonathan, And he shall tell me: or what if thy father answer thee roughly?

¶ And Jonathan said unto David, Come, and let us go out into the field. And they went out both of them into the field.

¶ And Jonathan said unto David, O L. so God of Israel, when I have sinned my father, about to morrow any time, or the third day, and behold, if there be good toward David, and I then send not unto thee, and I shew it thee.

¶ The L. so as to do as much more to Jonathan: but if it please my father to do thee evil, then I will shew it thee, and send thee away: but thou mayest go in peace: and the L. so as be with thee, as he hath been with my father.

¶ And thou shalt not onely, while yet I live, shew me the kindness of the L. so as, that I die not.

¶ But also thou shalt not cut off thy kindness from my house: for that: so not when the L. so as to hath cut off the enemies of David, cutty one from the face of the earth.

¶ So Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying, Let the L. so as then require it at the hand of David's enemies.

¶ And Jonathan loved David to the death, because he loved him: for he loved him as he loved his own soul.

¶ Then Jonathan said to David, To morrow is the new moon: and thou shalt be killed, because the seat will be empty.

¶ And when thou hast slayed thy vayer, then thou shalt go down if quickly, and come to the place where thou dost use the self, I when the business will be in hand, and shall remain by the stone I say.

¶ And I will shoot three arrows on the flue thereof, as though I shot at a mark.

¶ And behold, I will send a lad, saying, Go, stand out the arrows. If I expressly say unto the lad, Behold, the arrows are on this side of thee, take them: then come thou, for there is peace to thee, and I no hurt: as the L. so as to thee.

¶ But if I say thus unto the young man, Behold, the arrows are beyond thee: go thy way, for the L. so as to hath sent thee away.

¶ And as touching the matter which thou and I have spoken of, behold, the L. so as to be between thee and me forever.

¶ So David hid himself in the field: and when the new moon was come, the king sat him down to eat meat.

¶ And the king sat upon his seat, as at other times, even upon a seat by the wall: and Jonathan was with him, and there sat by Saul's side, and David's place was empty.

¶ Nevertheless, Saul spake not any thing that day: for he thought, Some thing hath befallen him, he is not clean: surely he is not clean.

¶ And it came to pass on the morrow, which was the second day of the month, that David's place was empty: and Saul said unto Jonathan, His comes: and therefore cometh not the sonne of Jesse as usual, neither yesterday nor to day?

¶ And Jonathan answered Saul, David earnestly asked leave of me to go to Beth-lehem:

¶ And he said, Let me go, I pray thee, for our family hath a sacrifice in the city, and my brother he hath commanded me to be therc; and notwithstanding I have found favour in thine eyes, let me get alonge, I may live, and see my brethren: I desire he cometh not unto the kings table.

¶ Then Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said unto him, If thou sonne of the perverse rebellious woman, do not I know that thou hast chosen the sonne of Jesse to thine own confusion, and unto the confusion of thy mother's nakedness?

¶ For as long as the sonne of Jesse liveth upon the ground, thou shalt not be established, nor thy kingdom: wherefore now send & fetch him unto me, for he shall surely die.

¶ And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said unto him, Wherewith shall he be slain? what hath he done?

¶ And Saul call a javelin at him to smite him, wherby Jonathan knew that it was determined of his father to slay David.

¶ So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and did eat to meat the second day of the month: for he was grieved for David, because his father had done him shame.

¶ And it came to pass in the morning, that Jonathan went out with David, at the time appointed with David, and a little lad with him.

¶ And he said unto his lad, Run, thou out now the arrows which I shoot. And as the lad ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.

¶ And when the lad was come to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cries after the lad, wherby is not the arrow beyond thee?

¶ And Jonathan cried after the lad, Spare speed, haste, say not. And Jonathan had gathered up the arrows, and came to his master.

¶ But the lad knew not any thing: only Jonathan and David knew the matter.

¶ And Jonathan gave his javellary unto his lad, and said unto him, Go, stand by the city.

¶ And as soon as the lad was gone, David arose out of a place toward the south, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times: and they kissed one another, and wept one with another, until David received.

¶ And Jonathan said to David, Go in peace, I pray much as the L. so as to hath said of us in the name of the L. so as to, saying, The L. so as to be between me and thee, and between my seed and thy seed forever. And he arose and departed, and Jonathan went into the city.

Saul going to pursue him, complaineth of his servants unfaithfulness. 9. Doeg accuseth Ahimelech. 11. Saul commandeth to kill the priests. 17. The footmen refusing, Doeg executeth it. 20. Abiathar escaping, bringeth Davids news.

David therefore departed thence, and escaped into the cave Adullam: & when his brethren, and all his fathers house heard it, they went down thither to him.

2 And every one that was in distress, and every one that was discontented, gathered themselves unto him, and he became a captain over them: and there were with him about four hundred men.

3 And David went thence to Gopher of Goath: and he said unto the king of Moab, Let my father and my mother, I pray thee, come forth, and he will pray, till I know what God will do for me.

4 And he brought them before the king of Moab: and they dwelt with him all the while that David was in the hold.

5 And the prophet Gad said unto David, Abide not in the hold, depart, and get thee into the land of Judah. Then David departed, and came into the forest of Hareth.

6 And when Saul heard that David was discovered, and the men that were with him, (now Saul abode in Gethaim under a tree in Ramah, having his spears in his hand, and all his servants were standing about him.)

7 Then Saul said unto his servants that stood about him, Hear now, ye Benjamites, will the sonne of Jesse give every one of you fields, and vineyards, and makes you all captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds?

8 That all of you have conspired against me, and there is none that sheweth me that my sonne hath made a league with the sonne of Jesse, and there is none of you that is faithful to me, sheweth unto me that my sonne hath sworn up my servant against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?

9 Then answered Doeg the Edomite, (which was set over the servants of Saul) and said, I saw the sonne of Jesse coming to Achish, to Ahimelech the sonne of Abiath.

10 And he enquired of the Lord, as it was, and gave him victuals, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine.

11 Then the king sent to call Ahimelech the priest the sonne of Abiath, and all his fathers house, the priests that were in Moab: and they came all of them to the king.

12 And Saul said, Hear now, thou sonne of Abiath: And he answered, Here I am, my lord.

† Heb. beho is me.

13 And Saul said unto him, Why have ye conspired against me, thou and the sonne of Jesse, in that thou hast given him bread, and a sword, and hast enquired of God for him, that he should rise against me, to lie in wait, as at this day?

14 Then Ahimelech answered the king, and said, And who is so faithfull among all the servants, as David, which is the kings sonne in law, and goeth at thy bidding, and is honourable in thine house?

15 Did I then begin to enquire of God for him? be it farre from me, let not the king inquire any thing unto his servant, nor to all the house of my father: for the servant knoweth nothing of all this, I sware by God.

16 And the king said, Thou hast surely deceived me, and all thy fathers house.

17 And the king said unto the 14. footmen that stood about him, Turn and slay the priests of the Lord, as it was, because their hand also is with David, and because they knew when he fled, and did not shew it to me. But the servants of the king would not put forth their hand to fall upon the priests of the Lord, as it was.

19 And Abiah, the city of the priests, smote he with the edge of the sword, both men & women, children and sucklings, and oxen and asses, and sheep, with the edge of the sword.

20 ¶ And one of the names of Abimelech, the sonne of Hani, named Abiathar, escaped and fled after David.

21 And Abimelech spake unto Saul, that Saul had slain the L. o. s. a. a. priests.

22 And David said unto Abiathar, I know it that day, when Doeg the Gomerite was there, that he would surely tell Saul: I have occasioned the death of all the persons of thy fathers house.

23 Abide thou with me, fear not: for he that seeketh my life, seeketh thy life: but with me thou shalt be in safeguard.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 David enquiring of the Lord by Abiathar rescueth Keilah. 7 Goliath seeing him the coming of Saul, and the treachery of the Keilites, he escapeth from Keilah. 14 In Ziph Jonathan cometh and comforteth him. 19 The Philistines discover him to Saul. 25 At Masbis he is rescued from Saul by the invasion of the Philistines. 29 He dwelleth at Engedi.

Then they told David, saying, Behold, the Philistines fight against Keilah, and they rob the flocking flocks.

¶ Therefore David enquired of the Lord, saying, Shall I go and smite these Philistines? And the L. o. s. a. w. said unto David, Go, and smite the Philistines, and save Keilah.

3 And David's men said unto him, Behold, we be afraid here in Judah: how much more then if we come to Keilah against the armies of the Philistines?

4 Then David enquired of the L. o. s. a. w. yet again: and the L. o. s. a. w. answered him and said, Arise, go down to Keilah: for I will deliver the Philistines into thine hand.

5 So David and his men went to Keilah, and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their cattle, and smote them with a great slaughter: so David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.

6 And it came to passe when Abiathar the sonne of Ahimelech, fled to David to Keilah, that he came down with an ephod in his hand.

7 ¶ And it was told Saul that David was come to Keilah: and Saul said, God hath delivered him into mine hand: for he is in Keilah, by entering into a town that hath gates and bars.

8 And Saul called all the people together to warre, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men.

9 ¶ And David knew that Saul secretly practised mischief against him: and he said to Abiathar the priest, Keeping before the ephod.

10 ¶ Then said David, O L. o. s. a. w. God of Israel, the servant hath certainly heard that Saul seeketh to come to Keilah, to destroy the city for my sake.

11 Will the men of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? Will Saul come down, as thy servant hath heard? O L. o. s. a. w. God of Israel, I beseech thee tell thy servant. And the L. o. s. a. w. said, We will come down.

12 ¶ Then said David, Will the men of Keilah deliver me and my men into the hand of Saul? And the L. o. s. a. w. said, They will deliver thee up.

13 ¶ Then David and his men, which were about six hundred, arose and departed out of Keilah, and went into the forest: they could go; and it was told Saul that David was escaped from Keilah, and he forsooke to go forth.

14 And David abode in the wilderness in strong holds, and remained in a mountain in the wilderness of Ziph: and Saul sought him every day, but God delivered him out of his hand.

15 ¶ And David said, that Saul was come out to seek his life: and David was in the wilderness of Ziph in a wood.

16 And Jonathan Saul's sonne arose, and went to David into the wood, and strengthened his hands in God.

17 And he said unto him, Fear not: for the hand of Saul my father shall not be against thee, and thou shalt be king over Israel, and I shall be next unto thee; and thou also shalt smite thy father's kinred.

18 And they two made a covenant before the L. o. s. a. w.: and David abode in the wood, and Jonathan went to his house.

19 ¶ Then came up the Ziphites to Saul to the desert, saying, Dost not David hide himself with us in strong holds in the wood, in the hill of the Philistines, which is on the south of a Bethunon?

20 ¶ Now therefore, O king, come down according to all the desire of thy soul to come down, and we will be to deliver him into the king's hand.

21 And Saul said, Will he be yet of the L. o. s. a. w. for ye have compassion on me.

22 ¶ So, I pray you, prepare yet, and know and see his place where he is: for he is in the land, and I will search him out though he be in the land: for he is told me that he dwelleth very secretly.

23 ¶ So therefore, and take knowledge of all the lurking places where he hideth himself, and come ye again, some hold him certainly, and I will go with you: and he shall come to pass, as he is in the land, that I will search him out though out all the confines of Judah.

24 And they arose, and went to Ziph before Saul: but David and his men were in the wilderness of Ziph, in the plain north of the south of Bethunon.

25 Saul also and his men bound to seek him; and they told David: wherefore he came down into a rock, and abode in the wilderness of Ziph: and when Saul heard that, he pursued after David in the wilderness of Ziph.

26 And Saul went on this side of the mountain, and David and his men on that side of the mountain: and David made bins to get away for fear of Saul; for Saul and his men compassed David and his men round about to take them.

27 ¶ But there came a messenger unto Saul, saying, Hasten thee, and come: for the Philistines have invaded the land.

28 ¶ Wherefore Saul returned from pursuing after David, and went against the Philistines: therefore they called that place Beth-lehammud, that is, the house of bread.

29 ¶ And David went up from thence, and dwelt in strong holds at Engedi.

CHAP. XXIII.

David in a cave at Engedi, having cut off Saul's skirts, spareth his life. 8 He beweeth thereby his innocency. 16 Saul acknowledging his fault, taketh an oath of David, and departeth.

And it came to passe when Saul was returned from following the Philistines, that he was told him, saying, Behold, David is in the wilderness of Paran.

2 Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seek David and his men upon the rocks of the twine goats.

3 And he came to the sheep-cotes by the way, where was a cave, and Saul went in to cover his feet: and David and his men remained in the sides of the cave.

4 And the men of David said unto him, Behold the day of which the Lord said unto thee, Behold, I will deliver thine enemy into thine hand, that thou mayest do to him as it shall seem good unto thee. Then David arose, and cut off the skirt of + Sauls robe privily.

5 And it came to pass afterward, that Davids heart smote him, because he had cut off Sauls skirt.

6 And he said unto his men, The Lord is to be feared, that I should do this thing unto my master the Lord, who is anointed, to stretch forth my hand against him, seeing he is the anointed of the Lord.

fish, cut off.

7 So David + stayed his servants with these words, and hindered them not to rise against Saul: but Saul rose up out of the cave, and went on his way.

8 David also arose afterward, and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, saying, My lord the king. And when Saul looked behind him, David stooped with his face to the earth, and bowed himself.

9 And David said to Saul, Wherefore hearest thou mens words, saying, Behold, David seeketh thy hurt?

10 Behold, this day thine eyes have seen, how that the Lord said unto me, saying, I will deliver thine enemy into thine hand, and some bad me kill thee, but mine eye spared thee, and I said, I will not put forth mine hand against my lord; for he is the Lords anointed.

11 Moreover, my father, see, you see the skirt of thy robe in my hand: for in that I cut off the skirt of thy robe, and killed thee not, know thou and see, that there is neither evil nor transgression in mine hand, and I have not sinned against thee: yet thou huntst my soul, to take it.

12 The Lord judge between me and thee, and the Lord is to avenge me of thee: but mine hand shall not be upon thee.

13 As saith the power of the ancients, Wickedness proceedeth from the wicked: but mine hand shall not be upon thee.

14 After whom is the king of Israel come out? after whom dost thou pursue? after a dead dog, after a flea.

15 The Lord therefore be judge, and judge between me and thee, and thou, and plead my cause, and + deliver me out of thine hand.

16 And it came to pass when David had made an end of speaking these words unto Saul, that Saul said, Is this thy voice, my son David? And Samuells answer was, yea, and wept.

17 And he said to David, Thou art more righteous than I: for thou hast refused me good, whereas I have rewarded thee evil.

18 And thou hast refused this day how that thou hast dealt well with me: forasmuch as when the Lord said unto me, saying, I will deliver thee into thine hand, thou didst not do so.

fish, up.

19 For if a man smite his enemy, will he let him go well away? wherefore the Lord is to reward thee good, for that thou hast done unto me this day.

20 And now behold, I know well that thou shalt surely be king, and that the kingdom of Israel shall be established in thine hand.

21 I swear now therefore unto me by the Lord, that thou wilt not cut off my seed after me, and that thou wilt not destroy my name out of my fathers house.

22 And David swore unto Saul: and Saul went home; but David and his men got them up into the hills.

CHAP. XXV.

1 Samuel dieth. 2 David in Paran sendeth to Nabal. 10 Provoked by Nabal churlishness he intendeth to destroy him. 14 Abigail understanding thereof, taketh a present, 23 and by her wisdom 30 pacifieth David. 36 Nabal hearing thereof, dieth. 39 David taketh Abigail and Abimeam to be his wives. 44 Michal is given to Phalti.

AND * Samuel dieth, and all the Israelites were gathered together and lamented him, and buried him in his house at Ramah. And David arose + went down to the wilderness of Idumea.

* Chap. 28. 37. Ecclesi 46. 13. 20.

2 And there was a man in Bezon, whose possessions were in Carmel, and the man was very great, and he had three thousand sheep, + a thousand goats: and he was shearing his sheep in Carmel.

for business.

3 Now the name of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wife, Abigail: and she was a woman of good understanding, and of a beautiful countenance: but the man was churlish and evil in his doings, and he was of the house of Caleb.

4 And David heard in the wilderness, that Nabal did shear his sheep.

5 And David sent out ten young men, and David said unto the young men, Get you up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and + greet him in my name.

6 And thus shall ye say to him, that liveth in prosperity, Peace be both to thee, and peace be to thine house, and peace be unto all that thou hast.

7 And now I have heard that thou hast shears: now thy shepherds which were with us, we + hurt them not, neither was there ought missing unto them, all the while they were in Carmel.

fish, flamed.

8 Ask the young men, and they will + tell thee: wherefore let the young men find favour in thine eyes: (for we came in a good day) give, I pray thee, whatsoever cometh to thine hand, unto thy servants, and to thy home David.

9 And when Davids young men came, they shoke to Nabal according to all those words in the name of David, and + ceased.

fish, rested.

10 And Nabal answered Davids servants, and said, Who is David? and who is the house of Jesse? there be many servants nowadays that break away every man from his master.

11 Shall I then take my bread and my water, and my flesh that I have killed for my shears, and give it unto men, whom I know not whence they be?

fish, laugh-ter.

12 So Davids young men turned their way, and went again: and came and told him all those sayings.

13 And David said unto his men, Gird you on every man his sword. And they girded on every man his sword, and David also girded on his sword: and there went up after David about four hundred men, and two hundred above by Bezon.

14 And one of the young men told Abigail Nabal.

Nabals wife, saying, Behold, David sent me-sengers out of the wilderness to salute our master; and he is called on them.

15 But the men were very good unto us, and he were not hurt, neither mist us any thing as long as we were conversant with them: when we were in the fields.

16 They were a wall unto us both by night and day, all the while we were with them keeping the sheep.

17 Now therefore know and consider what thou wilt do: for evil is determined against our master, and against all his household: for he is such a (some of Bethel), that a man cannot speak to him.

18 ¶ Then Abigail made haste, and took two hundred loaves, and two bottles of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five measures of parched corn, and an hundred clusters of raisins, and two hundred cakes of figs, and laid them on asses.

Or, lumps.

19 And she said unto her servants, Go on before me, behold, I come after you: but the told not her husband Nabal.

20 And it was so, as she rode on the ass, that she came down by the covert of the hill, and behold, David and his men came down against her, and she met them.

21 ¶ Now David had said, Surely in vain have I kept all that this fellow hath in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that pertained unto him: and he hath required me evil for good.

22 So and may also do God unto the enemies of David, if I leave of all that pertain to him by the morning light, any that pisseth against the wall!

23 And when Abigail saw David, she hastened, and lighted off the ass, and fell before David on her face, and bowed her self to the ground.

Hes, ears.

Hes, lay it in his heart.

24 And fell at his feet, and said, Upon me, my lord, upon me let this iniquity be, and let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak in thine audience, and hear the words of thine handmaid.

25 Let me thy lord, I pray thee, regard this man of Bethel, even Nabal: for as his name is, so is he; Nabal is his name, and folly is with him: but I thine handmaid saw not the young men of my lord, whom thou didst send.

Hes, saying why self.

26 Now therefore, my lord, as the Lord is with thee, and as thy soul liveth, seeing the Lord hath withholden thee from coming to shed blood, and from avenging the self with thine own hand: now let thine enemies, and they that seek evil to my lord, be as Nabal.

Or, present.

27 And now this blessing which thine handmaid hath brought unto my lord, let it even be given unto the young men that follow my lord.

Hes, walk at Sec.

28 I pray thee, forgive the trespass of thine handmaid: for the Lord is with thee, and thou shalt make my lord a sure house: because my lord sighteth the battles of the Lord, and evil hath not been found in thee all thy days.

29 For a man is risen to pursue thee, and to seek the soul: but the soul of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of life with the Lord, as thou art, and the souls of thine enemies, them shall he sling out, as one of the middle of a sling.

Hes, in the midst of the boughs of a

30 And it shall come to pass when the Lord shall have done to my lord according to all the good that he hath spoken concerning thee, and thou shalt have appointed thee ruler over Israel;

Hes, in the midst of the boughs of a tree.

31 That this shall be to me no grief unto thee, nor affliction of heart unto my lord, either that thou shalt shed blood causeless, or that my lord hath avenged himself: but when the Lord shall have done well with my lord, then remember thine handmaid.

32 ¶ And David said to Abigail, Blessed be the Lord, God of Israel, which sent thee this day to meet me!

33 And blessed be thy advice, and blessed be thou, which hast kept me this day from coming to shed blood, and from avenging my self with mine own hand.

34 For in very deed, as the Lord is, God of Israel liveth, which hath kept me back from hurting thee, except thou hadst bidden me come to meet me, surely there had not been left unto Nabal, by the morning light, any that pisseth against the wall.

35 So David received of her hand that which she had brought him, and laid unto her, Go in peace to thine house; for, I have hearkened to thy voice, and have accepted thy person.

36 ¶ And Abigail came to Nabal, and behold, he held a feast in his house, like the feast of a king;
and Nabals heart was merry within him, for he was very drunken: wherefore she told him nothing less or more, until the morning light.

37 But it came to pass in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, and his wife had told him these things, that his heart died within him, and he became as a stone.

38 And it came to pass about ten days after, that the Lord smote Nabal that he died.

39 ¶ And when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, Blessed be the Lord, as I was, that hath pleased the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and hath kept his servant from evil: for the Lord hath returned the wickedness of Nabal upon his own head. And David sent and commended with Abigail, to take her to him to wife.

40 And when the servants of David were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spake unto her, saying, David sent us unto thee, to take thee to him to wife.

41 And she arose, and bowed herself on her face to the earth, and said, Behold, let thine handmaid be a servant to wash the feet of the servants of my lord.

42 And Abigail hasten and arose, and rode upon an ass, with five damsels of hers that went after her; and she went after the messengers of David, and became his wife.

43 David also took Ahinomi, of Jezreel, and they were also both of them his wives.

44 ¶ But Saul had given Michal his daughter, Davids wife, to Phalti, the son of Laish, which was of Gath.

CHAP. XXVI.

1 Saul by the discovery of the Ziphites, cometh to Ha-chilah against David. 4 David coming into the trench, slayeth Abigail from killing Saul, but saveth his spear and cruse. 15 David reprooveth Abi-ner, 18 and abhorreth Saul. 21 Saul acknowledgeth his sin.

AND the Ziphites came unto Saul to Gibeah, saying, * Dost not David hide himself in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon?

Chap, 26

2 Then Saul arose, and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the wilderness of Ziph.

3 And Saul pitched in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeshimon by the way: but David about advice in the wilderness, and he said that Saul came after him into the wilderness.

4 David therefore sent out spies, and understood that Saul was come in to the wood.

5 ¶ And David arose, and came to the place where Saul had pitched: and David beheld the place where Saul lay, and Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his host: and Saul lay in the trench, and the people pitched round about him.

6 Then answered David and said to Abimelech the Hittite, and to Achish the son of Jerahmeel brother to Joab, saying, Will ye will go down with me to Saul to the camp? And Achish said, I will go down with thee.

7 So David and Achish came to the people by night, and behold, Saul lay sleeping within the trench, and his spear stuck in the ground at his bolster: but Abner and the people lay round about him.

8 Then said Achish to David, How hathst thou delivered thine enemy into thine hand this day: now therefore let me smite him. I pray thee, with the spear even to the earth at once, and I will not smite him the second time.

9 And David said to Achish, Destroy him not: for who can stretch forth his hand against the Lord's anointed, and be guiltless?

10 David said furthermore, As the Lord will, the Lord will smite him, or his day shall come to die, or he shall descend into battell, and perish.

11 The Lord forbid that I should stretch forth mine hand against the Lord's anointed: but I may say, take thou now the spear that is at his bolster, and the cruse of water, and let us go.

12 So David took the spear and the cruse of water from Saul's bolster, and they gat them away, and no man saw it, nor knew it, neither minded it: they were all asleep, because a deep sleep from the Lord was fallen upon them.

13 ¶ Then David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of an hill afar off, (a great space being between them.)

14 And David cried to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, Answerest thou me, Abner? Then Abner answered & said, Why art thou that criest to the king?

15 And David said to Abner, Art not thou a valiant man? and who is like to thee in Israel? wherefore then dost thou not keep thy lord the king? for there came one of the people in to discover the king thy lord.

16 This thing is not good that thou hast done: as the Lord will, yet are I worthy to die, because ye have not kept your master the Lord's anointed: and now see where the king's spear is, and the cruse of water that was at his bolster.

17 And Saul knew David's voice, and said, Is this thy voice, my name David? and David said, It is my voice, my lord, O king.

18 And he said, Wherefore dost my lord thus pursue after his servant? for what have I done? or what evil is in mine hand?

19 Now therefore, I pray thee, let my lord the king hear the words of his servant: If the Lord will, I have stirred thee up against me, let him accept answering: but if they be the children of men, cursed be they before the Lord & so: for they have driven me out this day from following in the inheritance of the Lord's anointed, saying, Go serve other gods.

20 Now therefore, let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of the Lord & so: for the king of Israel is come out to seek a sign, as when one doth hunt a hart in the wilderness.

21 ¶ Then said Saul, I have heard: return, my horse David, for I will no more do thee harm, because my soul was precious in mine eyes this day: behold, I have played the fool, and have erred exceedingly.

22 And David answered and said, Behold, the kings spear, and let one of the young men come over and fetch it.

23 The Lord & so render to every man his righteousness, & his faithfulness: for the Lord delivered thee into my hand to day, but I would not stretch forth mine hand against the Lord's anointed.

24 And behold, as thy life was much set by this day in mine eyes, so let my life be much set by in the eyes of the Lord & so, and let him deliver me out of all tribulation.

25 Then Saul said to David, Blessed be thou, my house David: thou shalt do no great things, and also shall still prevail. So David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Saul hearing David to be in Gath, seeketh no more for him. 2 David begetteth Ziklag of Achish, & he invading other countries, persuadeth Achish he fought against Judah.

AND David said in his heart, I shall not perish one day by the hand of Saul: there is nothing better for me, then that I should freely escape into the land of the Philistines: & Saul shall despair of me, to seek me any more in any coast of Israel: so shall I escape out of his hand.

2 And David arose, and he passed over with the six hundred men that were with him, unto Achish the son of Gath the king of Gath.

3 And David dwelt with Achish at Gath, he and his men: every man with his household, even David with his two wives, Abigail the Nether-litish, and Abigail the Canaanitish Gathite wife.

4 And it was told Saul that David was fled to Gath: and he sought no more again for him.

5 ¶ And David said unto Achish, If I have now found grace in thine eyes, let them give me a place in some town in the country, that I may dwell there: for why should thy servant dwell in the royal city with thee?

6 Then Achish gave him Ziklag that day: wherefore Ziklag pertained unto the kings of Judah unto this day.

7 And in the time that David dwelt in the country of the Philistines, was a full year and number of four months.

8 ¶ And David and his men went up, and invaded the Geshurites, and the Gittites, and the Amalekites: for those nations were in the land of the Or, Geshur, inhabitants of the land, as thou goest to Egypt, even unto the land of Egypt.

9 And David smote the land, and left neither man nor woman alive, and took away the sheep, and the oxen, and the asses, and the camels, and the apparel, and returned, and came to Achish.

10 And Achish said, If neither have ye made a name to day, and David has, against the land of the Amalekites, and against the land of the Amalekites, and against the land of the Amalekites.

11 And David loved neither man nor woman alive, to bring tidings to Gath, saying, Let them shout on us, saying, So do David, and it will be his manner, all the while he dwelleth in the country of the Philistines.

thee, that thou mayest make known unto me what I shall do.

1 Achish putteth confidence in David, 3 Saul having destroyed the witches, 4 and now in his fear forsaken of God, 7 seeketh to a witch. 9 The witch encouraged by Saul, raiseth up Samuel. 15 Saul hearing his ruine, fainteth. 21 The woman with his servants refresh him with meat.

2 And David said to Achish, Surely thou shalt know what thy servant can do. And Achish said to David, Therefore will I make thee keeper of mine head for ever.

3. How Samuel was dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buried him in Ramah, even in his own city: and Saul had put away those that had familiar spirits, and the wizards, out of the land.

4 ¶ And the Philistines gathered themselves together, and came and pitched in Shunem: and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they pitched in Bether.

5 And when Saul saw the host of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his heart greatly troubled.

6. And when Saul enquired of the LOAM, the LOAM answered him not, neither by dreams, nor by Urim, nor by prophets.

7 ¶ Then said Saul unto his servants, Seek me a woman that hath a familiar spirit, that I may go to her, and enquire of her: And his servants said to him, Behold, there is a woman that hath a familiar spirit at En-dor.

8 And Saul disguised himself, and put on other raiment, and he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night; and he said, I pray thee divine unto me by the familiar spirit, and bring me him up whom I shall name unto thee.

9 And the woman said unto him, Behold, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath cut off those that have familiar spirits, and the wizards out of the land: wherefore then layest thou a snare for my life, to cause me to die?

10 And Saul swore to her by the LORD, saying, As the LORD liveth, there shall no punishment happen to thee for this thing.

11 Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up unto thee? And he said, Bring me up Samuel.

12 And when the woman saw Samueel, she cried with a loud voice: and the woman spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceived me? for thou art Saul.

13 And the king said unto her, Be not afraid: for what savest thou? And the woman said unto Saul, I saw gods ascending out of the earth.

14. And he said unto her, What hast thou? And she said, An old man cometh up, and he is covered with a mantle. And Saul perceiveth that it was Samuel, and he stouped with his face to the ground, and bowed himself.

15 ¶ And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou disguised me, to bring me up? And Saul answered, I am sore distressed; for the Philistines 16 Then said Samuel, Wherfore then dost thou ask of me, seeing the Lord is departed from thee, and is become thine enemy?

18 Because thou obeyedst not the voice of the [†] LORD, nor executedst his fierce wrath upon Amalek, therefore hath the LORD done this thing unto thee this day.

19 Moreover, the Lord will also deliver Israel with thee, into the hand of the Philistines: and to Assyria shalt thou and thy sonnes be with me: the Lord also shall deliver the host of Israel into the hand of the Philistines.

20 Then Saul fell flat before way all along on ^{† Heb made} the earth, and was sore afraid, because of the ^{hate and fell} words of Samuel; and there was no strength in ^{with the fil-} him: so he had eaten no bread all the day; nor all ^{ness of his} the night. ^{figure.}

21 ¶ And the woman came unto Saul, and saw that he was sore troubled, and said unto him, Behold, thine handmaids hath obeyed thy voice, and I have put my life in my hand, and have hearkened unto thy words, which thou spakest unto me.

22 Now therefore, I pray thee, hearken thou also unto the voice of thine handmaid, and let me set a morsell of bread before thee; and eat, that thou mayest have strength when thou goest on thy way.

23 But he refused, and said, I will not eat. But his servants, together with the woman, compelled him, and he hearkened unto their voice: so he arose from the earth, and sat upon the bed.

24 And the woman had a fat calf in the house, and she killed it, and took floure, and kneaded it, and did bake unleavened bread thereof.

25 And she brought it before Saul, and before his servants, and they did eat: then they rose up, and went away that night.

I David marching with the Philistines, 3 is dis-lowed by their princes, 6 Achish dismisseth him, with commendations of his fidelity.

Now the Philistines gathered together all their armies to Aphek: and the Israelites pitched by a fountain which is in Jesreel.

2 And the lords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds, and by thousands: but David and his men passed on in the re-ward with Achish.

3 Then said the princes of the Philistines, What do these Hebrews here? And Achish said unto the princes of the Philistines, Is not this David the servant of Saul the king of Israel, which hath been with me these days or these yeares, and I have found no fault in him since he fell unto me, unto this day?

4 And the princes of the Philistines were wroth with him, and the princes of the Philistines said unto him, Make this fellow return, that he may go again to his place which thou hast appointed him, and let him not go down with us to battell, lest in the battell he be an adversary to us:

6 ¶ Then Achish called David, and said unto him, Surely, as the Lord liveth, thou hast been upright, and thy going out and thy coming in with me in the host, is good in my sight: for I have not found evil in thee, since the day of thy coming unto me, unto this day: nevertheless, the Lord favour thee not.

7 ¶ Wherefore now return, & go in peace, that thou mayest displease not the lords of the Philistines.

8 ¶ And David said unto Achish, But what have I done? and what hast thou found in thy servant, so long as I have been with thee, unto this day, that I may not go fight against the enemies of my lord the king?

9 And Achish answered, and said to David, I know that thou art good in my sight, as an angel of God: notwithstanding, the princes of the Philistines have said, He shall not go up with us to the battell.

10 ¶ Wherefore now rise up early in the morning, with thy masters servants that are come with thee: and as soon as ye be up early in the morning, and have light, depart.

11 So David and his men rose up early to depart in the morning, to return into the land of the Philistines; and the Philistines went up to Hezrell.

CHAP. XXX.

1 The Amalekites spoil Ziklag. David asking counsel, is encouraged by God to pursue them. 11 By the means of a rescued Egyptian, he is brought to the enemies, and recovereth all the spoil. 22 David, law to divide the spoil equally between them that fight, and them that keep the fuffe. 26 He sendeth presents to his friends.

AND it came to passe, when David and his men were come to Ziklag on the third day, that the Amalekites had invaded the fourth and Ziklag, and smitten Ziklag, and burnt it with fire: 2 And had taken the women captives, that were therein; they slew not any, either great or small; but carried them away, and went on their way.

3 ¶ So David and his men came to the city, and behold, it was burnt with fire, and their wives, and their sonnes, and their daughters were taken captives.

4 Then David and the people that were with him, lift up their voice, and wept, until they had no more power to weep.

5 And Davids two wives were taken captives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite.

6 And David was greatly distressed: for the people spake of stoning him, because the soul of all the people was grieved, every man for his sonnes, and for his daughters: but David encouraged himself in the Lord his God.

7 And David said to Abiathar the priest Ahimelechs sonne, I pray thee, bring me hither the ephod: and Abiathar brought thither the ephod to David.

8 And David enquired at the Lord, saying, Shall I pursue after this troupe? shall I overtake them? And he answered him, Pursue: for thou shalt surely overtake them, and without fail recover all.

9 So David went, he and the six hundred men that were with him, came to the brook Besor, where those that were left behind, stayed.

10 But David pursued, he and six hundred men: for two hundred abode behind, which were so faint, that they could not go over the brook Besor.

11 ¶ And they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, and gave him bread, and he did eat, and they made him drink water.

12 And they gave him a piece of a cake of figs, and two clusters of raisins: and when he had eaten, his spirit came again to him: for he had eaten no bread, nor drunk any water, these seven and three nights.

13 And David said unto him, To whom belongeth thou? and whence art thou? And he said, I am a young man of Egypt, servant to an Amalekite, and my master left me, because three dayes agoe I fell sick.

14 ¶ He made an invasion upon the south of the Cherethites, and upon the coast which belongeth to Judah, and upon the south of Caleb, and we burnt Ziklag with fire.

15 And David said to him, Canst thou bring me down to this company? And he said, Swear unto me by God, that thou wilt neither kill me, nor deliver me into the hands of my master, and I will bring thee down to this company.

16 ¶ And when he had brought him down, behold, they were spread abroad upon all the earth, eating, and drinking, and dancing, because of all the great spoil that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Judah.

17 And David smote them from the twilight, even unto the evening of the next day: and there escaped not a man of them, save four hundred young men which rode upon camels and asses.

18 And David recovered all that the Amalekites had carried away: and David rescued his two wives.

19 And there was nothing lacking to them, neither small nor great, neither sonnes nor daughters, neither spoil, nor any thing that they had taken to them: David recovered all.

20 And David took all the flocks, and the herds, which they have before those other cattle, and said, This is Davids spoil.

21 ¶ And David came to the two hundred men, which were so faint that they could not follow David, whom they had made also to abide at the brook Besor: and they went forth to meet David, and to meet the people that were with him; and when David came near to the people, he saluted them.

22 Then answered all the weakened men, and men of Belial, of those that went with David, and said, Because they went not with us, we will not give them ought of the spoil that we have recovered, save to every man his wife & his children, that they may lead them away, and depart.

23 Then said David, Ye shall not do so, my brethren, with that which the Lord & we have given us, who have preferred us, and delivered the company that came against us, into our hands.

24 For who will hearken unto you in this matter? but as his part is that giveth down to the battell, so shall his part be that carrieth by the stuffe: they shall part alike.

25 And it was so from that day forward, that he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel, unto this day.

26 And when David came to Ziklag, he sent of the spoil unto the elders of Judah, even to his fellows, saying, Behold a gift sent for you of the spoil of the enemies of the Lord.

27 And to them which were in Beth-el, and to them which were in Ramoth, and to them which were in Gath.

28 And to them which were in Beer, and to them which were in Sephmoth, and to them which were in Ekron.

29 And to them which were in Rachel, and to them which were in the cities of the Jerahmeelites, and to them which were in the cities of the Kenites.

30 And to them which were in Gommah, and to them which were in Chor-ah, and to them which were in Ashath.

31 And to them which were in Bethon, and to all the places where David himself and his men were wont to haunt.

2 And the Philistines followed hard upon Saul, and upon his horses, and the Philistines slew Jonathan, and Abner, and Saul's armour-bearer.

3 And the battell went fore against Saul, and the archers hit him, and he was sore wounded of the archers.

4 Then Saul unto his armour-bearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through the loins, lest these uncircumcised come and abuse me though, and I abuse me. But his armour-bearer would not; so he was sore afraid: therefore Saul took a sword, and fell upon it.

5 And when his armour-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise upon his sword, and died with him.

6 So Saul died, and his three horses, and his armour-bearer, and all his men that came day together.

7 And when the men of Israel that were on the other side of the valley, & they that were on the other side Jordan, saw that the men of Israel fled, and that Saul and his horses were dead, they laid the cities, and fled; and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

8 And it came to pass on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his three horses fallen in mount Gilboa.

9 And they cut off his head, and stripped off his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to publish it in the house of their idols, and among the people.

10 And they put his armour in the house of Achish: and they fastened his body to the wall of Beth-han.

11 And when the inhabitants of Jabesh-gilead heard of that which the Philistines had done to Saul:

12 All the valiant men arose, and went all night, and took the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sonnes from the wall of Beth-han, and came to Jabesh, and burnt them there.

13 And they took their bones, and buried them under a tree at Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

OF SAMUEL,

Otherwise called, The second book of the KINGS.

CHAP. 1.

1 The Amalekite, who brought tidings of the overthrow, and accused himself of Saul's death, is slain. 2 David lamenteth Saul and Jonathan with a song.

Now it came to pass after the death of Saul, when David was returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, and David had about two dayes in Hiking:

2 It came even to pass on the fifth day, that behold, a man came out of the camp from Saul, with his clothes rent, and earth upon his head: and so it was, when he came to David, that he fell to the earth, and did homage.

3 And David said unto him, From whence comest thou? And he said unto him, Out of the camp of Israel am I escaped.

4 And David said unto him, How went the matter? I pray thee, tell me. And he answered, That the people are fled from the battell, and many of the people are fallen and dead; and Saul and Jonathan his sonne are dead also.

5 And David said unto the young man that told him, How knowest thou that Saul and Jonathan his sonne be dead?

6 And the young man that told him, said, As I happened by chance upon mount Gilboa, behold, Saul leaned upon his spear: and lo, the chariots and horsemen followed hard after him.

7 And when he looked behinde him, he saw me, and called unto me: and I answered, I bore him.

8 And he said unto me, What art thou? And I answered him, I am an Amalekite.

9 He said unto me again, Stand, I pray thee, upon me, and slay me: for I am weary, is come upon me, because my life is yet whole in me.

10 So I stood upon him, and slew him, because I was sure that he could not live after that he was fallen: and I took the crown that was upon his head, and the bracelet: that was on his arm, and have brought them hither unto my lord.

11 Then David took hold on his clothes, and rent them, and likewise all the men that were with him.

21. And also and Ahahel pursued after Abner: and the latter went down when they were come to the hill of Ammah, that lieth betwixt Gad by the way of the wilderness of Gilead.

22. And the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and became one troop, and stood on the top of an hill.

23. Then Abner called to Joab, & said, Shall the sword devour for ever? knowest thou not that it will be bitterness in the latter end? how long shall it be then ere thou bid the people return from following their brethren?

24. And Joab said, As God liveth, unless thou dost spoken, surely then I in the morning the people had I gone up every one from following his brother.

25. So Joab blew a trumpet, and all the people stood still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they any more.

26. And Abner and his men walked all that night through the plain, and passed over Jordan, and went through all Bithon, and they came to Mahanaim.

27. And Joab returned from following Abner: and when he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of Davids servants nineteen men, and Ahahel.

28. But the servants of David had smitten of Benjamin and of Abners men, so that three hundred and threescore men died.

29. And they took up Ahahel, and buried him in the sepulchre of his father, which was in Beth-lehem: and Joab and his men went all night, and they came to Hebron at break of day.

CHAP. III.

1. During the warre David still waxeth stronger, 2. Six sonnes were born to him in Hebron, 3. Abner displeased with Ish-bosheth, 4. Abner revolteth to David, 5. David requirith a condition to bring him his wife Michal, 6. Abner having communed with the Israelites, is seized by David, and dismissed, 7. Joab returning from battell, is displeased with the king, and killeth Abner, 8. David cuspeth Joab, 9. and mourneth for Abner.

NOW there was long warre between the house of Saul, and the house of David: but David waxed stronger and stronger, and the house of Saul waxed weaker and weaker.

2. And unto David were sonnes born in Hebron: and his first-borne was Amnon, of Abigail the Jezreelitess.

3. And his second, Chishai, of Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite: and the third, Abialom, the sonne of Maachab, the daughter of Tahmai king of Gether.

4. And the fourth, Amosiah the sonne of Haggith: and the fifth, Shephatiah the sonne of Hithai.

5. And the sixth, Ittream, by the hand of Davids wife: these were borne to David in Hebron.

6. And it came to pass, whilst there was warre between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner made himself strong for the house of Saul.

7. And Saul had a concubine, whose name was Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah: and Ish-bosheth said to Abner, What heretofore had thou done in unto my fathers concubine?

8. Then was Abner very wroth for the words of Ish-bosheth: and said, Am I a dogs head, which against Judah he hath ministered this day unto the house of Saul thy father, to his brethren, and to his friends, and have not delivered them into the hand of David, that thou chargest me to doe with a fault concerning this woman?

9. So do God to Abner, and more also, except as the Lord so hath sworn to David, even so I do to him:

10. To translate the king home from the house of Saul, and to let up the throne of David over Israel, and over Judah, from Dan even to Beersheba.

11. And he could not answer Abner a word again, because he feared him.

12. And Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf, saying, What is the land: saying also, Make thy league with me, and behold, my hand shall be with thee, to lying about all Israel unto thee.

13. And he said, Well, I will make a league with thee: but one thing I require of thee, that thou shalt not let my face, except thou first bring Michals daughter, when thou comest to see my face.

14. And David sent messengers to Ish-bosheth Sais sonne, saying, Deliver me my wife Michal, which I espoused to me: for an hundred epe-shinnes of the Philistines.

15. And Ish-bosheth sent, and took her from her husband, even from Phaltiel the sonne of Laish.

16. And her husband went with her, along weeping to bring her to Bahurim: then said Abner unto him, Go, return. And he returned.

17. And Abner had communication with the others of Israel, saying, Ye sought for David: in times past he to be king over you.

18. Now then do it, for the Lord so hath sworn to David, saying, By the hand of my servant David I will save my people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of all their enemies.

19. And Abner also spake in the eares of Benjamin: and Abner went also to speak in the eares of David in Hebron, all that seemed good to Israel, and that seemed good to the whole house of Benjamin.

20. So Abner came to David to Hebron, and twenty men with him: and David made Abner, and the men that were with him, a feast.

21. And Abner said unto David, I will arise, and go, and will gather all Israel unto my lord the king, that they may make a league with thee, and that thou mayest reigne over all that thine heart desireth. And David sent Abner away, and he went in peace.

22. And behold, the servants of David and Joab came from pursuing a troop, and brought in a great spoil with them: but Abner was not with David in Hebron, for he had sent him away, and he was gone in peace.

23. And when Joab & all the host that was with him, were come, they told Joab, saying, Abner the sonne of Neri came to the king, and he hath sent him away, and he is gone in peace.

24. Then Joab came to the king, and said, What hast thou done? behold, Abner came unto thee, who is it that thou hast sent him away, and he is quite gone?

25. Thou knowest Abner the sonne of Neri, that he came to thee, & to know the going out, and the coming in, so as to know all that thou doest.

26. And when Joab was come out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, which him he had again from the well of Seirah: but David knew it not.

17 And when Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside in the gate to speak with him quietly: and smote him there under the fifth rib, that he died, for the blood of * Abner his brother.

18 ¶ And afterward when David heard it, he said, I and my kingdom are guiltless before the Lord, as we are for ever, from the blood of Abner the sonne of Neri:

19 Let it rest on the head of Joab, and on all his fathers house, and let there not fail from the house of Joab that hath an issue, or that is a leper, or that leaneth on a staff, or that falleth on the sword, or that lacketh bread.

20 So Joab and Abigail his waecher slew Abner, because he had slain their brother * Abner at Githon in the battell.

21 ¶ And David said to Joab, and to all the people that were with him, Behold your clothes, & gird you with sackcloth, & mourn before Abner. And king David himself followed the biers.

22 And they buried Abner in Hebron: and the king lift up his voice, and wept at the grave of Abner; and all the people wept.

23 And the king lamented over Abner, and said, Didst thou as a fool die?

24 Thy hands were not bound, nor thy feet put into fetters: as a man fallen before wicked men, he killed thee. And all the people wept again over him.

25 And when all the people came to cause David to eat meat while it was yet day, David swore, saying, So do God to me, and more also, if I eat bread or ought else, till the sunne be down.

26 And all the people took notice of it, and it pleased them: as whensoever the king did, pleased all the people.

27 For all the people, and all Israel understood that day, that it was not of the king to slay Abner the sonne of Neri.

28 And the king said unto his servants, Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?

29 And I am this day weak, though appointed king, and they have the sonnes of Jerubbae be too hard for me: so as I shall returne the doer of evil according to his wickedness.

CHAP. III.

1 The * Israelites being troubled at the death of Abner, 2 Baanah and Rechab slay Ish-bosheth, and bring his head to Hebron. 3 David causeth them to be slain, and Ish-bosheths head to be buried.

AND when Sauls some heard that Abner was dead in Hebron, his hands were feeble, and all the Israelites were troubled.

2 And Sauls some had two men that were captains of bands: the name of the one was Baanah, and the name of the other Rechab, the sonnes of Rimmon a Berrothite, of the children of Benjamin: for Berroth also was reckoned to Benjamin;

3 And the Berrothites fled to Githaim, and were sojourners there until this day.

4 And Jonathan, Sauls sonne, had a house that was lame of his feet, and was five yeeres old when the tidings came of Saul & Jonathan out of Ierusal, and his nurse took him up; and when it came to pass as he made haste to flee, that he fell, and became lame; and his name was Spephoboth.

5 And the sonnes of Rimmon the Berrothites, Rechab and Baanah, went, and came about the heat of the day to the house of Ish-bosheth, who lay on a bed at noon.

6 And they came thither into the midst of the house, as though they would have fetched water, and they smote him under the fifth rib, and Rechab and Baanah his brother escaped.

7 For when they came into the house, he lay on his bed in his bed-chamber, and they smote him and slew him, and beheaded him, and took his head, and gat them away through the plain all night.

8 And they brought the head of Ish-bosheth unto David in Hebron, and said to the king, Behold the head of Ish-bosheth the sonne of Saul, thine enemy, which sought thy life: and the Lord as we have avenged thy lord the king this day of Saul, and of his seed.

9 ¶ And David answered Rechab and Baanah his waecher, the sonnes of Rimmon the Berrothites, and said unto them, As the Lord liveth, who hath redeemed my soul out of all adversity,

10 When * Saul told me, saying, Behold, Saul is dead, (I thinking to have brought good tidings) I took hold of him, and slew him in Hachlag, who thought that I would have given him a reward for his tidings:

11 How much more, when wicked men have slain a righteous person, in his own house, upon his bed? shall I not therefore now requite his blood of your hands, and take you away from the earth?

12 And David commanded his young men, and they slew them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged them up over the pool in Hebron: where they took the head of Ish-bosheth, and buried it in the sepulchre of Abner, in Hebron.

CHAP. V.

1 The tribes come to Hebron to anoint David over Israel. 4 Davids age. 6 He taking Zim from the Jebusites, dwelleth in it. 11 Hiram sendeth David. 13 Eleven princes are borne to him in Jerusalem. 17 David directed by God, smiteth the Philistines at Baal-perazim, 22 and again at the mulberry-trees.

THEN came all the tribes of Israel to David unto Hebron, and spake, saying, Behold, we are thy bone and thy flesh.

2 Also in time past when Saul was king over us, thou wast he that leddest out and broughtest in Israel: and the Lord as we said to thee, Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be a captain over Israel.

3 So all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron, and king David made a league with them in Hebron before the Lord: and they anointed David king over Israel.

4 ¶ David was thirty yeeres old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty yeeres.

5 In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven yeeres, and six moneths: and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three yeeres over all Israel and Judah.

6 ¶ And the king and his men went to Jerusalem, unto the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land: which spake unto David, saying, Except thou take away the blinde and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither: thinking, David cannot come in hither.

7 Nevertheless, David took the strong hold of Zion: the same is the city of David.

8 And David said on that day, Whosoever

4 And David sought him a thousand chariots, and seven thousand horsemen, and made him chariots and horses: and David brought all the chariot-horses, but retained of them but an hundred chariots.

5 Then when the Syrians of Damascus came to honour Hadadezer king of Zobah, David slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men.

6 Then David put garrison in Syria of Damascus: and the Syrians became servants to David, and brought gifts: and the Lord was preferred David whithersoever he went.

7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 And from Bethai, and from Beeroth, cities of Hadadezer, king David took exceeding much brass.

9 ¶ When Toi king of Hamath heard that David had smitten all the host of Hadadezer,

10 Then Toi sent Joabam his son unto king David, to salute him, and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadadezer, and smitten him: for Hadadezer had wars with Toi, and Joabam brought with him vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and vessels of brass;

11 Which also king David did dedicate unto the Lord, with the silver and gold that he had dedicated of all nations which he subdued:

12 Of Syria, and of Moab, and of the children of Ammon, and of the Philistines, and of Amalek, and of the spoil of Hadadezer, son of Zobah, king of Zobah.

13 And David gave him a name, when he returned from smiting of the Syrians in the valley of salt, being eighteen thousand men.

14 ¶ And he put garrison in Chozai, throughout all Chozai, but he garrisoned all they of Chozai became David's servants: and the Lord prospered David whithersoever he went.

15 And David reigned over all Israel, and David executed judgement and justice unto all his people.

16 And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host, and Mephibosheth the son of Achish was recorder.

17 And Joab the son of Achish, and Mephibosheth the son of Achish, were the pillars, and Gehai was the scribe.

18 ¶ And Jonathan the son of Nethaniah was over the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and David's servants were faithful men.

CHAP. IX.

1 David by Ziba furnished for Mephibosheth. 2 For Jonathan's sake he entertained him at his table, and restored him all that was Saul's. 3 He made Ziba his servant.

¶ And David said, Is there yet any that is left of the house of Saul, that I may show him kindness for Jonathan's sake?

2 And there was of the house of Saul, a servant whose name was Ziba, and when they had called him unto David, the king said unto him, Art thou Ziba? And he said, Thy servant is he.

3 And the king said, Is there yet any of the house of Saul, that I may show the kindness of God unto him? And Ziba said unto the king, Jonathan hath yet a son, which is lame on his feet.

¶ And the king said unto him, Where is he? And Ziba said unto the king, Behold, he is in the house of Barzai, the Gileadite, in Lodbarai.

4 ¶ Then king David sent, and fetched him out of the house of Barzai the Gileadite, and he came to David.

5 And when Mephibosheth the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, was come unto David, he fell on his face, and did reverence: and David said, Mephibosheth? And he answered, Behold thy servant.

6 ¶ And David said unto him, Fear not; for I will surely show thee kindness, for Jonathan thy father's sake, and will restore thee all the land of Saul thy father, and thou shalt eat bread at my table continually.

7 And he bowed himself, and said, What is thy servant, that thou shouldest look upon such a dead dog as I am?

8 ¶ Then the king called to Ziba Saul's servant, and said unto him, I have given unto thee servants, and I have given unto thee all that pertained to Saul, and to all his house.

9 ¶ Then therefore and thy son, and the servants shall all the land for him, and thou shalt dwell in the fruits, that the masters' house may have food to eat: but Mephibosheth thy master's son shall eat bread always at my table. And Ziba had fifteen horses, and twenty servants.

10 ¶ Then said Ziba unto the king, According to all that my lord the king hath commanded his servant, so shall thy servant do. And Mephibosheth said the king, he shall eat at my table, as one of the king's sons.

11 And Mephibosheth had a young son, whose name was Michan, and all that dwelt in the house of Ziba, were servants unto Mephibosheth.

12 So Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem: for he did eat continually at the king's table, and was lame on both his feet.

1 David's messengers sent to comfort Hannus the son of Nahash, are villainously entreated. 6. The Ammonites strengthened by the Syrians, are overcome by Joab and Abisai. 15. Shobach making a new supply of the Syrians at Helam, is slain by David.

¶ And it came to pass after that, that the king of the children of Ammon died, and Hannus his son reigned in his stead.

2 ¶ Then said David, I will shew kindness unto Hannus the son of Nahash, as his father shewed kindness unto me. And David sent to comfort him by the hand of his servants, for his father: and David's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon.

3 And the princes of the children of Ammon said unto Hannus their lord, Thinkest thou that David hath honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? hath not David rather sent his servants unto thee, to search the city, and to spy it out, and to overthrow it?

4 ¶ Therefore Hannus took David's servants, and hewed off the one half of their beards, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their buttocks, and sent them away.

5 ¶ And when they told it unto David, he sent to meet them: because the men were greatly ashamed: and the king said, Carry at ye Shobach your beards to Helam, and then return.

6 ¶ And when the children of Ammon saw that they thus despised David, the children of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of Berzai, and the Syrians of Zobah, twenty thousand footmen, and of king Shobach a thousand men, and all the children of Ammon were with them.

7 ¶ And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men.

1. Nathan's parable of the ewe-lambe, causeth David to be his own iudge. 7 David repented by Nathan, confesseth his sinne, and is pardoned. 15. David mourneth and prayeth for the childe, while it lived. 24. Solomon is born, and named Jedidiah. 26 David taketh Rabbah, and tortureth the people thereof.

AND the Lord sent Nathan unto David: and he came unto him, and said unto him, Whies were thow men in one citie; the one rich, and the other poore.

2 The rich man had exceeding many flocks and herds:

3 But the poore man had nothing save one little ewe-lambe, which he had bought and nourished up: and it grew up together with him, and with his children: it did eat of his own meat, and drank of his own cup, and lay in his bosome, and was unto him as a daughter.

4 And there came a traveller unto the rich man, and he began to take of his own flock, and of his own herd, to make for the wayfaring man that was come unto him: but took the poore mans lambe, and dyed it for the man that was come to him.

5 And Davids anger was greatly kindled against the man, and he said to Nathan, As the Lord liveth, the man that hath done this thing, I shall surely die.

7 And Nathan said to David, Thou art the man: thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I anointed thee king over Israel, and I delivered thee out of the hand of Saul:

8 And I gave thee thy masters house, and thy masters wives into thy bosome, & gave thee the house of Israel, and of Judah: and it that had been too little, I would moreover have given unto thee such and such things.

9 Nevertheless hast thou despised the commandment of the Lord, to do evil in his sight: thou hast killed maid the wife of thy neighbour, and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slain him with the sword, of the children of Ammon.

20 Then David arose from the earth, and washed, and anointed himself, and changed his apparel, and came into the house of the Lord, and worshipped: then he came to his own house, and when he required, they set bread before him, and he did eat.

21 Then said his servants unto him, What thing is this that thou hast done? thou didst fast and weep for the childe while it was alive, but when the childe was dead, thou didst rise and eat bread.

22 And he said, While the childe was yet alive, I fasted and wept: for I said, Who can tell whether God will be gracious to me, that the childe may live?

23 But now he is dead, wherefore should I fast? can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he shall not return to me.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Amnon loving Tamar, by Jonadab counsel feigning himself sick, ravisheth her. 15 He hateth her, and shamefully turneth her away. 19 Absalom entereth her, and concealeth his purpose. 23 At a sheep-shearing, among all the kings' sinners, he killeth Amnon. 30 David grieving at the news, is comforted by Jonadab. 37 Absalom fleeth to Talmai at Geshur.

And it came to passe after this, that Absalom the sonne of David had a fair sister, whose name was Tamar, and Amnon the sonne of David loved her.

2 And Amnon was so bereaved, that he fell sick for his sister Tamar; for she was a virgin: and Amnon thought it hard for him to do any thing to her.

3 But Amnon had a friend, whose name was Jonadab the sonne of Shimon, Davids brother: and Jonadab was a very subtil man.

4 And he said unto him, Why art thou, being the kings sonne, so lean? from day to day I wait thou not tell me? And Amnon said unto him, I love Tamar, my brother Absaloms sister.

5 And Jonadab said unto him, Lay thee down on thy bed, and make thyself sick: and when thy sister cometh to thee, say, I pray thee, let my sister Tamar come, and give me meat, and dress the meat in my sight, that I may see it, and eat it at her hand.

6 So Amnon lay down, and made himself sick: and when the king was come to see him, Amnon said unto the king, I pray thee, let Tamar my sister come, and make me a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat at her hand.

7 Then David sent home to Tamar, saying, So now to thy brother Ammons house, and dress him meat.

8 So Tamar went to her brother Ammons house, (and he was laid down) and she took flour, and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and did bake the cakes.

9 And she took a pan, and poured them out before him, but he refused to eat: and Amnon said, Have out all men from me: and they went out every man from him.

10 And Amnon said unto Tamar, Bring the meat into the chamber, that I may eat of thine hand. And Tamar took the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother.

11 And when she had brought them unto him to eat, he took hold of her, & said unto her, Come lie with me, my sister.

12 And she answered him, Nay, my brother, do not force me: for *† no such thing ought to be done in Israel; do not thou thus folly.

13 And I, whether shall I cause my shame to go? and as for thee, thou shalt be as one of the fools in Israel now therefore, I pray thee, speak unto the king: for he will not withhold me from thee.

14 Nowbeit, he should not hearken unto her words: but being stronger then she, forced her, and lay with her.

15 ¶ Then Amnon hated her exceedingly, so that he hated her more then he loved her, and she went out from his house, and dwelt in another house.

16 And he said unto him, There is no countenance in sending me away, is greater then the other that thou dost unto me: but he would not hearken unto her.

17 ¶ Then he called his servants that ministered unto him, and said, Put now this woman out from me, and bolt the door after her.

18 And she had a garment of divers colours upon her: for with divers robes were the kings daughters that were virgins, apparelled. Then his servants brought her out, and bolted the door after her.

19 ¶ And Tamar put ashes on her head, and rent her garment of divers colours that was on her, and laid her hand on her head, and went weeping.

20 And Absalom her brother said unto her, Hath Amnon the brother been with thee? but hold now thy peace, my sister: he is the thing, regard not this thing. So Tamar remained desolate in her brother Absaloms house.

21 ¶ But when king David heard of all these things, he was very wroth.

22 And Absalom spake unto his brother Amnon neither good nor bad: for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Tamar.

23 ¶ And it came to passe after two full years, that Absalom had sheepshearers in Baal-hazor, which is before Ephraim: and Absalom invited all the kings sinners.

24 And Absalom came to the king, and said, Behold now, thy servant hath sheepshearers, let the king, I beseech thee, and his servants, go with the servants.

25 And the king said to Absalom, Nay, my sonne, let us not all now go, lest we be chargeable unto thee. And he pressed him: howbeit he would not go, but blessed him.

26 ¶ Then said Absalom, Alas, I pray thee, let my brother Amnon go with us. And the king said unto him, Why should he go with thee?

27 But Absalom pressed him, that he let Amnon and all the kings sinners go with him.

28 ¶ Now Absalom had commanded his servants, saying, Watch ye now when Ammons heart is merry with wine, and when I say unto you, Smite Amnon, then kill him, for so I have commanded you: be courageous, and be valiant.

29 And the servants of Absalom did unto Amnon, as Absalom had commanded: then all the kings sinners arose, and every man gat him up upon his mule, and fled.

30 ¶ And it came to passe while they were in the way, that tidings came to David, saying, Absalom hath slain all the kings sinners, and that is not one of them left.

31 ¶ Then the king arose, and tore his garments, and lay on the earth: and all his servants stood by with their clothes rent.

32 And Jonadab the sonne of Shimon Davids brother, answered and said, Let not my lord suppose that they have slain all the young men the kings sinners: for Amnon only is dead; for he is the appointment of Absalom this hath been determined, from the day that he forced his sister Tamar.

33 ¶ Now therefore let not my lord the king take the thing to his heart, to think that all the kings sinners are dead: for Amnon only is dead.

34 ¶ Thus Absalom fled. And the young man that kept the watch, lift up his eyes, and looked, and behold, there came much people by the king of the watch he desired him.

35 And Jonadab said unto the king, Behold, doing so the kings sinners come by the servant said, so is the word of thy servant.

36 And it came to passe as soon as he had made servants an end of speaking, that behold, the kings sinners came, and lift up their voice and sang, and the great voice of the king also and all his servants sang, saying, Hallelujah.

AND David numbered the people that were with him, and set captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds over them.

2 And David sent forth a third part of the people under the hand of Joab, & a third part under the hand of Abimeai the son of Jeziel Joab's brother, and a third part under the hand of Ittai the Gittite: and the king laid unto the people, I will surely go forth with you myself also.

3 But the people answered, When shall not go forth to buy if we see glory, they will not care for us; neither if half of us die, will they care for us: but now thou art a word to thousands of us: therefore now it is better that thou succeed us of the city.

4 And the king said unto them, Will not I requite you best, I will do. And the king stood by the gates five, and all the people came out by him, and he returned.

3 And the king commanded Zophar, and Ahishai, and Iftai, saying, Deal gently to my sake with the young man, even with Abolam: And all the people heard when the king gave all the captains charge concerning Abolam.

6 And the people went out into the field, against Israel: and the battell was in the wood of Ephraim.

7 And here the people of Israel were slain before the servants of David, & there was there a great slaughter that day of twenty thousand men.

8 For the battell was there scattered ouer the face of all the countrey: and the wood the which most people that day then the Lord becometh.

9 And Absalom met the servants of David; and Absalom rode upon a mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of a great oak, and his head caught hold of the oak, and he was taken up between the heaven and the earth, and the mule that was under him went away.

10 And a certain man saw it, and told Pontius Pilate, and Sphotes, I saw Abimelech hanged in a oak.

all, if thou be not captain of the host before me continually in the room of Joab.

14 And he bowed the heart of all the men of Judah, even as the heart of one man, so that they sent this word unto the king, Return thou and all thy servants.

15 So the king returned, and came to Jordan: and Judah came to Gilegal, to go to meet the king, to conduct the king over Jordan.

16 ¶ And Shimei the sonne of Gera, a Benjaminite, which was of Bethan-baileh and came down with the men of Judah, to meet king David.

17 And there were a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and Abiath the servant of the house of Saul, and his sixteen sonnes and his twenty servants with him, and they went over Jordan before the king.

18 And there went over a ferry-boat to carry over the king's household, and to do what he thought good: and Shimei the sonne of Gera fell down before the king as he was come over Jordan.

19 And said unto the king, Let not my lord impute iniquity unto me, neither do thou remember that which thy servant did perversely the day that my lord the king went out of Jerusalem, that the king should take it to his heart.

20 For thy servant doth know that I have sinned: therefore behold, I am come the first this day of all the house of Israel, to go down to meet my lord the king.

21 Thus said that the sonne of Jerahmeel and women and said, Shall not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed the Lord's anointed?

22 And David said, What have I to do with you? sonnes of Jerahmeel, that ye should this day be adversaries unto me: shall there any man be put to death this day in Israel? for ye do not know, that I am this day king over Israel.

23 Therefore the king said unto Shimei, Thou shalt not die: and the king swore unto him.

24 ¶ And Mephibosheth the sonne of Saul came down to meet the king, and had neither dusted his feet, nor trimmed his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed, until the day he came again in peace.

25 And it came to passe when he was come to Jerusalem to meet the king, that the king said unto him, Wherefore weenest thou thou hast met me, Mephibosheth?

26 And he answered, My lord O king my servant deceiveth me: for thy servant said, I will saddle me an ass, that I may ride thereon, and go to the king, because thy servant is lame.

27 And he hath slandered thy servant unto my lord the king, but my lord the king is as an angel of God: do therefore what is good in thine eyes.

28 For all of my fathers house were but dead men before my lord the king: yet didst thou set thy servant among them that did eat at thine own table: what right therefore have I yet to cry any more unto the king?

29 And the king said unto him, Wilt thou speakest thou any more of this matters? I have said, Thou and Abiath divide the land.

30 And Mephibosheth said unto the king, Yes, for him take all, forasmuch as my lord the king is come again in peace unto his own house.

31 ¶ And Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Roghaim, and went over Jordan with the king, to conduct him over Jordan.

32 ¶ Now Barzillai was a very aged man, even fourscore yeeres old, and he had possessed the king of sustenance while he lay at Hebron: for he was a very great man.

33 And the king said unto Barzillai, Come thou over with me, and I will feed thee with me in Jerusalem.

34 And Barzillai said unto the king, I have long time I to live, that I should grieve with the king unto Jerusalem?

35 ¶ I am this day fourscore yeeres old: and can I differ between good and evil? can the servant taste what I eat or what I drink? can I hear any more the voice of singing-men and dancing-women? therefore thou shouldst thy servant be yet a burden unto my lord the king.

36 The servant will go a little way over Jordan with the king: and why should the king recompense it me with such a reward?

37 Let thy servant, I pray thee, turn back again, that I may die in mine own city, and be buried by the grave of my father, and of my mother: but behold thy servant Chibham, let him go over with my lord the king, and do to him what shall seem good unto thee.

38 And the king answered, Chibham shall go over with me, and I will do to him that which shall seem good unto thee: and whatsoever thou shalt require of me, that will I do for thee.

39 And all the people went over Jordan: and when the king was come over, the king kissed Barzillai, and blessed him: and he returned unto his own place.

40 Then the king went on to Gilegal, and Chibham went on with him: and all the people of Judah conducted the king, and also half the people of Israel.

41 ¶ And behold, all the men of Israel came to the king, and said unto the king, We have our brethren the men of Judah slain these many, and have brought the king and his household, and all David's men with him over Jordan.

42 And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, Because the king is nigher of kinne to us therefore then he is angry for this matter: have we eaten at all of the king's cost? or hath he given us any gift?

43 And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, and said, We have ten parts in the king, and we have also more right in David then ye: why then do ye? help us, that our advice should not be first had in bringing back our king: and the women of the men of Judah worse than the women of the men of Israel.

1 By occasion of the quarrell; Sheba maketh a party in Israel. 2 David's concubines are put up in perpetual prison. 3 Amasai made captain over Judah, is slain by Joab. 4 Joab pursueth Sheba unto Abel. 5 A wise woman saveth the city by Sheba's head. 6 David's officers.

And there happened to be there a man of Beriah, whose name was Sheba the sonne of Bichai, a Benjaminite, and he blew a trumpet, and said, We have no part in David, neither have we inheritance in the sonne of Jesse: every man to his tents, O Israel.

2 So every man of Israel hit up from after David, and followed Sheba the sonne of Bichai: but the men of Judah clave unto their kings, from Jordan thence to Jerusalem.

3 ¶ And David came to his house at Jerusalem, and the king took ten women his concubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in his hand, and he dwelt in them: but in whom them it they were? but up unto the day of their death, living in widowhood.

* Chap. 8. 18.

7 And there went out after him Joab's men, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men: and they went out of Jerusalem to pursue after Sheba the sonne of Bechai.

8 When they were at the great stone which is in Githon, Amasa went before them: and Joab's garment that he had put on, was girded unto him, and upon it a sword with a bloody fasten upon his loins in the sheath thereof, and as he went forth he fell out.

9 And Joab said to Amasa, Art thou in health, my brother? And Joab took Amasa by the beard with the right hand to kiss him.

10 But Amasa took no heed to the word that was in Joab's hand: so he smote him there with in the fifth rib, and drew out his bowels to the ground, and he broke him not again, and he died: so Joab and Abigail his brother pursued after Sheba the sonne of Bechai.

† Heb. doubled not his stroke.

11 And one of Joab's men stood by him, and said, Wherefore hast thou done this to Joab, let him go after Joab.

12 And Amasa wallowed in blood in the midst of the high-way: and when the man saw that all the people stood still, he removed Amasa out of the high-way into the field, and cast a cloth upon him, when he saw that every one that came by him, stood still.

13 When he was removed out of the high-way, all the people went on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the sonne of Bechai.

14 ¶ And he went through all the tribes of Israel unto Abel, and to Beth-machab, and at the Berites: and they were gathered together, and went also after him.

15 And they came and besieged him in Abel of Beth-machab, and they cast up a bank against the city, and it stood in the trench: and all the people that were with Joab battered the wall, to throw it down.

† Or, it stood against the outermost wall.
† Heb. matted to throw down.

17 And when he was come nether unto her, the woman said, Art thou Joab? he answered, I am he. Then she said unto him, Hear the words of thine handmaid. And he answered, I do hear.

18 ¶ Then she spake, saying, They were wont to speak in old times, saying, They shall surely ask counsel at Abigail: for they entered the matter.

† Or, they plainly spake in the beginning, saying, Surely they will ask of Abigail, and so make an end.

19 I am one of them that are peaceable and faithful in Israel: thou seekest to destroy a city and a mother in Israel: why wilt thou swallow up the inheritance of the Lord?

20 And Joab answered and said, Flee be it, flee be it from me, that I should swallow up my dearest.

21 The matter is not for but a man of mount Ephraim (Sheba the sonne of Bechai) by name: but he hath lifted up his hand against the king, even against David: deliver him unto me, and I will depart from thee. And the woman said unto Joab, Behold, his head shall be upon thee over the wall.

1 The three years famine for the Gibeonites, ceases by hanging seven of Sauls fornes. David buries the kindness unto the dead, 12 David buries the bones of Saul and Jonathan in his fathers sepulchre. 13 Four barrels against the Philistines, wherein four valiant of David slay four giants.

¶ When there was a famine in the dayes of David, three years: yea after year, and David inquired of the Lord, and the Lord answered, It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because he slew the Gibeonites.

† Heb. sought the face, &c.

2 And the king called the Gibeonites, and said unto them, (now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but of the remnant of the Amorites, and the children of Israel had sworn unto them: yea Saul sought to slay them, in his zeal to the children of Israel and Judah.)

3 Wherefore David said unto the Gibeonites, What shall I do for you? and wherefore shall I make the atonement, that ye may bless the inheritance of the Lord?

† Or, it is us house, neither for us: but thou shalt give us seven men of Saul, whom thou shalt hang up for us.

5 And they answered the king, The man that thou shalt deliver against us, that we should be destroyed from remaining in any of the coasts of Israel.

6 Let seven men of his fornes be delivered unto us, and we will hang them up upon the rock in the high-way of Saul, whom thou shalt choose. And the king said, I will give them.

9 And he delivered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them in the hill before the Lord: and they fell all seven together, and were put to death in the dayes of harvest, in the first day, in the beginning of barley harvest.

10 ¶ And Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it for her upon the rock, from the beginning of harvest, until warre was upon them out of heaven, and suffered neither the birds of the aire to rest on them by day, nor the beasts of the field by night.

* Chap. 23.

11 And it was told David that Rizpah the daughter of Aiah the concubine of Saul had done.

† Heb. bare Adriel.

12 And David went and took the bones of Saul, and the bones of Jonathan his sonne, from the men of Jabesh-gilead, which had stolen them from the street of Beth-shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, when the Philistines had slain Saul in Gilboa.

13 And he brought up from thence the bones of Saul, and the bones of Jonathan his sonne; and they gathered the bones of them that were hanged.

14 And the bones of Saul and Jonathan his sonne, buried they in the country of Benjamin in Jabesh, in the sepulchre of his father; and they performed all that the king commanded: and after that, God was intreated for the land.

15 Moreover, the Philistines had yet ware again with Israel, and David went down, and his servants with him, and fought against the Philistines; and David waxed faint.

16 And Ishb-benob, which was of the sonnes of the giant, (the weight of whose spear weighed three hundred shekels of brass in weight) he being girded with a new sword, thought to have slain David.

17 But Abishai the sonne of Neriab succoured him, and smote the Philistine, and killed him. When the men of David swore unto him, saying, Thou shalt go no more out with us to battell, that thou quench not the light of Israel.

18 And it came to passe after this, that there was again a battell with the Philistines at Gath: then Goliath the Gathathite slew David, which was of the sonnes of the giant.

19 And there was again a battell in Gath with the Philistines, where Goliath the sonne of Jareshon the Gathathite, slew the brother of Goliath the Gathathite, the slaine of whose spear was like a weavers beam.

20 And there was yet a battell in Gath, where was a man of great stature, that had on every hand six fingers, and on every foot hee toes, four and twenty in number; and he also was slain to the giant.

21 And when he desired Israel, Jonathan the son of David the brother of David slew him. 22 Yet four were slain to the giant in Gath, and fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

CHAP. XXII.

A psalm of thanksgiving for Gods powerfull deliverance, and manifold blessings.

AND David spake unto the Lord in the words of this song, in the day that the Lord had delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul.

2 And he said, The Lord is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer,

3 The God of my rock; in him will I trust: he is my strength, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower, and my refuge, my strong hold, and my defence.

4 I will call on the Lord, who is worthy to be praised: shall I be saved from mine enemies.

5 When the waves of death compassed me, the floods of ungodly men made me afraid: 6 The sorrows of hell compassed me about, the snares of death prevented me.

7 In my distress I called upon the Lord, and cried to my God, and he did heare my voice out of his temple, and my cry did enter into his ears.

8 When the earth shook and trembled, the foundations of heavy mountains were moved, and high hills were laid low.

9 There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it.

10 He bowed the heavens also, and came down, and darkness was under his feet.

11 And he rode upon a cherub, and flew, and he was seen upon the wings of the winds.

12 And he made darkness pavilions round about him, dark waters, and thick clouds of the skies.

13 Though the brightness before him were coals of fire kindled.

14 The Lord thundered from heaven, and the most high uttered his voice.

15 And he sent out arrows, and scattered them: lightning, and discomfited them.

16 And the channels of the sea appeared, the foundations of the world were discovered, at the rebuking of the Lord, at the blast of the wrath of his nostrils.

17 He sent from above, he took me: he drew me out of many waters.

18 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them that hated me: for they were too strong for me.

19 They persecuted me in the day of my calamity: but the Lord is my strength.

20 He brought me forth also into a large place: he delivered me, because he desired in me.

21 The Lord is recompensed me according to my righteousness: according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.

22 For I have kept the wayes of the Lord, and have not wickedly departed from my God:

23 For all his judgements were before me: as for his statutes, I did not depart from them.

24 I was also upright before him, and have kept my self from mine iniquity.

25 Therefore the Lord is now recompensed me according to my righteousness: according to my cleanness he is in his eye-sight.

26 With the mercifull thou wilt shew thyself mercifull, and with the upright man thou wilt shew thyself upright.

27 With the pure thou wilt shew thyself pure: and with the froward thou wilt shew thyself unlabouring.

28 And the afflicted people thou wilt save: but thine eyes are upon the hungry, that thou mightest bring them down.

29 For thou art my strength, O Lord: and the Lord is my will lighten my darkness.

30 For by thee I have I run through a troop: by my God have I leaped over a wall.

31 As for God, his way is perfect, the work of the Lord is to be trusted: he is a buckler to all them that trust in him.

32 For he is God, save the Lord is my strength, and he is my rock, save me God.

33 God is my strength and power: and he is my maker my way perfect.

34 He is my strength my feet like hinds feet: and he hath set me upon my high places.

35 He reacheth my hands to the bow: so that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.

36 Thou hast also given me the spirit of thy salvation: thy gentleness hath made me great.

37 Thou hast enlarged my steps under me: so that my feet did not slip.

38 I have pursued mine enemies, and destroyed them: and turned not again until I had consumed them.

39 And I have consumed them, and wounded them: that they could not arise: yea, they are fallen under me.

40 And I have consumed them, and wounded them: that they could not arise: yea, they are fallen under me.

41 And I have consumed them, and wounded them: that they could not arise: yea, they are fallen under me.

42 And I have consumed them, and wounded them: that they could not arise: yea, they are fallen under me.

43 And I have consumed them, and wounded them: that they could not arise: yea, they are fallen under me.

44 And I have consumed them, and wounded them: that they could not arise: yea, they are fallen under me.

45 And I have consumed them, and wounded them: that they could not arise: yea, they are fallen under me.

46 And I have consumed them, and wounded them: that they could not arise: yea, they are fallen under me.

47 And I have consumed them, and wounded them: that they could not arise: yea, they are fallen under me.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 David tempted by Satan, forceth Joab to number the people. 5 The captains in nine months, and twenty days, bring the muster of thirteen hundred thousand fighting men. 10 David having three plagues pronounced by God, repenteth, and observeth three days' penitence. 15 After the death of threecore and ten thousand, David by repentance preventeth the destruction of Jerusalem. 18 David by Gad's direction, purchaseth Araunah's threshing-floor; where having sacrificed, the plague is staid.

19 Again the anger of the Lord was kindled against Israel, and he moved David against them, to say, Go number Israel and Araunah.

20 For the king said to Joab the captain of the host, which was with him, I will now know all the tribes of Israel, from Dan thence to Beer-sheba, and number ye the people, that I may know the number of the people.

21 And Joab said unto the king, Pardon the Lord, for the Lord will be with thee, and thou shalt prosper. For the Lord will be with thee, and thou shalt prosper. For the Lord will be with thee, and thou shalt prosper.

22 And Joab said unto the king, Pardon the Lord, for the Lord will be with thee, and thou shalt prosper. For the Lord will be with thee, and thou shalt prosper. For the Lord will be with thee, and thou shalt prosper.

23 And they passed over Jordan, and pitched in the plain of the Jordan, and they pitched in the plain of the Jordan, and they pitched in the plain of the Jordan.

24 And when they came to Gilead, and to the land of Gilead, and they came to Gilead, and they came to Gilead, and they came to Gilead.

25 And when they had come through all the land, they came to Jerusalem, and they came to Jerusalem, and they came to Jerusalem.

26 And when they had come through all the land, they came to Jerusalem, and they came to Jerusalem, and they came to Jerusalem.

27 And when they had come through all the land, they came to Jerusalem, and they came to Jerusalem, and they came to Jerusalem.

28 And when they had come through all the land, they came to Jerusalem, and they came to Jerusalem, and they came to Jerusalem.

29 And when they had come through all the land, they came to Jerusalem, and they came to Jerusalem, and they came to Jerusalem.

take away the iniquity of the servants; for I have sinned.

11 For when David was up in the morning, the word of the Lord came unto the prophet Gad, David's seer, saying, 12 Go and say unto David, Thus saith the Lord, I order thee three things; choose thee out of them what thou mayest do.

13 So God came to David, and told him and said unto him, Shall seven years of famine come unto thee in the land? or shall thou sit three months before thine enemies, while they pursue thee? or that there be three years' pestilence in the land? now advise, and let thine answer be.

14 And David said unto God, I am in a great strait: let us fall now into the hand of the Lord; for his mercies are great: and let not mine hand be stretched out against him.

15 So the Lord sent a pestilence upon Israel, from the morning even to the time appointed: and there died of the people from Dan thence to Beer-sheba seventy thousand men.

16 And when the angel stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy it, the Lord repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that he stretched out his hand against the people, It is enough: stay thine hand. And the angel of the Lord was then standing in the threshing place of Araunah the Jebusite.

17 And David looked into the ark of the Lord, and saw the ark of the Lord, and saw the ark of the Lord, and saw the ark of the Lord.

18 And David said unto the Lord, I have sinned: but thou art righteous, and thou art true. And thou art true, and thou art true.

19 And David said unto the Lord, I have sinned: but thou art righteous, and thou art true. And thou art true, and thou art true.

20 And David said unto the Lord, I have sinned: but thou art righteous, and thou art true. And thou art true, and thou art true.

21 And David said unto the Lord, I have sinned: but thou art righteous, and thou art true. And thou art true, and thou art true.

22 And David said unto the Lord, I have sinned: but thou art righteous, and thou art true. And thou art true, and thou art true.

23 And David said unto the Lord, I have sinned: but thou art righteous, and thou art true. And thou art true, and thou art true.

24 And David said unto the Lord, I have sinned: but thou art righteous, and thou art true. And thou art true, and thou art true.

25 And David said unto the Lord, I have sinned: but thou art righteous, and thou art true. And thou art true, and thou art true.

26 And David said unto the Lord, I have sinned: but thou art righteous, and thou art true. And thou art true, and thou art true.

27 And David said unto the Lord, I have sinned: but thou art righteous, and thou art true. And thou art true, and thou art true.

28 And David said unto the Lord, I have sinned: but thou art righteous, and thou art true. And thou art true, and thou art true.

29 And David said unto the Lord, I have sinned: but thou art righteous, and thou art true. And thou art true, and thou art true.

1 Abiſag cheriſeth David in his extrem age. 5 Adonijah, Davids darling, uſurpeth the kingdom. 11 By the counſel of Nathan, 15 Bath-ſheba moweth the king, 22 and Nathan ſecondeth her. 28 David reneweth his oath to Bath-ſheba. 32 Solomon by Davids appointment, being anointed king by Zadok and Nathan, the people triumph. 41 Jonathan bringing theſe news, Adonijahs gueſts flee.
50 Adonijah fleeing to the horns of the altar, upon his good behaviour is diſmiſſed by Solomon.

NOW king David was old, and ſtricken in yeares; and they covered him with clothes, but he gat no heat.

¶ Heb. let them ſeck.

¶ Heb. a dam-ſela virgin.

¶ Heb. be a cheriſher unto him.

2 Therefore his ſervants ſaid unto him, ¶ Let there be ſought for my lord the king; a young virgin, and let her ſtand before the king, and let her ¶ cheriſh him, and let her lie in the dolours, that my lord the king may get heat.

3 So they ſought for a fair damſell throughout all the coaſts of Iſrael, and found Abiſag a ſhunamite, and brought her to the king.

4 And the damſell was very fair, and cheriſhed the king, and miniſtered to him: but the king knew her not.

¶ Heb. reigne.

5 ¶ When Adonijah the ſonne of Haggith exalted himſelf, ſaying, I will ¶ be king: and he prepared him chariots and ¶ hoſeemen, and fifty men to runne before him.

his dayes.

6 And his father had not diſpleaſed him ¶ at any time, in ſaying, Why haſt thou done ſo: and he alſo was a very goodly man; and his mother bare him after Adonijah.

¶ Heb. his words were with Joab.

¶ Heb. helped after Adoni-
jah.

7 And ¶ he conferred with Joab the ſonne of Zeruiah, and with Abiathar the prieſt: and they ¶ following Adonijah, helped him.

8 But Zadok the prieſt, and Benaiah the ſonne of Jehoiada, and Nathan the prophet, and Shi-mei and Rei, and the mighty men which belonged to David, were not with Adonijah.

9 And Adonijah ſlew ſheep and oxen, and fat cattell, by the ſtone of Joppel, which is by Beth-egol, and called all his brethren the kings ſonnes, and all the men of Iſrahel the kings ſer-vants.

10 But Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and Solomon his brother he called not.

¶ Heb. 3. 4.

11 ¶ Therefore Nathan ſpake unto Bathſheba the mother of Solomon, ſaying, Haſt thou not heard that Adonijah the ſonne of ¶ Haggith doth reigne, and David our lord knoweth it not?

12 Now therefore come, let me, I pray thee, give thee counſel, that thou mayeſt ſave thine own life, and the life of the ſonne of Solomon.

13 So, and get thee in unto king David, and ſay unto him, Thus ſaith my lord, ¶ O king, power unto thine handmaid, ſaying, Surely Solomon thy ſonne ſhall reigne after me, and he ſhall ſit upon my throne: ¶ why then doſt Adonijah reigne?

14 Behold, while thou yet ſtandeſt there with the king, I will alſo come in after thee, and ¶ confirm the wordes.

15 ¶ And Bath-ſheba went in unto the king, into the chamber: and the king was very old; and Abiſag the ſhunanite miniſtered unto the king.

16 And Bath-ſheba bowed, and did obeiſance unto the king: ¶ the king ſaid, ¶ What wouldeſt thou?

17 And ſhe ſaid unto him, ¶ My lord, thou ſwareſt by the Lord thy God unto thine handmaid, ſaying, Surely Solomon thy ſonne ſhall reigne after me, and he ſhall ſit upon my throne:

18 And now behold, Adonijah reigneth; and now my lord the king thou knoweſt it not.

19 And he hath ſlains oxen, and fat cattell, and ſlees in abundance, and hath called all the ſonnes of the king, and Abiathar the prieſt, and Joab the captain of the hoſt: but Solomon thy ſervant hath been called.

20 And thou, my lord, ¶ O king, ¶ the eyes of all Iſrael are upon thee, that thou ſhouldeſt tell them who ſhall ſit on the throne of my lord the king after him.

21 Otherwiſe it ſhall come to paſſe, when my lord the king ſhall ſleep with his fathers, that I ¶ my ſonne Solomon ſhall be counted offender.

22 ¶ And to, while the yet ſtandeth with the king, Nathan the prophet alſo came in.

23 And they told the king, ſaying, Behold, Nathan the prophet. And when he was come in before the king, he bowed himſelf before the king with his face to the ground.

24 And Nathan ſaid, ¶ My lord, ¶ O king, haſt thou ſaid, Adonijah ſhall reigne after me, and he ſhall ſit upon my throne?

25 For he is gone down this day, and hath ſlains oxen, and fat cattell, and ſlees in abundance, and hath called all the kings ſonnes, and the captains of the hoſt, and Abiathar the prieſt; and behold, they are and ſit down before him, and ſay, ¶ God ſave king Adonijah.

26 But me, even me thy ſervant, and Zadok
the prieſt, and Benaiah the ſonne of Jehoiada, and thy ſervant Solomon haſt thou not called.

27 Is this thing done by my lord the king, and thou haſt not ſetwed it unto thy ſervant, who ſhould ſit on the throne of my lord the king after him?

28 ¶ Then king David answered and ſaid,
Call me Bath-ſheba and ſhe came into the kings preſence, and ſtood before the king.

29 And the king ſware, and ſaid, ¶ As the Lord liveth, that hath redeemed my ſoul out of all diſtreſſe,

30 ¶ When as I ſware unto thee by the Lord thy God of Iſrael, ſaying, Surely Solomon thy ſonne ſhall reigne after me, and he ſhall ſit upon my throne in my ſtead; even ſo will I certainly do this day.

31 ¶ Then Bath-ſheba bowed with her face to the altar, and did reverence to the king, and said, Let my lord king David live for ever.

32 ¶ And king David said, Call me Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the sonne of Jehoiada. And they came before the king.

33 The king also said unto them, Take with you the servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my sonne to ride upon ¶ mine own mule, and bring him down to Gihon.

34 And let Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, anoint him there king over Israel: and blow ye with the trumpet, and say, God save king Solomon.

35 When ye shall come up after him, that he may come and sit upon my throne: for he shall be king in my stead: and I have appointed him to be ruler over Israel, and over Judah.

36 And Benaiah the sonne of Jehoiada answered the king, and said, Amen: the Lord is God of our lord the king say so too.

37 As the Lord hath been with my lord the king, then to be he with Solomon, and make his throne greater then the throne of my lord king David.

38 So Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the sonne of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Gileadites, went down, and caused Solomon to rise upon king Davids mule, and brought him to Gihon.

39 And Zadok the priest took an horn of oil out of the tabernacle, and anointed Solomon: and they blew the trumpet, and all the people said, God save king Solomon.

40 And all the people came up after him, and the people piped with pipes, and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth rent with the sound of them.

41 ¶ And Adonijah and all the guests that were with him, heard it as they had made an end of eating: and when Iachin heard the sound of the trumpet, he said, Wherefore is this noise of the city, being in an uproar?

42 And while he yet spake, behold, Jonathan the sonne of Achishai the priest came, and Adonijah said unto him, Come in: for thou art a valiant man, and bringest good tidings.

43 And Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah, Certiey our lord king David hath made Solomon king.

44 And the king hath sent with him Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the sonne of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites, and the Gileadites, and they have caused him to rise upon the kings mule.

45 And Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, have anointed him king in Gihon: and they are come up from thence crying, so that the city rent again: this is the noise that ye have heard.

46 And also Solomon sateth on the throne of the kingdom.

47 And moreover, the kings servants came to bless our lord king David, saying, God make the name of Solomon better then thy name, and make his throne greater then the throne: and the king bowed himself upon the bed.

48 And also thus said the king, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, which hath given one to sit on my throne this day, mine eyes even seeing it.

49 And all the guests that were with Adonijah, were afraid, and rose up, and went every man his way.

50 ¶ And Adonijah feared because of Solomon, and arose, and went, and caught hold on the horns of the altar.

51 And it was told Solomon, saying, Behold, Adonijah feared king Solomon: for so, he hath caught hold on the horns of the altar, saying, Let king Solomon swear unto me to day, that he will not slay his servant with the sword.

52 And Solomon said, If he will thee himself a worthy man, there shall not an hair of him fall to the earth: but if wickedness shall be found in him, he shall die.

53 So king Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar: and he came and bowed himself to king Solomon: and Solomon said unto him, Go to thine house.

CHAP. II.

1 David having given a charge to Solomon, 3 of religiousness, 5 of Iachin, 7 of Barzillai, 8 of Shimei, 10 death, 11 Solomon succeedeth, 12 Adonijah, moving Bath-sheba to sue unto Solomon for Asaph, 14 put to death, 25 Abiathar having his life given him, 26 deprived of the priesthood, 28 Zebab fleeing to the horns of the altar, 29 there slain, 35 Benaiah is put in Footstool, and Zadok in Abiathars, 36 Shimei confined to Jerusalem, by occasion of going thence to Gath, is put to death.

NOW the dayes of Davids mellowed, that he should die; and he charged Solomon his sonne, saying,

2 I go the way of all the earth: be thou strong therefore, and keep the law a man.

3 And keep the charge of the Lord thy God, to walk in his wayes: to keep his statutes and his commandments and his judgments and his testimonies, as it is written in the law of Moses, that thou mayest prosper in all that thou doest, and prosperest thou turnest the left:

4 That the Lord thy God may continue his word which he spake concerning me, saying, If the children take heed to their way, to walk before me in truth, with all their heart, and with all their soul, there shall not I fail thee (said he) a man on the throne of Israel.

5 Moreover, thou knowest also what load the sonne of Jehoiada did to me, and what he did to the two captains of the hosts of Israel, unto Abner the sonne of Neri, and unto Joab the sonne of Zechi, whom he slew, and I shed the blood of warre in peace, and put the blood of warre upon his girdle: that was about his loins, and in his shoes that were on his feet.

6 Do therefore according to the wisdom, and let not his poor head go down to the grave in peace.

7 But keep thyself out of the names of Baalshai the Gileadite, and let them be of those that eat at thy table: for so they came to me when I fled because of Achishai my brother.

8 And behold, thou hast with thee Shimei the sonne of Gera, a Benjaminite of Becherin, which cursed me with a ¶ grievous curse, in the day when I went to Babylon: but he came down to meet me at Jordan, and I swore to him by the Lord God, saying, I will not put thee to death with the sword.

9 Now therefore hold him not guiltless: for thou art a wise man, and knowest what thou oughtest to do unto him: but his poor head bring thou down to the grave with blood.

10 So David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David.

11 And the dayes that David reigned over Israel were forty years: seven years reigned he 131 ¶ Then he Solomon upon the throne of David his father, and his kingdom was established greatly.

132 ¶ And Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bath-sheba the mother of Solomon, and she said, Demand thou peacefully; and he said, Peaceably.

133 ¶ He said moreover, I have somewhat to say unto thee. And she said, Say on.

134 And he said, Thou knowest that the kingdom was mine, and that all Israel set their faces on me, that I should reign; because the kingdom is turned about, and to become my brother's; for it was his from the Lord.

135 And now I ask one petition of thee; & deny me not. And she said unto him, Say on.

136 And he said, Speak. I pray thee, unto Solomon the king; (for he will not say thee nay) that he give me Achishar the eunuch to be.

137 And Bath-sheba said, Well, I will speak for thee unto the king.

138 ¶ Both these therefore went unto king Solomon, to speak unto him for Adonijah; and the king rose up to meet her, and Achishar himself unto her, and sat upon his throne, and caused a seat to be set for the king's mother, and she sat on his right hand.

139 ¶ Then she said, I desire one small petition of thee, I pray thee; say me not nay. And the king said unto her, Ask on, my mother; for I will not say thee nay.

140 And she said, Let Achishar the eunuch be given to Adonijah the king's son.

141 ¶ And king Solomon answered and said unto his mother, What wilt thou ask? Achishar the eunuch is for Adonijah; ask in him the thing thou desirest; for he is mine after brother; even as I am, and as Achishar the eunuch, and for Joab the son of Zeruiah.

142 ¶ Then king Solomon (because he the king, and he was wiser, and more able, than they) had not given this thing against his own will.

143 ¶ And therefore, as the Lord's word, which he said to him, and let me on the throne of David my father, and who hath made me in this day, as he promised, Adonijah shall be put to death this day.

144 ¶ And king Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and he fell upon him that he died.

145 ¶ And unto Achishar the eunuch said the king, Get thee to Achishar, and thou shalt die; for thou art worthy of death; but I will not do this day, for thou art my brother, and because thou hast been faithful in all that I have said unto thee.

CHAP. VI.

1 The building of Solomon's temple. 5 The chambers thereof. 11 Gods promise unto it. 15 The ceiling and adorning of it. 23 The cherubims. 31 The doors. 36 The court. 37 The time of building of it.

And it came to pass in the fourth hundred and fourscore years after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month Zif, which is the second month, that he began to build the house of the Lord.

2 And the house which King Solomon built for the Lord, the length thereof was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits.

3 And the porch before the temple of the house, twenty cubits was the length thereof, according to the breadth of the house; and ten cubits was the breadth thereof, before the house.

4 And for the house he made windows of narrow lights.

5 And against the wall of the house he built chambers round about, against the walls of the house round about, both of the temple, and of the oracle: and he made chambers round about.

6 The innermost chamber was five cubits broad, and the middle was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad: for without in the wall of the house, he made chambers round about, that the beams should not be fastened in the walls of the house.

7 And the house when it was in building, was built of stone, made ready before it was brought thither: so that there was neither hammer, nor axe, nor any tool of iron heard in the house, while it was in building.

8 The door for the middle chamber was in the right side of the house: and they went up with winding stairs into the middle chamber, and out of the middle into the third.

9 So he built the house and finished it; and covered the house with beams and boards of cedar.

10 And then he built chambers against all the house, five cubits high: and they rested on the house with timber of cedar.

11 And the word of the Lord came to Solomon, saying,

12 Concerning this house which thou art in building, if thou wilt walk in my statutes, and execute my judgments, and keep all my commandments to walk in them: then will I perform my word with thee, which I spoke unto David thy father.

13 And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel.

14 So Solomon built the house, finished it.

15 And he built the walls of the house with boards of cedar, both the floor of the house, and the walls of the ceiling: and he covered them on the inside with gold, and covered the floor of the house with planks of fir.

16 And he built twenty cubits on the floor of the house, both the floor, and the walls with boards of cedar: he even built them for it within, even for the oracle, even for the most holy place.

17 And the house, that is, the temple before it, was forty cubits long.

18 And the cedar of the house within was carved with knobs, and open flowers: all was cedar, there was no stone seen.

19 And the oracle he prepared in the house within, to set there the ark of the covenant of the Lord.

20 And the oracle in the forefront was thirty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in the height thereof: and he overlaid it with pure gold, and so covered the altar which was of cedar.

21 So Solomon overlaid the house within with pure gold: and he made a partition, by the chains of gold before the oracle, and he overlaid it with gold.

22 And the whole house he overlaid with gold, until he had finished all the house: and the whole altar that was by the oracle he overlaid with gold.

23 And within the oracle he made two cherubims of olive-tree, each ten cubits high.

24 And five cubits was the one wing of the cherub, and five cubits the other wing of the cherub: from the uttermost part of the one wing, unto the uttermost part of the other, were ten cubits.

25 And the other cherub was ten cubits: both the cherubims were of one measure, and one size.

26 The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, and so was it of the other cherub.

27 And he set the cherubims within the inner house: and they stretched forth the wings of the cherubims, so that the wing of the one touched the one wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall: and their wings touched one another in the midst of the house.

28 And he overlaid the cherubims with gold.

29 And he carved all the walls of the house round about with carved figures of cherubims, and palm-trees, and open flowers, within and without.

30 And the floor of the house he overlaid with gold, within and without.

31 And for the entering of the oracle he made doors of olive-tree: the lintel and side-posts were a fifth part of the wall.

32 The two doors also were of olive-tree, and he carved upon them carvings of cherubims, and palm-trees, and open flowers, and overlaid them with gold, and spread

7 And he made a porch for the throne where he might judge, even the porch of judgment: and it was covered with cedar: fifteen on the side of the house to the other.

8 And his house where he dwelt had another court within the porch, which was of the like work: Solomon made also an house for Pharaoh's daughter (where he had taken to wife): like unto this porch.

9 All these were of costly stones, according to the measure of hewed stones, hewed with saws, without and without, even from the foundation unto the coping, and so on the outside toward the great court.

10 And the foundation was of costly stones, even great hewed stones of ten cubits, and stones of eight cubits.

11 And above were costly stones (after the measure of hewed stones) and cedars.

12 And the great court was about, was with three rows of hewed stones, and a row of cedar beams, both for the inner court of the house of the Lord, and for the porch of the house.

13 And king Solomon sent and fetched Tyrian men of Tyre.

15 For he fastened ten pillars of brass, of eighteen cubits high a piece: and a line of twelve cubits did compass either of their about.

16 And he made two chapiters of molten brass, to sit upon the tops of the pillars: the height of the one chapter was five cubits, and the height of the other chapter was five cubits.

17 And nets of checker-work, and wreathes of chain-work, on the chapters which were upon the top of the pillars; seven for the one chapter, and seven for the other chapter.

18 And he made the pillars, and the rows round about upon the one not-work, to cover the chapters that were upon the top, with pomegranates: and so he did for the other chapters.

19 And the chapters that were upon the top of the pillars, were of like work in the porch, four cubits.

20 And the chapters upon the four pillars had pomegranates also above, seven against the ball which was in the net-work: and the pomegranates were two hundred, in rows round about upon the other chapters.

21 And he set on the pillars in the porch of the temple, and he set on the right pillar, and called the name thereof Jachin: and he set on the left pillar, and called the name thereof Boaz.

26 And it was an heap breadth eight, and the brim thereof was wrought like the brim of a cup, like the work of the brim: it contained two thousand baths.

27 And he made ten bases of brass; four cubits was the length of one base, and four cubits the breadth thereof, and three cubits the height of it.

28 And the work of the bases was on this manner: They had borders, and the borders were between the bases:

29 And on the borders that were between the bases were lions, oxen, and cherubims: and upon the bases, there was a base above: and beneath the lions and oxen were certain additions made of thin work.

30 And every base had four bases of wheels, and places of wheels: and the four corners thereof had underfettles: under the latter were underfettles molten, at the side of every addition.

31 And the mouth of it within the chapter and about was a cubit: but the mouth thereof was round after the work of the base, a cubit and an half: and also upon the mouth of it were gravings like their borders, four square, not round.

32 And under the borders were four wheels: and the spokes of the wheels were joined to the base, and the height of a wheel was a cubit and half a cubit.

34 And there were four underfettles to the four corners of one base: and the underfettles were of the very base itself.

35 And in the top of the base was there a round compass of half a cubit high: and on the top of the base, the knops thereof and the borders thereof were of the same.

36 For on the wheels of the bases thereof, and on the top thereof, he graven cherubims, lions, and palm-trees, according to the proportion of every one, and additions round about.

with the servants, that walk before thee with all their heart:

24 And he hath kept with thy servant David any father that thou promisedst him: thou spakest also with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is this day.

25 Wherefore now, O Lord God of Israel, keep with thy servant David any father that thou promisedst him, saying, I Where shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel; I so that thy children take heed to their way, that they walk before me as thou hast walked before me:

26 And now, O God of Israel, let thy word (I pray thee) be verified, which thou spakest unto thy servant David my father.

27 But will God indeed dwell on the earth: behold, the heaven, and heaven of heavens cannot contain thee: how much less this house that I have builded.

28 Yet have thou respect unto the prayer of thy servant and to his supplication, O Lord God my God, to hearken unto the cry and to the prayer which thy servant prayeth before thee to day:

29 That thine eyes may be open toward this house night and day, even toward the place of which thou hast said, My name shall be there: that thou mayest hearken unto the prayer which thy servant shall make, I toward this place.

30 And hearken thou to the supplication of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, when they shall pray towards this place: and hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and when thou hearest, forgive.

31 If any man trespass against his neighbour, and an oath be laid upon him to cause him to swear, and the oath come before thine altar in this house:

32 Then hear thou in heaven, and do, and judge thy servants; condemning the wicked, so bring his way upon his head, and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.

33 When thy people Israel be smitten down before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee, and shall turn again to thee, and confess thy name, and pray, and make supplication unto thee in this house:

34 Then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sinne of thy people Israel: and bring them again unto the land, which thou gavest unto their fathers.

35 When heaven is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; if they pray towards this place, and confesse thy name, and turn from their sinne, when thou art smitten them:

36 Then hear thou in heaven, and forgive the sinne of thy servants, and of thy people Israel: that thou teach them the good way wherein they should walk, and give rain upon the land which thou hast given to thy people for an inheritance.

37 If there be in the land famine, if there be pestilence, blasting, mildew, locust, or if there be caterpillars: if their enemy besiege them in the land of their cities, whatsoever plague, whatsoever sickness be there:

38 Yet that prayer and supplication for her he made by any man, or by all the people Israel, which shall know every man the plague of his own heart, and spread forth his hands towards this house:

39 Then hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and forgive, and do, and give to every man according to his way, whose heart thou knowest: (for thou, even thou only knowest the hearts of all the children of men.)

40 That they may fear thee all the dayes that they live, in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers.

41 Wherever concerning a stranger that is not of thy people Israel, but cometh out of a farre country, for the names sake:

42 For they shall hear of thy great name, and of thy strong hand, and of thy stretched out arm) when he shall come and pray towards this house:

43 Hear thou in heaven thy dwelling place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for: that all people of the earth may know thy name, to fear thee, as do the people of Israel, and that they may know that this house which I have builded is called by thy name.

44 If thy people go out to battell against their enemy, whithersoever thou shalt send them, and shall pray unto the Lord God toward the city which thou hast chosen, and toward the house that I have built for thy name:

45 Then hear thou in heaven their prayer, and their supplication, and maintain their cause.

46 If they sinne against thee, (for there is no man that sinne not) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy, to that they carry them away captives, unto the land of the enemy, farre or neare:

47 Yet if they shall remember themselves in the land whither they were carried captives, and repent, and make supplication unto thee in the land of them that carried them captives, saying, We have sinned, and have done perversely, we have committed wickedness;

48 And so return unto thee with all their heart and with all their soul, in the land of their enemies, which led them away captive, and pray unto thee towards their land, which thou gavest unto their fathers, the city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name:

49 Then hear thou their prayer and their supplication in heaven thy dwelling place, and maintain their cause.

50 And forgive thy people that have sinned against thee, and all their transgressions wherein they have transgressed against thee, and give them compassion before them who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on them:

51 For they be thy people and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest forth out of Egypt, from the midst of the furnace of iron:

52 That thine eyes may be open unto the supplication of thy servants, and unto the supplication of thy people Israel, to hearken unto them in all that they call for unto thee.

53 For thou dost separate them from among all the people of the earth, to be thine inheritance, as thou spakest by the hand of Moses thy servant, when thou broughtest our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord God.

54 And it was so, that when Solomon had made an end of praying all this prayer and supplication unto the Lord God, he arose from before the altar of the Lord God, from kneeling on his knees, with his hands spread up to heaven.

55 And he stood, and blessed all the congregation of Israel, with a loud voice, saying, 56 Blessed be the Lord God, that hath given rest unto his people Israel, according to all that he promised: which he promised by the hand of Moses his servant.

57 The Lord God be with us, as he was with our fathers: let him not leave us, nor forsake us:

21 Let your heart therefore be perfect with the Lord our God, to walk in his statutes, and to keep his commandments, as at this day.

22 And the king, and all Israel with him, offered sacrifice before the Lord.

23 And Solomon offered a sacrifice of peace-offerings, which he offered unto the Lord, two and twenty thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep: to the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of the Lord.

24 The same day did the king hallow the middle of the court that was before the house of the Lord: for there he offered burnt-offerings, and meat-offerings, and the fat of the peace-offerings: because the brazier altar that was before the Lord, was too little to receive the burnt-offerings, and meat-offerings, and the fat of the peace-offerings.

25 And at that time Solomon held a feast, and all Israel with him, a great congregation, from the entering in of Hamath unto the river of Egypt, before the Lord our God, seven days and seven days, even fourteen days.

26 On the eighth day he sent the people away: and they blessed the king, and went unto their tents joyful and glad of heart, for all the goodness that the Lord our God had done for David his servant, and for Israel his people.

CHAP. IX.

1 Gods covenant in a vision with Solomon, 10 The marvellous presents of Solomon and Hiram, 15 In Solomons work: the Gentiles were his bondmen, the Israelites honourable servants: 24 Pharaohs daughter removed to her house, 25 Solomons yearly solemn sacrifices: 26 His navy fetched gold from Ophir.

1 And it came to pass when Solomon had finished the building of the house of the Lord, and the kings house, and all Solomons desire which he was pleased to do,

2 That the Lord appeared to Solomon the second time, as he had appeared unto him at Gibeon.

3 And the Lord said unto him, I have heard thy prayer and thy supplication that thou hast made before me: I have hallowed this house which thou hast built, to put my name there for ever, and mine eyes and my heart shall be there perpetually.

4 And if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, in integrity of heart and in uprightness, to be according to all that I have commanded thee, and wilt keep my statutes and my judgments:

5 Then I will establish the throne of thy kingdom upon Israel for ever, as I promised to David thy father, saying, Thine shall not fail thee a man upon the throne of Israel.

6 But if thou shalt at all turn from following me, thou and thy children, and wilt not keep my commandments and my statutes, which I have set before thee, but go and serve other gods, and worship them:

7 Then will I cut off Israel out of the land which I have given them, and this house which I have hallowed for my name, will I cast out of my sight, and Israel shall be a proverb, and a by-word among all people.

8 And at this house which is high, every one that passeth by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss; and they shall say, Why hath the Lord done thus unto this land, and to this house?

9 And they shall answer, Because they forsook the Lord their God, who brought forth their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and have taken hold upon other gods, and have worshipped them, and served them: therefore hath the Lord brought upon them all this evil.

10 And it came to pass at the end of twenty years, when Solomon had built the two houses, the house of the Lord, and the kings house, 11 (Now Hiram the king of Tyre had furnished Solomon with cedar-trees, and fir-trees, and with gold, according to all his desire) that then Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of Galilee.

12 And Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities which Solomon had given him, and they pleased him not.

13 And he said, What cities are these which thou hast given me, my brother? And he called them the land of Cadul, unto this day.

14 And Hiram sent to the king sixscore talents of gold.

15 And this is the reason of the levy which king Solomon raised, for to build the house of the Lord, and his own house, and Askelon, and the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazer, and Begead, and Gezer.

16 For Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up, and taken Gezer, and burnt it with fire, and slain the Canaanites that dwelt in the city, and given it for a present unto his daughter, Solomons wife.

17 And Solomon built Gezer, and Beth-boan the nether, 18 And Baalath, and Tadmor in the wilderness, in the land.

19 And all the cities of store that Solomon had, and cities for his chariots, and cities for his horsemen, and that which Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.

20 And all the people that were left of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites, and Jebusites, which were not of the children of Israel.

21 Their children that were left after them, in the land, whom the children of Israel also were not able utterly to destroy, upon those did Solomon levy a tribute of bond-service unto this day.

22 But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no bondmen: but they were men of war, and his servants, and his princes, and his captains, and rulers of his chariots, and his horsemen.

23 These were the chief of the officers that were over Solomons wood, the hundred and fifty, which bare rule over the people that brought in the wood.

3 And he had seven hundred wives, princes, and three hundred concubines: and his wives turned away his heart.

12 Notwithstanding in the days I will not do it, as I have said: for thy fathers sake: but I will send it out of the hand of thy sons.

13 Moreover, I will not send away all the kingdom: but will give one tribe to thy sons, for David my servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake which I have chosen.

38 And he had said to his servants, * I will give you the kingdom of Egypt, and I will give you the kingdom of Egypt, and I will give you the kingdom of Egypt.

39 And he had said to his servants, * I will give you the kingdom of Egypt, and I will give you the kingdom of Egypt, and I will give you the kingdom of Egypt.

40 And he had said to his servants, * I will give you the kingdom of Egypt, and I will give you the kingdom of Egypt, and I will give you the kingdom of Egypt.

41 And he had said to his servants, * I will give you the kingdom of Egypt, and I will give you the kingdom of Egypt, and I will give you the kingdom of Egypt.

42 And he had said to his servants, * I will give you the kingdom of Egypt, and I will give you the kingdom of Egypt, and I will give you the kingdom of Egypt.

43 And he had said to his servants, * I will give you the kingdom of Egypt, and I will give you the kingdom of Egypt, and I will give you the kingdom of Egypt.

44 And he had said to his servants, * I will give you the kingdom of Egypt, and I will give you the kingdom of Egypt, and I will give you the kingdom of Egypt.

45 And he had said to his servants, * I will give you the kingdom of Egypt, and I will give you the kingdom of Egypt, and I will give you the kingdom of Egypt.

46 And he had said to his servants, * I will give you the kingdom of Egypt, and I will give you the kingdom of Egypt, and I will give you the kingdom of Egypt.

47 And he had said to his servants, * I will give you the kingdom of Egypt, and I will give you the kingdom of Egypt, and I will give you the kingdom of Egypt.

48 And he had said to his servants, * I will give you the kingdom of Egypt, and I will give you the kingdom of Egypt, and I will give you the kingdom of Egypt.

49 And he had said to his servants, * I will give you the kingdom of Egypt, and I will give you the kingdom of Egypt, and I will give you the kingdom of Egypt.

50 And he had said to his servants, * I will give you the kingdom of Egypt, and I will give you the kingdom of Egypt, and I will give you the kingdom of Egypt.

called Rehobam

Solomon king of Egypt, and was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

41 And the rest of the faces of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the book of the acts of Solomon?

42 And the time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem, over all Israel, was forty years.

43 And Solomon slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David his father: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XII.

1 The Israelites assembled at Shechem to crown Rehoboam, by Jeroboam make a suit of relaxation unto him. 6 Rehoboam refusing the old mens counsel, by the advice of young men, answereth them roughly.

26 Tentribles swelling, kill Adoram, and make Jeroboam refuse. 31 Rehoboam raising an armie, as forbidden by Shemaiah. 25 Jeroboam strengtheneth himself by cities, 26 and by the idolatry of the two calves.

2 Chap. 1. 40.

2 Chap. 4. 7.

1 And Rehoboam went to Shechem: for all Israel were come to Shechem to make him king.

2 And it came to passe when Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat, who was yet in Egypt, heard of it, (for he was fled from the presence of king Solomon, and Jeroboam dwelt in Egypt)

3 That they sent, and called him: and Jeroboam, and all the congregation of Israel came, and spake unto Rehoboam, saying,

4 Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore, make thou the grievous service of thy father, and his heauie yoke which he put upon us, lighter, and we will serue thee.

5 And he said unto them, Depart yet for three dayes, then come again to me. And the people departed.

6 And king Rehoboam consulted with the old men that stood before Solomon his father, while he yet liued, and said, Doto do you aduise, that I may answer this people?

7 And they spake unto him, saying, If thou wilt be a seruant unto this people this day, and wilt serue them, and answer them, and speak good words to them, then they will be thy seruants for ever.

8 But he forsook the counsel of the old men, which they had given him, and consulted with the young men that were grown up with him, and which stood before him:

9 And he said unto them, What counsel giue ye, that we may answer this people, who haue spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke which thy father did put upon us, lighter?

10 And the young men that were grown up with him, spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou speak unto this people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heauie, but make thou it lighter unto us: thus shalt thou say unto them, My little finger shall be thicker then my fathers yokes.

11 And now whereas my father did lade you with a heauie yoke, I will adde to your yoke: my father hath chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

12 And so Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had appointed, saying, Come to me again the third day.

13 And the king answered the people roughly, and forsook the old mens counsel: that they gave him:

14 And spake to them after the counsell of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heauie, and I will adde to your yokes: my father also chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 Therefore the king hearkened not unto the people: for the cause was from the Lord, as he said: that he might perform his saying, which the Lord said by Ahijah the Silsonite unto Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat.

16 And so when all Israel saw that the king hearkened not unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion haue we in David: neither haue we inheritance in the house of Israhel: to your tents, O Israel: now see to thine own house, David. So Israel departed unto their tents.

17 But as for the children of Israel which dwelt in the cities of Iudah, Jeroboam reigned over them.

18 Then king Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was over the tribute, and all Israel stoned him with stones that he died: therefore king Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

19 So Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

20 And it came to passe when all Israel heard that Jeroboam was come again, that they sent and called him unto the congregation, and made him king over all Israel: there was none that followed the house of David, but the tribe of Iudah only.

21 And when Jeroboam was come to Jerusalem, he assembled all the house of Iudah, with the tribe of Benjamin an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men, which were warriours, to fight against the house of Israel, to bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the sonne of Solomon.

22 But the word of God came unto Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

23 Speak unto Jeroboam the sonne of Solomon king of Iudah, and unto all the house of Iudah and Benjamin, and to the remnant of the people, saying,

24 Thus saith the Lord, We shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren the children of Israel: return every man to his house, for this thing is from me. They hearkened therefore to the word of the Lord, and returned to depart, according to the word of the Lord.

25 And Jeroboam built Shechem in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein, and went out from thence, and built Penuel.

26 And Jeroboam said in his heart, Now shall the kingdom return to the house of David:

27 If this people go up to do sacrifice in the house of the Lord at Jerusalem, then shall the heart of this people turn again unto their lord, even unto Rehoboam king of Iudah, and they shall kill me, and go again to Rehoboam king of Iudah.

28 Therefore the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold, and said unto them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: behold the gods, O Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.

29 And he set the one in Beth-el, and the other put he in Dan.

30 And this thing became a sinne: for the people went to worship before the one, even unto Dan.

31 And he made an house of high places, and made priests of the lowest of the people, which were not of the houses of Levi.

32 And Jeroboam signified a feast in the first eight month on the fifteenth day of the month, line unto the frank that is in Judah, and he offered upon the altar; (so did he in Beth-el) a sacrificing unto the calves that he had made: and he placed in Beth-el the priests of the high places which he had made.

33. So he offered upon the altar which he had made in Beth-el, the fifteenth day of the eighth month, even in the month which he had devised of his own heart: and obtained a sacrifice unto the children of Israel, and he offered upon the altar, † and burnt incense.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Jeroboams hand that offered violence to him that prophesied against his altar at Beth-el, withereth, 6 and as the prayer of the prophet is restored, 7 The prophet refusing the kings entertainment departs thence from Beth-el. 14 An old prophet seducing him, bringeth him back. 20 He is reprieved by God, 23 slain by a lion, 26 twice by the old prophet, 31 who confirmeth his prophesie. 33 Jeroboams obduracy.

AND behold, there came a man of God out of Judah, by the word of the LORD unto Beth-el: and Jeroboam stood by the altar (to burn incense).

1 And be crien against the altar in the word of the Lord, and say, Altar, altar, thus saith the Lord, Behold, a childe shall be born unto the house of David, Iosiah by name, and upon thee shall he offer the priests of the high places that burn incense upon thee, and mens bones shall be burnt upon thee.

3 And he gave a signe the same day, saying, This is the signe which the Lord hath spoken: Behold, the altar shall be rent, and the ashes that are upon it shall be poured out.

4 And it came to pass when king Jeroboam heard the saying of the man of God, which had cried against the altar in Beth-el, that he put forth his hand from the altar, saying, Lay hold on him. And his hand which he put forth against him, dried up, so that he could not pull it in again to him.

5 The altar also was rent, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign which the man of God had given by the word of the L. & c.

6 And the king answered and said unto the man of God, I beseech now the face of the LORD the God, and pray for me: that my hand may be restored me again. And the man of God brought the king to the LORD, and the king's hand was restored again, and became as it was before.

7 And the king said unto the man of God,
Come home with me, and refresh thy self, and I will give thee a reward.

8 And the man of God said unto the king, If thou wilt give me half thine house, I will not go in with thee, neither will I eat bread, nor drink water in this place :

9 For so was it charged me by the word of the Lord, saying, Eat no bread, nor drink water, nor turn again by the same way that thou camest.

10 So he went another way, and returned not by the way that he came to Beth-el.

11 ¶ Now there dwelt an old prophet in Beth-el, and his sonnes came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Beth-el: the words which he had spoken unto the king, them they told also to their father.

12 And their father said unto them, ye shall thereon.

14 And went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak; and he said unto him, Art thou the man of God that comest from Judah? And he said, I am.

15 Then he said unto him, Come home with me, and eat bread.

16 And he said, I may not return with thee; nor go in with thee: neither will I eat bread, nor drink water with thee in this place.

17 For it was said to me by the word of the Lord, Thou shalt eat no bread, nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that thou comest.

18 he said unto him, I am a prophet also as thou art, and an angel spake unto me by the word of the Lord, saying, Bring him back with thee into thine house, that he may eat bread, and drink water: but he lien unto him.

19 So he went back with him, and did eat bread in his house, and drank water.

20 ¶ And it came to pass as they sat at the table, that the word of the Lord came unto the prophet that brought him back :

21 And he cried unto the man of God that came from Judah, saying, I have said the LORD to thee, forasmuch as thou hast disobeyed the mouth of the LORD; and hast not kept the commandment which the LORD thy God commanded thee.

22 But comest back, and hast eaten bread and drunk water in the place of the which the LORD did say to thee, Eat no bread, and drink no water; thy carcase shall not come unto the soulchour of the fathers.

23 ¶ And it came to pass after he had eaten bread, and after he had drunk, that he laid the point of the ass, to wit, for the prophet whom he had brought back.

24 And when he was gone, a lion met him by the way, and slew him: and his carcass was cast in the way, and the ass stood by it, the lion also stood by the carcass.

25 And behold, men passed by, and into the carcase cast in the way, and the lion standing by the carcase: and they came and told it in the city where the old man dwelt alone.

26 And when the prophet that brought him back from the way, heard thereof, he said, It is the man of God, who was indifferent unto the word of the Lord: therefore the Lord will deliver him unto the lion, which hath consumed him, and slain him, according to the word of the Lord.

27 And he spake to his disciples, saying, Beware of the scribe. And they laughed him.

And he went and found his carcass cast in the way, and the ass and the lion standing by the carcass: the lion had not eaten the carcass, but to use the ass.

29 And the prophet took up the carcass of the man of God, and laid it upon the ass, and brought it back: and the old prophet came to it, to weep, and to bury him.

30 And he laid his carcass in his own grave, and they mourned over him, saying, Alas my other.

31 And it came to passe after he had buried him, that he spake to his sonnes, saying, When I am dead, then bury me in the sepulchre where the man of God is buried, for my bones believe it. 31-30

21 ¶ After this thing Jeroboam returned not from his evil way; but he arose again of the house of the people, which of the high places: whosoever would, he persecuted him, and he became one of the wicked of the high places.

22 And this thing became sin unto the house of Jeroboam, even to cut it off; and to destroy it from off the face of the earth.

CHAP. XIII.

Abijah being sick, Jeroboam sendeth his wife disguised with presents to the prophet Abijah at Shiloh, & Abijah forewarned by God, denounceth Gods judgement, by Abijahs death, and is buried by Nadab succeeded Jeroboam, 27 Rehoboam smothered a woman by Shishah his wife at Jerusalem. 29 and Shishah succeeded Rehoboam.

¶ At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam fell sick.

2 And Jeroboam said to his wife, Abijah, in any case, and disguise the self, that thou be not known to be the wife of Jeroboam: and get thee to Shiloh: because, there is Shiloh the prophet, which shall tell me what I shall be doing over this child.

4 And Jeroboams wife went, and came to the house of Abijah: and she said unto him, I have a word to say to thee: for the child is sick.

† Heb. flood for hoarseness

5 And the Lord said unto Abijah, Behold, the wife of Jeroboam cometh to ask a thing of thee: for she is sick: thus saith the Lord, when thou shalt see her: for I shall be taken the word in, that she shall receive her self to be another woman.

6 And it was so, when Abijah heard the words of her wife, as she came in at the house, that he said, Come in, thou wife of Jeroboam, why hast thou come to me to be smothered? for I am sent to thee with a heavy tidings.

† Heb. hard,

7 So, said Jeroboam, thou saidst the Lord was God of Israel, forasmuch as I smother thee from among the people, and thou shalt be as my people Israel.

8 And thou shalt bring me away from the house of Israel, and give it thee: and yet thou shalt not turn as my servant Shishah, who kept my commandments, and who followed me with all his heart, to do that which I said him right in mine eyes.

9 But thou hast done evil above all that were before thee: for thou hast gone and made thee other gods, and molten images, to provoke me to anger, and hast not kept my commandments which I said thee.

10 Therefore, behold, I will bring evil upon the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam: him that is first against the wall, and him that is last upon the street in Israel, and will take away the dominion of the house of Jeroboam, as a man catcheth a snare among all it be all gone.

11 Him that dieth of Jeroboam in the city, shall the dogs eat: and him that dieth in the field, shall the fowls of the air eat: for the Lord was God of Israel.

12 And when thou shalt see these things, get thee to thine own house: and when thou shalt see these things, thou shalt go in.

23 And all Israel shall know that day, and they shall say, he only of Jeroboam shall come to the grave, because in him there is found some good thing returned the Lord was God of Israel, in the house of Jeroboam.

24 Moreover, the Lord shall raise him up king over Israel, who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam that day: but what? even now.

25 For the Lord was with Shishah, as a tree is shaken in the water, and he shall cut up Israel out of this good land, which he gave to their fathers, and shall scatter them beyond the river, because they have made their groves, provoking the Lord was to anger.

26 And he shall give Israel up, because of the sins of Jeroboam, who did these, and who made Israel to sin.

27 ¶ And Jeroboams wife arose, and departed, and came to Tirzah: and when she came to the threshold of the door, the child died.

30 So Ahab sent unto all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together unto mount Carmel.

31 And Elijah came unto all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? If the Lord be God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word.

32 Then said Elijah unto the people, I even see myself the prophet of the Lord; but Baal's prophets are four hundred and fifty men.

33 Let them therefore give us two bullocks, and let them choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on wood, and put to fire under: and I will sacrifice the other bullock, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under:

34 And call ye on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the Lord: and the God that answereth by fire, let him be God. And all the people answered and said, It is well spoken.

Heb. the word is good.

35 And Elijah said unto the prophets of Baal, Choose you one bullock for your selves, and make it flesh; for ye are many; and call on the name of your gods, but put no fire under.

36 And they took the bullock which was given them, and they sacrificed it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even until noon, saying, O Baal, I hear thee. But there was no voice, nor any that answered. And they leapt upon the altar which they made.

Or, answer. Or, heard.

37 And it came so nigh as noon, that Elijah mocked them, and said, Cry aloud: for he is a god, either he is talking, or he is pursuing, or he is in a journey, or peradventure he sleepeth, and must be awaked.

Or, heard. Or, leapt up and down at the altar.

38 And they cried aloud, and cut themselves after their manner with knives, and lancets, till the blood came out upon them.

40 And Elijah said unto all the people, Come near unto me. And all the people came near unto him. And he repaired the altar of the Lord: and he took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, unto whom the word of the Lord came, saying, Israel shall be thy name.

45 And it came to pass at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near and said, Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known this day, that thou art God in Israel, and that I am thy servant; and that I have done all these things at thy word.

and that thou hast turned their heart back again.

47 Then the fire of the Lord came, and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.

48 And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces: and they said, The Lord is God, the Lord is God.

49 And Elijah said unto them, I take the prophets of Baal, let not one of them escape: and they took them, and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and slew them there.

50 And Elijah said unto Ahab, Get thee up, eat and drink; for there is a sound of abundance of rain.

51 So Ahab went up to eat and to drink, and Elijah went up to the top of Carmel, and he cast himself down upon the earth, and put his face between his knees.

52 And said to his servant, Go up now, look towards the sea. And he went up, and looked, and said, There is nothing. And he said, Go again from thence.

53 And it came to pass at the seventh time, that he said, Behold, there ariseth a little cloud out of the sea, like a man's hand. And he said, Go up, say unto Ahab, I depart thy chariot, and get thee down, that the rain stop thee not.

54 And it came to pass in the mean while, that the heaven was black with clouds of water, and there was a great rain: and Ahab rode and went to Tyre.

CHAP. XIX.

1 Elijah threatened by Jezebel, fleeth to Beer-sheba.

2 In the wilderness being weary of his life, is comforted by an angel. 3 At Horeb God appeareth unto him, sending him to anoint Hazael, Jehu, and Elisha. 4 Elijah taking leave of his friends, followeth Elisha.

And Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and what he had said, how he had slain all the prophets with the sword.

2 Then Jezebel sent a messenger unto Elijah, saying, So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I make not the life as the life of one of them, by to morrow about this time.

3 And when he saw that, he arose, and went for his life, and came to Beer-sheba, which be longeth to Judah, and left his servant there.

4 But he himself went a dayes journey to the wilderness, and came and lay down under a juniper tree: and he requested that himself that he might die, and said, It is enough, now O Lord, take away my life: for I am not better than my fathers.

5 And as he lay and slept under a juniper-tree, behold then, an angel touched him, and said unto him, Arise and eat.

6 And he looked, and behold, there was a cake baked on the coals, and a cruet of water at his head: and he did eat and drink, and laid himself down again.

7 And the angel of the Lord came again the second time, and touched him, and said, Arise and eat, because the journey is too great for thee.

8 And he arose, and did eat and drink, & went in the strength of that meat fourty dayes and fourty nights, unto the mount of God.

9 And he came thither unto a cave, and lodged there; and behold, the way of the Lord was going came to him, and he instructed him, what he should do.

10 And he said, I have been very jealous for the Lord God of hosts: for the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thou hast slain their priests, & slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, even I only am left, and they seek my life to take it away.

11 And he said, Go forth, and stand upon the mount before the Lord God of hosts, the Lord was passed by, and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and broke in pieces the rocks before the Lord God of hosts; but the Lord God was not in the wind: and after the wind an earthquake; but the Lord God was not in the earthquake:

12 And after the earthquake a fire, but the Lord God was not in the fire: and after the fire a still small voice.

13 And it was so, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entering in of the caverned holds, there came a voice unto him, and said, What dost thou here, Elijah?

14 And he said, I have been very jealous for the Lord God of hosts: because the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thou hast slain their priests, & slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, even I only am left, and they seek my life to take it away.

15 And the Lord said unto him, Go, return on thy way to the wilderness of Damascus: & when thou comest, anoint Hazael to be king over Syria.

16 And Jezra the sonne of Nimshi shall thou anoint to be king over Israel: and Elisee the sonne of Shaphat of Abel-meholah, shall thou anoint to be prophet in the room.

17 And it shall come to passe, that when thou shalt escape the hand of Hazael, shall Jezra say, and him that escapeth from the hand of Jezra, shall Elisee slay.

18 ¶ Yet I have left me seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed unto Baal, and every mouth which hath not kissed him.

19 ¶ So he departed thence, and found Elisee the sonne of Shaphat, who was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he said the twelve; and Elisee parted by him, and cut his mantle upon him.

20 And he left the oxen, and ran after Elisee, and said, Let me, I pray thee, kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow thee. Thus he said unto him, ¶ Go back againe to the yoke: have I done thee any harm?

21 And he returned back from him, and took a yoke of oxen, and drew them, and boyled their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gave unto the people, and they did eat: then he arose, and went after Elisee, and ministered unto him.

CHAP. XX.

Ben-hadad, not content with Ahab's homage, besieged Samaria.

1 By the assistance of a prophet, the Syrians are slain. 23 And the prophet returned, and Ahab, the Syrians, trusting in the valley, come against him in Apher. 23 By the word of the prophet, and Gods judgement, the Syrians are smitten againe.

24 The Syrians submitting themselves, Ahab humbled himself, and was with a covenant.

25 The prophet smote the king of Syria, making Ahab's sinne himself; denouncing Gods judgement against him.

26 Ben-hadad the king of Syria gathered all his host together, and there were thirtie and two thousand men, and chariots, and he went up and besieged Samaria, and warred against it.

2 And he sent messengers to Ahab king of Israel into the citie, and said unto him, Thus saith Ben-hadad,

3 Thy silver and thy gold is mine, thy wives also and the children, even the goodliest, are mine.

4 And the king of Israel answered and said, My lord O king, according to thy saying, I am thine, and all that I have.

5 And the messengers came againe, and said, Thus saith Ben-hadad, saying, Although I have sent unto thee, saying, Thou shalt deliver me the silver and the gold, and thy wives and the children:

6 Yet I will send my servants unto thee to make rots about their house, and they shall dig their house, and the houses of thy servants; and it shall be, that whatsoever is thine, I will put in their eyes, they shall put it in their hands, and take it away.

7 Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, Behold, I have you, and the gold this man desired, because I have sent unto me for my wives, and for my children, and for my silver, & for my gold, & he hath taken them.

8 And all the elders, and all the people said unto him, Hearken not unto him, nor consent.

9 And he said unto the messengers of Ben-hadad, Tell my lord the king, All that thou hast sent for to thy servant at the field, I will give; but this thing I may not do. And the messengers departed, and humbled him againe.

10 And Ben-hadad and his army, and his chariots, he is into me and mine aide, if the butt of Samaria shall suffice for bandages to all the people that follow me.

11 And the king of Israel answered and said, Tell him, Let not him that is armed by his hand, boast himself, as he that is mighty is.

12 And it came to passe, when Ben-hadad heard this message, (as he was drinking, he and the kings in the pavilions) that he sent unto his servants, I set your selves in array: and they sit themselves in array against the citie.

13 ¶ And he said, Shall I come a prophet unto Ahab king of Israel, saying, Thou shalt live? And then shall all the great multitude of Syria be with him, I will deliver it into thine hand this day, and thou shalt know that I am the Lord God.

14 And Ahab said, By whom? And he said, Thus saith the Lord God, Even by the young men of the princes of the provinces. When he said, what shall I order the hand? And he answered, When I have no strength, and I am old.

15 When the number of the young men of the princes of the provinces, and they there two hundred and thirty thou: and after them be numbers all the people, even all the children of Israel, being thirtie thousand.

16 And they were out at noon: but Ben-hadad was drinking himself drunk in the pavilions: he and the kings, the thirty and three kings that helped him.

17 And the young men of the princes of the provinces went out first, and Ben-hadad sent out, and they told him, saying, There are men come out of Samaria.

18 And he said, And whether they be come out for peace, or for warre, or whether they be come out for treasure, take them alive.

19 So these young men of the princes of the provinces, came out of Samaria, and the army which followed them.

The Syrians twice overthrown. I. Kings. 19:1-35

19:1

19:1 And the Syrians gathered themselves together against Ben-hadad the king of Syria, because he had said, I will be as the Syrians, with the hostmen.

19:2 And the king of Israel went out, and smote the Syrians at the battle of Ramoth, and slew the Syrians with a great slaughter.

19:3 And the prophet came to the king of Israel, and said unto him, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, thou shalt not see thine old age, nor shalt thou dwell in thine house: for thou shalt die by the sword. And the king of Israel will come up against thee.

19:4 And the servants of the king of Syria said unto him, Their gods are gods of the hills; therefore they were stronger than we: but let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they.

19:5 And he said, I will do as thou sayest. And he said unto the king of Israel, Take the kings sons, and every man of the place, and put them in the midst of the camp.

19:6 And morning after an army, like the army of the king of Israel, came to the king of Syria, and he said unto the king of Israel, I will be as the Syrians, with the hostmen. And he said, I will do as thou sayest. And he said unto the king of Israel, Take the kings sons, and every man of the place, and put them in the midst of the camp.

19:7 And he said, I will do as thou sayest. And he said unto the king of Israel, Take the kings sons, and every man of the place, and put them in the midst of the camp.

19:8 And he said, I will do as thou sayest. And he said unto the king of Israel, Take the kings sons, and every man of the place, and put them in the midst of the camp.

19:9 And he said, I will do as thou sayest. And he said unto the king of Israel, Take the kings sons, and every man of the place, and put them in the midst of the camp.

19:10 And he said, I will do as thou sayest. And he said unto the king of Israel, Take the kings sons, and every man of the place, and put them in the midst of the camp.

19:11 And he said, I will do as thou sayest. And he said unto the king of Israel, Take the kings sons, and every man of the place, and put them in the midst of the camp.

19:12 And he said, I will do as thou sayest. And he said unto the king of Israel, Take the kings sons, and every man of the place, and put them in the midst of the camp.

19:13 And he said, I will do as thou sayest. And he said unto the king of Israel, Take the kings sons, and every man of the place, and put them in the midst of the camp.

19:14 And he said, I will do as thou sayest. And he said unto the king of Israel, Take the kings sons, and every man of the place, and put them in the midst of the camp.

7 And Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the Lord, as we desire, that we might enquire of him?

8 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man (whom the tomes of Israel) by whom we may enquire of the Lord: but I hate him, for he hath not prophesied good concerning me, but evil. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the thing say so.

12 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and overthrow: for the Lord shall deliver it into the hands of the king.

13 And the messenger that was gone to call Micaiah, spake unto him, saying, Behold now, the words of the prophets declare good unto the king: and we are ready to say the word, I pray thee, be also one of them, and speak that which is good.

14 And Micaiah said, As the Lord shall live, what the Lord shall say unto me, that will I speak.

15 ¶ So he came to the king, and the king said unto him, Obadiah: Shall we go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, as thou hast said? And he answered him, Go, and prosper: for the LORD is with thee, and he will deliver it into the hands of the king.

16 And the king said unto him, How many times shall I assure thee, that thou tell me nothing but that which is true, in the name of the LORD?

17 And he said, I saw all Israel scattered upon the hills, as sheep that have not a shepherd. And the LORD said, There shall be no master, let them return every man to his house in peace.

18 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee, that he would prophesy no good concerning me, but evil?

19 And he said, Hear thou therefore the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing by him, on his right hand and on his left.

¶ Or, deceive.

20 And the LORD said, Who shall I persuade Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one said on this manner, and another said on that manner.

21 And there came forth a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will persuade him.

22 And the LORD said unto him, Where-fore? And he said, I will go forth, and I will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he said, Thou shalt persuade him, and prevail also: go forth, and do so.

27 And say, Thus saith the king, But this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction, and with water of affliction, until I come in peace.

28 And Obadiah said, If thou return at all in peace, the LORD hath not spoken by me. And he said, Hearken, O people, every one of you.

29 So the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, went up to Ramoth-gilead.

31 But the king of Syria commanded his thirty and two captains that had rule over his chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, save onely with the king of Israel.

32 And it came to passe, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, Surely it is the king of Israel. And they turned aside to fight against him: and Jehoshaphat cried out.

33 And it came to passe, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him.

35 And the battell increased that day: and the king was stayed up in his chariot against the Syrians, and died at even: and the blood ran out of the wound, into the midst of the chariot.

36 And there went a proclamation throughout the host, about the going down of the sunne, saying, Every man to his citie, and every man to his own country.

37 So the king died, and was brought to Samaria, and they buried the king in Samaria.

38 And one washed the chariot in the pool of Samaria, and the dogs licked up his blood, and they washed his armour, according unto the word of the LORD which he spake.

39 Now the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and the towrie house which he made, and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

40 So Ahab slept with his fathers, and Ahaziah his sonne reigned in his stead.

41 ¶ And Jehoshaphat the sonne of Aha began to reigne over Judah in the fourth years of Ahab king of Israel.

42 Jehoshaphat was thirty and five yeeres old when he began to reigne, and he reigned twenty and five yeeres in Jerusalem: and his mothers name was Athaliah the daughter of Achish.

43 And he walked in all the wayes of Aha his father, he turned not aside from it, doing that which was right in the eyes of the LORD: nevertheless, the high places were not taken away: for the people offered and burnt incense yet in the high places.

44 And Jehoshaphat made peace with the king of Israel.

45 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his might that he shewed, and how he warred, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

46 And the remnant of the Sodomites which remained in the dayes of his father Aha, he took out of the land.

47 There was then no king in Edom: a Damite was king.

48 Jehoshaphat made ships of Tharshish to go to Ophir for gold: but they went not, for the ships were broken at Ezion-gaber.

49 Then said Ahaziah the sonne of Ahab unto Jehoshaphat, Let my servants go with thy servants in the ships: but Jehoshaphat would not.

50 ¶ And Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the citie of David his father: and Jehoram his sonne reigned in his stead.

51 ¶ Ahaziah the sonne of Ahab began to reigne over Israel in Samaria the sevenieth yeare of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned two yeeres over Israel.

52 And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat, who made Israel to sinne.

17 Again also he sent unto him another captain of fifty, with his fifty: and he answered and said unto him, O man of God, thus hath the king said. Come down quickly.

12 And Elijah answered and said unto them, If I be a man of God, let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy city. And the fire of God came down from heaven, and consumed him and his city.

12. ¶ And he sent again a captain of the third fifty, with his fifty: and the third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Hob, bowed. Uliash, and brought him, and laid unto him, O man of God, I pray thee, let my life, and the life of these fifty thy servants be precious in the sight.

14 Behold, there came fire down from heaven, and burnt up the two captains of the former fifties, with their fifties : therefore let my life now be precious in thy sight.

15 And the angel of the Lord said unto Eljah, Go down with him, be not afraid of him. And he arose, and went down with him unto the king.

16 And he said unto him, Thus saith the Lord, Forasmuch as thou hast sent messengers to enquire of Baalzebub the god of Chron (is it not because there is no God in Israel to enquire of his word?) therefore thou shalt not come down off that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die.

17 So he died according to the word of the LORD which Elijah had spoken: and Jehoram reigned in his stead, in the second year of Jehoram the sonne of Jehoshaphat king of Judah: because he had no sonne.

18 Now the rest of the acts of Abijah which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

CHAP. II.

1. Elijah taking his leave of Elisa, with his mantle divided Jordan: 9 and granting Elisa his request, is taken up by a fiery chariot into heaven, 12 Elisha, dividing Jordan with Elijah's mantle, is acknowledged his successor, 16 The young prophet, hardly obtaining leave to seek Elijah, could not find him, 19 Elisha with salt healeth the whole some waters, 23 Beast destroy the children: thus mocked Elisha.

AND it came to passe when the Lord would take up Elijah into heaven by a whirlwinde, that Elijah went with Eliza from Gilgal.

2 And Eliah said unto Eliza, Carry here, I pray thee; for the Lord hath sent me to Beth-el. And Eliza said unto him, As the Lord saith, liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they went down to Beth-el.

3 And the sonnes of the prophets that were at Beth-el, came forth to Elisha, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the king will take away thy master from thy head to day? And he said, Yea, I know it, hold your peace.

4 And Elishah said unto him, Witha. Carry here, I pray thee: for the LORD hath sent me to Jericho. And he said, As the LORD wisheth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they came to Jericho.

¶ And the names of the prophets that were at Jericho, came to Gilgal, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Lord will take away thy iniquity from thy head to day? And he answered, Yea, I know it, hold you your peace.

6- And I just laid into you, Harry, I may to passe when the minstrell played, that the hand of the Lord came upon him.

16 And he said, Thus saith the Lord, Behold this valley full of ditches.

17 For thus saith the Lord, Ye shall not see winter, neither shall ye see rain; yet this valley shall be filled with water, that ye may drink, both ye, and your cattell, and your beasts.

18 And this is but a light thing in the sight of the Lord, he will deliver the Moabites also into your hand.

19 And ye shall smite every fenced city, and every choice city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop all wells of water, and ye shall have every good piece of land with stones.

20 And it came to passe in the morning when the mat-offering was offered, that behold, there came water by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water.

21 And when all the Moabites heard that the kings were come up to fight against them, they gathered all that were able to put on armour, and upward, and stood in the border.

22 And they rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone upon the water, and the Moabites saw the water on the other side as red as blood.

23 And they said, This is blood: the kings are surely slain, and they have smitten one another: now therefore stand to the spoil.

24 And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up, and smote the Moabites, so that they died before them: but they went forward smiting the Moabites, even in their country.

25 And they beat down the cities, and on every good piece of land cast every man his stone, and filled it, and they stopped all the wells of water, and felled all the good trees: only in Kir-harasth left they the stones thereof: but betwixt the fingers went about it, and smote it.

26 And when the king of Moab saw that the battell was too sore for him, he took with him seven hundred men that drew swords, to break through even unto the king of Edom: but they could not.

27 Then he took his eldest sonne that should have reigned in his stead, and offered him for a burnt-offering upon the wall: and there was great indignation against Israel: and they departed from him, and returned to their own land.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Elisha multiplieth the widows oyl. 8 He giveth a sonne to the good Shunammite. 18 He raiseth again her dead sonne. 38 At Gilead he healeth the dead by portage. 42 He satisfieth an hundred men with twenty loaves.

NOW there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sonnes of the prophets unto Elisha, saying, Thy servant my husband is dead, and thou knowest that thy servant did fear the Lord: and the creditor is come to take unto him my five sonnes to be bond-men.

2 And Elisha said unto her, What shall I do for thee? tell me, what hast thou in the house? And she said, Thine handmaid hath not any thing in the house, save a pot of oyl.

3 Then he said, Go borrow seven vessels abroad of all thy neighbours, even empty vessels, I beseech thee not a feyn.

4 And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the doore upon thee, and upon the sonnes, and shalt pour out into all those vessels, and thou shalt see that which is full.

5 So she went from him, and shut the doore upon her, and upon her sonnes, who brought the vessels to her, and she poured out.

6 And it came to passe when the vessels were full, that she said unto her sonnes, Bring me yet a vessel. And he said unto her, There is not a vessel more. And the oyl stayed.

7 Then the came and told the man of God: and he said, Go, sell the oyl, and pay thy debt.

8 And it fell on a day, that Elisha passed to Shunem, where was a great woman; and she constrained him to eat bread. And so it was, that as oft as he passed by, he turned in thither to eat bread.

9 And she said unto her husband, Behold now, I perceive that this is an holy man of God, whither he passeth by us continually.

10 Let us make a little chamber, I pray thee, on the wall, and let us set for him there a bed, and a table, and a stool, and a candlestick: and it shall be when he cometh to us, that he shall turn in thither.

11 And it fell on a day that he came thither, and he turned into the chamber, and lay there.

12 And he said to Gehazi his servant, Call this Shunammite. And when he had called her, she stood before him.

13 And he said unto him, Say now unto her, Behold, thou hast been careful for us with all this care: what is to be done for thee? wouldst thou be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the host? And she answered, I dwell among mine own people.

14 And he said, What then is to be done for her? And Gehazi answered, Surely she hath no child, and her husband is old.

15 And he said, Call her. And when he had called her, she stood in the doore.

16 And he said, About this season, according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a sonne. And she said, Nay, my lord, thou man of God, do not let unto thine handmaid.

17 And the woman conceived, and bare a son at that season that Elisha had said unto her, according to the time of life.

18 And when the child was grown, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father to the reapers.

19 And he said unto his father, My head, my head. And he said to a lad, Carry him to his mother.

20 And when he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees and wept, and then he died.

21 And he went up, and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the doore upon him, and went out.

22 And she called unto her husband and said, Send me, I pray thee, one of the young men, and one of the asses, that I may run to the man of God, and come again.

23 And he said, Wherefore wilt thou go to him to day? it is neither new moon, nor sabbath. And she said, It shall be as I will.

24 Then she sadden an ass, and laid to her servants, Drive, and go forward: I slack not thy riding for me, except I bid thee.

25 So she went, and came unto the man of God to mount Carmel: and it came to passe when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to Gehazi his servant, Behold, yonder is that Shunammite.

He grieve.

They were cried together. He, girl himself with a guide. He destroyed.

23 Then she said, Did I desire a friend of my lord? did I not say, Do not deceive me?

29 Then he said to Christ, Give up thy love, and take my staff in thine hand, and go thy ways:

33 He went in therefore, and shut the doors herbs, and found a willing hire, and gathered thereof willing gourds his pay-fall, and came and 41 Burde said, Then being mentioned he cast it into the pot; and he said, Boile out for the people, that they may eat: and there was no harm in the meat.

22. And there came a man from Baalpeor, and brought the man of God bread of the first fruits, twenty loaves of barley, and full ears of wheat, in the bush thereof; and he said, Give unto the people, that they may eat.

And his disciples said, "Where, Master, shall we go to buy an hundred more of these oxen, since the people, that they may eat: for they said that it is a law, 'Thou shalt eat, with thall have thereof.'"

44 So he sat it before them, and they did eat, and left thereof, according to the word of the LORD.

CHAP. V.

1 Naaman, by the waters of a captive maid, is sent to Samaria to be cured of his leprosy. 8 Elisha sending him to Jordan, cures him. 15 He refusing Naaman's gifts, granteth him some of the earth.
20 Gehazi, abusing his masters name unto Na-man, is smitten with leprosy.

NOW HANNAN captain of the host of the king of Syria, was a great man & much to be feared, and it was honourable, because by him the king had given deliverance unto Syria: he was also a mighty man in valour, but he was a heathen.

2 And the Syrians hang out by companies, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maid, and she waited on Naamans wife.

3 And he said unto her mistress, Would God my lord were with the prophet that is in Samaria: for he would recover him of his lapproke.

Thus and thus said the maid that is of the land of Israel.

5 And the king of Syria said, Go to, go, and I will send a letter unto the king of Israel. And he departed, and took with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand pieces of gold, and ten changes of raiment.

6 And he brought the letter to the king of Hinnel, saying, Now when this letter is come unto thee, behold, I have therewith sent Baanani my servant to thee, that thou mayest recover him of his leprosie.

7 And it came to pass when the king of Tyre had read the letter, that he sent his clothes, and said, Am I God, to kill and to make alive; that this man hath sent unto me to recover a man of his lapidation? therefore consider, I pray you, and see how he seeketh a quarrell against me.

8 ¶ And it was so, when Elhanan the man of God had heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a power in me.

9 So Naaman came with his horses, and with his chariot, and stood at the doors of the house of Eliseus.

10 And Abimelech sent a messenger unto him, saying, Go and wash in Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come again unto thee, and thou shalt be clean.

11 But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and said, Behold, ¶ I thought, He will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of the Lord his God, and stretch his hand over the place, and recover the leprose.

12. Are not Abana and Parphoz, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? may I not walk in them and be clean? So he turned, and went away in a rage.

13. Then servants came near, and make unto him, and said, thy father, if he knoweth that thou do these things, wouldst thou not have some it? how much rather then, when he faith of thee, shall thou be clean?

14. Then went he home, and digged himself up three times in Jordan, according to the saying of the men of Dan: and he did this every year.

21 And he prepared great provision for them: and when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master: so the bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel.

22 And it came to pass after this, that Ben-hadad king of Syria, gathered all his host, and went up, and besieged Samaria.

23 And there was a great famine in Samaria: and behold, they besieged it, until an asses head was sold for foure score pieces of silver, and the fourth part of a hab of doves dung for five pieces of silver.

24 And as the king of Israel was passing by upon the wall, there cried a woman unto him, saying, Help, my lord O king.

¶ Or, let not the LORD
save thee.

25 And he said, If the LORD so will, he will help thee, because I will help thee out of the battlements, or out of the tower.

27 So we boiled my sonne, and did eat him: and I said unto her on the next day, Give thy sonne, that we may eat him: and she hath hid her sonne.

28 And it came to pass when the king heard the words of the woman, that he rent his clothes, and he passed by upon the wall, and the people looked, and behold, he had sack-cloth within, upon his head.

29 Then he said, God do so and more also to me, if the head of Elisha the sonne of Shaphat, shall stand on him this day.

30 But Elisha sat in his house (and the elders sat with him) and the king sent a man from before him: but ere the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, See ye how this sonne of a manerer hath sent to take away mine head? Look when the messenger cometh, that the doore, and hold him fast at the doore: is not the sound of his masters feet behind him?

31 And while he yet talked with them, behold, the messenger came down unto him: and he said, Behold, this call is of the LORD, what should I wait for? the LORD so will longer?

CHAP. VII.

1 Elisha propheseth incredible plenty in Samaria.

2 Foure lepers venturing on the host of the Syrians, bring tidings of their flight. 3 The king finding by proof the words to be true, spoileth the tents of the Syrians. 4 The lord who would not believe the prophesies of plenty, having the charge of the gate, is troden to death in the presse.

Then Elisha said, Deare ye the words of the LORD. Thus said the LORD, To morrow about this time shall a measure of fine flour be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria.

¶ Heb. a lord

2 Then a lord on whose hand the king leaned, entered the man of God and said, Behold, if the LORD so will, we will make windows in heaven, might this thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eat thereof.

3 And there were foure leprous men at the entering in of the gate: & they said one to another, What do we here until we die?

4 If we say, We will enter into the cite, then the famine is in the cite, and we shall die there: and if we sit still here, we die also. Now therefore come, and let us fall unto the host of the Syrians: if they take us alive, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall but die.

5 And they rose up in the twilight, to go unto the camp of the Syrians: and when they were come to the uttermost part of the camp of Syria, behold, there was no man there.

6 For the LORD so had made the host of the Syrians to leave a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great host: and they said one to another, Lo, the king of Israel hath hired against us the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us.

7 Wherefore they arose and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, even the camp as it was, and fled for their life.

8 And when these lepers came to the uttermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and did eat and drink, and carried thence silver, and gold, and raiment, and went and hid it: and came again, and entered into another tent, and carried thence also, and went and hid it.

9 Then they said one to another, We do not well: this day is a day of good things, and we hold our peace: if we carry till the morning light, some mischief will come upon us: now therefore come, that we may go and tell the kings house-hold.

10 So they came, and called unto the porter of the cite: and they told them, saying, Behold, we came to the camp of the Syrians, and behold, there was no man there, neither voice of man, but horses tied, and asses tied, and the tents as they were.

11 And he called the porters, and they told it to the kings house-hold.

12 And the king arose in the night, and said unto his servants, I will now go to see what the Syrians have done to us: they know that we be hungry; therefore are they come out of the camp, to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out of the cite, we shall catch them alive, and get into the cite.

13 And one of his servants answered and said, Let some take, I pray thee, five of the horses that remain, which are left in the cite: behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel that are left in it: behold, I say, they are even as all the multitude of the Israelites that are consumed: and let us send and see.

14 They took therefore two chariot-horses, and the king sent after the host of the Syrians, saying, Go and see.

15 And they went after them unto Jordan, and lo, all the way was full of garments and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their haste: and the messengers returned and told the king.

16 And the people went out, and spoiled the tents of the Syrians. So a measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, according to the word of the LORD.

17 And the king appointed the lord on whose hand he leaned, to have the charge of the gate: and the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died, as the man of God had said, who spake when the king came down to him.

18 And it came to pass as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, Two measures of barley for a shekel, and a measure of fine flour for a shekel, shall be to morrow about this time in the gate of Samaria:

1 The Shunammite, having left her country seven years, to avoid the forewarned famine, for Eliza's miracle she hath her land restored by the king, 7 Hazael being sent with a present by Benadabro Elisha as Damascus, after he had heard the prophesie, killeth his master, and succeedeth him. 16 Jehorams wicked reigne in Judah, 20 Edom and Libnah revolt. 23 Ahab'siah succeedeth Jehoram, 25 Ahab'siah wicked reigne, 28 He wisteth Jehoram wounded at Jezreel.

(Chap. 4-5)

When Hazael came unto the woman, (whose sonne he had restored to life) saying, Arise, and go thou and thine household, and sojourn wheresoever thou canst sojourn: for the L. is so hath called for a famine, and it shall also come upon the land seven years.

2 And the woman wept, and bid after the saying of the man of God: and she went with her household, and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven years.

3 And it came to passe at the seven yeares end, that the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines: and she went forth to cry unto the king for her house, and for her land.

4 And the king talked with Gehazi the servant of the man of God, saying, Tell me, I pray thee, all the great things that Elisha hath done.

5 And it came to passe as he was telling the king how he had restored a dead boy to life, that behold, the woman whose sonne he had restored to life, cried to the king for her house, & for her land. And Gehazi said, My lord O king, this is the woman, and this is her sonne, whom Elisha restored to life.

6 And when the king asked the woman, he told him, So the king appointed unto her a certain officer, saying, Receive all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field, since the day that he left the land, even till now.

7 And Elisha came unto Damascus, and Benhadad the king of Syria was sick, and it was told him, saying, The man of God is come hither.

8 And the king said unto Hazael, Take a present in thine hand, and go meet the man of God, and enquire of the L. on his behalf, saying, Shall I recover of this disease?

9 So Hazael went to meet him, and took a present with him, even of every good thing of Damascus, forty camels burden, and came & stood before him, and said, The sonne Benhadad king of Syria hath sent me to thee, saying, Shall I recover of this disease?

10 And Elisha said unto him, Go, say unto him, Thou shalt certainly recover: howbeit, for the L. is so hath shewed me, that he shall surely die.

11 And he sciled his countenance & steadfastly, until he was ashamed: and the man of God wept.

12 And Hazael said, Am I weepeth my lord? And he answered, Because I know the evil that thou wilt do unto the children of Israel: their strong holds wilt thou set on fire, and their young men wilt thou slay, with the sword, and wilt dash their children, & up up their women with child.

13 And Hazael said, But what is thy servant's dog that he should do the great thing? And the king answered, The L. hath shewed me that thou shalt be king over Syria.

14 So he departed from Elisha, and came to his master, who said to him, What said Elisha to thee? And he answered, He told me that thou shouldst surely recover.

15 And it came to passe on the morrow, that he took a thick cloth, and dyed it in water, and spread it on his face, so that he died: and Hazael reigned in his stead.

16 And in the third yeare of Joash the sonne of Ahaz king of Israel, Jehoahaz being then king of Judah, Jehoahaz the sonne of Jehoahaz king of Judah began to reign.

17 Thirty and two yeares old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned eight yeares in Jerusalem.

18 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab: for the daughter of Ahab was his wife, and he did evil in the sight of the L. so as to.

19 Yet the L. was not desirous to destroy Judah, for David his servants sake, as he promised him to give him always a light, and to his children.

20 In his dayes Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves.

21 So Joash went over to Jazir, and all the chariots with him, and he rose by night and smote the Edomites which compassed him about: and the captains of the chariots, and the people flew into their tents.

22 Yet Edom rebelled from under the hand of Joash unto this day. When Ahab'siah reentered at the same time.

23 And the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

24 And Joash slept with his fathers, & was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and Ahab'siah his sonne reigned in his stead.

25 In the thirtieth yeare of Joash the sonne of Ahaz king of Israel, Ahab'siah the sonne of Jehoahaz king of Judah began to reign.

26 Two and twenty yeares old was Ahab'siah when he began to reign, & he reigned one yeare in Jerusalem: and his mothers name was Jehosiah, the daughter of Ahab king of Israel.

27 And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did evil in the sight of the L. so as to, as did the house of Ahab: for he was the sonne in law of the house of Ahab.

28 And he went with Joash the sonne of Ahab, to the warre against Hazael king of Syria in Ramoth-gilead, and the Syrians wounded Joash.

29 And king Joash went back to be healed in Jezreel, of the wound which the Syrians had given him at Ramoth, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria: and Ahab'siah the sonne of Jehoahaz king of Judah, went with him to see Joash the sonne of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

1 Jehu by his letters causeth seventy of Abahs children to be beheaded. 2 He executeth the task by the prophesie of Elijah. 3 At the hearing-house he slayeth two and forty of Abahs brethren. 15 He taketh Jehonadab into his camp any. 16 By subtilty he destroyeth all the worshippers of Baal. 29 Jehu taketh Jehoshaphat kinges. 32 Hachab oppresseth Israel. 34 Jehoaah succedeth Jehu.

And Abah had seventy sonnes in Samaria: and Jehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria, unto the rulers of Israel, to the elders, and to them that brought up Abahs children, saying,

2 Now as soon as this letter cometh to you, slaying your masters sonnes are with you, and there are with you chariots and horses, a fenced city also, and armour:

3 Look then out the best and most of your masters sonnes, & set him on his fathers throne, and fight for your masters house.

4 But they were exceeding afraid, and said, Behold, two kings stood not before him: how then shall we stand?

5 And he that was over the house, and he that was over the city, the elders also, and the hangings up of the children, sent to Jehu, saying, We are thy servants, and will do all that thou shalt bid us, we will not make any king: do thou that which is good in thine eyes.

6 Then he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, If ye be of mine, & if ye will hearken unto my voice, take ye the heads of the men your masters sonnes, and come to me to Jezreel by to morrow this time: (now the kings sonnes being seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, which brought them up)

7 And it came to passe when the letter came to them, that they took the kings sonnes, and slew seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent him them to Jezreel.

8 And there came a messenger, and told him, saying, They have brought the heads of the kings sonnes. And he said, Lay ye them in two heaps at the entering in of the gate, until the morning.

9 And it came to passe in the morning, that he went out, and stood in plain to all the people. He be righteous: behold, I conspirer against my master, and slain him: but who shall stand with me?

10 Know now, that there shall fall upon the earth nothing of the blood of the L. O. M. which the L. O. M. hath concerning the house of Abah: for the L. O. M. hath now that which he spake: & by his servant Elijah.

11 Now Jehu slew all that remained of the house of Abah in Jezreel, and all his great men, and his kindred, and his priests, until he left him none remaining.

12 And he arose, and departed, and came to Samaria: and as he was at the hearing-house in the way, 13 That met with the brethren of Abah king of Judah, and said, What are ye? And they answered, We are the brethren of Abah, and we go down to slay the children of the king, and the children of the queen.

14 And he said, Take them alive. And they took them alive, and slew them at the pit of the hearing-house, even the flow and fowling men, neither left he any of them.

15 And when he was departed, he left all that remained of the house of Abah, coming to meet him, and he slew them, and sent to him, to slay them, as my heart is with thy heart, and Jehonadab and Jeroboam. It is, it is, give me mine head: and he gave him his hand, and he took him up to him into the chariot.

16 And he said, Come with me, and the my seal for the L. O. M. to slay him: and he took him into his chariot.

17 And when he came to Samaria, he slew all that remained of the house of Abah, and he slew him, according to the saying of the L. O. M., which he gave to Elijah.

18 And Jehu gathered all the people together, and said unto them, Abah served Baal a little, but Jehu shall serve Yahweh.

19 Now therefore call unto me all the prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests, let none be wanting: for I have a great sacrifice to do to Baal: whosoever shall be wanting, he shall not live. But Jehu did it in subtilty, to the intent that he might destroy the worshippers of Baal.

20 And Jehu said, & Jezebel & all the prophets of Baal, and they perished.

21 And Jehu sent through all Israel, and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left that came not: and they came into the house of Baal, and the house of Baal was full from one end to another.

22 And he said unto him that was over the city, Bring forth vestments for all the worshippers of Baal. And he brought them forth vestments.

23 And Jehu went, and Jehonadab the son of Rechab, into the house of Baal, and said unto the worshippers of Baal, Search, and look that there be here with you none of the servants of the L. O. M., but the worshippers of Baal only.

24 And when they went in to offer sacrifices, and burnt offerings, Jehu appointed fourscore men without, and said, If any of the men whom I have brought into your hands escape, he that seeth him, go: his life shall be for the life of him.

25 And it came to passe as he had made an end of offering the burnt offerings, that Jehu said to the guards, and to the captains, Go in, and slay them, let none come forth. And they smote them with the edge of the sword, and the guard & Hachab, and the captains call them out, and went to the mouth of the house of Baal.

26 And they brought forth the images out of the house of Baal, and burnt them.

27 And they broke down the image of Baal, and hewed down the house of Baal, and made it a draught-house unto this day.

28 Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.

29 And Jehu departed from the house of Jehonadab, the son of Rechab, who made Israel to think, Jehu departed not from after them, to wit, the golden calves that were in Beth-el, and that were in Dan.

30 And the L. O. M. said unto Jehu, Because thou hast done well in executing that which is right in mine eyes, and hast done unto the house of Abah according to all that was in mine heart, the children of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel.

31 But Jehu took no heed to walk in the law of the L. O. M. God of Israel, with all his heart: for he departed not from the sinnes of Jeroboam, which made Israel to sin.

28 When she said, I desire a favour of thy lord: and he said, Do not desire me.

29 Then he said to Gehazi, Stand up thy sword, and take my sword in thine hand, and go thy way: if thou meet any man, salute him not: and if any salute thee, salute him not again: and lay my staff upon the face of the child.

30 Gehazi's mother of the child said, As the L. O. M. liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And he arose, and followed her.

32 And when Gehazi was come into the house, behold, the child was dead, and laid upon his side.

33 He went in therefore, and shut the door upon them twain, and prayen unto the L. O. M.

37 When he went in, and fell at his feet, and bowed her self to the ground, and took up her staff, and went out.

38 And Gehazi came again to Gehazi, and there was a death in the house, and the fumes of the prophets were rising before him: and he said unto his servants, Set on the great pot, and seethe pottage for the fumes of the prophets.

39 And out went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered thereof wild gourds his lap full, and came and shew them into the pot of pottage: for they knew not thereof.

40 So they poured out for the men to eat: and it came to pass as they were eating of the pottage, that they cried out, and said, O man of God, there is death in the pot: and they could not eat thereof.

CHAP. V.

1 Naaman, by the report of a captive maid, is sent to Samaria to be cured of his leprosy. 8 Elisha sending him to Jordan, cures him. 15 He refusing Naaman's gifts, grants him some of the cart. 20 Gehazi, abusing his masters name unto Naaman, is smitten with leprosy.

Now Naaman captain of the host of the king of Syria, was a great man: and with his master, and it was honourable, because by him the L. O. M. had given deliverance unto Syria: he was also a mighty man in valour: but he was a leper.

4 And one went in, and told his lord, saying, Thus and thus said the maid that is of the land of Israel.

5 And the king of Syria said, Go to, go, and I will send a letter unto the king of Israel: and he departed, and took with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand pieces of gold, and ten hand changes of garment.

6 And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, Now when this letter is come unto thee, behold, I have therewith sent Naaman my servant to thee, that thou mayest recover him of his leprosy.

7 And it came to pass when the king of Israel had read the letter, that he rent his clothes, and said, Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man should send unto me to recover a man of his leprosy? wherefore consider, I pray you, and let the bows be loosed against him.

8 And it was so, when Elisha the man of God had heard that the king of Israel had sent his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel.

9 So Naaman came with his horses, and with his chariot, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha.

10 And Elisha sent a messenger unto him, saying, Go and wash in Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come again unto thee, and thou shalt be clean.

11 But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and said, I thought, I should have stood before the L. O. M. his God, and that I should have washed over the altar, and recover the leper.

13 And his servants came near, and said, Unto him, and said, My father, if the prophet has bid thee do some great thing, wouldst thou not have done it? how much rather then, when he says to thee, Wash, and be clean?

14 Then went he down, and dipped himself seven times in Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God: and his flesh came again unto him.

21 And he prepared great provision for them: and when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master: so the bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel.

22 And it came to pass after this, that Ben-hadad king of Syria, gathered all his host, and went up, and besieged Samaria.

23 And there was a great famine in Samaria: and behold, they besieged it, until an asses head was sold for five fourlings, and the fourth part of a hab of doves was sold for five pieces of silver.

24 And as the king of Israel was passing by upon the wall, there cried a woman unto him, saying, Help, my lord O king.

25 And he said, If the LORD do, I will help thee, whensoever I shall see thee out of the battlements, or out of the wine-press.

26 And the king said unto her, What ailerth thee? And she answered, This woman said unto me, Give thy sonne, that we may eat him to day, and we will eat my sonne to morrow.

27 So she layed my sonne, and did eat him: and I said unto her on the next day, Give thy sonne, that we may eat him: and she hath hid her sonne.

28 And it came to pass when the king heard the words of the woman, that he rent his clothes, and he passed by upon the wall, and the people looked, and behold, he had sack-cloth within, upon his flesh.

29 Then he said, God do so and more also to me, if the head of Elisha the sonne of Shaphat, shall stand on him this day.

30 But Elisha sat in his house (and the elders sat with him) and the king sent a man from before him: but ere the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, See ye how this sonne of a murderer hath sent to take away mine head: look when the messenger cometh, shut the doore, and bid him wait at the doore: is not the sound of his matters feet behinde him?

31 And while he yet talked with them, behold, the messenger came down unto him: and he said, Behold, this call is of the LORD, what should I wait for? the LORD is to any longer?

CHAP. VII.

1 Elia propheseth incredible plenty in Samaria.

2 Four lepers venturing on the host of the Syrians, bring tidings of their flight. 3 The king finding by spies the news to be true, spoileth the tents of the Syrians. 4 The lord who would not believe the prophesies of plenty, having the charge of the gate, is troden to death in the presse.

Then Elia said, Hear ye the word of the LORD. Thus saith the LORD, O ye men of Samaria, about this time shall a measure of fine flour be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria.

Then a lord on whose hand the king leaned, enticed the man of God and said, Behold, if the LORD do, we will make windows in heaven, might be this thing? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eat thereof.

And there were four leprous men at the entering in of the gate: & they said one to another, Let us be as we here until we die.

4 And he said, We will enter into the cite, then the famine is in the cite, and we shall die there: and if we sit still here, we die also. Now therefore come, and let us fall unto the host of the Syrians: if they find us alive, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall but die.

5 And they rose up in the twilight, to go unto the camp of the Syrians: and when they were come to the uttermost part of the camp of Syria, behold, there was no man there.

6 For the LORD had made the host of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great host: and they said one to another, Lo, the king of Israel hath hired against us the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us.

7 And therefore they arose and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, even the camp as it was, and fled for their life.

8 And when these lepers came to the uttermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and did eat and drink, and carried thence silver, and gold, and raiment, and went and hid it; and came again, and entered into another tent, and carried thence also, and went and hid it.

9 Then they said one to another, We do not well: this day is a day of good things, and we hold our peace: if we carry till the morning light, some mischief will come upon us: now therefore come, that we may go and tell the kings house.

10 So they came, and called unto the porter of the cite: and they told them, saying, Gate came to the camp of the Syrians, and behold, there was no man there, neither voice of man, but horses tied, and asses tied, and the tents as they were.

11 And he called the porters, and they told it to the kings house within.

12 And the king arose in the night, and said unto his servants, I will now show you what the Syrians have done to us: they know that we be hungry; therefore are they gone out of the camp, to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out of the cite, we shall catch them alive, and get into the cite.

13 And one of his servants answered and said, Let some take, I pray thee, five of the horses that remain, which are left in the cite: (behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel that are left in it: behold, I say, they are even as all the multitude of the Hittites that are consumed) and let us send and see.

14 They took therefore two chariot-horses, and the king sent after the host of the Syrians, saying, Go and see.

15 And they went after them unto Jordan, and lo, all the way was full of garments and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their haste: and the messengers returned and told the king.

16 And the people went out, and spoiled the tents of the Syrians. So a measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, according to the word of the LORD.

17 And the king appointed the lord on whose hand he leaned, to have the charge of the gate: and the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died, as the man of God had said, who spake when the king came down to him.

18 And it came to pass as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, Two measures of barley for a shekel, and a measure of fine flour for a shekel, shall be to morrow about this time in the gate of Samaria:

19 And that lord answered the man of God and said, Now behold, if the LORD do, we will make windows.

1 The Shunammite, having left her country seven years, to avoid the forewarned famine, for Elia's miracle, shee hath her land restored by the king, 7 Hee being sent with a present by Ben-hadad to Elisba at Damascus, after he had heard the prophesie, killeth her master, and succeedeth him. 16 Jehorams wicked reigne in Judah, 20 Edom and Libnah revolt. 23 Ahaziah succeedeth Jehoram, 25 Ahaziah's wicked reigne, 28 He visiteth Jehoram wounded at Jezreel.

* Chap. 4. 25.

When Eliah came unto the woman, (whose sonne he had restored to life) saying, Arise, and go thou and thine household, and sojourn wheresoever thou shalt sojourn: for the L. o. n. o. hath called for a famine, and it shall also come upon the land seven yeares.

3 And the woman arose, and did after the saying of the man of God: and she went with her household, and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven yeares.

3 And it came to passe at the seven yeares end, that the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines: and she went forth to cry unto the king for her house, and for her land.

4 And the king talked with Gehazi the servant of the man of God, saying, Tell me, I pray thee, all the great things that Elisba hath done.

5 And it came to passe as he was telling the king how he had restored a dead boy to life, that behold, the woman whose sonne he had restored to life, cried to the king for her house, & for her land. And Gehazi said, My lord D. king, this is the woman, and this is her sonne, whom Elisba restored to life.

6 And when the king asked the woman, she told him, So the king appointed unto her a certain officer, saying, Receive all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field, since the day that she left the land, even till now.

7 ¶ And Elisba came to Damascus, and Ben-hadad the king of Syria was sick, and it was told him, saying, The man of God is come thither.

8 And the king said unto Hazael, Take a present in thine hand, and go meet the man of God, and enquire of the L. o. n. o. by him, saying, Shall I recover of this disease?

9 So Hazael went to meet him, and took a present with him, even of every good thing of Damascus, fourty camels burden, and came & stood before him, and said, Thy sonne Ben-hadad king of Syria hath sent me to thee, saying, Shall I recover of this disease?

10 And Elisba said unto him, Go, say unto him, Thou mayest certainly recover: howbeit the L. o. n. o. hath shewed me, that he shall surely die.

11 And he desired his countenance, & stood fast, until he was ashamed: and the man of God wept.

12 And Hazael said, Will he weepeth my lord? And he answered, Because I know the evil that thou wilt do unto the children of Israel: their strong holds wilt thou set on fire, and their young men wilt thou slay, with the sword, and wilt thou destroy their children, & rip up their women with child.

13 And Hazael said, But what is thy servant a dog, that he should do this great thing? And Elia an answered, The L. o. n. o. hath shewed me that thou shalt be king over Syria.

14 So he departed from Elisba, and came to his master, who lay to him, and said unto Elisba to thee? And he answered, He told me that thou shouldst surely recover.

15 And it came to passe on the morrow, that he took a thick cloth, and dight it in water, and (sneak it on his face, so that he died: and Hazael reigned in his stead.

16 ¶ And in the fifth yeare of Joash the sonne of Ahaz king of Israel, Jehoashaphat being then king of Judah, Jehoram the sonne of Jehoashaphat king of Judah, began to reigne.

17 Thirty and two yeares old was he when he began to reigne, and he reigned eight yeares in Jerusalem.

18 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab: for the daughter of Ahab was his wife, and he did evil in the sight of the L. o. n. o.

19 For the L. o. n. o. would not destroy Judah, for David his servants sake, as he promised him to give him alway a light, and to his children.

20 ¶ In his dayes Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves.

21 So Joash went over to Zair, and all the chariots with him, and he rose by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him about: and the captains of the chariots, and the people slew into their tents.

22 For Edom revolted from under the hand of Joash unto this day. Then Joash repaired at the same time.

23 And the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

24 And Joash slept with his fathers, & was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and Ahaziah his sonne reigned in his stead.

25 ¶ In the thirteenth yeare of Joash the sonne of Ahaz king of Israel, and Ahaziah the sonne of Jehoash king of Judah, began to reigne.

26 Two and twenty yeares old was Ahaziah when he began to reigne, & he reigned one yeare in Jerusalem: and his mothers name was Zibiah, the daughter of Beeri king of Israel.

27 And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did evil in the sight of the L. o. n. o., as did the house of Ahab: for he was the sonne in law of the house of Ahab.

28 ¶ And he went with Joash the sonne of Ahab, in the warre against Hazael king of Syria in Ramoth-gilead, and the Syrians wounded Joash.

29 And king Joash went back to be healed in Jezreel, of the woundes which the Syrians had given him at Ramoth, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria: and Ahaziah the sonne of Jehoash king of Judah, went down to see Joash the sonne of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.

CHAP. X.

1 John by his letters causeth seventy of Abahs children to be beheaded. 2 He excuseth the fact by the prophesie of Elijah. 3 At the hearing-house he payeth two and forty of Abahs brethren. 4 He taketh Jehonadab into his company. 5 By subtilty he destroyeth all the worshippers of Baal. 6 John taketh Jeroboam's sonnes. 7 He setteth up a pillar to the memory of the children of Israel. 8 He setteth up a pillar to the memory of the children of Israel. 9 He setteth up a pillar to the memory of the children of Israel. 10 He setteth up a pillar to the memory of the children of Israel.

And Abah had twenty sonnes in Samaria; and John wrote letters, and sent to Samaria, unto the rulers of Jezreel, to the elders, and to them that brought up Abahs children, saying,

1 Now as soon as this letter cometh to you, seeing your masters sonnes are with you, and there are with you chariots and horses, a fenced city also, and armour:

2 Look down on the best and choicest of your masters houses, & set him on his fathers throne, and fight for your masters house.

3 But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, Behold, two kings stand not before him: how then shall we stand?

4 And he that was over the house, and he that was over the city, the elders also, and the husbands of the children, sent to John, saying, We are the servants, and will do all that thou shalt bid us, we will not make any thing: do thou that which is good in thine eyes.

5 Then he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, If ye be of mine, & if ye will hearken unto my voice, take ye the heads of the men your masters sonnes, and come to me to Jezreel by the morning this time: (now the kings sonnes being seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, which brought them up.)

6 And it came to passe when the letter came to them, that they took the kings sonnes, and slew seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent him them to Jezreel.

7 And there came a messenger, and told him, saying, They have brought the heads of the kings sonnes. And he said, Lay ye them in two heaps at the entering in of the gate, until the morning.

8 And it came to passe in the morning, that he went out, and stood, and said to all the people, He be righteous: behold, I condemn against me neither, and slain him: but who shall slay all these?

9 Know now, that there shall fall unto the earth nothing of the words of the Lord, which he spake concerning the house of Abah: for the Lord hath done that which he spake by his servant Elijah.

10 So John slew all that remained of the house of Abah in Jezreel, and all his great men, and his kindred, and his priests, until he left him none remaining.

11 And he and his brethren departed, and came to Samaria: and as he was at the hearing-house in the way, 12 He met with the brethren of Jehonadab king of Judah, and said, Where are ye? And they answered, We are the brethren of Jehonadab, and we go down to slay the children of the king, and the children of the queen.

13 And he said, Take them alive. And they took them alive, and slew them at the pit of the hearing-house, even two and forty men; neither left he any of them.

14 And when he was returning to Samaria, he lighted on Jehonadab the sonne of Rechab, coming to meet him, and he saluted him, and said to him, Is this heart right, as my heart is? And the answer that Jehonadab answered him, is, It is. He gave me these things: and he gave him his hand, and he took him up to him into the chariot.

15 And he said, Come with me, and the way shall be for the Lord, as it is for the Lord, made him rise in his chariot.

16 And when he came to Samaria, he slew all that remained unto Abah in Samaria: but he had destroyed him, according to the saying of the Lord, which he spake to Elijah.

17 And John gathered all the people together, and said unto them, Abah desired Baal a little, but John shall slay him and much.

18 Now therefore call unto me all the prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests, let none be wanting: for I have a great sacrifice to do to Baal: inasmuch as he shall be wanting, he shall not live. But John said it in his heart, in the intent that he might destroy the worshippers of Baal.

19 And John said, & Jehonadab's fellows, all the prophets of Baal, and they prophesied.

20 And John saw through all Israel, and all the worshippers of Baal, in that there was not a man left that came not: and they came into the house of Baal, and the house of Baal was full from one end to another.

21 And he said unto him that was over the treasury, Bring forth vestments for all the worshippers of Baal. And he brought them forth vestments.

22 And John went, and Jehonadab the sonne of Rechab, into the house of Baal, and said unto the worshippers of Baal, Stand, and look that there be here with you none of the servants of the Lord, as it is, but the worshippers of Baal only.

23 And when they went in to offer sacrifices, and burnt offerings, John appointed fourscore men without, and said, If any of the men whom I have brought into your hands escape, he that catcheth him, his life shall be for the life of him.

24 And it came to passe as he had made an end of offering the burnt-offering, that John said to the guards, and to the captains, Go in, and slay them, let none come forth. And they smote them with the edge of the sword, and the guards, & the captains, & the men, and went in the mouth of the city of the house of Baal.

25 And they brought forth the images out of the house of Baal, and burnt them.

26 And they broke down the images of Baal, and broke down the house of Baal, and made it a dung-hill unto this day.

27 Thus John destroyed Baal out of Israel.

28 And he departed from the house of Jeroboam, the sonne of Nebat, who made Israel to sin. John departed not from after them, to wit, the golden calves that were in Beth-el, and that were in Dan.

29 And the Lord said unto John, Because thou hast done well in executing that which is right in mine eyes, and hast done unto the words of Abah according to all that was in mine heart, the children of the fourth generation shall sit upon the throne of Israel.

30 But John took no heed to walk in the law of the Lord God of Israel, with all his heart: for he departed not from the house of Jeroboam, who made Israel to sin.

22 ¶ And those dayes the I. o. o. began to cut off the ends: and they cut them in all the coasts of Israel;

23 From Jordan & eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, (which is by the river Arnon) Iordan Gilead and Bashan.

24 And the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

25 And Jehu slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria, and Jehoahaz his sonne reigned in his stead.

26 And at the time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria, was twenty and eight yeares.

CHAP. XI.

1 Jehoash, being saved by Jehoibeda his aunt from Athaliah, massacre of the seed royall, u. bid six yeares in the house of God. 4 Jehoibeda giving order to the captains, in the seventh yeare anointeth him king. 13 Athaliah is slain. 17 Jehoibeda restoreth the worship of God.

¶ And when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her sonne was dead, she arose, and destroyed all the seed royall.

2 But Jehoibeda the daughter of king Joas, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the sonne of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the kinges sonnes which were slain; and they hid him, even him and his nurse in the bed-chamber from Athaliah, so that he was not slain.

3 And he was with her in the house of the I. o. o. six yeares: and Athaliah did reigne over the land.

4 ¶ And the seventh yeare Jehoibeda sent and set the rulers over hundreds, with the captains and the guards, and brought them to him into the house of the I. o. o., and made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of the I. o. o., and shewed them the kinges sonne.

5 And he commanded them, saying, This is the thing that ye shall do; a third part of you that enter in on the sabbath, shall even be keepers of the watch of the kinges house:

6 And a third part shall be at the gate of Sur; and a third part at the gate behind the guard: so shall ye keep the watch of the house: that it be not broken down.

7 And thou I parts of all you that go forth on the sabbath, even they shall keep the watch of the house of the I. o. o. about the king.

8 And ye shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and he that cometh within the ranges, let him be slain; and he ye with the king as he goeth out, and as he cometh in.

9 And the captains over the hundreds did according to all things that Jehoibeda the priestess commanded: and they took every man his inn that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that should go out on the sabbath, and came to Jehoibeda the priestess.

10 And to the captains over hundreds, the priestess gave king Davids speares, and darts, which were in the temple.

11 And the guard stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, round about the king, from the right & corner of the temple, to the left corner of the temple, along by the altar and the temple.

12 And he brought forth the kinges sonne, and put the crown upon him, and gave him the testimony, and they made him king, and anointed him, and they clapt their hands, and said, God save the king.

13 ¶ And when Athaliah heard the noise of the guard, and of the people, she came to the people, into the temple of the I. o. o.

14 And when she looked, behold, the king stood by a pillar, as the manner was, and the princes, and the trumpeters by the king, and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew with trumpets: & Athaliah rent her clothes, and cried, Treason, treason.

15 But Jehoibeda the priestess commanded the captains of the hundreds, the officers of the host, and said unto them, Have her forth without the ranges, and him that followeth her, kill with the sword: for the priest had said, Let her not be slain in the house of the I. o. o.

16 And they laid hands on her, and she went by the way by the which the hostes came into the kinges house, and there was she slain.

17 ¶ And Jehoibeda made a covenant between the I. o. o., and the king and the people, that they should be the I. o. o. as people; between the king also and the people.

18 And all the people of the land went into the house of Baal, and brake it down, his altars, and his images brake they in pieces thoroughly, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars: and the priest appointed I officers over the house of the I. o. o.

19 And he took the rulers over hundreds, and the captains, and the guard, and all the people of the land, and they brought down the king from the house of the I. o. o., and came by the way of the gate of the guard to the kinges house, and he sat on the throne of the kings.

20 And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the cite was in quiet; and they slew Athaliah with the sword beside the kinges house.

21 Seven yeares old was Jehoash when he began to reigne.

¶ And the seventh yeare of Jehu, Jehoash began to reigne; and fourty yeares reigned he in Jerusalem, and his mothers name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba.

2 And Jehoash did that which was right in the sight of the I. o. o. all his dayes, wherein Jehoibada the priest instructed him.

3 But the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed, and burnt incense in the high places.

4 ¶ And Jehoash said to the priests, All the money of the I. o. o. dedicated things that is brought into the house of the I. o. o., even the money of every one that passeth the account; the money that every man is set at, and all the money that cometh into any mans heart to bring into the house of the I. o. o., let the priests take it to them, every man of his acquaintance, and let them repair the breaches of the house, wherefore ever breach shall be found.

5 But it was so that in the three and twentieth yeare of king Jehoash, the priests had not repaired the breaches of the house.

7 Then month his reigne and death. Chap. xiii. Jehoahaz his wicked reigne.

When king Jehoahaz called for Jehoahaz the son of the other jehoi, who had been called, and he repaid it not the hundred of the gold, and therefore he was in great money of gold, and he was in great money of gold, and he was in great money of gold.

And the king the hundred of gold, and he was in great money of gold, and he was in great money of gold, and he was in great money of gold.

But Jehoahaz the priest took a chest, and he was in great money of gold, and he was in great money of gold, and he was in great money of gold.

And it was so, when they saw that there was much money in the chest, that the king's scribes, and the high priest came up, and they put up in bags, and told the money that was found in the house of the L. O. M. O.

And they gave the money, being told, into the hands of them that did the work, that had the oversight of the house of the L. O. M. O.: and they laid it out to the carpenters and builders, that wrought upon the house of the L. O. M. O.

And to masons, and hewers of stone, and to buy timbers, and to hew stone to repair the breaches of the house of the L. O. M. O.: and for all that was laid out for the house to repair it.

Wherefore, there were not made for the house of the L. O. M. O. bowls of silver, snuffers, basins, trumpets, any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver, of the money that was brought into the house of the L. O. M. O.:

But they gave that to the workmen, and repaired therewith the house of the L. O. M. O.

Wherefore, they reckoned not with the men, into whose hand they delivered the money to be bestowed on workmen: for they dealt faithfully.

The trespass-money, and sin-money was not brought into the house of the L. O. M. O.: it was the priests.

When Hazael king of Syria went up, and fought against Gath, and took it: and Hazael let his face to go up to Jerusalem.

And Jehoahaz king of Judah took all the hallowen things that Jehoashaphat, and Jehoahaz, and Ahaziah his fathers, kings of Judah had dedicate, and his own hallowen things, and all the gold that was found in the treasures of the house of the L. O. M. O., and in the kings house, and sent it to Hazael king of Syria, and he went away from Jerusalem.

And the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

And his servants arose, and made a conspiracy, and slew Joash in the house of Ahillo, which reacheth down to Belia.

For Josabab the sonne of Shimeath, and Jehoahaz the sonne of Shimeath, his servants, smote him, and he died: and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David, and Amaziah his sonne reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XIII.

Jehoahaz his wicked reigne. 3 Jehoahaz oppressed by Hazael, relieved by prayer. 4 Joash succeeded him. 10 His wicked reigne. 12 Jeroboam succeeded him. 14 Eliza dying, propheseth to Joash three victories over the Syrians, 20 The Moabites invading the land, Eliza's bones raise up a dead man. 22 Hazael dying, Joash getteth three victories over Ben-hadad.

And the third and twentieth year of Joash the sonne of Jehoahaz king of Judah, Jehoahaz the sonne of Jehoahaz reigned over Israel in Samaria, and reigned fourteen years.

And he did that which was evil in the sight of the L. O. M. O.: for he followed the customs of Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat, who made Israel to sin: and he departed not from them.

And the anger of the L. O. M. O. was kindled against Israel, and he delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of Ben-hadad the sonne of Hazael, all their dayes.

And Jehoahaz besought the L. O. M. O., and the L. O. M. O. hearkened unto him: for he saw the oppression of Israel, because the king of Syria oppressed them.

(And the L. O. M. O. gave Israel a saviour, so that they went out from under the hand of the Syrians: and the children of Israel dwelt in their tents, as beforetime.)

Nevertheless, they departed not from the sinnes of the house of Jeroboam, who made Israel sinne, but walked therein: and there remained the grove also in Samaria.

Neither did he leave of the people to Jehoahaz, but fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen: for the king of Syria had destroyed them, and had made them like the dust by threshing.

Note the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all that he did, and his might: are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

And Jehoahaz slept with his fathers, & they buried him in Samaria, and Joash his sonne reigned in his stead.

In the thirty and seventh year of Joash king of Judah, began Jehoahaz the sonne of Jehoahaz to reigne over Israel in Samaria, and reigned sixteen years.

And he did that which was evil in the sight of the L. O. M. O.: he departed not from all the sinnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat, who made Israel sinne: but he walked therein.

And the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, and his might, wherewith he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

And Joash slept with his fathers, and Jeroboam sat upon his throne: and Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.

Now Elisha was fallen sick, of his sickness wherewith he died, and Joash the king of Israel came down unto him, and wept over his face, and said, O my father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof.

And Elisha said unto him, Take bows and arrows: and he took unto him bows and arrows.

And he said to the king of Israel, But when thou open the bow: and he put his hand upon it: and Elisha put his hands upon the king's hands.

And he said, Open the window eastward: and he opened it. Then Elisha said, Shoot: and he shot. And he said, The arrow of the L. O. M. O. is difference, and the arrow of deliverance from Syria: for thou shalt smite the Syrians in Aphek, till thou have consumed them.

And he said, Take the arrows; and he took them. And he said unto the king of Israel, And he said unto the king of Israel, 19 And Jeroboam slept with his fathers even with the kings of Israel, and Zachariah his sonne reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XV.

1 Azariah his good reigne. 5 He dying a leper, Jehoahaz succeedeth. 8 Zachariah the last of Jehu his generation, reigning ill, is slain by Shallum. 13 Shalman risingg a monarch, is slain by Menahem. 16 Menahem risingg himself by Pul. 21 Pekahiah succeedeth him. 23 Pekahiah is slain by Pekah. 27 Pekah is oppressed by Tiglath-pileser, and slain by Hoshea. 32 Jehoahaz good reigne. 36 Ahaz succeedeth him.

In the twentieth and seventh yeare of Jeroboam king of Israel, began Azariah sonne of Amaziah king of Judah to reigne.

2 Sixteen yeares old was he when he began to reigne, and he reigned two and fifty yeares in Jerusalem, and his mothers name was Acholish of Jerusalem.

3 And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his father Amaziah had done;

4 Save that the high places were not removed: the people sacrificed, and burnt incense still on the high places.

5 And the Lord was with him, so that he was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a severall house, and Jehoahaz the kings sonne was over the house, judging the people of the land.

6 And the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

7 So Azariah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David, and Jehoahaz his sonne reigned in his stead.

8 In the thirty and eighth yeare of Azariah king of Judah, began Pekahiah the sonne of Jeroboam reigne over Israel in Samaria the moneths.

9 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, as his fathers had done: he departed not from the sinnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat, who made Israel to sinne.

10 And Shalman the sonne of Jadaiah conspired against him, and smote him before the people, and slew him, and reigned in his stead.

11 And the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

12 This was the word of the Lord, as he spake unto Jehu, saying, Thy sonnes shall sit on the throne of Israel, unto the fourth generation. And so it came to passe.

13 In the thirtieth yeare of the reign of Azariah king of Judah, began Jehoahaz his sonne to reigne in the ninth and thirtieth yeare of Hoshea king of Israel, and he reigned a full moneth in Samaria.

14 For Shalman the sonne of Jadaiah, were up from Israel, and came to Samaria, and smote Shallum the sonne of Jadaiah in Samaria, and slew him, and reigned in his stead.

15 And the rest of the acts of Shallum, and the conspiracy which he made, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

16 When Shalman smote Tibhiah, and all that were therein, and the conspitious from Jezrah: because they opened not to him, therefore he smote it, and all the women therein that were with child, he ript up.

17 In the ninth and thirtieth yeare of Azariah king of Judah, began Jehoahaz the sonne of Joah to reigne over Israel, and reigned ten yeares in Samaria.

18 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, as he departed not all his wayes from the sinnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat, who made Israel to sinne.

19 And the king of Assyria came against the land: and Shalman gave Pul a thousand talents of silver, that his hand might be with him, to confirm the kingdome in his hand.

20 And Shalman impacted the money of Israel, even of all the mighty men of wealth, of each man fifty shekels of silver, to give to the king of Assyria: so the king of Assyria turned back, and stayed not there in the land.

21 And the rest of the acts of Shalman, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

22 And Shalman slept with his fathers, and Pekahiah his sonne reigned in his stead.

23 In the thirtieth yeare of Azariah king of Judah, Pekahiah the sonne of Shalman began to reigne over Israel in Samaria, and reigned two yeares.

24 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, as he departed not from the sinnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat, who made Israel to sinne.

25 But Pekah the sonne of Remaliah, a captain of his, conspired against him, and smote him in Samaria in the palace of the kings house, with Argob, and Isebel, and with him fifty men of the Ephraimites: and he killed him, and reigned in his room.

26 And the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

27 In the two and thirtieth yeare of Azariah king of Judah, Pekah the sonne of Remaliah began to reigne over Israel in Samaria, and reigned twenty yeares.

28 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, as he departed not from the sinnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat, who made Israel to sinne.

29 In the dayes of Pekah king of Israel, came Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and took Ijon, and Abel-beth-maacah, and Janah, and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naphtali; and carried them captive to Assyria.

30 And Hoshea the sonne of Niah made a conspiracy against Pekah the sonne of Remaliah, and smote him, and slew him, and reigned in his stead, in the twentieth yeare of Hoshea the sonne of Azariah.

31 And the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.

32 In the second yeare of Pekah the sonne of Remaliah king of Israel, began Hoshea the sonne of Azariah king of Judah to reigne.

33 Five and twenty yeares old was he when he began to reigne, and he reigned fifteen yeares in Jerusalem, and his mothers name was Jerusha, the daughter of Sabah.

34 And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord, as he did according to all that his father Hoshea had done.

35 And Hoshea, the high places were not removed: the people sacrificed, and burnt incense still in the high places; he built the higher gate of the house of the Lord.

36 And the rest of the acts of Hoshea, and all that he did, are they not written in the book

37 (In those dayes the L o m began to send against Judah, Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the sonne of Remaliah)

38 And Iotham slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father, and Ahaz his sonne reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Ahaz his wicked reigne, 5 Ahaz assailed by Rezin and Pekah, 9 breth Tiglath-pileser against them.

10 Ahaz sending a pattern of an altar from Damascus to Vriah, diverteth the brazen altar to his own devotion. 17 He spoileth the temple. 19 Hezekiah succedeth him.

2 Chr. 28. 1.

12 * The seventeenth yeare of Pekah the sonne of Remaliah, Ahaz the sonne of Iotham king of Judah began to reigne.

2 Twenty yeares old was Ahaz when he began to reigne, and reigned sixteen yeares in Jerusalem, and did not that which was right in the sight of the L o m his God, like David his father.

3 But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, yea, and made his sonne to passe through the fire, according to the abominations of the heathen, whom the L o m cast out from before the children of Israel.

4 And he sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

11ay. 1.

5 * Then Rezin king of Syria, and Pekah sonne of Remaliah king of Israel, came up to Jerusalem to waere : and they besieged Ahaz, but could not overcome him.

6 At that time Rezin king of Syria recovered Glath to Syria, and drave the Jewes from Glath: and the Syrians came to Glath, and dwelt there unto this day.

7 So Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, saying, I am thy servant, and thy sonne: come up, and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, which rise up against me.

8 And Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in the house of the L o m, and in the treasures of the kings house, and sent it for a present to the king of Assyria.

77ab, Dam-mesick.

9 And the king of Assyria hearkened unto him: for the king of Assyria went up against 7 Damascus, and took it, and carried the people of it captive to Kir, and slew Rezin.

10 * And king Ahaz went to Damascus, to meet Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and saw an altar that was at Damascus: and king Ahaz sent to Uriah the priest the fashion of the altar, and the pattern of it, according to all the workmanship thereof.

11 And Uriah the priest built an altar, according to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus: so Uriah the priest made it, against king Ahaz came from Damascus.

12 And when the king was come from Damascus, the king saw the altar: and the king approached to the altar, and offered thereon.

77ab, which was his.

13 And he burnt his burnt-offering, and his meat-offering, and poured his drink-offering, and sprinkled the blood of 7 his peace-offerings upon the altar.

14 And he brought also the brazen altar which was before the L o m, from the forefront of the house, from between the altar and the house of the L o m; and put it on the north-side of the altar.

15 And king Ahaz commanded Uriah the priest, saying, Upon the great altar burn the morning burnt-offering, & the evening meat-offering, and the kings burnt-lincense, and his meat-offering, with the burnt-offering of all the people of the land, & their meat-offering, and their drink-offerings, & sprinkle upon it all the blood of the burnt-offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice: and the brazen altar shall be for me to enquire by.

16 Thus did Uriah the priest, according to all that king Ahaz commanded.

17 * And king Ahaz cut off the borders of the bases, and removed the laver from off them, and took down the sea from off the brazen oven that were under it, and put it upon a pavement of stones.

18 And the covert for the sabbath that they had built in the house, and the kings entring went out, turned he from the house of the L o m, for the king of Assyria.

19 * Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz, which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

20 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David, and Hezekiah his sonne reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XVII.

1 Hoshea his wicked reigne, 3 Being subdued by Shalmaneser, he conspireth against him with So king of Egypt, 5 Samaria for their sinnes, is captivated, 24 The strange nations, which were transplanted in Samaria, being plagued with lions, make a mixture of religions.

17 The twelfth yeare of Ahaz king of Judah, began Hoshea the sonne of Elai to reigne in Samaria, over Israel nine yeares.

2 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the L o m, but not as the kings of Israel that were before him.

3 * Against him came up Sargon king of Assyria, and Hoshea became his servant, and 7 gave him 7 presents.

77ab, rendered Or, tributes.

4 And the king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea: for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and thought no present to the king of Assyria, as he had done yeare by yeare: therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison.

5 * Then the king of Assyria came up throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria, and besieged it three yeares.

6 * In the ninth yeare of Hoshea, the king of Assyria took Samaria, and carried Israel away into Assyria, and placed them in Halah and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

Chap. 11. 14.

7 For so it was, that the children of Israel had sinned against the L o m to their God, which had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had feared other gods,

8 And walked in the statutes of the heathen, (whom the L o m cast out from before the children of Israel) and of the kings of Israel, which they had made.

9 And the children of Israel did secretly those things that were not right, against the L o m their God, and they built them high places in all their cities, from the tower of the watchmen, to the fenced cite.

10 And they set them up 7 images and groves in every high hill, and under every green tree:

11 And there they burnt incense in all the high places, as did the heathen whom the L o m carried

13 Yet the L^o testified against Israel, and against Judah, by all the prophets, and by all the seers, saying, Turn ye from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my servants the prophets.

* Deut. 31. 29.

14 Notwithstanding, they would not hear, but * hardened their necks, like to the neck of their fathers, that did not believe in the L^o as to their God.

15 And they rejected his statutes, and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he testified against them, and they followed vanity, and became vain, and went after the heathen that were round about them, concerning whom the L^o had charged them, that they should not do like them.

* Exod. 31. 8.

2. King. 12. 28.

16 And they left all the commandments of the L^o as to their God, and * made them molten images, even two calves, and made a grove, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served Baal.

17 And they caused their sonnes and their daughters to passe through the fire, and used divination and incantations, and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the L^o as to, to provoke him to anger.

18 Therefore the L^o as to was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight, there was none left but the tribe of Judah onely.

19 Also Judah kept not the commandments of the L^o as to their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made.

20 And the L^o as to rejected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until he had cast them out of his sight.

21 For he rent Israel from the house of David, and they made Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat king, and Jeroboam drave Israel from following the L^o as to, and made them sinne a great sinne.

22 For the children of Israel walked in all the sinnes of Jeroboam which he did, they departed not from them:

23 Until the L^o as to removed Israel out of his sight, as he had said by all his servants the prophets: so was Israel carried away out of their own land to Assyria, unto this day.

24 ¶ And the king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Ava, and from Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria, in stead of the children of Israel; and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof.

25 And so it was at the beginning of their dwelling there: that they feared not the L^o as to; therefore the L^o as to sent lions among them, which slew some of them.

26 ¶ Therefore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which thou hast removed, and placed in the cities of Samaria, know not the manner of the God of the land: therefore he hath sent lions among them, and devours, they slay them, because they know not the manner of the God of the land.

27 When the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Carry thither one of the priests whom ye brought from thence, and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the manner of the God of the land.

28 Then one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria, came and dwelt in Beth-el, and taught them how they should fear the L^o as to.

29 Howbeit, every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritanes had made, every nation in their cities wherein they dwelt.

30 And the men of Babylon made Succoth-benoth, and the men of Ashur made shergal, and the men of Hamath made Asima.

31 And the Azzites made Ashmah, and Tarak, and the Sepharvites burnt their children in fire to Adramalech, and Ananmalech, the gods of Sepharvaim.

32 So they feared the L^o as to, and made unto themselves of the lowest of their priests of the high places, which sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places.

33 * They feared the L^o as to, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations, whom they carried away from thence.

34 Unto this day they do after the former manners: they fear not the L^o as to, neither do they after their statutes, or after their ordinances, or after the law and commandment which the L^o as to commanded the children of Jacob, whom he named Israel;

35 With whom the L^o as to had made a covenant, and charged them, saying, * Ye shall not fear other gods, nor bow your selves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them;

36 But the L^o as to, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt, with great power, and a stretched out arm, him shall ye fear, and him shall ye worship, and to him shall ye do sacrifice.

37 And the statutes, and the ordinances, and the law, and the commandment which he wrote for you, ye shall observe to do for evermore, and ye shall not fear other gods.

38 And the covenant that I have made with you, ye shall not forget, neither shall ye fear other gods.

39 But the L^o as to your God ye shall fear, and he shall deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies.

40 Howbeit, they did not hearken, but they did after their former manner.

41 So these nations feared the L^o as to, and served their graven images, both their children, and their childrens children: as did their fathers, so do they unto this day.

15 And Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the house of the L^o ^o m, and in the treasures of the kings house.

27 But Rabshakeh said unto them, Wath my master sent me to the master, and to thee, to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men which sit on the wall, that they may eat their own dung, and drink their own piss with you?

31 ¶ Hearken now unto Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, If I make an agreement with me by a promise, and come out to me, and then eat ye every man of his own vine, and every one of his fig-tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his cistern:

32 Untill I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oil-olive, and of honey, that ye may live, and not die: and hearken not unto Hezekiah, when he persuadeth you, saying, The L^o ^o m will deliver us.

33 Wath any of the gods of the nations delivered at all his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

34 Where are the gods of Hamath, and of Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharadam, Hama, and Thab? have they delivered Samaria out of mine hand?

35 And so are they among all the gods of the countries, that have delivered their country out of mine hand, that the L^o ^o m should deliver Jerusalem out of mine hand?

36 But the people held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the kings commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

37 Then came Eliahim the sonne of Bilhah, which was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the sonne of Elaph the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

4 It may be the Lord will hear all the words of Rab-shakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach the living God: & will reprove the words which the Lord hath said: wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant that are left.

5 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.

6 And Isaiah said unto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Whom ye say ye are afraid of, the Lord which ye have despised, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed.

7 Behold, I will send a blast upon him, and he shall heare a rumour, and shall return to his own land, and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

8 So Rab-shakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish.

9 And when he heard say of Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, Behold, he is come out to fight against thee: he sent messengers again unto Hezekiah, saying,

10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not the God in whom thou trustest, deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be delivered into the hands of the king of Assyria.

11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly: and shall thou be delivered?

12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed, as Gozan, and Haran, and Kereth, and the children of Eden which were in Chelais?

13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivai?

14 And Hezekiah received the letter of the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up into the house of the Lord, and spread it before the Lord.

15 And Hezekiah prayed before the Lord, and said, O Lord God of Israel, which dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth: thou hast made heaven and earth.

16 O Lord, bow down thine ear, and heare: open, Lord, thine eyes, and see: and heare the voice of Sennacherib, which hath sent him to reproach the living God.

17 At a watch, the Lord was, the king of Assyria hath reproached the melting, and the Lord saith, 18 And he hath sent this word into the dream of Sennacherib, and he hath said, Thus saith the Lord God, even thou sayest.

19 Now therefore, O Lord our God, I beseech thee, save thou us out of his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the Lord God, even thou only.

20 And Isaiah the sonne of Amos first to Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, That which thou hast prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria, I have heard.

21 This is the word that the Lord hath spoken concerning him, The virgin, the daughter of Zion hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn, the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee.

22 Yet thou hast thou reproached, and blasphemed: and against whom hast thou raised thy voice, and lifted up thine eyes on high? even against the holy one of Israel.

23 By thy messengers thou hast reproached the Lord, and hast said, With the multitude hand of my chariots I am come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon, and will cut down the tall cedar-trees thereof, and the choice fir-trees thereof: and I will enter into the towers of his borders, and into the fortress of his high towers, and into the fortress of his high towers, and into the fortress of his high towers.

24 I have digged and drunk strange waters, and with the skins of my feet have I walked upon all the rivers of the beloved places.

25 Hast thou not heard long ago, how I have done it, and of ancient times: that I have founded not heaps, yet now have I thought it to pass, that thou have shouldst be to lay waste fenced cities into ruins.

26 Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were terrified, and confounded, they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the house tops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up.

27 But I know thy habitude, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me.

28 Because thy rage against me, and thy tumult to come up into mine ears, therefore I will put my hook in the nose, and will bring thee back by the way by which thou camest.

29 And this shall be a signe unto thee, that thou shalt eat this yeare such things as grass of the field, and thou shalt eat the leaves of the fig-tree, and the leaves of the olive-tree, and thou shalt eat the leaves of the vine, and thou shalt eat the leaves of the fig-tree.

30 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah, shall yet again take root downward, and shall bear fruit upward.

31 For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and they that escape out of mount Zion: the zeal of the Lord of hosts shall do this.

32 Therefore thus saith the Lord God concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shall he fight against it, nor shall he build a bulwark against it.

33 By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come into this city, saith the Lord.

34 For I will defend this city, saith the Lord, for mine own sake, and for the sake of my servants the prophets.

35 And it came to passe that night, that the angel of the Lord was, and he slew 185,000 men.

1 Hezekiah having received a message of death, by prayer hath his life lengthened. 2 The sunne goeth ten degrees backward, for a signe of that promise. 3 Berodach-baladan sending to visit Hezekiah, because of the wonder, haſtitude of his ſtrength. 4 Iſaiab underſtanding thereof, ſervetheth the Babylonian captivity. 20 Manasseſſe ſucceedeth Hezekiah.

1 ¶ In those dayes was Hezekiah sick unto death: I and the prophet Iſaiab the ſonne of Amoz came to him, and ſaid unto him, Thus ſaith the Lord, 2 ſet thine houſe in order, for thou ſhalt die, and not live.

2 ¶ Then he turned his face to the wall, and prayed unto the Lord, ſaying,

3 ¶ I beſeech thee, O Lord, remember now, how I have walked before thee in truth, and with a perfect heart, and have bene that which is good in thy ſight: and Hezekiah wept & ſayd,

4 And it came to paſſe aſoſe Iſaiab was gone out into the middle court, that the word of the Lord came to him, ſaying,

5 ¶ Turn again, and tell Hezekiah the captain of my people, Thus ſaith the Lord, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have ſeen thy teares: behold, I will heal thee; on the third day thou ſhalt go up unto the houſe of the Lord.

6 And I will add unto thy dayes ſixteen yeares, and I will deliver thee, and this city, out of the hand of the king of Aſſyria, and I will defend this city for mine owne ſake, and for my ſervant Davids ſake.

7 And Iſaiab ſaid, Take a lump of figs. And they took and laid it on the boyl, and he recovered.

8 And Hezekiah ſaid unto Iſaiab, What ſhall be the ſigne that the Lord will heal me, and that I ſhall go up into the houſe of the Lord the third day?

9 And Iſaiab ſaid, Thy ſigne ſhalt thou have of the Lord, that the Lord will do the thing that he hath ſpoken: ſhall the ſhadow go ſixteen ten degrees, or go back ten degrees?

10 And Hezekiah answered, It is a light thing for the ſhadow to go down ten degrees: nay, but let the ſhadow return backward ten degrees.

11 And Iſaiab the prophet cried unto the Lord, and he brought the ſhadow ten degrees backward, by which it had gone down in the ſhal of Aſay.

12 ¶ At that time Berodach-baladan the ſonne of Baſadan king of Babylon, ſent letters and a preſent unto Hezekiah: for he had heard that Hezekiah had bene ſick.

13 And Hezekiah hearkened unto them, and ſhewed them the houſe of his precious things, the ſilver, and the gold, and the ſpices, and the precious ointment, and all the houſe of his ſtrength, and all that was found in his treaſure: there was nothing in his houſe, nay in all his dominion, that Hezekiah ſhewed them not.

14 ¶ Then came Iſaiab the prophet unto king Hezekiah, and ſaid unto him, What ſaidſt thou men? and from whence cameſt thou unto them? And Hezekiah ſaid, They are come from a ſtrange country, even from Babylon.

15 And he ſaid, What have they ſeen in thine houſe? And Hezekiah answered, All the things that are in mine houſe have they ſeen: there is nothing among my treaſures that I have not ſhewed them.

16 And Iſaiab ſaid unto Hezekiah, Hear the word of the Lord.

17 Behold, the dayes come, that all that is in thine houſe, and that which thy fathers have laid up in ſtore unto this day, ſhall be carried into Babylon: nothing ſhall be left, ſaith the Lord.

18 And of thy ſonnes that ſhall iſſue from thee, which thou ſhalt beget, ſhall they take away, and they ſhall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.

19 ¶ Then ſaid Hezekiah unto Iſaiab, Good is the word of the Lord, which thou haſt ſpoken. And he ſaid, Is it not good, if peace and truth be in my dayes?

20 ¶ And the reſt of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he made a pool, and a conduit, and brought water into the cite, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Iuda?

3 For he built up again the high places which his father had deſtroyed, and he reared up altars for Baal, and made a grove, as did Ahab king of Iſrael, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and ſerved them.

and most out of the land, which I gave their fathers, only if they will observe to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that my servants the prophets commanded them.

9 But they hearkened not: and Manasse seduced them to do more evil than did the nations, whom the Lord so was delivered before the eyes of Israel.

10 ¶ And the Lord so was by his servants the prophets, saying,

11 Because Manasse king of Judah hath done these abominations, and hath done wickedly above all that the Amorites did, which were before him, and hath made Judah also to sinne with his doles:

12 Therefore thus saith the Lord so am God of Israel, Behold, I am bringing such evil upon Jerusalem and Judah, that moreover heareth of it, both his ears shall tingle.

13 And I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plumm of the house of Iorab: and I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, wiping it, and turning it upside down.

14 And I will forsake the remnant of mine inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies, and they shall become a prey, and a spoil, to all their enemies;

15 Because they have done that which was evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt, even unto this day.

16 Moreover, Manasse shed innocent blood very much, till he had filled Jerusalem from one end to another, beside his sinne wherewith he made Judah to sinne, in doing that which was evil in the sight of the Lord so am.

17 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Manasse, and all that he did, and his sinne that he sinned, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

18 And Manasse slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza: and Amon his sonne reigned in his stead.

19 ¶ Amon was twenty and two yeares old when he began to reign, and he reigned two yeares in Jerusalem: and his mothers name was Jezabab, the daughter of Baruz of Iorab.

20 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord so am, as his father Manasse did.

21 And he walked in all the way that his father served, and served the doles that his father served, and worshipped them:

22 And he sought the Lord so am God of his fathers, and walked not in the way of the Lord so am.

23 ¶ And the servants of Amon conspired against him, and slew the king in his own house.

24 And the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon, and the people of the land made Josiah his sonne king in his stead.

25 Now the rest of the acts of Amon which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

26 And he was buried in his sepulchre, in the garden of Uzza, and Josiah his sonne reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XXII.

1 Josiah his good reign, 2 He taketh care for the repair of the temple 3 Hilkiah having found a book of the law, Josiah sendeth to Huldah to enquire of the Lord. 15 Huldah prophesieth the destruction of Jerusalem, but possesse thereof in Josiah's time.

1 Josiah was eight yeares old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty and one yeares in Jerusalem: and his mothers name was Jedidah, the daughter of Shimeon.

2 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord so am, and walked in all the way of David his father, and turned not aside to the right hand or to the left.

3 ¶ And it came to passe in the eighteenth yeare of king Josiah, that the king sent Shaphan the sonne of Azbub, the sonne of Meshullam the scribe, to the house of the Lord so am, saying,

4 Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, that he may summe the silver which is brought in to the house of the Lord so am, which the keepers of the door have gathered of the people.

5 And let them deliver it into the hand of the doers of the work, that have the oversight of the house of the Lord so am: and let them give it to the doers of the work, which is in the house of the Lord so am, to repair the breaches of the house,

6 Unto carpenters, and builders, and masons, and to buy timber and hewen stone to repair the house.

7 Howbeit, there was no reckoning made with them, of the money that was delivered into their hand, because they dealt faithfully.

8 ¶ And Hilkiah the high priest said unto Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the Lord so am: and Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and he read it.

9 And Shaphan the scribe came to the king, and brought the king word again, and said, Thy servants have gathered the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of them that do the work, that have the oversight of the house of the Lord so am.

10 And Shaphan the scribe shewed the king, saying, Hilkiah the priest hath delivered me a book: and Shaphan read it before the king.

11 And it came to passe when the king had heard the words of the book of the law, that he rent his clothes.

12 And the king commanded Hilkiah the priest, and Azbub, the sonne of Shaphan, and Jedob, the sonne of Gedabab, and Shaphan the scribe, and Ahabiah a servant of the king, saying,

13 Go ye, enquire of the Lord so am for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that is found: for great is the wrath of the Lord so am that is kindled against us, because our fathers have not hearkened unto the words of this book, to do according unto all that which is written concerning us.

14 So Hilkiah the priest, and Azbub, and Jedob, and Shaphan, and Ahabiah, went unto Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shalum the sonne of Tekub, the sonne of Harub, keeper of the wardrobe (now he dwelt in Jerusalem in the college) and they communed with her.

15 ¶ And he said unto them, Thus saith the Lord so am God of Israel, Tell the man that sent you to me, 16 Thus saith the Lord so am, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, even all the words of the book which the king of Judah hath read.

17 Because they have despised me, and have turned incense unto other gods: that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands: therefore my wrath shall be kindled against this place, and shall not be quenched.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 Jeshiah causeth the book to be read in a solemn assembly. 2 He removeth the sacrament of the Lord. 3 He destroyeth idolatry. 15 He burnt dead monuments upon the altar of Beth-el, as was fore-prophefied. 21 He kept a week solemn passover. 24 He put away witchcraft, and all abominations. 26 Gods shall war against Judah. 29 Jeshiah provoking Pharaoh Nechoh, is slain at Megiddo. 31 Jehoahaz succeeding him, is imprisoned by Pharaoh Nechoh, who made Jehoiakim king. 32 Jehoiakim his wicked reign.

And the king sent, and they gathered unto him all the elders of Judah, and of Jerusalem.

2 And the king went up into the house of the L. o m m, and all the men of Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him: the priests, and the prophets, and all the people both small and great: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant which was found in the house of the L. o m m.

3 And the king stood by a pillar, and made a covenant before the L. o m m, to walk after the L. o m m, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all their heart and all their soul, to perform the words of this covenant, that were written in this book: and all the people stood to the covenant.

4 And the king commanded within the high place, and the pillars of the second altar, and he kepters of the house, to bring forth out of the temple of the L. o m m, all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the grove, and for all the host of heaven, and he burnt them without Jerusalem, in the fields of Tabor, and carried the ashes of them unto Beth-el.

5 And he put down the idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had appointed to burn incense in the high places, in the cities of Judah, and in the places round about Jerusalem, them also that burnt incense unto Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the planets, and to all the host of heaven.

6 And he brought out the grove from the house of the L. o m m, without Jerusalem, unto the brook Kidron, and burnt it at the brook Kidron, and stamped it small to powder, and cast the powder thereof upon the graves of the children of the people.

7 And he brake down the houses of the sodomites that were by the house of the L. o m m, where the women wash themselves: for the grove.

8 And he brought all the vessels out of the cities of Judah, and broken the high places where the priests had burnt incense, from Geba to Beersheba, and broke down the high places of the gates that were in the entering in of the gate of Benjamin the gatekeepers of the city, which were on a mound left behind at the gates of the city.

9 And he brake the pillars of the high places came not up to the altar of the L. o m m in Jerusalem, but they did eat of the unleavened bread among their brethren.

10 And he defiled Tophet, which is in the valley of the children of Rimmon, that no man might make his sons or his daughter to pass through the fire to Moloch.

11 And he took away the horses that the kings of Judah had given to the sunne, at the entering in of the house of the L. o m m, by the chamber of Machan, which the chamberlain which was in the suburbs, and burnt the chariots of the sunne with fire.

12 And the altars that were on the top of the upper chamber of Ahas, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Benadab had made, in the two corners of the house of the L. o m m, did the king beat down, and he brake them down from thence, and cast the dust of them into the brook Kidron.

13 And the high places that were before Jerusalem, which were on the right hand of the mount of corruption, which Solomon the king of Israel had builded to: sheweth the abomination of the Sidonians, and by Chemosh the abomination of the Moabites, and for Ashtoreth the abomination of the children of Ammon, did the king defile.

14 And he brake in pieces the images, and cut down the groves, and filled their places with the bones of men.

15 And he brake the altar that was at Beth-el, and the high place which Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sinne, had made, both that altar and the high place he brake down, and burnt the high place, and stamped it small to powder, and burnt the grove.

16 And as Josiah turned himself, he spied the sepulchres that were there in the mount, and rent, and took the bones out of the sepulchres, and burnt them upon the altar, and polluted it, according to the word of the L. o m m which the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these words.

17 When he said, Judah shall be as I see. And the men of the city told him, It is the sepulchre of the man of God, which came from Judah, and proclaimed these things that thou hast done against the altar of Beth-el.

18 And he said, Let him alone, let no man move his bones: for they let his bones go alone, with the bones of the prophet that came out of Samaria.

19 And all the houses also of the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke the L. o m m to anger, Josiah took away, and did to them according to all the acts that he had done in Beth-el.

20 And he slew all the priests of the high places that were there, upon the altars, and burnt mens bones upon them, and returned to Jerusalem.

21 And the king commanded all the people, saying, Keep the passover unto the L. o m m your God, as it is written in this book of the covenant.

22 Surely there was not holden such a passover, from the days of the judges that judged Israel: nor in all the days of the kings of Israel, nor of the kings of Judah.

3 And on the ninth day of the fourth month, the famine prevailed in the city, and there was no bread for the people of the land.

4 And the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled by night, by the way of the gate, between two walls, which is by the king's garden, (now the Caldees were against the city round about) and the king went the way toward the plain.

5 And the army of the Caldees pursued after the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho: and all his army were scattered from him.

6 So they took the king, and brought him up to the king of Babylon, to Riblah, and they gave judgement upon him.

* Heb. spoke judgement with him.
* Heb. made him blind.

7 And they slew the sonnes of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him with fetters of brass, and carried him to Babylon.

8 And in the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month (which is the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon) came Nebuzaradan captain of the guard, a servant of the king of Babylon, unto Jerusalem:

* Or, chief marshal.

9 And he burnt the house of the L. O. M., and the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem, and every great mans house burnt he with fire.

10 And all the army of the Caldees that were with the captains of the guard, brake down the walls of Jerusalem round about.

11 Now the rest of the people that were left in the city, and the fugitives that fell away to the king of Babylon, with the remnant of the multitude, did Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carry away.

* Heb. fallen away.

12 But the captain of the guard left of the people of the land so be wine-bellers, and husbandmen.

* Chap. 20. 17.
Jer. 27. 23.

13 And the pillars of brass that were in the house of the L. O. M., and the bases, and the brasen sea that was in the house of the L. O. M., did the Caldees break in pieces, and carried the brass of them to Babylon.

14 And the pots, and the shovels, and the spurs, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, took they away.

15 And the first pans, and the basins, and such things as were of gold, in gold, and of silver, in silver, the captain of the guard took away.

16 The two pillars, one sea, and the bases which Solomon had made for the house of the L. O. M., the brass of all these vessels was without weight.

* 1 Kings 7. 15.
Jer. 52. 1.

17 The bridle of the one pillar was sixteen cubits, and the chapter upon it was brass: and the height of the chapter three cubits: and the wreathen-work, and pomegranates upon the chapter round about, all of brass: and like unto these had the second pillar with wreathen-work.

18 And the captain of the guard took away the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the door.

* Heb. three hold.
* Or, council.
* Heb. saw the kings face.
* Or, tribe of the captain of the hold.

19 And one of the city he took an officer that was set over the men of war, and five men of them that were in the kings presence, which were found in the city, and the principal scribe of the host, which ministered the people of the land, and there were men of the people of the land, that were found in the city.

20 And Nebuzaradan captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon, to Riblah.

21 And the king of Babylon smote them, and slew them at Riblah in the land of Hamath: so Judah was carried away out of their land.

22 And as for the people that remained in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, even over them he made Gedaliah the sonne of Ahikam, the sonne of Shaphan, ruler.

* Jer. 40. 14.

23 And when all the captains of the armies, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, there came to Gedaliah to Bethel, even Ahniah the sonne of Azbabad, and Johanan the sonne of Cariah, and Seraiah the sonne of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the sonne of a Balaathite, they, and their men.

* Jer. 40. 9.

24 And Gedaliah saide to them, and to their men, and said unto them, Fear not to be the servants of the Caldees: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.

25 But it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ahniah the sonne of Azbabad, the sonne of Bithniah, of the seed of royal, came, and ten men with him, and smote Gedaliah, that he died, and the Jews and the Caldees that were with him at Bethel.

* Heb. of the kingdom.
* Jer. 41. 2.

26 And all the people both small and great, and the captains of the armies arose, and came to Egypt: for they were afraid of the Caldees.

27 And it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the seven and twentieth day of the month, that Cosnidorach king of Babylon, in the year that he began to reign, did lift up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah out of prison.

28 And he spake kindly to him, and let his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon.

* Heb. good things with him.

29 And changed his prison-garments: and he did eat bread continually before him all the dayes of his life.

30 And his allowance was a continual allowance given him of the king, a daily rate for every day, all the dayes of his life.

37 And Ziza the sonne of Shuphi, the sonne of Allon, the sonne of Jerada, the sonne of Shimi, the sonne of Shemaiah.

38 These † mentioned by their names, were princes in their families, and the house of their fathers increased greatly.

39 ¶ And they went to the entrance of Gedoy, even unto the east-side of the valley, to seek pasture for their flocks.

40 And they found fat pasture and good, and the land was wide, and quiet, and peaceable: for they of Ham had dwelt there of old.

41 And these, written by name, came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and smote their tents, and the habitations that were found there, and destroyed them utterly unto this day, and dwelt in their rooms: because there was pasture there for their flocks.

42 And some of them, even of the sonnes of Simeon, five hundred men, went to mount Seir, having for their captains Delatiah, and Zephaniah, and Rephaiah, and Aziel, the sonnes of Aziel.

43 And they smote the rest of the Amalekites that were cleped, and dwelt there unto this day.

CHAP. V.

1 The line of Ruben (who lost his birthright) unto the captivity. 9 Their habitation and conquest of the Hagrites. 11 The chief men, and habitations of Gad. 18 The number and conquest of Reuben, Gad, and the half of Manasse. 23 The habitations and chief men of that half-tribe. 25 Their captivity for their sins.

Now the sonnes of Reuben the first-born of Israel, (for he was the first-born, but forasmuch as he † defiled his fathers bed, his birthright was given unto the sonnes of Joseph the sonne of Israel: and the genealogie is not to be reckoned after the birthright.)

2 For † Judah prevailed above his brethren, and of him came the chief ruler, but the birthright was Josephs.

3 The sonnes, I say, of Reuben the first-born of Israel were, Hanoch, and Pallu, Hezon, and Carmi.

4 The sonnes of Joel: Shemaiah his sonne, Oog his sonne, Shimei his sonne,

5 Micah his sonne, Reaia his sonne, Baal his sonne,

6 Beeraah his sonne, whom † Elgath-vulmeir king of Asyria, carried away captive: he was prince of the Rubenites.

7 And his brethren by their families (when the genealogie of their generations was reckoned) were the chief, Jziel, and Zechariab.

8 And Bela the sonne of Azaz, the sonne of † Shema, the sonne of Joel, who dwelt in † Arer, even unto Hebo, and Baal-meon.

9 And eastward he inhabited unto the entering in of the wilderness from the river Euphrates: because their cattell were multiplied in the land of Gilead.

10 And in the dayes of Baal they made warre with the Hagrites, who fell by their hand, and they dwelt in their tents: † though some all the east-land of Gilead.

11 ¶ And the children of Gad dwelt over against them, in the land of † Bashan, unto Sal-cab.

12 Joel the chief, and Shaphan the next, and Aanaai, and Shaphat in Bashan.

13 And their brethren of the house of their fathers were Michael, and Meshullam, and Shethi, and Zorah, and Jacoban, and Ha, and Epher, seven.

14 These are the children of Abihail the sonne of Huri, the sonne of Jerodah, the sonne of Gilead, the sonne of Michael, the sonne of Jethihail, the sonne of Jahdo, the sonne of Buz.

15 Abi the sonne of Abihail, the sonne of Guni, chief of the house of their fathers.

16 And he † dwelt in Gilead in Bashan, and in her towns, and in all the suburbs of † Sharon, upon † their borders.

17 And they were reckoned by genealogies in the dayes of † Jotham king of Judah, and in the dayes of Jeroboam king of Israel.

18 ¶ The sonnes of Reuben, and the Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasse, † of valiant men, men able to bear buckler and sword, and to shoot with bow, and skillfull in warre, were four and forty thousand seven hundred & threescore, that went out to the warre.

19 And they made warre with the Hagrites, with † Ietur, and Septhib, and Zobab.

20 And they were helped against them, and the Hagrites were delivered into their hand, and all that were with them: for they cried to God in the battell, and he was intreated of them, because they put their trust in him.

21 And they † took away their cattell, of their camels fifty thousand, and of they two hundred and fiftie thousand, and of asses two thousand, and of men an hundred thousand.

22 For they fell down many slain, because the warre was of God, and they dwelt in their steads until the captivity.

23 ¶ And the children of the half-tribe of Manasse dwelt in the land: they increased from Bashan unto Baal-hermon, and Senir, and unto mount Hermon.

24 And these were the heads of the house of their fathers, even Ephraim, and Ithi, and Eliel, and Aziel, and Jerimiah, and Zebadiah, and Jaddith, mighty men of valour, † famous men, and heads of the house of their fathers.

12 And Abitub begat Zadok, and Zadok begat Shallum,

13 And Shallum begat Ilkiah, and Ilkiah begat Azariah,

14 And Azariah begat Seraias, and Seraias begat Jehozabab, 15 And Jehozabab went into captivity, * when the Leuim carried away Judah and Jerusalem by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar.

* Kin. 25. 18. 16 ¶ The sonnes of Levi: * | Gershom, Kohath, and Merari.

17 And these be the names of the sonnes of Gershom; Libni, and Shimei.

18 And the sonnes of Kohath were, Amram, and Izhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel.

19 The sonnes of Merari; Gadiel, and Gadiel. And these are the families of the Levites according to their fathers.

20 Of Gershom; Libni his sonne, Izhar his sonne, * Shimei his sonne, 21 ¶ Izhar his sonne, Iddo his sonne, Zerabiah his sonne, Tezerai his sonne.

22 The sonnes of Kohath; | Amminadab his sonne, Kohath his sonne, Alisur his sonne, 23 Elkanah his sonne, and Elialaph his sonne, and Alisur his sonne, 24 Zerabiah his sonne, Uziel his sonne, Uzziel his sonne, and Shaul his sonne.

25 And the sonnes of Elkanah; Amasai, and Abinoah.

26 As for Elkanah: the sonnes of Elkanah;

1 Zophai his sonne, and Phahai his sonne,

27 Eliah his sonne, Zerobab his sonne, Elkanah his sonne.

28 And the sonnes of Samuel; the first-born, | Eliah and Eliah.

29 The sonnes of Merari; Gadiel, Libni his sonne, Shimei his sonne, Uzzi his sonne, 30 Shimeas his sonne, Hagaias his sonne, Asafah his sonne.

31 And these are they whom David set over the service of song in the house of the Lord, after that the ark had rest.

32 And they ministered before the dwelling place of the tabernacle of the congregation, with singing, until Solomon had built the house of the Lord in Jerusalem: and then they waited on their office, according to their order.

33 And these are they that waited with their children: of the sonnes of the Kohathites; Neman a singer, the sonne of Joel, the sonne of Shemuel.

34 The sonne of Elkanah, the sonne of Zerobab, the sonne of Eliel, the sonne of Eobab.

35 The sonne of Zuph, the sonne of Elkanah, the sonne of Phahai, the sonne of Amasai, 36 The sonne of Elkanah, the sonne of Joel, the sonne of Azariah, the sonne of Zerubabiah, 37 The sonne of Zerabiah, the sonne of Alisur, the sonne of Elialaph, the sonne of Kohath, 38 The sonne of Izhar, the sonne of Kohath, the sonne of Levi, the sonne of Israel.

39 And his brother Alaph stood on his right hand: even Alaph the sonne of Zerubabiah, the sonne of Shimeas, 40 The sonne of Michael, the sonne of Baasiah, the sonne of Elialaph, 41 The sonne of Eliel, the sonne of Zerabiah, the sonne of Amasai, 42 The sonne of Elhan, the sonne of Elkanah, the sonne of Shimei, 43 The sonne of Zerabiah, the sonne of Gershom, the sonne of Levi.

44 And their brethren the sonnes of Merari, stood on the left hand: Elhan the sonne of Eliel, the sonne of Abdi, the sonne of Elialaph, 45 The sonne of Elialaph, the sonne of Amasai, the sonne of Elkanah, 46 The sonne of Amasai, the sonne of Eliel, the sonne of Zerabiah, 47 The sonne of Eliel, the sonne of Eliel, the sonne of Eliel.

48 Their brethren also the Levites were appointed unto all manner of service of the tabernacle of the house of God.

49 ¶ But Aaron and his sonnes offered * upon the altar of the burnt-offering, and * on the altar of incense, and were appointed for all the work of the place most holy, and to make an atonement for Israel according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded.

50 And these are the sonnes of Aaron; Eleazar his sonne, Phinehas his sonne, Abisua his sonne, 51 Bukki his sonne, Uzzi his sonne, Zerabiah his sonne, 52 Pheraioth his sonne, Amariah his sonne, Abitub his sonne, 53 Zadok his sonne, Ahimae his sonne.

54 ¶ Now these are their dwelling places throughout their castles in their coasts of the sonnes of Aaron, of the families of the Kohathites; for theirs was the lot.

16 But the fields of the city, and the villages thereof, they gave to Galed the sonne of Beppanah.

17 And to the sonnes of Aaron they gave the cities of Judah, namely Bezon, the city of refuge, and Alana with her suburbs, and Jettir, and Chemona with their suburbs.

18 And J Eilen with her suburbs, Dedir with her suburbs.

19 And J Ahan with her suburbs, and Beth-Hemeth with her suburbs.

20 And out of the tribe of Benjamin; Geda with her suburbs, and J Alenah with her suburbs, and Anathoth with her suburbs. All their cities throughout their families were thirteen cities.

21 And unto the sonnes of Kohath, which were left of the family of that tribe, were cities given out of the half-tribe, namely, out of the half-tribe of Manasseh, * by lot, ten cities.

22 And to the sonnes of Gershom throughout their families, out of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Aser, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the tribe of Manasseh in Basan, thirteen cities.

23 Unto the sonnes of Merari were given by lot, throughout their families, out of the tribe of Ruben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, * twelve cities.

24 And the children of Israel gave to the Levites these cities, with their suburbs.

25 And they gave by lot out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, and out of the tribe of the children of Benjamin, these cities, which are called by their names.

26 And the residue of the families of the sonnes of Kohath, had cities of their coasts, out of the tribe of Ephraim.

27 * And they gave unto them of the cities of refuge, Becher in mount Ephraim, with her suburbs: they gave also Gzer with her suburbs.

28 And Joknean with her suburbs, and Beth-horon with her suburbs.

29 And Aijalon with her suburbs, and Oath-shimon with her suburbs.

30 And out of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Moser with her suburbs, and Bileam with her suburbs, for the family of the remnant of the sonnes of Kohath.

31 And the house of Gershom were given out of the family of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Golan in Basan with her suburbs, and Apta-moth with her suburbs.

32 And out of the tribe of Issachar; Kedesh with her suburbs, Dabarath with her suburbs.

33 And Ramoth with her suburbs, and Anan with her suburbs.

34 And out of the tribe of Aser; Baseth with her suburbs, and Abdon with her suburbs.

35 And Helok with her suburbs, and Kethob with her suburbs.

36 And out of the tribe of Naphtali; Kedesh in Galilee with her suburbs, and Hammon with her suburbs, and Kirjathaim with her suburbs.

37 Unto the rest of the children of Merari were given out of the tribe of Zebulun, Hammon with her suburbs, and Beth-horon with her suburbs.

38 And on the other side Jordan by Jericho, on the east side of Jordan were given them out of the tribe of Ruben, Bezer in the wilderness.

with her suburbs, and Jazab with her suburbs.

39 And Merari also with her suburbs, and Dabarath with her suburbs.

40 And out of the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead with her suburbs, and Dababaim with her suburbs.

41 And Becher with her suburbs, and Jazer with her suburbs.

CHAP. VII.

1 The sonnes of Issachar, 6 of Benjamin, 13 of Naphtali, 14 of Manasseh, 20, 24 and of Ephraim. 21 The calamity of Ephraim by the men of Gath. 23 Berish is born, 28 Ephraim's habitations. 30 The sonnes of Aser.

NOW the sonnes of Issachar were, * Tola, and Duah, Jashub, and Schimon, four.

2 And the sonnes of Tola; Uzzi, & Rephaiah, and Jeriel, and Jahmai, and Jibiam, and Shemuel, heads of their fathers' house, to wit, of Tola: they were valiant men of might in their generations; * whose number was in the days of David two and twenty thousand and six hundred.

3 And the sonnes of Uzzi; Izabiah: and the sonnes of Izabiah; Achiel, and Obadiah, and Joel, Jishai, five: all of them chief men.

4 And with them, by their generations, after the house of their fathers were bands of soldiers for warre, six and thirty thousand men: for they had many wives and sons.

5 And their brethren among all the families of Issachar, were men of might, reckoned in all by their genealogies, fourscore and seven thousand.

6 ¶ The Sonnes of * Benjamin; Bela, and Becher, and Jemath, three.

7 And the sonnes of Bela; Ezbon, and Uzzi, and Uzziel, and Jerimoth, and Jethi, five; heads of the house of their fathers, mighty men of valour, and were reckoned by their genealogies, twenty and two thousand and thirtie and four.

8 And the sonnes of Becher, Zemra, and Josah, and Eliezer, and Eliezer, and Dumai, and Jerimoth, and Adah, and Anathoth, and Alunah. All these are the sonnes of Becher.

9 And the number of them, after their genealogie by their generations, heads of the house of their fathers, mighty men of valour, was twenty thousand and two hundred.

10 The sonnes also of Jemath; Bilham: and the sonnes of Bilham; Zusi, and Benjamin, and Chab, and Chemanah, and Jethan, and Charkish, and Abisaph.

11 All these the sonnes of Jemath, by the heads of their fathers, mighty men of valour, were thirtie thousand and two hundred soldiers, fit to go out for warre and battell.

12 Shuppen also, and Shuppen the children of I Jer, and Dushim, the sonnes of I Aser.

13 ¶ The sonnes of Naphtali. Jahziel, and Guni, and Jeser, and Shalum, the sonnes of Bilham.

14 ¶ The sonnes of Manasseh; Asriel, whose name was: but his concubine the Ammonitess bare Asriel the father of Gilead:

15 And Asriel took to wife the sister of Shuppen and Shuppen, whose sisters name was (Asaphah), and the name of the second was Zelophehad: and Zelophehad had daughters.

16 And Asaphah the wife of Asriel bare a son, and she called his name Berish: and the name of his brother was Shimon, and his sisters were Chem, and Hekem.

2 The Israelites, 10 the priests, 14 and the Levites, with Nethinims, which dwell in Jerusalem. 27 The charge of certain Levites. 35 The stock of Saul and Jonathan.

All Israel were reckoned by genealogies, and behold, they were written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah, who were carried away to Babylon for their transgression.

2 ¶ Now the first inhabitants that dwell in their possessions in their cities were, the Israelites, the priests, Levites, and the Nethinims.

¶ Neh. 11, 1.

3 And in * Jerusalem dwelt of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin: and of the children of Ephraim, and Manasseh.

4 Githai the sonne of Ammihud, the sonne of Omri, the sonne of Imri, the sonne of Sami, of the children of Ephraim: the sonne of Judah.

5 And of the Sathlonites; Alaiab the first-born, and his sonnes.

6 And of the sonnes of Zerab; Jeuel, and their brethren, six hundred and ninety.

7 And of the sonnes of Benjamin; Salu the sonne of Meshullam, the sonne of Mosaviab, the sonne of Meshullam.

8 And Jeneab the sonne of Jeroham, and Eleab the sonne of Azzai, the sonne of Azzai, and Meshullam the sonne of Shephatiah, the sonne of Jeuel, the sonne of Jethur.

9 And their brethren, according to their generations, nine hundred and fifty and six. All these men were chief of the fathers in the house of their fathers.

10 ¶ And of the priests; Jeraiab, and Jehoiarib, and Jachin.

11 And Azariah the sonne of Bilgiah, the sonne of Meshullam, the sonne of Zadok, the sonne of Meraiot, the sonne of Abiath the ruler of the house of God.

12 And Azaiab the sonne of Jeroham, the sonne of Baalur, the sonne of Balchiah, and Meshullam the sonne of Aziel, the sonne of Zabiel, the sonne of Meshullam, the sonne of Meshullam, the sonne of Immer.

13 And their brethren, heads of the house of their fathers, a thousand and seven hundred and threescore; very able men for the work of the service of the house of God.

¶ Heb. mighty men of valour.

14 And of the Levites; Shemeiah the sonne of Baasab, the sonne of Azikam, the sonne of Bashaiah, of the sonnes of Merari.

15 And Bakbakkar, Beresh, and Galal, and Baranaiab the sonne of Azzab, the sonne of Zichri, the sonne of Alaph.

16 And Obadiab the sonne of Shemeiah, the sonne of Galal, the sonne of Jeduthun, and Berechiah, the sonne of Aza, the sonne of Ekanah, that dwell in the villages of the Artophathites.

17 And the porters were Shallum, and Akiah, and Talmon, and Ahman, and their brethren: Shallum was the chief.

18 ¶ Who hitherto waited in the kings gate eastward: they were porters in the companies of the children of Levi.

19 And Shallum the sonne of Kozai, the sonne of Obialaph, the sonne of Kozai, and his brethren: (of the house of his father) the Kohabites were over the work of the service, keepers of the gates of the tabernacle: and their fathers being over the host of the Lord, were keepers of the entry.

20 And Shimeas the sonne of Gleazar was the ruler over them in time past; and the Lord was with him.

21 And Zechariah the sonne of Meshelamiah, was porter of the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

22 All these which were chosen to be porters in the gates, were two hundred and twelve. These were reckoned by their genealogie in their villages: whom David and Samuel the seer did ordain in their set office.

† Heb. founded
Or, trust.

23 So they and their children had the oversight of the gates of the house of the Lord, namely the house of the tabernacle, by wards.

24 In four quarters were the porters, toward the east, west, north and south.

25 And their brethren, which were in their villages, were to come after seven days from time to time with them.

26 For these Levites, the four chief porters, were in their set office, and were over the chambers and treasures of the house of God.

Or, trust.
Or, store-houses.

27 ¶ And they lodged round about the house of God, because the charge was upon them, and the opening thereof every morning pertained to them.

28 And certain of them had the charge of the ministering vessels, that they should bring them in and out by tale.

† Heb. bring them in by tale, and carry them out by tale.

29 Some of them also were appointed to oversee the vessels, and all the instruments of the sanctuary, and the fine flour, and the wine, and the oil, and the frankincense, and the spices.

Or, vessels.

30 And some of the sonnes of the priests made the ordinance of the spices.

Or, on flat plates, or slices.

32 And other of their brethren of the sonnes of the Kohabites, were over the set bread to prepare it every sabbath.

† Heb. bread of ordaining.

33 And these are the fingers, chief of the fathers of the Levites, who remaining in the chambers, were free: for they were employed in that work, day and night.

† Heb. upon them.

34 These chief fathers of the Levites were chief throughout their generations; these dwell at Jerusalem.

35 ¶ And in Gibeon dwelt the father of Obed, Jehiel, whose wives name was * Adah.

* Chap. 8, 34

36 And his first-born sonne Abdon, then Zui, and Kish, and Baal, and Mer, and Fadab.

37 And Obed, and Aho, and Zechariah, and Mikloth.

38 And Mikloth begat Shimeam: and they also dwell with their brethren at Jerusalem, over against their brethren.

39 * And Mer begat Kish, and Kish begat Saul, and Saul begat Jonathan, and Balchihua, and Abinadab, and Eshbaal.

* Chap. 8, 33

40 And the sonne of Jonathan was Meribbaal: and Meribbaal begat Micab.

41 And the sonnes of Micab were, Pirathon, and Seleth, and Tabas, * and Ahaz.

* Chap. 8, 34

42 And Ahaz begat Jarab, and Jarab begat Alemeth, and Amaveth, and Imri; and Imri begat Moza.

43 And Moza begat Binera, and Rephaiah his sonne, Eleazab his sonne, Aziel his sonne.

44 And Aziel had six sonnes, whose names are these; Azikam, Bocheru, and Imael, and Zechariah, and Obadiab, and Hanan. These were the sonnes of Aziel.

Now the Philistines fought against Israel, and the men of Israel fled before the Philistines, & fell down slain in mount Gilboa.

2 And the Philistines followed hard after Saul, and after his sonnes, and the Philistines slew Jonathan, and Abinadab, and Palchigah, the sonnes of Saul.

3 And the battel went sore against Saul, and the archers hit him, and he was wounded of the archers.

4 Then said Saul to his armour-bearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through therewith; lest these uncircumcised come, and abuse me: but his armour-bearer would not, for he was feare afraid. So Saul took a sword, and fell upon it.

5 And when his armour-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise on the sword, and died.

6 So Saul died, and his three sonnes, and all his house died together.

7 And when all the men of Israel that were in the valley, saw that they fled, and that Saul and his sonnes were dead; then they looked their cities, and fled: and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

8 And it came to passe on the morrow, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Saul and his sonnes fallen in mount Gilboa.

9 And when they had stripped him, they took his head, and his armour, and sent into the land of the Philistines round about, to carry tidings unto their idols, and to the people.

10 And they put his armour in the house of their gods, and fastened his head in the temple of Dagon.

11 And when all Jabels-gilead heard all that the Philistines had done to Saul;

12 They arose, all the valiant men, and took away the body of Saul, and the bodies of his sonnes, and brought them to Jabels, and buried their bones under the oak in Jabels, and fasted seven dayes.

13 So Saul died for his transgression which he committed against the Lord, which he kept not, and also for asking counsel of one that had a familiar spirit, to enquire of it;

14 And enquired not of the Lord: therefore he slew him, and turned the kingdom unto David the sonne of Jesse.

Then all Israel gathered themselves to David unto Hebron, saying, Behold, we are thy bone and thy flesh.

2 And moreover in time past, when Saul was king, thou wast he that feedest out, and broughtest in Israel: and the Lord our God said unto thee, Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be ruler over my people Israel.

3 Therefore came all the elders of Israel to the king at Hebron, and David made a covenant with them at Hebron, before the Lord, and they anointed David king over Israel, according to the word of the Lord by Samuel.

4 And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem which is Jebus, where the Jebusites were, the inhabitants of the land.

5 And the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, Thou shalt not come hither. Nevertheless David took the castle of Zion, which is the citie of David.

6 And David said, Whosoever smiteth the Jebusites first, shall be chief and captain. So Joab the sonne of David went first up, and was chief.

7 And David dwelt in the castle, therefore they called it the citie of David.

8 And he built the citie round about, when from Gillo round about: and Joab repaired the rest of the citie.

9 So David went greater and greater: for the Lord was with him.

10 These also are the chief of the mighty men whom David had, whom strengthened themselves with him in his kingdom, and with all Israel, to make him king according to the word of the Lord concerning Israel.

11 And this is the number of the mighty men whom David had: Ishobabbar, an Hachmonite, the chief of the captains, he lift up his spear against three hundred, slain by him at one time.

12 And after him was Eleazar the sonne of Dodo the Abiathite, who was one of the three mighty men.

13 He was with David at the battle of Baal-paranon, and there the Philistines were gathered together to battell, where was a parcell of ground full of barley, and the people fled from before the Philistines.

14 And they set themselves in the midst of that parcell, and delivered it, and slew the Philistines; and the Lord saved them by a great deliverance.

15 And three of the thirty captains went down to the rock to David, into the cave of Adullam, and the host of the Philistines encamped in the valley of Rephaim.

16 And David was then in the hold, and the Philistines garrison was then at Beth-lehem.

17 And David longed and said, Oh that one would give me drink of the water of the well of Beth-lehem, that is at the gate.

18 And the three brake through the host of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Beth-lehem, that was by the gate, and took it and brought it to David: but David would not drink of it, but poured it out to the Lord.

19 And said, God forbid that I should do this thing: shall I drink the blood of these men that have put their lives in jeopardy for me with the jeopardy of their lives they brought their lives, it: therefore he would not drink it. These things did these three mighty men.

20 And Abishai the brother of Joab, he was chief of the three: for lifting up his spear against three hundred, he slew them, and had a name among the three.

21 Of the three, he was more honourable than the two, for he was their captain; howbeit, he attained not unto the first three.

22 Benaiah the sonne of Jehoiada, the sonne of a valiant man of Gath, he who had done many acts, he slew two lion-like men of Gath, also he went down & slew a lion in a pit in a snow day.

23 And he slew an Egyptian, a man of great stature, five cubits high, and in the Egyptians hand was a spear like a weavers beam, and he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptians hand, and slew him with his own spear.

24 These

282

24 These things did Beniah the sonne of Nephtali, and had the name among the three mighties.

25 Behold, he was honourable among the three, but attained not to the first three: and David set him over his guard.

26 Also the valiant men of the armies, were Ashai the brother of Joab, Ebanah the sonne of Dodo of Beth-lehem.

27 Shammoth the Harodite, Peler the Be-lonite.

28 Ira the sonne of Ikesh the Tekoite, Abiezer the Anothite.

29 Sibbecai the Hushathite, Itai the Ahobite,

30 Zabari the Perophtathite, Peled the sonne of Baanah the Perophtathite.

31 Ittai the sonne of Ribai of Gilead, that pertained to the children of Benjamin, Beniah the Pirathonite.

32 Hurei of the hooks of Gash, Abiel the Arbathite.

33 Izabab the Betheronite, Eshabba the Shaalbonite.

34 The sonnes of Oshem the Gilonite, Jonathan the sonne of Shage the Pararite.

35 Ahiam the sonne of Sacar the Pararite, Eliphal the sonne of Ur.

36 Hopher the Mecherathite, Abijah the Belonite.

37 Hurei the Carmelite, Baarai the sonne of Chabai.

38 Joel the brother of Nathan, Abihai the sonne of Haggeri.

39 Seleu the Ammonite, Zabari the Perophtite, the armour-bearer of Joab the sonne of Hethiah.

40 Ira the Ishite, Gath the Ishite.

41 Uriah the Hittite, Zabab the sonne of Abi.

42 Adna the sonne of Shiza the Reubenite, a captain of the Reubenites, and thirty with him.

43 Hanan the sonne of Macab, and Josaphat the Ashdudite.

44 Uzai the Ahterathite, Shanna and Jehiel the sonnes of Hochem the Aroerite.

45 Jedaiel the sonne of Shimon, and Jothab his brother, the Gileadite.

46 Uziel the Ephraimite, and Teribai, and Johabab, the sonnes of Ginnah, and Ichmah the Moabite.

47 Uziel, and Eben, and Isaiel the Delobathite.

CHAP. XII.

1 The companies that came to David at Ziklag. 23 The armies that came to him at Hebron.

Now these are they that came to David to Ziklag: while he yet kept himself close, because of Saul the sonne of Kish: and they were among the mighty men, helpers of the warre.

2 They were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left, in hurling stones, and shooting arrows out of a bow, even of Sams brethren of Benjamin.

3 The chief was Abiezer, then Joab, the sonnes of Shemaah the Gileathite, and Itiel, and Peler, the sonnes of Amaveth and Beraiah, and Jehu the Anothite.

4 And Amasai the Gileonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty, and Jerimiah, and Ishbazi, and Jonathan, and Josabab the Becherathite.

5 Eluzai, and Jerimoth, and Beathiah: and Shemariah, and Shephathiah the Pararite.

6 Ekanah, and Ithiah, and Asariel, and Jozzer, and Johobab, the Kephites.

7 And Joiah, and Shebathiah, the sonnes of Jezerah of Gera.

8 And of the Gadites there separated themselves unto David, into the hold to the wilderness, men of might, and men of warre: for the battell, that could handle shield and buckler, whose faces were like the faces of lions, and were as swift as the roes upon the mountains.

9 These the first, Beniah the second, Eliah the third.

10 Baishammah the fourth, Jerimiah the fifth.

11 Attai the sixth, Uziel the seventh.

12 Johanan the eighth, Eizabab the ninth.

13 Jerimiah the tenth, Baithanai the eleventh.

14 These were of the sonnes of Gad, captains of the host: none of the least was over an hundred, and the greatest over a thousand.

15 These are they that went over Jordan in the last month, when it had overflowed all his banks, & they put to flight all them of the waters, both toward the east, and toward the west.

16 And there came of the children of Benjamin, and Judah, to the hold unto David.

17 And David went out to meet them, and answered and said unto them, If ye be come peaceably unto me to help me, mine heart shall be knit unto you: but if ye be come to betray me to mine enemies, seeing there is no loving in mine hands, the God of our fathers look thereon, and rebuke it.

18 Then the spirit came upon Amasai, who was chief of the captains, and he said, Thine are we, David, and on thy side, thou sonne of Isai: Jesse: peace, peace be unto thee, and peace be to thine helpers: for thy God helpeth thee. When David received them, and made them captains of the band.

19 And there fell some of Beniamin to David, when he came with the Ishbitites against Saul to battell, but they helped them not, for the love of the Ishbitites, upon admonition, sent him away, saying, We will fall to his master Saul, to the jeopardy of our heads.

20 As he went to Siklag, there fell to him of Beniamin, Amnah, and Josabab, and Teribai, and Michael, and Josabab, and Elifhu, and Ittai, captains of the thousands that were of Beniamin.

21 And they helped David against the band of the rovers: for they were all mighty men of hand, valour: and were captains in the host.

22 For at that time day by day, there came to David to help him, until it was a great host, like the host of God.

23 And these are the numbers of these captains that were ready armed to the warre, and came to David to Hebron, to turn the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the word of the Lord.

24 The children of Judah that bare shield, and spear, were six thousand and eight hundred, ready armed to the warre.

25 Of the children of Simeon, mighty men of valour for the warre, seven thousand and one hundred.

26 Of the children of Levi, four thousand and six hundred.

27 And Jehoadab was the leader of the Aaronites, and with him were three thousand and seven hundred.

28 And Adnah, a young man mighty of valour, and of his fathers house twenty and two captains.

29 And of the children of Benjamin the thirtieth part of Saul, three thousand: for hitherto the greatest part of them had kept the word of the Lord.

30 And of the children of Ephraim, thirty thousand & eight hundred, mighty men of valour, famous throughout the house of their fathers.

31 And of the tribe of Dan, eighteen thousand, which were appointed by name, to war and make David king.

32 And of the children of Asher, which were men that had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do: the heads of them were two hundred, and all their brethren were at their commandment.

33 Of Zebulun, such as went forth to battell, they were in warre, with all instruments of warre, fifty thousand, which could keep rank, they were not of double heart.

34 And of Naphtali, a thousand captains, and with them, with shield and spear, thirty and seven thousand.

35 And of the Danites, expert in warre, twenty and eight thousand and six hundred.

36 And of Aser, such as went forth to battell, perfect in warre, forty thousand.

37 And on the other side of Jordan, of the Reubenites, and of the Gadites, and of the half-tribe of Manasseh, with all manner of instruments of warre for the battell, an hundred and twenty thousand.

38 All these men of warre, that could keep rank, came with a perfect heart to Jehon, to make David king over all Israel: and all the rest also of Israel, were of one heart to make David king.

39 And there they were with David three dayes, eating and drinking: for their brethren had prepared for them.

40 Moreover, they that were with him, even unto Achish, and Zebulun, and Naphtali, brought bread on asses, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen, and limeat, meal, cakes of figs, and bunches of raisins, and wine, and oyl, and oxen, and they abundantly, for there was joy in Israel.

CHAP. XIII.

1 David fetcheth the ark with great solemnity from Kirjath-jearim, & Vri being smitten, the ark is left at the house of Obed-edon.

2 David consisted with the captains of thousands, and hundreds, and with every leader.

3 And David said unto all the congregation of Israel, It seem good unto you, and that it be of the Lord, to send us and abroad unto our brethren every where, that are left in all the land of Israel, and with them also to the priests and Levites which are in their cities and suburbs, that they may gather themselves unto us.

4 And let us bring again the ark of our God to us: for we enquired not at it in the dayes of Saul.

5 And all the congregation said, that they would do so: for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.

6 So David gathered all Israel together, from Ethio of Egypt, even unto the entering of Phenix, to bring the ark of God from Kirjath-jearim.

7 And David went up, and all Israel to Balaah, that is, to Kirjath-jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up thence the ark of God the Lord, that dwelt between the cherubims, whose name is called on it.

8 And they carried the ark of God in a new cart, out of the house of Achimelech: and Uzza and Abio made the cart.

9 And David and all Israel played before God with all their might, and with singing, and with harps, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, and with trumpets.

10 And when they came unto the threshing-floor of Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the ark, for the oxen stumbled.

11 And the anger of the Lord was kindled against Uzza, and he smote him, because he put his hand to the ark: and there he lay before God.

12 And David was displeased, because the Lord so had made a breach upon Uzza: wherefore that place is called Pithul-uzza to this day.

13 And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the ark of God home to me?

14 So David brought not the ark home to himself to the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of Obed-edon the Gittite.

15 And the ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edon in his house three months. And the Lord so blessed the house of Obed-edon, and all that he had.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Hiram kindnesse to David. 2 Davids felicity in people, wives and children. 3 His victories against the Philistines.

1 Thus Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and timber of cedars, with masons, and carpenters to build him an house.

2 And David perceived that the Lord so had confirmed him king over Israel, for his kingdom was lifted up on high, because of his people Israel.

3 And David took to him wives at Jerusalem: and David begat more women & daughters.

4 Now these are the names of his children which he had at Jerusalem: Shammun, and Shobab, Nathan, and Solomon,

5 And Iddar, and Elisha, and Eliphat,

6 And Hoga, and Joseph, and Japhia,

7 And Chisun, and Tethi, and Chai.

8 And when the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, the Philistines went up against David: and David heard of it, and went out against them.

9 And the Philistines came and pitched their tents in the valley of Rephaim.

10 And David enquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines, and will thou deliver them into mine hand? And the Lord so answered him, Go up, for I will deliver them into thine hand.

11 So he arose upon Baal-perazin, and David smote the Philistines. Then David said, God hath broken in upon mine enemies by mine hand, for the breaking forth of waters: therefore they called the name of that place, Baal-perazin.

12 And when they had left their goods there, David gave a commandment, and they were burnt with fire.

13 And the Philistines yet again spread themselves abroad in the valley.

14 Therefore David enquired again of God, and God so answered him, Go not up after them, turn aside from them, and come upon them from against the mulberry-trees.

15 And it shall be, when thou shalt hear a sound of going in the top of the mulberry-trees, that thou shalt go out to meet them: for the Lord is gone forth before thee, to smite the host of the Philistines.

16 David therefore did as God commanded him.

him: and they shew the host of the Philistines from Gibeon even to Gazer.

17 And the time of David went out into all lands, and the Lord was brought the fear of him upon all nations.

CHAP. XV.

1 David having prepared a place for the ark, ordereth the priests and Levites to bring it from Obbededom. 25 He performeth the solemnity thereof with great joy. 29 Michal despiseth him.

And David made him houses in the city of David, and prepared a place for the ark of God, and pitched for it a tent.

2 Then David said, I have ought to carry the ark of God, but the Levites are chosen to carry the ark of God, and to minister unto him for ever.

3 And David gathered all Israel together to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the Lord unto his place, which he had prepared for it.

4 And David assembled the children of Aaron, and the Levites.

5 Of the sons of Kohath: Ariel the chief, and his brethren an hundred and twenty.

6 Of the sons of Gerson: Aiah the chief, and his brethren two hundred and twenty.

7 Of the sons of Merari: Joel the chief, and his brethren an hundred and thirty.

9 Of the sons of Issachar: Eliel the chief, and his brethren fourscore.

10 Of the sons of Aziel: Amminadab the chief, and his brethren an hundred and twelve.

11 And David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Ariel, Aiah, and Joel, Shemeiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab, 12 And said unto them, We are the chief of the fathers of the Levites: sanctify yourselves both ye and your brethren, that you may bring up the ark of the Lord God of Israel, unto the place that I have prepared for it.

13 For because ye did it not at the first, the Lord our God made a breach upon us, for that we sought him not after the due order.

14 So the priests and the Levites sanctified themselves to bring up the ark of the Lord God of Israel.

15 And the children of the Levites bare the ark of God upon their shoulders, with the staves thereon, as Moses commanded, according to the word of the Lord.

16 And David spake to the chief of the Levites, to appoint their brethren to be the singers with instruments of music, psalteries, and harps, and cymbals, sounding, by lifting up the voice with joy.

17 So the Levites appointed: Benaiah the sonne of Joel: and of his brethren: Aiah the sonne of Berechiah: and of the sonnes of Merari their brethren: Ethan the sonne of Buchiah.

18 And with them their brethren of the second degree, Zachariah, Ben, and Jaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Amiel, and Benaiah, and Jaasiah, and Mattithiah, and Eliphaleb, and Ekiniah, and Obededom, and Jeiel, the porters.

19 So the singers, Benaiah, Aiah, and Echan, were appointed to sound with cymbals of brass.

20 And Zachariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Amiel, and Echan, and Obadiah, and Benaiah, with psalteries on Alamoth.

21 And Mattithiah, and Eliphaleb, and Ekiniah, and Obededom, and Jeiel, and Jaasiah, with harps upon the Sheminith to excell.

22 And Echaniah chief of the Levites [was for] long: he instructed about the song, because he was skilful.

23 And Berechiah and Ekanah were doozer-keepers for the ark.

24 And Shemariah, and Jedothaphat, and Baruchiel, and Amasai, and Zachariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer the priests, did blow with the trumpets before the ark of God: and Obededom and Jeiah were doozer-keepers for the ark.

25 [So] David and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the Lord out of the house of Obededom with joy.

26 And it came to passe when God helped the Levites that bare the ark of the covenant of the Lord, that they offered seven bullocks and seven rammes.

27 And David was clothed with a robe of fine linen, and all the Levites that bare the ark, and the singers, and Echaniah the master of the song, with the singers: David also had upon him an ephod of linen.

28 Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the Lord with shouting, and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, making a noise with psalteries and harps.

29 And it came to passe as the ark of the covenant of the Lord came to the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looking out at a window, saw king David dancing and playing: and she despised him in her heart.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Davids festivall sacrifice. 4 He ordereth a quire to sing thanksgiving. 7 The psalme of thanksgiving. 37 He appointeth ministers, porters, priests, and musicians, to attend continually on the ark.

So they brought the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent: that David had pitched for it: and they offered burnt-sacrifices, and peace-offerings before God.

2 And when David had made an end of offering the burnt-offerings, and the peace-offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the Lord.

3 And he dealt to every one a loaf of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine.

4 And he appointed certain of the Levites to minister before the ark of the Lord, and to record, and to thank and praise the Lord God of Israel:

5 Aiah the chief, and next to him Zachariah, Jeiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliah, and Benaiah, and Obededom, and Jeiel with psalteries, and with harps: but Aiah made a sound with cymbals.

6 Benaiah also and Jahaziel the priests with trumpets continually before the ark of the covenant of God.

7 Then on that day David delivered first this psalme to thank the Lord into the hand of Aiah and his brethren.

8 Give thanks unto the Lord our God, call upon his name, make known his deeds among the people.

9 Sing unto him, sing psalmes unto him, talk ye of all his wondrous works, 16 And David the king came, and sat before the Lord, and said, O Lord, I am a poor man, and what is mine house, that thou hast brought me hither?

17 And yet this was a small thing in thine eyes, O God, for thou hast also spoken of thy servants house for a great house to come, and hast regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree, O Lord, I am a poor man.

18 What can David speak more to thee for the honour of thy servants: for thou knowest thy servant.

19 O Lord, for thy servants sake, and according to thine own heart hast thou done all this greatness, in making known all these great things.

22 For thy people Israel whom thou makest thine own people for ever, and thou Lord, because of thy God.

23 Therefore now Lord, let the thing that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house, be established for ever, and do as thou hast said.

24 Let it even be established, that thy name may be magnified for ever, saying, The Lord of hosts is the God of Israel, even a God to Israel: and let the house of David thy servant be established before thee.

1 David subdued the Philistines and the Moabites.

Now after this, * it came to pass; that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them, and took Gath and her towns out of the hand of the Philistines.

2 And he smote Moab, and the Moabites became David's servants, and brought gifts.

† Or, Hadad-

3 And David smote Hadadzer king of Zobah unto Hamath, as he went to stablize his dominion by the river Euphrates.

4 And David took from him a thousand chariots, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: David also houghed all the chariot-horses, but reserved of them an hundred chariots.

† Heb. Damascusk.

5 And when the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadzer king of Zobah, David slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men.

6 Then David put garrisons in Syria, Damascus, and the Syrians became David's servants, and brought gifts. Thus the Lord was preserved David whithersoever he went.

7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadzer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

8 Likewise from Tiddah, and from Chub, cities of Hadadzer, brought David very much brass, wherewith Solomon made the basen sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of brass.

9 And when king David had smitten all the host of Hadadzer king of Zobah:

10 He sent Hadadzer his sonne to king David, to enquire of his welfare, and to congratulate him, because he had fought against Hadadzer, and smitten him, (for Hadadzer † had warred with him) and with him all manner of vessels of gold, and silver, and brass.

11 And when king David dedicated unto the Lord, with the silver and the gold that he brought from all these nations, from Edom, and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalek.

12 Moreover, Abigail the sonne of Nethaneel slew of the Edomites in the valley of salt, eighteen thousand.

13 And he put garrisons in Edom, and all the Edomites became David's servants. Thus the Lord was preserved David whithersoever he went.

14 So David reigned over all Israel, and executed judgment and justice among all his people.

15 And Iothab the sonne of Jerahmeel was over the host, and Jehoiaphab the sonne of Ahisur, † recorder.

16 And Zadok the sonne of Abiathar, and Abiathar the sonne of Ahimelech, were the priests, and Shileah, and Ishmaiah, were scribes.

17 And Benaiah the sonne of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites, and the Pelishtines: and the sonnes of David were † chief about the king.

CHAP. XIX.

1 David's messengers sent to comfort Hannus the sonne of Nahab, are villanously entreated, 6 The Ammonites strengthened by the Syrians, are overcome by Joab and Abisbai. 16 Shephat making a new supply of the Syrians, is slain by David.

Now * it came to pass after this, that David sent the king of the children of Ammon silver, and his sonne reigned in his stead.

2 And David said, I will shew kindness unto Hannus the sonne of Nahab, because his father shewed kindness to me. And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father: so the servants of David came unto the land of the children of Ammon, to Hannus, to comfort him.

3 But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hannus, † Thinkest thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath sent comforters unto thee? are not his servants come unto thee, to say to thee, to search, and to overthrow, and to spe out the land?

4 Wherefore Hannus took David's servants, and shaven them, and cut off their garments in the midst hard by their buttocks, and sent them away.

5 Then there went certain, and told David how the men were shaven; and he sent to meet them (for the men were greatly ashamed) and the king said, Carry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

that to sink, they had made themselves & others to David. And the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Syria-maschab, and out of Jobab.

7 So they hired thirty and two thousand chariots, and the king of Meschab and his people, who came and pitched before Rabbah. And the children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battell.

8 And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men.

9 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battell in aray before the gate of the citie: and the kings that were come, were by themselves in the field.

10 And when Joab saw that the battell was set against him, before and behind, he chose out of all the choices of Israel, and put them in aray against the Syrians.

11 And the rest of the people he delivered unto the hand of Abisai his brother, and they set themselves in aray against the children of Ammon.

12 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will help thee.

13 Be of good courage, and let us debate our selves valiantly for our people, and for the cities of our God: and let the Lord do that which is good in his sight.

14 So Joab and the people that were with him, drew nigh before the Syrians, into the battell: and they died before him.

15 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were slain, they likewise fled before Abisai his brother, and turned into the citie. When Joab came to Jerusalem.

16 And when the Syrians saw that they were put to the sword before Israel, they sent messengers, and worded with the Syrians that were beyond the river: and Shobach the captain of the host of Hadrach, went before them.

17 And it was told David, and he gathered all Israel, and passed over Jordan, and came upon them, and set the battell in aray against them: so when David had put the battell in aray against the Syrians, they fought with him.

18 But the Syrians fled before Israel, and David slew of the Syrians seven thousand men, which fought in chariots, and four thousand footmen, and killed Shobach the captain of the host.

19 And when the servants of Hadrach saw that they were put to the sword before Israel, they made peace with David, and became his servants: neither would the Syrians help the children of Ammon any more.

CHAP. XX.

1 Rabbah is besieged by Joab, spoiled by David, and the people thereof tortured. 4 Three giants are slain in three severall overthrowes of the Philistines.

And it came to passe, that after the year was expired, at the time that kings go out to battell, Joab led forth the power of the armie, and wasted the country of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah (the David tarried at Jerusalem) and Joab smote Rabbah, and destroyed it.

2 And David took the crown of their king from off his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold: and there were precious stones in it, and it was set upon Damasus: and he brought also exceeding much spoil out of the citie.

3 And he brought out the people that were in it, and cut them with axes and very barres of iron, and with axes: then he dealt David with all the cities of the children of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

4 And it came to passe after this, that there arose warre at Gether way, the Philistines, at which time Abimelech the Gathite, slew Sippai: that was of the children of the giant, and they were subdued.

5 And there was warre againe with the Philistines, and Elhanan the sonne of Jaah, slew Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gathite, whose year-stake was like a weavers beam.

6 And yet againe there was warre at Gether way: there was a man of great stature, whose hand and toes were four and twenty, and on each of his hand, and on each of his foot: and he also was the sonne of the giant.

7 But when he defied Israel, Jonathan the sonne of David, slew him: and he slew him with the sword of his servants.

8 These were slain unto the giant in Gath, and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

CHAP. XXI.

1 David tempted by Satan, forsook Joab to number the people. 5 The number of the people being brought, David repented of it. 9 David having three plagues propounded by God, chooseth the pestilence. 14 After the death of seventy thousand, David by repentance procurreth the destruction of Jerusalem. 18 David, by Gods direction, purchaseth Araunahs threshing-floor, where having built an altar, God giveth a victory to his favour by fire, and destroyeth the plague. 26 Araunah sacrificeth there, being restrained from Gibeon by fear of the Angel.

And when David was up against Gath, and the Ammonites did to him as before.

2 And David said to Joab, number the number of the people, for I will know the number of the people, that I may know it.

3 And Joab answered, The Lord be with thee, his people are hundred times to many more as they be: but why lord the king, are they not all our hand servants: why then should thy low require this thing? why will he be a cause of trespass to Israel?

4 Nevertheless, the kings word prevailed against Joab: therefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem.

5 And Joab gave the summe of the number of the people unto David: and all the of Israel were a thousand thousand and an hundred thousand men that drew the sword, and hundred thousand men that drew bow.

6 But Levi and Benjamin counted he not amongst them: for the kings word was admonition to Joab.

7 And God was displeased with this thing, and he therefore he smote Israel.

8 And David said unto God, I have sinned the eyes of greatly, because I have done this thing: but now, the LORD, I beseech thee, do away the iniquity of thy servant, for I have done very foolishly.

I will verily buy it for the full price: for I will not take that which is thine for the L 2 2 2 2, nor offer burnt-offerings without cost.

25 So * David gave to Onan for the place, six hundred shekels of gold by weight.

26 And David built there an altar unto the offerings, and called upon the L 2 2 2 2, and he answered him from heaven by fire upon the altar of burnt-offering.

CHAP. XXII.

1 David foretelling the place of the temple, preparing abundance for the building of it. 6 He instructeth Solomon in Gods promises, and his duty in building the temple. 17 He chargeth the princes to assist his sonne.

Then David said, This is the house of the L 2 2 2 2 my God, and this is the altar of the burnt-offering for Israel.

2 And David commanded to gather together the strangers that were in the land of Israel, and be let malons to hew wrought stones to build the house of God.

3 And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails for the boodies of the gates, and for the joinings, and brass in abundance without weight.

4 Also cedar-trees in abundance for the Sono-nians, and they of Tyre, brought much cedar-wood to David.

5 And David said, * Solomon my sonne is * Chap. 29, 1 young and tender, and the house that is to be built for the L 2 2 2 2, must be exceeding waghtfull, of stone, and of glory throughout all countreys: I will therefore now make preparation for it. So David prepared abundantly before his death.

6 En then he called for Solomon his sonne, and charged him to build an house for the L 2 2 2 2
God of Israel.

7 And David said to Solomon, My sonne, as for me, it was in my minde to build an house unto the name of the L 2 2 2 2 my God:

8 But the word of the L 2 2 2 2 came to me, saying, * Thou hast shed blood abundantly, and hast made great warres: thou shalt not build an shall be a man of rest, and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about: for his name shall be * Solomon; and I will give peace and quietnesse unto Israel in his dayes. * That is, peaceable. * a. Sam. 9, 1

10 * He shall build an house for my name, and he shall be my sonne, and I will be his father, and I will establish the throne of his kingdome over Israel for ever.

11 Now my sonne, the L 2 2 2 2 be with thee, and prosper thou, and build the house of the L 2 2 2 2 to thy God, as he hath said of thee.

12 Onely the L 2 2 2 2 give thee wisdom and understanding, and give thee charge concerning Israel, that thou mayest keep the law of the L 2 2 2 2 thy God.

13 Then shall thou prosper if thou takest heed to fulfill the statutes and judgements which the L 2 2 2 2 charged Solomon with, concerning Israel:
be strong, and of good courage, dread not, nor be dismayed.

14 Now behold, I in my trouble I have prepared for the house of the L 2 2 2 2 six hundred povens, thousand

* As verse 3. thousand talents of gold, and a thousand thousand talents of silver, and of brass, and iron, without * weight: (for it is in abundance) timber also and stone have I prepared, and thou mayest add thereto.

15 Moreover, there are workmen with thee in abundance, hewers, and workers of stone and timber, and all manner of cunning men, for every manner of work.

16 Of the gold, the silver, and the brass, and the iron, there is no number. Arise therefore, and do so, and the Lord be with thee.

17 ¶ David also commanded all the princes of Israel to help Solomon his sonne, saying,

18 Is not the Lord our God with you? and hath he not given you rest on every side? for he hath given the inhabitants of the land into mine hand, and the land is subdued before the Lord, and before his people.

19 Now let your heart and your soul to seek the Lord your God, arise therefore, and build ye the sanctuary of the Lord our God, to bring the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and the holy vessels of God, into the house that is to be built to the name of the Lord.

¶ Chap. 28. 5. When David was old and full of days, he made Solomon his sonne king over Israel.

2 ¶ And he gathered together all the princes of Israel, with the priests and the Levites.

¶ Num. 4. 3. 3 Now the Levites were numbered from the age of thirty years and upward: and their number by their polls, man by man, was thirty and eight thousand.

¶ Or, 10 over 10. 4 Of which twenty and four thousand were to set forward the work of the house of the Lord: and six thousand were officers and judges.

5 Moreover, four thousand were porters, and four thousand praised the Lord with the instruments which I made (said David) to praise therewith.

¶ Exod. 6. 16. 6 And David divided them into four courses among the families of Levi, namely, Gersson, Kohath, and Merari.

7 ¶ Of the Gerssonites were Laadan and Shimei.

8 The families of Laadan, the chief was Jehiel, and Jeham, and Joel, three.

9 The families of Shimei: Shelomith, and Haziel, and Haran, three. These were the chief of the fathers of Laadan.

¶ Or, 212, 11. 10 And the families of Shimei were, Jathab, Zina and Jehu, and Beriah. These four were the families of Shimei.

¶ Exod. 6. 20. 11 And Jathab was the chief, and Jehu the second: but Zina and Beriah had not many families: therefore they were in one reckoning, according to their fathers house.

12 ¶ The families of Kohath; Amram, Izhar, Behoban, and Uzziel, four.

¶ Exod. 28. 1. 13 The families of Amram; Aaron and Moses: and Aaron was separated, that he should sanctify the most holy things, he and his families for ever, to burn incense before the Lord, to minister unto him, and to bless in his name for ever.

¶ Exod. 28. 1. 14 Now concerning Moses the man of God, his families were named of the tribe of Levi.

15 ¶ The families of Moses were, Gershom and Eliezer.

16 Of the families of Gershom, Shubael was the chief.

17 And the families of Eliezer were, Rehabiah the chief. And Eliezer had none other families; but the families of Rehabiah were very many.

18 Of the families of Izhar, Shelomith the chief.

19 Of the families of Izhar, Zeriah the first, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and Jehameam the fourth.

20 Of the families of Uzziel, Micah the first, and Issiah the second.

21 ¶ The families of Merari; Gashiti, and Gushiti: the families of Gashiti, Eleazar, and Kishi.

22 And Eleazar died, and had no families but daughters: and their brethren the families of Kishi took them.

23 The families of Gushiti; Gashiti, and Eder, and Jeremoth, three.

24 ¶ Their were the families of Levi after the house of their fathers; even the chief of the fathers, as they were counted by number of names by their polls, that did the work for the service of the house of the Lord, from the age of twenty years and upward.

25 For David said, The Lord our God of Israel hath given rest unto his people, that they may dwell in Jerusalem for ever.

26 And also unto the Levites, they shall no more carry the tabernacle, nor any vessels of it for the service thereof.

27 For by the last words of David, the Levites were numbered from twenty years old, and above:

28 Because their office was to wait on the families of Aaron, for the service of the house of the Lord, in the courts, and in the chambers, and in the purifying of all holy things, and the work of the service of the house of God.

29 Both for the shew-bread, and for the fine flour for meat-offering, and for the unleavened cakes, and for that which is baked in the pan, and for that which is fried, and for all manner of meat and of oil.

30 And to stand every morning to thank and praise the Lord our God, and likewise at even.

31 And to offer all burnt-sacrifices unto the Lord in the sabbaths, in the new moons, and on the set feasts, by number, according to the order commanded unto them continually before the Lord.

32 And that they should keep the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the holy place, and the charge of the families of Aaron their brethren, in the service of the house of the Lord.

CHAP. XXIIII.

1 The divisions of the families of Aaron by lot into four and twenty orders. 20 The Kohathites, 27 and the Merarites divided by lot.

Now these are the divisions of the families of Aaron: The families of Aaron; Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

2 But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children: therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the priests office.

3 And David distributed them, both Zadok of the families of Eleazar, and Abiathar of the families of Ithamar, according to their offices in their service.

5 Thus were they divided by lot, one lot with another; for the governments of the sanctuary, and governours of the house of God, were of the sonnes of Eleazar, and of the sonnes of Ithamar.

6 And Shemaiah the sonne of Nathan the scribe, one of the Levites, wrote them before the king and the princes, and Zadok the priest, and Ahimelech the sonne of Ithamar, and before the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites; one principal household being taken for Eleazar, and one taken for Ithamar.

25 The brother of Shubael was Shubael: of the sonnes of Shubael; Jehoiakim.

26 The sonnes of Merari were; Shubael and Shubael: the sonnes of Merari; Shubael.

27 Of the sonnes of Merari; Shubael; Shubael, and Shubael, and Shubael.

28 Of Shubael came Eleazar, who had no son.

29 Concerning Shubael: the sonnes of Shubael were; Shubael.

30 The sonnes also of Shubael; Shubael, and Shubael, and Shubael.

31 These were the sonnes of Shubael, in the houses of David the king, and Shubael, and Shubael, and the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites, even the principal fathers over against their younger brethren.

Discover, David and the captains of the host separated to the service of the sonnes of Shubael, and of Merari, and of Jehoiakim, who should possess with harps, with psalteries, and with cymbals: and the number of the workmen, according to their service, was:

2 Of the sonnes of Shubael; Shubael, and Shubael, and Shubael, the sonnes of Shubael, under the hands of Shubael, which was divided according to the order of the king.

3 Of Jehoiakim: the sonnes of Jehoiakim; Jehoiakim, and Jehoiakim, and Jehoiakim, the sonnes of Jehoiakim, under the hands of their father Jehoiakim, who possessed with a harp, to give thanks and to praise the Lord.

4 Of Merari: the sonnes of Merari; Merari, and Merari, and Merari, the sonnes of Merari, under the hands of Merari, which was divided according to the order of the king.

5 All these were the sonnes of Merari the king's son, in the house of God, to lift up the horn. And God gave to Merari fourteen sonnes, and three daughters.

6 All that were under the hands of their father, for song in the house of the Lord, with cymbals, psalteries and harps, for the service of the house of God, according to the king's order, to Shubael, Jehoiakim, and Merari.

7 So the number of them, with their brethren that were in the house of the Lord, was two hundred fourscore and eight.

17 Of the Levites, Hathiabiah the sonne of Reuim: of the Aaronites, Jakob:

18 Of Judah, Elhanan, one of the brethren of David: of Issachar, Omri the sonne of Michael:

19 Of Zabulon, Ithamiah the sonne of Abiath: of Naphtali, Jerimoth the sonne of Azriel:

20 Of the children of Ephraim, Hoshea the sonne of Azariah: of the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joel the sonne of Jedaiash:

21 Of the half-tribe of Danasseh in Gilead, Jodo the sonne of Zechariah: of Benjamin, Jaasiel the sonne of Abner:

22 Of Dan, Azarel the sonne of Jerohaim. These were the princes of the tribes of Israel.

23 ¶ But David took not the number of them from twenty yeares old and under: because the Lord said, he would increase Israel like to the stars of the heavens.

24 Joab the sonne of Zeruiah began to number, but he finished not, because * there fell wrath for it against Israel, neither was the number put in the account of the chronicles of king David.

25 ¶ And over the kings treasures was Amasai the sonne of Adiel: and over the house-holds in the cities, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the castles, was Jehonathan the sonne of Azabab.

26 And over them that did the work of the field for tillage of the ground, was Uri the sonne of Helub.

27 And over the vineyards was Shimeai the Ramathite: & over the increase of the vineyards for the wine-cellars, was Jaddai the Shiphonite.

28 And over the olive-trees, and the sycomore-trees that were in the low plains, was Baal-hanan the Gederite: and over the cellars of oyl was Joab.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 David in a solemn assembly, having declared Gods favour to him, and promise to his sonne Solomon, exhorteth them to fear God, & to He encourageth Solomon to build the temple, 11 He giveth him patterns for the fern, and gold and silver for the materials.

And David assembled all the princes of Israel, the princes of the tribes, & the captains of the companies that ministered to the king by court, and the captains over the thousands, and captains over the hundreds, and the stewards over all the substance and possession of the king, and of his sonnes, with their officers, and with the mighty men, and with all the valiant men unto Jerusalem.

2 Then David the king stood up upon his feet, and said, Hear me, my brethren, and my people, As for me, I had in mine heart to build an house of rest for the ark of the covenant of the Lord, and for the footstool of our God, and had made ready for the building:

3 But God said unto me, Thou shalt not build an house for my name, because thou hast been a man of wars, and hast shed blood.

4 Howbeit, the Lord God of Israel chose me before all the house of my father, to be king over Israel for ever: for he hath chosen Judah to be the ruler; and of the house of Judah, the house of my father; and among the sonnes of my father, he liked me to make me king over all Israel:

5 And of all my sonnes (for the Lord hath given me many sonnes) he hath chosen Solomon my sonne, to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of the Lord over Israel.

6 And he said unto me, Solomon thy sonne, he shall build my house and my courts: for I have chosen him to be my sonne, & I will be his father.

7 Moreover, I will establish his kingdom for ever, if he be constant to do my commandments, and my judgements, as at this day.

8 Now therefore in the sight of all Israel the congregation of the Lord, and in the audience of our God, keep and seek for all the commandments of the Lord your God: that ye may possess this good land, & leave it for an inheritance for your children after you for ever.

9 ¶ And thou Solomon my sonne, know thou the God of thy father, & serve him with a perfect heart, and with a willing mind: for the Lord searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; and if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever.

10 Take heed now, for the Lord hath chosen thee to build an house for the sanctuary: be strong and do it.

11 ¶ Then David gave to Solomon his sonne the pattern of the porch, and of the houses thereof, and of the treasuries thereof, and of the upper chambers thereof, and of the inner parlours thereof, and of the place of the mercy-seat.

12 And the pattern of all that he had by the spirit, of the courts of the house of the Lord, and of all the chambers round about, of the treasures of the house of God, and of the treasuries of the dedicate things.

13 Also for the courses of the priests, and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of the Lord, and for all the vessels of service in the house of the Lord.

14 He gave of gold by weight, for things of gold, for all instruments of all manner of service, silver also for all instruments of silver, by weight, for all instruments of every kind of service:

15 Even the weight for the candlesticks of gold, and for their lamps of gold, by weight for every candlestick, and for the lamps thereof: and for the candlesticks of silver by weight, both for the candlestick, and also for the lamps thereof, according to the use of every candlestick.

16 And by weight he gave gold for the tables of shew-bread, for every table, and likewise silver for the tables of silver.

17 Also pure gold for the fleshy-hooks, and the bowls, and the cups: and for the golden basins he gave gold by weight for every basin; and likewise silver by weight for every basin of silver:

18 And for the altar of incense, refined gold by weight; and gold for the pattern of the chariot of the cherubims, that spread out their wings, and covered the ark of the covenant of the Lord.

19 All this, said David, the Lord made me understand in writing by his hand upon me, even all the works of this pattern.

20 And David said to Solomon his sonne, Be strong, and of good courage, and do it: fear not, nor be dismayed; for the Lord God, even my God, will be with thee, he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee, until thou hast finished all the work for the service of the house of the Lord.

21 And behold, the courses of the priests, and the Levites, even they shall be with thee for all the service of the house of God, and there shall be with thee for all manner of workmanship, every willing skilfull man, for any manner of service: also the princes and all the people will be wholly at thy commandment.

CHAP. XXIX.

1 David by his example and intreaty & causeth the princes and people to offer willingly. 10 Davids thanksgiving and prayer. 20 The people having blessed God, and sacrificed, make Solomon king. 26 Davids reign and death.

¶ Furthermore, David the king said unto all the congregation, Solomon my sonne, whom alone God hath chosen, is yet young and tender, and the work is great: for the palace is not for man, but for the Lord God.

2 Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God, the gold for things to be made of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and the brass for things of brass, the iron for things of iron, and wood for things of wood, and and of divers colours, and all manner of precious stones, and marble stones in abundance.

3 Moreover, because I have set my affection to the house of my God, I have of mine own proper good, of gold and silver, which I have given to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house,

4 Even ten thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses within.

5 The gold for things of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and for all manner of work to be made by the hands of artificers. And who then is willing to consecrate his service this day unto the Lord?

6 ¶ Then the chief of the fathers, and princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands, and of hundreds, with the rulers over the kings work, offered willingly,

7 And gave for the service of the house of God, of gold, five thousand talents, and ten thousand mams; and of silver, ten thousand talents; and of brass, eighteen thousand talents; and one hundred thousand talents of iron.

8 And they with whom precious stones were found, gave them to the treasure of the house of the Lord, by the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite.

9 Then the people rejoiced, for that they offered willingly, because with perfect heart they offered willingly to the Lord: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy.

10 ¶ Wherefore David blessed the Lord God of Israel our father, for ever and ever.

11 ¶ Thus, O Lord God, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven, and in the earth, is thine; thine is the kingdoms, O Lord God, and thou art exalted as head above all.

12 Both riches and honour come of thee, and thou reignest over all, and in thine hand is power and might, and in thine hand it is to make great, and to give strength unto all.

13 Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name.

14 But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer to willingly after this sort? for all things come of thee, and of thine own have we given thee.

15 For we are strangers before thee, and sojourners, as were all our fathers: our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is none abiding.

16 O Lord God, all this store that we have prepared to build thee an house for thine holy name, cometh of thine hand, & is all thine own.

17 I know also, my God, that thou triest the heart, and hast pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of mine heart I have willingly offered all these things: and now have I seen with joy, thy people which are present here, to offer willingly unto thee.

18 O Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel our fathers, keep this for ever in the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of thy people, and prepare their heart unto thee.

19 And give unto Solomon my sonne a perfect heart to keep the commandments, the testimonies and thy statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the palace for the which I have made provision.

CHAP. I.

1 The solemn offering of Solomon at Gibeon. 7 Solomon's choice of wisdom is blessed by God.

23 Solomon's strength and wealth.

* 1. King. 2. 46

¶ And Solomon the sonne of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and the Lord God was with him, and magnified him exceedingly.

2 Then Solomon spake unto all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to every governor in all Israel, the chief of the fathers.

3 ¶ So Solomon and all the congregation build him a tent to the high place that was at Gibeon, for there was the tabernacle of the congregation of God, which Moses the servant of the Lord God had made in the wilderness.

4 ¶ For the ark of God had David brought up from Kirjath-seaion, to the place which David had purposed for it: for he had pitched a tent for it at Jerusalem.

5 Moreover, the high altar that Bezaleel the sonne of Uri, the sonne of Hur, had made, he put before the tabernacle of the Lord God: and Solomon and the congregation brought unto it.

6 And Solomon went up thither to the high altar before the Lord God, which was at the tabernacle of the congregation, and offered a thousand burnt-offerings upon it.

7 ¶ In that night did God appeare unto Solomon, and said unto him, Ask what I shall give thee.

8 And Solomon said unto God, Thou hast shewed great mercy unto David my father, and hast made me to reign in his stead.

9 ¶ Now, O Lord God, let thy promise unto David my father be established: for thou hast made me king over a people, like the dust of the earth in multitude.

10 ¶ Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people: for who can judge this thy people, that is so great?

11 And God said to Solomon, Because this was in thine heart, and thou hast not asked riches, wealth, or honour, nor the life of thine enemies, neither yet hast asked long life; but hast asked wisdom and knowledge for thyself, then thou mayest judge my people, over whom I have made thee king.

12 Wisdom and knowledge is granted unto thee, and I will give thee riches, and wealth, and honour, such as none of the kings have had, that have been before thee, neither shall there any after thee have the like.

17 And they fetched up, and brought forth out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred shekels of silver, or an horse for an hundred and fifty: so brought they out horses for all the kings of the Syrians, and for the kings of Egypt by their means.

CHAP. II.

1, 17 Solomons labourers for the building of the temple. 3 His ambassadors to Hiram for workmen and provision of stuff. 11 Hiram sendeth him a hind an ass.

¶ And Solomon determined to build an house for the name of the Lord God, and an house for his kingdoms.

2 And Solomon told unto Shebassai and three thousand men to bear burdens, and four thousand and seven hundred in the mountains, and three thousand and six hundred to carry them.

3 ¶ And

1 The place and time of building the temple. 2 The measure and ornaments of the house. 11 The cherubims. 14 The veil and pillars.

¶ Then * Solomon began to build the house of the Lord at Jerusalem in mount Sion, 1 where the Lord appeared unto David his father, in the place that David had prepared in the threshing-floor of * Achish the Gittite. 2 And he began to build in the second day of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign.

3 ¶ Now these are the things wherein Solomon was instructed for the building of the house of God. The length by cubits after the first measure was threescore cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits.

4 And the porch that was in the front of the house, the length of it was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the height was an hundred and twenty; and he overlaid it within with pure gold.

5 And the greater house he overlaid with fir-tree, which he overlaid with fine gold, and set thereon palm-trees and chains.

6 And he garnished the house with precious stones for beauty, and the gold was gold of Parbaim.

7 He overlaid also the house, the beams, the posts, and the walls thereof, and the doors thereof with gold, and graven cherubims on the walls.

8 And he made the most holy house, the length whereof was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof twenty cubits: and he overlaid it with fine gold amounting to six hundred talents.

9 And the height of the walls was fifty shekels of gold: and he overlaid the upper chambers with gold.

10 And in the most holy house he made two cherubims of image-work, and overlaid them with gold.

11 ¶ And the wings of the cherubims were twenty cubits long: one wing of the one cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was likewise five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other cherub.

12 And one wing of the other cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was five cubits also, joining to the wing of the other cherub.

13 The wings of these cherubims spread themselves forth twenty cubits, and they stood on their feet, and their faces were * forward.

14 ¶ And he made the * hall of blue, and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and brought cherubims thitheron.

15 Also he made before the house * two pillars of thirty and five cubits high, and the chapter that was on the top of each of them, was five cubits.

16 And he made chains, as in the space, and put them on the heads of the pillars, and made an hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains.

17 And he reared up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left, and called the name of that on the right hand Jachin, and the name of that on the left, Boaz.

¶ And Solomon sent to Tyre the king of Tyre, saying, As thou hast dealt with David my father, & with him his servants, to build him an house to dwell therein, even so deal with me.

4 Behold, I build an house to the name of the Lord our God, to dedicate it to him, and to me before him: I erect incense, and set the continual shew-bread, and for the burnt-offerings morning and evening, on the tabernacles, and on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts of the Lord our God. This is an ordinance for ever to Israel.

5 And the house which I build is great: for great is our God above all gods.

6 ¶ But who is able to build him an house, being the heaven, and heaven of heavens cannot contain him? who is as I then that I should build him an house, save only to burn sacrifices before him?

7 Send me now therefore a man, cunning to work in gold, and in silver, and in brass, and in iron, and in purple, and crimson, and blue, and that can skill to grave with the cunning men that are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom David my father did provide.

8 Send me also cedar-trees, fir-trees, & algarum-trees out of Lebanon: (for I know that thy servants can skill to cut timber in Lebanon) and behold, my servants shall be with thy servants.

9 When to prepare me timber in abundance: for the house which I am about to build, shall be of wood full of gold.

10 And behold, I will give to thy servants, the brethren that cut timber, twenty thousand measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.

11 ¶ Then Queen the king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon. Because the Lord our God hath loved his people, he hath made thee king over them.

12 Huram said moreover, Blessed be the Lord our God of Israel that made heaven and earth, who hath given to David the king a wise son, & equipped with judgment and understanding, that might build an house for the Lord our God, and an house for his kingdom.

13 And now I have sent a cunning man (endued with understanding) of Huram my fathers;

14 The name of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, skillful to work in gold, in silver, in brass, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson: also to grave any manner of graving, and to find out every device which shall be put to him, with the cunning men, and with the cunning men of my lord David thy father.

15 Now therefore the wheat, and the barley, the oil, and the wine which my lord hath spoken of, let him send unto his servants:

16 And we will cut wood out of Lebanon, & as much as thou shalt need, and we will bring it to thee in floats by sea to Tyre, and thou shalt carry it up to Jerusalem.

17 ¶ And Solomon numbered all the strangers that were in the land of Israel, after the numbering wherewith David his father had numbered them; and they were found an hundred and fifty thousand, and three thousand & seven hundred.

18 And he let * three thousand & seven hundred of them to be bearers of burdens, and four thousand to be helpers in the preparation, and three thousand and six hundred to set the people a work.

3 And herefore all the men of Israel assembled themselves unto the king in the feast, which was in the seventh month.

4 And all the elders of Israel came, and the Levites took up the ark.

5 And they brought up the ark, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, these did the priests and the Levites bring up.

6 Also king Solomon & all the congregation of Israel that were assembled unto him before the ark, sacrificed sheep and oxen, which could not be told nor numbered for multitude.

7 And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the Lord unto his place, to the oracle of the house into the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubims.

8 For the cherubims spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubims covered the ark, and the staves thereof, above.

9 And they drew out the staves of the ark, that the ends of the staves were seen from the ark before the oracle, but they were not seen without.

And there it is unto this day.

 25 Then hear thou from the heavens their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.
 26 If they come against thee, (for there is no man which smutch nor send thou be angry with them, and deliver them over before their enemies, and they carry them away captives into a land far off as mine);
 27 Yet, if they be bethink themselves in the land whither they are carried captive, and turn and pray unto thee in the land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have done amiss, and have been wickedly;
 28 If they return together with all their heart and with all their soul, in the land of their captivity, whither they have carried them captives, and pray toward their land which thou gavest unto their fathers, and toward the city which thou hast chosen, and toward the house which I have built for thy name;
 29 Then hear thou from the heavens, even from the dwelling place, their prayer and their supplications, and maintain their cause, and forgive the people which have sinned against thee.
 30 Now, my God, let (I beseech thee) turn the eyes be open, and let thine eyes be attent ¶ unto the prayer that is made in this place.
 31 Now ¶ therefore arise, O Lord God, in the resting place, thou, and the ark of thy strength: let thy priests, O Lord God, be clothed with salvation, and let thy saints rejoice in goodness.
 32 O Lord God, turn not away the face of thine anointed: remember the mercies of David thy servant.

CHAP. VII.

1 God having given testimony to Solomon prayer by fire from heaven, and glory in the temple, the people worship him. ¶ Solomon solemn sacrifice. ¶ Solomon having kept the feast of tabernacles, and the feast of the dedication of the altar, dismisseth the people. 12 God appearing to Solomon, giveth him promises upon condition.
 ¶ 2 King 3. 54. Levit. 9. 24.
 Now when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt-offering, and the sacrifices; and the glory of the Lord filled the house.
 2 And the priests could not enter into the house of the Lord, because the glory of the Lord had filled the house.
 3 And when all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the Lord upon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshipped, and praised the Lord, saying, For he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever.
 4 Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the Lord.
 5 And king Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty and two thousand oxen, and an hundred and twenty thousand sheep: to the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.
 ¶ 6 And the priests waited on their offices: the Levites also with instruments of music of the Lord, which David the king had made to praise the Lord, because his mercy endureth for ever, when David began for their ministry: for by him and the priests sounded trumpets before them, and hind, all Israel stood.

 7 Moreover, Solomon hallowed the atonement of the court that was before the house of the Lord: for there he offered burnt-offerings, and the fat of the peace-offerings, because the golden altar which Solomon had made, was not able to receive the burnt-offerings, and the meat-offerings, and the fat.
 8 Also at the same time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entering in of the month, unto the close of Egypt.
 ¶ 9 And in the eighth day they made ¶ a solemn assembly: for they kept the dedication of the altar, seven days, and the feast seven days.
 ¶ 10 And in the third and the fourth day of the seventh month, he sent the people away unto their tents, glad and merry in heart for the goodness that the Lord had shewed unto David, and to Solomon, even to Israel his people.
 ¶ 11 Thus ¶ Solomon finished the house of the Lord, and he dwelt in it, and all that came into Solomon's heart to make in the house of the Lord, and in his own house, he prosperously effected.
 ¶ 12 ¶ And the Lord appeared to Solomon by night, and said unto him, I have heard thy prayer, and have chosen this place to my self for an house of sacrifice.
 ¶ 13 If I shut up heaven that there be no rain, or if I command the locusts to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people:
 ¶ 14 If my people which are called by my name, shall humble themselves and pray, and seek whom my face, and turn from their wicked ways: then name is called, I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their lech, mine, and will heal their land.
 ¶ 15 Now ¶ mine eyes shall be open, and mine ears attent ¶ unto the prayer that is made in this place.
 ¶ 16 For now have I chosen, and sanctified this place, that my name may be there for ever: and mine eyes and mine heart shall be there perpetually.
 ¶ 17 And as for thee, if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded thee, and shalt observe my statutes and my judgments:
 ¶ 18 Then will I stablish the throne of thy kingdom, according as I have commanded with David thy father, saying, ¶ There shall not fail thee a man to be ruler in Israel.
 ¶ 19 ¶ But if ye turn away and forsake my statutes and my commandments which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods, and worship them:
 ¶ 20 Then will I pluck them up by the roots out of my land which I have given them; and this house which I have sanctified for my name, will I cast out of my sight, and will make it to be a proverb, and a by-word among all nations.
 ¶ 21 And this house which is high, shall be an astonishment to every one that passeth by it; so that he shall say, ¶ Why hath the Lord done thus unto this land, and unto this house?
 ¶ 22 And it shall be answered, Because they have forsaken the Lord God of their fathers, which brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, and said hold on other gods, and worshipped them, and broken them therefore hath he brought all this evil upon them.

1st Solomons buildings. 7 The Gentiles which were left, Solomon made tributaries; but the Israelites, rulers. 11 Pharaohs daughter removeth to her house. 12 Solomons yearly solemn sacrifices. 14 He appointeth the priests and Levites to their places. 17 The navy fetcheth gold from Ophir.

AND *it came to pass (at the end of twentie years, wherein Solomon had built the house of the LORD, and his own house)

2 That the cities which Huram had rejoyed to Solomon, Solomon built them, and caused the children of Israel to dwell there.

3 And Solomon went to Hainath-jobab, and prevailed against it.

4 And he built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the flow-cities, which he built in Hainath.

5 Also he built Beth-boon the upper, & Beth-boon the nether, fenced cities, with walls, gates, and bars:

6 And Basath, and all the flow-cities that Solomon had, and all the chariot-cities, and the cities of the horsemen, and all that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and throughout all the land of his dominion.

7 ¶ As for all the people that were left of the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites which were not of Israel;

8 But of their children who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel consumed not: them did Solomon make to pay tribute, until this day.

9 But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no servants for his work: but they were men of war, and chief of his captains, and captains of his chariots and horsemen.

10 And there were the chief of king Solomons officers, even two hundred and fifty, that bare rule over the people.

11 ¶ And Solomon brought up the daughter of Pharaoh, out of the city of David, unto the house that he had built for her: for he said, My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the places are holy, whereunto the ark of the LORD hath come.

12 ¶ When Solomon offered burnt-offerings unto the LORD on the altar of the LORD, which he had built before the porch:

13 Even after a certain rate every day, offering according to the commandment of Moses, on the sabbaths, & on the new moons, and on the solemn feasts, & three times in the year, even in the feast of unleavened bread, and in the feast of weeks, and in the feast of tabernacles.

14 ¶ And he appointed, according to the order of David his father, the courses of the priests to their service, and the Levites to their charges, to pass and minister before the priests, as the duty of every day requires: the *porters also by their courses, at every gate: for so had David the man of God commanded:

15 And they departed not from the commandment of the king unto the priests and Levites, concerning any matter, or concerning the treasures.

16 Now all the work of Solomon was prepared unto the day of the foundation of the house of the LORD, and until it was finished: so the house of God was perfected.

17 ¶ Then went Solomon to Chemogeber, and to Ophir, at the sea-side in the land of Odom.

18 And Huram sent him by the hands of his servants, ships and servants that had knowledge of the sea: & they went with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and took thence four hundred and fifty talents of gold, and brought thence king Solomon.

CHAP. IX.

1 The queen of Sheba admitteth the wisdom of Solomon. 13 Solomons gold. 15 His servants. 17 The throne of ivory. 20 His vessels. 23 His presents. 25 His chariots and horse. 26 His wives. 29 His reign and death.

AND when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to prove Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great company, and camels that bare spices, and gold in abundance, and precious stones: and when he was come to Solomon, he consumed with him of all that was in her heart.

2 And Solomon told her all her questions: and there was nothing hid from Solomon which he told her not.

3 And when the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built,

4 And the meat of his table, and the sitting of his servants, and the attendance of his ministers, and their apparel, his cup-bearers also, and their apparel, and his altar, by which he went up into the house of the LORD: there was no more spirit in her.

5 And she said to the king, It was a true report which I heard in mine own land, of thine acts, and of thy wisdom:

6 Howbeit, I believed not their words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and behold, the one half of the greatness of thy wisdom was not told me: for thou exceedest the fame that I heard.

7 Happy are thy men, and happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and hear thy wisdom:

8 Blessed be the LORD thy God, which hath lighted in thee to sit thee on his throne, to be king for the LORD thy God: because the LORD loved Israel, he exalting them for ever, therefore made he thee king over them, to do judgement and justice.

9 And she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices great abundance, and precious stones: neither was there any such spice as the queen of Sheba gave king Solomon.

10 And the servants also of Huram, and the servants of Solomon, which brought gold from Ophir, brought algaum-trees, and precious stones.

11 And the king made of the algaum-trees, & terms to the house of the LORD, and to the kings palace, and harps and psalteries for singing: and there were none such seen before in the land of Judah.

12 And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba, all her desire, whatsoever she asked, besides that which she had brought unto the king: so she turned, and went away to her own land, she and her servants.

13 ¶ And the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year, was six hundred and threescore and six talents of gold:

14 Besides that which Chemo and merchants brought: and all the kings of Arabia, and governors of the country, brought gold and silver to Solomon.

15 ¶ And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: his hundred shields of beaten gold went to one target.

16 And three hundred shields made he of beaten gold: three hundred shields of gold went to one shield: and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.

17 ¶ Moreover, the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure gold.

18 And there were six steps to the throne, with a foot-stool of gold, which were fastened to the throne, and 7 staves on each side of the sitting place, and two lions standing by the staves.

19 And twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other, upon the six steps. There was not the like made in any kingdom.

20 ¶ And all the drinking vessels of king Solomon were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of pure gold: none were of silver; it was not any thing accounted of in the days of Solomon.

21 For the kings ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Huram: every three years once came the ships of Tarshish bringing gold and silver, ivory, and apes, and peacocks.

22 And king Solomon passed all the kings of the earth in riches and wisdom.

23 ¶ And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom that God had put in his heart.

24 And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and raiment, harness, and spices, horses, and mules, a rate year by year.

25 ¶ And Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, & twelve thousand horsemen, whom he bestowed in the chariot-cities, and with the king at Jerusalem.

26 ¶ And he reigned over all the kings, from the river, even unto the land of the Philistines, and unto the border of Egypt.

27 And the king 7 made silver in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar-trees made he as the hyssop-trees, that are in the low plains, in abundance.

28 And they brought unto Solomon horses out of Egypt, and out of all lands.

29 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Solomon first and last, are they not written in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophesie of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer, against Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat?

30 And Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel, forty years.

31 And Solomon slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the city of David his father, and Jeroboam his sonne reigned in his stead.

CHAP. X.

¶ The Israelites assembled at Shechem to crown Jeroboam, by Jeroboam make a suit of relaxation unto him, 6 Jeroboam refusing the old mens counsels, by the advice of young men, answereth them roughly. 16 Ten tribes revoluing, kill Hadoram, and make Rehobam to king.

¶ 4. King, 12. & 2c.

¶ And Rehobam went to Shechem: for to Shechem were all Israel come to make him king.

2 And it came to passe when Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat (who was in Egypt, whither he had fled from the presence of Solomon the king) heard it, that Jeroboam returned out of Egypt.

3 And they sent and called him to Jeroboam.

and all Israel came, and spake to Rehobam, saying,

4 The father made our yoke grievous, now therefore ease thou somewhat the grievous servitude of thy father, and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, and we will serve thee.

5 And he said unto them, Come again unto me after three dayes. And the people departed.

6 ¶ And king Rehobam took counsel with the old men that had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What counsell give ye me, to return answer to this people?

7 And they spake unto him, saying, If thou be kinde to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be thy servants for ever.

8 But he forsook the counsell which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the young men that were brought up with him, that stood before him.

9 And he said unto them, What advice give ye, that we may return answer to this people, which have spoken to me, saying, Ease somewhat the yoke that thy father did put upon us?

10 And the young men that were brought up with him, spake unto him, saying, Thus shalt thou answer the people that spake unto thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it somewhat lighter for us: thus shalt thou say unto them, My little finger shall be thicker then my fathers loins.

11 For whereas my father 7 put a heavy yoke upon you, I will put more to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehobam on the third day, as the king bade, saying, Come again to me on the third day.

13 And the king answered them roughly: and king Rehobam forsook the counsell of the old men.

14 And answered them after the advice of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.

15 So the king hearkened not unto the people, for the cause was of God, that the king might perform his word, which he spake by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the sonne of Nebat.

16 ¶ And when all Israel saw, that the king would not hearken unto them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? and we have none inheritance in the sonne of Jesse: every man to your tents, O Israel: and now David see to thine own house. So all Israel went to their tents.

17 But as for the children of Israel that dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehobam reigned over them.

18 When king Rehobam sent Hadoram that was over the tribute, and the children of Israel stoned him with stones, that he died: but king Rehobam 7 made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

19 And Israel rebelled against the house of David unto this day.

CHAP. XI.

¶ Rehobam raising an army to subdue Israel, is forbidden by Shemaiah. 5 He strengtheneth his kingdom with forts and provision. 23 The priests and Levites, and such as feared God, forsaken by Jeroboam.

Verbum, strengthen the kingdom of Judah, 18 The wives and children of Rehoboam.

1. King. 12.
2. 18.

AND * when Rehoboam was come to Jerusalem, he gathered of the house of Judah and Benjamin, an hundred and fourscore thousand chosen men which were warriors, to fight against Israel, that he might bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam.

2 But the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

3 Speak unto Rehoboam the sonne of Solomon king of Iudah, and to all Israel in Iudah and Benjamin, saying,

4 Thus saith the LORD. Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren: return every man to his house, for this thing is done of me. And they obeyed the words of the LORD, and returned from going against Jeroboam.

5 ¶ And Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and built cities for defence in Iudah.

6 He built even Beth-lehem, and Etam, and Tekoa,

7 And Bethzur, and Shoco, and Adullam,

8 And Gath, and Baretha, and Ziph,

9 And Beersai, and Lachish, and Azekah,

10 And Jorah, and Alsalon, and Izbion, which are in Iudah and in Benjamin, fenced cities.

11 And he fortified the strong holds, and put captains in them, and store of victuall, and of oil and wine.

12 And in every severall city he put shields and speares, and made them exceeding strong, having Iudah and Benjamin on his side.

13 ¶ And the priests and the Levites that were in all Israel, returned to him out of all their coasts.

14 (For the Levites left their suburbs, and their possession, and came to Iudah and Jerusalem: for Rehoboam and his sonnes had cast them off from executing the priests office unto the LORD.)

15 And he ordained him priests for the high places, and for the devils, and for the calves which he had made)

16 And after them out of all the tribes of Israel, such as set their hearts to seek the LORD God of Israel, came to Jerusalem, to sacrifice unto the LORD God of their fathers.

17 So they strengthened the kingdom of Iudah, and made Rehoboam the sonne of Solomon strong, three yeares: for thre yeares they walked in the way of David and Solomon.

18 ¶ And Rehoboam took him Abigail the daughter of Jerimoth, the sonne of David to wife, and Abisail the daughter of Eliab, the sonne of Jesse:

19 Which bare him children; Jeusi, and Shemaiah, and Zabab.

20 And after her, he took Maachab the daughter of Absalom, which bare him Abijah, and Attai, and Hiza, and Shelomith.

21 And Rehoboam loved Maachab the daughter of Absalom, above all his wives and his concubines: (for he took eighteen wives, and threescore concubines, and begat twenty and eight sonnes, and threescore daughters.)

22 And Rehoboam made Abijah the sonne of Maachab the chief, to be ruler among his brethren: for he thought to make him king.

23 And he dealt wisely, and dispersed of all his children throughout all the countreys of Iudah and Benjamin, unto every fenced cite: and he gave them victuall in abundance: and he desired

1 Rehoboam forsaking the LORD, is punished by Shishak, 5 He and the princes repenting at the preaching of Shemaiah; are delivered from destruction, but not from spoil. 13 The reign and death of Rehoboam.

AND it came to passe when Rehoboam had established the kingdom, and had strengthened himself, he forsook the law of the LORD, and all Israel with him.

2 And it came to passe, that in the fifth yeare of Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had transgressed against the LORD.

3 With twelve hundred chariots, and threescore thousand footmen: and the people were without number that came with him out of Egypt; the Lubims, the Sukkims, and the Ethiopians.

4 And he took the fenced cities which pertained to Iudah, and came to Jerusalem.

5 ¶ Then came Shemaiah the prophet to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Iudah that were gathered together to Jerusalem, because of Shishak, and said unto them, Thus saith the LORD. Ye have forsaken me, and therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak.

6 Whereupon the princes of Israel, and the king humbled themselves, and they said, The LORD is righteous.

7 And when the LORD said that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves, therefore I will not destroy them, but I will grant them some deliverance, and my wrath shall not be poured out upon Jerusalem, by the hand of Shishak.

8 Nevertheless, they shall be his servants; that they may know my service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countreys.

9 So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the kings house, he took all: he carried away also the shields of gold which Solomon had made.

10 ¶ In stead of which, king Rehoboam made shields of brass, and committed them to the hands of the chief of the guard, that kept the entrance of the kings house.

11 And when the king entered into the house of the LORD, the guard came and set them, and brought them again into the guard-chamber.

12 And when he humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned from him, that he would not destroy him altogether: for, and also in Iudah things went well.

13 ¶ So king Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned: for Rehoboam was one and forty yeares old when he began to reigne, and he reigned seven years in Jerusalem, the cite which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there: and his mothers name was Maanah, an Ammonitess.

14 And he did evil, because he prepared not his heart to seek the LORD.

15 Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the book of Shemaiah the prophet, and of Iddo the scribe, concerning genealogies? And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.

16 And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David, and Abijah his sonne reigned in his stead.

4 And Aſiah ſtood up upon mount Zemaraim, which is in mount Ephraim, and ſaid, Hear ye thus Jeroboam, and all Iſrael.

5 I thought you ſhould know, that the Lord God of Iſrael gave the kingdom over Iſrael to David the ſon, even to him and to his ſonnes by a covenant of ſalt.

6 But Jeroboam the ſonne of Nebat, the ſervant of Solomon the ſonne of David, is riſen up, and hath rebelled againſt his lord.

 1. Kin. 11. 36.*
7 And there are gathered unto him main men the children of Beſai, and have ſtrengthened themſelves againſt Jeroboam the ſonne of Solomon, when Jeroboam was young and tender years, and could not withſtand them.

8 And now ye think to ſtand the kingdoms of the Lord God, in the hand of the ſonnes of David; and ye be a great multitude; and there are with you golden calves which Jeroboam made you for gods.

12 And behold, God himſelf is with us for our captain, and his piſſes with ſounding trumpets to cry alarm againſt you: O children of Iſrael, fight ye not againſt the Lord God of your fathers, for you ſhall not preſerve.

13 But Jeroboam cauſed an ambuſhment to come about behinde them: ſo they were before Jeroboam, and the ambuſhment was behinde them.

14 And when Jeroboam looked back, behold, the battell was before and behinde: and they cryed unto the Lord God, and the piſſes ſounded with the trumpets.

15 Then the men of Judah gave a ſhout; and at the ſound of Jeroboam ſounded, it came to paſſe, that God ſmote Jeroboam and all Iſrael before Aſiah and Judah.

18 Thus the children of Iſrael were brought under at that time, and the children of Iſrahel perished, becauſe they relied upon the Lord God of their fathers.

19 And Aſiah enquired after Jeroboam, and took cities from him, Beth-el with the towns thereof, and Ephraim with the towns thereof, and Ephraim with the towns thereof.

9 And there came out againſt them Zerah the Ethiopian, with an hoſt of a thouſand and three hundred chariots, and came unto Barethah.

 Chap. 16. 4.*

10 Then Aſa went out againſt him, and they ſet the battell in array in the valley of Zepharthah at Barethah.

11 And Aſa cried unto the Lord God, and ſaid, Lord God, it is nothing with thee to help, whether with many, or with them that have no power: help us, O Lord God, our God; for we reſt on thee, and in thy name we go againſt this multitude: O Lord God, thou art our God, let not man prevail againſt thee.

Or, mortall

12 So the Lord God ſmote the Ethiopians before Aſa, and before Judah, and the Ethiopians ſlew.

13 And Aſa and the people that were with him purſued them unto Gerar: and the Ethiopians were these altars, that they could not recover themselves; for they were destroyed before the L. o. m. and before his face; and they carried away very much spoil.

14 And they built all the cities round about Ozerai, for the fear of the L. o. m. came upon them; and they possessed all the cities, for there was exceeding much spoil in them.

15 They drove also the beasts of cattell, and carried away sheep and camels in abundance, and returned to Jerusalem.

CHAP. XV.

1 Asa with Judah and many of Israel moved by the prophesie of Azariah the sonne of Iddo, make a solemn covenant with God. 16 He putteth down Maachab his mother for her idolatry. 18 He bringeth dedicate things into the house of God, and enjoyeth a long peace.

AND the spirit of God came upon Azariah the sonne of Iddo.

2 And he went out to meet Asa, and said unto him, Heare ye me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin. The L. o. m. is with you, while ye be with him; and if ye leave him, he will be found of you; but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you.

3 Behn for a long season Israel hath been without the true God, and without a teaching priest, and without law.

4 But when they in their trouble did turn unto the L. o. m. God of Israel, and sought him, he was found of them.

5 And in those times there was no peace to him that went out, nor to him that came in, but great ruptures were upon all the inhabitants of the countries.

6 And nation was destroyed of nation, and cities of cities: God did vex them with all adversity.

7 Be ye strong therefore, and let not your hands be weak: for your work shall be rewarded.

8 And when Asa heard these words, and the prophesie of Iddo the prophet, he took courage, and put away the abominable idolatry of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities which he had taken from mount Ephraim, and removed the altars of the L. o. m.: that was before the face of the L. o. m.

9 And he gathered all Judah and Benjamin, and the strangers with them out of Ephraim and Manasse, and out of Simeon: (for they felt to him out of Israel in abundance, when they saw that the L. o. m. his God was with him.)

10 So they gathered themselves together at Jerusalem in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reigne of Asa.

11 And they offered unto the L. o. m. the same time, of the spoil which they had brought, seven hundred oxen, and seven thousand sheep.

12 And they entered into a covenant to seek the L. o. m. God of their fathers, with all their heart, and with all their soul;

13 That whosoever would seek the L. o. m. God of Israel, he should be put to death, whether small or great, whether man or woman.

14 And they swore unto the L. o. m. with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with trumpets, and with cymbals.

15 And all Judah rejoiced at the oath: for they had sworn with all their heart, and sought him with their whole desire, and he was found of them: and the L. o. m. gave them rest round about.

16 ¶ And also concerning Maachab the mother of Asa the king, he removed her from before the face of the king, because she had made an image for Asa: and Asa cut down her image, and stamped it, and burnt it at the foot of the mountain.

17 But the high places were not taken away out of Israel: nevertheless, the name of Asa was perfect all his dayes.

18 ¶ And he brought into the house of God the things that his father had dedicated, and that he himself had dedicated, silver, and gold, and vessels.

19 And there was no more warre unto the five and thirtieth year of the reigne of Asa.

CHAP. XVI.

1 Asa, by the aid of the Syrians, discovereth Baasha from building of Ramah. 7 Being repewed thereof by Hanani, he putteth him in prison. 11 Among his other efforts, in his defence he seeketh not to God, but in the physicians. 13 His death and buriall.

IN the five and thirtieth year of the reigne of Asa, Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah, and built Ramah, so that he might let none go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

2 Then Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of the L. o. m. and of the kings house, and sent to Ben-hadad king of Syria that dwelt at Damascus, saying,

3 There is a league between me and thee: as there was between my father and thy father: behold, I have sent thee silver and gold; break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

4 And Ben-hadad hearkened unto king Asa, and sent the captains of his armies against the cities of Israel; and they smote Jon, and Dun, and Abelmah, and all the store-cities of Samaria.

5 And it came to pass, when Ben-hadad knew it, that he left off building of Ramah, and hearkened unto Asa.

6 Then Asa the king took all Judah, and they carried away the stones of Ramah, and the timber thereof, and builded themselves a building, and he built therewith Ozerai, and Mispah.

7 ¶ And at that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said unto him, Because thou hast relied on the king of Syria, and not relied on the L. o. m. thy God, therefore is the host of the king of Syria escaped out of thine hand.

8 Wilt thou not see the Ethiopians and the Libyans? a huge host, with very many chariots and horsemen: yet, because thou didst rely on the L. o. m., he delivered them into thine hands.

9 For the eyes of the L. o. m. run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to see whether they be without fault: for he is the beholder of them, whose heart is perfect towards him. Wherein thou hast done foolishly; therefore, from henceforth thou shalt have warren.

10 Then Asa was wroth with the seer, and put him in a prison-house: for he was in a rage with him, because of this thing. And Asa oppressed some of the people the same time.

11 ¶ And behold, the acts of Asa, first and last, lo, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

14 And when he was come to the king, the king said unto him, Michas, shall we go in Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall we forbear? And he said, Do ye up arms presently, and they shall be delivered into your hand.

15 And the king said to him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou say nothing but the truth to me, in the name of the Lord?

16 Then he said, I did see an Angel scatterers upon the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherds: and the Lord said, These have no master: let them return therefore every man to his house in peace.

17 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would not go, thou good unto me, but evil?

18 Again he said, Therefore hears the word of the Lord. I saw the Lord so sitting upon his throne, and all the host of heaven standing on his right hand, and on his left.

19 And the Lord said, Woe shall come upon Alah king of Israel, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead: Syria shall strike, slaying him in this manner, and another shall slay him that manner.

20 When there came out a spirit, and stood before the Lord, and said, I will entice him, and the Lord said unto him, Wherewith?

21 And he said, I will go out, and be a lying spirit in the mouth of his prophets. And the Lord said, Thou shalt entice him, and thou shalt also prevail: go out, and do even so.

22 Now therefore behold, the Lord said, thou put a lying spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets, and the Lord said, thou shalt prosper against him.

23 Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and smote Zedekiah upon the cheek, and said, Woe be to me, because the spirit of the Lord is from me, to speak unto thee?

24 And Zedekiah said, Behold, thou shalt see on that day, when thou shalt go into an inner chamber to hide thyself.

25 Then the king of Israel said, Take ye Zedekiah, and carry him back to Zidon the governor of the city, and so Zedekiah the king return.

26 And they, who heard the king, Zedekiah's fellows in the prison, and heard him with words of affliction, and with words of affliction, until he return in peace.

27 And Zedekiah said, If thou certainly return in peace, then hath me the Lord spoken by me. And he said, Dear shall be proved.

28 So the king of Israel, and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead.

29 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will adjure me, and thou shalt go to the battle, but put thou under thy fingers.

30 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, I will adjure me, and thou shalt go to the battle, but put thou under thy fingers.

31 And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat that he said, It is the king of Israel: therefore they compassed about him to slay him: but Jehoshaphat cried out, from the Lord between him and the captains of the chariots perceived that it was Jehoshaphat: and they turned back, and he was saved.

2 And Jehoshaphat the king of Judah returned to his house in peace to Jerusalem.

3 And John the son of Zachariah the high priest came to meet him, and said to him, Jehoshaphat, thou hast been the king of Judah, and thou hast done the Lord's will: but thou hast not done the Lord's will in the things which thou hast done before the Lord.

4 And Jehoshaphat said to him, What things have I done, in that thou hast taken away the crown out of the land, and hast prepared thine heart to seek God?

5 And Jehoshaphat said to him, I have done nothing, but I have done the Lord's will: and thou hast taken away the crown out of the land, and hast prepared thine heart to seek God.

6 And he said to him, Thou hast done the Lord's will: but thou hast not done the Lord's will in the things which thou hast done before the Lord.

7 And he said to him, Thou hast done the Lord's will: but thou hast not done the Lord's will in the things which thou hast done before the Lord.

with them other beside the Ammonites, came against Jehoshaphat to battell.

2 When there came some that told Jehoshaphat saying, There cometh a great multitude against thee from beyond the sea on this side Syria, and behold, they be in Hazazon-tamar, which is En-gedi.

3 And Jehoshaphat feared, and set himself to seek the Lord, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Judah.

4 And Judah gathered themselves together, to ask help of the Lord: even out of all the cities of Judah they came to seek the Lord.

5 And Jehoshaphat stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the Lord before the new court.

6 And said, O Lord our God of our fathers, art not thou God in heaven? and wilt not thou over all the kingdoms of the heathen? and in thine hand is there not power and might, so that none is able to withstand thee?

7 Art not thou our God, who didst drive out the inhabitants of this land before thy people Israel, and gavest it to the seed of Abraham thy friend for ever?

8 And they dwelt therein, and have built thee a sanctuary therein, thy name, saying,

9 If when thou comest upon us, as the sword, judgement, or pestilence, or famine, we shall be before this house, and in the presence (so) thy name is in this house, and cry unto thee in our affliction, then thou wilt hear and help.

10 And now behold, the children of Ammon and Moab, & mount Seir, whom thou wouldst not let Israel invade, when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned from them, and destroyed them not.

11 Behold, I say, how they reward us, to come to cast us out of thy possession, which thou hast given us to inherit.

12 O our God, wilt thou not judge them? for we have no might against this great company that cometh against us: neither know we what to do, but our eyes are upon thee.

13 And all Judah stood before the Lord, with their little ones, their wives and their children.

14 And when upon Jahaziel the sonne of Jecheziah, the sonne of Benisai, the sonne of Jehiel, the sonne of Ephraim, a Levite of the sonnes of Asaph, came the spirit of the Lord in the midst of the congregation.

15 And he said, Hearken ye, all Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, and thou king Jehoshaphat, thus saith the Lord unto you, Be not afraid, nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battell is not yours, but Gods.

16 To morrow go ye down against them: behold, they come up by the cliff of Jezreel, and ye shall smite them at the end of the day, before the wilderness of Jeruel.

17 Ye shall not need to fight in this battell; for your sides shall ye still, and let the salvation of the Lord be with you, O Judah and Jerusalem: fear not, nor be dismayed; to morrow go out against them, for the Lord will be with you.

18 And Jehoshaphat bowed his head, with his face to the ground: and all Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell before the Lord, as Jehoshaphat had said.

19 And the leaders of the children of the Reubenites, and of the children of the Gadites, stood up to praise the Lord God of Israel with a loud voice on high.

20 And they rest early in the morning, and went forth into the wilderness of Jeruel: and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear ye me, O Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, Behold, I have said unto you, God, so shall ye be established; behold his prophets, so shall ye prosper.

21 And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed singers unto the Lord, and that they should praise the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army, and to say, Praise the Lord: for his mercy endureth for ever.

22 And when they began to sing and to praise the Lord, the Lord set ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah, and they were smitten.

23 For the children of Ammon and Moab, stood up against the inhabitants of mount Seir, to utter to slay and destroy them: and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, every one helped to destroy another.

24 And when Judah came toward the watchtower in the wilderness, they looked unto the multitude, and behold, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and none escaped.

25 And when Jehoshaphat and his people came to take away the spoil of them, they found among them in abundance both riches with the dead bodies, and precious jewels (which they strip off for themselves) more then they could carry away: and they were three dayes in gathering of the spoil, it was so much.

26 And on the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of Berachah; for there they blessed the Lord: therefore the name of the same place was called, the valley of Berachah unto this day.

27 Then they returned every man of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat in the forefront of them, to go again to Jerusalem with joy: for the Lord had made them to rejoice over their enemies.

28 And they came to Jerusalem with psalteries, and harps, and trumpets, unto the house of the Lord.

29 And the fear of God was on all the kingdoms of those countries, when they had heard that the Lord fought against the enemies of Israel.

30 So the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet; for his God gave him rest round about.

31 And Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah: he was thirty and five yeares old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and five yeares in Jerusalem: and his mothers name was Azubah the daughter of Shobi.

32 And he walked in the way of his father, and departed not from it, doing that which was right in the sight of the Lord.

33 Howbeit, the high places were not taken away, for as yet the people had not prepared their hearts unto the God of their fathers.

34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of Jehu the sonne of Hanani, who is mentioned in the book of the kings of Israel.

35 And after this did Jehoshaphat king of Judah joy himself with Ahab king of Israel, and he was very wickedly.

36 And he joined himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish: and they made the ships in En-gedi.

37 Then Eliezer the sonne of Donabai of Gath, prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, Because thou hast joined the self with Ahab, the L. 20. 20 hath broken the workstand the steps were broken, that they were not able to go to Tarshish.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Jehoram succeeding, Jehoahaphat, slayeth his brethren. 5 His wicked reign. 8 Edom and Libnah revolt. 12 The prophesie of Elijah against him is writing. 16 Philistines and Arabians oppress him. 18 His incurable disease, infamous death and buriall.

N^{ow} Jehoahaphat slept with his fathers, & was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and Jehoiam his sonne reigned in his stead.

2 And he had brethren the sonnes of Jehoahaphat, Azariah, and Jehiel, and Sechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephathiah: all these were the sonnes of Jehoahaphat king of Israel.

3 And their father gave them great gifts of silver and of gold, and of precious things, with seven cities in Judah: but the kingdome gave he to Jehoiam, because he was the first-born.

4 Now when Jehoiam was risen up to the kingdome of his father, he strengthened himself, and slew all his brethren with the sword, and divers also of the princes of Israel.

5 Jehoiam was thirty and two yeares old when he began to reigne, and he reigned eight yeares in Jerusalem.

6 And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, like as did the house of Ahab: for he had the daughter of Ahab to wife, and he brought that which was evil in the eyes of the L. 20. 20.

7 Without the L. 20. 20 would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he promised to give a light to him, and to his sonnes for ever.

8 In his dayes the Edomites revolted from under the dominion of Judah, and made themselves a king.

9 Then Jehoiam went forth with his princes, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and smote the Edomites which compassed him in, and the captains of the chariots.

10 So the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. The same time also did Libnah revolt from under his hand; because he had forsaken the L. 20. 20 God of his fathers.

11 Moreover, he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit fornication, and compellend Judah thereto.

12 And there came a writing to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, Thus saith the L. 20. 20 God of David thy father, Because thou hast not walked in the wayes of Jehoahaphat thy father, nor in the wayes of Asa king of Judah, 13 But hast walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and hast made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to go a whoring, like to the whoredomes of the house of Ahab, and also hast slain thy brethren of thy fathers house, which were better then thy selfe.

14 Behold, with a great plague will the L. 20. 20 smite thy people, and thy children, and thy wives, and all thy goods.

15 And thou shalt have great sickness by disease of thy bowels, until thy bowels fall out, by reason of the sickness day by day.

16 Moreover, the L. 20. 20 stirred up against Jehoiam the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians, that were near the Chethians.

17 And they came up into Judah, and broke into it, and carried away all the substance that was found in the kings house, and his sonnes also and his wives; so that there was never a sonne left him, save Jehoahaphat the youngest of his sonnes.

18 And after all this the L. 20. 20 smote him in his bowels with an incurable disease.

19 And it came to passe that in process of time, after the end of two yeares, his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness: so he died of four murtherers. And his people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers.

20 Thirty and two yeares old was he when he began to reigne, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight yeares, and departed without being desired: so whet they buried him in the city of David, but not in the sepulchres of the kings.

CHAP. XXII.

1 Ahaziah succeeding, reighneth wickedly. 5 In his case deracine with Jeram the sonne of Ahab, he is slain by Jehu. 10 Athaliah destroying all the seed royal, save Joash, whom Jehoahaphath his aunt hid, upbreth he the kingdome.

And the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah his youngest sonne, king in his stead: for the band of men that came with the Arabians to the camp, had slain all the eldest. So Ahaziah the sonne of Jehoiam king of Judah reigned.

2 Forty and two yeares old was Ahaziah when he began to reigne, and he reigned one yeare in Jerusalem: his mothers name also was Athaliah the daughter of Aczi.

3 He also walked in the wayes of the house of Ahab: for his mother was his counsellour to do wickedly.

4 Wherefore he did evil in the sight of the L. 20. 20, like the house of Ahab: for they were his counsellours after the death of his father, to his destruction.

5 He walked also after their counsel, and went with Jehoiam the sonne of Ahab king of Israel, to warre against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead: and the Syrians smote Jeram.

6 And he returned to be healed in Jerseel, because of the wounds which were given him at Ramah, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And Azariah the sonne of Jehoiam king of Judah, went down to see Jehoiam the sonne of Ahab at Jerseel, because he was sick.

7 And the destruction of Ahaziah was of God by coming to Jerseel: for when he was come, he went out with Jehoiam against Jehu the sonne of Ahishah, whom the L. 20. 20 had anointed to destroy the house of Ahab.

8 And it came to passe that when Jerseel was executing judgement upon the house of Ahab, and found the wickednes of Judah and the sonnes of the brethren of Ahaziah, that ministered to Ahaziah, he slew them.

9 And he sought Ahaziah: and they caught him, (for he was hid in Samaria) and brought him to Jerseel: and when they had slain him, they buried him, because (said they) he is the sonne of Jehoahaphat, who sought the L. 20. 20 with all his heart. So the house of Ahaziah had no power to keep still the kingdome.

10 But when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah, saw that her sonne was dead, she arose, and destroyed and destroyed all the sons royal of the house of Judah.

17 But Jehoiada the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Athaliah; and stole him from among the kings sons that were slain; and put him and his nurse in a box-chamber. So Jehoiada the daughter of king Jehoiash, the wife of Jehonadab the priest (for he was the sister of Athaliah) hid him from Athaliah, so that she slew him not.

18 And he was with them his in the house of God six years; and Athaliah reigned over the land.

1 Jehoiada having set things in order, maketh Joash king; 12 Athaliah is slain. 16 Jehoiada restoreth the worship of God.

*2. King II. 4. &c.

And in the seventh years Jehoiada strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jerotam, and Ishmael the son of Jehonathan, and Azariah the son of Obed, and Shaphan the son of Adaiab, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, into covenant with him.

2 And they went about in Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah; and the chief of the fathers of Israel; and they came to Jerusalem.

3 And all the congregation made a covenant with the king in the house of God: and he saw unto them, Behold, the kings sons shall reign; as the Lord hath said of the sons of David.

4 This is the thing that ye shall do. A third part of you entering on the sabbath of the priests, and of the Levites, shall be porters of the doors;

5 And a third part shall be at the kings house, and a third part at the gate of the foundation: and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of the Lord.

6 But let none come into the house of the Lord, save the priests, and they that minister of the Levites, they shall go in, for they are holy: but all the people shall keep the watch of the Lord.

7 And the Levites shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whosoever else cometh into the house, he shall be put to death: but he that goeth out with the king, he shall be put to death.

8 So the Levites and all Judah did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest had commanded; and took every man his man that were to come in on the sabbath; and they that were to go out on the sabbath: for Jehoiada the priest dismissed not the Levites.

14 Then Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds that were set over the host, and said unto them, Waste her forth of the ranges; and whoso followeth her, let him be slain with the sword. For the priests said, Slay her not in the house of the Lord.

15 So they laid hands on her; and when she was come to the entering of the host gate, by the kings house, they slew her there.

10 And all the princes, and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had made an end.

11 Now it came to pass, that at what time the chest was brought unto the kings office, by the hand of the Levites; and when they saw that there was much money: the kings scribe, and the high priests officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to his place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance.

12 And the king and Jehoiada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of the L. o. m., and hired masons and carpenters to repair the house of the L. o. m., and also such as brought iron and brass to mend the house of the L. o. m.

16 And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, both towards God, and towards his house.

17 Now after the death of Jehoiada came the princes of Judah, and made obedience to the king: then the king hearkened unto them.

18 And they left the house of the L. o. m. God of their fathers, and served groves and idols: and wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this their trespass.

6 He hired also an hundred thousand mighty men of valour out of Israel, for an hundred talents of silver.

14 And when it came to pass, after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the gods of the children of Seir, and set them up to be his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense unto them.

19 When David, &c. thou hast smitten the Edomites, and thou hast lifted thee up to death: now thou art home, why shouldst thou meddle to thine hurt, that thou shouldst fall, even thou, and Judah with thee?

20 But Amaziah would not hear, for it came of God, that he might deliver thee up to death: of their enemies, because they sought after the gods of Edom.

Uzziah succeeding, and reigning well in the days of Zechariah, prospereth. 16 Waxing proud, he invadeth the priests office, and is smitten with leprose. 22 He dieth, and Jotham succeedeth him.

Then all the people of Judah took * Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in the room of his father Amaziah.

2 He built cloch, and returned to Judah, after that the king slept with his fathers.

3 Sixteen years old was Uzziah, when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and two years in Jerusalem: his mothers name also was Jerushah of Jerusalem.

4 And he was that which was right in the sight of the Lord, according to all that his father Amaziah did.

5 And he sought God in the days of Jehoshaphat, who had understanding in the visions of God: and as long as he sought the Lord, God made him to prosper.

6 And he went forth and waters against the Philistines, and brake down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod, and built cities about Ashdod, and among the Philistines.

7 And God helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians that dwelt in Gur-baal, and the Sabeans.

8 And the Ammonites gave gifts to Uzziah, and his name: Queen Athaliah even to the entering in of Egypt, for he strengthened himself exceedingly.

9 Moreover, Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the corner-gate, and at the batter-gate, and at the turning of the wall, and fortified them.

10 Also he built towers in the desert, and he digged many wells, for he had much cattle, both in the low-country, and in the plains: he had camels also, and yoke-buffles in the mountains, and to Camel-ree he was wont to husbandry.

11 Moreover, Uzziah had an host of fighting-men, that went out to warfare by bands, according to the number of their account, by the hand of Azel the seer, and Gadiah the ruler, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the kings captains.

hundred thousand and seven thousand and five hundred, that made warre with mighty power, to help the king against the enemy.

14 And Assyah prepared for them throughout all the host, shields, and speares, and helmets, and habergeons, and bows, and slings to cast stones.

15 And he made in Jerusalem engines invented by cunning men, to be on the towers and upon the bulwarks, to shoot arrows and great stones withall: and his name was Jotham farre abroad, for he was marvellously helped till he was strong.

16 ¶ But when he was strong, his heart was lifted up to his destruction: for he transgressed against the Lord his God, and went into the temple of the Lord his God, to burn incense upon the altar of incense.

17 And Assyah the piteff went in after him, and with him fourscore yeasles of the Lord his God, that were valiant men:

18 And they withstood Assyah the king, and said unto him, Is it apperteyneth not unto thee, Assyah, to burn incense upon the Lord, but to the priests the houses of Aaron, that are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary, for thou hast trespassed, neither shall it be for thine honour from the Lord his God.

19 Then Assyah was wroth, and had a censer in his hand, to burn incense: and while he was thus with the priests, the leprosie then rose up in his forehead, before the priests in the house of the Lord, from before the incense altar.

20 And Assyah the chief priest, and all the priests looked upon him: and behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out from thence, yea, himself: and he went out, because the Lord his God had forsaken him.

21 ¶ And Assyah the king was a leper unto the day of his death, and dwelt in a house, being a leper, for he was cut off from the house of the Lord: and Jotham his sonne was over the kings house, judging the people of the land.

22 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Assyah, first and last, did Isaiah the prophet the sonne of Amos write.

23 So Assyah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of the buriall which belonged to the kings: for they said, He is a leper: and Jotham his sonne reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XXVII.

1 Jotham reigning well, prospereth. 5 He subdueth the Ammonites. 7 He reigns. 9 Ahaz succeedeth him.

Jotham was twenty and five yeares old when he began to reigne, and he reigned sixteen yeares in Jerusalem: his mothers name also was Jerushah, the daughter of Jachob.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord his God, according to all that his father Assyah did: howbeit he entered not into the temple of the Lord. And the people did yet corruptly.

3 He built the high gate of the house of the Lord, and on the wall of the temple he built much.

4 Moreover, he built cities in the mountains of Judah, and in the forre he built castles and towers.

5 ¶ He fought also with the king of the Ammonites, and prevailed against them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same year, an hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley: for he much did the children of Ammon pay unto him, both the second yeare and the third.

6 The Jotham became mighty, became brave, passed the bayes before the Lord his God.

7 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his doings, and his sayings, lo, they are written in the booke of the kings of Israel and Judah.

8 He was five and twenty yeares old when he began to reigne, and reigned sixteen yeares in Jerusalem.

9 ¶ And Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Ahaz his sonne reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 Ahaz reigning very wickedly, is greatly afflicted by the Syrians. 6 Judah being captivated by the Israelites, is sent home by the counsel of Oded the prophet. 16 Ahaz sending for idols to Assyria, is not helped thereby. 22 In his distress he groweth more idolatrous. 26 He dying, Hezekiah succeedeth him.

Ahaz was twenty yeares old when he began to reigne, and he reigned sixteen yeares in Jerusalem: but he did not that which was right in the sight of the Lord his God, like David his father.

2 For he walked in the bayes of the kings of Israel, and made also molten images for Baalim.

3 Moreover, he burnt incense in the valley of the house of Ammon, and burnt his children in the fire, after the abominations of the heathen, whom the Lord his God had cast out before the children of Israel.

4 He sacrificed also, and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

5 And therefore the Lord his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria, and they smote him, and carried away a great multitude of them captives, and brought them to Damascus: and he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who smote him with a great slaughter.

6 ¶ For Hezekah the sonne of Rechabab slew in Judah an hundred and twenty thousand in one day, which were all valiant men: because they had forsaken the Lord his God of their fathers.

7 And Hezekah a mighty man of Ephraim, slew Hezekiah the kings sonne, and Hezekiah the governor of the house, and Hezekiah that was next to the king.

8 And the children of Israel carried away captive of their brethren, two hundred thousand and women, sonnes, and daughters, and took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.

9 But a prophet of the Lord his God was there, whose name was Obed: and he went out before the host that came to Samaria, and said unto them, Behold, because the Lord his God of your fathers was wroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your hand, and ye have slain them in a rage that reacheth up unto heaven.

10 And now ye purpose to keep under the children of Judah Jerusalem for bondmen and bondwomen unto you: but are there not with you, when with you sins against the Lord his God?

11 Now heare me therefore, and deliver the captives again, which ye have taken captive of your brethren: for the fierce wrath of God is upon you.

12 And said unto them, We shall not bring in the captives hither: for inheritances we have of-fended against the Lord already, yet intend to add more to our sinnes, and to our trespass: for our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel.

14 So the armed men left the captives and the spoil, before the princes and all the congregation.

15 And the men which were expelled by name, rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all that were naked among them, and a-rayed them, and shod them, and gave them to eat and to drink, & anointed them, & carried all the feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho, the city of palm-trees, to their brethren: then they returned to Samaria.

19 For the Lord so wrought against Judah, that he made Judah naked, and transgressed sore against the Lord.

20 And Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria came unto him, and distressed him, but strengthened him not.

21 For Ahaz took away a portion out of the house of the Lord, and out of the house of the king, and of the princes, and gave it unto the king of Assyria: but he helped him not.

24 And Ahaz gathered together the vessels of the house of God, and cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God, and put up the bones of the house of the Lord, and he made him altars in every corner of Jerusalem.

Isaiah. to offer.

25 And in every severall city of Judah he made high places, to burn incense unto other gods, and provoked to anger the Lord God of his fathers.

26 Now the rest of his acts, and of all his ways, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

27 And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, even in Jerusalem: but they brought him not into the sepulchres of the kings of Israel: and Hezekiah his sonne reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XXIX.

1 Hezekiah his good reign. 3 Hezekiah religion. 5 He exhibited the Levites. 12 They sanctified themselves, and cleanse the house of God. 20 Hezekiah offereth solemn sacrifices, wherein the Levites were more forward than the priests.

2 Kings. 18. 1.

2 Hezekiah began to reign when he was five and twenty years old, and he reigned nine and twenty yeares in Jerusalem: and his mothers name was Abiah the daughter of Zebadiah.

2 And he did that which was right in the sight of the Lord according to all that David his father had done.

3 At the first yeare of his reign, in the first month, opened the doors of the house of the Lord, and repaired them.

4 And he brought in the priests, and the Levites, and gathered them together into the east street.

5 And said unto them, Heare me, ye Levites, sanctifie now your selves, and sanctifie the house of the Lord God of your fathers, and carry forth the filthiness out of the holy place.

6 For our fathers have trespassed, and done that which was evil in the eyes of the Lord our God, and have forsaken him, and have turned away their faces from the habitation of the Lord, and turned their backs.

Hezekiah given the neck.

7 Also they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burnt incense, nor offered burnt-offerings in the holy place, unto the Lord of Israel.

8 Wherefore the wrath of the Lord was upon Judah and Jerusalem, and he hath delivered them to trouble, to astonishment, and to discomfiture, as ye see with your eyes.

Hezekiah motion.

9 For to our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sonnes, and our daughters, and our wives are in captivity for this.

10 Now it is in mine heart to make a covenant with the Lord God of Israel, that his fierce wrath may turn away from us.

11 Ye say, I be not too negligent: for I have kept the commandment of the Lord, and have done as ye have said, and have not forsaken him, nor have I burnt incense.

Or, be not now deserv- ing. Num. 3. 14. and 11. 26. or, offer a sacrifice.

12 Then the Levites arose, Bakhiah the sonne of Amasai, and Joel the sonne of Azariah, the sonnes of the Kobadites: & of the sonnes of Beeri: Bish the sonne of Abdi, and Azariah the sonne of Bakhiah, and of the Gersonites: Joah the sonne of Zimmah, and Eden the sonne of Joah.

13 And of the sonnes of Uziah: Shimi, and Jehiel, and of the sonnes of Elaph: Zedai, and Bathanai.

14 And of the sonnes of Yemam: Zebiel, and Shimi: & of the sonnes of Jeduthun: Shemai, and Uzziel.

15 And they gathered their brethren, and sanctified themselves, and came, according to the commandment of the king, by the words of the Lord, to cleanse the house of the Lord.

Isaiah. In the business of the Lord.

16 And the priests went into the inner part of the house of the Lord, to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the Lord into the court of the house of the Lord. And the Levites took it, to carry it out abroad into the brook Kidron.

17 Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctifie, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of the Lord: so they sanctified the house of the Lord in eight dayes, and in the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end.

18 Then they went into Hezekiah the king, and said, We have cleansed all the house of the Lord, and the altar of burnt-offering, with all the vessels thereof, and the shew-bread tables with all the vessels thereof.

19 Moreover, all the vessels which king Ahaz

He offereth solemane sacrifices. Chap. xxx. The passeover proclaimed.

Now in his reign he did call away in his transgression, but he prepared and sanctified, and behold, they are before the altar of the Lord.

20 ¶ When Jerekiah the king rose early, and gathered the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the Lord.

21 And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rammes, and seven lamdes, and seven he-goats, for a sinne-offering to the kingdome, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah: and he commanded the priests the sonnes of Aaron to offer them on the altar of the Lord.

22 So they killed the bullocks, and the priests received the blood, and sprinkled it on the altar: likewise when they had killed the rammes, they sprinkled the blood upon the altar: they killed also the lamdes, and they sprinkled the blood upon the altar.

23 And they brought forth the he-goats for the sinne-offering, before the king and the congregation, and they laid their hands upon them:

24 And the priests killed them, and they made reconciliation with their blood upon the altar, to make an atonement for all Israel: for the king commanded that the burnt-offering and the sinne-offering should be made for all Israel.

25 ¶ And he set the Levites in the house of the Lord, with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, and of Asa the kings seer, and Nathan the prophet: for so was the commandment of the Lord by his prophets.

26 And the Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets.

27 And Jerekiah commanded to offer the burnt-offering upon the altar: and when the burnt-offering began, the song of the Lord also with the trumpets, and with the instruments ordained by David king of Israel.

28 And all the congregation worshipped, and the fingers sang, and the trumpeter sounded: and all this continued until the burnt-offering was finished.

29 And when they had made an end of offering, the king and all that were present with him, bowed themselves and worshipped.

30 Moreover, Jerekiah the king, and the princes commanded the Levites to sing psalle unto the Lord, with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer: and they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped.

31 ¶ When Jerekiah answered and said, How ye have consecrated your selves unto the Lord, come neare and bring sacrifices, and thank-offerings unto the house of the Lord. And the congregation brought in sacrifices, and thank-offerings, and as many as were of a free heart, burnt-offerings.

32 And the number of the burnt-offerings which the congregation brought, was threescore and ten bullocks, an hundred rammes, and two hundred lamdes: all these were for a burnt-offering to the Lord.

33 And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen, and thye thousand sheep.

34 But the priests were too few, so that they could not slay all the burnt-offerings: wherefore their brethren the Levites did help them till the work was ended, and until the other priests had sanctified themselves: for the Levites were more upright in heart, to sanctifie themselves, then the priests.

35 And also the burnt-offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace-offerings, and the drink-offerings for every burnt-offering. So the service of the house of the Lord was set in order.

36 And Jerekiah rejoiced, and all the people, that God had prepared the people in the thing that was done suddenly.

CHAP. XXX.

1 Jerekiah proclaimeth a solemane passeover on the second month for Judah and Israel. 13 The assembly having destroyed the altars of idollary, keep the feast fourteen days. 27 The priests and Levites bless the people.

AND Jerekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Benjamin, that they should come to the house of the Lord at Jerusalem, to keep the passeover unto the Lord God of Israel.

2 For the king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, to keep the passeover in the second month.

3 For they could not keep it at that time, because the priests had not sanctified themselves sufficiently, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem.

4 And the thing pleased the king, and all the congregation.

5 So they established a decree, to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beer Sheva even to Dan, that they should come to keep the passeover unto the Lord God of Israel at Jerusalem: for they had not done it of a long time in such sort, as it was written.

6 So the posts went with the letters from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, The children of Israel, turn again unto the Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel: and he will return to the remnant of you, that are escaped out of the hand of the kings of Assyria.

7 And be not ye like your fathers, and like your brethren, which trespassed against the Lord God of their fathers, who therefore gave them up to desolation, as ye see.

8 Now be ye not stiff-necked as your fathers were, but yield your selves unto the Lord, and enter into his sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for ever: and serve the Lord your God, that the fierceness of his wrath may turn away from you.

9 For if ye turn again unto the Lord, your brethren, and your children shall finde compassion before them that lead them captive, so that they shall come again into this land: for the Lord your God is gracious and mercifull, and will not turn away his face from you, if ye return unto him.

10 So the posts passed from city to city, through the countrey of Ephraim and Benjamin, even unto Jerusalem: but they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them.

11 Nevertheless, divers of Asher and Benjamin, and of Judah humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem.

12 Also in Judah, the hand of God was to give them one heart to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, by the word of the Lord.

13 ¶ And there assembled at Jerusalem much people, to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great congregation.

14 And they arose, and took away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for burnt

18 For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim and Simeon, Manasse, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves; yet did they eat the passover otherwise then it was written: but Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The good Lord be to us to pardon every one.

26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem for the time of Solomon the sonne of David king of Israel, there was not the like in Jerusalem.

3 He appointed also the kings portion of his substance, for the burnt-offerings, to wit, for the morning and evening burnt-offerings, and the burnt-offerings for the sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the set feasts, as it is written in the law of the Lord.

10 And Azariah the chief priest of the house of Zadok answered him, and said, Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of the Lord be to us, we have had enough to eat, and have left plenty: for the Lord be to us hath blessed his people, and that which is left, is this great heap.

13 And in every work that he began in the service of the house of God, and in the laws and in the commandments to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 Sennacherib invading Judah, Hezekiah fortifies himself, and encourages his people. 2 Against the blasphemies of Sennacherib by message and letters, Hezekiah and Isaiah pray. 3 An angel destroyeth the host of the Assyrians, so the glory of Hezekiah. 4 Hezekiah praying in his sickness, God giveth him a sign of recovery. 5 He waxing proud, is humbled by God. 27 His wealth and works. 31 His error in the ambassage of Babelim. 32 He dying, Manasse succeeds him.

After these things and the establishment thereof, Sennacherib king of Assyria came, and entered into Judah, and encamped against the fenced cities, and thought to destroy them for himself.

2 And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib was come, and that he was purposed to fight against Jerusalem;

3 He took counsel with his princes, and his mighty men, to stop the waters of the fountains, which were without the city: and they did so.

4 So there was gathered much people together, who stopp'd all the fountains, and the brook that ran through the midst of the land, saying, We should the kings of Assyria come, and find much water.

5 Also he strengthened himself, and built up all the wall that was broken, and raised it up to the towers, and another wall without, and repaired bulwarks in the city of David, and made towers and bulwarks in a bulwark.

6 And he set captains of towers over the people, and gathered them together to him in the street of the gate of the city, and spake comfortably to them, saying,

7 Be strong and courageous, be not afraid nor dismayed by the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude that is with him: for there be none with us, then with him.

8 Forthwith him is an arm of flesh, but with us is the Lord our God, so help us, and to fight our battles. And the people trusted themselves upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

9 After this did Sennacherib king of Assyria send his servants to Jerusalem (but he himself did not come) to say unto Sennacherib king of Assyria, and to all Judah that were at Jerusalem, saying,

10 Thus saith Sennacherib king of Assyria, and ye know ye well, that ye shall be in the hands of the king of Assyria.

11 Doth not Hezekiah persuade you to give strong holds over your cities to be by famine and by thirst, saying, The Lord is with us. Shall deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

12 Hath not the same Hezekiah taken away his high places, and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall worship before one altar, and burn incense upon it?

13 Know ye not what I and my fathers have done unto all the people of other lands: times the gods of the nations of those lands my fathers add to deliver their lands out of mine hand?

14 And who was there among all the gods of those nations, that my fathers utterly destroyed, that could deliver his people out of mine hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of mine hand?

15 Now therefore let not Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you on this manner, neither yet believe him: for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of mine hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: how much less shall your God deliver you out of mine hand?

16 And his servants spake yet more against the Lord, as to God, and against his servant Hezekiah.

17 He wrote also letters to rail on the Lord, God of Israel, and to speak against him, saying, As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people out of mine hand; so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of mine hand.

18 Then they cried with a loud voice in the Jews speech unto the people of Jerusalem that were on the wall, to affright them, and to trouble them, that they might take the city.

19 And they spake against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the people of the earth which were the work of the hands of men.

20 For this cause Hezekiah the king, and the prophet Isaiah the son of Amos, prayed and cried to heaven.

21 And the Lord sent an angel which cut off the mighty men of honour, and the leaders and captains in the camp of the king of Assyria: so he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his god, they that came forth of his own house, slew him when there laid the sword.

22 Thus the Lord saved Hezekiah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all other, and guided them on every side.

23 And many brought gifts unto the Lord to Jerusalem, and presented to Hezekiah king of Judah: so that he was magnified in the sight of all nations, from thenceforth.

24 And in those days Hezekiah was sick to the death, and passed unto the Lord, as to: and he spake unto him, and he gave him a sign.

25 But Hezekiah refused not again, according to the benefit done unto him: for his heart was lifted up, therefore he was weak upon him, and upon Judah and Jerusalem.

26 Moreover, during, Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart (both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem) so that the wrath of the Lord was not kindled against him in the days of Hezekiah.

27 And Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honour: and he made himself treasures of silver, and of gold, and of precious stones, 316 and for flesh, and for spirit, and for all manner of pleasant things; and these things also for the increase of corn, and wine, and oil; and stalks for all manner of beasts, and cotes for fleeces.

29 Moreover, he pointed him cities, and possessions of flocks, and herds in abundance: for God had given him substance very much.

30 Then came Jeremia also, and stopped the upper water-course of Sihon, and brought it straight down to the west-side of the cite of David. And Jeremia prospered in all his works.

31 ¶ Doubtless, in the business of the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who sent unto him to enquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him to try him, that he might know all that was in his heart.

32 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Jeremia, and his good will, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the sonne of Amos, and in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

33 And Jeremia slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the chiefest of the sepulchres of the houses of David: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honour at his death: and Manasseh his sonne reigned in his stead.

CHAP. XXXIII.

1 Manasseh his wicked reigne. 2 He setteth up idolatry, and would not be admonished. 11 He is carried into Babylon. 12 Upon his prayer to God he is released, and putteth down idolatry. 18 His age. 20 He dying, Amos succeedeth him. 21 Amos reigning wickedly, is slain by his servants. 25 The murderers being slain, Josiah succeedeth him.

Manasseh was twelve yeeres old when he began to reigne, and he reigned fifty and five yeeres in Jerusalem:

2 But did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, like unto the abominations of the heathen, whom the Lord had cast out before the children of Israel.

3 ¶ For he built again the high places which Jeremia his father had broken down, and he reared up altars for Baalim, and made groves, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them.

4 Also he built altars in the house of the Lord, whereof the Lord said, In Jerusalem shall my name be forever.

5 And he built altars for all the host of heaven, in the two courts of the house of the Lord.

6 And he caused his children to passe through the fire in the valley of the house of Chimham: also he observed times, and used enchantments, and used witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of the Lord, to provoke him to anger.

7 And he set a carved image (the idol which he had made) in the house of God, of which God had said to David, and to Solomon his sonne, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen before all the cities of Israel, will I put my name forever.

8 Neither will I any more remove the foot of Israel from out of the land which I have appointed for your fathers: so that they will take heed to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law, and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses.

9 ¶ Manasseh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to erre, and to do worse then the heathen, whom the Lord had destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 And the Lord spake to Manasseh, and to his people: but they would not hearken.

11 ¶ Therefore the Lord brought upon them the captains of the host of the king of Assyria, which took Manasseh among the thorns, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

12 And when he was in affliction, he besought the Lord his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers.

13 And prayed unto him, and he was intrusted of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdome. Then Manasseh knew that the Lord was God.

14 Now after this, he built a wall without the city of David, on the west-side of Sihon, in the valley, even to the entering in at the fish-gate, and compassed about the city, and raised it up a very great height, and put captains of warre in all the fenced cities of Judah.

15 And he took away the strange gods, and the idol out of the house of the Lord, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the Lord, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the cite.

16 And he repaired the altar of the Lord, and sacrificed thereon peace offerings, and thank-offerings, and commanded Judah to serve the Lord God of Israel.

17 Nevertheless, the people did sacrifice still in the high places, yet unto the Lord as to their God onely.

18 ¶ Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer unto his God, and the words of the seers that spake to him in the name of the Lord God of Israel, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel.

19 His prayer also, and how God was interested of him, and all his sinne, and his trespass, and the places wherein he built high places, and set up groves and graven images before he was humbled, behold, they are written among the sayings of the seers.

20 ¶ So Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house: and Amos his sonne reigned in his stead.

21 ¶ Amos was two and twenty yeeres old when he began to reigne, and reigned two yeeres in Jerusalem.

22 But he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord, as did Manasseh his father: for Amos sacrificed unto all the carved images, which Manasseh his father had made, and served them.

23 And humbled not himself before the Lord, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself; but Amos trespassed more and more.

24 And his servants conspired against him, and slew him in his own house.

25 ¶ But the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amos, and the people of the land made Josiah his sonne king in his stead.

9 And when they came to Ahikiah the high priest, they delivered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites that kept the doores, had gathered of the hand of Ephraim and Manasse, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah, and Benjamin, and they returned to Jerusalem.

22 And Ahikiah, and they that the king had appointed, went to consult the Lord, the wife of Shaphan the sonne of Azaliah, the sonne of Ahikiah, keeper of the wardrobe, (and he dwelt in Jerusalem, in the college) and they spake to her to that effect.

Then * the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his fathers stead in Jerusalem.

2 Jehoahaz was twenty and three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Jerusalem.

3 And the king of Egypt † put him down at Jerusalem, and † condemned the land in an hundred talents of silver, and a talent of gold.

4 And the king of Egypt made Shashin his brother, king over Judah and Jerusalem, and turned his name to Jehoiakim. And Szechon took Jehoahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt.

5 † Jehoiakim was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem, and he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord his God.

6 Against him came up Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and bound him in fetters to carry him to Babylon.

7 Nebuchadnezzar also carried of the vessels of the house of the Lord to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon.

8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and his abominations which he did, and that which was found in him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah: and † Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.

9 Jehoiachin was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem, and he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord.

12 And he did that which was evil in the sight of the Lord his God, and humbled not himself before Jeremiah the prophet speaking, from the mouth of the Lord.

13 And he also rebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him swear by God: but he stiffened his neck, and hardened his heart from turning unto the Lord his God of Israel.

14 Moreover, all the chief of the priests, and the people transgressed very much, after all the abominations of the heathen, & polluted the house of the Lord which he had hallowed in Jerusalem.

15 And the Lord his God of their fathers sent to them † by his messengers, rising up † de- times, and sending; because he had compassion on his people, and on his dwelling place.

16 But they mocked the messengers of God, and despised his words, and misused his prophets, until the wrath of the Lord was kindled against his people, till there was no remedy.

17 Therefore he brought upon them the king of the Caldees, who slew their young men with the sword, in the house of their sanctuary, and had no compassion upon young man or maiden, old man, or him that stooped for age: he gave them all into his hand.

18 And all the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of the Lord, and the treasures of the king, and of his princes, all these he brought to Babylon.

19 And they burnt the house of God, and brake down the wall of Jerusalem, and burnt all the palaces thereof with fire, and destroyed all the goodly vessels thereof.

20 And † them that had escaped from the sword, he carried he away to Babylon: where they were servants to him and his sons, until the reign of the kingdom of Persia:

21 To fulfill the word of the Lord by the mouth of † Jeremiah, until the land † had enjoyed her sabbaths: for as long as the lay desolate, kept sabbath, to fulfill the word and ten years.

22 Now in the first years of Cyrus king of Persia (that the word of the Lord spoken by the mouth of † Jeremiah, might be accomplished) the Lord stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, that he made a proclamation throughout all his kingdom, and put it also in writing, saying,

23 Thus saith Cyrus king of Persia, All the kingdoms of the earth hath the Lord his God of heaven given me, and he hath charged me to build him an house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah: who is there among you of all his people the Lord his God be with him, and let him go up.

me to build him an house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah.

3 And ho is there among you of all his people? his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the Lord his God of Israel (he is the God) which is in Jerusalem.

4 And whosoever remaineth in any place where he sojourneth, let the men of his place † help him with silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with beasts, besides the freewill-offering for the house of God that is in Jerusalem.

5 Then rose up the chief of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, with all them whose spirit God had raised to go up, to build the house of the Lord which is in Jerusalem.

58 All the ³ Attithims, and the children of Solomon's servants, were three hundred ninety and two.

59 And there were they took went up from Beelmab, Tel-baris, Cherub, Addan, and Summer: but they could not show their fathers house, and their ⁴ seed, whether they were of Israel:

60 The children of Desaiab, the children of Tobiah, the children of Berhoda, six hundred sixty and two.

61 ¶ And of the children of the priests: the children of Japhanab, the children of Bar, the children of Barzilai: (which took a wife of the daughters of ⁵ Barzilai the Gileadite, and was called after their name)

62 These sought their register among those that were reckoned by genealogie, but they were not found: therefore ⁶ were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood.

63 And the ⁷ Tarshatha said unto them, that they should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood up a priest with ⁸ Urim and Thumim.

64 ¶ The whole congregation together, was fourty and two thousand three hundred and threescore:

65 Besides their servants and their maidens: whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and there were among them two hundred singing men, and singing women.

66 Their boys were seven hundred thirty and six: their maids, two hundred forty and five:

67 Their camels, four hundred thirty and two: their asses, six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

68 ¶ And some of the chief of the fathers, when they came to the house of the ⁹ Lord, which is at Jerusalem, offered freely for the house of God to set it up in his place:

69 They gave after their ability, unto the treasure of the work, threescore and one thousand ¹⁰ talents of gold, and five thousand pounds of silver, and one hundred pieces of garments.

70 So the priests and the Levites, and some of the people, and the singers, and the porters, and the Sargentins, dwelt in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

CHAP. III.

¶ The altar is set up. 4 Offerings frequented. 7 Workmen prepared. 8 The foundations of the temple are laid in great joy and mourning.

¶ And when the seventh month was come, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man, to Jerusalem.

2 Then stood up ¹ Jeshua the sonne of Josadak, and his brethren the priests, and ² Zerubbabel the sonne of ³ Shealtiel, and his brethren, and builded the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt-offerings thereon, as it is ⁴ written in the law of Moses the man of God.

3 And they set the altar upon his bases, (for fear was upon them, because of the people of those countries) and they offered burnt-offerings thereon unto the ⁵ Lord, even burnt-offerings morning and evening.

4 They kept also the feast of tabernacles, ⁶ as it is written, and ⁷ offered the daily burnt-offerings by number, according to the custom, ⁸ as the duty of every day required.

5 And afterward offered the continuall burnt-offering, both of the new moons, and of all the set feasts of the ⁹ Lord, that were consecrated, and of every one that willingly offered a free-will-offering unto the ¹⁰ Lord.

6 From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt-offerings unto the ¹¹ Lord: but ¹² the foundation of the temple of the ¹³ Lord was not yet laid.

7 They gave money also unto the masons, and to the ¹⁴ carpenters, and meat, and drink, and oyl, unto them of ¹⁵ Judah, and to them of ¹⁶ Tyre, to bring cedar-trees from Lebanon to the sea of ¹⁷ Tappas: according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia.

8 ¶ Now in the second years of their coming unto the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel the sonne of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the sonne of Josadak, and the remnant of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem: and appointed the Levites, from thenceyars old and upward, to the forward the work of the house of the ¹⁸ Lord.

9 Then stood Jeshua, with his sonnes and his brethren, Radaiel and his sonnes, the sonnes of ¹⁹ Judah: together, to set forward the workmen in the house of God: the sonnes of Benadab, with their sonnes and their brethren the Levites.

10 And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the ²⁰ Lord, they set the priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites the sonnes of Asaph, with cymbals to make the ²¹ Lord to be heard, after the ordinance of David king of Israel.

11 And they sang together by course, in psalm and giving thanks unto the ²² Lord: because he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever towards Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they passed the ²³ Lord: because the foundation of the house of the ²⁴ Lord was laid.

12 But many of the priests and Levites, and chief of the fathers, who were ancient men that had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice, and many shouted aloud for joy:

13 So that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy, from the noise of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard a farre off.

¶ Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity builded the temple unto the ¹ Lord, the God of Israel:

2 Then they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chief of the fathers, and said unto them, Let us build with you: for we seek you God, as ye do, and we do sacrifice unto him, according to the law of the king of Assyria, which was brought up by Sargon.

6 This Ezra went up from Babylon, and he was a ready scribe in the law of Moses, which the Lord God of Israel had given: and the king granted him all his request, according to the hand of the Lord God upon him.

7 And there went up some of the children of Israel, and of the priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and the Scribes, unto Jerusalem in the seventh year of Artaxerxes the king.

26 And whosoever will not do the law of thy God, and the law of the king, let judgement be executed speedily upon him, whether it be unto death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment.

† Cal'd to rooting out.

27 ¶ Blessed be the Lord God of our fathers, which hath put such a thing as this in the kings heart, to beautify the house of the Lord which is in Jerusalem:

28 And hath extended mercy unto me before the king and his counselors, and before all the kings mighty princes: and I was strengthened as the hand of the Lord God was upon me, and I gathered together out of Israel, chief men to go up with me.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The companions of Ezra, who returned from Babylon, 15 He sendeth to Iddo, for ministers for the temple, 21 He keepeth a fast, 24 He committeth the treasures to the custody of the priests, 31 From Ahava they come to Jerusalem, 33 The treasure is weighed in the temple, 36 The commission is delivered.

These are now the chief of their fathers, and this is the genealogie of them that went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of Artaxerxes the king.

2 Of the sons of Binehas, Gershom: of the sons of Behanai; Daniel: of the sons of Dabhi, Hannan.

3 Of the sons of Berhanai, of the sons of Baruch, Zechariah: and with him were reckoned by genealogie of the males an hundred and fiftie.

4 Of the sons of Bahath-moad, Eliehoenai the son of Zerahiah, and with him two hundred males.

5 Of the sons of Sechaniah; the son of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males.

6 Of the sons also of Azb; and the sons of Jonathan, and with him fiftie males.

7 And of the sons of Etam, Jeshai the son of Azbail, and with him twenty males.

8 And of the sons of Shephaniah; Zebadiah the son of Michael, and with him fourscore males.

9 Of the sons of Jeab; Obadiah the son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen males.

10 And of the sons of Shelemiah; the son of Jeshai, and with him an hundred and threescore males.

11 And of the sons of Bebai; Zechariah the son of Bebai, and with him twenty and eight males.

12 And

sonne.

12 And of the sonnes of Argad, Johanan, the sonne of Bakkatan, and with him an hundred and ten males.

13 And of the last sonnes of Adonikam, whose names are these, Eliphelet, Jehiel, & Schemaiab, and with them threetyre males.

14 Of the sonnes also of Bigbai: Uthai, and Zabud, and with them seventy males.

15 And I gathered them together to the river that runneth to Ababa: and there I abode in tents threetyre dayes: and I viewed the people, and the priests, and found there none of the sonnes of Levi.

16 Then sent I for Elizer, for Ariel, for Schemaiab, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Razban, and for Zachariah, and for Besumilam, chief men; also for Jarib, and for Elnathan, men of understanding.

18 And by the good hand of our God upon us, they brought us a man of understanding, of the sonnes of Zabai, the sonne of Levi, the sonne of Israel, and Sberediah, with his sonnes and his brethren, eighteen.

19 And Hashabiah, and with him Jeshalah of the sonnes of Setherai, his brethren and their sonnes, twenty.

He chap. 1.

20 Also of the Sathinims, whom Dabid and the princes had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Sathinims: all of them were expressed by name.

21 And when I proclaimed a fast there, at the river Ababa, that we might afflict our selves before our God, to seek of him a right way for us, and for our little ones: and for all our substance.

22 For I was ashamed to require of the king a band of bowmen and horsemen, to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the king, saying, The hand of our God is upon all them for good that seek him, but his power and his wrath is against all them that forsake him.

23 So we fasted and besought our God for this, and he was intreated of us.

24 And when I separated twelve of the chief of the priests, Sberediah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them,

25 And weighed unto them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering of the house of our God, which the king, and his counsellors, and his lords, and all Israel there present, had offered.

26 I even weighed unto their hand, six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels an hundred talents, and of gold an hundred talents:

27 Also twenty balons of gold, of a thousand dunnies, and two vessels of fine copper † precious as gold.

† Heb. yellow,

† Heb. desira-

28 And I said unto them, Ye are holy unto the Lord, the vessels are holy also, and the silver and the gold are a free-will-offering unto the Lord, our God of your fathers.

29 Watch ye, and keep them, until ye weigh them before the chief of the priests, and the Levites, and chief of the fathers of Israel at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of the Lord.

30 So took the priests and the Levites, the weight of the silver and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem unto the house of our God.

31 And when we departed from the river of Ababa, on the thirteenth day of the first month, to go unto Jerusalem: and the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy, and of such as lay in wait by the way.

32 And we came to Jerusalem, and abode there threetyre dayes.

33 And now on the fourth day was the silver and the gold, and the vessels weighed in the house of our God, by the hand of Sberediah the sonne of Uthai the priest, and with him was Eleazar the sonne of Binnias, and with them was Jozabad the sonne of Jesua, and Azobad the sonne of Binnui, Levites.

34 By number and by weight of every one: and all the weight was written at that time.

35 Also the children of those that had been carried away which were come out of the captivity, offered burnt-offerings unto the God of Israel, twelve bullocks for all Israel, ninety and six rammes, seventy and seven lambs, twelve he-goats for a sinne-offering: all this was a burnt-offering unto the Lord, our God.

36 And they delivered the kings commissions unto the kings lieutenants, and to the governors on this side the river, and they furthered the people, and the house of God.

CHAP. IX.

1 Ezra mourneth for the affinity of the people with strangers. 5 He prayeth unto God with confession of sinnes.

Now when these things were done, the princes came to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites have not separated themselves from the people of the lands, doing according to their abominations, even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.

2 For they have taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sonnes, so that the holy seed have mingled themselves with the people of those lands: yea, the hand of the princes and rulers hath been chief in this trespass.

3 And when I heard this thing, I rent my garment and my mantle, and pluckt off the hair of my head, and of my beard, and sat down astonished.

4 Then were assembled unto me every one that trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of those that had been carried away, and I sat astonished until the evening sacrifice.

5 And at the evening sacrifice, I arose up from my braintree, having rent my garment, and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and spread out my hands unto the Lord, our God.

for affliction.

6 And said, O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our trespass is grown up unto the heavens.

Or, guiltiness

7 Since the dayes of our fathers, have we been in a great trespass unto this day, and for our iniquities have we our kings, and our priests been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to a spoil, and to confusion of face, as it is this day.

8 And now for a little space grace hath been shewed from the Lord, our God, so leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage.

9 For we were bondmen, yet our God hath not not broken as in our bondage, but hath extended mercy unto us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a command to set up the house of our God, and to repair the dedications thereof, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.

† Heb. 10 let us.
 10 And now O our God, what shall we say after this? for we have broken the commandments:

† Heb. by the hand of thy servants.
 11 Which thou hast commanded: by the servants the prophets, saying, The land unto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land with the iniquities of the people of the lands, with their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another, with their uncleanness.

† Heb. from mouth to mouth.
 12 Show therefore give not your daughters unto their sons: neither take their daughters unto your sons, nor seek their peace, or their wealth for ever: that ye may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children for ever.

† Heb. hast withheld beneath our iniquities.
 13 And after all that is come upon us, for our evil deeds, and for our great trespass, seeing that thou our God hast punished us lest then our iniquities deserve, and hast given us such deliverance as this:

14 Should we again break thy commandments, and join in affinity with the people of these abominations? wouldst not thou be angry with us till thou hast consumed us, so that there should be no remnant nor escaping?

15 O LORD God of Israel, thou art righteous, for we remain yet escaped, as it is this day: notwithstanding, we are before thee in our trespasses: for we cannot stand before thee, because of this.

CHAPTER.

1 Shebaniab, encourageth Ezra to reform the strange marriages. 6 Ezra mourning, assembles the people. 9 The people at the exhortation of Ezra, repent and promise amendment. 18 The people perform it. 19 The names of them which have married strange wives.

¶ When Ezra had prayed, and when he had concluded, weeping and casting himself down before the house of God, there assembled unto him out of Israel a very great congregation of men, and women, and children: for the people were very sore.

† Heb. wept a great weeping.
 2 And Shebaniab the sonne of Jehiel, one of the scribes of the law, answered and said unto Ezra, We have trespassed against our God, and have taken strange wives, of the people of the land: yet now there is hope in Israel concerning this thing.

3 Show therefore let us make a covenant with our God, to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of thy law, and of those that resemble of the commandment of our God, and let it be done according to the law.

† Heb. to bring forth.
 4 Arise, for this matter belongeth unto thee, we also will be with thee: be of good courage, and do it.

5 Then arose Ezra, and made the chief priests, the Levites, and all Israel to swear, that they should do according to this word: and they swore.

6 ¶ When Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Jothan: the sonne of Chisai, and when he came thither, he was not able to see, nor have power: for he was troubled because of the transgression of them that had been carried away.

7 And they made proclamation throughout

Judah and Jerusalem, unto all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together unto Jerusalem;

8 And that whosoever would not come within three dayes according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be forfeited, and himself separated from the congregation of those that had been carried away.

9 ¶ Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin, gathered themselves together unto Jerusalem, within three dayes: it was the ninth moneth, and the twentieth day of the moneth, and all the people sat in the street of the house of God, trembling because of this matter, and for the great rain.

10 And Ezra the priest stood up, and said unto them, We have transgressed, and have taken strange wives to increase the trespass of Israel.

11 Now therefore make confession unto the LORD God of your fathers, and make confession, and separate your selves from the people of the land, and from the strange wives.

12 Then all the congregation answered, and said with a loud voice, As thou hast said, so must we do:

13 But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand without, neither is this a work of one day or two: for we are many that have transgressed in this thing.

14 Let now our rulers of all the congregation stand, and let all them which have taken strange wives in our cities, come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and the judges thereof, until the thirteenth day of our God: for this matter be turned from us.

15 ¶ Early Jonathan the sonne of Abiel, and Jaddan the sonne of Jachan, two employed about this matter: and Shebaniab, and Shebubai, for the cause helped them.

16 And the children of the captivity did so: and Ezra the priest, with certain chief of the fathers, after the house of their fathers, and after them by their names were separated, and set down in the first day of the tenth moneth to examine the matter.

17 And they made an end with all the men that had taken strange wives, by the first day of the first moneth.

18 ¶ And among the sonnes of the priests, there were found that had taken strange wives: namely, of the sonnes of Jeshua the sonne of Jozabad, and his brethren: Phanias, and Eliezer, and Jaria, and Gedaliah.

19 And they gave their hands: that they would put away their wives: and being guilty, they offered a ramme of the flock for their trespass.

20 And of the sonnes of Joazar, Manai, and Zebadiah.

21 And of the sonnes of Binnai: Phanias, and Eliezer, and Shumai, and Jehiel, and Azbaid.

THE BOOK OF NEHEMIAH.

CHAP. I.

1 Nehemiah understanding by Morani the misery of Jerusalem, fasteth and prayeth, & his prayer.

THE words of Nehemiah the sonne of Hachabiah. And it came to passe in the moneth Chislev, in the twentieth yeare, as I was in Babylon the palace,

2 That I came out of my chamber, and certain men of Judah, and I asked them concerning the Jews that had escaped, which were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.

3 And they said unto me, The remnant that are left of the captivity there in the palace, are in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jerusalem also is broken down, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire.

4 And it came to passe when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain daies, and fasted, and prayed before the God of heaven.

5 And said, I beseech thee, O Lord God of heaven, the great and terrible God, that keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love him, and observe his commandments:

6 Let thine eyes be open, and thine ears open, that thou mayest heare the prayer of thy servants, which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants, and consider the sinnes of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee: both I, and my fathers house have sinned.

7 We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments nor the statutes nor the judgements, which thou commandedst thy servants Moses.

8 Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, If ye transgresse, I will scatter you abroad among the nations.

9 But if ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, & do them, though there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that I have chosen to let my name there.

10 Now these are the servants, and the people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy strong hand.

II Now, I beseech thee, let mine ears be attentive to the prayer of the servants, who desire to hear thy name: and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. For I was the kings cup bearer.

CHAP. II.

1 Arsanerus, understanding the case of Nehemiah, sendeth him with letters and commission to Jerusalem. 2 Nehemiah, at the request of the elders, cometh to Jerusalem. 3 He vieweth secretly the ruins of the walls. 4 He inviteth the Jews to build in despite of the enemies.

AND it came to passe in the moneth Nisan, in the twentieth yeare of Artaxerxes the king, that mine was before him: and I took up the wine, and gave it unto the king: then I had not been before time said in his palace.

2 And therefore the king said unto me, What is the cause that thou art not here? thou art nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid.

3 And said unto the king, Let the king say for ever: why should not my countenance be sad, when I see the place of my fathers sepulchres lieth waste, and the gates thereof are consumed with fire?

4 Then the king said unto me, For what dost thou make request? So I prayed to the God of heaven.

5 And I said unto the king, If it please the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, that thou wouldest send me unto Judah unto the cite of my fathers sepulchres, that I may build it.

6 And the king said unto me, (thou queen also sitting by him) For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou return? So it pleased the king to send me, and give him a time.

7 Moreover, I said unto the king, If it please the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the river, that they may convey me over till I come into Judah.

8 And a letter unto Asaph the keeper of the kings forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace, which appertaineth to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into: and the king granted me, according to the good hand of my God upon me.

File with.

9 ¶ When I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the kings letters: (now the king had sent captains of the army, and horsemen with me)

10 Then Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man to seek the welfare of the children of Israel.

11 So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days.

12 ¶ And I rode in the night, I and some few men with me, neither told I any man what God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem: neither was there any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon.

13 And I went out by night, by the gate of the valley, even before the dragon-well, and to the dung-pot, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were broken down, and the gates thereof were consumed with fire.

14 Then I went on to the gate of the fountain, and to the kings pool: but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass.

15 Then went I up in the night by the brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entered by the gate of the valley, and so returned.

16 And the rulers knew not whither I went, or what I did, neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest that did the work.

17 ¶ Then said I unto them, Ye see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lieth waste, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire: come and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach.

18 Then I told them of the hand of my God which was good upon me, as also the kings words that he had spoken unto me. And they said, Let us rise up and build. So they strengthened their hands for this good work.

19 But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian heard it, they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, What is this thing that ye do? will ye rebel against the king?

20 ¶ Then answered I them, and said unto them, The God of heaven, he will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build: but you have no portion, nor right, nor memorial in Jerusalem.

CHAP. III.

1 The names and order of them that builded the wall.

¶ Then Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brethren the priests, and they built the sheep-gate, they sanctified it, and set up the doores of it; even unto the corner of Shear they sanctified it, unto the tower of Hannanel.

2 And I next unto him builded the men of Jericho: and next to them builded Jaccur the sonne of Imai.

3 But the fish-gate did the sonnes of Hassenaiah build, who also laid the beams thereof, and set up the doores thereof, the locks thereof, and the barres thereof.

4 And next unto them repaired Serimoth the sonne of Uriah, the sonne of Roy: and next unto them repaired Meshullam the sonne of Berechiah, the sonne of Meshazabel: and next unto them repaired Jaddok the sonne of Banaa.

5 And next unto them the Levites repaired: but their nobles put not their necks to the work of their Lord.

6 Moreover, the old gate repaired Jehoiada the sonne of Balaiah, and Meshullam the sonne of Belshaiab, they laid the beams thereof, and set up the doores thereof, and the locks thereof, and the barres thereof.

7 And next unto them repaired Melariah the Sidonite, and I addon the Peromothite, the men of Gibon, and of Mizpad, unto the thorne of the governor on this side the river.

8 ¶ Next unto him repaired Azbail the sonne of Barhiah, of the goldsmiths: next unto him also repaired Hananiah, the sonne of one of the apothecaries, and they fortified Jerusalem unto the broad wall.

9 And next unto them repaired Rephaiah the sonne of Hur, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem.

10 And next unto them repaired Iedaiab the sonne of Harumaph, even over against his house: and next unto him repaired Hattai the sonne of Bashaiah.

11 Balchiah the sonne of Harim, and Beshub the sonne of Zabab-moab, repaired the other piece, and the tower of the furnaces.

12 And next unto him repaired Shalum the sonne of Hillothai, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem, he and his daughters.

13 The valley-gate repaired Hanun, and the inhabitants of Zanoah; they built it, and set up the doores thereof, the locks thereof, and the barres thereof, and a thousand cubits on the wall unto the dung-gate.

14 But the dung-gate repaired Balchiah the sonne of Rechab, the ruler of part of Beth-bacerem: he built it, and set up the doores thereof, the locks thereof, and the barres thereof.

15 But the gate of the fountain repaired Shalum the sonne of Col-hozai, the ruler of part of Mizpad: he built it, and covered it, and set up the doores thereof, the locks thereof, and the barres thereof, and the wall of the pool of Solomon by the kings garden, and unto the stairs that go down from the city of David.

16 After him repaired Meshaiab the sonne of Azbub the ruler of the half part of Beth-zur, unto the place over against the sepulchres of David, and to the pool that was made, and unto the house of the mighty.

17 After him repaired the Levites, Rehun the sonne of Bani: next unto him repaired Bashaiah the ruler of the half part of Keilah in his part.

18 After him repaired their brethren, Banaiah the sonne of Henadab, the ruler of the half part of Keilah.

19 And next to him repaired Ezer the sonne of Ithum, the ruler of Mizpad, another piece over against the going up to the armory at the turning of the wall.

20 After him Baruch the sonne of Zabab, earnestly repaired the other piece, from the turning of the wall unto the doore of the house of Eliashib the high priest.

21 After him repaired Serimoth the sonne of Uriah, the sonne of Roy, another piece, from the doore of the house of Eliashib, even to the end of the house of Eliashib.

22 And after him repaired the priests, the men of the plain.

23 After him repaired Benjamin, and Bashaiah over against their house: after him repaired Azariah the sonne of Bashaiah, the sonne of Ananiah by his house.

24 After him repaired Binnai the sonne of Henadab, another piece from the house of Azariah, unto the turning of the wall, even unto the corner.

turning of the wall, and the tower which lieth out from the kings high house, that was by the tower of the prison: after him, Benaiab the sonne of Jerobab.

26 Afterward, the Merhians dwelt in 10th place, unto the place over against the water-gate towards the east, and the tower that lieth out, 27 After them the Tekoites repaired another piece, over against the great tower that lieth out, even unto the wall of Daphel.

28 From above the hole-gate repaired the priests, every one over against his house.

29 After them repaired Zadok the sonne of Immer, over against his house: after him repaired also Schemaiab, the sonne of Schemanab, the keeper of the east-gate.

30 After him repaired Bananiab the sonne of Schemanab, and Oumun the scribe sonne of Zallaph, another piece: after him repaired Beshaiam the sonne of Beresaiab, over against his chamber.

31 After him repaired Balchab, the goldsmiths sonne, unto the place of the Merhians, and of the merchants, over against the gate Diphad, and to the 11 going up of the corner.

32 And between the going up of the corner unto the sheep-gate, repaired the goldsmiths and the merchants.

CHAP. II. III.

1 While the enemies scoff, Nehemiah prayeth and continueth the work. 2 Undertaking the wrath and secret of the enemy, he sendeth a watch. 3 He armeth the labourers, 19 and giveth military precepts.

But it came to pass, that when Sanballat heard that we builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked the Jews.

2 And he spake before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, What do these feeble Jews will they? for will they themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day? will they revile the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish, which are burnt?

3 Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, it a forgo up, he shall even break down their stone wall.

4 Heare, O our God, for we are despised: and turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity:

5 And cover not their iniquities, & let not their sinne be blotted out from before thee: for they have provoked thee to anger before the builders.

6 So built we the wall, and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof: for the people had a minde to work.

7 But it came to pass that when Sanballat and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem were made up, and that the branches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth.

8 And conspired all of them together, to come and to fight against Jerusalem, and to hinder us from making it.

9 Nevertheless, we made our prayer unto our God, and let a watch against them day & night, because of them.

10 And Judah said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish, so that we are not able to build the wall.

11 And our adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, till we come into the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease.

12 And it came to pass that when the Jews heard these things, they came, they stood up, and they said, We will not be afraid of them: for we shall rest upon the Lord our God, and we shall not be afraid of them.

13 Therefore let 3rd in the tower places be must return to us, let the people after their families with their wives, their spears, and their bows.

14 And 3rd looked, and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be not ye afraid of them: remember the Lord which is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sonnes and your daughters, your wives and your houses.

15 And it came to pass when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, and God had brought their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work.

16 And it came to pass that time forth, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah.

17 They which builded on the wall, and they that bare burdens, with those that labored, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon.

18 For the builders, every one had his sword girded by his side, and so builded: and he that sounded the trumpet was by me.

19 And I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one farre from another.

20 In what place therefore ye heare the sound of the trumpet, except ye thither unto us: our God shall fight for us.

21 So we laboured in the work, and half of them held the spears, from the rising of the morning, till the sunnes appeared.

22 Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labour on the day.

23 So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed us, none of us put off our clothes, saving that we washed every one with his feet for washing.

CHAP. VI.

1 The Jews complain of their debt, mortgage, and bondage. 6 Nehemiah rebuketh the rulers, and causeth them to make a covenant of restitution. 14 He forbiddeth his own allowance, and keepeth hospitality.

And there was a great cry of the people, and of their wives, against their brethren the Jews.

2 For there were that said, We, our sonnes, and our daughters are many: therefore we take up coin for them, that we may eat, and live.

3 Some also there were that said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy coin, because of the dearth.

4 There were also that said, We have borrowed money for the kings tribute, and that upon our lands and vineyards.

5 Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and lo, we bring into bondage our sonnes and our daughters, to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought unto bondage already, neither is it in our power to redeem them: for other men have our lands and vineyards.

6 And they

¶ And I was very angry when I heard that cry, and that word.

¶ Then I consulted with my brethren, and I rebuked the nobles, and the elders, and said unto them, Don't exact usury, every one of his brother. And I did a great assembly against them.

¶ And I said unto them, Well, after our ability, have I redeemed our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the heathen; and will you even sell your brethren? or shall they be sold unto us? Then held they their peace, and found nothing to answer.

¶ Also I said, It is not good that ye do ought ye not to walk in the fear of our God, because of the reproach of the heathen our enemies?

¶ I likewise, and my brethren, and my servants, might exact of them money & corn: I pray you let us leave off this usury.

¶ Besides, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their olive yards, and their houses, and the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oyl, that ye exact of them.

¶ Then said they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, and took an oath of them, that they should do according to this promise.

¶ Also I spake my lap, and said, So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labour, that performeth not this promise, even thus he be shaken out, and tempted. And all the congregation said, Amen, and praised the Lord. And the people did according to this promise.

¶ Moreover, from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the thirtieth yeare, even unto the two and thirtieth yeare of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve yeares, I and my brethren have not eaten the bread of the governor.

¶ But the former governors that had been before me, were chargeable unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, besides sundry shekels of silver; yea even their servants have rule over the people: but so did not I, because of the fear of God.

¶ Now, also I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any lands: and all my servants were gathered thither unto the work.

¶ Moreover, there were at my table an hundred and fifty of the Jews & rulers, besides those that came unto us from among the heathen that are about us.

¶ Now that which was prepared for me daily, was one ox, and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me; and once in ten dayes, store of all sorts of beastes: yet for all this required not I the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people.

¶ ¶ Think upon me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

CHAP. VI.

¶ Sanballat praefesseth by craft, by rumours, by hired prophets, to terrifie Nehemiah. ¶ The work is finished to the terrours of the enemies. ¶ Secret intelligence passeth between the enemies and the nobles of Judah.

¶ Now it came to passe, when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies heard that I had builded the wall, and that there was no breach left therein; (though at that time I had not set up the doors upon the gates)

¶ That Sanballat sent messengers unto me, saying, Come, let us meet together in some one of the villages in the plain of Ono: but they thought to do me mischief.

¶ And I sent messengers unto them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the work cease, whilst I leave it and come down to you?

¶ Yet they sent unto me foure times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner.

¶ Then sent Sanballat his servant unto me, in like manner, the fifth time, with an open letter in his hand:

¶ And herein was written, It is reported among the heathen, and among the Jews, that thou and the Jews think to rebel: for which cause thou buildest the wall, that thou mayest be their king, according to these words.

¶ And thou hast also appointed prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah: and now shall it be reported to the king, according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together.

¶ Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest. But thou seignest them out of thine own heart.

¶ For they all made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work that it be not done. Now therefore, O God, strengthen my hands.

¶ Afterward I came unto the house of Shebaniel, who was the son of Delaiah, the son of Shebaniel, who was the son of the king, and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee, yea in the night will they come to slay thee.

¶ And I said, Show me such a man as I fear, and who is there, that being as I am, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not do so.

¶ And so, I perceived that God had not sent him, but that he pronounced this prophesie against me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.

¶ Therefore was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and flatter, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me.

¶ My God, think thou upon Tobiah and Sanballat, according to these their works, and on the prophesie of Haggai, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear.

¶ ¶ So the wall was finished, in the twenty and sixth day of the moneth Chis, in fifty and two dayes.

¶ And it came to passe that when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen that were about us saw these things, they were much cast down in their own eyes: for they perceived that this work was wrought of our God.

¶ ¶ Moreover, in those dayes the nobles of Judah sent many letters unto Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came unto them.

¶ For there were many in Judah sworn unto him, because he was the sonne in law of Shebaniel the sonne of Arah; and his sonne Johanan had taken the daughter of Shebaniam, the sonne of Berechiah.

¶ And they reported his good deeds before me, and uttered my names to him: and Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

CHA P. VII.

1 Nehemiah committeth the charge of Jerusalem to Hanani and Hananiah, 5 A register of the genealogie of them which came at the first out of Babylon, 9 of the people, 39 of the priests, 47 of the Levites, 46 of the Nethinims, 57 of Solomon's servants, and of the priests which could not finde their pedigree, 66 The whole number of them with their substance, 70 Their oblations.

NOW it came to passe when the wall was built, and I had set up the doors, and the porters and the singers, and the Levites were appointed.

2 That I gave my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the ruler of the palace, charge over Jerusalem (for he was a faithful man, and feared God above these.)

3 And I said unto them, Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened, until the sunne be hot; and while they stand by, let them shut the doors, and barre them; and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, every one in his watch, and every one to be over against his house.

4 For the city was I large and great, but the people were few therein, and the houses were not builded.

5 And my God put into mine heart, to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogie: and I found a register of the genealogie of them which came up at the first, and found written therein.

6 * These are the children of the province, that went up out of the captivity, of those that had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away, and came again to Jerusalem, and so Judah, every one unto his city:

servants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and they had two hundred forty and five singing men and singing women.

68 Their horses, seven hundred thirty and six:
their mules, two hundred forty and five:

69 Their camels, four hundred thirty and five:
six thousand seven hundred and twenty asses.

1 Heb, part.

70 ¶ And some of the chief of the fathers gave unto the work: the Tirshatha gave to the treasure, a thousand diammes of gold, fifty ba-lons, five hundred and thirty priests garments.

71 And some of the chief of the fathers gave to the treasure of the work, twenty thousand diammes of gold, and two thousand and two hundred pound of silver.

72 And that which the rest of the people gave, was twenty thousand diammes of gold, and two thousand pound of silver, and threetye and seven priests garments.

73 So the priests, and the Levites, and the porters, and the singers, and some of the people, and the Levitims, and all Israel, dwelt in their cities: and when the seventh moneth came, the children of Israel were in their cities.

CHAP. VIII.

1 The religious manner of reading and hearing the law. 9 They comfort the people. 13 The for-wardnesse of them to heare, and be instructed.
16 They keep the feast of tabernacles.

* Ezra 3, 1.

* Ezra 7, 6.

¶ And all the people gathered themselves together as one man, into the street that was before the water-gate, and they spake unto Ezra the scribe, to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the Lord had commanded to Israel.

1 Heb, that understood in hearing.

2 And Ezra the priest brought the law before the congregation, both of men and women, and all that could heare with understanding, upon the first day of the seventh moneth.

3 And he read therein before the street that was before the water-gate, from the morning till unto mid-day, before the men and the women, and those that could understand, and the ears of all the people were attentive unto the book of the law.

4 And Ezra the scribe stood upon a pulpit ^{1 Heb, tower} of wood, which they had made for the purpose and of wood, beside him stood Sherebiah, and Shebaniab, and Anafab, and Gijah, and Bilhiab, and Anafel-ah, on his right hand; and on his left hand Be-daiah, and Githaiel, and Balchiah, and Hasum, and Iashbabama, Zechariah, and Gedulliam.

5 And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, (for he was above all the people) and when he opened it, all the people stood up: ^{1 Heb, eye.}

6 And Ezra blessed the Lord, the great God: and all the people answered, Amen, Amen, with lifting up their hands: and their heads they bowed, and worshipped the Lord with their faces to the ground.

7 Also Jehua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Ba-min, Akub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Amaleiah, Belshai, Azariah, Jozabab, Hanan, Sheleah, and the Levites caused the people to understand the law: and the people stood in their places.

8 So they read in the book, in the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and caused them to understand the reading.

9 ¶ And Nehemiah, which is the Tirshatha, <sup>1 Or, the governour.</sup> and Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Levites that taught the people, said unto all the people,
This day is holy unto the Lord: neither be ye sorry, nor weep: for all the people wept when they heard the words of the law.

10 Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our Lord: neither be ye sorry, for the joy of the Lord is your strength.

11 So the Levites killed all the people, saying, Wold your peace, for the day is holy, neither be ye grieved.

12 And all the people went their way to eat and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood the words that were declared unto them.

13 ¶ And on the second day were gathered together the chief of the fathers of all the people, the priests and the Levites, unto Ezra the scribe, even to understand the words of the law. <sup>1 Or, that they might instruct in the words of the law.</sup>

14 And they found written in the law which the Lord had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in booths, in the feast of the seventh moneth:

15 And that they should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth unto the mount, and fetch olive-branches, and pine-branches, and myrtle-branches, and palm-branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written.

16 ¶ So the people went forth, and brought them, and made themselves booths, every one upon the roof of his house; and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the street of the water-gate, and in the street of the gate of Ephraim.

17 And all the congregation of them that were come again out of the captivity made booths, and sat under the booths: for since the dayes of Jeshua the sonne of Nun, unto that day, had not the children of Israel done so: and there was very great gladnesse.

18 Also day by day, from the first day unto the last day, he read in the book of the law of God:

and they kept the feast seven dayes, and on the eighth day was a solemn assembly, according unto the manner.

CHAP. IX.

1 A solemn fast, and repentance of the people,
4 The Levites make a religious confession of Gods goodness, and their wickednesse.

NOW in the twentieth and fourth day of this month, the children of Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackclothes, and earth upon them.

2 And the lead of Israel separated themselves from all strangers, and stood and confessed their sinnes, and the iniquities of their fathers.

3 And they stood up in their place, and read in the book of the law of the Lord as to their God, one fourth part of the day, and another fourth part they confessed, and worshipped the Lord as to their God.

4 Then stood up upon the stairs of the Levites, Jehuza and Bani, Kadmiel, Sherebaniab, Bunni, Sherebaniab, Bani, and Chenani, and cried with a loud voice unto the Lord as to their God.

5 Then the Levites, Jehuza and Kadmiel, Bani, Sherebaniab, Sherebaniab, Hodiah, Sherebaniab, and Sherebaniab, said, Stand up and bless the Lord as to your God for ever and ever; and blessed be thy glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise.

6 Thou, even thou art Lord alone, thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens with all that is therein, the earth and all things that are therein, the seas and all that is therein, and thou preservest them all, and the host of heaven worshippeth thee.

7 Thou art the Lord as to the God, who didst choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name of Abraham.

8 And foundest his heart faithful before thee, and madest a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Gergasites, to give it, I say, to his seed, and hast performed thy words, for thou art righteous.

9 And didst see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardest their cry by the sea: for 10 And shewedst signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knewest that they dealt proudly against thee: so didst thou get thee a name, as it is this day.

11 And thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea, on the dry land, and their persecutors thou threwest into the deeps, as a stone into the mighty waters.

12 Moreover, thou leddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar; and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go.

13 Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them right judgements, and true laws, good statutes and commandments:

14 And madest known unto them thy holy Sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant.

15 And gavest them bread from heaven, for their hunger, and broughtest forth water for them out of the rock, for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should go in to possess the land, which thou hadst sworn to give them.

16 But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their necks, and hardened not to thy commandments, 17 And refused to obey, neither were mindful of the wonders that thou didst among them: but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage: but thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forgoest them not.

18 Yea, when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is the God that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations:

19 Yet thou in thy manifold mercies forgoest them not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way, neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go.

20 Thou gavest also thy good Spirit, to instruct them, and withheldest not thy manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst.

21 Yea, forty yeares didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing: their clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not.

22 Moreover, thou gavest them kingdoms, and nations, and didst divide them into corners: so they possessed the land of the Amorites, the king of the Amorites, and the land of the Amorites, and the land of the Amorites, and the land of the Amorites.

23 Their children also multiplied thou as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it.

24 So the children went in and possessed the land, and thou subdest before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them as they would.

25 And they took strong cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all goods, wells digged, vineyards and olive-yards, and fruit-trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in the great goodness.

26 Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast the law behind their backs, and slew thy prophets which testified against them to turn them to thee, and they wrought great provocations:

27 Therefore thou deliveredst them into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and according to thy manifold mercies, thou gavest them saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies.

28 But after they had rest, they did evil again before thee: therefore lettest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned and cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven, and many times didst thou deliver them, according to thy mercies:

29 And testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they dealt proudly, and hardened not unto thy commandments, but turned against thy judgements (which if a man do, he shall live in them), and despised thy word, and hardened their neck, and would not hear.

 and thou hast not against them by the spirit in the prophets: yet would they not give ear: therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the people of the land.
 31. For everlastingly, for thy great mercies sake, thou wilt not utterly consume them, nor forsake them: for thou art a gracious and merciful God.
 32. Show therefore our God, the great, the mighty, and the terrible God, who keepeth covenant and mercy, let not all the world learn little before thee, that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all the people, since the time of the kings of Assyria unto this day.
 33. Remember, thou art just in all that thou hast done upon us: for thou hast done right, but we have done wickedly.
 34. Neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers kept the law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments, and thy testimonies which thou hast testified against them.
 35. For they have not served thee in their kingdom, and in thy great goodness that thou gavest them, and in the large and fat land which thou gavest before them, neither turned they from their wicked works.
 36. Behold, we are servants this day, and for the land that thou gavest unto our fathers, to eat the fruit thereof, and the good thereof, behold, we are servants in it.
 37. And it yieldeth much increase unto the kings upon whom thou hast set over us, because of our sin-nes: and they have dominion over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress.
 38. And because of all this, we make a sure covenant, and write it, and our princes, Levites, and priests, set unto it.

 28. And the rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the porters, the singers, the scrib-bings, and all they that had separated themselves from the people of the land, unto the law of God, their wives, their sonnes, and their daughters, every one having knowledge, and having understanding:
 29. They came to their brethren, their nobles, and entered into a curse, and into an oath to walk in Gods law, which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the Lord our Lord, and his judgments and his statutes:
 30. And that we would not give our daughters unto the people of the land, nor take their daughters for our sonnes:
 31. And if the people of the land bring to us any business on the sabbath-day, to sell, that we would not buy it of them on the sabbath, on the holy day: and that we would leave the sabbath day, and the separation of every one.
 32. And we made ordinances for us, to charge our selves yearly, with the sixth part of a shekel, for the service of the house of our God.
 33. For the sheaf, bread, and for the continual meat-offering, and for the continual burnt-offering, of the sabbaths, of the new moons, for the sabbaths, and for the holy things, and for the first-offerings, to make an atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the house of our God.
 34. And we call the lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people, for the wood-offering, to bring it into the house of our God, after the houses of our fathers, at times appointed, year by year, to burn upon the altar of the Lord our God, as it is written in the law:
 35. And to bring the first-fruits of our ground, and the first-fruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, unto the house of the Lord our God:
 36. And the first-born of our sonnes, and of our cattle (as it is written in the law) and the first-lings of our herds, and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our God, unto the priests that minister in the house of our God:
 37. And that we should bring the first-fruits of our dough, and our offerings, and the fruit of all manner of trees, of wine, and of oyl, unto the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God, and the tithes of our ground unto the Levites, that the same Levites might have the tithes, in all the cities of our village.
 38. And the sixth part of the tithes, shall be to the Levites, when the Levites take tithes:
 and the Levites shall bring up the tithes of the tithes unto the house of our God, to the chambers into the treasure-house.
 39. For the children of Israel, and the children of Levi, shall bring the offering of the corn, of the new wine, and the oyl, unto the chambers, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests that minister, and the porters, and the singers, and we will not forsake the house of our God.

CHAP. XI.

1. The rulers, voluntary men, and the tenth man cities.

AND the rulers of the people dwell at Jerusalem: the rest of the people also call lots, to bring being one of ten, to dwell in Jerusalem the holy city, and none parts do dwell in other cities.

2 And the people blessed all the men, that humbly offered themselves to dwell in Jerusalem.

3 ¶ Now these are the chief of the province that dwell in Jerusalem: but in the times of Judah dwelt every man in his possession in their cities, to wit, Aziel, the priests, and the Levites, and the Sacerdotes, and the children of Solomon's servants.

4 And in Jerusalem dwelt certain of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin: Of the children of Judah, Jehoiab the sonne of Azbub, the sonne of Jerahmeel, the sonne of Amasai, the sonne of Azbub, the sonne of Azbub, the sonne of Azbub, the sonne of Azbub.

5 And Benjamin the sonne of Bauch, the sonne of Aziel, the sonne of Aziel, the sonne of Aziel, the sonne of Aziel, the sonne of Aziel.

6 All the houses of David that dwelt at Jerusalem, were four hundred threescore and eight in number.

7 And these are the houses of Benjamin, Gai the sonne of Gai, the sonne of Gai, the sonne of Gai, the sonne of Gai, the sonne of Gai.

8 And after him Gai, Gai, nine hundred twenty and eight.

9 And Joel the sonne of Zichri was their overseer: and Judah the sonne of Genuah, was second over the city.

10 Of the priests: Jehoiab the sonne of Josabab, the sonne of Josabab.

11 Seraiah the sonne of Uziel, the sonne of Seraiah, the sonne of Seraiah, the sonne of Seraiah, the sonne of Seraiah.

12 And their brethren that did the work of the house, were eight hundred twenty and two: and Aziel the sonne of Jerahmeel, the sonne of Jerahmeel, the sonne of Jerahmeel, the sonne of Jerahmeel, the sonne of Jerahmeel.

13 And his brethren chief of the fathers, two hundred twenty and two: and Aziel, the sonne of Aziel, the sonne of Aziel, the sonne of Aziel, the sonne of Aziel.

14 And their brethren mighty men of valour, an hundred twenty and eight: and their overseer was Aziel, the sonne of one of the great men.

15 Also of the Levites: Shemariah the sonne of Shemariah, the sonne of Shemariah, the sonne of Shemariah, the sonne of Shemariah.

16 And Shabbethai, and Jozabab the chief of the Levites, had the oversight of the outward business of the house of God.

17 And Shemariah the sonne of Aziel, the sonne of Aziel, the sonne of Aziel, the sonne of Aziel, the sonne of Aziel.

18 All the Levites in the holy city, were two hundred threescore and four.

19 Sopher, the porter, Aziel, Aziel, Aziel, Aziel, Aziel.

20 ¶ And the residue of Israel, of the priests and the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, every one in his inheritance.

21 But the Sacerdotes dwelt in Ophel: and Aziel, and Aziel, were over the Sacerdotes.

22 The residue also of the Levites at Jerusalem, was Aziel the sonne of Aziel, the sonne of Aziel.

23 For it was the kings commandment concerning them, that a certain portion should be for the singers, such as every man.

24 And Shabbethai the sonne of Aziel, of the children of Judah the sonne of Judah, was at the kings hand in all matters concerning the people.

25 And in the villages, with their wives, some of the children of Judah dwelt at Aziel, and in the villages thereof, and at Aziel, and in the villages thereof.

26 And at Aziel, and at Aziel, and at Aziel, and at Aziel, and at Aziel.

27 And at Aziel, and at Aziel, and at Aziel, and at Aziel, and at Aziel.

28 And at Aziel, and at Aziel, and at Aziel, and at Aziel, and at Aziel.

29 And at Aziel, and at Aziel, and at Aziel, and at Aziel, and at Aziel.

30 And at Aziel, and at Aziel, and at Aziel, and at Aziel, and at Aziel.

31 The children also of Benjamin from Geba, dwelt at Aziel, and Aziel, and Aziel, and in their villages.

32 And at Aziel, Aziel, Aziel, Aziel, Aziel, Aziel, Aziel, Aziel, Aziel, Aziel.

33 And at Aziel, Aziel, Aziel, Aziel, Aziel, Aziel, Aziel, Aziel, Aziel, Aziel.

34 And at Aziel, Aziel, Aziel, Aziel, Aziel, Aziel, Aziel, Aziel, Aziel, Aziel.

35 And at Aziel, Aziel, Aziel, Aziel, Aziel, Aziel, Aziel, Aziel, Aziel, Aziel.

36 And of the Levites, were divisions in Judah, and in Benjamin.

22 ¶ The Levites in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, were recorded chief of the fathers: also the priests, to the reign of Darius the Persian.

23 The names of Levites, the chief of the fathers, were written in the book of the chronicles, even until the days of Johanan the sonne of Eliashib.

24 And the chief of the Levites: Bazzabiah, Sherabiah, and Jeshua the sonne of Kadmiel, with their brethren over against them, to praise, and to give thanks according to the commandment of David the man of God, ward over against ward.

25 Mattaniah, and Bakkubiah, Obadiah, Shephallam, Salmon, Akkub, were porters keeping the ward, at the thresholds of the gates.

26 These were in the days of Josiah the sonne of Jehoiada, the sonne of Josadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the priest, the scribe.

27 ¶ And at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem, they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, both with thanksgiving, and with singing: with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps.

28 And the sonnes of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain country round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of Bethphathi.

29 Also from the house of Gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba, and Azbaber: for the singers had builded them villages round about Jerusalem.

30 And the priests and the Levites purified themselves, and purified the people, and the gates, and the wall.

31 Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies of them that gave thanks, whereof one went on the right hand upon the wall toward the dung-gate:

32 And after them went Hosabiah, and half of the princes of Judah,

33 And Azariah, Ezra, and Shephallam,

34 Judah, and Benjamin, and Schemaiab, and Jeremia,

35 And certain of the priests sonnes with trumpets: namely Zechariah the sonne of Jonathan, the sonne of Schemaiab, the sonne of Mattaniah, the sonne of Bazzabiah, the sonne of Jaccub, the sonne of Azbath:

36 And his brethren, Schemaiab, and Azariah, Ghilai, Ghilai, Ghilai, and Judah, Benani, with the musickall instruments of David the man of God, and Ezra the scribe before them.

37 And at the fountain-gate, which was over against them, they went up by the stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even unto the water-gate eastward.

38 And the other company of them that gave thanks, went over against them, and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall, from beyond the tower of the furnaces, even unto the broad wall:

39 And from above the gate of Ephraim, and above the old gate, and above the fish-gate, and the tower of Hananeel, and the tower of Sheph, even unto the sheep-gate; and they stood still in the prison-gate.

40 So stood the two companies of them that gave thanks in the house of God, and I, and the half of the rulers with me:

41 And the priests, Elakim, Shephaiab, Beniamin, Ghilaiab, Ghilaiab, Zachariah, and Hananiah with trumpets:

42 And Bazzabiah, and Schemaiab, and Elazar, and Azb, and Jehonathan, and Bazzabiah, and Elam, and Ezer, and the singers of sang loud, with Zechariah their overseer.

43 Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced: for God had made them rejoice with great joy: the wives also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even a farre off.

44 ¶ And at that time were some appointed over the chambers for the treasures, for the offerings, for the first-fruits, & for the tithes, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions of the law for the priests and Levites: for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites that that day.

45 And both the singers, and the porters kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his sonne.

46 For in the days of David, and Asaph, of old, there were chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving unto God.

47 And all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers, and the porters, every day his portion, and they sanctified holy things unto the Levites: and the Levites sanctified them unto the children of Aaron.

CHAP. XIII.

1 Upon the reading of the law, separation is made from the mixed multitude. 2 Nehemiah at his return causeth the chambers to be cleaned. 10 He reformeth the officers in the house of God. 19 The violation of the sabbath, 23 and the marriage with strange wives.

¶ On that day they read in the book of Moses in the audience of the people; and therein was found written, that the Ammonite and the Moabite should not come into the congregation of God for ever.

2 Because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balaam against them, that he should curse them: howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing.

3 Now it came to pass when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.

4 ¶ And before this, Eliashib the priest, being the oversight of the chamber of the house of our God, was allied unto Tobiah:

5 And he had prepared for him a great chamber, where aforetime they laid the meat-offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the corn, the new wine, and the oil, which was commanded to be given to the Levites, mandement of the singers, and the porters, and the offerings the Levites of the priests.

6 But in all this time was not I at Jerusalem: for in the two and thirtieth yeare of Artaxerxes king of Babylon, came I unto the king, and I obtained certain dayes: I came of the king.

7 And I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the evil that Eliashib did for Tobiah, in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of God.

8 And it grieved me sore, therefore I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber.

9 Then I commanded, and they cleaned the chambers; and thither brought I again the vessels of the house of God, with the meat offering and the frankincense.

10 ¶ And I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given them: for the Levites and the singers that did the work, were fled every one to his field.

11 Then contended I with the rulers, and said, Why is the house of God forsaken? and I gathered them together, and set them in their place.

12 Then brought all Judah the tithes of the corn, and the new wine, and the oil, unto the treasures.

13 And I made treasurers over the treasures, Nehemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Jehoiada: and I set to them was Hanan the sonne of Zaccur, the sonne of Mattaniah: for they were counted faithful, and I set their office was to distribute unto their brethren.

14 * Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the offices thereof.

15 ¶ In those dayes saw I in Judah, some treading wine-presses on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses, as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath-day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals.

16 There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought fish, and all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem.

17 Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath-day?

18 Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye doing more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath.

19 And it came to passe, that when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the sabbath I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath-day.

20 So the merchants, and sellers of all kind of ware, lodged without Jerusalem once or twice.

21 Then I testified against them, and said unto them, Why lodge ye about the wall? if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the sabbath.

22 And I commanded the Levites, that they should cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath-day. Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to thy great mercy.

23 ¶ In those dayes also saw I Jews that had married wives of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab:

24 And their children spake half in the speech of Ashdod, and I could not speak in the Jews language, but according to the language of each people.

25 And I contended with them, and I cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons, nor take their daughters unto your houses, nor for your selves.

26 Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? yet among many nations was there no king like him, who was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel: nevertheless, even him did outlandish women cause to sin.

27 Shall we then hearken unto you to do all this great evil, to transgress against our God, in marrying strange wives?

28 And one of the sons of Joiada, the sonne of Eliashib the high priest, was found in law to Sanballat the high priest: therefore I chased him from me.

29 Remember them, O my God, for because they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant desikings, of the priesthood, and of the Levites.

30 Thus cleansed I them from all strangers, and appointed the wards of the priests and the Levites, every one in his business.

31 And for the wood-offering, at times appointed, and for the first-fruits. Remember me, O my God, for good.

1 Ahasuerus maketh royal feast. 10 Vashti sent for, &c. for to come. 13 Ahasuerus by the counsel of Menemucan, maketh the decree of men's over-against.

NOW it came to passe in the dayes of Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus which reigned from India even unto Ethiopia, over an hundred and seven and threentie provinces)

2 That in those dayes, when the king Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shushan the palace,

3 In the third year of his reign, he made a feast unto all his princes, and his servants; the powder of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces being before him, 4 When he shewed the riches of his glorious kingdome, and the honour of his excellent majesty, many dayes, even an hundred and fourscore dayes.

5 And when these dayes were expired, the king made a feast unto all the people that were in Shushan the palace, both unto great and small, seven dayes, in the court of the garden of the kings palace;

6 Where were white, green, and blue hangings, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple, to silver rings, and pillars of marble: the

A queen is to be choise.

7 And they gave them robes of gold, (the robes being newe from another) and + royal wear in abundance, + according to the state of the king.

8 And the king was according to the law, and he committeth to the king his daughter to all the pleasures of his house, that they should do according to their mans pleasure.

9 Also Esther the queen made a feast for the women, in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus.

10 On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Memucan, Bithsa, Darions, Trigtha, and Abagtha, Serhas, and Gacras, the seven chamberlains that served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king.

11 To bring Vaithi the queen before the king, with the crown royal, to shew the people and the princes her beauty: for she was + fast to look on.

12 But the queen Vaithi refused to come at the kings commandment: for his chamberlains therefor made the king very wroth, and his anger burned in him.

13 Then the king said to the wise men, which knew the times, (for so was the kings manner) towards all that knew law and judgement.

14 And the next unto him was Carshena, Shethar, Bithsana, Arach, Seres, Dariona, and Memucan, the seven princes of Isrilla, and Media, which saw the kings face, and which sat the first in the kingdom.

15 Then he said he wold to the queen Vaithi, according to law, because she hath not performed the commandment of the king Ahasuerus, by the chamberlains.

16 And Memucan answered before the king and the princes, Vaithi the queen hath not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, unto all the people that are in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus.

17 For this deed of the queen shall come a shadow unto all women, so that they shall despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported. The king Ahasuerus commandeth Vaithi the queen to be brought in before him, but she hath not.

18 Likewise shall the ladies of Persia and Media say this day unto all the kings princes, which have heard of the deed of the queen. Thus shall there arise too much contempe and wrath.

19 If it please the king, let there go a royal commandment + throughout, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, that it be not altered, that Vaithi come no more before king Ahasuerus, and let the king give her copall estate + unto another that is better than she.

20 And when the kings decree which he hath made, shall be published throughout all his kingdom, (for it is great) all the wives shall give to their husbands honour, both to great and small.

21 And the saying + pleased the king and the princes, and the king did according to the word of Memucan.

22 For he that letter into all the kings provinces, into every province according to the kings decree, and to every people after their language, that every man should bear rule in his own house, and + that it should be published according to the language of every people.

† Heb. that one should publish according to the language of his people.

CHAP. II.

1 Out of the choice of virgins, a queen is to be chosen. 2 Mordecai the nursing father of Esther, 3 Esther is preferred by Hegai before the rest. 4 The manner of purification, and going in to the king. 5 Esther best pleasing the king, is made queen. 6 Mordecai discovering a treason, is rewarded in the chambers.

After these things, when the beauty of king Ahasuerus was appeared, he remembered Vaithi, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her.

2 Then said the kings servants, that ministered unto him, Let there be fast young virgins sought for the king.

3 And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women; + unto the custody of + Hegai the kings chamberlain, keeper of the women, and let their things for purification be given them:

4 And let the maiden which pleased the king, be queen in stead of Vaithi. And the young pleased the king, and he wold so.

5 Now in Shushan the palace, there was a certain Jew, whose name was Mordecai, the sonne of Jaish, the sonne of Shimon, the sonne of Kish, a Benjaminite.

6 And he had been carried away from Jerusalem, in the captivity which had been carried away with Xerxes king of Judah, whom Xerxes, the king of Babylon had carried away.

8 So it came to passe, when the kings commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also unto the kings house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women.

9 And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindnesse of him, and he speedily gave her her things for purification, with + such things as belonged to her, and seven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the kings house, and + he preferred her and her maids, unto the best place of the house of the women.

12 Now when every maids time was come, to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrhe, and six months with sweet odours, and with other things for the purifying of the women).

go with her out of the house of the women, unto the king's house.

14 In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shebasai, the king's chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called for name.

15 ¶ Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail, the uncle of Mordecai (who had taken her for his daughter) was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing, but what becal the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women appointed: and Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked upon her.

16 So Esther was taken unto king Abasuerus, into his house royall, in the seventh month (which is the month Tebet) in the seventh year of his reign.

17 And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and favour in his sight, more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen in stead of Vashti.

18 Then the king made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even Esther's feast, and he made a release to the women, and gave gifts, according to the state of the king.

19 And when the virgins were gathered together the second time: then Mordecai sat in the king's gate.

20 Esther had not yet shewed her kindred, nor her people: as Mordecai had charged her. For Esther was the countess of Mordecai, like as when she was brought up with him.

21 ¶ In those dayes (while Mordecai sat in the king's gate) two of the king's chamberlains, Bigthan and Teresh, of those which kept the house, were wroth, and sought to lay hands on the king Abasuerus.

22 And the thing was known to Mordecai, who told it unto Esther the queen, and Esther certified the king thereof, in Mordecai's name.

23 And when inquisition was made of the matter, it was found out: therefore they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in the book of the chronicles before the king.

CHAP. III.

1 Haman advised by the king, and despised by Mordecai, seeketh revenge upon all the Jewes. 2 He causeth loss. 3 He obtaineth by calumniation, a decree of the king to put the Jewes to death.

¶ After these things did king Abasuerus promote Haman the sonne of Ammihadab the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes that were with him.

2 And all the king's servants that were in the king's gate, bowed and reverenced Haman: for the king had so commanded concerning him: but Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence.

3 Then the king's servants, which were in the king's gate, said unto Mordecai, Why transgressed thou the king's commandment?

4 And it came to passe, when they spoke daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai his matters would stand, for he had told them that he was a Jew.

5 And when Haman saw that Mordecai would not bow, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath.

6 And he thought how to lay hands on Mordecai, and he was wroth against him, for he had despised him: for he had said unto all the king's servants that were with him, Bow down to Haman, for he is the king's favourite, even the people of Shushan.

7 ¶ In the first month (that is the month Sivan) in the twelfth year of king Abasuerus, they call this that is the first month, from day to day, and from month to month, to the thirteenth month, that is the month Adar.

8 ¶ And Haman said unto king Abasuerus, There is a certain people scattered abroad, and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of the kingdom, and their laws are different from all people, neither keep they the king's laws: therefore it is not good for the king's people to have them.

9 If it please the king, let it be written that they may be destroyed: and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those that have the charge of the business, to bring it into the king's treasuries.

10 And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the sonne of Ammihadab the Agagite the Jew's enemy.

11 And the king said unto Haman, The silver is given to thee, the people also, to do with them as it seemeth good to thee.

12 Then were the kings scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded unto the king's scribes, and to the governors that were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, in the name of king Abasuerus was it written, and said to with the king's ring.

13 And the letters were sent by posts into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, (which is the month Adar) and to take the spoil of them for a prey.

14 The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province, was published unto all people, that they should be ready against that day.

15 The posts went out, being laden with the king's commandment, and the decree was given in Shushan the palace: and the king and Haman sat down to drink, but the city Shushan was perplexed.

CHAP. III.

1 The great mourning of Mordecai and the Jews. Esther understanding it, sendeth to Mordecai, who sheweth the cause, and advieth her to intercede for the Jews. 2 She excuseth her self, is threatened by Mordecai. 3 She appoints a fast, undertaketh the Jews.

¶ When Mordecai perceived all that was done, Mordecai rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and a bitter cry.

2 And came even before the king's gate, for none might enter into the king's gate clothed with sackcloth.

3 And in every province, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, there there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing, and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

4 ¶ So Esther made, and her chamberlains came and told it her: then was the queen exceedingly grieved, and she sent raiment to cloth Mordecai, and to take away his sackcloth from him: but he received it not.

5 ¶ Then called Esther for Hatach, one of the kings chamberlains, † whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment to Mordecai, to know what it was, and why it was.

6 So Hatach went forth to Mordecai, unto the street of the city, which was before the kings gate.

7 And Mordecai told him of all that had happened unto him, and of the summe of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the kings treasures for the Jews, to destroy them.

8 Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree, that was given at Shushan to destroy them, to shew it unto Esther, and to declare it unto her, and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him for her people.

9 And Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai.

10 ¶ Again Esther spake unto Hatach, and gave him commandment unto Mordecai;

11 All the kings servants and the people of the kings provinces do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one law of his to put him to death, except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden scepter, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king, these thirtie dayes.

12 And they told to Mordecai Esthers words.

13 ¶ Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, Think not to do the sill that thou shalt escape in the kings house, more then all the Jews.

14 For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there † enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place, and who knoweth, whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?

15 ¶ Then Esther had them return Mordecai this answer,

16 ¶ O, gather together all the Jews that are present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink three dayes, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise, and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law, and if I perish, I perish.

17 So Mordecai † went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

CHAP. V.

1 Esther adventuring on the kings favour, obtaineth the grace of the golden scepter, and inviteth the king and Haman to a banquet, 6 She being encouraged by the king in her suit, inviteth them to another banquet the next day, 9 Haman proud of his advancement, repineth at the contempt of Mordecai, 14 By the counsel of Zeresh, he buildeth for him a pair of gallows.

Now it came to passe on the third day, that Esther put on her royall apparell, and stood in the inner court of the kings house, over against the kings house: & the king sat upon his royall throne in the royall house, over against the gate of the house.

2 And it was so when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that he obtained favour in his sight: and the king held out to Esther the golden scepter that was in his hand: so Esther drew neare and touched the top of the scepter.

3 ¶ Then said the king unto her, What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what is thy request? it shall be even given thee, to the half of the kingdom.

4 And Esther answered, If it seem good unto the king, let the king and Haman come this day unto the banquet that I have prepared for him.

5 ¶ Then the king said, Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as Esther hath said: to the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

6 ¶ And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, What is the petition? and what is thy request? and what is thy request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed.

7 ¶ Then answered Esther, and said, My petition, and my request is;

8 If I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do to morrow as the king hath said.

9 ¶ ¶ Then went Haman forth that day joyfull, and with a glad heart: but when Haman saw Mordecai in the kings gate, that he stood not up, nor moved for him, he was full of indignation against Mordecai.

10 Nevertheless, Haman refrained himself, and when he came home, he sent and called for his friends, and Zeresh his wife.

11 And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king.

12 Haman said moreover, Yea, Esther the queen did let no man come in with the king unto the banquet that she had prepared, but myself; and to morrow will I submit unto her also with the king.

13 ¶ Yet all this availeth me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the kings gate.

14 ¶ Then said Zeresh his wife, and all his friends unto him, Let a gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and to morrow speak thou unto the king, that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman, and he caused the gallows to be made.

CHAP. VI.

1 Ahasuerus reading in the chronicles of the good service done by Mordecai, taketh care for his reward, 4 Haman coming to sue that Mordecai might be hanged, unawares giveth counsel that he might do him benevolence, 12 Complaining of his misfortune, his friends tell him of his small doings.

On that night could not the king sleep, and he commanded to bring the book of records of the chronicles; and they were read before the king.

2 And it was found written, that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the kings chamberlains, the keepers of the door, who sought to lay hands on the king Ahasuerus.

3 And the king said, What honour and dignity hath been done to Mordecai for this? Then said the kings servants that ministered unto him, There is nothing done for him.

4 ¶ And the king said, Who is in the court? (now Haman was come into the outward court of the kings house, to speak unto the king, to hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.)

5 And the kings servants said unto him, Behold, Haman standeth in the court. And the king said, Let him come in.

6 So Haman came in: and the king said unto him, What shall be done unto the man? whom the king delighteth to honour? (now Haman thought in his heart, To whom would the king delight to do honour more than to my self?)

7 And Haman answered the king, For the man? whom the king delighteth to honour.

8 ¶ Let the royal apparel be brought, which the king useth to wear, and the boys that the king rideth upon, and the crown royal which is set upon his head:

9 And let this apparel and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the kings most noble princes, that they may array the man which whom the king delighteth to honour, and bring him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaim before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delighteth to honour.

10 Then the king said to Haman, Make haste, and take the apparel, and the horse, as thou hast said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, that sitteth at the kings gate: for nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken.

11 Then took Haman the apparel and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and brought him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour.

12 ¶ And Mordecai came again to the kings gate: but Haman hastened to his house, mourning, and having his head covered.

13 And Haman told Zeresh his wife and all his friends, every thing that had befallen him. Then said his wife men, and Zeresh his wife unto him, If Mordecai be of the seed of the Jews, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not prevail against him, but shalt surely fall before him.

14 And while they were yet talking with him, came the kings chamberlains, and barked to bring Haman unto the banquet that Esther had prepared.

CHAP. VII.

6 Esther entreinaining the king and Haman, maketh suit for her own life and her people. 5 She accuseth Haman. 7 The king in his angry understanding of the gallows, which Haman had made for Mordecai, causeth him to be hanged thereon.

¶ The king and Haman came to banquet with Esther the queen.

2 And the king laid again to Esther, on the second day, at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition, queen Esther? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? and it shall be performed even to the half of the kingdom.

3 Then Esther the queen answered and said, If I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request.

4 For we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish: but if we had been sold for bond-men and bond-women, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not counterball the kings damage.

5 ¶ Then the king Ahasuerus answered and said unto Esther the queen, Who is he? and where is he? that durst presume in his heart to do so?

6 And Esther said, The adversary and enemy, is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen.

7 ¶ And the king arising from the banquet of wine in his wrath, went into the palace-garden; and Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen: for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king.

8 Then the king returned out of the palace-garden, into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman was fallen upon the bed whereon Esther was. Then said the king, Shall he force the queen also? before me in the house? As the word went out of the kings mouth, they covered Hamans face.

9 And Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king, Behold also the gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman had made for Mordecai, who had spoken good for the king, standeth in the house of Haman. Then the king said, Hang him thereon.

10 So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the kings wrath pacified.

CHAP. VIII.

1 Mordecai is advanced. 3 Esther maketh suit to reverse Hamans letter. 7 Ahasuerus granteth to the Jews to defend themselves. 15 Mordecai honours, and the Jews joy.

¶ On that day did the king Ahasuerus give the house of Haman the Jews enemy, unto Esther the queen: and Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told what he was unto her.

2 And the king took off his ring which he had taken from Haman, and gave it unto Mordecai. And Esther let Mordecai over the house of Haman.

3 ¶ And Esther spake yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet; and besought him with tears, to put away the mischief of Haman wept and besought the Agagite, and his device that he had devised sought him, against the Jews.

4 Then the king held out the golden scepter toward Esther. So Esther arose, and stood before the king.

5 And said, If it please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing seem right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes; let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman the son of Hamanbatha the device, Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews, who are in all the kings provinces:

6 For how can I endure to see the end that shall come unto my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?

7 ¶ Then the king Ahasuerus said unto Esther the queen, and to Mordecai the Jew, Behold, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, because he laid his hand upon the Jews.

8 And he wrote also for the Jews, as it lieth you, in the kings name, and seal it with the kings ring: for the writing which is written in the kings name, and sealed with the kings ring, may no man reverse.

9 Then were the kings letters called at that time in the third month: (that is, the month Sivan) on the third and fourteenth day thereof, and it was written (according to all that Mordecai commanded) unto the Jews, and to the lieutenants, and the deputies and rulers of the provinces which are from India unto Ethiopia, an hundred twenty and seven provinces, unto every province according to the writing thereof, and unto every people after their language, and to the Jews, according to their writing, and according to their language.

10 And he wrote in the king Ahasuerus name, and sealed it with the kings ring, and sent letters by posts, on horseback, and riders on mules, camels, and young camels:

11 And therein the king granted the Jews, which were in every city, to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish all the power of the people and province, that would assault them, both little ones, and women, and to take the spoil of them for a prey:

12 Upon one day, in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, namely, upon the thirtieth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar.

13 The copy of the writing, for a commandment to be given in every province, was published unto all people, and that the Jews should be ready against that day, to avenge themselves on their enemies.

14 So the posts that rode upon mules and camels went out, being harnessed, and pressed on by the kings commandment; and the decree was given at Shushan the palace.

15 And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king, in royal apparel of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen, and purple; and the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad:

16 The Jews had light and gladness, and joy and honour.

17 And in every province, and in every city, whithersoever the kings commandment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a good day: and many of the people of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews fell upon them.

CHAP. IX.

1 The Jews (the rulers, for fear of Mordecai, helping them) slay their enemies, with the ten sons of Haman. 12 Ahasuerus at the request of Esther, granteth another day of slaughter, and Hamans sons to be hanged. 20 The two days of Purim are made festival.

NOW in the twelfth month (that is the month Adar) on the thirteenth day of the same, when the kings commandment and his decree were to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them, (though it was turned to the contrary, so that the Jews had rule over them that hated them)

2 The Jews gathered themselves together in their cities, throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hands on their enemies: for their heart was lifted up, and no man could withstand them, for the fear of them fell upon all people.

3 And all the rulers of the provinces, and the lieutenants, and the deputies, and officers of the king, helped the Jews: because the fear of Mordecai fell upon them.

4 For Mordecai was great in the kings house, and his name went out throughout all the provinces: for this man Mordecai was greater and greater.

5 Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did so that they would unto those that hated them.

6 And in Shushan the palace the Jews slew and destroyed five hundred men.

7 And Parthandatha, and Dalphon, and Abatha,

8 And Bonatha, and Abaila, and Arbatha,

9 And Darnatha, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Tarshatha,

10 The ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews, slew they; but on the spoil laid they not their hand.

11 On that day, the number of those that were slain in Shushan the palace, was thought before the king.

12 ¶ And the king said unto Esther the queen, The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman: what have they done in the rest of the kings provinces? now what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: for what is the request further? and it shall be done.

13 Then said Esther, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shushan, to do to improve also according unto this days decree, and let the Hamans ten sons be hanged upon the gallows.

14 And the king commanded it so to be done, and the decree was given at Shushan, and they hanged Hamans ten sons.

15 On the Jews that were in Shushan, gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and slew three hundred men at Shushan; but on the prey they laid not their hand.

16 But the other Jews that were in the kings provinces, gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes seventy and five thousand; but they laid not their hands on the prey.

17 On the thirteenth day of the month Adar, and on the fourteenth day of the same, rested they, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

18 But the Jews that were at Shushan, assembled together on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

19 Therefore the Jews of the villages, that dwell in the unwalled towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar, a day of gladness and feasting, and a good day, and of sending portions one to another.

20 ¶ And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and far.

21 To stablish this among them, that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same year:

22 As the days wherein the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned unto joy from sorrow to joy, and from mourning morning into a good day: that they should make them dayes of feasting and joy, and of sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poore.

23 And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Shoberai had written unto them.

24 Because Haman the sonne of Hammedatha the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur (that is, the lot) to consume them, and to destroy them:

25 But when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters, that his wicked device which he devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head, and that he and his sonnes should be hanged on the gallies.

26 And therefore they called these dayes Purim, after the name of Pur: therefore for all the days of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come unto them, 27 The Jews obtained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as joined themselves unto them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two dayes, according to their writing, and according to their appointed time every year.

28 And that these dayes should be remembred, and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city, and that these dayes of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memoriall of them fail from their seed.

29 Then Esther the quene the daughter of Abihai, and Shoberai the Jews, wrote by all authority, to confirm this second letter of Shoberai.

30 And he sent the letters unto all the Jews, to the hundred thienty and seven provinces of the kingdome of Agaiurus, with words of peace and truth:

31 To confirm these dayes of Purim in their times appointed, according as Shoberai the Jews, and Esther the quene had enjoined them, and as they had decreed for themselves and for their seed, the matters of the fastings and their cry.

32 And the decree of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim, and it was written in the book.

CHAP. X.

1 Abasurus his greatness, 3 Mordecai advances ment.

And the king Abasurus laid a tribute upon the land, and upon the isles of the sea.

2 And all the acts of his power, and of his might, and the declaration of the greatness of Shoberai, whereby he shewed that he was great, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia?

3 For Shoberai the Jew was next unto king Abasurus, and great among the Jews, and accepted of the multitude of his brethren, seeking the wealth of his people, and speaking peace to all his seed.

THE BOOK OF JOB.

CHAP. I.

1 The holiness, riches, and religious care of Job for his children, 6 Satan appearing before God, by calumination obtained leave to tempt Job, 13 Understanding of the loss of his goods and children, in his mourning he blesteth God.

There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job, and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil.

2 And there were born unto him seven sonnes, and three daughters.

3 His substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred asses, and a very great household: so that this man was the greatest of all the men of the east.

4 And his sonnes went and feasted in their houses, every one his day, and sent and called for their three sisters, to eat and to drink with them.

5 And it was so, when the dayes of their feasting were gone about, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt-offerings according to the number of them all: for Job said, It may be that my sonnes have sinned, and cursed God in their hearts. Thus did Job continually.

6 And there was a day, when the sonnes of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan came also among them.

7 And the Lord said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the Lord, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

8 And the Lord said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feared God, and eschewed evil?

9 Then Satan answered the Lord, and said, Wouldst thou not fear God for nothing?

10 Hast not thou made an hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land.

11 But now see thou that he hath lost all that he hath, and he will curse thee to thy face.

12 And the Lord said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy power, only upon him will I put no fault: thou shalt see how he will answer thee when thou shalt smite him.

13 And there was a day, when his sonnes and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brothers house:

14 And there came a wind from the wilderness, and it smote the seven pillars of the house, and they fell, and the children were slain.

15 And the Sabeans fell upon them, and took them away: yea, they have slain the servants with the edge of the sword, and I am escaped alone to tell thee.

16 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burnt up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them, and I am escaped alone to tell thee.

Job. fulfilled.

17 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Catbeans made out three dromedaries, and fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword, and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

18 While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Syrians and the daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brothers house:

† Heb. from aside, &c.

19 And behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead, and I only am escaped alone to tell thee.

Job, robe.

20 Then Job arose, and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down upon the ground, and worshipped.

Job, attributed folly to God.

22 In all this Job sinned not, nor charged God foolishly.

CHAP. II.

1 Satan appearing again before God, obtaineth further leave to tempt Job. 7 He smiteth him with sore boils. 9 Job reprehendeth his wife, moving him to curse God. 11 His three friends console with him in silence.

Again there was a day, when the forms of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan came also among them to present himself before the Lord.

† Chap. 1. 7.

2 And the Lord said unto Satan, From whence comest thou? And Satan answered the Lord, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.

† Chap. 1. 8.

3 And the Lord said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? and still he holdeth fast his integrity, although thou movedst me against him, to destroy him without cause.

† Heb. to swallow him up.

4 And Satan answered the Lord, and said, Skins for skins, yea all that a man hath will he give for his life.

5 But put forth thine hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse thee to thy face.

† Or, only.

6 And the Lord said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thine hand; but save his life.

7 So went Satan forth from the presence of the Lord, and smote Job with sore boils, from the sole of his foot unto his crown.

8 And he took him a postboard to scrape himself withal, as he lay down among the ashes.

9 Then said his wife unto him, Dost thou still retain thine integrity, fearst God, and dost not receive evil? In all this did not Job sin, nor charge God foolishly.

10 But he said unto her, Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh. What? shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? In all this did not Job sin, nor charge God foolishly.

11 Now when Jobs three friends heard of all this evil that was come upon him, they came every one from his own place: Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Sophar the Naamathite, for they had made an appointment together to come to mourn with him, and to comfort him.

12 And when they lifted up their eyes a farre off, and knew him not, they lifted up their voice, and wept, and they rent every one his mantle, and sprinkled dust upon their heads toward heaven.

13 So they sat down with him upon the ground seven dayes and seven nights, and none spake a word unto him: for they saw that his grief was very great.

CHAP. III.

1 Job curseth the day and services of his birth, 13 The ease of death. 20 He complaineth of life, because of his anguish.

After this opened Job his mouth, and cursed his day.

2 And Jobb spake, and said.

3 * Let the day perish wherein I was born, and the night in which it was said, There is a man-child conceived.

4 Let that day be darkness, let not God regard it from above, neither let the light shine upon it.

5 Let darkness and the shadow of death stain it, let a cloud dwell upon it, let the blackness of the day terrifie it.

6 As for that night, let darkness be upon it, let it not be joyed unto the dayes of the year, let it not come into the number of the monthes.

7 Lo, let that night be solitary, let no joyful voice come therein.

8 Let them curse it that curse the day, who are ready to raise up their mourning.

9 Let the stars of the twilight thereof be dark, let it look for light but have none, neither let it see the dawning of the day:

10 Because it said not upon the doomes of my mothers womb, nor did sorrow from mine eyes.

11 Why then I not from the womb? why did I not give up the ghost when I came out of the belly?

12 Why did the knees prevent me? or why the breasts that I should suck?

13 For now should I have lien still, and been quiet, I should have slept; then had I been at rest.

14 With kings and counsellors of the earth, which build desolate places for themselves:

15 Or with princes that had gold, who filled their houses with silver:

16 Or as a hidden untimely birth I had not been; as infants which never saw light.

17 Where the wicked cease from troubling; and where the weary be at rest.

18 There the prisoners rest together, they heare not the voice of the oppressour.

19 The small and great are there, and the servant is free from his master.

20 Wherefore is light given to him that is in misery, and life unto the bitter in soul?

21 Which I long for death, but it cometh not, and say for it more then for food treasures?

22 Which I rejoyce exceedingly, and am glad when they can finde the game?

23 Why is light given to a man whose way is hid, and shadow upon him which he hedged in?

24 For my sighing cometh before I eat, and my howlings are poured out like the waters.

25 For I feare the thing which I greatly feared, is come upon me, and that which I was afraid of, is come unto me.

26 I was not in safety, neither had I rest, neither was I quiet; yet trouble came.

CHAP.

CHAP. IIII.

1 Eliphaz reproveth Job for want of religion. 7 He teacheth Gods judgement to be not for the righteous, but for the wicked. 12 His fearfull vision, to bumble the excellencies of creature before God.

Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

1 If we assay to commune with thee, wilt thou be grieved? but who can withhold himself from speaking?

3 Behold, thou hast instructed many, and thou hast strengthened the weak hands.

4 Thy words have uphelden him that was falling, and thou hast strengthened the feeble knees.

5 But now it is come upon thee, and thou faintest; it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

6 Is not this thy fear, thy confidence, thy hope, and the uprightness of thy ways?

7 Remember, I pray thee, who ever perished being innocent? or where were the righteous cut off?

8 Even as I have seen, they that plow iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same.

9 By the blast of Gods wrath they perish, and by the breath of his wrath are they consumed.

10 The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, and the roare of the young lions are broken.

11 The old lion perisheth for lack of prey, and the stout lions whelps are scattered abroad.

12 How a thing was I secretly brought to me, and mine ear received a little secret.

13 In thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falleth on men, 14 Fear came upon me, and trembling, which made all my bones to shake.

15 When a spirit passed before my face, the hair of my flesh stood up.

16 It stood still, but I could not discern the form thereof: an image was before mine eyes, there was silence, and I heard a voice, saying,

17 Shall mortal man be more just than God? shall a man be more pure than his maker?

18 Behold, he hath put no trust in his servants; and his angels he charged with folly:

19 How much less on them that dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, which are crushed before the moth?

20 They are destroyed from morning to evening: they perish for ever without any regard- ing it.

21 Doth not their excellency which is in them, go away? they die, even without wisdom.

CHAP. V.

1 The harm of inconsideration. 3 The end of the wicked is misery. 6 God is to be regarded in affliction. 17 The happy end of Gods correction.

Call now, if there be any that will answer thee, and to which of the saints wilt thou turn?

2 For many killeth the foolish man, and he envy slayeth the silly one.

3 I have seen the foolish taking root: but suddenly I cursed his habitation.

4 His children are farre from safety, and they are crushed in the gate, neither is there any to deliver them.

5 Thou hast barbed the hungry with thorns, and hast thrust them out of the thorns, and the robber swalloweth up their substance.

6 Although affliction cometh not forth of the dust, neither doth troubles spring out of the mire, ground:

7 Yet man is born unto trouble, as the sparks fly upward.

8 I would seek unto God, and unto God would I commit my cause:

9 * Which both great things, & unsearchable, marvellous things without number.

10 * How do grievous pains upon the earth, and foweth waters upon the fields:

11 * To let up on high those that be low; that those which mourn may be exalted to safety.

12 * He disappointeth the devices of the crafty, so that their hands cannot perform their enter- prise.

13 * He taketh the wise in their own crafti- ness; and the counsel of the forward is carried headlong.

14 * They meet with darkness in the day time, and grope in the noon day as in the night.

15 But he saveth the poore from the sword, from their mouth, and from the hand of the mighty.

16 * So the poore hath hope, and iniquity stop- peth her mouth.

17 * Behold, happy is the man whom God correcteth: therefore despise not thou the chasten- ing of the Almighty:

18 * For he maketh sore, and bindeth up: he woundeth, and his hands make whole.

19 * He shall deliver thee in six troubles: yea, in seven there shall no evil touch thee.

20 In famine he shall redeem thee from James, death: and in warre he shall deliver thee from the power of the sword.

21 Thou shalt be hid from the scourge of the tongue: neither shalt thou be afraid of destruction when it cometh.

22 At destruction and famine thou shalt laugh: neither shalt thou be afraid of the beasts of the earth.

23 * For thou shalt be in league with the stones of the field: and the beasts of the field shall be at peace with thee.

24 And thou shalt know that thy tabernacle shall be in peace, and thou shalt visit thy habi- tation, and shalt not sinne.

25 Thou shalt know also that thy seed shall be great, and thine offspring as the grass of the earth.

26 Thou shalt come to thy grave in full age, like as a flock of cown that cometh in, in his season.

27 Lo this, we have searched it, so it is; heare it, and know thou it for thy good.

CHAP. VI.

1 Job sheweth that his complaints are not causelesse. 8 Hewiseth for death, wherein he is assured of comfort.

14 He reproveth his friends of unkindnesse.

But Job answered and said, 2 O that my grief were thoughtfully weighed, and my calamity laid in the balances together!

3 For now it would be heavier than the sand of the sea, therefore my words are swallowed up.

4 * For the arrows of the Almighty are with- in me, the poison whereof I have drunk up; my spirit the terrors of God do set themselves in array against me.

5 Doth the willow wither when he hath no water? doth the poplar wither when he hath no water?

6 Can that which is without labour be eaten without 11 Can the rush grow up without mire? can the flagge grow without water?

 12 * Can it be it is yet in his greenness, and not cut down, & withereth before any other herb.
 13 So are the paths of all that forget God, and the hypocrites hope shall perish:
 14 And whose hope shall be cut off, and whose trust shall be for a spiders web.
 15 He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not stand: he shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure.
 16 He is green before the sunne, and his branch shooteth forth in his garden.
 17 His roots are wrapped about the heap, and stretch the place of stones.
 18 If he destroy him from his place, then it shall decay him, saying, I have not seen thee.
 19 Behold, this is the joy of his house, and out of the earth shall others grow.
 20 Behold, God will not cast away a perfect man, neither will he for the evil doers:
 21 Will he fill the mouth with laughing, and thy lips with joy?
 22 They that date thee shall be clothed with shame, and the dwelling place of the wicked shall come to nought.

CHAP. IX.

1 Job acknowledgins Gods justice, sheweth there is no contending with him, 22 Mans innocency is not to be condemned by afflictions.

Then Job answered and said,
 2 I know it is so of a truth: but how should I man be just I wish God?
 3 If he will contend with him, he cannot answer him one of a thousand.
 4 He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who hath hardened himself against him, and hath prospered?

5 Which removeth the mountains, and they know not: which overturneth them in his anger.
 6 Which breaketh the earth out of her place, and the pillars thereof tremble.
 7 Which commandeth the sunne, and it riseth not: and healeth up the barres.
 8 Which alone spreadeth out the heavens, and treadeth upon the waves of the sea.
 9 Which maketh the Arcturus, Orion, and Pleiades, and the chambers of the south.

10 Which doeth great things without number, and wonders without number.
 11 Lo, he goeth by me, and I see him not: he passeth on also, but I perceive him not.
 12 Behold, he taketh away, who can hinder him? who will say unto him, What dost thou?
 13 If God will not withhold his anger, yet I should help thee to stand under him.
 14 How much less shall I answer him, and choose out my words to reason with him?
 15 Whom, though I were righteous, yet would I not answer, but I would make supplication to my judge.

16 If I had called, and he had answered me: yet would I not believe that he had hearkened unto my voice.

17 For he breaketh me with a tempest, and multiplieth my wounds without cause.

18 He will not suffer me to take my breath, but filled me with bitterness.

19 If I speak of strength, lo he is strong: and if of judgement, who shall let me a time to plead?

20 If I justify myself, mine own mouth shall condemn me: if I say, I am perfect, it shall also witness me perverse.

21 Though I were perfect yet would I not know my soul: I would despise my life.

22 This is one thing, therefore I said it, he destroyeth the perfect and the wicked.

23 If the scourge slay suddenly, he will laugh at the travail of the innocent.

24 The earth is given into the hand of the wicked: he covereth the faces of the judges thereof, if not, where, and who is he?

25 How my doves are swifter than a post: they flee away, they see no good.

26 They are passed away as the swift ships: as the eagle that hatchereth prey.

27 If I say, I will forget my complaint, I will leave off my heaviness, and comfort my bed.

28 I am afraid of all my sorrows, I know that thou wilt not hold me innocent.

29 If I be wicked, why then labour I in vain?

30 If I wash my self with snow-water, and make my hands never to cleave;

31 Yet shalt thou plunge me in the ditch, and mine own clothes shall abhorre me.

32 For he is not a man as I am, that I should answer him, and we should come together in judgement.

33 Neither is there any ransom man deliver us, that might lay his hand upon us both.

34 Let him take his rod away from me, and let not his fear terrifie me.

35 Then would I speak, and not fear him: I but it is not so to him.

CHAP. X.

1 Job, taking liberty of complaint, expostulateth with God about his afflictions. 18 He cometh plainness of life, and traveth a little ways before death.

My soul is weary of my life, I will leave my complaint upon my self, I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.

2 I will say unto God, Do not condemn me; yet he will wherefore thou contendest with me.

3 Is it good unto thee, that thou shouldst oppress? that thou shouldst despise the work of thine hands: and mine upon the counsel of the wicked?

4 Hast thou eyes of flesh? or seest thou as man seeth?

5 Are thy dayes as the dayes of man? are thy yeares as mans dayes,

6 That thou enquirest after mine iniquitie, and searchest after my sin?

7 I know knoweth that I am not hidden, and there is none that can deliver out of thine hand.

8 Thine hands have made me, and fashioned me together round about; yet thou dost destroy me.

9 Remember, I beseech thee, that thou hast made me as the clay, and wilt thou bring me into dust again?

10 Hast thou not poured me out as milk, and crindest me like cheese?

11 Thou hast clothed me with skin, and flesh, and hast fenced me with bones and sinews.

12 Thou hast granted me life and favour, and thy visitation hath preserved my spirit.

13 And these things hast thou hid in thine heart: I know what thou doest to me, and thou wilt not acquaint me from mine iniquitie.

14 If I sin, then thou markest me, and thou wilt not acquit me from mine iniquitie.

15 If I be wicked, woe unto me, and if I be righteous, yet wilt I not lift up my head: I am full.

1 Zophar reproveth Job for justifying himself. 5 Gods wisdom is unsearchable. 13 The assured blessing of repentance.

Then answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,

¶ Heb. a man of lips, devices.

2 Should not the multitude of words be answered? and should a man full of talk be justified?

3 Should thy lies make men hold their peace? and when thou mockest, shall no man make thee ashamed?

CHAP. XIII.

1 Job reproveth his friends of partiality. 14 He professeth his confidence in God. 20 and intreats eth to know his own sinnes, and Gods purpose in afflicting him.

LO mine eye hath seen all this, mine eare hath heard and understood it.

2 What ye know, the same do I know also, I am not inferior unto you.

3 Surely I would speak to the Almighty, and I desire to reason with God.

4 But ye are foegners of lies, ye are all physicians of no valine.

5 O that you would altogether hold your peace, and it should be your wisdom.

6 Heare now my reasoning, and hearken to the pleadings of my lips.

7 Will you speak wickedly for God? and talk deceitfully for him?

8 Will ye accept his person? will ye contend for God?

9 Is it good that he should search you out? or as one man mocketh another, do ye so mock him?

10 He will surely reprove you, if ye do secretly accept persons.

11 Should not his excellencie make you afraid? and his dread fall upon you?

12 Your remembrances are like unto ashes, your bodies to boddes of clay.

13 Hold your peace, let me alone, that I may speak, and let come on me what will.

14 And therefore do I take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life in mine hand.

15 Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will not maintain mine owne wayes before him.

16 He also shall be my salvation: for an hypocrite shall not come before him.

17 Heare diligently my speech, and my declaration with your eares.

18 Behold now, I have uttered my cause, I know that I shall be justified.

19 And so is he that will plead with me: for now if I hold my tongue, I shall give up the ghost.

20 Surely do not thinke things unto me: then will I not hide my self from thee.

21 Withdraw thine hand farre from me: and let not thy dread make me afraid.

22 When thou call thou, and I will answer: or let me speak, and answer thou me.

23 How many are mine iniquities and sinnes? make me to know my transgression and my sinne.

24 Wherefore hideest thou thy face, and holdest me for thine enemy?

25 Wilt thou break a leaf withen to and froe: wilt thou pursue the hye stubble?

26 For thou desirest bitter things against me, and hatest me to possesse the iniquities of my youth.

27 Thou puttest my feet also in the stocks, and thou lookest narrowly unto all my paths: thou settest a print upon the heels of my feet.

28 And he, as a rotten thing consumeth, as a garment that is moth-eaten.

CHAP. XIIII.

1 Job intreateth God for favour, by the shortness of life, and certainty of death. 7 Though life once lost be irrecoverable, yet he waiteth for his change. 16 By faith the creature is subject to corruption.

MAN that is born of a woman, is full of teares, and full of trouble.

2 He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.

3 And dost thou open thine eyes upon such an one, and bringest me into judgement with thee?

4 Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one.

5 Seeing his dayes are determined, the number of his moneths are with thee, thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass.

6 Turn from him that he may rest, till he shall accomplish, as an hireling, his day.

7 For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, that it will sprout again, and that the tender branch thereof will not cease.

8 Though the root thereof was old in the earth, and the stock thereof die in the ground:

9 Yet through the sent of water it will bud, and bring forth boughs like a plant.

10 But man dieth, and is wasted away: yea, man giveth up the ghost, and where is he?

11 As the waters fail from the sea, and the flood decayeth and drieth up:

12 So man lieth down, and riseth not till the heavens be no more: they shall not awake, nor be raised out of their sleep.

13 O that thou wouldest hide me in the grave, that thou wouldest keep me secret, untill thy wrath be past, that thou wouldest appoint me a set time, and remember me.

14 If a man die, shall he live againe? all the dayes of my appointed time will I wait, till my change come.

15 Thou shalt call, and I will answer thee: thou wilt have a desire to the work of thine hands.

16 For now thou numberest my steps, dost thou not watch over my sinne?

17 Thy transgression is sealed up in a bag, and thou sewest up mine iniquity.

18 And surely the mountain falling, cometh to nought: and the rock is removed out of his place.

19 The waters wear the stones: thou wastest away the things which were builded out of the durt of the earth, and thou destroyest the hope of man.

20 Thou prevaillest for ever against him, and he passeth: thou changest his countenance, and sendest him away.

21 His bowes come to honour, and he knoweth it not; and they are brought low, but he perceiveth it not of them.

22 But his flesh upon him shall have pain, and his soul within him shall mourne.

CHAP. XV.

1 Eliphaz reproveth Job of impiety in justifying himself. 17 He proveth by tradition the unguessableness of wicked men.

THEN answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and said,

2 Should a wise man utter vain knowledge, and fill his belly with the east-wind?

3 Should he reason with unprofitable talk, or with speeches wherein he can do no good?

4 Yea, thou castest off fear, and disdainest prayer before God.

5 For thy mouth is uttereth thine iniquity, and thou choolest the tongue of the craftie.

6 Thine own mouth hath condemned thee, and not thou: yea, thine own lips testify against thee.

7 Art thou the first man that was born? wast thou made before the first?

8 Hast thou heard the secret of God? dost thou restrain wisdom with thy lips?

9 What knowest thou that he knoweth not? what

28 The increase of his house shall depart, and his goods shall flow away in the day of his wrath.

29 This is the portion of a wicked man from God, and the heritage appointed unto him by God.

CHAP. XXI.

1 Job sheweth that even in the judgement of man he hath reason to be grieved. 2 Sometimes the wicked do so prosper, as they deserve God. 16 Sometime their destruction is manifest. 22 The happy and unhappy are alike in death. 27 The judgement of the wicked is in another world.

BUT Job answered and said, 2 Hear diligently my speech, and let this be your consolation.

3 Suffer me that I may speak, and after that I have spoken, mock on.

4 As for me, is my complaint to man? and if it were so, why should not my spirit be troubled?

5 I speak me, and am answered, and lay your hands upon your mouth.

6 When I remember, I am afraid, and trembling taketh hold on my flesh.

Job.

All alike in death.

7 * Wherefore do the wicked live, become old, yea, are mighty in power?

8 Their seed is established in their sight with them, and their offspring before their eyes.

9 Their houses are full of treasure, neither is there any want of riches upon them.

10 Their bull gendereth and faileth not, their cow calveth and casteth not her calf.

11 They send forth their little ones like a flock, and their children dance.

12 They take the timbrel and harp, and rejoice at the sound of the organ.

13 They spend their days in wealth, and in a moment go down to the grave.

14 * Therefore they say unto God, Depart from us: for we desire not the knowledge of thy wayes.

15 What is the Almighty, that we should serve him? and what profit should we have if we pray unto him?

16 Lo, their good is not in their hand, the counsel of the wicked is farre from me.

17 How oft is the candle of the wicked put out? and how oft cometh their destruction upon them? God distributeth sorrows in his anger.

18 They are as stubble before the winde, and as chaff that the storme carryeth away.

19 God layeth up his iniquity for his children, he rewardeth him, and he shall know it.

20 His eyes shall see his destruction, and he shall drinke of the wrath of the Almighty.

21 For what pleasure hath he in his house after him, when the number of his months is cut off in the midst?

22 Shall any teach God knowledge? seeing he judgeth those that are high.

23 One dieth in his full strength, being without any fault, and quiet.

24 His breasts are full of milk, and his bones are moistened with marrow.

25 And another dieth in the bitterness of his soul, and eateth earth with pleasure.

26 They shall lie down alike in the dust, and the worms shall cover them.

27 Behold, I know your thoughts, and the devices which ye wrongfully imagine against me.

28 For ye say, Where is the house of the prince? and where are the dwelling places of the wicked?

29 Have ye not asked them that go by the way? and do ye not know their tokens?

30 * That the wicked is reserved to the day of destruction; they shall be brought forth to the day of wrath.

31 Will he then declare his way to his face? and will he say, What have I done?

32 Yet shall he be brought to the grave, and shall remain in the tomb.

33 The clouds of the valley shall be sweet unto him, and every man shall dawd after him, as there are innumerable before him.

34 How then comfort ye me in vain, seeing in your answers there remaineth falsehood?

CHAP. XXII.

1 Eliphaz sheweth that man's goodnesse profiteth not God. 5 He accuseth Job of divers sinnes. 21 He exhorteth him to repentance, with promises of mercy.

THEN Eliphaz the Temanite, answered and said,

1 Can a man be profitable unto God, as he that doeth his good, so that he may be profitable unto himself?

2 Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that thou shouldst increase thy words?

Job, the poore shall oppress his children.

Job, in the midst of his palate.

act righteous? or is it gain to him that thou makest thy wayes perfect?

4 Will he reprove thee for fear of thee? will he enter with thee into judgement?

5 Is not thy wickedness great and thine iniquities infinite?

† He stripped the clothes of the naked.

6 For thou hast taken a pledge from thy brethren for nought, and † stripped the naked of their clothing.

7 Thou hast not given water to the weary to drink, and thou hast withholden bread from the hungry.

† He, the man of arm.

8 But as for † the mighty man, he had the earth, and the † honourable man dwelt in it.

† He, the man of arm.

9 Thou hast sent widows away empty, and the arms of the fatherless have been broken.

10 Therefore snares are round about thee, & sudden fear troubleth thee.

11 Thy darkness is that thou canst not see, and abundance of waters cover thee.

† He, the head of the stars.

12 Is not God in the height of heaven? and behold † the height of the stars, how high they are.

13 And thou sayest, I know doth God know? can he judge through the dark clouds?

14 Thick clouds are a covering to him that he seeth not, and he walketh in the circuit of heaven.

15 Hast thou marked the old way which wicked men have trodden?

† He, a flood was poured upon their foundation.

16 Which were cut down out of time, † whose foundation was overthrown with a flood.

17 Which said unto God, Depart from us: and where can the Almighty do for them?

† He, the counsel of the wicked is false from me.

18 Per he filled their houses with good things: but † the counsel of the wicked is false from me.

19 * The righteous see it, and are glad: and the innocent laugh them to scorn.

20 Whereas our substance is not cut down, but † the remnant of them the fire consumeth.

21 Acquaint now thy self I wish thou, and be at peace: thereby good shall come unto thee.

22 Receive † I pray thee, the law from his mouth, and lay up his words in thine heart.

23 * If thou return to the Almighty, thou shalt be built up, thou shalt put away iniquity farre from thy tabernacles.

24 Then shalt thou lay up gold as dust, and the gold of Ophir as the stones of the brooks.

25 * Yes, the Almighty shall be thy defence, and thou shalt have † plenty of silver.

26 For then shalt thou have the delight in the Almighty, and shalt lift up thy face unto God.

27 Thou shalt make thy prayer unto him, and he shall heare thee, and thou shalt pay thy vows.

28 Thou shalt also desire a thing, and it shall be established unto thee: and the light shall shine upon thy wayes.

29 * When men are cast down, then thou shalt say, There is lifting up: and he shall save † the humble person.

30 * He shall deliver the island of the innocent: and it is delivered by the puerility of thine hands.

CHAP. XXIII.

1 Job longeth to appeare before God, & in confidence of his mercy, & God who is invisible, observeth our wayes.

2 Job's innocency. 3 Gods decree is immutable.

Then Job answered and said, 2 Even to day is my complaint bitter: my stroke is heavier than my groaning.

3 What I know where I might finde him? that I might come thence to his tent?

4 I would give my cause before him, and sit my mouth with arguments.

5 I would know the things which he would answer me, and understand what he would say unto me.

6 Will he plead against me with his great power? no, but he would put strength in me.

7 Where the righteous might dispute with him; so should I be delivered for they from my judge.

8 Behold, I go forward, but he is not there; and backward, but I cannot perceive him:

9 On the left hand where he doth work, but I cannot behold him: he hideth himself on the right hand, that I cannot see him.

10 But he knoweth † the way that I take: † he knoweth when he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold.

11 My foot hath held in his steps, his way have I kept, and not declined.

12 Neither have I gone back from the commandment of his lips, † I have esteemed the words of his mouth, more then † my necessary food.

13 But he is in one minde, and who can turn him? and what † his soul desireth, even that he doth.

14 For he hath performed the thing that is appointed for me: and many such things are with him.

15 Therefore am I troubled at his presence: when I consider, I am afraid of him.

16 For God hath made my heart soft, and the Almighty hath troubled me:

17 Because I was not cut off before the darkness, neither hath he covered the darkness from my face.

CHAP. XXIV.

1 Wickedness goeth often unpunished, 2 There is a faster judgement for the wicked.

Wickedness goeth often unpunished, 2 There is a faster judgement for the wicked.

3 By seeing things are not blotted from the Almighty, do they that know him, not see his dayes?

4 Some remove the † land-marks: they violently take away stocks, and † feed thereof.

5 They hide away the ass of the fatherless, they take the widow for † a pledge.

6 They turn the needy out of the way: the poore of the earth blow themselves together.

7 Behold, as wilde asses in the desert, go they forth to their work, rising betimes for a prey: the wilderness yeeldeth food for them and for their children.

8 They reap every one his † corn in the field: and † they gather the vintage of the wicked.

9 They cause the naked to lodge without clothing, that they have no covering in the cold.

10 They are wet with the showers of the mountains, and embrace the rock for want of a shelter.

11 They pluck the fatherless from the breast, and take a pledge of the poore.

12 They cause him to go naked without clothing, and they take away the sheaf from the hungry.

13 Which make oyl within their walls, and tread their wine-presses, and suffer thirst.

14 When groan from out of the city, and the soul of the wounded crieth out: yet God layeth not folly to them.

15 They are of those that rebel against the light, they know not the wayes thereof, nor abide in the paths thereof.

16 The murderer rising with the light, killeth the poore and needy, and in the night is as a thief.

17 He eye also of the audience waited for the twilight, saying, No eye shall see me, and I shall quicken his face.

16 And now my soul is poured out upon me; the waves of affliction have taken hold upon me.

17 My bones are pierced in me in the night: and my sinews take no rest.

18 By the great force of my discase, to my garment changed it bindeth me about as the collar of my coat.

19 He hath bent me into the mire, and I am become like dust and ashes.

20 I cry unto thee, and thou dost not heare me: I stand up, and thou regardest me not.

21 Thou art become cruel to me: with thy strong hand thou opposest thy self against me.

22 Thou liftest me up to the wind: thou causest me to ride upon it, and dost dissolve my substance.

23 For I know that thou wilt bring me to death, and to the house appointed for all living.

24 Wherefore he will not stretch out his hand to thee O grave, though they cry in his destruction.

25 Did not I weep for him that was in trouble? was not my soul grieved for the poorer?

26 When I looked for good, then evil came unto me: and when I waited for light, there came darkness.

27 My bowels swollen and rested not: the daves of affliction prevented me.

28 I went mourning without the sunne: I stood up, and I cried in the congregation.

29 I am as a bypther to dragons, and a companion to owls.

30 My skin is black upon me, and my bones are burnt with heat.

31 My harp also is turned to mourning, and my organ into the voice of them that weep.

CHAP. XXXI.

1 Job maketh a solemne profession of his integrity in several duties.

I made a covenant with mine eyes; why then should I think upon a maid?

2 For what portion of God is there from above? and what inheritance of the Almighty from on high?

3 Is not destruction to the wicked? and a strange punishment to the workers of iniquitie?

4 Doth not he see my wayes, and count all my steps?

5 If I have walked with vanity, or if my foot hath hurried to deceit;

6 Let me be weighed in an even balancer, that God may know mine integrity.

7 If my step hath turned out of the way, and mine heart walked after mine eyes, and if any blot hath cleaved to my hands:

8 Then let me lowe, and let another eat; yea let my offspring be rooted out.

9 If mine heart have been deceived by a woman, or if I have lido wait at my neighbours doore;

10 Then let my wife grind unto another, and let others bow down upon her.

11 For this is an heinous crime, yea it is an iniquitie to be punished by the judges.

12 For it is a fire that consumeth to destruction, and would root out all mine interest.

13 If I did despise the cause of my man-servant, or of my maid-servant, when they contended with me:

14 What then shall I do, when God riseth up, and when he visiteth, what shall I answer him?

15 Did not he that made me in the wombe, make him and I did not one fashion us in the wombe?

16 If I have withheld the pence from their milke, or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail:

17 Or have eaten my morsel my self alone, and the fatherless hath not eaten thereof:

18 Or have I kept from me yout he was brought up with me, as with a father, and I have guided him from my mothers wombe:

19 If I have seen any peris for want of cloathing, or any people without covering:

20 If his loins have not blessed me, and if he were not warmed with the fleece of my sheep:

21 If I have lift up my hand against the fatherless, when I saw my help in the gate:

22 Then let mine arm fall from my shoulder-blade, and mine arm be broken from the joint.

23 For destruction from God was a terror to me, and by reason of his highnes I could not endure.

24 If I have made gold my hope, or have said to the fine gold, Thou art my confidence:

25 If I rejoiced because my wealth was great, and because mine hand had gotten much:

26 If I beheld the sunne when it shined, or the moon walking in brightness:

27 And my heart hath been secretly enticed, or my mouth hath kissed my hand:

28 These also were an iniquitie to be punished by the judge: for I should have denied the God that is above.

29 If I rejoiced at the destruction of him that hated me, or lift up my self when evil found him:

30 (Neither have I suffered for my mouth to sinne, by wishing a curse to his soul.)

31 If the men of my tabernacle said not, Why hath we had of his flesh? we cannot be satisfied.

32 The stranger did not lodge in the street: but I opened my doores to the traveller.

33 If I covered my transgressions, as Adam: by hiding mine iniquitie in my bosome:

34 Did I fear a great multitude, or did the contempt of families terrifie me: that I kept silence, and went not out of the doore?

35 O that one would heare me! I beheld, my desire is, that the Almighty would answer me, and that mine adversary had written a book.

36 Surely I would take it upon my shoulder, and binde it as a crown to me.

37 I would declare unto him the number of my steps, as a prince would I go neare unto him.

38 If my land cry against me, or that the furrows likewise thereof complain:

39 If I have eaten the fruits thereof with out money, or have caused the owners thereof to lost their life:

40 Let thistles grow in stead of wheat, and cockle in stead of barley. The words of Job are ended.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 Elihu is angry with Job, and his three friends, because wisdom cometh not from age, he exhorteth the boldnes of his youth. 11 He reproverth them for not satisfying of Job. 16 His zeal to speak.

And these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.

2 Then came kindles the wrath of Elihu the sonne of Barachel the Buzite, of the kindred of Ram: against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified himself rather then God.

3 Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.

4 Now Elihu had waited till Job had spoken, because they were older then he.

Elihu reproveth Job. T Chap. xxxiii. xxxiiii. God calleth man to repentance.

1 Behold, Elihu said that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, then his mouth was hindered.

2 And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said, I am young, and ye are very old; wherefore I was afraid, and I durst not shew you mine opinion.

3 I said, Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom.

4 But there is a spirit in man, and the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding.

5 Great men are not always wise, neither are the aged under stand judgement.

6 Therefore I said, Hearken to me, I will shew mine opinion.

7 Behold, I waited for your words, I waited to you, I craved, whilst you sought for what to say.

8 Yea, I attended unto you: and when there was none of you that continued, then I answered you by words:

9 Let ye shew to me, I will have knowledge: God chastise him without, not him.

10 Now he hath not directed his words against me, neither will I answer him with your speeches.

11 They were amazed, they answered no more: they left off speaking.

12 When I had written, (for they spake not, but stood still and answered no more)

13 I said, I will answer also my part, I will shew mine opinion.

14 For I am full of matter, I have spoken truth in the constraint of mine.

15 Behold, my belly is as wine which I have not vent, it is ready to burst like new bottles.

16 I will speak, I shall not be restrained: I will open my lips and answer.

17 Let me not, I pray you, accept any mans person, neither let me give flattering titles unto man.

18 For I know not to give flattering titles, in so doing my maker would take me away.

CHAP. XXXIII.

1 Elihu offereth himself in stead of God, with sincerity and meekness to reason with Job. 8 He excuseth God from giving man an account of his ways, by his greatness. 14 God calleth man to repentance by visions, 19 by afflictions, 23 and by his ministry. 31 He inciteth Job to attemper.

Wherefore Job, I pray thee, heare my speeches, and hearken to all my words.

2 Behold, now I have opened my mouth, my tongue hath spoken in my mouth.

3 My words shall be of the uprightness of my heart: and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly.

4 The spirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life.

5 If thou canst answer me, let thy words be upon before me, stand up.

6 Behold, I am according to thy wish in Gods stead: I also am full of the clay.

7 Behold, my error shall not make thee a truth, neither shall my hand be heavy upon thee.

8 Surely thou hast spoken in mine hearing, and I have heard the noise of thy words, saying,

9 I am clean without transgression, I am innocent: neither is there iniquity in me.

10 Behold, he smiteth occasions against me, he counteth me for his enemy.

11 He putteth my feet in the stocks, he watcheth all my paths.

12 Behold, in this thou art not just: I will answer thee, that thou is greater than man.

13 And by these things I answer thee, that thou art greater than all thy masters.

14 For God speaketh once, yet man perceiveth it not.

15 In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumblings upon them.

16 Then he openeth the ears of men, and healeth their infirmities.

17 That he may withdraw man from his purpote, and hide paine from man.

18 He keepeth back his soul from the pit, and his life from perishing by the sword.

19 He is chastened also with pain upon his bed, and the multitude of his bones with strong pain.

20 So that his life abhorred his bed, and his soul hated meat.

21 His flesh is consumed away that it cannot be seen, and his bones that were not seen, stick out.

22 His soul draweth neare unto the grave, and his life to the destroyers.

23 If there be a messenger with him, an interpreter, one among a thousand, to shew unto man his unrighteousness.

24 Then he is gracious unto him, and saith, Deliver him from going down to the pit, I have found a ransom.

25 His flesh shall be fresher than a childdes: he shall return to the dayes of his youth.

26 He shall pray unto God, & he will be gracious unto him, & he shall see his face with joy: so he shall render unto man his righteousness.

27 He looketh upon men, and if any say, I have sinned, and he missest me not:

28 He will deliver his soul from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light.

29 So all these things toucheth God to others things with man.

30 To bring back his soul from the pit, to be enlightened with the light of the living.

31 Mark well, O Job, hearken unto me, hold thy peace, and I will speak.

32 If thou hast any thing to say, answer me: I pray, for I desire to justify thee.

33 If not, hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I shall teach thee wisdom.

CHAP. XXXIII.

1 Elihu accuseth Job for charging God with injustice. 10 God on his part cannot be unjust. 31 Man must humble himself unto God. 34 Elihu reproveth Job.

Furthermore Elihu answered and said, I heare thy words, O ye wise men, and give ear unto me, ye that have knowledge.

2 For the ear trieth words, as the mouth delivereth knowledge.

3 Let us choos to us judgement: let us know among our selves what is good.

4 For Job hath said, I am righteous: and God hath taken away my judgement.

5 Should I lie against my right? my wound is incurable without transgression.

6 For man is like Job, who travaileth up himself like a tower.

7 And he hath in company with the workers of iniquity, and walketh with them.

8 He seeth his seed, he produceth a man, nothing.

16. Canst thou reach the light of the sea?
or hast thou walked in the heart of the deep?
17. Have the gates of heaven been opened unto thee? or hast thou seen the doors of the shadow of death?
18. Hast thou perceived the beauty of the earth? because it thou knowest it all?
19. Where is the way where light dwelleth?
and as for darkness, where is the place thereof?
20. What thou shouldst take it to the bound thereof, and that thou shouldst know the paths to the house thereof?

22. Hast thou entered into the treasures of the snow? or hast thou seen the treasures of the hail?
23. Hast thou gone down against the clime of trouble, against the way of battle and war?
24. By what way is the light parted? which scattereth the east-wind upon the earth?
25. Hast thou distilled a water-cours for the overflowing of waters? or a way for the lightning of thunder?
26. To cause it to rain on the earth, where no man is: on the wilderness wherein there is no man?
27. To satisfy the desolate and waste ground, and to cause the bud of the tender herb to spring

41. Hast thou provided for the raven his food?
when his young ones cry unto thee, they wander for lack of meat.

CHAP. XXXIX.

1. Of the wild goat, and hinds, 2. Of the wild aspe, 3. the unicorn, 4. the peacock, 5. the ostrich,
6. the horse, 7. the hawk, 8. the eagle.

Knowest thou the time when the wild goats of the rock bring forth? or canst thou mark when the hinds do calve?
2. Canst thou number the months that they bring forth? or knowest thou the time when they bring forth?

3. They know themselves they bring forth their young ones, they call one their fellows.
4. Their young ones are in good liking, they grow up with courage: they go forth, and return not unto them.
5. Hast thou sent out the wild ass free? or hast thou loosed the bands of the wild ass?
6. Hast thou made the wild ass free?
and hast thou made his dwellings?
7. Hast thou made the wild ass free of the city, neither regardeth he the crying? or of the city?
8. The range of the mountains is his pasture, and he searcheth after every green thing.
9. Will the unicorn be willing to serve thee? or abide by thy crib?
10. Canst thou bind the unicorn with his band in the furrow? or will he harrow the valleys after thee?
11. Wilt thou trust him because his strength is great? or wilt thou leave the labour to him?
12. Wilt thou believe him that he will bring home thy herd? and gather it into thy barn?
13. Gavest thou the goodly wings unto the peacocks? or wings and feathers unto the ostrich?
14. Wilt thou leave her eggs in the earth, and vain without fear.

17. Because thou hast despised her of wildom, neither hath she been impacted to her understanding.
18. Hast thou time the strength of her self on high, she scorneth the horse and his rider.
19. Hast thou given her bow strength? hast thou clothed her neck with thunder?
20. Canst thou make him afraid as a grasshopper:
the glory of his neck is terrible.
21. He paweth in the valley, and rejoiceth in his strength: he goeth out to meet thee the armed man.
22. He mocketh at fear, and is not affrighted;
neither turneth he back from the sword.
23. The quiver rattleth against him, the glittering spear and the shield.
24. He swalloweth the ground with fierceness and rage: neither believeth he that it is the founding of the trumpet.
25. He laugheth among the trumpets, he, he: and he smelleth the battle afar off, the trumpet of the captains, and the shouting.
26. Hath the hawk fled by thy wisdom, and stretcheth her wings toward the south?
27. Hast thou sent the eagle upon? at thy command, and make her nest on high?
28. She dwelleth and abideth on the rock, upon the crag of the rock, and the strong place.
29. From thence she seeketh the prey, and her eyes behold afar off.
30. Her young ones also suck up blood: and where the slain are, there is she.

CHAP. XL.

1. Job humbled himself to God, 2. God fireth him up to show his righteousness, power, and wisdom.
3. Of the behemoth.

Mover, the Lord answered Job, and said,
2. Shall he that contendeth with the Almighty infirmen him? he that opposeth God, let him answer it.
3. When Job answered the Lord, and said,
4. Behold

Behemoth, I am told, when shall I answer thee? I will not answer thee upon my mouth.
Dost thou have I spoken but I will not answer thee more; for thou art as a man, and I will proceed no further.
Then answered the Lord unto Job out of the whirlwind, and said,

Chap. 38. 3.
Phil. 5. 1. 4.
Rom. 1. 4.
1. Behold, I will stand up like a man: I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me.
2. Wilt thou also disannul my judgement?
Wilt thou condemn me that thou mayest be righteous?

3. Hast thou an arm like God's? or canst thou thunder with a voice like him?

4. Deck thyself now with majesty and excellence, and array thyself with glory and beauty.
5. Cast abroad the rage of thy wrath, and behold every one that is proud, and abase him.

6. Look on every one that is proud, and bring him low: and tread down the wicked in their place.

7. Hide them in the dust together, and bive their faces in secret.

8. When will I also confesse unto thee, that thou art more than I? and I will not deny thee.

9. I will confess now; I behemoth which I made with thee, he eateth grass as an ox.

10. He is now in his strength, as a bull, and his power is in his neck, and his power is in his loins.

11. He moveth his tail like a cedar: the barbs of his tail are like the barbs of iron.

12. He is the chief of the beasts of the earth: he maketh him, and maketh his way, and he approacheth unto him.

13. Surely the mountains bring him forth food:
where all the beasts of the field play.

14. He lieth under the shadow of trees, in the cool of the reeds, and fennes.

15. He is covered with strong bones, with their space the thickness of the book compasseth him about.

16. Behold, he drinketh up a river, and hath not: he trusteth that he can drinke up Jordan into his mouth.

17. He catcheth it with his eyes: his nose pierceth through snares.

CHAP. XLII.

Of Gods great power in the Leviathan.

And thou shalt outleeviathan with an hook:
or his tongue with a cord, which thou let-test down.

2. Canst thou put an hook into his nose? or hast thou pierced his cheek with a thorn?

3. Wilt thou make many supplications unto thee?
will he speak soft words unto thee?

4. Wilt thou make a covenant with thee? wilt thou take him for a servant for ever?

5. Wilt thou play with him as with a bird?
wilt thou bind him for thy servants?

6. Shall the companions make a banquet of him? shall they part him among the merchants?

7. Canst thou fill his shining with barbed iron?
or his head with spikes?

8. Lay thine hand upon him, remember the barrell, so no more.

9. Behold, the hope of him is in vain: shall not one be cast down, even at the sight of him?

10. Thou art able to force that thou shalt him up:
who then is able to stand before thee?

11. Shall he buy silver for thee? or shall he pay him? what shall he give thee for the hope of him?

12. I will not conceal his power, nor his power, nor his country, nor his power.

13. Who can tell what he will do? or who can tell what he will do? or who can tell what he will do?

14. Who can open the doors of his face? his teeth are terrible round about.

15. His scales are his pride, shut up together as with a cloath of scale.

16. One is so near to another that no aire can come between them.

17. They are joined one to another, they stick together, that they cannot be divided.

18. By his neesings a light doth shine, and his eyes are like the eye-lids of the morning.

19. Out of his mouth go burning lamps, and sparks of fire leap out.

20. Out of his nostrills goeth smoke, as out of a burning pot of caldron.

21. His breath kindleth coals, and a flame goeth out of his mouth.

22. In his neck remaineth strength, and his power is turned into joy before him.

23. The flashes of his fire are joined together, they are firm in themselves, they cannot be moved.

24. His heart is as firm as a stone, yea as hard as a piece of the upper millstone.

25. When he is angry he raiseth up himself, he is afraid: by reason of his greatness he purrleth themselves.

26. The sword of him that layeth at him cannot hold: he scorneth the dart, and he despiseth the spear.

27. He esteemeth iron as straw, and brass as rotten wood.

28. The arrow cannot make him flee: slingstones are turned with him into stubble.

29. Darts are counted as stubble: he laugh-eth at the shaking of a spear.

30. Sharp things are under his fowls: his sharp-pointed things upon the mire.

31. He maketh the deep to bory like a pot: he maketh the sea like a pot of clay.

32. He maketh a path to himself, whither he goeth, and he calleth it peace.

33. Upon earth there is no like unto him: he made without fear.

34. He despiseth all high things: he is a king over all the children of pride.

PSAL. IX.

David praiseth God for executing of judgement.

He inciteth others to praise him. 13 He prayeth that they may have cause to praise him.

3 DAY.
Morning prayer.

To the chief musician upon Gith-labben,
A plaine of David.

I will praise thee, O Lord, with my whole heart: I will shew forth all thy marvellous works.

I will be glad and rejoyce in thee: I will sing praise to thy name, O thou most high.

When mine enemies are turned back, they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

* Heb. thou hast made my judgement.

For thou hast maintained my right and my cause, thou satest in the throne judging right.

* Heb. in righteousness.

Thou hast rebuked the heathen, thou hast destroyed the wicked; thou hast put out their name for ever and ever.

* Heb. the destruction of the enemy are come to a perpetual end.

When thine enemy, destructions are come to a perpetual end: and thou hast destroyed cities, their memorial is perished with them.

* Heb. thou shalt endure for ever.

But the Lord shall endure for ever: he hath prepared his throne for judgement.

* Heb. he shall judge the world in righteousness.

And he shall judge the world in righteousness, he shall minister judgement to the people in uprightness.

* Heb. the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble.

The Lord shall aid till he put a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble.

* Heb. they that know thy name will put their trust in thee.

And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou, O Lord, hast not forsaken them that seek thee.

* Heb. sing praises to the Lord, which dwelleth in Zion.

Sing praises to the Lord, which dwelleth in Zion: declare among the people his doings.

* Heb. when he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembereth them: he forgetteth not the cry of the humble.

When he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembereth them: he forgetteth not the cry of the humble.

* Heb. have mercy upon me, O Lord, consider my trouble which I suffer of them that hate me.

Have mercy upon me, O Lord, consider my trouble which I suffer of them that hate me, thou that liftest me up from the gates of death.

That I may shew forth all thy works in the gates of the daughter of Zion: I will rejoyce in thy salvation.

The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made: in the net which they hid is their own foot taken.

* Gal. 7. 16

The Lord is known by the judgement which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. Higgaion, Selah.

The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God.

For the needy shall not alway be forgotten: the expectation of the poore shall not perish for ever.

Arise, O Lord, let not man prevail, let the heathen be judged in thy sight.

Put them in fear, O Lord: what the nations may know themselves to be but men. Selah.

PSAL. X.

David complaineth to God of the outrage of the wicked. 12 He prayeth for remedy. 16 He professeth his confidence.

Why standest thou a farre off, O Lord: why tullest thou thy self in times of trouble?

The wicked in his pride doth persecute the poore: let them be taken in the devices that they have imagined.

For the wicked hatred of his heart desireth, and blasphemeth the righteous, whom the Lord is abhorreth.

The wicked, through the pride of his countenance, will not seek after God: God is not in all his thoughts.

His wayes are alwayes gracious: thy judgements are farre above out of his sight: as for all his enemies, he puffeth at them.

He hath said in his heart, I shall not be moved: for I shall never be in adversity.

His mouth is full of cursing, and deceit, and fraud: under his tongue is mischief and vanity.

He sitteth in the lurking places of the villages: in the secret places doth he murder the innocent: his eyes are privily set against the poore.

He lieth in wait secretly as a lion in his den: he watcheth to catch the poore: he doth catch the poore when he disquieteth him into his net.

He croucheth, and humbleth himself that the poore may fall by his strong ones.

He hath said in his heart, God hath forgotten: he hath hid his face, he will never see it.

Arise, O Lord, O God lift up thine hand: forget not the humble.

Wherefore doeth the wicked contemne thee? he hath said in his heart, Thou wilt not requite it.

Thou hast seen it, for thou beholdest mischief and spite to requite it with thy hand: the poore hath committed himself unto thee, thou art the helper of the fatherlesse.

Break thou the arm of the wicked, and the evil man: seek out his wickedness, till thou finde none.

The Lord is King for ever and ever: the heathen are perished out of his land.

The Lord, thou hast heard the desire of the humble: thou wilt prepare their heart, thou wilt cause thine ear to heare.

Thou judge the fatherlesse and the oppressed, that the man of the earth may no more oppresse.

PSAL. XI.

David encourageth himself in God against his enemies. 4 The providence and justice of God.

To the chief musician, A psalme of David.

Impostor! Rise as a bird to your mountains: 2 For lo, the wicked bend their bow; they make ready their arrow upon the string: that they may justly shoot at the upright in heart.

3 If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?

4 The Lord is in his holy temple, the Lord is sitting on high: his eyes behold, his eye-lids trie the children of men.

5 The Lord is trier of the righteous: but the wicked and him that loveth violence, his soul hateth.

6 Upon the wicked he shall rain thunders, fire and destruction, and shall horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup.

7 For the righteous Lord loveth righteousness: his countenance doth behold the upright.

PSAL. XII.

David desirous of humane comfort, craveth help of God. 3 He comforteth himself with Gods judgments on the wicked, and confidence in Gods tried promises.

To the chief musician upon Cithern. A psalme of David.

Help Lord, for the godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men.

2 They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: with flattering lips, and with a double heart do they speak.

3 The Lord shall cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaketh falsehood.

4 And so have said, With our tongue will we prevail, our lips are our own: who is lord over us?

5 For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise (saith the Lord) I will set him in safety from him that oppresseth him.

6 The words of the Lord are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

7 Thou shalt keep them (O Lord) thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.

8 The wicked walk on every side, when the blindest men are exalted.

PSAL. XIII.

David complaineth of delay in help. 3 He prayeth for preventing grace. 5 He beseecheth of divine mercy.

To the chief musician, A psalme of David.

How long wilt thou forget me (O Lord)? How long shalt thou hide thy face from me?

2 How long shall I take counsel in my soul, having sorrow in my heart, daily? how long shall mine enemies be exalted over me?

3 Consider and hear me, O Lord my God: lighten mine eyes; lest I sleep the sleep of death.

4 Lest mine enemies say, I have prevailed against him; and those that trouble me, rejoice when I am moved.

5 But I have trusted in the mercy, my heart shall rejoice in thy salvation.

6 I will sing unto the Lord, because he hath dealt bountifully with me.

PSAL. XIII.

David describeth the corruption of a natural man. 4 He convinceth the wicked by the light of their conscience. 7 He glorieth in the salvation of God.

To the chief musician, A psalme of David.

The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God: they are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good.

2 The Lord looked down from heaven upon the children of men; to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God.

3 They are all gone aside, they are all together become filthy: there is none that doeth good, no not one.

4 Vaine are all the workers of iniquity, no knowledge: who eat up my people as they eat bread, and call not upon the Lord.

5 There were they in great fear: for God is in the generation of the righteous.

6 You have shamed the counsel of the poor, because the Lord is in his refuge.

7 That the salvation of Israel were come out of Sion: when the Lord shall bring back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

PSAL. XV.

David describeth a vision of Sion. A psalme of David.

Lord, who shall abide in thy tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill?

2 He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, & speaketh the truth in his heart.

3 He that backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doth evil to his neighbour, nor is taken up a reproach against his neighbour.

4 In whose eyes a vile person is contemned; but he honoureth them that fear the Lord: he charitably sweareth to his own hurt, and changed not.

5 He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that doeth these things, shall never be moved.

PSAL. XVI.

David in distrust of merits, and hatred of idleness, fleeth to God for preservation. 5 He sheweth the hope of his calling, of resurrection, and life everlasting.

To the chief musician of David.

Preserve me, O God: for in thee do I put my trust.

2 O my soul, thou hast said unto the Lord, Thou art my Lord: my goodness extendeth not to thee:

3 But to the saints that are in the earth, and to the excellent in whom is all my delight.

4 Their sorrows shall be multiplied, that hasten after another god: their drink-offerings of blood will I not offer, nor take up their names into my lips.

5 The Lord is the portion of mine inheritance, and of my cup: thou maintainest my lot.

6 The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places: yea, I have a goodly heritage.

7 I will bless the Lord, who hath not allowed mine enemies to triumph over me: my reins also instruct me in the night seasons.

David's complaint and prayer. PSALMS. His confidence in God's grace.

368

8 Thine hand shall make out all thine enemies, thy right hand shall smite and thou shalt hate thee.

9 Thou shalt make them as a fiery oven in the time of thine anger: the L. o. o. shall swallow them up in his wrath, and the fire shall devour them.

10 Their fruit shalt thou destroy from the earth, and their seed from among the children of men.

11 For they intended evil against thee: they imagined a malicious device, which they are not able to perform.

12 Therefore shalt thou make them turn their back, when thou shalt make ready thine arrows upon thy strings, against the face of them.

13 Be thou exalted, L. o. o. in thine own strength: thou wilt me sing, and praise thy power.

PSAL. XXII.

1 David complains in great discouragement. 9 He preys in great distress. 23 He praises God.

To the chief musician upon Aseleth Shabar, A psalm of David.

My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? why art thou so far from helping me, and from the words of my roaring?

2 O my God, I cry in the day time, but thou hearest not; and in the night season, and I am not silent.

3 But thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the praises of Israel.

4 Our father trusted in thee: they trusted, and thou didst deliver them.

5 They cried unto thee, and were delivered: they trusted in thee, and were not confounded.

6 But I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised of the people.

7 All they that see me, they laugh me to scorn: they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying, He trusted on the L. o. o., that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, seeing he delighted in him.

8 But thou art he that took me out of the womb: thou didst make me hope, when I was upon my mother's breasts.

9 I was cast upon thee from the womb: thou art my God from my mother's belly.

10 Be not far from me, for trouble is near: for there is none to help.

11 Many bulls have compassed me: strong bulls of Babylon have beset me round.

12 They gaped upon me with their mouths, as a ravening, and a roaring lion.

13 I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint: my heart is like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels.

14 My strength is dried up like a parched earthenware: and my tongue cleaveth to my jaws; and thou hast brought me into the dust of death.

15 For dogs have compassed me, the assembly of the wicked have inclosed me: they pierced my hands and my feet.

16 I may tell all my bones: they look and stare upon me.

17 They part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.

18 But be not thou far from me, O L. o. o.

19 My strength, haste thee to help me.

20 Deliver my soul from the sword; my darling from the power of the dog.

21 Save me from the hands of the ungodly, O L. o. o.

22 I will declare thy name unto my brethren.

in the midst of the congregation will I praise thee.

23 For they that fear the L. o. o. shall him; all ye the seed of Jacob, glorify him; and fear him, all ye the seed of Israel.

24 For he hath not despised, nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted: neither hath he hid his face from him, but when he cried unto him, he heard.

25 My praise shall be of thee in the great congregation: I will pay my vows before them that fear him.

26 The meek shall eat and be satisfied: they shall praise the L. o. o. that seek him: your heart shall live for ever.

27 All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the L. o. o.: and all the kingdoms of the nations shall worship before thee.

28 For the kingdom is the L. o. o. most and he is the governor among the nations.

29 All they that be set upon earth, shall eat and worship: all they that go down to the dust, shall bow before him, and now can keep alive his own soul.

30 A seed shall serve him: it shall be accounted to the L. o. o. for a generation.

31 They shall come, and shall declare his righteousness unto a people that shall be born, that he hath done this.

PSAL. XXIII.

David's confidence in God's grace.

A psalm of David.

The L. o. o. is my shepherd, I shall want.

2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou increasest my head with oil, my cup runneth over.

6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the L. o. o. for ever.

PSAL. XXIII.

1 God's lawship in the world. 3 The citizens of his spiritual king-dome. 7 An exhortation to receive him.

A psalm of David.

The earth is the L. o. o.'s, and the fulness thereof, the world, & they that dwell therein.

2 For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the clouds.

3 Who shall ascend into the hill of the L. o. o.? and who shall stand in his holy place?

4 For he that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who hath not lift up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully.

5 He shall receive the blessing from the L. o. o., and righteousness from the God of his salvation.

6 This is the generation of them that seek him, that seek thy face, O Jacob. Selah.

7 Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up, ye threshold doors, and the King of glory shall come in.

8 Who is this King of glory? the L. o. o. strong & mighty, the L. o. o. mighty in battle.

PSAL XXV.

1 David's confidence in prayer. 7 He prayeth for remission of sinne, 16 and for help in affliction.

A Psalm of David.

Unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.
2 O my God, I trust in thee, let me not be ashamed: let not mine enemies triumph over me.

3 Vea, let none that wait on thee be ashamed; let them be ashamed which transgress without cause.

4 Shew me thy wayes, O Lord; teach me thy pathes.

5 Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation, on thee do I wait all the day.

6 Remember, O Lord, thy tender mercies, and thy loving kindnesses: for they have been ever of old.

7 Remember not the sinnes of my youth, nor my transgressions: according to thy mercy remember thou me, for thy goodness sake, O Lord.

8 Good and upright is the Lord: wherefore will he teach sinners in the way.

9 The meek will he guide in judgement: and the meek will he reach his way.

10 All the paths of the Lord are mercy and truth, unto such as keep his covenant, and his testimonies.

11 For thy names sake, O Lord, pardon mine iniquity: for it is great.

12 What man is he that feareth the Lord? him shall he reach in the way that he shall choose.

13 His soul shall dwell at ease: and his rest shall inherit the earth.

14 The secret of the Lord is with them that fear him: and he will shew them his covenant.

15 Spine eyes are ever towards the Lord: for he shall pluck my feet out of the net.

16 Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me: for I am desolate and afflicted.

17 The troubles of my heart are enlarged: dying thou me out of my distresses.

18 Look upon mine affliction, and my pain, and forgive all my iniquities.

19 Consider mine enemies: for they are many, and they hate me with cruel hatred.

20 Keep my soul and deliver me: let me not be ashamed, for I put my trust in thee.

21 Let integrity and uprightness make me: for I wait on thee.

22 Redeem Israel, O God, out of all his troubles.

PSAL XXVI.

David rejoiceth unto God, in confidence of his integrity.

A Psalm of David.

Judge me, O Lord, for I have walked in mine integrity: I have trusted also in the Lord: nor therefore I shall not slide.

2 Examine me, O Lord, and probe me; try me and my heart.

3 For thy loving kindness is before mine eyes: and I have trusted in thy truth.

4 I have not like unto other persons, neither will I go in with dissimulators.

5 I have hated the congregation of evil doers: and will not sit with the wicked.

6 I will wash mine hands in innocency: with a compass shall I gird me, O Lord.

7 That I may publish with the voice of thanksgiving, and tell of all thy wondrous works.

8 Lord, I have loved the habitation of thy house, and the place where thine honour dwelleth.

9 Gather not my soul with sinners, nor my life with bloody men:

10 In whose hands is mischief, and their right hand is full of bribes.

11 But as for me, I will walk in mine integrity: redeem me, and be merciful unto me.

12 My foot standeth in an even place: in the congregations will I bless the Lord.

PSAL XXVII.

1 David sustineth his faith by the power of God, 4 by his love to the service of God, 9 by prayer.

A Psalm of David.

The Lord is my light, and my salvation, whom shall I fear? the Lord is the strength of my life, of whom shall I be afraid?

2 When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.

3 Though in host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: though wars should rise against me, in this will I be confident.

4 One thing have I desired of the Lord, that will I seek after, that I may dwell in the house of the Lord all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the Lord, and to inquire in his temple.

5 For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me, he shall set me up upon a rock.

6 And now shall mine head be lifted up, because mine enemies round about me: therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy, I will sing, yea, I will sing psalms unto the Lord.

7 Hear, O Lord, when I cry with my voice: have mercy also upon me, and answer me.

8 When thou shalt bid, O Lord, I will answer: when thou shalt bid, O Lord, I will answer.

9 Hide not thy face far from me, nor the servant away in anger: thou hast been my help, leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

10 When my father and my mother forsake me, then the Lord will take me up.

11 Teach me thy way, O Lord, and lead me in a plain path, because of mine enemies.

12 Deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies: for false witness are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty.

13 I had fainted, unless I had believed in the goodness of the Lord in the time of my distress.

14 Wait on the Lord: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the Lord.

PSAL XXVIII.

David prayeth earnestly against his enemies, 6 He bleisseth God, 9 He prayeth for the people.

19 O how great is thy goodnesse, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee; which thou hast bought for them that trust in thee, before the sonnes of men!

20 Thou shalt hide them in the secret of thy presence from the pride of man: thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.

21 Blessed be the Lord; for he hath shewed me his marvellous kindenesse, in a strong city.

22 For I said in my haste, I am cut off from before thine eyes: nevertheless thou heardest the voice of my supplications, when I cried unto thee.

23 O love the Lord, all ye his saints: for the Lord preferreth the faithfull, and plentifully rewardeth the good doer.

24 Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your heart, all ye that hope in the Lord.

PSAL. XXXII.

1 Blessednesse consisteth in remission of sinnes, 3 Confession of sinnes giveth ease to the conscience, 8 Gods promise bring joy.

A psalme of David, Bathil.

Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sinne is covered.

2 Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord imputeth not iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile.

3 When I kept silence, my bones waxed old; through my roaring all the day long.

4 For day and night the hand was heavy upon me: my moisture is turned into the drought of summer. Selah.

5 I acknowledged my sinne unto thee, and mine iniquities have I not hid: I said I will confess my transgressions unto the Lord; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sinne. Selah.

6 For this shall every one that is godly, pray unto thee, in a time when thou shalt be found: surely in the floods of great waters, they shall not come nigh unto him.

7 Thou art my hiding place, thou shalt preserve me from trouble: thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance. Selah.

8 I will instruct thee, and teach thee the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye.

9 Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule which have no understanding: whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto thee.

10 My sorowes shall be to the wicked: but be thou trusted in the Lord, mercy shall compass him about.

11 Be glad in the Lord, and rejoyce ye righteous: and shout for joy all ye that are upright in heart.

PSAL. XXXIII.

1 God is to be praised for his goodnesse, 6 for his power, 12 and for his providence, 20 Confidence is to be placed in God.

Rejoyce in the Lord, O ye righteous, for praise is comely for the upright.

2 Praise the Lord with harpsing unto him with the psalterie, and an instrument of ten strings.

3 Sing unto him a new song, play skillfully with a loud noise.

4 For the word of the Lord is right: and all his works are done in truth.

5 He loveth righteousness and judgement:

* the earth is full of the goodnesse of the Lord.

6 By the word of the Lord were the heavens made, and all the host of them, by the breath of his mouth.

7 He gathereth the waters of the sea together as an heap: he layeth up the depth in storehouses.

8 Let all the earth fear the Lord: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

9 For he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast.

10 * The Lord bringeth the counsel of the righteous to nought: he maketh the devices of the people of none effect.

11 * The counsel of the Lord standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations.

12 * Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord: and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

13 The Lord looketh from heaven: he beholdeth all the sonnes of men.

14 From the place of his habitation he looketh upon all the inhabitants of the earth.

15 He fashioneth their hearts as he will: he considereth all their doings.

16 There is no king saved by the multitude of an host: a mighty man is not delivered by much strength.

17 An host is a vain thing for safety: neither shall he deliver any by his great strength.

18 * Behold, the eye of the Lord is upon them that fear him: upon them that hope in his mercy.

19 To deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine.

20 Our soul waiteth for the Lord: he is our help and our shield.

21 For our heart shall rejoyce in him: because we have trusted in his holy name.

22 Let thy mercy, O Lord, be upon us according as we hope in thee.

PSAL. XXXIII.

1 David praiseeth God, and exhorteth others thereto by his experience, 8 They are blessed that trust in God, 15 He exhorteth to the fear of God, 15 The privileges of the righteous.

A psalme of David, when he changed his behaviour before Abimelech: who drove him away, and he departed.

I will bless the Lord at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth.

2 My soul shall make her boast in the Lord: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.

3 O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together.

4 I sought the Lord, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears.

5 They looked unto him, and were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed.

6 This poor man cried, and the Lord heard him: and saved him out of all his troubles.

7 The angel of the Lord encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.

8 O taste and see that the Lord is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him.

9 O fear the Lord ye his saints: for there is no want to them that fear him.

10 The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they that seek the Lord shall not want any good thing.

13 Keep the tongue from evil, and the lips from speaking guile.

14 Depart from evil, and do good: seek peace and pursue it.

15 The eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry.

PSAL. XXXV.

1 David prayeth for his own justice, and his enemies confusion. 11 He complaineth of his wrongfull dealing. 22 Thereby he incites God against them.

A psalme of David.

PLead my cause (O Lord) with them that strive with me: fight against them that fight against me.

2 Take hold of shield and buckler, and stand up for mine help.

3 Draw out also the spear, and stop the way against them that persecute me: lay unto my soul,
I am the salvation.

4 Let them be confounded and put to shame that seek after my soul: let them be returned back and brought to confusion that desire my hurt.

5 Let them be as chaff before the wind: and let the angel of the Lord chase them.

6 Let their way be dark and slippery, and let the angel of the Lord persecute them.

7 For without cause have they bin for me their net, in a pit, which without cause they have dig-ged for my soul.

8 Let destruction come upon him for unwarres, and let his net that he hath bin caught himself: in to that very destruction let him fall.

9 And my soul shall be joyful in the Lord:
for he shall rescue me in his salvation.

10 All my bones shall say, Lord, who is like unto thee, which deliverest the poor from him that is too strong for him: yea, the poor and the needy, from him that spoileth him?

11 False witnesses did rise up: they laid to my charge things that I knew not.

12 They rewarded me evil for good, to the point of spoiling of my soul.

13 But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth: I bowed down my soul with fasting, and my prayer returned into mine own bovine.

14 I behaved my self as though he had been my friend, or brother: I bowed down heavelly, as one that mourneth for his mother.

15 But in mine adversity they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together: yea, the abjects gathered themselves together against me, and I knew it not, they did tears me, and ceased not.

16 With hypocritical mockers in feasts: they gnashed upon me with their teeth.

17 Lord, how long wilt thou look on? rescue my soul from their destructions, for my darling from the lions.

18 I will give thee thanks in the great congregation: I will praise thee among thy much people.

19 Let not them that are mine enemies wrongfully rejoyce over me: neither let them wink with the eye, that hate me without a cause.

20 For they speak not peace, but they devise deceitfull matters against them that are quiet in the land.

21 Yea, they opened their mouth wide against me, and said, Ah, Ah, our eye hath seen it.

22 This thou hast seen (O Lord) keep not silence: O Lord, be not farre from me.

23 Stirre up thy self, and awake to my judgement, even unto my cause, my God and my Lord.

24 Judge me, O Lord, as my God, according to thy righteousness, and let them not rejoyce over me.

25 Let them not say in their hearts, I have so would we have it: let them not say, We have swallowed him up.

26 Let them be ashamed and brought to confusion together, that rejoyce at mine hurt: let them be clothed with shame and dishonour that magnifie themselves against me.

27 Let them shout for joy, and be glad, that favour my righteous cause: yea, let them say continually, Let the Lord be magnified, which hath pleasure in the prosperity of his servant.

28 And my tongue shall speak of thy righteou-ness, and of thy praise all the day long.

PSAL. XXXVI.

1 The grievous estate of the wicked. 3 The excellency of Gods mercy. 10 David prayeth for favour to Gods children.

A psalme of David,
the servant of the Lord.

The transgression of the wicked (saith within my heart, that there is no fear of God before his eyes.

2 For he flattereth himself in his own eyes: untill his iniquitie be found to be hateful.

3 The words of his mouth are iniquitie and deceit: he hath left off to be wise, and to do good.

4 He delighteth himself upon his bed, he seteth himself in a way that is not good; he abhorreth not evil.

5 Thy mercy (O Lord) is in the heavens:
thy faithfullness reacheth unto the clouds.

6 Thy righteousness is like thy great mountains: thy judgments are a great deep: O Lord, how excellent is thy name!

7 How excellent is thy loving kindness, O
God! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings.

8 They shall be full abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house: and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.

9 For with thee is the fountain of life: in thy light shall we see light.

10 O Lord, continue thy loving kindness unto David be swaddeth to patience, and confidence in God, by the different estate of the godly and the wicked.

A psalme of David.

Fret not thy self because of evil doers, neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquitie.

2 For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb.

3 Trust in the Lord, and do good, so shall thou dwell in the land, and thy verily thou shalt be fed.

4 Delight thy self also in the Lord; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

5 Commit thy way unto the Lord, and he shall bring it to pass.

6 And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, and thy judgement as the noon-day.

7 Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for him: fret not thy self because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth down the LORD, wicked devices to pass.

8 Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: free not thy self in any wise to do evil.

9 For evil doers shall be cut off: but those that wait upon the Lord, they shall inherit the earth.

10 For yet a little while and the wicked shall not be: yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be.

11 But the meek shall inherit the earth: and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

12 The wicked plotted against the just, and gnashed upon him with their teeth.

13 The Lord shall laugh at him, for he hath seen that his day is coming.

14 The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow to cast down the poor and needy, and to slay him as he of upright conversation.

15 Their arrow shall enter into their own heart, and their bow shall be broken.

16 A little that a righteous man hath, is better than the riches of many wicked.

17 For the arms of the wicked shall be broken: but the Lord shall uphold the righteous.

18 The Lord knoweth the dayes of the upright: and their inheritance shall be for ever.

19 They shall not be ashamed in the evil time: and in the dayes of famine they shall be satisfied.

20 But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of the Lord shall be as the fat of the lambes, they shall consume; into smoke shall they consume away.

21 The wicked borroweth, and payeth not again: but the righteous giveth mercy and giveth.

22 For such as be blessed of him, shall inherit the earth: and they that be cursed of him, shall be cut off.

23 The steps of a good man are ordered by the Lord, and he shall delight in his way.

24 Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down: for the Lord shall uphold him with his hand.

25 I have been young and now am old: yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread.

26 He is tender merciful, and lendeth: and his seed is blessed.

27 Depart from evil, and do good: and dwell for evermore.

28 For the Lord is to be loved judgement, and forsaketh not his saints, they are preserved for ever: but the seed of the wicked shall be cut off.

29 The righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell therein for ever.

30 The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom, and his tongue talketh of judgement.

31 The law of his God is in his heart, none of his steps shall slide.

32 The wicked watcheth the righteous, and seeketh to slay him.

33 The Lord shall not leave him in his hand, nor condemn him when he is judged.

34 Wait on the Lord, and keep his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land: when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it.

35 I have seen the wicked in great power, and spreading himself like a green bay-tree.

36 But he passed away, and lo he was not: yea, I sought him, but he could not be found.

37 Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright: for the end of that man is peace.

38 But the transgressors shall be destroyed together, the end of the wicked shall be cut off.

39 But the salvation of the righteous is of the Lord, he is their strength in the time of trouble.

40 And the Lord shall help them, and deliver them: he shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them because they trust in him.

PSAL. XXXVIII.

David moveth God to take compassion of his painful case.

A psalme of David to bring to remembrance.

LORD, rebuke me not in thy wrath: neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.

2 For thine arrows stick fast in me, and thy hand presseth me sore.

3 There is no soundness in my flesh, because of thine anger: neither is there any rest in my bones, because of my sinne.

4 For mine iniquities are gone over my head: as an heaue burden they are too heavy for me.

5 My wounds stink, and are corrupt: because of my foolishness.

6 I am troubled, I am bowed down greatly: I go mourning all the day long.

7 For my loynes are filled with a loathsome disease: and there is no soundness in my flesh.

8 I am feeble and sore broken: I have roared by reason of the bitterness of my heart.

9 LORD, all my desire is before thee: and my groaning is not hid from thee.

10 My heart is pained, my strength faileth me: as for the light of mine eyes, it also is gone from me.

11 My lovers and my friends stand aloof from my sorow: and my kindred stand a farre off.

12 They also that seek after my life, lay snares for me: and they that seek my hurt, speak unchasteous things, and imagine deceits all the day long.

13 But I, as a deaf man, heard not: and I was as a dumb man that openeth not his mouth.

14 Thus I was as a man that heareth not, and in whose mouth are no reproches.

15 For I in thee, O Lord, do I hope: thou wilt heare, O Lord, my voice.

16 For I said, Heare me: lest otherwise they should say,

17 For I am ready to go forth, and my sorrows continually before me.

18 For I will declare mine iniquities; I will be loy for my sin.

19 But mine enemies are idle, and they are strong; and they that hate me wrongfully are multiplied.

20 They also that render evil for good, are mine adversaries: because I follow the thing that is good.

21 For sake me not, O Lord: O my God be not farr from me.

PSAL. XXXIX.

1 David's care of his thoughts; 4 The consideration of the brevity and vanity of life. 7 The reverence of God's judgement; 10 and prayer, are his bridles of impatience.

I said, I will take heed to my ways, that I sinne not with my tongue: I will keep my mouth with a bridle, while the wicked is before me.

2 I was dumb with silence, I held my peace, even from good, and my sorrows were stirred.

3 My heart was hot within me, while I was musing the fire burned: then spake I with my tongue.

4 Lord, make me to know mine end, and the measure of my dayes, what it is: that I may know how frail I am.

5 Behold, thou hast made my dayes as an hand-breadth, and mine age is as nothing before thee: verily every man at his best state is altogether vanity. Selah.

6 Surely every man walketh in vain shew: surely they are disquieted in vain: he heapech up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather them.

7 And now Lord, what wait I for? my hope is in thee.

8 Deliver me from all my transgressions, make me not the rewarde of the foolish.

9 I was dumb, I opened not my mouth; because thou dost it.

10 Remove thy stroke away from me: I am consumed by the blow of thine hand.

11 Wherein thou wilt rebuke those correct me for: iniquities, thou makest his beauty to consume away like a moth: surely every man is vanity. Selah.

12 Hear my prayer, O Lord, and give ear unto my cry, hold not thy peace at my tears: for I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner, as all my fathers were.

13 O spare me, that I may recover strength, before I go hence, and be no more.

PSAL. XLI.

1 The benefit of confidence in God. 6 Obedience is the best sacrifice. 11 The sense of David's guiltiness, flammeth his prayer.

† Heb. in waiting I waited.

† Heb. a pit of gall.

¶ To the chief musician, A psalm of David.

I waited patiently for the Lord, and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.

2 He brought me up also out of a horrible pit, out of the mire, clay, and set my feet upon a rock, and stablished my goings.

3 And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God: many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in the Lord.

4 Blessed is that man that maketh the Lord his trust, and respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

5 Many, O Lord, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, & thy thoughts which are to usward: but they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered.

6 Sacrifice and offering thou dost not desire, mine ears hast thou opened: burnt-offering and flame-offering hast thou not required.

7 When said I, Lord, I come: in the volume of the book it is written of me:

8 I delight to do thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is within my heart.

9 I have preached righteousness in the great congregation: lo, I have not restrained my lips, O Lord, thou knowest.

10 I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart, I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy loving kindness, and thy truth, from the great congregation.

11 Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O Lord: let thy loving kindness and thy truth continually preserve me.

12 For innumerable evils have compassed me about, mine iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up: they are more than the hairs of mine head, therefore my heart faileth me.

13 Be pleased, O Lord, to deliver me: O Lord, make haste to help me.

14 Let them be ashamed and confounded together, that seek after my soul to destroy it: let them be driven backward, and put to shame that wish me evil.

15 Let them be desolate for a reward of their shame, that say unto me, Ah, ah.

16 Let all those that seek thee, rejoice, and be glad in thee: let such as love thy salvation, say continually, The Lord be magnified.

17 But I am poor and needy, yet the Lord thought upon me: thou art my help and my deliverer, make no tarrying, O my God.

PSAL. XLI.

1 Gods care of the pious. 4 David complaining of his enemies treachery. 10 He fleeth to God for succour.

¶ To the chief musician, A psalm of David.

Blessed is he that considereth the poor: the Lord will deliver him in time of trouble.

2 The Lord will preserve him, and keep him alive, and he shall be blessed upon the earth; and thou wilt not deliver him into the hand of his enemies.

3 The Lord will strengthen him upon the bed of languishing: thou wilt make all his bed in his sickness.

4 I said, Lord, be mercifull unto me, heal my soul, for I have sinned against thee.

5 Mine enemies speak evil of me: when shall be this, and his name perished?
